Descripción de los hechos: Yo no dejé en libertad al susodicho chucho, sino que, aprovechando que me encontraba firmando el recibo de un envío por correo en la puerta de mi casa, el animal aprovechó para escapárseme, sin que mis piernas de octogenario y bastante renqueantes fueran capaces de darles alcance. Seguramente había olido a alguna perra en celo (perra canina, por supuesto; no se me malinterprete, por favor). Siempre le quedará a usted el recurso del embargo de mis bienes, los cuales, para ahorrarse molestias, señora Hernández Pérez, instructora de causas referidas a perros abandonados, encontrará relacionados en mi testamento. Y además, en verso, ¡mi debilidad!:

Yo, el que suscribe, poeta por la gracia / de mi inadaptable rebeldía, declaro a mis tres hijos / de sangre
universales herederos / de mis bienes:
mi pobre discoteca, /
mis libros y esta triste sonrisa con que quise /
hacer feliz al mundo.
A los otros, innumerable prole,/ lego mi palabra en forma de poesía.

Claro que también puede recurrir al embargo del pobre Maic, lo que no le va a resultar fácil, dado que actualmente, por una serie de circunstancias que no vienen al caso, habita en una aldea perdida cuyo nombre no recuerdo de los montes de Pontevedra.
Lo peor de los políticos, desde los jefes de Gobierno al que le limpia los zapatos al querido de la hermana del jefe de la Guardia Municipal, pasando por los alcaldes mayores, ministros y ministrillos de Comunidad autónoma, consiste en que, tan pronto como son investidos de su 'importancia', pierden ipso facto el sentido del ridículo.

ESTAFALUZ.COM: COBRO EN LA INSTALACIÓN DEL INTERRUPTOR DE CONTROL DE POTENCIA (ICP)

Publicado en estafaluz.com, el capítulo 19 - Nueva estafa masiva: Cobro en la instalación del ICP.

Ya somos conscientes de que la mania de nuestro héroe, Antonio Moreno Alfaro (consistente en empedrar todos sus artículos con archivos pdf y un extenso resumen-repetición de todo lo que ya ha publicado), induce a interrumpir la lectura con un mosqueo perfectamente justificado; pero aconsejamos a los lectores que perseveren y lean completo el artículo, porque en algún momento, lo juramos por el honor de los gatos de tejado que nos precedieron, describe el nuevo timo por la instalación del Interruptor de Control de Potencia (ICP), consistente en cobrarnos diez veces más de lo permitido por ley.

De nada, ya saben que me gusta ser útil.

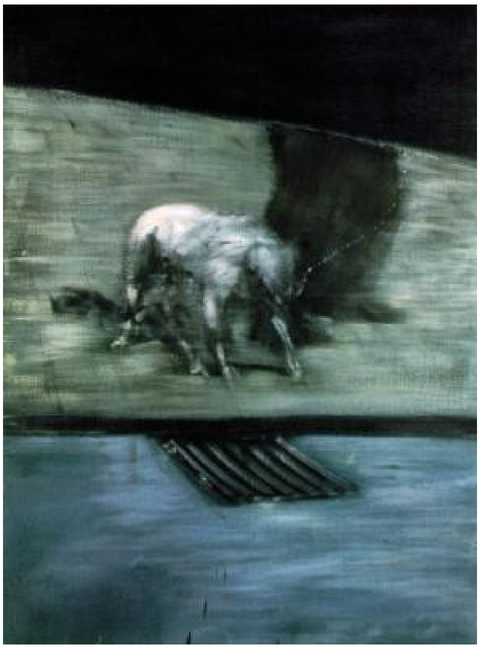
MANUEL BENÍTEZ CARRASCO: EL PERRO COJO



Va por ellos

Con una pata colgando, despojo de una pedrada,
pasó el perro por mi lado,
un perro de pobre casta.
Uno de esos callejeros, pobres de sangre y estampa.
Nacen en cualquier rincón, de perras tristes y flacas, destinados a comer
basuras de plaza en plaza.

Cuando pequeños, qué finos y ágiles son en la infancia, baloncitos de peluche,
tibios borlones de lana,
los miman, los acurrucan,
los sacan al sol, les cantan.
Cuando mayores, al tiempo que ven que se fue la gracia, los dejan a su ventura,
mendigos de casa en casa, sus hambres por los rincones
y su sed sobre las charcas.

Qué tristes ojos que tienen, que recóndita mirada

como si en ella pusieran su dolor a media asta.
Y se mueren de tristeza
a la sombra de una tapia, si es que un lazo no les da una muerte anticipada.

Yo le llamo: psss, psss, psss.
Todo orejas asustadas,
todo hociquito curioso,
todo sed, hambre y nostalgia, el perro escucha mi voz, olfatea mis palabras como esperando o temiendo pan, caricias... o pedradas, no en vano lleva marcado
un mal recuerdo en su pata.
Lo vuelvo a llamar: psss, psss.
Dócil a medias avanza moviendo el rabo con miedo
y las orejitas gachas.

Chasco los dedos; le digo:
"ven aquí, no te hago nada, vamos, vamos, ven aquí".
Y adiós la desconfianza.
Que ya se tiende a mis pies,
a tiernos aullidos habla, ladra para hablar más fuerte, salta, gira; gira, salta;
llora, ríe; ríe, llora;
lengua, orejas, ojos, patas
y el rabo es un incansable abanico de palabras.

Es su alegría tan grande que más que hablarme, me canta.
"¿Qué piedra te dejó cojo?
Sí, sí, sí, malhaya".
El perro me entiende; sabe que maldigo la pedrada, aquella pedrada dura que le destrozó la pata
y él, con el rabo, me dice que me agradece la lástima.
"Pero tú no te preocupes, ya no ha de faltarte nada.
Yo también soy callejero, aunque de distintas plazas
y a patita coja y triste
voy de jornada en jornada.
Las piedras que me tiraron me dejaron coja el alma.

Entre basuras de tierra
tengo mi pan y mi almohada.
Vamos, pues, perrito mío, vamos, anda que te anda,
con nuestra cojera a cuestas, con nuestra tristeza en andas, yo por mis calles oscuras, tú por tus calles calladas, tú la pedrada en el cuerpo, yo la pedrada en el alma
y cuando mueras, amigo, yo te enterraré en mi casa bajo un letrero: «aquí yace un amigo de mi infancia».

Y en el cielo de los perros,
pan tierno y carne mechada, te regalará San Roque
una muleta de plata.
Compañeros, si los hay, amigos donde los haya,
mi perro y yo por la vida:
pan pobre, rica compaña.

Era joven y era viejo;
por más que yo lo cuidaba, el tiempo malo pasado
lo dejó medio sin alma.
Y fueron muchas las hambres, mucho peso en sus tres patas
y una mañana, en el huerto, debajo de mi ventana,
lo encontré tendido, frío,
como una piedra mojada,
un duro musgo de pelo,
con el rocío brillaba.

Ya estaba mi pobre perro muerto de las cuatro patas.
Hacia el cielo de los perros se fue, anda que te anda, las orejas de relente
y el hociquillo de escarcha.
Portero y dueño del cielo
San Roque en la puerta estaba:
ortopédico de mimos,
cirujano de palabras, bien surtido de intercambios con que curar viejas taras.
"Para ti... un rabo de oro;
para ti... un ojo de ámbar;
tú... tus orejas de nieve;

tú... tus colmillos de escarcha.
Y tú, —mi perro reía—, tú... tu muleta de plata".

Ahora ya sé por qué está
la noche agujereada: ¿Estrellas... luceros...? No, es mi perro cuando anda...
con la muleta va haciendo agujeritos de plata.

TESTIMONIO DE TERESA FORCADES: GRIPE A, LO QUE NO QUIEREN QUE SEPAMOS: DOCUMENTAL.

1. DATOS CIENTÍFICOS

- Los dos primeros casos conocidos de la nueva gripe (virus A/H1N1 cepa S-OIV) se diagnosticaron en California (EEUU) el día 17 de abril de 2009 [1]
- La nueva gripe no es nueva porque sea del tipo A, ni tampoco porque sea del subtipo H1N1: la epidemia de gripe de 1918 fue del tipo A/H1N1 y desde 1977 los virus A/H1N1 forman parte de la temporada de gripe de cada año [2]; lo único que es nuevo es la cepa S-OIV [3] [4]
- Un 33% de las personas mayores de 60 años parecen tener inmunidad para el virus de la nueva gripe [5]
- Desde su inicio hasta el 15 de septiembre del 2009, han muerto de esta gripe 137 personas en Europa y 3.559 en todo el mundo [6]; hay que tener en cuenta que cada año mueren en Europa entre 40.000 y 220.000 personas a causa de la gripe [7]
- Tal y como han manifestado públicamente reconocidos profesionales de la salud – entre ellos el Dr. Bernard Debré (miembro del comité nacional de ética de Francia) y el Dr. Juan José Rodríguez Sendín (presidente de la asociación de colegios de médicos del Estado Español) – , los datos obtenidos de la temporada de gripe que ya han pasado los países del hemisferio sur, demuestran que la tasa de mortalidad y de complicaciones de la nueva gripe es inferior a la de la gripe de cada año [8]

2. IRREGULARIDADES QUE HAY QUE EXPLICAR

- A finales de enero del 2009, la filial austríaca de la farmacéutica norteamericana Baxter distribuyó a 16 laboratorios de Austria, Alemania, la República Checa y Eslovenia, 72 Kg. de material para preparar miles de vacunas contra el virus de la gripe estacional; las vacunas tenían que ser administradas a la población de estos países durante los meses de febrero-marzo; antes de que ninguna de estas vacunas fuese administrada, un técnico de laboratorio de la empresa BioTest de la República Checa decidió por su cuenta probar las vacunas en hurones, que son los animales que desde 1918 se utilizan para estudiar las vacunas de la gripe; todos los hurones vacunados murieron; se investigó entonces en qué consistía exactamente el material enviado por la casa Baxter y se descubrió que contenía virus vivos de la gripe aviar (virus A/H5N1) combinados con virus vivos de la gripe de cada año (virus A/H3N2); si esta contaminación no se hubiese descubierto a tiempo, la pandemia que sin base real están anunciando las autoridades sanitarias globales (OMS) y nacionales, ahora seria una espantosa realidad; esta combinación de virus vivos puede ser especialmente letal porque combina un virus que tiene un 60% de mortalidad pero es poco contagioso (el virus de la gripe aviar) con otro que tiene una mortalidad muy baja pero con una gran capacidad de contagio (un virus de los de la gripe de cada año) [9]

- El 29 de abril del 2009, cuando hacía sólo 12 días que se habían detectado los dos primeros casos de la nueva gripe, la Dra. Margaret Chan, directora general de la OMS, declaró que el nivel de alerta por peligro de pandemia se encontraba en fase 5 y ordenó que todos los gobiernos de los estados miembros de la OMS activasen planes de emergencia y de alerta sanitaria máxima; un mes más tarde, el 11 de junio del 2009, la Dra. Chan declaró que en el mundo ya teníamos una pandemia (fase 6) causada por el virus A/H1N1 S-OIV [10]; ¿cómo pudo declarar algo así cuando, de acuerdo con los datos científicos expuestos más arriba, la nueva gripe es en realidad más benigna que la gripe de cada año y, además, no es un virus nuevo y ya existe parte de la población que tiene inmunidad?; lo pudo declarar porque en el mes de mayo la OMS había cambiado la definición de pandemia; antes de mayo del 2009 para poder declarar una pandemia era necesario que muriese a causa de un agente infeccioso una proporción significativa de la población; este requerimiento – que es el único que da sentido a la noción clínica de pandemia y a las medidas políticas que se le asocian – fue eliminado de la definición el mes de mayo del 2009 [11], después que el 26 de abril los EEUU se hubiesen declarado en "estado de emergencia sanitaria nacional", cuando en todo el país sólo había habido 20 personas infectadas de la nueva gripe y ninguna de ellas había muerto [12]

3. CONSECUENCIAS POLÍTICAS DE LA DECLARACIÓN DE "PANDEMIA'

- En el contexto de una pandemia es posible declarar la vacuna obligatoria para determinados grupos de personas o incluso para el conjunto de los ciudadanos [13]

- ¿Qué le puede ocurrir a una persona que decida no vacunarse? Mientras no se haya decretado que la vacuna es obligatoria, no le puede ocurrir nada; ahora bien, si llegase a decretarse la obligatoriedad, el estado tiene la obligación de hacer cumplir la ley imponiendo multa o prisión (en el estado de Massachussetts la multa propuesta para este caso podría llegar a los 1.000 dólares por día que pasa sin que te vacunes [14])

- Frente a esto, hay quien puede pensar: si me obligan, pues me vacuno y ya está, total, la vacuna es más o menos como la de cada año, tampoco hay para tanto…

- Es necesario que se sepa que hay tres novedades que hacen que la vacuna de la nueva gripe sea diferente a la de cada año: la primera novedad es que la mayoría de los laboratorios están diseñando la vacuna de manera que con una sola inyección no sea suficiente y sean necesarias dos; la OMS recomienda también que no se deje de administrar la vacuna de la gripe estacional; quién siga estas recomendaciones de la OMS se expone a ser inyectado tres veces; esto es una novedad que teóricamente multiplica por tres los posibles efectos secundarios, pero en realidad nadie sabe qué efectos puede causar, pues nunca antes se había hecho algo así. La segunda novedad es que algunos de los laboratorios responsables han decidido añadir a la vacuna coadyuvantes más potentes que los utilizados hasta ahora en la vacuna anual; los coadyuvantes son sustancias que se añaden a la vacuna para estimular el sistema inmunitario; la vacuna de la nueva gripe que está fabricando el laboratorio Glaxo-Smith-Kline, por ejemplo, contiene un coadyuvante llamado AS03 (una combinación de escualeno y polisorbato que multiplica por diez la respuesta inmunitaria; el problema con esto es que nadie puede asegurar que este estímulo artificial del sistema inmunitario no provoque enfermedades auto inmunitarias graves al cabo de un tiempo (como la parálisis ascendente de Guillain-Barré) [15]; y la tercera novedad, que distingue la vacuna de la nueva gripe de la vacuna de cada año, es que las compañías farmacéuticas que la fabrican están exigiendo a los estados que firmen acuerdos que les proporcionen impunidad en caso de que las vacunas tengan más efectos secundarios de los previstos (ej: está previsto que la parálisis de Guillain-Barré afecte a unas 10 personas de cada millón que se vacunen); los EEUU ya han firmado un acuerdo que libera tanto a los políticos como a las farmacéuticas de toda responsabilidad por los posibles efectos secundarios de la vacuna [16].

UNA REFLEXIÓN

Si el envío de material contaminado que fabricó la casa Baxter en enero no hubiese sido casualmente descubierto, se habría producido efectivamente la gravísima pandemia con el potencial de causar la muerte de millones de personas que algunos están anunciando. Es inexplicable la falta de resonancia política y mediática de lo que ocurrió en febrero en el laboratorio checo. Aún es más inexplicable el grado de irresponsabilidad demostrado por la OMS, por los gobiernos y por las agencias de control y prevención de enfermedades en declarar una pandemia y promover un nivel de alerta sanitaria máxima sin base real. Es irresponsable e inexplicable hasta extremos inconcebibles la billonaria inversión de euros obtenidos del erario público destinados a fabricar millones y millones de dosis de vacuna contra una pandemia inexistente, mientras no hay suficiente dinero para ayudar a millones de personas (más de 5 millones sólo en los EEUU) que a causa de la crisis han perdido su trabajo y su casa.
Mientras no se aclaren estos hechos, el riesgo de que puedan distribuirse vacunas contaminadas este invierno y el riesgo de que puedan llegar a adoptarse medidas legales coercitivas para forzar la vacunación, son riesgos reales que en ningún caso hay que infravalorar.

En caso de que la gripe siga tan benigna como hasta ahora, no tiene ningún sentido exponerse al riesgo de recibir una vacuna contaminada o de sufrir una parálisis de Guillain-Barré.

En caso de que la gripe se agrave de forma inesperada, como ya hace meses que anuncian sin tener ninguna base científica un número sorprendente de altos cargos – entre ellos la directora general de la OMS –, y de repente empiecen a morir a causa de la gripe muchas más personas de lo que es habitual, aún tendrá menos sentido dejarse presionar para vacunarse, porque una sorpresa así sólo podrá significar dos cosas: 1. que el virus de la gripe A que ahora circula ha sufrido una mutación; 2.- que está circulando otro (u otros) virus. En ambos casos la vacuna que se está preparando ahora no serviría para nada y, teniendo en cuenta lo que ocurrió en enero con la casa Baxter, pudiera ser que incluso fuera la vía de transmisión de la enfermedad.

UNA PROPUESTA

Mi propuesta es clara:

- Además de mantener la calma, tomar precauciones sensatas para evitar el contagio y no dejarse vacunar, cosa que ya proponen muchas personas con sentido común en nuestro país.

- Hago un llamamiento a activar con carácter urgente los mecanismos legales y de participación ciudadana necesarios para asegurar de forma rotunda que no se podrá forzar a nadie en nuestro país a ser vacunado en contra de su voluntad, y que los que decidan libremente vacunarse no serán privados del derecho a exigir responsabilidades, ni del derecho a ser compensados económicamente (ellos o sus familiares) en caso que la vacuna les cause una enfermedad grave o la muerte.

Hoy he visto en el telediario que ya están listas para ser inyectadas las suficientes dosis para vacunar a 1/3 del continente africano de forma gratuita.
El problema aun no está resuelto, quien va a alertar a toda esa gente ?
Espero que los medios hagan un buen seguimiento de esta vacunacion masiva inminete.
España solo exige que la vacuna sea en una sola dosis.¡Menuda gilipollez!

MONCHO CANTA "SOY LO PROHIBIDO", DE ROBERTO CANTORAL

Soy ese vicio de tu piel que ya no puedes desprender
Soy lo prohibido
Soy esa fiebre de tu ser que te domina sin querer

Soy lo prohibido
Soy esa noche de placer, la de la entrega sin papel
Soy tu castigo Porque en tu falsa intimidad, en cada abrazo que le das
Sueñas conmigo
Soy el pecado que te dio nueva ilusión en el amor
Soy lo prohibido
Soy la aventura que llegó para ayudarte a continuar En tu camino
Soy ese beso que se da sin que se pueda comentar Soy ese nombre que jamás fuera de aquí pronunciarás Soy ese amor que negarás para salvar tu dignidad
Soy lo prohibido

SUGERENCIAS PARA EL DICCIONARIO DE LA RAE: CON EL MISMO TRASERO...

A Alimaña News (redactor-jefe) , con mi añoranza.

No suele ser pacata y cicatera la RAE a la hora de aceptar las nuevas aportaciones que el uso consagra. No obstante, humildemente, echo de menos la inclusión de "con el mismo -o distinto- trasero," junto a otras muchas variantes que han aceptado y se usan con profusión -alabado sea el pujante caudal del desparpajo patrio-, sobre todo, teniendo en cuenta que hasta un ministro ha decidido pedir que "no se midan con distinto trasero los acontecimientos".
Los ilustres académicos de la RAE no dudan a la hora de errar, corregirse, descartar y, más tarde, aceptar lo inaceptable:

"Las cifras hablan por sí solas: dos tercios de los artículos registrados en la anterior edición han sido enmendados en mayor o menor medida, 55 442 exactamente, y a ellos se han añadido 11 425 nuevas entradas, 24 819 nuevas acepciones y 3896 formas complejas.
Con su reconocida autoridad en materia léxica, la Academia incorpora a su Diccionario no solo aquello que responde a lo que se ha llamado el genio de la lengua, sino, también, ajena a un purismo trasnochado, otro tipo de innovaciones..." 1

Más abajo, dejo a su consideración otros ejemplos a tener en cuenta para una próxima edición del Diccionario de la Real Academia Española, para que tengan a bien aceptar lo que está expresado con el mismo trasero, porque la crítica literaria española que fabrica académicos ya lo hace.

Pues no me extranaría que, en cuánto se multiplique este error unos años más,acaben dándolo por bueno.
"El mismo trasero" es el que alguno tienen en la sesera.

Sé que me vas a decir que, qué narices tiene que ver esto con tu post, pero es que ayer fui a consultar sobre la palabra "enaguas" en la página de la Real Academia Española y me dice esto:
"Aviso
La palabra enaguas no está en el Diccionario"

¿Cómo? dije yo, asombrada. Si mi abuela las usaba y mi madre me las ponía de pequeña, y además me parece una palabra la mar de poética y ahora resulta que no existe...
Así que me fui a otro diccionario, en el que confieso tenía menos confianza, y me dice así:

enagua
f. Prenda interior femenina que se usa debajo de la falda. Más en pl.:
se te ven las enaguas.
P. ext., prenda semejante que cubre también el torso:
se te ven los tirantes de la enagua".

Querida Trini:

Aquí:

http://buscon.rae.es/draeI/
puedes buscar las palabras del Diccionario pero en singular, y con minúsculas, porque son tan espabilados los que programaron el buscador no cayeron en la cuenta de que, por ejemplo, enaguas -como bragas- se suele utilizar en plural.

Eso sí, en mi vida he llevado muchas enaguas; pero con tirantes ni una. Los tirantes eran los del viso.

Un abrazo, guapísima

Cuánto mal está haciendo la autocorrección automatica de word al mundo... Dios mío.

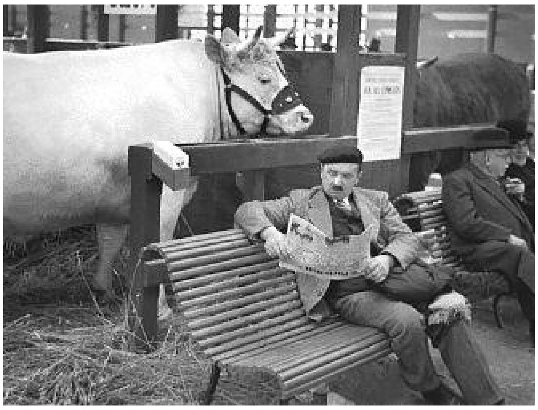
SOMERA CORRECCIÓN DE TEXTO A DON JUAN LUIS CEBRIÁN, ACADÉMICO DE LA RAE



Según Cebrián, "lo que está transformándose es la democracia misma (pleonasmo), porque pasamos (ya que hemos pasado: por consecutio temporum) de un modelo de democracia representativa a un modelo de democracia participativa, en cierta medida (idiotismo) asamblearia y un poco caótica, precisamente (galicismo) debido (error de concordancia de género y número) a las nuevas tecnologías. Mientras sigua (error tipográfico) existiendo la democracia representativa, y espero que lo (sobra este acusativo con el verbo existir) siga por muchos años, el sistema de partidos, los medios de comunicación y los periódicos como elementos reflexivos, (chorrada semántica) forman parte esenciales. (error de concordancia de número. Falta además el complemento para saber de qué forman parte). Si empeoran los medios (falta complemento del nombre) empeora la calidad de la democracia".

Don Juan Luis Cebrián: Su prosa es caótica, asamblearia y montaraz, de gramática insurrecta, y lógica y sintaxis amotinadas. Y, desde el principio hasta el epifonema, tiene la consistencia argumental de un soufflée.
Háganos un favor: ejercite el magisterio de la lengua: dedíquese a la cunilingus.

De nada, ya saben que me gusta ser útil.

Genial, tío. A mí también me divierte mucho esto de corregir las "cosas" que veo por ahí (la verdad es que ahora casi todo son "cosas") y me lo he pasado de película. De todas formas, que el cebrián es un ignorante y como para echarle de comer aparte..., hombre, yo creí que eso estaba claro de sobra. Suficientes méritos ha hecho durante los años precedentes.

MANUEL DICENTA RECITA LAS COPLAS A LA MUERTE DE SU PADRE, DE JORGE MANRIQUE

Archivos de audio con el poema completo, recitado por Manuel Dicenta:
Audio I

Recuerde el alma dormida, avive el seso y despierte, contemplando
cómo se passa la vida, cómo se viene la muerte tan callando;
cuán presto se va el plazer,

cómo después, de acordado, da dolor;
cómo, a nuestro parescer, cualquiera tiempo passado fue mejor.

Y pues vemos lo presente
cómo en un punto s'es ido
y acabado, si juzgamos sabiamente, daremos lo no venido
por passado.
No se engañe nadie, no, pensando que ha de durar
lo que espera,
más que duró lo que vio,
porque todo ha de passar por tal manera.

Nuestras vidas son los ríos que van a dar en la mar que es el morir;
allí van los señoríos derechos a se acabar
y consumir;
allí los ríos caudales,
allí los otros, medianos
y más chicos,
i llegados son iguales
los que viven por sus manos
y los ricos.

*Audio II

Dexo las invocaciones de los famosos poetas
y oradores;
no curo de sus ficciones, que traen yerbas secretas
sus sabores.
A Aquél solo me encomiendo, Aquél solo invoco yo,
de verdad,
que en este mundo viviendo el mundo no conosció su deidad.

Este mundo es el camino para el otro, que es morada sin pesar;
mas cumple tener buen tino para andar esta jornada sin errar.

Partimos cuando nascemos, andamos mientra vivimos,
y llegamos
al tiempo que fenescemos;
assí que, cuando morimos, descansamos.

Este mundo bueno fue si bien usáremos dél como debemos,
porque, según nuestra fe, es para ganar aquél que atendemos.
Y aun el hijo de Dios, para sobirnos al cielo,
descendió
a nascer acá entre nos y vivir en este suelo
do murió.

Ved de cuán poco valor son las cosas tras que andamos y corremos, que, en este mundo traidor,
aun primero que muramos,
las perdemos:
dellas deshaze la edad,
dellas casos desastrados que acaescen, dellas, por su calidad,
en los más altos estados desfallescen.

Dezidme, la hermosura, la gentil frescura y tez
de la cara, la color y la blancura
cuando viene la vejez, ¿cuál se para?
Las mañas y ligereza
y la fuerça corporal de juventud, todo se torna graveza
cuando llega al arrabal de senectud.

Pues la sangre de los godos, el linaje y la nobleza
tan crescida, ¡por cuántas vías y modos se sume su gran alteza en esta vida!:
Unos, por poco valer,

por cuan baxos y abatidos que los tienen;
otros que, por no tener,
con oficios no debidos se mantienen.

Los estados y riqueza que nos dexan a deshora ¿quién lo duda?
No les pidamos firmeza, pues que son de una señora que se muda;
que bienes son de Fortuna que revuelve con su rueda presurosa,
la cual no puede ser una,
ni estar estable ni queda
en una cosa.

Pero digo que acompañen
y lleguen hasta la huesa con su dueño:
por esso no nos engañen, pues se va la vida apriessa como sueño.
Y los deleites de acá son, en que nos deleitamos, temporales,
y los tormentos de allá,
que por ellos esperamos, eternales.

Los plazeres y dulçores
desta vida trabajada que tenemos, ¿qué son sino corredores
y la muerte, la celada en que caemos?
No mirando a nuestro daño, corremos a rienda suelta sin parar;
desque vemos el engaño
y queremos dar la vuelta,
no hay lugar.

Si fuesse en nuestro poder tornar la cara fermosa corporal, como podemos hazer
el ánima gloriosa
angelical, ¡qué diligencia tan viva toviéramos toda hora,

y tan presta,
en componer la cativa, dexándonos la señora
descompuesta!

Essos reyes poderosos que vemos por escrituras ya passadas,
con casos tristes, llorosos, fueron sus buenas venturas trastornadas.
Assí que no hay cosa fuerte, que a papas y emperadores
y perlados,
assí los trata la muerte como a los pobres pastores de ganados.

*Audio III

Dexemos a los troyanos, que sus males no los vimos ni sus glorias;
dexemos a los romanos, aunque oímos y leimos
sus historias.
No curemos de saber lo de aquel siglo passado qué fue d'ello;
vengamos a lo de ayer, que también es olvidado
como aquello.

¿Qué se hizo el rey don Juan?
¿Los Infantes de Aragón, qué se hizieron?
¿Qué fue de tanto galán?
¿Qué fue de tanta invención como truxieron?
Las justas y los torneos, paramentos, bordaduras
y cimeras,
¿fueron sino devaneos?,
¿que fueron sino verduras de las eras?

¿Qué se hizieron las damas, sus tocados, sus vestidos, sus olores?
¿Qué se hizieron las llamas de los fuegos encendidos de amadores?
¿Qué se hizo aquel trovar,

las músicas acordadas que tañían?
¿Qué se hizo aquel dançar, aquellas ropas chapadas que traían?

Pues el otro, su heredero, don Enrique, ¡qué poderes alcançaba!, ¡cuán blando, cuán halaguero el mundo con sus plazeres se le daba!
Mas veréis, ¡cuán enemigo, cuán contrario, cuán cruel
se le mostró!;
habiéndole sido amigo, ¡cuán poco duró con él lo que le dio!

Las dádivas desmedidas, los edificios reales
llenos de oro,
las vaxillas tan febridas, los enriques y reales
del tesoro,
los jaezes y caballos
de su gente, y atavíos tan sobrados,
¿dónde iremos a buscallos?;
¿qué fueron, sino rocíos de los prados?

Pues su hermano, el inocente que, en su vida, sucessor se llamó, ¡qué corte tan excelente tuvo y cuánto gran señor que le siguió!
Mas, como fuesse mortal, metióle la muerte luego
en su fragua.
¡Oh, juïzio divinal!, cuando más ardía el fuego echaste agua.

Pues aquel gran Condestable, maestre que conoscimos
tan privado,
no cumple que dél se hable, sino solo que lo vimos degollado.
Sus infinitos tesoros,
sus villas y sus lugares,

su mandar,
¿qué le fueron sino lloros?, ¿fuéronle sino pesares al dexar?

Pues los otros dos hermanos, maestres tan prosperados como reyes, que a los grandes y medianos truxeron tan sojuzgados
a sus leyes;
aquella prosperidad
que tan alto fue subida
y ensalzada, ¿qué fue sino claridad que, estando más encendida, fue amatada?

Tantos duques excelentes, tantos marqueses y condes,
y barones
como vimos tan potentes, di, Muerte, ¿dó los escondes
y traspones?
Y las sus claras hazañas que hizieron en las guerras y en las pazes, cuando tú, cruda, te ensañas, con tu fuerça las atierras
y deshazes.

Las huestes innumerables, los pendones y estandartes
y banderas,
los castillos impugnables, los muros y baluartes
y barreras,
la cava honda, chapada,
o cualquier otro reparo ¿qué aprovecha?
Que si tú vienes airada, todo lo passas de claro con tu flecha.

*Audio IV

Aquél, de buenos abrigo, amado por virtuoso
de la gente, el maestre don Rodrigo Manrique, tan famoso
y tan valiente;
sus grandes hechos y claros

no cumple que los alabe, pues los vieron,
ni los quiero hazer caros, pues el mundo todo sabe cuales fueron.

¡Qué amigo de sus amigos!
¡Qué señor para criados
e parientes!
¡Qué enemigo de enemigos!
¡Qué maestro de esforçados
y valientes!
¡Qué seso para discretos!
¡Qué gracia para donosos!
¡Qué razón!
¡Qué benigno a los sujetos,
y a los bravos y dañosos,
un león!

En ventura, Octavïano; Julio César, en vencer
y batallar;
en la virtud, Africano; Aníbal, en el saber
y trabajar;
en la bondad, un Trajano;
Tito, en liberalidad con alegría;
en su braço, Aurelïano; Marco Atilio, en la verdad que prometía.

Antonio Pío, en clemencia; Marco Aurelio, en igualdad
del semblante;
Adrïano, en elocuencia;
Teodosio, en humanidad
y buen talante;
Aurelio Alexandre fue en disciplina y rigor
de la guerra;
un Costantino, en la fe; Camilo, en el gran amor
de su tierra.

No dexó grandes tesoros, ni alcançó grandes riquezas ni vaxillas, mas hizo guerra a los moros ganando sus fortalezas
y sus villas.
Y en las lides que venció, muchos moros y caballos

se perdieron,
y en este oficio ganó
las rentas y los vasallos que le dieron.

Pues por su honra y estado,
en otros tiempos passados, ¿cómo se hubo?:
Quedando desamparado, con hermanos y criados
se sostuvo.
Después que hechos famosos hizo en esta dicha guerra que hazía,
hizo tratos tan honrosos que le dieron aun más tierra que tenía.

Estas sus viejas estorias que con su braço pintó en la joventud, con otras nuevas victorias agora las renovó en la senectud.
Por su gran habilidad, por méritos y ancianía bien gastada, alcançó la dignidad
de la gran caballería de la Espada.

Y sus villas y sus tierras, ocupadas de tiranos
las halló,
mas por cercos y por guerras,
y por fuerça de sus manos
las cobró.
Pues nuestro Rey natural, si de las obras que obró
fue servido,
dígalo el de Portugal,
y en Castilla quien siguió su partido.

*Audio V

Después de puesta la vida tantas vezes por su ley al tablero, después de tan bien servida la corona de su Rey verdadero, después de tanta hazaña

a que no puede bastar cuenta cierta,
en la su villa de Ocaña vino la Muerte a llamar
a su puerta.

Diziendo: "Buen caballero, dexad el mundo engañoso
e su halago, vuestro coraçón de azero muestre su esfuerço famoso en este trago;
e pues de vida y salud fezistes tan poca cuenta por la fama,
esforçad vuestra virtud para sofrir esta afruenta que os llama.

"No se os faga tan amarga la batalla temerosa que esperáis, pues otra vida más larga
de fama tan glorïosa acá dexáis.
Aunque esta vida de honor tampoco no es eternal ni verdadera,
mas con todo es muy mejor que la otra temporal, perescedera.

"El vivir que es perdurable non se gana con estados mundanales, ni con vida deleitable en que moran los pecados infernales.
Mas los buenos religiosos gánanlo con oraciones
e con lloros;
los caballeros famosos,
con trabajos y aflicciones contra moros.

"E pues vos, claro varón, tanta sangre derramastes
de paganos, esperad el galardón que en este mundo ganastes por las manos;
y con esta confiança,
y con la fe tan entera

que tenéis,
partid con buena esperança, que esta otra vida tercera ganaréis".

Responde el Maestre

"Non gastemos tiempo ya en esta vida mezquina por tal modo, que mi voluntad está conforme con la divina para todo;
y consiento en mi morir
con voluntad plazentera, clara e pura,
que querer hombre vivir, cuando Dios quiere que muera, es locura."

Oración

"Tú, que por nuestra maldad tomaste forma servil
e baxo nombre;
Tú, que a tu divinidad juntaste cosa tan vil
como el hombre;
Tú, que tan grandes tormentos sofriste sin resistencia en tu persona;
no por mis merescimientos,
mas por tu sola clemencia, me perdona."

Cabo

Así, con tal entender, todos sentidos humanos
conservados, cercado de su mujer,
e de sus fijos, hermanos,
e criados,
dio el alma a quien se la dio, el cual la ponga en el cielo en su gloria.
Y aunque la vida murió, nos dexó harto consuelo
su memoria.

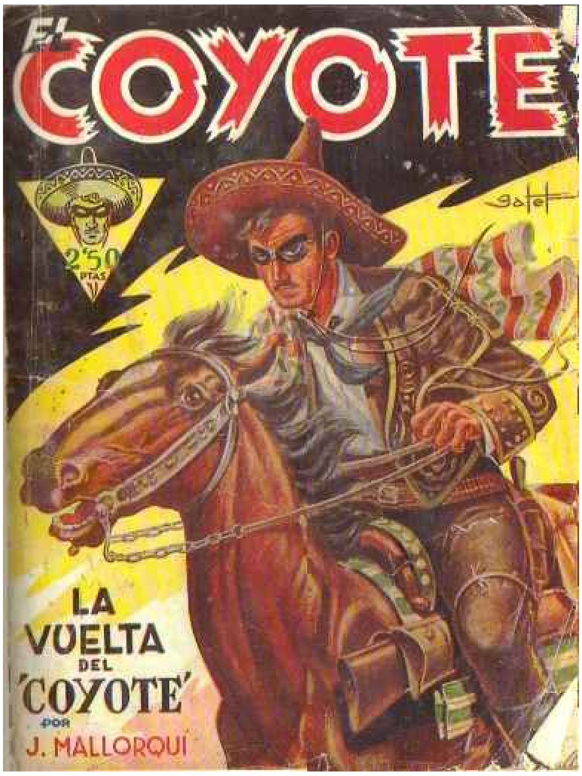
JOSÉ MALLORQUÍ Y GEORGES SIMENON



En mis lecturas, mis amistades y mis lealtades me parece un mal menor incomodar a los biempensantes. Antes, cuando era joven, navegaba interminablemente entre las brumas con las que se protegen los conocidos, y, al cabo de años, descubría las incompatibilidades; ahora suelo ir a lo esencial, y pregunto a bocajarro: "¿Te gustan las novelas de José Mallorquí y las de Simenon?".
Si aparece en los ojos un chisporroteo de dicha al conjuro de esos escritores, si me dicen que “El Coyote” y el comisario Maigret forman parte de sus personajes míticos, ya sé que puedo abrir de par en par la puerta de mi amistad. Si no, nuestra relación quedará en una cortés indiferencia teñida de extrañeza.
José Mallorquí creó el personaje de Don César de Echagüe, un californiano de ascendencia española, un pisaverde, un vividor, cobarde y amanerado, al que le aburre lo que rompa su rutina de rico hacendado, y esa personalidad es su coartada para poder ser en secreto El Coyote, un justiciero sediento de aventuras. Georges Simenon creó al comisario Maigret, un policía de la Sûreté de Paris, que se transmuta para comprender a los implicados de los casos que investiga, y no le interesa tanto conocer los hechos como los resortes y las características humanas que han desencadenado el drama.

Años después de olvidar el argumento, la trama y el desenlace de sus novelas, recuerdo nítidamente los personajes y el ambiente creados por Mallorquí y Simenon. La razón es que no trasparece el autor con su lenguaje, sus ideas, sus preferencias y sus fobias, su sensibilidad y su índice de valores; sino otros, completamente ajenos, coherentes con los personajes, y que los identifican sin fisuras.
Un escritor ha de dejarse poseer por la lógica interna del personaje que retrata, y tanto da si es un asesino brutal o una monja angelical; habrá de ser un médium que escriba al dictado, sin entrometerse para desvirtuar, calificar o contradecir, porque la ficción exige que el escritor aniquile su ego.
José Mallorquí y Georges Simenon fueron escritores a destajo, y publicaron al ritmo endiablado que sus necesidades económicas impusieron. Y, sin embargo, son dos de los autores que puedo releer llena de admiración, sin sentirme estafada jamás.
Ya sé que a quienes sólo lean lo que los eruditos recomiendan, les parecerá un insulto mi admiración por Mallorquí y Simenon... No pienso pedir perdón. Ser impertinente es un privilegio que da la edad.

Actualizado miércoles 23/09/2009 14:34 horas

Y poco a poco, El Corte Inglés iba tomando forma y Candido saciaba la curiosidad de los salmantinos, que no podían ver como iban las obras por las vayas.

En el artículo: ¿Y qué hará ahora 'el mirón de la obra'?, firmado por Juan Borrego, y publicado en El Mundo. Castilla y León, encontramos:

"Y poco a poco, El Corte Inglés iba tomando forma y Candido saciaba la curiosidad de los salmantinos, que no podían ver como iban las obras por las vayas."

Esta Fiscalía contra los delitos ortográficos, exhorta a don Juan Borrego y a su redactor-jefe a escribir cien veces: "Las vallas de las obras no llevan y griega. Cándido y cómo llevan acento", y les condena a copiar con buena letra las siguientes definiciones del Diccionario de la RAE:

vaya*1.
1. f. Burla o mofa que se hace de uno o chasco que se le da. Dar una vaya.
3.ª pers. de sing. del pres. de subj. de ir).
1. interj. U. para comentar algo que satisface o que, por el contrario, decepciona o disgusta. Pablo ha aprobado todas las asignaturas, ¡vaya! No podemos ir al teatro: se ha suspendido la sesión, ¡vaya!
2. interj. U., antepuesta a un sustantivo, en construcciones exclamativas, para conferir sentido superlativo a las cualidades buenas o malas, según sean la entonación y contexto, que se reconocen en la persona o cosa designadas por dicho sustantivo. ¡Vaya mujer! ¡Vaya reloj que te has comprado!
3. interj. U., seguida de la preposición con y de un sintagma nominal, para marcar la actitud, favorable o desfavorable del hablante, matizada muchas veces de ironía, ante la persona o cosa designada por dicho sintagma. ¡Vaya con el niño! ¡Vaya con la musiquita!

valla. (Del lat. valla, pl. de vallum, estacada, trinchera).
1. f. Vallado o estacada para defensa.
2. f. Línea o término formado de estacas hincadas en el suelo o de tablas unidas, para cerrar algún sitio o señalarlo.
3. f. Cartelera situada en calles, carreteras, etc., con fines publicitarios.
4. f. Obstáculo o impedimento material o moral.
5. f. Dep. Obstáculo en forma de valla que debe ser saltado por los participantes en ciertas competiciones hípicas o atléticas.

En caso de reincidencia, se les condenará a copiar también la definición de "baya". Otrosí: se ordena investigar la posible complicidad de sus profesores en el delito de estragos contra el idioma,   y la del Ministerio de Educación y Ciencia como responsable civil subsidiario.

En la copia, los acusados deben utilizar las comillas a la hora de destacar las palabras en que han errado "cómo" y "Cándido". De lo contrario también incurrirán en error ortográfico. Se le olvidó eso al juez Gatopardo. Hablando de errar, qué bien le viene al borrego ese verbo, así sin "h" y todo.

Caballero,reserve las comillas para su prosa, que allí lucen mucho . Es más correcto que los acusados usen cursiva (antigua bastardilla en tipografía).
Por cierto, las comillas se ponen, se usan o se escriben.
No se "utilizan".Espabilao

Sí que andamos finos, Alimaña. Debo darle la razón. "Utilizar" (lo siento, no dispongo de cursiva en este apartado)es "aprovecharse de algo". Pero sigo en mis trece con lo de las comillas. Por cierto, ya veo que tengo fama de pomposo. Le aseguro que hago lo que puedo por seguir a Juan de Valdés. No sea exagerado. No creo que escriba tan alambicado. Y utilice los participios bien. No está usted hablando, sino escribiendo.

DOCTOR CABANÉS: EL ESTIGMA CARACTERÍSTICO DE LA FAMILIA HABSBURGO; SU ORIGEN Y SU PERSISTENCIA

Siempre hemos sentido curiosidad por conocer las características de los personajes que han representado un papel preponderante en la historia; pero, ¿con qué contamos ordinariamente para satisfacerla? Con documentos de autenticidad sospechosa que se contradicen mutuamente, con representaciones idealizadas en que se adivina la preocupación del artista más por adular su modelo que por darnos su fisonomía con precisión realista. Al retocar un retrato, con pretexto de embellecerlo, se corre el riesgo, no sólo de alterar el parecido, sino el de suprimir algún signo que nos permitiría identificar el personaje, y cuya importancia ha sido durante mucho tiempo desconocida. Aquí salimos del campo de la estética para entrar en el de la ciencia.

Consideremos, por ejemplo, una serie de efigies representativas de la reina de Francía, María Antonieta: todas o casi todas acusan entre sí desemejanzas. Está mas o menos embellecida, según el pincel sea más o menos cortesano. Pero, haciendo abstracción de la pintura embellecida, se encuentra, en todas o en casi todas estas imágenes, los signos distintivos de la raza a que perteneció aquella princesa austriaca; principalmente su boca, tan característica, desde el punto de vista de un antropólogo, y que sigue siendo tan de la familia, que aun hoy se encuentra, sin modificaciones apreciables, en la madre de uno de los soberanos reinantes en un país del que nos separa una cadena de montañas, pues no estamos en tiempos en que pueda decirse que no hay Pirineos.

A decir verdad, la tara ancestral está atenuada en María Antonieta, y la barbilla, un tanto pesada, desaparece en un conjunto relativamente gracioso; pero el prognatismo, como decimos en nuestra jerga, es patente [1].

Lo mismo que la hipertrofia, el desarrollo exagerado del labio inferior es innegable, Agréguese a esto una altura anormal de la frente, los globos oculares salientes, como fuera de la órbita, y tendremos los rasgos generales de la dinastía de los Habsburgo, que nos proponemos estudiar desde el punto de vista psicopatológico.

Indudablemente, la transmisión de estas anomalías no ha sido siempre integral: ciertos miembros de la familia han heredado el prognatismo del maxilar y no el labio grueso; otros, el labio sin el saliente de la mandíbula; por consiguiente, no podríamos comprobar la transmisión hereditaria del tipo familiar; desde ahora, y en todo lo que sigue, trataremos de demostrarla.

Se ha escrito, con razón 2, que este carácter teratológico, «tan patente, se ha transmitido con tal constancia, que forma, digámoslo así, parte integrante de esta familia y le imprime carácter». Si hemos elegido a los Habsburgo para el estudio de la herencia morbosa en la historia, es porque con ninguna otra familia real se puede probar con tanta facilidad, gracias precisamente a la constancia de la anomalía facial de la que acabamos de mencionar.

Sin entrar excesivamente en explicaciones técnicas, nos parece oportuno decir cómo se produce el prognatismo inferior al que con tanta frecuencia nos vamos a referir.

Conviene, en primer lugar, definirlo, para lo que recurrimos a voces autorizadas en la materia.

"Entendemos por prognatismo inferior—enuncia el doctor Galippe—la anomalía en virtud de la cual cesa de ser normal por un mecanismo cualquiera de la correspondencia entre los maxilares y los dientes; la mandíbula es proyectada hacia adelante, dejando el maxilar superior más o menos retrasado y dando así a la fisonomía un aspecto que recuerda la deformación que hemos descrito en los perros de presa."

¡No protestéis! La patología comparada tiene sus sorpresas, que, confesémoslo, no dejan en muy buen lugar el prestigio del animal humano. El único privilegio del que el hombre puede envanecerse, si como tal lo tenemos, es el de ser, entre todos los seres vivos, el que está cargado de mayor numero de taras morbosas; no creemos que sea motivo de mostrarse orgulloso.

Es de notar que el desarrollo anormal del maxilar inferior va acompañado frecuentemente de anomalías concomitantes: en algunos casos se observa una desviación del tabique nasal; en otros, la nariz excesivamente alargada o gruesa, sin desviación.

Igualmente se ha observado que muchos prognatos son raquíticos, aunque no puede afirmarse la constancia de este hecho. La lengua misma ofrece un desarrollo anormal, que hace viciosa la pronunciación; esta particularidad se ha señalado en Luis XIII y en Carlos V. Luis XIII tartamudeó durante bastante tiempo.

Recordando que el naturalista Geoffroy Saint-Hilaire ha establecido que los anormales lo son en toda su organización, no es temerario augurar que los individuos afectados de anomalías exteriores las padecen también en su estructura íntima. Aun hay más: las anomalías psíquicas concurren comúnmente con los estigmas físicos; por consiguiente, ni qué decir la importancia que tiene esta noción.

Los especialistas han hecho observar hace ya tiempo que «ciertas anomalías... concurren con gran frecuencia en grupos de sujetos cuyo estado de degeneración no ofrece a nadie dudas» 3

Es creencia corriente la de que el mentón avanzado indica voluntad firme, confundiendo ésta con la obstinación testaruda. En efecto. Los prognatos inferiores son, casi siempre, testarudos o impulsivos, que bajo la influencia de un movimiento de cólera contraen sus maxilares, lo que les da momentáneamente un aspecto feroz; pero esto no les impide ser neurópatas, degenerados. Es de gran interés observar que entre los artistas que han representado a sus personajes, lo mismo en caricatura como en papeles simbólicos, hay uno que merece especial mención: Leonardo da Vinci. No contento éste con recurrir al prognatismo inferior, al querer imprimir a sus caras un carácter feroz, como cuando representa alegóricamente la guerra, o para darles un aire ridículo, como en el retrato de aquella condesa del Tirol, de fealdad repugnante, que él exagera aún más; cuando Leonardo tiene que indicar la bajeza moral del individuo cuyos rasgos dibuja, le asigna el estigma de degeneración que nos ocupa; así procedió con el traidor Judas en su famosa pintura de Milán, La Cena 4

No es aquél una excepción. Entre los primitivos se encuentran ejemplos análogos. Los verdugos de Cristo están representados con enormes bocios, con cicatrices escrofulosas y con deformidades variadas. El doctor Galippe nos señala al efecto las admirables composiciones de Juan de Stradamus, célebre artista flamenco, consagradas a la pasión, muerte y resurrección de Cristo, en las que ciertos soldados o verdugos aparecen en forma de enanos de piernas torcidas, cojos con muletas, individuos raquíticos, afectados, algunos, de prognatismo inferior. Teunier, Van Ostade y otros pintores de la escuela holandesa han usado del mismo artificio con idéntico objeto.

¿Es fatalmente indicio de decadencia intelectual o moral la deformación anatómica o teratológica? Sería temerario pretenderlo y más afirmarlo a priori sin examinar las particularidades psíquicas de cada individuo; lo que sí podemos desde ahora adelantar es que entre los prognatos a los que vamos a pasar revista encontraremos, al lado de casos de imbecilidad o debilidad mental, algunos genios o superhombres, como Carlos V. Pero éste, como su hijo Felipe II y sus descendientes, no estaba exento de taras neuropáticas y de otras clases que oscurecieron en distinto grado sus facultades más brillantes.

Una de las primeras dificultades con que tropezamos en el estudio que vamos a emprender es la falta de veracidad de los documentos iconográficos con que contamos. Se impone la necesidad de la crítica, de operar una selección con frecuencia penosa. ¿Y dónde buscar los documentos? Unos se conservan en las colecciones públicas, en las bibliotecas; éstos son los más abordables; otros se guardan en colecciones privadas y son de más difícil acceso. Alguna vez hemos tenido la suerte de encontrarlos reunidos con motivo de exposiciones, como la del Toisón de Oro, organizada hace algunos años en los salones del palacio del Gobierno provincial de Brujas. Hasta entonces, nunca había sido posible ver simultáneamente los rasgos de un grupo de personajes históricos representados por tantas efigies de todas clases: retratos pintados, miniaturas, medallas, estatuas, estampas, etc., ni hacer su estudio comparativo en tan buenas condiciones 5.

No basta, decíamos hace poco en otro lugar 6, recorrer los museos y las colecciones clásicas de retratos, levantar las esculturas y losas de las tumbas, examinar los sellos, miniaturas, medallas, dibujos, estatuas y bustos representativos de nuestros soberanos; hay que determinar la autenticidad de los personajes que figuran en ellos.

Los escultores y medallistas han sido siempre más sinceros que los pintores. Éstos, por interés o por miedo, han tendido a adular a sus modelos; los grabadores, a su vez, han deformado con frecuencia los retratos al interpretarlos. Con estas reservas, si se encuentra en todas las piezas examinadas una particularidad común —aunque esté atenuada o disimulada—, será forzoso inducir que ha existido; los documentos iconográficos, además, tienen siempre una ventaja sobre los textos impresos: la de que el artista se preocupa menos que el escritor del partido que en el porvenir pueda sacarse de su obra para reconstituir la psicología o, por mejor decir, la psico-fisiología del personaje que se encarga de representar.

Maximiliano I (1459-1519), hijo de Federico III y Leonor de Portugal, tenía diez y ocho años cuando se unió con María de Borgoña. Hay varias representaciones del emperador Maximiliano, en forma de óleos, medallas, monedas o estampas; en todas se ve el prognatismo inferior. Los medallistas y dibujantes, que se pliegan a la realidad más que los pintores, se muestran unánimes en poner de relieve el signo característico de la cara imperial. El dibujo de Alberto Durero, tomado del natural, ofrece todas las garantías para nuestro objeto; en su parte superior derecha, a modo de testimonio de la sinceridad de su lápiz, el artista escribió: « Este es el emperador Maximiliano, que yo, Alberto Durero, he retratado en el castillo de Augsburgo, en su habitación del piso superior, en el año de 1518, el lunes que sigue a la fiesta de San Juan Bautista.» No podía pedirse más precisión.

Debemos desconfiar, sin embargo, de los retratos retocados, según la tradición, varios siglos después de la desaparición del personaje que representan. Con los Habsburgo, especialmente, será prudente no remontarse a una época demasiado antigua, para evitar el peligro de servirse de documentos de autenticidad recusable.

Federico III (1415-1439) es el primer Habsburgo cuya efigie se reconoce como auténtica 7. La medalla que lo reproduce 8 es de una verdad sorprendente; se ve claramente en ella el avance del maxilar inferior y el retraso del labio superior, que encontraremos mucho más acusados en su hijo Maximiliano.

Digamos, de paso, que el emperador Maximiliano tenía en gran estima a su pintor. Se cuenta que un día en que Durero pintaba al fresco, el emperador rogó a uno de sus gentileshombres que se prestara durante unos momentos a que el pintor subiera sobre él para alcanzar al lugar en que debía aplicar el pincel. Como el gentilhombre se mostrara ofendido al recibir aquella orden, Maximiliano le dijo con tono severo: «Yo puedo hacer un noble de un campesino; pero no podría hacer de un noble un pintor como éste » 9.

Aun siendo sobrios en detalles sobre la constitución física de su héroe, los biógrafos de este emperador relatan algunas particularidades que no son indiferentes. «Ya fuese por vicio de organización, o por incuria de su preceptor, el príncipe articuló tan mal hasta la edad de diez años, que su madre, desolada, lo consideraba ya como mudo para toda la vida; pero este defecto desapareció poco a poco, y después Maximiliano brilló siempre por una gran facilidad de elocución» 10.

Lo que sabemos de otra fuente es que Maximiliano era muy instruido y hablaba indiferentemente con los embajadores en alemán, en latín, en italiano o en francés. Compuso varias obras y se le deben varios descubrimientos relativos al arte militar. «Había dotado a su ejército de una artillería formidable; su iconografía nos lo muestra discutiendo con sus fundidores y admirando con la boca abierta un mortero, antecesor de la Fleissige Bertha, el 420 del año 1914» 11.

El emperador Maximiliano pretendió conquistar el renombre de «el más grande capitán de todos los tiempos», aspiración fundada en que le habían profetizado sería un conquistador famoso. La creencia en las predicciones y la afición a lo maravilloso son comunes a los siglos XV y XVI; por consiguiente, no hay pretexto para inducir que tuviese un carácter más o menos místico el que compartía, en suma, las supersticiones de sus contemporáneos; pero sabemos otras particularidades suyas que tienen una relación con la patología.

Atacado, según una frase hecha, tomada del dialecto italiano, della rabbia papale (de la rabia papal), tuvo en un tiempo la idea de abdicar y trocar la corona imperial por la tiara pontificia. En consecuencia, acosó al papa Julio II para que lo adoptase como adjunto en el ejercicio del sacerdocio supremo y le confiriese, atrepellando los derechos del Sacro Colegio, una dignidad de carácter electivo, de la que, por este motivo, no podría disponer el Santo Padre. Recibió el emperador una negativa categórica, y concibió tal resentimiento contra Julio II, que puso en juego todo su crédito y hasta el de su aliado Luis XII para hacer que el Concilio de Pisa depusiera al que había osado resistírsele.

Hay una carta de Maximiliano a su hija que, si no es apócrifa, testimonia sentimientos que en nada se parecen a la humildad. Este curioso autógrafo, fechado en 18 de septiembre de 1511, está concebido en los términos siguientes: «Mañana enviaremos a Roma para buscar la forma de que el papa nos haga su coadjutor, a fin de que, a su muerte, podamos tener asegurado el papado; hecho sacerdote y después santo, os será necesario adorarme después de mi muerte, cuando ya seré glorioso... El papa sufre ahora sus fiebres dobles y no puede durar mucho tiempo...» 12. Como se ha hecho observar justamente, «no era como Carlos V, su nieto, por cansancio de honores, por lo que Maximiliano quería dejar el imperio, sino por apetecer otros honores; en Carlos V la ambición estaba satisfecha; en Maximiliano se renovaba. Bien considerado, el monje de Yuste (Saint Just, dice en el original) fue menos loco que su abuelo.»

Sin hablar más extensamente de sus pre tensiones al papado —Maximiliano, con este propósito, había entrado en relación con los Függer, célebres banqueros, y a fin de obtener de ellos las sumas necesarias para satisfacer su ambición, había de dar como fianza la corona, el cetro de Carlomagno y todos los ornamentos imperiales—, sin insistir más sobre este episodio de su vida, que al menos atestigua un acceso de megalomanía [13], debemos señalar un hecho que pone de manifiesto un desarreglo cerebral que, por otra parte, se mostrará mucho más acusado en los Habsburgo de España.

En Juana la Loca y en casi todos sus descendientes, desde Carlos V a Carlos II, en-contramos la afición por las cosas fúnebres, la tenatofilia, usando un término científico, que es indicio de una perturbación mental para los alienistas. Desde el año 1515, según uno de sus historiadores, que habla con frecuencia en tono panegírico, lo que no disminuye el valor de sus informaciones, Maximiliano llevaba consigo en todos sus viajes un cofre en forma de sepulcro. Este mueble singular estaba siempre colocado en su dormitorio, y con frecuencia se le oía dirigirle la palabra. Las gentes de su séquito estaban convencidas de que allí se guardaba el tesoro del príncipe 14, como si Maximiliano fuese hombre capaz de poseer un tesoro. El cofre era sencillamente un féretro acompañado de todos sus accesorios.

El emperador había dado minuciosas instrucciones para la ejecución de sus funerales; su testamento contenía las disposiciones más singulares: ordenaba que su cuerpo fuese afeitado y depilado, que se le arrancasen todos los dientes antes de la inhumación, para molerlos y reducirlos a cenizas; quería, además, que lo enterrasen con calzoncillos, pues era el más pudibundo de los mortales 15. Este exagerado pudor 16 no impidió a Maximiliano tener varios hijos naturales; se le atribuyen lo menos ocho sobre los que tuvo de legítimo matrimonio.

Como es sabido, su primera mujer fue María de Borgoña, hija de Carlos el Temerario. Sin recordar como terminó éste su vida aventurera ante las murallas de Nancy 17, sin inquietarnos tampoco por la suerte de sus restos 18, no olvidaremos, sin embargo, una particularidad descubierta por el examen anatómico de su esqueleto, muy especialmente de su cráneo: éste presentaba precisamente el prognatismo 19, que tanto nos importa descubrir, dondequiera que lo encontremos, fin de reforzar nuestra tesis. Anotemos, además, que el Temerario tenía el grueso labio inferior que tan frecuentemente acompaña a la anomalía del maxilar.

Este espesor del labio inferior lo encontramos también en el padre del Temerario, Felipe el Bueno, que nos ha sido representado 20 «de regular estatura...» nariz no aguileña, pero larga; frente despejada y amplia... labios gruesos y coloreados, etc. 21. En la de Bruselas existe un vaciado del cráneo de Juan sin Miedo 22, hijo de Felipe el Atrevido; en él se ha comprobado que aquél también tenía la nariz larga, pero sus labios eran delgados. Se parecía más a su madre, Margarita de Flandes, que a su padre Felipe el Atrevido. Margarita tenía «una mandíbula inferior alta y finos labios»23.

En cuanto a Felipe, tanto en el busto que se conserva en la antigua Cartuja de Champmol, en Dijón, como en uno de sus retratos que forma parte de la colección de madame Vaucheret, en París, se ve, sobre todo en el retrato, perfilarse una nariz de respetables proporciones, y bajo la nariz aparece la barbilla saliente, que, sin ser exagerada, está bien manifiesta.

Son fáciles de apreciar los mismos caracteres en el padre de Felipe, Juan el Bueno, cuyo retrato, que data de 1358 ó 1359, es «el primer cuadro que puede, calificarse de bueno y serio como retrato.»

Si nos remontamos hasta Felipe VI de Valois, del que hay una estatua notable en el Museo del Louvre, para examinar uno a uno los abuelos de María de Borgoña, llegamos la conclusión de que si los Valois no han aportado el estigma decadente a los Habsburgo, que ya estaban provistos de él, se lo han reforzado.

Así, «de la serie de seis generaciones que acabamos de enumerar, ni un continuador de la rama, ni un anillo de la cadena se nos escapa. Tenemos los más elocuentes retratos del Temerario; maravillosas efigies de su padre, Felipe el Bueno; Juan nos ha sido conservado en cuadros y miniaturas; principalmente en miniaturas, auténticas y copiosas, Felipe el Atrevido.

De Felipe el Atrevido al rey Juan, su padre, y de Juan a Felipe VI de Valois, no hay interrupción.

Todos, o casi todos, son prognatos, de gruesos labios colgantes; todos anuncian a María de Borgoña y Carlos V» 24.

¿No se ha llegado hasta pretender que alguna efigie del rey San Luis, que estuvo en la Santa Capilla, acusa cierto grado de prognatismo, lo que permitiría atribuir un origen común al prognatismo de los Valois y al de los Borbones?

¿Debemos afirmar, en conclusión, que la boca austríaca es de origen borgoñón, que el prognatismo de los Habsburgo proviene esencialmente de la casa de Borgoña? Se aduce frecuentemente en apoyo de esta opinión una anécdota, contada por Brantôme, que vamos a consignar acompañada de nuestras reflexiones. Después de recordar que la reina María (de Hungría), hermana de Carlos V, había permanecido viuda, «muy joven y muy bella», a pesar de su gran boca, «saliente como la de todos los Austria, y que no se debe, sin embargo, a la casa de Austria, sino a la de Borgoña», el historiógrafo de las Damas galantes de su tiempo narra la historia siguiente:

La reina Leonor (hermana mayor de Carlos V y esposa de Francisco I), de paso en Dijón, fue a practicar sus devociones al monasterio de los Cartujos. Tuvo la curiosidad, un tanto macabra, de ver los cuerpos de sus antepasados borgoñones, y, a fin de complacer el real deseo, se abrieron las tumbas que los encerraban. Algunos estaban tan bien conservados y tan enteros que, viéndoles la boca «gritó repentinamente (citamos el texto de Brantóme): "¡Ahí Creía yo que nuestra boca era austríaca; pero, a lo que veo, se la debemos a María de Borgoña, nuestra abuela y a otros duques de Borgoña, antepasados nuestros. Si veo a mi hermano el emperador, se lo diré, o se lo escribiré»25.

Si hemos de creer a Brantôme, contaba lo que le había oído a una dama que estaba presente cuando la reina Leonor, bien provista de labios también, según la referencia, profirió la exclamación.

Bernard de la Mamroye, autor de villancicos que se han hecho populares, hace observar, al citar el pasaje del escritor del siglo XVI, que el vocablo lofre en el dialecto borgoñón significa «labios gruesos, como se dice que eran los de la casa de Austria.» Evidentemente, el charlatán Brantôme no inspira la suficiente confianza 26 para que se acepten sin comprobación sus aserciones.

¿Cómo pudo contemplar la reina Leonor los rasgos de María de Borgoña en la iglesia de la Cartuja de Dijón, si estos restos se conservan en Brujas? En cuanto a Carlos el Temerario, ¿no se sabe que su tumba está en Nancy, y que Margarita de Flandes está enterrada en Lille? Solos Felipe el Atrevido, Juan Sin Miedo, Margarita de Baviera, Felipe el Bueno e Isabel de Portugal fueron inhumados en el monasterio de Chapmol en Dijón.

De todos modos, podría no discutirse que el espesor del labio inferior y el saliente del maxilar correspondiente se encontraban en los antepasados borgoñones de Carlos V, sin quedar por ello autorizados a decir que «la boca colgante es, como el Toisón de Oro, una creación francesa, dividida por mitad entre España y Austria» (H, Bouchot). Aun sin su unión con los miembros de la familia ducal de Borgoña, es evidente que los Habsburgo habrían conservado e impuesto su estigma familiar » 27.

¿Es heredera la casa de España de una anomalía reforzada por la alianza entre dos representantes de dinastías igualmente afectados de la misma anomalía? El examen iconográfico de los soberanos españoles nos va a permitir contestar esta pregunta.

Ya en el siglo XIV se observa el prognatismo típico en el rey de Castilla Enrique II (1333-1379), cuya estatua funeraria, que se encuentra en la catedral de Toledo, ofrece el conjunto facial conocido: barbilla alta, labio inferior exageradamente desarrollado y nariz alargada. Las mismas particularidades tiene su nieto Juan II, padre de Isabel la Católica. Y ésta, ¿comparte el tipo familiar ? Así lo hace sospechar un cuadro que se conserva en el Museo del Prado. No sería de extrañar que, provistos del prognatismo los ascendientes paternos y maternos de Juana la Loca, ésta lo reprodujese a su vez.

Examinando los retratos de esta última que han figurado en la exposición del Toisón de Oro, así como el que existe en el Museo de Bruselas, no sabríamos qué decir sobre la exactitud de la descripción que nos han hecho de ella:- «Juana tenía la cabeza muy alargada, transversalmente aplanada, la mandíbula inferior más avanzada que la superior, el labio inferior grueso, la nariz larga y los ojos a flor de la cara». Poseía, por consiguiente, todos los caracteres que hoy constituyen el tipo familiar de los Habsburgo. Así, pues, al casarse Juana la Loca con Felipe el Hermoso lleva ya el estigma degenerativo que poseía su cónyuge 28.

La hija de Maximiliano I y María de Borgoña, ¡Margarita de Austria, se parecía a su padre Maximiliano, aun más que su hermano Felipe, y ya hemos visto el grado de prognatismo que presentaba aquél.

Para seguir con fidelidad nuestro programa, hemos de establecer aún la correlación entre las anomalías físicas o anatómicas cuya existencia acabamos de demostrar, con las anomalías psíquicas, primero en los ascendientes y luego en los descendientes de Carlos V.

1 Chateaubriand, en las Mémoires d'autre-tombe (Ed. Biré, t. I, 269) dice: "Jamás olvidaré aquella mirada que tan pronto había de apagarse. María Antonieta, al sonreír, dibujaba tan bien la forma de su boca, que el recuerdo de aquella sonrisa (¡cosa espantosa!) me hizo reconocer la mandíbula de la hija de los reyes, cuando se descubrió la cabeza de la infortunada en las exhumaciones de 1815." El 9 de enero de 1816, en el discurso que pronunció en la Cámara de los Pares, el autor del Genio del cristianismo proclamaba que en el cráneo de la reina, que él había tenido en la mano «aun se podían reconocer los rasgos en quien se manifestaba, con la gracia de la mujer, la majaestad de la reina».

13 El orgullo de Maximiliano era tan grande, escribe el doctor L. Nass (loc. cit.) que hizo componer bajo su propia dirección una serie de dibujos, notablemente ejecutados, por añadidura, para vulgarizar sus proezas. No teniendo gran confianza en sus historiógrafos, y pensando que nunca se está ,bien servido como cuando se sirve uno mismo, dictó a su secretario Marcos Treytsanwein, en 1512, la prosa y los versos que habían de ilustrar su Triunfo. No consta éste de menos de 128 planchas, en las que se ve desfilar, después de todos los símbolos, parábolas y atributos del príncipe, la imponente cohorte de las provincias y pueblos nominalmente sometidos al imperio. Todos los países del mundo, incluso los negros de Calicut, estaban presentes. El megalómano se contentaba, con justo motivo, con aquella apariencia de dominio.

LOS PROFESORES NO HAN SIDO PROCESADOS POR HABERLE CAUSADO UNA GRAVE INCAPACIDAD

En el artículo: "Vejada y muerta una joven de 16 años", Lydia Garrido, que ha sufrido durante años la escolarización forzada y los cursos universitarios obligatorios para ser periodista, escribe:

"Las propietarias de un bar ubicado junto al domicilio explicaron que alrededor de las ocho de la mañana entró un chico que vive en el primer piso del edificio y, muy nervioso, contó que había tropezado con la joven, que vivía en el sexto, a unos policías locales que salían en ese momento de servicio."

Hasta el momento, la Fiscalía no ha procesado a sus profesores por fraude contractual y mala praxis profesional. Y tampoco, al Ministerio de Educación como responsable civil subsidiario por haberle causado a Lydia Garrido una grave incapacidad para redactar con propiedad.

Mº DE ASUNTOS EXTERIORES, Mº DE COOPERACIÓN & ACADEMIA DE ESPAÑA EN ROMA: NO HAN SIDO PROCESADOS NI JUZGADOS LOS RESPONSABLES DEL DESFALCO

El saqueo de las arcas del Estado por parte de coligados sin honor y sin categoría del gobierno de turno en España, la gestión de los asuntos públicos en manos de ineptos y bandarras, y la incapacidad o la complicidad de una prensa que se compra con publicidad institucional y calla cuanto conviene, y la extraña parálisis institucional de la Judicatura a la hora de perseguir a los mangantes de prosapia, ha conseguido lo que parecía imposible: según Transparencia Internacional, la corrupción en España va en camino de convertirnos en un Estado fallido, más próximo a Zimbabue que a los países de nuestro entorno.

Copio literal el Informe del Tribunal de Cuentas sobre la Academia de España, y la Obra Pía española en Roma:

"La fiscalización de los Órganos de la Administración del Estado en la Acción Exterior en Roma, ejercicio 2003, presentó como objetivos: la comprobación de la correcta aplicación a los Presupuestos del Estado de los gastos e ingresos de las Representaciones Diplomáticas Permanentes de España ante la República de Italia y ante la Santa Sede, el Consulado General de España en Roma y la Academia de España en Roma; la verificación del cumplimiento de la legalidad en la gestión de tales gastos e ingresos; y el análisis de los procedimientos de gestión asociados a los mismos implantados por el Ministerio de Asuntos Exteriores y de Cooperación, así como en sus actuaciones en relación con la Obra Pía Española de Roma.

La fiscalización de la tesorería de la Academia de España en Roma se vio afectada por limitaciones al alcance; en particular, por la imposibilidad de efectuar un arqueo de caja, así como por la falta de información en relación con los pagos no contabilizados que figuran como partidas de conciliación en los arqueos de caja del ejercicio 2003 y por la ausencia de procedimientos de control interno que garantizasen la fiabilidad de los registros contables. Estas limitaciones impidieron emitir una opinión sobre los saldos de caja.

En el Informe se señala que los estados financieros y los balances de caja trimestrales de las Representaciones diplomáticas y consulares y de la Academia no representaban fielmente las operaciones de tesorería realizadas.

Respecto al cumplimiento de la legalidad y del control interno, se observaron incumplimientos de la normativa en el área de personal y de tesorería. Así, se incumplió la normativa laboral italiana, al abonarse al personal una paga extraordinaria en lugar de las dos establecidas, lo que tuvo como consecuencia que los trabajadores presentaran numerosas demandas ante los Tribunales, y no abonarse en los plazos establecidos la indemnización por cese. También se incumplió la normativa española reguladora de las contrataciones temporales.

En materia de tesorería se incumplieron en Memoria de Actuaciones del Tribunal de Cuentas en el año 2007 39 la Academia de España en Roma los límites establecidos para efectuar pagos en efectivo; y existían en los órganos fiscalizados cuentas bancarias que carecían de la preceptiva autorización de la Dirección General del Tesoro. Además, por lo que se refiere al control de los gastos e ingresos de las representaciones en el exterior, los órganos competentes del Ministerio de Asuntos Exteriores y Cooperación no efectuaron actuaciones de control de los órganos fiscalizados ni dictaron normas o instrucciones que regularan la gestión de la Academia de España en Roma.

En la contratación de obras llevada a cabo por la Academia de España en Roma, para lo que se contó con una financiación superior a 1,7 millones de euros, se apreciaron numerosas deficiencias e incumplimientos legales. Así, las obras fueron ejecutadas sin una planificación previa y sin una valoración de su coste; los contratos se suscribieron por persona sin competencia para ello y sin la fijación de todos los aspectos esenciales; en la tramitación de los expedientes de contratación no se exigió a los adjudicatarios la constitución de la garantía definitiva, no se notificaron ni publicaron las adjudicaciones y no se realizaron las actas de comprobación de replanteo e inicio de la obra y de recepción; parte de las obras comenzaron a ejecutarse antes de la formalización del contrato; y se abonaron anticipos a cuenta del precio final no previstos en los contratos y sin la correspondiente garantía.

Además, por lo que se refiere a los servicios contratados, la Academia no realizó ninguna de las actuaciones establecidas al efecto en la legislación de contratos.

Los procedimientos de gestión empleados en la adquisición de los suministros y en la prestación de servicios de comida generaron notables incertidumbres respecto a la legalidad, la eficacia y la eficiencia.

La fiscalización se extendió también al análisis de las actuaciones de tutela que realiza el Ministerio de Asuntos Exteriores y de Cooperación respecto a la Obra Pía española en Roma, entidad privada sin ánimo de lucro. A este respecto se constató que no se habían establecido procedimientos para regular la forma en que la Obra Pía saca al mercado de alquiler su importante patrimonio inmobiliario, cuya renta es prácticamente su única fuente de ingresos, observándose que las decisiones en esta materia no se adoptaron de forma objetiva y transparente.

A la vista de las circunstancias anteriores, el Informe recomienda al Ministerio de Asuntos Exteriores y de Cooperación que fortalezca el control de los gastos e ingresos de las representaciones en el exterior implantando un nuevo sistema informático del que se obtengan unos estados financieros que representen fielmente las operaciones que realizan y permita verificar en tiempo real sus registros contables; que, sin perjuicio de su dependencia de la Secretaría de Estado de Cooperación Internacional, el control de los fondos librados a la Academia de España en Roma se realice en el marco del procedimiento establecido para las Representaciones diplomáticas y consulares por la Dirección General de Servicio Exterior; el impulso de las medidas necesarias para garantizar que la gestión de los alquileres de la Obra Pía Española de Roma se realiza de acuerdo con los principios de objetividad y transparencia; y el establecimiento de los adecuados mecanismos de coordinación con las Consejerías Laborales para garantizar el cumplimiento estricto de la normativa laboral de cada país."

ABC: Carlos Abella: La obra Pía de Roma se gestiona con pleno conocimiento del Mº Exteriores:

(...)"Una entidad seis veces centenaria es difícil de modernizar, pero la Obra Pía ha comenzado a someterse a auditorías anuales, realizadas por el Gabinete Stefano Pasquali, que también se envían al Ministerio de Asuntos Exteriores junto con los balances anuales. Las ganancias ascendieron a 452.188 euros en 1997, a 558.042 en 1998, a 315.292 en 1999 y a 97.625 en el año 2000. A partir de ahí comienzan las pérdidas de 345.182 euros en 2001 y de 614.324 euros en el 2002."

El País: El Cervantes y la Obra Pía

La tricentenaria Obra Pía ha sido siempre fuente de roces e intercambio de favores entre el Estado y la Iglesia de los países a los que toca, España, Italia y Vaticano. Dueña de un ingente patrimonio inmobiliario en la zona más cara de Roma (cerca de 180 pisos y 80 locales comerciales), su falta de personalidad jurídica ha generado también arbitrariedades de todo tipo. (...)

Hace siglo y medio, en la época de Garibaldi, la Iglesia española pidió al Estado que salvara el patrimonio de la Obra Pía, y la gestión pasó a la Administración. Hoy, el Gobierno español ha convertido la Obra en un instrumento más de la nueva política de acercamiento hacia el Vaticano y la Conferencia Episcopal. Sus ingresos (seis millones de euros en 2008) complementan con jugosas donaciones la subida del 34% en la recaudación fiscal obtenida a través del IRPF, gracias al aumento de la cuota para fines de la Iglesia Católica concedida por el Ejecutivo de Zapatero."

Ni Obra ni Pía

(...) La historia, casi secreta, de la Obra Pía Establecimientos Españoles en Roma, una institución que por voluntad de sus píos fundadores tendría que estar dedicada a dotar a doncellas en apuros, a socorrer a peregrinos y al cuidado espiritual de almas difuntas, está trufada de episodios oscuros como éste y de arbitrariedades en el uso de un ingente patrimonio integrado por unos 40 inmuebles con cerca de 400 unidades inmobiliarias, entre pisos y locales desplegados sobre los terrenos más caros de la capital. Un patrimonio que, para comenzar, no ha sido tasado nunca.

Limitando la atención a la edad contemporánea de esta crónica, basada en informaciones de personas que durante las últimas tres décadas han tenido responsabilidades sobre el tema, hay datos suficientes para asegurar que, en el ambiente laico de los años treinta del siglo pasado, este capital inmobiliario —que no es propiedad del Estado español, aunque el embajador lo administre—, financió el Instituto de España; que, durante los años 1936 y 1937, costeó la flamante Embajada de Franco ante Mussolini con un crédito que nunca fue reembolsado; que, en los años cuarenta, dos de sus pisos situados en la elegante Vía Frattina sirvieron de sede a las oficinas romanas de la Falange Española; que algunas de sus mejores propiedades albergan todavía hoy, a precios que hasta hace apenas una década fueron de verdadero saldo, el consulado y la agregaduría de la Guardia Civil, entre otras dependencias diplomáticas españolas, y a funcionarios de esas mismas delegaciones.

Por no hablar de la agencia estatal de noticias, Efe, que ocupa la primera planta de un magnífico palacio de Piazza Navona. Hasta primeros de la pasada década tuvo por vecino a un Pacelli que, al calor de su parentesco con Pío XII, instaló allí su oficina. No es el único apellido italiano célebre entre los inquilinos del embajador de España. El fallecido periodista Indro Montanelli, premio Príncipe de Asturias en 1996, tuvo 190 metros cuadrados sobre la misma plaza, aunque no como inquilino, sino por un usufructo vitalicio que logró al donar a la Obra una propiedad situada en la cercana Vía Giulia.

Claudio Martelli, en tiempos brazo derecho del primer ministro socialista Bettino Craxi, es el más célebre de los políticos italianos contemporáneos que, gracias al embajador español, consiguieron un pied-à-terre elegante y barato en Roma. Jerarcas del fascismo obtuvieron en su día pisos en la Vía del Monserrato y otras calles romanas, por la misma benevolencia que franqueó el acceso a un apartamento de la Obra Pía a alguna amiga de Amintore Fanfani. El prócer democristiano, bajito y con fama de mujeriego, era objeto preferente de las atenciones de Alfredo Sánchez Bella, quien, como embajador de España en Roma, se ocupó de las relaciones con la Democracia

Cristiana durante los años 60. En este gotha mundano, las Hermanas de la Cruz destacan como el único instituto religioso que se beneficia de un piso, modesto en su caso, de la Obra.

No hay, pues, ninguna novedad histórica en la noticia de estos días de que Alberto Michelini, diputado de Forza Italia, y Stefania Pretigiacomo, ministra de Silvio Berlusconi, se pelean porque el actual embajador ante la Santa Sede, Carlos Abella Ramallo, les alquile el piso que fue de Montanelli. Lo único nuevo es que Abella ha sido incapaz de evitar el escándalo sobre un tipo de gestión que, en el pasado, si acaso, sólo suscitó rumores. Los enfrentamientos del embajador con personal de su delegación, en especial con su número dos, José Julio López-Jacoiste —quien fue cesado tras cuestionar la decisión de su superior de contentar a Michelini con un precio de favor—, han facilitado que el incidente salte a la prensa.

Todo en él se da de bruces con el secreto que rodea a una institución cuyas propias reglas de funcionamiento, recogidas en sucesivas órdenes aprobadas por Ramón Serrano Suñer en 1940, por José María Castiella en 1956 y por Josep Piqué en 2001, son secretas. Sólo las de Castiella fueron publicadas como orden. Las demás, son meras normas de régimen interno del Ministerio de Asuntos Exteriores y su valor jurídico frente a terceros es, por la misma razón, escaso.

Se sabe que la Obra se rige por una junta de siete personas, de las que cuatro son designadas directamente por Exteriores: el embajador ante la Santa Sede, que es el gobernador; su ministro consejero, que es vicepresidente; el primer secretario de embajada, que actúa de secretario, y el rector de Monserrat, la iglesia nacional española en Roma. Hoy el Gobierno consulta su candidato para ese cargo eclesiástico con el Vaticano, pero hasta hace un lustro simplemente comunicaba el nombramiento. El sueldo del rector de Monserrat lo paga, además, la Obra Pía.

Se comprende que en esa junta, completada por el rector de San Pietro in Montorio, por un canónigo español del Vaticano y por otro de Santa María la Mayor, el embajador es soberano. Hace y deshace con el poder absoluto que le otorgó la norma de Castiella. El embajador de España ante la Santa Sede es, por ello, uno de los diplomáticos más cortejados socialmente en Roma, donde nunca falta cardenal, princesa o senador que busque un piso céntrico, noble y posiblemente barato, para sí, para un amigo o para una sobrina que se casa.
La nueva norma de 2001 ha establecido, sin embargo, que el vicepresidente de la junta debe firmar los contratos de alquiler. López-Jacoíste amenazó con no rubricar el de Michelini, y por ahí saltó su conflicto con Abella. Por lo demás, los controles externos de la Obra Pía se limitan a la obligación de presentar al subsecretario de Exteriores un presupuesto y unos resultados anuales. Desde 2001, entrega también una auditoría anual independiente, pero, como la fundación no es propiedad del Estado, el interventor de Hacienda no controla ninguna de estas cuentas.

En el último ejercicio cerrado, la Obra Pía contabilizó unos ingresos cercanos a los 3.600.000 euros y dedicó aproximadamente 1.900.000 euros a conservar y restaurar su propio patrimonio. El coste de mantenimiento de la Iglesia de Monserrat fue del orden 39.000 euros, más otros 18.000 de gastos generales. Unos 91.000 euros más fueron dedicados al llamado Centro de Estudios Eclesiásticos, ligado a la misma iglesia, que da becas a sacerdotes españoles para estudiar en Roma.

A las misas por los difuntos fundadores de la Obra se asignaron unos 50.000 euros; otros 63.000, a obras de caridad diversas y 3.000 al mantenimiento del Panteón

Español, última morada de los españoles indigentes que mueren en la capital italiana.

Hay que rebuscar entre estos datos para dictaminar si la Obra Pía española en Roma es fiel al canon 1.300, que, bajo el título "De las pías voluntades y de las fundaciones pías", establece: "Debe cumplirse con suma diligencia, una vez aceptadas, las voluntades de los fieles que donan o dejan sus bienes para causas pías por actos inter vivos o mortis causa, aun en cuanto al modo de administrar e invertir los bienes". El Código Canónico mira, por tanto, también, a quién disfruta de las propiedades de la Obra.

Mantener la presencia de la Iglesia española en Roma y rezar por los difuntos, entre otras caridades menos definidas, han terminado por ser los dos objetivos básicos de la Obra Pía en un mundo en el que resulta improbable encontrar doncella a la que dotar y en el que los peregrinos viajan por agencia, con billete de ida y vuelta. La vocación actual de esta institución es, por fuerza de los tiempos, menos romántica que la que inspiró a las decenas de padres fundadores que, con su entrega económica, crearon la Obra Pía de Aragón y Cataluña, en el siglo XIV, y la de Castilla y León, en el siglo XV."

No hay que extrañarse, pues —viendo los gastos fijos que necesitan estos Ministerios de puro relumbrón para colocar y dar sinecuras a los amigos—, si el Gobierno tiene que mirar con lupa y escatimar gastos con la incapacidad laboral permanente de un autónomo, con quien padezca una enfermedad gravemente incapacitante, con las bajas laborales, las pensiones de invalidez, y las jubilaciones, muy por debajo del salario mínimo interprofesional, o esos famosos 400 euros de ayuda para los que hayan agotado las prestaciones por desempleo: el latrocinio sistemático y la malversación de los fondos públicos por parte de sus administradores significa una cantidad casi astronómica y siempre en aumento.

Este país llamado España, tiene los mayores mangantes en la administración de los Presupuestos Generales del Estado. Y tirando con pólvora del rey...

CITA CON TAUTINA VAIAMALLA

Quedamos a tomar café en Florian, y le dije cómo reconocerme. Le recordé la descripción, de la que tantas veces me he servido, completamente opuesta a mí. Era una curiosidad absolutamente idiota, pero quería saber cómo era Tautina Vaiamalla en persona.
Me senté de espaldas a la puerta para mirar a través del espejo a los que entrasen. He llegado con media hora de antelación para poder ocupar mi sitio habitual. Hojeo el periódico con la atención puesta en el espejo, y ocurre el desastre: mi editora viene hacia mí con uno de esos modelos que tan bien le sientan, caminando como una bailarina, tan pulcra, tan absolutamente joven, y más deseable de lo que se puede describir sin caer en la pornografía. Se acerca a mi mesa, y nos saludamos con esa cortesía un poco arcaica que tanto nos gusta mantener. Me pregunta si no me molesta que se siente conmigo. Le digo cuánto le agradezco su compañía, y le he dicho la verdad, porque entre frases previsibles, sin mucho interés, podré observar a Tautina cuando llegue y, mientras ella espere un encuentro que no se producirá. Me dijo que me traería una orquidea. Afirmó que me reconocería sin dificultad, que me imaginaba perfectamente.
-¿Suele venir al Florian? - me pregunta mi editora.
- He quedado aquí con una desconocida que escribe en internet, pero he llegado antes de tiempo.
-¿Se van a conocer hoy?
-No, sólo quiero ver cómo es: he dado un retrato de mí completamente diferente...
-Y ella ¿por qué le interesa?
-Escribe bien, tiene imaginación, tiene talento, y si tiene un físico agradable, si sabe comportarse con naturalidad, y puede dar bien en entrevistas, se la recomendaré a usted para que la contrate.

-¿Cómo comprobará eso si no piensa hablar con ella?
-Una mujer que espera es mucho más elocuente que una mujer que se sabe escuchada, evaluada, observada...
-Sí, es verdad, es un arte dificil saber esperar.
-¿Lo dice porque mi libro lleva tres meses de retraso?
Sonríe y responde:
-Le aconsejo que no se preocupe por los plazos de los contratos: es una cláusula que hay que poner, pero no es necesario respetar.
-Es usted la editora más comprensiva que existe.
-Son las cuatro y media, me tengo que marchar...
-No, por favor, espere un poco: mi desconocida estará a punto de llegar, y me podrá decir su opinión ...
-¿Mi opinión?
-Le aseguro que es una escritora de talento. Y usted sabe que suelo hacer críticas despiadadas...
- ¿Entonces, es una propuesta en firme? ¿La recomienda como escritora?
- Sí.
- Y, no obstante, no se va a presentar usted
- No.
- ¿Puedo saber la razón?
- Mi cupo de amigos y afectos está cubierto. Me da pereza conocer gente nueva, que pudiera ser indiscreta y ...
- Comprendo.
A través del espejo observé que se abría la puerta, y entraba una mujer con el aspecto típico de esposa y madre, con el aire cansado de una mujer que lee en vez de dormir. Miraba alrededor, un poco perdida.
- Mire, creo que es Tautina ...
Mi editora acercó su rostro y me dijo en susurros:
- Le agradezco su opinión sobre mí como escritora- Y me tendió una orquídea cattleya- es una pena no poder corresponder a su amabilidad: sus libros de texto son una pesadilla para cualquier estudiante.
Por sus intervenciones subversivas en los comentarios y su endiablada forma de jugar con los lectores, tendría que haber sospechado que Tautina no era una mujer, sino una editora.

RUPERTO CHAPÍ. ZARZUELA: EL REY QUE RABIÓ

Coro de los doctores:

Juzgando por los síntomas que tiene el animal, bien puede estar hidrófobo, bien no lo puede estar,
y afirma el gran Hipócrates que el perro en caso tal suele ladrar muchísimo
o no suele ladrar.

Con la lengua fuera, torva la mirada,
húmedo el hocico,
débiles las patas,
muy caído el rabo,
las orejas gachas ...
Todos estos signos
pruebas son de rabia;
pero al mismo tiempo
bien puede probar que el perro está cansado de tanto andar.

Doctores sapientísimos que yo he estudiado bien son, en sus obras clínicas, de nuestro parecer.

"Fermentus virum rabicum que incorpurus canis est, mortalis sont per accidens, mortalis sont per se".

Para hacer la prueba que es más necesaria, agua le pusimos
en una jofaina
y él se fue gruñendo sin probar el agua.
Todos estos signos
pruebas son de rabia,
pero al mismo tiempo
signos son, tal vez, de que el animalito
no tiene sed.

Y de esta opinión nadie
nos sacará.
¡El perro está rabioso!
¡O no lo está!

Como se sabe, este año se celebra la efemérides de la muerte de Chapí. La ciudad de Villena, que visito asiduamente, se volcará con su hijo ilustre. El mismo teatro de la ciudad debe su nombre al compositor. El Teatro Principal de Alicante organiza también un acto llamado: "Chapí, una comedia divina", dirigido por Chema Cardeño. Adjunto los datos del programa:

OCTUBRE 2009
CHAPÍ, UNA COMEDIA DIVINA
ESCRITO Y DIRIGIDO POR CHEMA CARDEÑA EN EL CENTENARIO DE LA MUERTE DE RUPERTO CHAPÍ.
"100 AÑOS SIN CHAPÍ" VIERNES 16 - 20,30 H.
PRECIOS: 12, 18 y 24 Euros
Duración: 90 minutos
Dirección Musical de JOSÉ FABRA

CHAPÍ: JUAN CARLOS GARÉS
AMA DE LLAVES: AMPARO VAYÁ
ARNICHES: ANTONIO MARTÍNEZ ÑOÑO
FORNARINA/VEDETTE: CAROL GARCÍA
QUINTERO I: RAFA ARNAL
QUINTERO II: MIQUEL VIÑOLES

Piano: LORENZO PETRI
Sopranos: CARMEN ROMEU,MARÍA MACIÁ
Tenores: MARC SALA, JAVIER TOMÉ
Barítono: JAVIER GALÁN

Este montaje pretende homenajear la vida y la obra del genial compositor Ruperto Chapí, en el centenario de su fallecimiento. Mediante un viaje imaginario recorreremos su obra y su vida mezclando el Teatro y la Zarzuela, y visitando los lugares que fueron testigo de su larga carrera como músico; Roma, París, Madrid, Valencia, y los personajes que le acompañaron: los hermanos Álvarez Quintero, Serrano, Verdi, La Fornarina...
Todo ello con muy buen humor y con un maestro de ceremonias excepcional: el dramaturgo Carlos Arniches, que fiel a su estilo literario nos conducirá por este divertido periplo hacia la música y la obra del Maestro Chapí, donde además de la zarzuela tendrán cabida la ópera, el cuplé, la revista y por supuesto el teatro,el mejor y único escenario para rememorar su vida y su obra.

JUAN DEL ENCINA: DISPARATES

Anoche de madrugada, ya después de medio día,
vi venir en romería una nube muy cargada;
y un broquel con una espada en figura de ermitaño, caballero en un escaño
con una ropa nesgada, toda sana y muy resgada.

No después de mucho rato
vi venir un urinal
puesto de pontifical, como tres en un zapato;
tras él vi venir un gato cargado de verdolagas,
y parce mihi sin bragas, caballero en un gran pato por hacer más aparato.

Y asomó por un cantón
el bueno de fray Mochuelo tañendo con un mazuelo, diciendo: muera Sansón
y vino kirie eleison apretados bien los lomos, con su ropeta de momos,
y una pega y un ratón, danzando en un cangilón.

Levantose la sardina muy soberbia, con un palo, tras so libranos a malo,
por medio de una cortina:
y en un monte de cecina
vi cazar una tinaja, y unos órganos de paja
atestados de cocina, pescando sobre una encina.

Navegando vi venir tres calabazas por tierra, y una azuela y una sierra tropezando por huir:
vino beatus vir
en una burra bermeja, cargado de ropa vieja
con su vara de medir, bostezando por dormir.

Vino Miércoles corvillo, todo de jugo de cañas
y salieron las arañas con garnachas de amarillo;
y después salió don Grillo con el pie tirando barra, y de envidia la cigarra,
con su capa sin capillo, cabalgó en un argadillo.

Volteaban con cencerros
el invierno y el verano, sendas hondas en la mano, para derribar los puerros:

y una manada de perros
vi venir en procesión,
y hubieron gran división,
allá encima de unos cerros, sobre el coger de los berros.

Requiem in aeternam vino con su manto colorado, compuesto en siniestro lado con un pernil de tocino:
y en el medio del camino atajóle el alleluya
diciendo: nadie no huya, que si no tenéis padrino,
de pagar habéis el vino.

Todo aquesto ya pasado, dando vueltas en un torno vi la Luna dentro un horno haciéndose pan pintado;
recordé por mi pecado,
sin vestidos ni camisa,
y todo muerto de risa de me ver tan despojado
y sin blanca y sin cornado

SIEMPRE SE NOTA...

Dirigir un hotel de esta categoría requiere decisiones rápidas y prudencia: las virtudes de un carterista profesional y las de un diplomático en Rabat; actuar drásticamente y quedar en una aparente invisibilidad; impedir que se desboquen las situaciones y ofrecer la apariencia de no haber advertido el vuelo de la vajilla al volcar la mesa ni los insultos de quien tiembla de ira.
La cena con la que se cierra una Junta de Accionistas, una reunión de empresa, una convención maratoniana o un congreso político, lleva aparejada tanta tensión que en algún momento salta la chispa, y quien haya mostrado desde el principio esa afabilidad inmediata y cálida, ese entusiasmo comunicativo que suelen esconder un carácter endiablado, exhausto al cabo de los días, acaba por explotar sin miramientos.
Esta vez fue doña Raquel, la mujer del Presidente de la cadena de hoteles para la que trabajo, y el blanco de su ira fue tan indeterminado y genérico como sus trastornos caracteriales, pero el argumento era de índole ideológica y señalaba la culpa de todos los hombres sin excepción. Nunca he visto a nadie perder los papeles irracionalmente sin argumentos cuidadosamente elaborados. Y en el cenit del espectáculo, en un charco de vinos y manjares, con la mesa volcada y unos comensales lívidos por la sorpresa, me acerqué y dije la frase mágica que interrumpió su diatriba y le hizo retirarse en silencio:
- Señora, si quiere, el servicio de la costurera está a su disposición para solucionar su problema con el vestido...
Bajó la vista y percibió el magnífico desgarro en aquel diminuto corpiño que su mente enferma había creído seductor. Se cubrió con la pashmina que sigilosamente le había puesto por los hombros, y abandonó el restaurante. En ese mismo momento la orquesta dio paso al himno de la empresa y presentó al showman, que consiguió las primeras carcajadas del público con la frase de inicio:
-Ustedes creerán que soy un hombre feliz, puedo parecerlo, pero yo soy un hombre casado...
Mientras, los comensales de aquella mesa fueron invitados a trasladarse a otra, que tenía al sumiller listo para ofrecer un inmejorable champán francés, y un biombo ocultó el trasiego del servicio, que en tres minutos dejó todo en perfecto estado.
Después de la cena, cuando la mayor parte estaba esperando los coches o había subido a sus habitaciones, el Presidente del Consejo de Administración, y sufrido marido de la camorrista, sin mencionar la bronca, me tomó familiarmente del brazo y me dirigió hacia la zona más tranquila del bar. Me agradeció tácitamente mi intervención al preguntarme qué opinaba sobre el nuevo hotel-sala de fiestas, que se empezaría a construir en marzo. No me había dado cuenta de lo mucho que había pensado en los problemas que plantea asegurar el confort a los que desean descansar y las atracciones a los que quieren divertirse; qué zonas había que reservar insonorizadas y cómo inducir a los indecisos mediante muros acristalados que ofrecieran el espectáculo sin que se oyera ni un murmullo... Le planteé alternativas y soluciones que , por lo visto, nadie le había dado.

Con la astuta humildad que identifica a los poderosos, me pidió permiso para sentarnos, alegando que estaba cansado y le interesaba mucho mi punto de vista.
Luego me preguntó por mi familia, mis hijos y su profesión; me recordó cuánto había admirado a mi mujer como anfitriona, la describió como si no hiciera diez años que había muerto. Explicó con humor que doña Raquel no soportaba las reuniones sociales, y añadió risueño que apenas lo soportaba a él. Terminó divagando sobre la hipotética posibilidad de dedicarse un buen día a la encuadernación, que era su válvula de escape, y me preguntó:
-¿Qué haría usted con tiempo y salud para dedicarse a disfrutar de su ocio?
Y no sé qué gesto fue el que lo denunció: de pronto se me quedó la mente en blanco y ni siquiera pude improvisar una de esas respuestas ficticias para salir del paso. Su mirada se fue haciendo cada vez más escrutadora, más íntima. Yo seguí mudo, lucidamente consciente de mi incomodidad...
-No sé... no lo he pensado nunca...
A partir de ese momento me dediqué a observarlo para confirmar mi diagnóstico. Sus manos acompañaban sus frases con un levísimo aleteo. Cuando se le escaparon las carcajadas cubrió su boca .con el pañuelo. La cucharilla del café quedó matemáticamente perpendicular al borde de la mesa. Dejaba la mirada prendida en algún punto cercano al techo al hablar, y su voz, cuidadosamente modulada, tenía un ligero trémolo. Su mano se posaba un poco demasiado tiempo en mi brazo para subrayar su acuerdo con mis puntos de vista, y alternaba una expresión de fingido candor con otra de auténtica astucia, como si se supiera dueño de un secreto por encima del común de los mortales. Siempre se nota. Es algo que impregna los gestos, la dicción, cierta blandura que, de pronto, rompe la coraza de impasibilidad. Es la demostración afectuosa sobreactuada, la incapacidad para graduar la cercanía física y la intimidad, esa labilidad gestual con la que se subraya una frase anodina y, al mismo tiempo, esa contención un poco acartonada...
Es difícil explicarlo... Hace treinta y dos años que trabajo en hostelería, veinte años que soy director de hoteles de cinco estrellas, sé catalogar a la gente de un vistazo.
Le pregunté sin ambages y fue sincero.
-Hace más de cuarenta años que salí... creí que no se me notaba... Usted también, me di cuenta hace mucho...
-Si... yo también...
Siempre se nota que hemos sido curas.

Ciertamente son inconfundibles. Yo tengo dos amigos que no salieron, acaban de entrar, y responden perfectamente a la descripción que haces. ¿Por qué existen esa dicción y gestos universales entre ellos? Confieso (y el verbo no es ironía) que hay algo atrayente en sus voces y en sus palabras. Magnífico relato, Gatopardo. Resuelves con gran maestría el empuje de la narración.

Píramo: confesión por confesión: a mí, sin embargo, los curas y sus amaneramientos me producen la misma dentera y escalofrío que el chirrido de la tiza en la pizarra, o esa escuela de locución con empalago a lo Silvia Tarragona.

Aplaudo su heroica hipocresía al alabar mis dotes como escritora de relatos, y en justa reciprocidad, sostendré ante quien sea que es usted uno de las inteligencias más preclaras del país.

Saludos cordiales

Gatopardo, no fue hipocresía (y mucho menos heroica) la de alabar su relato. Realmente me gustó cómo estaba escrito. Por lo mismo, no tendrá usted que sostener mi preclara inteligencia. Conozco bien los puntos de su manifiesto: "no se dé asilo a los que tienen el superego amiantado y el ego de cristal de Bohemia, y busquen abuela y aprobación, bajo amenaza de hacerse del club de nuestros damnificados". Tampoco sé qué provecho sacaría yo de contar con su aprobación, que no me hace ninguna falta. Ego absolvo a peccatis tuis. Un saludo también cordial.

Es curioso comprobar que su primera visita a mi blog se produce justo después de mi comentario en el suyo. No contento con asumir que no es usted la abuela de nadie, decide ser la madrastra mala. No le vi a usted en mis artículos sobre Menéndez Pidal y Diego Catalán, cuya causa del Olivar de Chamartín tan vehementemente defiende. A usted le encanta salir a la palestra sólo para alardear de su supuesto (supuesto, porque sólo usted se lo cree) implacable ojo crítico. Pero no seré yo quien le dé juego. Vuélvase a maullar a su blog, que tantas visitas recibe, y no pierda el tiempo en estos arrabales de gente inculta que jamás estará a la altura de su nunca suficientemente ponderada superioridad. Ay, quizás me esto equivocando. Ahora perderé su aprobación y no sé qué será de mi vida sin el amparo de su luz.

RIPIOS A LA NICOTINA

Oh, perverso Jean Nicot, divulgador del tabaco,
me hiciste un servicio flaco
al hacerme fumador.
Yo que en la trampa caí
de encender un cigarrillo por dejar de ser chiquillo en el vicio me metí.
Dependencia repugnante
el tabaco me produjo, y en ese grave influjo me debato a cada instante.
Más el vicio me persigue como un fantasma cruel, ya no sé vivir sin él,
ni él mi embrujo resiste.
A mí me creó el dilema de una tos que me atraganta, a mi salud, que le espanta el posible enfisema.
Y aunque parezca mentira este impotente vicioso se resigna silencioso
a contener su gran ira, de vencer a quien le vence, de escapar de quien le atrapa, mas su voluntad no llega
a actitudes más sensatas.
Si yo un toro viera venir en tono desafiante no dudaría un instante:
vería la forma de huir.
Y a sabiendas, el tabaco,
es algo que yo no ignoro, sé que me coge el toro
y sin embargo, no escapo.

ANTECEDENTES EN MÉXICO DE LOS EXPERIMENTOS CON NIÑOS DE LA FARMACÉUTICA GLAXO SMITH KLINE (GSK)

Cazadores de bebés. Pediatría del IMSS al servicio de Glaxo Smith Kline

En un pequeño cubículo del área de investigación de enfermedades infecciosas en el segundo piso del edificio del Hospital de Pediatría del Centro Médico Nacional "Siglo XXI" del Instituto Mexicano del Seguro Social (IMSS), unas cinco o seis muchachas cubiertas con bata de laboratorista acomodan expedientes y escriben sobre hojas rotuladas con el logotipo de la empresa farmacéutica Glaxo Smith Kline (GSK).
Ellas son sólo una parte de un ejército de personal que paga el IMSS y que labora para la trasnacional GSK, y no sólo eso, sino que también el uso de las instalaciones y la infraestructura hospitalaria le resultan gratuitas.
GSK desarrolla en México uno de sus principales proyectos de investigación en seres humanos, y como ratas de laboratorio utiliza bebés. Lo hacen al amparo del protocolo 444563/023 (rota-23) que en menos de 30 días les otorgó de forma sospechosa la Secretaría de Salud.
En eso de la experimentación con seres humanos ha habido avances, aunque con pocas diferencias. En la década de los 40, la farmacéutica Bayer "reclutaba" seres humanos para experimentación y se proveía de los campos de concentración de la Alemania nazi.
Hoy en 2004, GSK utiliza instalaciones gubernamentales de salud y sus operadores "reclutan" bebés bajo el engaño a las madres de que a sus hijos se les aplicará una "vacuna muy buena contra la diarrea".

-'¿Ya le aplicaron la vacuna contra rotavirus a su bebé?', preguntó Imagen Médica a una señora que cargaba tiernamente a su hijo y que se encontraba sentada en una de las muchas bancas de piedra que se encuentran en el CMN Siglo XXI.
- Ya, en la clínica 9 -respondió la señora.
- ¿En dónde está la clínica?
- Allá por Revolución.
-¿Qué fue lo que le dijeron?
- Que era una vacuna muy buena para prevenir la diarrea y las enfermedades gastrointestinales.
-¿Le dieron a firmar una hojas?
- Sí.
- ¿Firmaron los testigos?
- Sí.
- ¿De dónde son?
- No sé, ellos los sacaron de gente de ahí, de la clínica.
- ¿Le explicaron de qué se trataba?
- No.
- ¿Ha presentado algún problema o reacción su bebé?
- Hasta ahorita no.
Como ésta, son muchas las madres que han sido sorprendidas por médicos y enfermeras del IMSS que, al servicio de Glaxo y en virtual cacería, realizan casi cualquier cosa con ánimo obsesivo para "reclutar" bebés. Tiene explicación y es brutal, fuentes consultadas por Imagen Médica aseguraron que los bebés tienen un precio, una "comisión" que se paga en forma de "incentivo".

Velázquez Castillo

COMPROMETIDO

"Comprometido" a reclutar 2.400 bebés, Federico Raúl Velázquez Castillo, médico investigador de la Unidad de Investigación Médica de Enfermedades Infecciosas del Hospital de Pediatría del Siglo XXI, e investigador principal del proyecto GSK en el IMSS, dijo a Imagen Médica que el interés en el proyecto "proviene de muchas vertientes".
Entrevistado la mañana del 3 de marzo último en una pequeña sala de juntas de la Unidad de Investigación de Pediatría, Velázquez Castillo explicó: "… desde mi punto de vista podría ser un interés inclusive personal, que creo que es el menos importante; hasta un interés, que es el más importante, en relación a lo que está ocurriendo de manera global en las enfermedades diarréicas".
Lo cierto es que la técnica de reclutamiento de bebés implementada por GSK y operada por Velázquez Castillo en el IMSS podría ser un buen ejemplo a seguir, con fines menos perversos, por los diseñadores y operadores del fracasado esquema Prevenimss, los ridículos prioritarios de Santiago Levy en el foxismo.

Y es que, desde septiembre de 2003, cientos de madres embarazadas comenzaron a recibir llamadas telefónicas en extremo cálidas para preguntarles sobre su estado de salud y el de su hijo por nacer. Les recordaban las fechas para sus citas de rutina con sus médicos familiares, y estaban al pendiente de la fecha de nacimiento del bebé y les recordaban que al nacer acudieran a su clínica familiar para que se lea aplicara la "nueva" vacuna contra rotavirus, para que "no les diera diarrea a sus bebés".
Algunas mamás se sorprendieron con las llamadas, de hecho, se sintieron protegidas por el IMSS y pensaron que la atención, para bien, estaba cambiando. Lo que no sabían es que desde fetos sus hijos ya estaban en la mira de Glaxo y sus cazadores de bebés, que los esperaban con ansia para someterlos a un experimento.
Sí, para probar la "seguridad y la eficacia" de Rotarix TM , el nombre registrado que puso GSK a su "candidato" a vacuna.
Según Velázquez Castillo, la información que arroje la investigación en 20 mil de los 60 mil bebés que están siendo "reclutados" servirá para "analizar la eficacia" de la vacuna; el resto, 40 mil, servirán para analizar la "seguridad" de la vacuna.

ESTRATÉGICO

Cuestionado sobre si el hecho de decir a las mamás que le van a aplicar una vacuna a sus bebés "para que ya no les de diarrea" podría constituir un engaño para que accedan, Velázquez Castillo aclaró que la vacuna "no tiene la intención de prevenir" que los niños padezcan diarrea, sino que "pretende prevenir" las formas graves de diarrea causada por rotavirus.
Y argumentó que "lo más importante es que nosotros les estamos dando a los familiares información impresa -yo no podría avalar ninguna información de tipo verbal- que ellos inclusive nos firman de recibido".
Es cierto, de alguna manera y para algunos efectos legales, el Consentimiento Informado borraría todo indicio de cómo, por qué y para qué se consiguió "vacunar" a los bebés.
La estrategia GSK-IMSS para "reclutar" bebés consistió, de acuerdo con Velázquez Castillo, "en irnos a tres Unidades de Medicina Familiar (UMF) estratégicamente ubicadas, que son las unidades donde se encuentran los servicios de medicina preventiva y donde habitualmente se vacuna a los niños derechohabientes incluso a la población abierta para el esquema básico de vacunación".
Las UMF consideradas estratégicas por Velázquez Castillo y en las cuales se "aplica el biológico" a los bebés son: al norte, la 2, en la colonia Santa María la Rivera; al centro, la 9, en la colonia San Pedro de Los Pinos y al sur, la 7, en la colonia Huipulco. Pero además, estas UMF fueron surtidas de todas las UMF adyacentes, en las que se llevó a cabo la "promoción".
La cacería de bebés desde fetos se hizo mediante promoción telefónica, y se reclutaron bebés con una estrategia similar a las de las UMF. Al norte se "contactaron" a las mamás que dieron a luz en el Hospital de Gineco Obstetricia (HGO) anexo a la clínica 27; al centro, en el HGO 4 y al sur en el servicio de Gineco Obstetricia del Hospital General de Zona 32.
El costo del impresionante dispositivo para "reclutar" bebés aparentemente es absorbido por GSK a través de un convenio de investigación firmado con el IMSS, ya que existe un interés "mutuo", comentó Velázquez Castillo.
El tiempo de observación de los bebés es a largo plazo, en algunos casos se vigilarán hasta un año y en otros hasta dos años después de haber aplicado la última dosis oral de la "vacuna". "Obviamente -indicó Velázquez Castillo- l*o que esperamos es que el grupo de niños que hayan recibido la vacuna padezcan un menor número de casos de* diarrea grave debido a rotavirus".

AVISO A LOS PADRES DE NIÑOS ENTRE 6 MESES Y 17 AÑOS: QUIEREN EXPERIMENTAR UNA VACUNA DE LA GRIPE QUE PUEDE SER PELIGROSA

La Agencia Española del Medicamento autorizó ayer la realización de dos ensayos clínicos para probar la vacuna contra la gripe porcina con menores de edad, de entre seis meses y 17 años.
El fabricante es el laboratorio GlaxoSmithKline (GSK), que también comercializa una vacuna contra el papiloma humano, cuyos ensayos clínicos se están haciendo con niñas en España; nuevo puerto de promisión para experimentos con cobayas humanos, como antes ha sido África.
El protocolo de experimentación de medicamentos debería consistir en informar a los voluntarios de los riesgos que pueden correr, que incluye la muerte; pero en este caso, al tratarse de menores no se hace así, sino que se trata de convencer a los padres para que permitan usar a sus hijos como cobayas, diciéndoles que es una suerte y un privilegio poder inmunizar a sus hijos.

Y la suerte es para los pediatras que son remunerados y recompensados por participar en estos ensayos.
Si fuera un privilegio, habrían probado primero con los nietos del rey, las hijas del presidente, y los hijos de los ministros.
A quienes permitan que experimenten con sus hijos, les deseo que no les pase nada malo a sus nenes, que crezcan fuertes y sanos, para que algún día puedan calentarles los morros y borrar del libro de familia a los memos que tienen por padres.

La Seguridad Social en España ahorra y escatima gastos asignando guardias de 36 horas a los médicos en los servicios de urgencias, donde se hacen diagnósticos apresurados y sin demasiada base, y obligando a los médicos de atención primaria a dedicar menos de cuatro minutos a cada paciente que acude a la consulta, en pro de la rentabilidad.
La atención que recibe el ciudadano se basa en un criterio muy parecido a la ruleta rusa: sin que dependa de la gravedad de su afección, a uno le puede encontrar la parca hospitalaria. Si bien la tercera causa de muerte es iatrogénica, por error en el diagnóstico o la prescripción medicamentosa, el porcentaje de los médicos responsables que son juzgados y condenados es mínimo.
Las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y enfermedades profesionales, que dicen ser "asociaciones empresariales sin ánimo de lucro", mantienen un comportamiento ejemplar en este terreno: la atención médica se subordina a la necesidad de dar el alta rápidamente a los accidentados en el trabajo, negar la enfermedad profesional hasta que el paciente se harte o fenezca, contratar médicos de aluvión que sepan diagnosticar y tratar a los enfermos con criterios mercantiles, y, todo eso mientras sus directivos saquean las arcas de la Seguridad Social sin pudor ni rubor en un fraude tan lucrativo y como impune, según detalla el Tribunal de Cuentas, Copio a continuación literalmente desde la pág. 71 hasta la pág 78 del INFORME DEL TRIBUNAL DE CUENTAS SOBRE LAS MUTUAS DE ACCIDENTES DE TRABAJO Y ENFERMEDADES PROFESIONALES, publicado en (PDF) (protegido):

II.4.5.5. SOBRE LA ADMINISTRACIÓN COMPLEMENTARIA DE LA DIRECTA
1. INTRODUCCIÓN

Las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social pueden utilizar "como complemento de su administración directa, los servicios de terceros para gestiones de índole administrativa distintas de las de mediación o captación de empresas, teniendo en cuenta que los gastos derivados, cualquiera que sea su naturaleza, no podrán superar el importe que a tal efecto fije el Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales", de acuerdo con lo previsto en el artículo 5.1 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión, aprobado por Real Decreto 1993/1995, de 7 de diciembre. La retribución de los servicios prestados por terceros a las Mutuas como administración complementaria de la directa, se fija por sucesivas Órdenes ministeriales estableciendo un tipo o porcentaje máximo a aplicar a la recaudación de cuotas obtenida de las empresas asociadas y está vinculado a que el tercero emplee medios electrónicos, a través de la utilización del denominado Sistema RED, en las comunicaciones a la Tesorería General de la Seguridad Social de los datos de las empresas para las que presta su colaboración (inscripción de empresas, afiliación, altas y bajas de trabajadores, y cotización y recaudación de cuotas), en lugar del sistema tradicional de presentación física de la documentación preceptiva.
Los porcentajes máximos previstos son, básicamente, el 3% de las cuotas recaudadas por contingencias profesionales, cuando los datos se transmiten por el colaborador en el Sistema RED, y el 1%, cuando el tercero utiliza la presentación física de documentos (Epígrafes III.6.2.1 y III.6.2.2).A esta colaboración de terceros en las gestiones de índole administrativa que tienen encomendadas las Mutuas, el conjunto del sector ha destinado el importe de 104 y 120 millones de euros en los años 2005 y 2006, respectivamente (Subapartado III.6.1).

2. DEFICIENCIAS DETECTADAS EN SU GESTIÓN

2.1. Este Tribunal de Cuentas revisó los procedimientos utilizados en la gestión de la administración complementaria de la directa por las ocho Mutuas incluidas en la muestra realizada, y verificó que todas ellas se habían limitado a asignar a cada colaborador una serie de empresas asociadas y a retribuir sus servicios aplicando los porcentajes máximos fijados reglamentariamente sobre la recaudación de cuotas obtenidas de dichas empresas, es decir, con ausencia de unos procedimientos de control interno adecuados (Epígrafe III.6.2.4).
Con carácter general, las deficiencias detectadas se concretaron en las siguientes:

- Las Mutuas no habían establecido ningún procedimiento reglado ni documentado, para la selección de colaboradores.

- Tampoco habían procedido, de acuerdo con la información facilitada, a la suscripción de contratos en los que se describieran con precisión las obligaciones de los terceros que les prestaban la colaboración en gestiones de índole administrativa.

- Las Mutuas no documentaron, con carácter general, la asignación de empresas asociadas a cada uno de sus colaboradores.

- Tampoco exigieron la emisión de facturas por los colaboradores en las que se detallaran los servicios prestados y las empresas beneficiarias de los mismos.

2.2. Dado el carácter determinante que la normativa en vigor atribuye a la transmisión de datos correspondientes a las empresas asociadas en el Sistema RED, en cuanto al derecho a la percepción de la retribución de la administración complementaria de la directa por un tercero y a la fijación de su cuantía, este Tribunal de Cuentas realizó un cruce informático entre las bases de datos facilitadas por la Tesorería General de la Seguridad Social sobre las personas, físicas o jurídicas, autorizadas para la transmisión de datos de las empresas asociadas a las ocho Mutuas incluidas en la muestra, en las fechas de 31 de diciembre de los ejercicios 2005 y 2006, y la facilitada por esas ocho Mutuas sobre las retribuciones devengadas en ambos ejercicios por cada colaborador, en concepto de administración complementaria de la directa.
Como resultado del cruce de información realizado, se obtuvo un número de incidencias indicativo de que se podrían estar produciendo diferentes incumplimientos del sistema retributivo aprobado reglamentariamente (básicamente en la Disposición Adicional Segunda de la Orden TAS/1562/2005, en relación con la Disposición Adicional Quinta del Real Decreto 1415/2004, de 11 de junio, por el que se aprobó el Reglamento General de Recaudación de la Seguridad Social):

- Bien porque en determinados supuestos de empresas asociadas a las Mutuas analizadas, no era posible retribuir a un tercero por administración complementaria de la directa, puesto que, según los datos de la Tesorería General de la Seguridad Social, era la propia empresa asociada, u otra del propio grupo empresarial, la que transmitía los datos en el Sistema RED (primer párrafo de la Disposición Adicional Segunda de la Orden TAS/1562/2005).

- Bien porque se abonaba a un tercero un porcentaje superior al 1% de las cuotas recaudadas procedentes de determinadas empresas asociadas que, por no transmitir sus datos a través del Sistema RED, sólo podrían haber dado lugar a una retribución del 1% de sus cuotas (segundo párrafo de la Disposición Adicional Segunda de la Orden TAS/1562/2005).

- O bien porque se retribuía a un tercero distinto del que, según la Tesorería General, transmitía a través del Sistema RED los datos de las empresas por las que aquél devengaba la colaboración (apartado 2 de la Disposición Adicional Quinta del Real Decreto 1415/2004).

Las incidencias detectadas afectaban al 30% y al 23% de las retribuciones abonadas por las Mutuas analizadas, en concepto de administración complementaria de la directa, durante los ejercicios 2005 y 2006, respectivamente.

De las estimaciones realizadas, hay que destacar que, muy por encima de la media calculada, se sitúan dos de las Mutuas incluidas en la muestra: la Mutua número 10. "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT", con unos porcentajes del 46% y 36 % de incidencias detectadas en los años 2005 y 2006, respectivamente, y la Mutua número 275.- "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA", con unos coeficientes del 48% y 33%, para cada uno de los años estimados (Subapartado III.6.3. Cuadro número 33).
Por debajo de la media estimada hay que destacar, asimismo, a las Mutuas números 201.- "MUTUA GALLEGA", con un porcentaje del 17% en ambos ejercicios, y 274. "IBERMUTUAMUR", con unos porcentajes del 14% y 6%, en los ejercicios 2005 y 2006, respectivamente.
Las importantes debilidades existentes en los procedimientos de control internos utilizados por las Mutuas en este área de gestión, unidas a los altos porcentajes de incidencias alcanzados por las estimaciones realizadas por este Tribunal de Cuentas, ponen de manifiesto un elevado riesgo de que las Mutuas, no exclusivamente las incluidas en la muestra analizada, sino todas las que integran el sector, hayan realizado, durante el periodo fiscalizado, años 2005 y 2006, pagos indebidos en concepto de administración complementaria de la directa que podrían haber provocado perjuicios económicos para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

Como consecuencia de lo anterior, resulta necesario que los órganos de control del Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración competentes en la materia, esto es, la Dirección General de Ordenación de la Seguridad Social, en cuanto Centro Directivo responsable de la coordinación, tutela y evaluación de la gestión económica de las Mutuas, y la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social, órgano competente en el ejercicio del control interno de su gestión económico financiera, procedan a la revisión de las retribuciones satisfechas en concepto de administración complementaria de la directa, abonadas tanto por las Mutuas incluidas en la muestra seleccionada, como por las restantes Mutuas, al objeto de comprobar la existencia o no de perjuicios económicos causados por este motivo al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social (Subapartado III.6.3).

2.3. Este Tribunal de Cuentas ha realizado un análisis individual de una muestra representativa de las retribuciones realizadas por las Mutuas incluidas en la muestra principal, a favor de sus colaboradores durante los dos ejercicios objeto de esta Fiscalización, años 2005 y 2006.
Los resultados obtenidos en estos análisis individuales confirmaron la tendencia de las estimaciones efectuadas de forma global señaladas en el punto anterior, y se concretaron en la detección de posibles pagos indebidos realizados en los ejercicios 2005 y 2006, por cuantía de 5.469.107 euros en la Mutua "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT"; 3.317.676 euros en "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA"; y 769.153 euros en "IBERMUTUAMUR". Asimismo, a pesar del menor alcance de los trabajos desarrollados en las Mutuas de la muestra complementaria, se detectó la posible existencia de pagos indebidos por importes de 299.792 euros en la Mutua "ASEPEYO"; y 168.724 euros en "UNIMAT" (Epígrafe III.6.4.3).

Todos los importes señalados figuran incluidos en la Conclusión II.4.5.11 y en los Anexos I a V, ambos inclusive, del presente Informe, reservados a la cuantificación global de los abonos realizados por las Mutuas que han sido considerados susceptibles de constituir pagos indebidos.
Los posibles pagos indebidos detectados por este Tribunal de Cuentas obedecen, básicamente, a retribuciones abonadas por las Mutuas analizadas a favor de diversos colaboradores, por las gestiones de índole administrativa realizadas en empresas asociadas, cuyos datos de inscripción, afiliación, alta y baja de trabajadores, cotización y recaudación eran comunicados electrónicamente a la Tesorería General de la Seguridad Social a través del Sistema RED por las propias empresas o por alguna de sus empresas del grupo, y no por terceros administradores complementarios –"profesionales colegiados y demás personas que en el ejercicio de su actividad cumplimenten o presenten documentos de cotización en representación de los sujetos responsables del cumplimiento de la obligación de cotizar"-, como exigen el artículo 5 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión y la Disposición Adicional Quinta del Reglamento General de Recaudación de la Seguridad Social. En estos supuestos, de acuerdo con la normativa en vigor durante los dos ejercicios analizados, no procedería pago alguno ni a favor de un tercero, ni a favor de la propia empresa o grupo de empresas, en concepto de administración complementaria de la directa.
Por lo que respecta a los perceptores de estas retribuciones indebidas, hay que destacar que, prácticamente en su totalidad, las remuneraciones van dirigidas a beneficiar a dos colectivos diferenciados: pagos a favor de las propias empresas asociadas o a favor de personas físicas o jurídicas vinculadas a la Mutua.

Colaboradores relacionados con empresas asociadas: el artículo 5 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión obliga a que sea un tercero quien preste los servicios de índole administrativa a las Mutuas, complementarios de su administración directa, prohibiendo que sea un instrumento de mediación o captación de empresas y que "dé lugar a la concesión de beneficios económicos a favor de los empresarios asociados, así como a la sustitución de éstos en las obligaciones que se derivan de su condición de tales".

Por ello, las retribuciones satisfechas por las Mutuas a favor de personas o sociedades relacionadas con las empresas asociadas para las que se realiza la colaboración – normalmente a través de sociedades del mismo grupo empresarial-, y que, por tanto, no tienen la consideración de terceros ajenos a la empresa, se configuran como una auténtica devolución parcial o bonificación encubierta de las cuotas ingresadas por estas empresas asociadas –normalmente el 3% de las cuotas de contingencias profesionales-.

Esta práctica irregular –dado que son las propias empresas asociadas o sociedades de su mismo grupo empresarial las que transmiten sus datos en el Sistema RED y, por tanto, no pueden dar lugar a la percepción por terceros de retribución alguna en concepto de administración complementaria de la directa-, supone la concesión de un beneficio económico, de carácter discriminatorio, a favor de determinados empresarios asociados, práctica expresamente prohibida por el Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión (Epígrafe III.6.4.2).

Asimismo, este Tribunal de Cuentas ha podido constatar que esta retribución constituye un incentivo más en la oferta –incluso escrita- que las Mutuas presentan a las empresas para la suscripción de los documentos de asociación a una determinada Mutua, para la cobertura de las contingencias profesionales y, en su caso, comunes, por lo que se convierte en un instrumento de captación de empresas asociadas y, por tanto, de competencia desleal entre Mutuas, igualmente prohibido por el Reglamento (Epígrafe III.8.1.4).

Colaboradores vinculados con las Mutuas: por lo que respecta a los colaboradores vinculados con las propias Mutuas, se reiteran las incidencias ya puestas de manifiesto en el análisis del resto de las personas o entidades vinculadas a las Mutuas, y que figuran detalladas en la Conclusión II.4.5.2 del presente Informe, tanto en lo que respecta a las características que les definen, como en lo que afecta a las debilidades de los procedimientos utilizados en su contratación, o en el seguimiento de la ejecución de los servicios que prestan, o en lo relativo al incumplimiento del régimen de incompatibilidades que afecta al personal de las Mutuas.

Estas retribuciones, asimismo, se han considerado indebidas dado que no son los colaboradores vinculados a las Mutuas que perciben la retribución, sino, generalmente, las propias empresas asociadas, quienes transmiten sus datos en el Sistema RED y, por tanto, estas empresas no pueden dar lugar a la percepción por terceros de retribución alguna en concepto de administración complementaria de la directa. En determinados supuestos, este Tribunal de Cuentas ha podido constatar que las propias empresas asociadas no conocían quienes eran los colaboradores –personas vinculadas a las Mutuas- que percibían esta retribución por una labor que no realizaban.

El pago indebido de retribuciones a favor de colaboradores vinculados a las Mutuas, es una manifestación más del riesgo específico que presenta la existencia de personas o sociedades vinculadas, riesgo potenciado en el área de administración complementaria de la directa por la práctica ausencia de procedimientos de control interno que garanticen la efectiva prestación del servicio y que han conducido, en algunos casos, al enriquecimiento sin causa de estas personas o entidades vinculadas a las Mutuas, en detrimento del patrimonio público de la Seguridad Social (Epígrafe III.6.4.1).

2.4. Este Tribunal de Cuentas remitió un cuestionario a una muestra de empresas asociadas a las Mutuas "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT", "IBERMUTUAMUR" y "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA", seleccionadas con el objetivo de obtener la confirmación sobre la identidad del tercero que, por cuenta de la Mutua a la que estaban asociadas, les prestaba su apoyo en gestiones de índole administrativa y, en su caso, la naturaleza de las prestaciones o servicios recibidos en concepto de administración complementaria de la directa (Subapartado III.6.5).

Los resultados del tratamiento de las encuestas recibidas son concluyentes:

- El 28% de los cuestionarios recibidos indicaban que los colaboradores cuya asignación había sido facilitada por la Mutua, y que percibían por ello la retribución correspondiente, no sólo no realizaban actividad administrativa o asistencial alguna, sino que ni tan siquiera visitaban a la empresa.

- El 42% de las respuestas que sí atribuían actividades administrativas o asistenciales a los colaboradores, asignaba simultáneamente esas mismas funciones a personal de la propia Mutua.

- Por lo que afecta a las visitas recibidas por las empresas circularizadas, el 91% de las que eran visitadas por los colaboradores asignados, eran, asimismo, visitadas por personal de la propia Mutua a la que estaban asociadas. La duplicidad de actuaciones detectada es contraria a los principios de eficiencia y economía que, por mandato constitucional, han de presidir la ejecución del gasto público.

- Por último, el 64% de los formularios recibidos indicaban que el colaborador asignado fue, en su momento, el intermediario en la captación o asociación de la empresa con la Mutua. Esta circunstancia evidencia la relación que existe entre la figura del colaborador y la del agente mediador de seguros cuya función es, fundamentalmente, la de captación.

Por todo ello, los resultados obtenidos de la circularización realizada a una muestra de empresas asociadas, evidencian que:

- Las Mutuas están retribuyendo, en muchos supuestos, a terceros a pesar de que éstos no realizan actividad administrativa alguna de colaboración entre la Mutua y la empresa asociada.

- Las actividades que realizan estos terceros, en aquellos supuestos en los que éstas sí se hacen efectivas, se superponen, en un porcentaje muy significativo de los casos, con las que realiza personal de la propia Mutua, con la consiguiente duplicidad de costes para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

En ambos supuestos la figura de la administración complementaria de la directa se evidencia como innecesaria (Subapartado III.6.5).

2.5. Con fecha 27 de diciembre de 2007, el Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales dictó la Orden TAS/3859/2007, de 27 de diciembre, por la que se acomete una nueva regulación de la contraprestación a satisfacer por las Mutuas por los servicios de administración complementaria de la directa 17, entre cuyas novedades destacan las siguientes:

-La nueva regulación introduce, como elemento positivo, diversas herramientas de mejora en el control y la transparencia de esta actividad de colaboración, entre las que adquiere especial relevancia la exigencia de la formalización de un contrato entre el colaborador y la correspondiente Mutua, con descripción precisa de los servicios a prestar y con enumeración de las empresas asociadas en las que se vayan a prestar dichos servicios.

Un avance adicional importante está constituido por el establecimiento de un régimen de incompatibilidades para poder prestar los servicios de la administración complementaria de la directa para todas aquellas personas que se encuentren en diversas situaciones (pensionistas de la Seguridad Social, empleados al servicio de cualquier Administración Pública, personas que mantengan cualquier tipo de relación laboral, mercantil o de prestación de servicios con la Mutua, o que ostenten la condición de mediadores de seguros privados o auxiliares externos de los mismos).

-Sin embargo, introduce en su artículo 2. Contraprestación de las Mutuas por los servicios de gestión administrativa prestados por las empresas asociadas, una nueva retribución al permitir que determinadas empresas, en razón de su tamaño –más de 500 trabajadores 18-, perciban por sí mismas el importe del 3% de las cuotas que hayan ingresado por accidentes de trabajo y enfermedades profesionales, mediante la suscripción de un contrato de colaboración con la Mutua a la que estén asociadas, como si ellas mismas prestaran los servicios de índole administrativa para esa Mutua -prestación de servicios reservada a terceros por el Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión-.

Sobre este “descuento” pueden hacerse las siguientes observaciones:

- Implica un “descuento” sobre la Tarifa de Primas de Accidentes de Trabajo, contenida en la Disposición Adicional Cuarta de la Ley 42/2006, de 28 de diciembre, de Presupuestos Generales del Estado para el año 2007, en las cuantías establecidas, desde el 1 de enero de 2008, en la Disposición Final Decimocuarta de la Ley 51/2007, de 26 de diciembre, de Presupuestos Generales del Estado para el año 2008.

-Supone una retribución al empresario por realizar unas funciones que le atribuye expresamente la Ley, dado que las obligaciones formales accesorias a la de cotizar, establecidas por el artículo 26 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social, son obligaciones que incumben a los sujetos responsables del cumplimiento de la obligación de cotizar, que no son otros que los empresarios asociados.

En este supuesto, la retribución de la actividad colaboradora da lugar a “la sustitución de éstos –los empresarios- en las obligaciones que se derivan de su condición de tales”, práctica que podría colisionar con las previsiones del apartado dos del artículo 5 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión de las Mutuas.

En este sentido, la propia norma tendría que haber precisado qué tipo de prestaciones de índole administrativa son las que puede realizar la empresa a favor de la Mutua, que no entren dentro de las obligaciones inherentes al pago de las cuotas, obligaciones legales que recaen sobre el empresario y que, por tanto, no pueden ser susceptibles de retribución.

- Representa un beneficio económico a favor sólo de determinados empresarios asociados –aquellos cuyas empresas excedan de 500 trabajadores-, práctica expresamente prohibida por el apartado dos del reiterado artículo 5 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión, cuando dispone que "la actividad colaboradora de estas entidades no podrá dar lugar a la concesión de beneficios económicos de ninguna clase a favor de los empresarios asociados".

En este sentido, la Orden TAS/3859/2007 trata desigualmente a las empresas de mayor tamaño (más de 500 trabajadores), en detrimento de las pequeñas y medianas; a aquellas grandes empresas que suscriban un documento de asociación con una Mutua, en vez de con la Entidad Gestora correspondiente (en este supuesto no se devenga retribución alguna); o a las grandes empresas privadas frente a las Administraciones y Organismos Públicos (que no pueden acogerse a este "descuento" de cuotas).

Por todo ello, sería conveniente que, por parte del Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración, se analizara la conveniencia de introducir en la normativa reguladora de la administración complementaria de la directa las modificaciones que fueran necesarias para corregir aquellos aspectos propios de este mecanismo de retribución que no se compadecen con:

-La Ley de Presupuestos Generales del Estado para el año 2008, por implicar un descuento sobre la Tarifa de Primas de Accidentes de Trabajo.

- La Ley General de la Seguridad Social, por suponer una retribución de las funciones que están atribuidas al empresario.

-El Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión, por representar un beneficio económico a favor de determinados empresarios asociados.

- El principio de igualdad en que se fundamenta el Sistema de la Seguridad Social –artículo 2.1 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social (Subapartado III.6.6).

17 Esta norma ha sido modificada parcialmente por la Orden TAS/401/2008, de 15 de febrero, por la que se modifica la Orden TAS/3859/2007, de 27 de diciembre, por la que se regula la contraprestación a satisfacer por las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social por los servicios de administración complementaria de la directa. Posteriormente, ha sido igualmente modificada de forma parcial por la Orden TIN/221/2009, de 10 de febrero.

18 Por Orden TIN/221/2009, de 10 de febrero, este número de trabajadores se ha establecido en 250, reducción que, a juicio de este Tribunal de Cuentas, resulta positiva, dado el aumento significativo del número de empresas que se pueden beneficiar de esta medida, aunque se sigue produciendo una discriminación negativa en contra de las empresas de menos de 250 trabajadores, discriminación que aconseja profundizar en la reforma.

Píramo: Desgraciadamente, en España, con el bajísimo nivel cultural existente casi nadie lee los informes del Tribunal de Cuentas detallando los pufos, el saqueo de las arcas del Estado, y la malversación de fondos públicos; y por si algún despistado cae en la tentación, esconden bien los informes en una web diseñada para no facilitar la tarea al investigador, lo ponen en archivo pdf protegido para que no se pueda copiar, divulgar y leer despacio y atentamente.

Diego, ha hecho usted un buen diagnóstico de esta bitácora: lo lógico y consecuente es que se vaya a pastar en los muchos boboblogs que existen.

ROBERT MULLIGAN: MATAR UN RUISEÑOR, BASADA EN LA NOVELA DE HARPER LEE.

PRIMERA PARTE

Cuando se acercaba a los trece años, mi hermano Jem sufrió una peligrosa fractura del brazo, a la altura del codo. Cuando sanó, y sus temores de que jamás podría volver a jugar fútbol se mitigaron, raras veces se acordaba de aquel percance. El brazo izquierdo le quedó algo más corto que el derecho; si estaba de pie o andaba, el dorso de la mano formaba ángulo recto con el cuerpo, el pulgar rozaba el muslo. A Jem no podía preocuparle menos, con tal de que pudiera pasar y chutar.
Cuando hubieron transcurrido años suficientes para examinarlos con mirada retrospectiva, a veces discutíamos los acontecimientos que condujeron a aquel accidente. Yo sostengo que Ewells fue la causa primera de todo ello, pero Jem, que tenía cuatro años más que yo, decía que aquello empezó mucho antes. Afirmaba que empezó el verano que Dill vino a vernos, cuando nos hizo concebir por primera vez la idea de hacer salir a Boo Radley.
Yo replicaba que, puestos a mirar las cosas con tanta perspectiva, todo empezó en realidad con Andrew Jackson. Si el general Jackson no hubiera perseguido a los indios creek valle arriba, Simon Finch nunca hubiera llegado a Alabama. ¿Dónde estaríamos nosotros entonces?
Como no teníamos ya edad para terminar la discusión a puñetazos, decidimos consultar a Atticus. Nuestro padre dijo que ambos teníamos razón.

Siendo del Sur, constituía un motivo de vergüenza para algunos miembros de la familia el hecho de que no constara que habíamos tenido antepasados en uno de los dos bandos de la Batalla de Hastings. No teníamos más que a Simon Finch, un boticario y peletero de Cornwall, cuya piedad sólo cedía el puesto a su tacañería. En Inglaterra, a Simon le irritaba la persecución de los sedicentes metodistas a manos de sus hermanos más liberales, y como Simon se daba el nombre de metodista, surcó el Atlántico hasta Filadelfia, de ahí pasó a Jamaica, de ahí a Mobile y de ahí subió a Saint Stephens. Teniendo bien presentes las estrictas normas de John Wesley sobre el uso de muchas palabras al vender y al comprar, Simon amasó una buena suma ejerciendo la Medicina, pero en este empeño fue desdichado por haber cedido a la tensión de hacer algo que no fuera para la mayor gloria de Dios, como por ejemplo, acumular oro y otras riquezas. Así, habiendo olvidado lo dicho por su maestro acerca de la posesión de instrumentos humanos, compró tres esclavos y con su ayuda fundó una heredad a orillas del río Alabama, a unas cuarenta millas más arriba de Saint Stephens. Volvió a Saint Stephens una sola vez, a buscar esposa, y con ésta estableció una dinastía que empezó con un buen número de hijas. Simon vivió hasta una edad impresionante y murió rico.
Era costumbre que los hombres de la familia se quedaran en la hacienda de Simon, Desembarcadero de Finch, y se ganasen la vida con el algodón. La propiedad se bastaba a sí misma. Aunque modesto si se comparaba con los imperios que lo rodeaban, el Desembarcadero producía todo lo que se requiere para vivir, excepto el hielo, la harina de trigo y las prendas de vestir, que le proporcionaban las embarcaciones fluviales de Mobile.
Simon habría mirado con rabia imponente los disturbios entre el Norte y el Sur, pues éstos dejaron a sus descendientes despojados de todo menos de sus tierras; a pesar de lo cual la tradición de vivir en ellas continuó inalterable hasta bien entrado el siglo XX, cuando mi padre, Atticus Finch, se fue a Montgomery a aprender leyes, y su hermano menor a Boston a estudiar Medicina. Su hermana Alexandra fue la Finch que se quedó en el Desembarcadero. Se casó con un hombre taciturno que se pasaba la mayor parte del tiempo tendido en una hamaca, junto al río, preguntándose si las redes de pescar tendrían ya su presa.
Cuando mi padre fue admitido en el Colegio de Abogados, regresó a Maycomb y se puso a ejercer su carrera. Maycomb, a unas veinte millas al este del Desembarcadero de Finch, era la capital del condado de su mismo nombre. La oficina de Atticus en el edificio del juzgado contenía poco más que una percha para sombreros, un tablero de damas, una escupidera y un impoluto Código de Alabama. Sus dos primeros clientes fueron las dos últimas personas del condado de Maycomb que murieron en la horca. Atticus les había pedido con insistencia que aceptasen la generosidad del Estado al concederles la gracia de la vida si se declaraban culpables, confesándose autores de un homicidio en segundo grado, pero eran dos Haverford, un nombre que en el condado de Maycomb es sinónimo de borrico. Los Haverford habían despachado al herrero más importante de Maycomb por un malentendido suscitado por la supuesta retención de una yegua. Fueron lo suficiente prudentes para realizar la faena delante de tres testigos y se empeñaron en que ’el hijo de mala madre se lo había buscado’ y que ello era defensa sobrada para cualquiera. Se obstinaron en declararse no culpables de asesinato en primer grado, de modo que Atticus pudo hacer poca cosa por sus clientes, excepto estar presente cuando los ejecutaron, ocasión que señaló, probablemente, el comienzo de la profunda antipatía que sentía mi padre por el cultivo del Derecho Penal.
Durante los primeros cinco años en Maycomb, Atticus practicó más que nada la economía; luego, por espacio de otros varios años empleó sus ingresos en la educación de su hermano. John Hale Finch tenía diez años menos que mi padre, y decidió estudiar Medicina en una época en que no valía la pena cultivar algodón. Pero en seguida que tuvo a tío Jack bien encauzado, Atticus cosechó unos ingresos razonables del ejercicio de la abogacía. Le gustaba Maycomb, había nacido y se había criado en aquel condado;

conocía a sus conciudadanos, y gracias a la laboriosidad de Simon Finch, Atticus estaba emparentado por sangre o por casamiento con casi todas las familias de la ciudad.

MONCHO, EL GITANO DEL BOLERO

PARAULES D’AMOR

Ella em va estimar tant...
Jo me l’estimo encara.
Plegats vam travessar una porta tancada.

Ella, com us ho podré dir, era tot el meu món llavors quan en la llar cremàven només paraules d’amor...

Paraules d’amor senzilles i tendres.
No en sabíem més, teníem quinze anys.
No havíem tingut massa temps per aprende’n,
tot just despertàvem del son dels infants.

En teníem prou amb tres frases fetes
que havíem après d’antics comediants.
D’histories d’amor, somnis de poetes,
no en sabíem més, teníem quinze anys...

Ella qui sap on és,
ella qui sap on para.
La vaig perdre i mai més
he tornat a trobar-la.

Però sovint en fer-se fosc,
de lluny m’arriba una cançó.
Velles notes, vells acords, velles paraules d’amor...

Paraules d’amor senzilles i tendres.
No en sabíem més, teníem quinze anys.
No havíem tingut massa temps per aprende’n,
tot just despertàvem del son dels infants.

En teníem prou amb tres frases fetes
que havíem après d'antics comediants.
D'histories d'amor, somnis de poetes,
no en sabíem més, teníem quinze anys...

ANTONIO MORENO ALFARO: ANÁLISIS DE LAS OFERTAS DE LAS COMERCIALIZADORAS DEL MERCADO LIBRE. TRÁMITE A SEGUIR PARA CAMBIAR DE COMPAÑÍA ELÉCTRICA.

Antonio Moreno Alfaro, nuestro héroe, ha publicado una nueva entrega en www.estafaluz.com sobre otra de las múltiples formas en que las compañías eléctricas continúan con la estafa a los consumidores.
Para leer el artículo completo: " Análisis de las ofertas de las Comercializadoras del Mercado Libre (CML). Trámite a seguir para cambiar de compañía comercializadora"
Unos ciudadanos que se refugian en la ignorancia y delegan la defensa de sus intereses en los políticos, son la base para esta casta caciquil con sede en el Congreso de Diputados, que legisla contra sus electores, nos ignoran, nos esquilman y nos traicionan.
Mientras se prevé que llegaremos a los cinco millones de parados, las compañías eléctricas, por ejemplo, nos han extorsionado 7.500 millones por un servicio inexistente...

LA MALETA DE AGUSTÍN PENÓN: CRÓNICA DE LA INVESTIGACIÓN DE AGUSTÍN PENÓN SOBRE EL ASESINATO DE FEDERICO GARCÍA LORCA

Sinopsis:
"El escritor norteamericano Agustín Penón viajó a Granada, donde vivió entre 1955 y 1956, para investigar el asesinato de García Lorca.
Hizo grandes descubrimientos, entre otros, que al poeta no lo mataron la noche de su detención, sino que hubo tiempo de sobra para salvarle, pero en aquél momento, nadie calculó la gravedad real de la situación.
Tras llamar la atención de las autoridades franquistas a consecuencia de sus preguntas sobre García Lorca, Penón tuvo que salir apresuradamente de España y constató el miedo y el silencio que rodeaban el asesinato del granadino.
Todos los documentos de la exhaustiva investigación que realizó permanecieron ocultos en una maleta durante cuarenta años. El periplo de esa maleta y su valioso contenido –el certificado original de la defunción de Lorca, dos obras inéditas, cantidad de fotografías y entrevistas con el falangista que custodió a Federico su última noche y con el enterrador que marcó el lugar del asesinato- dan origen al documental.
Cuando se cumplen los 73 años del fusilamiento de Federico García Lorca, Documentos TV emite 'La maleta de Penón', un documental de producción propia sobre los últimos días, la muerte y la posterior búsqueda de los restos del poeta andaluz."

"LA MALETA DE PENÓN" se emitió en DOCUMENTOS TV el martes 18 de agosto 2009 a las 23:05 por La 2 de TVE.

Producción: SAGRERA (España)
Duración: 55'
Dirigido por: Manuel Sánchez Pereira

Marta Osorio heredó la maleta de Agustín Penón, y escribió la historia de su investigación en el libro "Miedo, Olvido y Fantasía. Crónica de la Investigación de Agustín Penón Sobre Federico García Lorca (1955-1956)"

LEER Y ESCRIBIR

Para algunos parece sospechoso que secunde la desmitificación de los malos escritores, esos que los vendedores de libros nos presentan como geniales, y no se entiende muy bien la razón de mis andanadas, a pesar de que he dejado claro que, según mi punto de vista, hay algo peor que un mal escritor, y es un mal lector que no advierta la chapuza que engulle, porque tiene el espíritu crítico embotado, su capacidad de discernimiento bajo mínimos y una incomprensión lectora de analfabeto funcional.

En los novelistas que me gustan existe coherencia entre el lenguaje que usan los personajes y su caracter, su origen social, y su mundo interior. Cada personaje ha de responder de acuerdo con estas premisas y el escritor que cae en la tentación de caricaturizar o generalizar en vez de individualizar, o añadirle sus propias reacciones y sentimientos, estropea lastimosamente su creación.

Para explicar la acción y las emociones íntimas, el escritor puede escoger a un narrador omnisciente, capaz de conocer y describir las emociones y motivaciones ocultas de sus criaturas, o crear un personaje que narre lo que le ha sido dado a conocer; pero, en cualquier caso, ha de cuidar que no sea trasunto del escritor y de sus opciones íntimas, porque su biografía y sus conclusiones empobrecen siempre el resultado.

Me gustan Simenon, Baroja, Dostoievski, Émile Ajar, Proust, Frank McCourt, Henry Miller, Colette, María de Zayas, Flaubert y otros muchos, porque en sus relatos describen un paisaje, unos hombres, unos diálogos y una peripecia que se amalgaman y son consecuentes con la narración. Si hay un maquinista de un tren habla como tal, y no como un aficionado a la historia de los ferrocarriles; el maestro rural habla de acuerdo con sus ocupaciones y preocupaciones, y no como un pedagogo de tercero de Ciencias de la Educación, un niño habla con su visión propia y no transparentando a un monstruo infantiloide, las mujeres son congéneres mías con su propia personalidad, los hombres no son caricaturas de la masculinidad, y todos tienen una personalidad definida ...

Cuando el personaje tiene una profesión, una biografía, un medio social, el relato no puede recoger las generalidades que cualquiera podría decir, sino que ha de darle volumen a un ser perfectamente individualizado. Quien escribe relatos de ficción debe tener

a) el oído de un músico para reproducir la voz de los personajes.
b) la personalidad múltiple de un esquizofrénico que le permita plasmar una lógica interna ajena a la suya

c) el sadismo de un descuartizador para cortar lo que no es significativo de un texto
d) la moral de un gato para no mezclar sus convicciones íntimas cuando escribe
e) la autoestima de un insecto para no dejar que el yo-me-mi-conmigo le chafe una buena historia
e) y el hábito de escribir, escribir, y escribir.

En las malas novelas todos los personajes traslucen cómo habla, cómo piensa, lo que cree y opina el autor, y lo que es peor, lo que siente.

Hace falta tener la inteligencia muy embotada para no darse cuenta de que, por ejemplo, una de las novelas más leídas y alabadas, que narra la pasión arrebatada de una mujer provinciana por un turco, no describe a una mujer sino a un homosexual con nombre y apellidos: habla como él, piensa como él, y su sensibilidad es su calco exacto. Si, además, la peripecia es un lugar común tras otro, y en vez de Turquía, cuaquiera que conozca el Albayzín granadino lo puede superponer sin perder detalle, y en la mentalidad del amante árabe está calcado el universo de los bujarrones gitanos, que el autor diga que se llama Desideria, es aragonesa, y que la acción transcurre en Turquía, a mí me parece una broma poco elaborada y no una novela. Pero que los lectores no se den cuenta de la superchería demuestra lo poco que han captado la diferencia que existe entre una mujer heterosexual, sea provinciana o cosmopolita, y un homosexual pasivo y masoquista, o lo poco que comprenden lo que leen. Y no sé qué es más lamentable.

Y como a mí no me pagan un sueldo astronómico por decir lo que no pienso, no secundo a los críticos entusiastas y a los lectores obtusos.

BUSCANDO A LUCIANO NAHUEL ARRUGA, UN NUEVO DESAPARECIDO EN ARGENTINA

"Ni ausente ni perdido: desaparecido por la policía". De este modo los familiares, amigos y hasta estudiantes de la facultad de Ciencias Sociales piden y reclaman por la aparición con vida de Luciano Nahuel Arruga. El adolescente de 16 años desapareció la madrugada del 31 de enero en el partido de La Matanza, en la localidad de Lomas del Mirador, en el barrio 12 de Octubre, mientras se dirigía hacia la casa de su hermana, Vanesa Orieta.

Desde ese día no se sabe nada de Luciano. En la causa hay muchas hipótesis pero nada realmente concreto. En principio, la fiscal que estaba de turno en ese momento era Roxana Castelli, quien tuvo el caso dormido durante 45 días. Fue así que Pablo Pimentel, partícipe de la Asamblea permanente por los derechos humanos de La Matanza logra destituir a la funcionaria, ya que no dirigió la investigación y por supuesto es actualmente investigada. La Fiscal General decide que la causa pase a manos de la Unidad Fiscal de Investigaciones número uno, a cargo de la actual interventora, la Doctora Cecilia Cejas.

"La policía le ofreció que trabajara para ellos, mi hijo se negó y por eso lo secuestraron", afirmó Mónica Alegre, madre de Luciano. No es la primera vez que Arruga era sorprendido por la policía: el 22 de Septiembre estuvo detenido en el Destacamento de Lomas del Mirador acusado por el robo de un celular y un mp3.

Mario, conductor de la línea 96, vecino de la familia Arruga, confirmó: "él robaba para la policía, todos lo saben, pero nadie quiere hablar". Ésta es otra de las tantas suposiciones que hay en cuestión. Aparentemente el chico ,al ser menor de edad, era utilizado por agentes para hurtar y delinquir. Como Luciano se negó la última vez, presuntamente la policía secuestró y mató al adolescente.

La familia Arruga y principalmente su hermana, Vanesa Orieta, ratifica que Gabriel Lombardo, presidente de la Asociación Vecinos en Alerta de Lomas del Mirador (VALOMI) es sospechoso de encubrimiento policial por la desaparición de Luciano Arruga. El destacamento que se encuentra por esa zona se construyó a pedido de la asociación VALOMI, por lo que Vanesa lo acusa del secuestro, además de que Lombardo tiene permanente comunicación con la policía y una gran cantidad de contactos. **(...)

Actualización 15 mayo 2015:

Condenan a diez años de cárcel a un policía por torturar a Luciano Arruga

La Matanza

Lo habían detenido por averiguación de antecedentes. Fue cuatro meses antes de el adolescente desapareciera.

El Tribunal Oral en lo Criminal 3 de La Matanza condenó hoy a 10 años de prisión al policía bonaerense Diego Torales por torturar al adolescente Luciano Nahuel Arruga, cuatro meses antes de que desapareciera.

Los jueces, por unanimidad, encontraron culpable al ex uniformado por ser responsable de "tormentos físicos agravantes" contra el adolescente, de 16 años, en la cocina del entonces destacamento policial de la localidad bonaerense de Lomas del Mirador.

La Fiscalía y la querella habían pedido que Torales fuese condenado a 16 años de prisión, mientras que la defensa planteó la absolución.

Asimismo, en los fundamentos del fallo, se determinó que Torales también aplicó "sometimientos psicológicos" contra el adolescente. El policía participó en la detención de Arruga en Lomas del Mirador, cuando al menor de edad lo acusaron de robar teléfonos celulares.

Según la causa, a Luciano lo "levantaron" en Bolívar y Perú por la figura conocida como "averiguación de antecedentes" y lo tuvieron varias horas demorado pese a que el lugar no estaba habilitado para detenciones.

La acusación dijo que Arruga fue "brutalmente torturado durante diez horas en la cocina del entonces destacamento de Lomas del Mirador", cuando incluso su madre y su hermana escucharon cómo rogaba que lo sacaran de allí porque lo estaban golpeando.

Cuando el chico fue liberado -después de que la madre volviera con su partida de nacimiento porque no tenía DNI-, el joven imputó a Torales diciendo: "Vos me pegaste mientras dos me sostenían", según afirmaron los acusadores.

En el juicio oral se escuchó la declaración de la madre y de la hermana de Arruga, médicos que revisaron al joven y también la madre del policía acusado y otros dos agentes que estuvieron en la seccional mientras el chico estuvo retenido.

La acusación sostiene que desde aquel momento Arruga vivía con miedo de que volvieran a detenerlo y plantearon que el chico se había resistido a robar para la Policía.

El 31 de enero de 2009, cuatro meses después de ese episodio, el chico fue visto por última vez tras salir de su casa y su familia estuvo convencida de que había sido secuestrado y asesinado por la Policía.

Con un recurso de habeas corpus la Justicia descubrió en octubre último que Luciano había muerto la misma madrugada de su desaparición como consecuencia de un accidente automovilístico. El adolescente murió atropellado por un auto en Monte Grande, cuando cruzó corriendo una autopista, al parecer en un intento por escapar de alguien no identificado.

Luego fue llevado sin documentos al hospital Santojanni, donde murió un día después de ser operado. Su cadáver, enterrado como NN en el cementerio de la Chacarita, recién fue hallado el año pasado tras un habeas corpus concedido por los jueces Gustavo Hornos, Mariano Borinsky y Juan Carlos Gemignani, de la sala IV de la Cámara de Casación Penal.

SANTOS DISCÉPOLO: YIRA, YIRA

Música y letra: Enrique Santos Discépolo Deluchi

Cuando la suerte qu' es grela, fayando y fayando
te largue parao;
cuando estés bien en la vía,
sin rumbo, desesperao;
cuando no tengas ni fe, ni yerba de ayer
secándose al sol;
cuando rajés los tamangos buscando ese mango que te haga morfar...
la indiferencia del mundo -que es sordo y es mudorecién sentirás.

Verás que todo el mentira, verás que nada es amor,
que al mundo nada le importa...
¡Yira!... ¡Yira!...
Aunque te quiebre la vida,
aunque te muerda un dolor,
no esperes nunca una ayuda,
ni una mano, ni un favor.

Cuando estén secas las pilas de todos los timbres que vos apretás, buscando un pecho fraterno para morir abrazao...

Cuando te dejen tirao
después de cinchar
lo mismo que a mí.

Cuando manyés que a tu lado se prueban la ropa que vas a dejar...
Te acordarás de este otario que un día, cansado, ¡se puso a ladrar!

UN OJO ALZÓ PINTÍN, MIENTRAS COMÍA

Un ojo alzó Pintín, mientras comía,
y el rabo interrogante de una gata vio, de azabache, alzarse en una mata, tras de la cual su cuerpo se escondía.

Al nombre de Madama respondía, la que a todos los gatos arrebata con sólo dar a ver su anca y pata o pasear ondulante por la vía.

Alegrósele el ojo, al ver propicia la ocasión de ser él, un joven gato, quien a aquella pregunta respondiera.

Ella en lances de amor no era novicia
y, a fin de calentarle por un rato, de un salto, le retó a veloz carrera.

SU HERMANA PEQUEÑA

Trabajar como periodista no es lo más indicado para reflexionar sobre la literatura y la realidad, eso lo puedo asegurar porque ahora me dedico a escribir novelas de ciencia ficción, pero cuando era un joven freelance en "La Noche" sufría con los tijeretazos que daba a mis artículos Peláez, el redactor-jefe, que me reprochaba:
-Esto no es un concurso de juegos florales.
-Yo creo que se puede hacer un artículo bien escrito y se puede describir la realidad sin ser zafios... -le contestaba yo, irritado y solemne; aunque ¿qué joven no es irritable y solemne?
-Si te encontraras con la realidad no sabrías reconocerla, hijo mío. Te he pedido que cubras la información sobre la visita del delegado de Transportes y me has traído una demostración de lo enamorado que estás del Diccionario de Sinónimos...
Aquel redactor jefe trataba de enseñar el oficio a base de tomarnos el pelo:
- Seréis periodistas el día que comprendáis que el protagonista de un artículo no es el que redacta la noticia ni el personaje que entrevista, sino el anunciante que os paga el sueldo y quiere que su anuncio lo vea mucha gente.
Pero al tachar un párrafo me decía:
-Esto está muy bien escrito.
-¿Y entonces, por qué lo tacha?
-Porque el lector va a leer este artículo en el bar, durante el desayuno, con un ojo puesto en el café y el bollo, oyendo una discusión sobre el portero que se dejó golear, y quiero que piense que es muy listo porque lo ha comprendido. No hay tiempo para hacerle degustar frases.
-La vocación de escritor es un corsé de escayola para el periodista- era otra de sus ideas.

Al final, como era de esperar, me llegó la oferta de "El Día" para que trabajara como freelance con ellos, mejorando las condiciones de "La Noche" y con ese as en la manga fui a hablar con Peláez:
-Si no me hacen un contrato como redactor, no me interesa seguir vendiendo mis colaboraciones a este periódico. -le dije con gran dignidad.
-¡Vaya, vaya, el pajarillo quiere volar!- dijo riendo- Bueno, déjame un par de días para decidir... y sus ojos brillaban astutos.
-¿Hay algún encargo para hoy? -pregunté para cambiar de tema.
-Si, mira, me vienes al pelo: tenemos esperando en la antesala a una señora que quiere hablar con un periodista: atiéndela tú... Y trátala bien... es muy importante.
Me resultó una cara familiar, pero no lograba ubicarla, y fue ella quien tuvo que aclarármelo:
-Me llamo Luisa Moreno. Soy la mujer del doctor Carlos Muñiz.
El doctor Muñiz era el famoso psiquiatra que se había hecho popular por considerar el adulterio masculino como eximente en caso de que la mujer cometiera parricidio...
-Claro, usted ha sido su asistente desde hace muchos años: en sus entrevistas siempre sale con usted...
El doctor Muñiz era un fenómeno mediático, casi ubicuo: salía en televisión, tenía un programa de radio, escribía en las revistas, lo entrevistaban para todo... A mí me parecía un fantoche moralista.
-¡Quiero que se sepa quién es realmente ese hipócrita!
-¿Puedo grabar la entrevista?
-¡Por supuesto!
- Mi marido está liado con mi hermana Churri, que es diez años más joven que yo: ha tenido un hijo con ella. El niño se llama Carlos como su padre, igual que mi hijo.
-¿Un hijo al que ha reconocido?
-No, por supuesto... esperará a que yo no sea un estorbo...
-¿Su hermana querrá confirmarlo?
- No. Lo negará. Dice que son figuraciones mías, que estoy loca... Siempre me ha envidiado y estoy segura de que no lo quiere en realidad, sólo lo hace por herirme a mí...
-¿Y su marido?
-Lo negará también. Anoche mismo me dijo que quiere que nos vayamos a Grecia para una segunda luna de miel y me trajo los billetes del crucero con un ramo de rosas, finge maravillosamente que me quiere, pero antes pretende que ingrese en la Clínica Mental de uno de sus amigos... ¡Quiere encerrarme! Y luego, después de haber estado ingresada... ¿quién se extrañaría si muero por una sobredosis de tranquilizantes?
Me indignaba que alguien pudiera planear una atrocidad semejante, pero ante todo actué con profesionalidad y le pregunté:
-¿Y usted cómo puede demostrar lo que me cuenta?
Sacó del bolso dos sobres abultados y desplegó varias páginas manuscritas.
-¡Lea esto!
Para que quedara constancia grabada leí en voz alta: "Mi querido Carlos, amado mío, príncipe de mis sueños: Saber que espero un hijo tuyo es un regalo del cielo, y estoy impaciente hasta que soluciones lo que nos separa."
- Se refiere a mí, claro... yo soy el obstáculo, pero yo no sospechaba nada... de todas formas no perdía el tiempo en mi compañía; pero no lo supe hasta...
-¿Tiene quien le apoye? ¿Tiene quien pueda impedir que su marido le haga esta canallada?
-Mis padres están ciegos con mi hermana, es su ojito derecho... no sé si le parecerá increíble... - y sus ojos se llenaron de lágrimas.
- Yo le prometo que esto se publicará y no se atreverá a...

En ese momento me sentí capaz de luchar y defender su causa aun a riesgo de encontrarme solo contra el mundo. Turbado, bajé la vista y seguí leyendo: "Deja todo, amor mío, y ven. Quiero estar contigo día y noche, abrazada a ti, quiero que espíes como crece mi barriguita, que te pertenece con todo lo que hay a su alrededor y que tanto te gusta..."
Me interrumpí por pudor ajeno, y la miré. Su rostro era una máscara de serenidad y de sufrimiento. Y continué leyendo la carta en silencio: era toda por el estilo, le encargaba por un antojo imperioso la compra de unos zapatos morados para "los piececitos más amados que vibran por correr a tu encuentro", y al final resultaba de una lubricidad repugnante. Y firmaba: "Tu Churri"
Y entonces me enseñó una foto en la que una mujer muy parecida a Luisa, embarazadísima, ponía una sonrisa boba mirando a la cámara. Efectivamente era más joven, pero infinitamente menos atractiva que ella. Y con la misma letra femenina de las cartas: "Para mi Carlos de tu Churri"
-Mi marido la llevaba en la cartera. Ella lleva en esa foto los zapatos morados de los que habla en la carta... se los compró cuando estuvo en Italia, son de Ferragamo, carísimos... Ella se los pidió porque yo siempre quise tener unos...
También me dio la carta de la Clínica Mental, dirigida al Doctor Muñiz, en la que se acordaba el ingreso de su mujer para la siguiente semana.
- Si quiere puede sacar fotocopia de las cartas y se puede quedar la foto, pero me la tendrá que devolver para presentarla como prueba en el Tribunal de la Santa Rota.´
-Necesitaré una fotografía de esta entrevista con usted...
-No me importa, avísele al fotógrafo...
Lucas, otro free-lance como yo, nos hizo seis o siete fotos y salió pitando para revelarlas.
Luisa Moreno sonrió por primera vez, y me dio la mano.
-¡Gracias por ser tan valiente, pero no le extrañe si tratan de impedir que esto se haga público! Mi marido tiene mucho poder...
Escribí el mejor artículo de mi vida, escogí una foto en la que Luisa tenía el brillo de una lágrima en los ojos, y fui a entregárselo a Peláez. Lo leyó con mucha atención, luego miró la foto, y dijo:
-¡Esto está muy bien escrito!- y me lo devolvió- No es publicable.- Y siguió con sus papeles.
Salí dando un portazo y me encaminé a la redacción de "El Día". Allí todo fue distinto. Me dieron la bienvenida, me felicitaron por mi exclusiva, comentaron mi capacidad para transmitir al lector todo el dramatismo de aquella sórdida historia. Sacaron de la hemeroteca varias entrevistas con Carlos Muñiz y el redactor jefe seleccionó las frases que demostraban su doblez para reproducirlas en el artículo.
-¡Vamos por todas contra él! -dijo el director, y me dio una palmada- ¡Lo tenemos pillado por los huevos!
Firmamos el contrato y salí pletórico.
Al día siguiente, con el ejemplar de "El Día" donde salía mi artículo a doble página, pasé por la redacción de "La Noche" y lo extendí sobre la mesa abarrotada de papeles de Peláez.
-¡Resulta que si era publicable porque hay quien no se acobarda con los poderosos! -le dije ufano.
-Ya he visto que Churri ha conseguido liaros con sus delirios...
-¿Cómo que Churri...?
-Luisa Moreno, la mujer del doctor Muñiz, Churri en la intimidad, es hija única.

tengo Sky con el paquete universe que lo unico que no incluye son los porno y otros canales que no me interesan, y mi evaluación es la siguiente:

Pros:
- Buena imagen (lo mejor si tienes un LCD o un plasma)
- Las ventajas de la guia interactiva, mucho mejor que la de Amnet digital.
- Buen audio.
- Gran cantidad de canales aceptables.
- Actualizan regularmente los canales, llevo mas de un año y me han agregado 5 canales nuevos.
- El alquiler de peliculas PPV no es tan caro y mas si lo haces automático con la máquina.
- + Hot channels.

Cont:
- Los putos anuncios mexicanos que salen en los todos los canales.
- La señal se va cuando llueve bastante.
- El control remoto es una cochinada.
- Falta canal 7 ;)

En general si el "review" fuera de 1 a 10 le daria un 8, pero comparado con Amnet o Cabletica lo supera por monton.

ROMANCE: CERCADA ESTÁ SANTA FE

CERCADA ESTÁ SANTA FE

Cercada está Santa Fe
de un fino lienzo encerado, ricas tiendas la rodean
de terciopelo y brocado.
En la más chiquita de ellas está Cristo figurado;
en la cabeza de Cristo
un rubí, de oro esmaltado, si bien le apreciáis, señor,
vale más que tu reinado.
A las doce horas del día,
un moro se ha señalado,
sobre un caballo negro,
de muchas marcas marcado;
caballo tan poderoso
no se ha visto entre cristianos:
la boca tiene hedionda,
el labio largo y cortado, caballo que con sus dientes despedaza a los soldados.
El hombre que sobre él viene parece de gran estado;
un ojo trae de vidrio
y el otro alcoholado, su brazo blanco y velludo,
la mitad de él alheñado:
-¡Salga uno, salgan dos, salgan tres o salgan cuatro;
si no quisiere ninguno, salga aquí el rey don Fernando, le mostraré yo mis armas
y el valor de mi caballo!

El romance de donde procede esta imagen briosa de un moro que se acerca al campamento que los Reyes Católicos alzaron ante Granada, bautizándola con el provocador nombre de Santa Fe, y reta a combate campal a los capitanes del rey y al propio rey Fernando, versaba sobre una hazaña, histórica o legendaria, de Garcilaso de la Vega, el padre del gran poeta. Contra lo que por un tiempo afirmó la crítica, el romance no fue inventado por los poetas del Romancero morisco que imperaba a fines del siglo XVI, ni las versiones del Romancero oral del siglo XX proceden de la lectura de textos impresos (salvo una de los gitanos de Cádiz). Dos cartapacios manuscritos (de 1580 y 1598) conservan versiones viejas tomadas de la tradición oral que nos permiten ver de forma clara cómo los poetas del Romancero nuevo que publicaron textos del romance, Lucas Rodríguez (1579) y Ginés Pérez de Hita (1585), fueron conocedores de otras dos versiones de tradición oral, pero las revistieron con galas moriscas, cada uno según sus propósitos y concepción del género entonces de moda.

En la tradición oral del siglo XX, la escena del reto, heredada de versiones del romance tradicional análogas a las varias que se cantaban a finales del siglo XVI, ha sido utilizada para encabezar otros romances en que aparecía un moro retador: el de Búcar y el Cid, en las comunidades judías de Marruecos; el de Don Manuel, en Cantabria, Asturias y León.

La particular hazaña de Garcilaso (al dar muerte al moro Atarfe, que llevaba la divisa del Ave María atada a la cola de su caballo), hazaña que no desentona respecto a la escenificación caballeresca de la guerra contra el moro tal como la concibieron, para ganar renombre internacional, Isabel y Fernando, fue olvidada entre el siglo XVII y el XX, pero siguió proporcionando el mejor conjunto descriptivo para pintar a un arrogante enemigo infiel.

3.2 QUE NO VUELVA A SUCEDER. INFORME FEMOSPP

Transcripción literal de las páginas 20 al 30 del informe de la Fiscalía Especial para Movimientos Sociales y Políticos del Pasado, FEMOSPP, silenciado por el Gobierno Fox, que había encargado la investigación, y publicado en EE UU, en el National Security Archive, archivo PDF

3.2. Consolidación y auge del movimiento estudiantil
3.2.1. La emergencia del movimiento estudiantil

Viejas rencillas entre estudiantes politécnicos de las vocacionales 2 y 5 del IPN en contra de estudiantes de la preparatoria Isaac Ochoterena, incorporada a la UNAM, desatan el 22 de julio de 1968, una trifulca en la Plaza la Ciudadela. Los motivos son intrascendentes, un partido de fútbol. Como consecuencia, los preparatorianos llevaron la peor parte 65, su plantel fue apedreado y sufrió daños 66.

Al día siguiente viene la represalia. Estudiantes de las preparatorias 2 y 6 de la UNAM, que no habían participado en los acontecimientos del día anterior, apedrean la Vocacional 2 del politécnico; estudiantes de la vocacional 5 se suman al contrataque politécnico.
Se presenta entonces el 19º batallón de granaderos, al mando del Capitán Manuel Robles que, en lugar de realizar su función pública, por el contrario, juegan el papel de provocadores. Mientras la trifulca se desarrolla ellos permanecen indiferentes como simples espectadores y, cuando los estudiantes regresan a sus respectivas escuelas porque el conflicto ha terminado "según sus propios conceptos de equidad y justicia" 67, dos agrupamientos de Granaderos se fueron en contra de los politécnicos 68, "comenzaron a provocarlos y una sección de estos llegó hasta la Vocacional 5, a la que entraron, y golpearon a varios alumnos y profesores, e inclusive vejaron a dos profesoras 69." Esto llevó a una batalla campal cuyo resultado "fue una docena de golpeados y daños por siete mil doscientos pesos 70."
Además de los estudiantes y los granaderos, en estos hechos participaron, porros y pandilleros. Raúl Álvarez Marín documenta la participación del porro Sergio Romero Ramírez (a) 'El Fish', porro de la UNAM, azuzando a los universitarios al enfrentamiento 71. Por el lado del politécnico fue Santiago Alfonso Torres Saavedra (a) 'El Johny' 72, el porro que incitaba a los estudiantes de la vocacional 2 para que se fueran en contra las instalaciones de la Preparatoria Isaac Ochotorena. El Johny recibía pago del Director de la Vocacional 2, Ing. Alberto Camberos López 73.
Por el lado de las pandillas, participaron 'los ciudadelas' y 'las arañas' quienes tenían asolada la zona de la Ciudadela 74. Existen informes de la DFS en los que ambas pandillas protagonizan un enfrentamiento similar contra la preparatoria Isaac Ochotorena durante mayo del mismo año 75. Posteriormente aparecieron sus nexos con funcionarios y priístas en 1970.
Así pues la provocación del Cuerpo de Granaderos, la participación de dirigentes porros –que no eran simples golpeadores- en el conflicto, y la participación de pandillas que tenían nexos con políticos del sistema aportan indicios para interpretar que este conflicto intrascendente fue alentado por algún interés político para caldear el ambiente.

A. Dos movilizaciones simultáneas, el 26 de julio de 1968

La cruenta violencia de los granaderos en contra de la comunidad politécnica provocó la indignación de amplios sectores estudiantiles quienes obligaron a la Federación Nacional de Estudiantes Técnicos (FNET) a responder contra la represión sufrida, convocando a una manifestación de protesta el 26 de julio 76. Partiría de la Plaza de la Ciudadela con rumbo al Casco de Santo Tomás. La manifestación consigue el permiso del DDF 77, no sin ser prevenidos por parte de Rodolfo González Guevara, Secretario General del DDF, de la posibilidad de que elementos provocadores se puedan mezclar entre los manifestantes y ocasionar desórdenes.
Otra marcha fue permitida para el mismo 26 de julio. Esta era convocada, entre otros, por la Central Nacional de Estudiantes Democráticos (CNED) y las Juventudes Comunistas de México (JCM) sector juvenil del PCM, para conmemorar el XV aniversario de la revolución cubana. Esta partiría del Salto del Agua al Hemiciclo a Juárez. Esta marcha, fue reportada con acuciosidad por Francisco Gutiérrez de la DFS*, señalando participantes:

"De las 18 a las 18:25 horas del día de hoy se reunieron en Salto del Agua, ubicado en San Juan de Letrán y Arcos de Belén, alrededor de 600 estudiantes, invitados a participar en lo que llamaron 'Marcha Juvenil por el 26 de julio'.
"Iniciaron su marcha encabezados por Rubén Valdespino, miembro del Partido Estudiantil Progresista de la Facultad de Derecho, facción CNED y Arturo Sama Escalante, dirigiéndose al norte sobre la avenida San Juan de Letrán.
"Durante el trayecto, se unieron a la columna manifestante, grupos estudiantiles que se transportaban a bordo de camiones aumentando el contingente a 1200 alumnos en su mayoría del IPN.
*"Se notó la presencia de Raúl Álvarez, ex miembro del PCM y filial de la Liga Espartaco, así como Antonio Morín militante de la Liga Espartaco. Fuera de la columna iban Gerardo Unzueta Lorenzana y Miguel Leonel Posadas, directivos del Partido Comunista Mexicano (PCM).
"Continuó la columna hasta la avenida Madero y San Juan de Letrán, donde aproximadamente 300 personas se separaron del grueso de la manifestación para iniciar un breve mitin.
"Exhortaron a los estudiantes a unirse como en París, Francia, donde hicieron bambolear el gobierno burgués y dictatorial del general De Gaulle y dijeron que en México debe iniciarse un movimiento similar 78."

Las marchas no se tocaron en su recorrido inicial. Los politécnicos avanzaron hasta el Casco de Santo Tomás, haciendo un mitin en el Monumento a la Revolución. Ahí un grupo de activistas exhorta al contingente politécnico a romper con la FNET, y después se dirige hacia el Hemiciclo a Juárez. El resto del contingente llega a la Plaza del Carillón del Casco de Santo Tomás donde concluyó a las 18:30. Cerca de las 19:30, un grupo de estudiantes opositores a la FNET se apodera del sonido para invitar a los manifestantes a ir al Zócalo. La invitación es aceptada por cientos de estudiantes, quienes se organizan y emprenden el camino, toman varios autobuses, se bajan en el Panteón de San Fernando, y desde aquí inician la marcha en dirección al Zócalo 79.
En las calles de Palma y 5 de Mayo los reprime la policía y se registra el primer enfrentamiento de esa etapa. El grupo principal regresó hasta San Juan de Letrán en donde se reagruparon para dirigirse al Hemiciclo a Juárez, donde se desarrollaba el mitin de la CNED. Les informan de la golpiza que recibieron. Algunos oradores, la mayoría no identificados, exhortaron al grueso a hacer frente a los granaderos e intentar otra vez llegar al zócalo. Esperaron a los grupos dispersos que regresaban y, siendo las 20:12 horas, optaron por realizar una marcha conjunta que intentara nuevamente llegar al zócalo. Marchaban cerca de dos mil vitoreando a la UNAM y al IPN y lanzando consignas a favor de la unidad estudiantil y contra los jefes policíacos y la represión. En el camino, algunos estudiantes sacan alcantarillas de concreto y las estrellan contra el piso para hacerse con piedras.
En estos momentos son nuevamente interceptados por un convoy de policía que creó confusión y temor. La mayoría de los manifestantes se dispersó. El grupo que no lo hizo, principalmente estudiantes del IPN, se encontró con el Gral. Raúl Mendiolea Cerecero que iba acompañado de seis elementos vestidos de civil y un uniformado. El general intentó disuadirlos y recibió, por contestación, una andanada de piedras. A una señal que hizo, la policía atacó a los estudiantes que, de inmediato, emprendieron la huida por avenida Juárez hacia el Caballito y por los jardines del Alameda.
Los estudiantes fueron perseguidos, en su desbandada, por granaderos y policía preventiva. Varios estudiantes que intentaban reagrupase fueron detenidos, y se tiene el reporte de seis heridos 80. La persecución se generalizó por el primer cuadro de la ciudad. Los estudiantes de las preparatorias 2 y 3 fueron golpeados cuando buscaban llegar a San Ildefonso.
Aproximadamente a las 22:30 horas, un grupo de aproximadamente 150 estudiantes que habían participado en la manifestación, se presentaron en las escuelas preparatorias número 2 y 3 ubicadas en Guatemala y Lic. Verdad y Justo Sierra y Argentina, calles que colindan con ambas preparatorias, y procedieron a incendiar a dos autobuses de pasajeros. Cuando llegaron los bomberos con una pipa, fueron rechazados por los estudiantes que se refugiaron en las dos preparatorias y, desde las azoteas, arrojaban proyectiles que no dejaban acercar la policía aledaña 81.

Esa noche, la Policía del DDF informó que había actuado debido a que el presidente de la FNET*, José R. Cebreros Manjarrez "solicitó que elementos de la Jefatura de Policía intervinieran para restaurar el orden y procedieran en contra de quienes estaban provocando estos actos aun cuando se tratara de auténticos estudiantes." 82 Con esto, la FNET perdió la poca credibilidad con que contaba.

B. La culpa la tienen los comunistas

Además de perseguir y detener estudiantes universitarios y politécnicos durante la noche del 26 y la madrugada del 27 de julio en el centro, la DFS y la policía desatan una 'cacería de brujas' en contra de las organizaciones comunistas. Allanan en diversos puntos de la ciudad las oficinas del PCM, el local de su órgano de prensa 'La Voz' y las oficinas de la CNED. Supieron que muchos de ellos se habían reunido en el café de las Américas, y allí también fueron a buscarlos.
Se tiene documentados 96 detenidos [i]. Por la noche la Jefatura de Policía emitió un boletín de prensa en el que dio a conocer la detención de varios de filiación comunista, como provocadores de los disturbios estudiantiles 83.

El saldo de la jornada: Los estudiantes en un manifiesto se refieren a 7 muertos, 500 heridos, 5 conmocionados y más de 200 detenidos por los hechos del 26 de julio.84
Sin embargo, solo cinco heridos aparecen en las listas de la DFS.[ii]
El ambiente que se quiso generar, después de la represión, era el de criminalizar a la víctima; y los comunistas eran un buen candidato para este propósito y, además, relacionar el tema con el ámbito de la Seguridad Nacional. La magnificación y la desfiguración de hechos reales tiene así el propósito de justificar, ante la opinión pública, la decisión tomada de instrumentar una política de estado que tenía como eje vigilar, perseguir y reprimir a la disidencia para tener el control absoluto de la situación, en preparación a las olimpiadas que ese año debían realizarse en México. En esa perspectiva:

- Se le atribuyó a la CNED y a comunistas mexicanos el sabotaje al tren de Juárez que sufrió un accidente 85.
- En relación con la 'Marcha por la Ruta de la Libertad' que habían organizado los estudiantes de la Universidad Nicolaíta, con las JCN y el CNED en febrero de 1968 y había sido detenida por el ejército, los textos de gobernación que se referían a ella, ya reflejaban la línea dura de la guerra fría impulsada por Joe McCarthy, conocida como 'macartismo', con un lenguaje de odio 86.

- A fines de abril de 1968, la DFS presentó una lista de alumnos y profesores del IPN que "se han significado como agitadores". Todos pertenecen a la CNED y Juventud Comunista 87.
- En mayo de ese año, la dirección del PCM tuvo la primera entrevista con el Presidente Gustavo Díaz Ordaz en la que, entre otros temas le solicitan, la libertad de todos los presos políticos y la eliminación de la línea orientada a reprimir las actividades de la oposición de izquierda, y las acciones independientes de masas 88.
- Aparece luego un documento, promovido por Edgar Hoover que denuncia al PCM por acopio de armas 89.
- Las declaraciones del jefe de la policía del DDF que atribuye los acontecimientos del 26 de julio a una "Conjura Internacional" diseñada por los comunistas".... "un movimiento subversivo tendiente a crear un ambiente de hostilidad para nuestro gobierno y nuestro país en vísperas de los Juegos de la XIX Olimpiada" 90 "La DFS reporta que en la asamblea nacional de la FNET se afirmó de los sucesos del 26 "afirmándose que la situación se empezó a preparar desde hace 3 años por parte del PCM y del propio Gobierno." 91
- Del Procurador. La Procuraduría General de la República apoyando la idea de la conjura en comunicado de prensa señala "los líderes del PC y de la CNED, el viernes 26 de julio... con objeto de provocar desórdenes para que se viera obligada a intervenir la policía..." 92
- Luis Echeverría acusa "...directamente a los grupos comunistas que hay en México de haber propiciado estos desórdenes". 93

El estado mexicano caracterizó a dos sectores de la población, estudiantes y comunistas, como un problema de Seguridad Nacional y debían, por tanto, ser tratados con la misma estrategia de persecución y exterminio.

C. Primer pliego petitorio

El estudiantado desde el 23 de julio, respondió con prontitud, organizando paros en diversas escuelas y difundiendo la represión que habían padecido. Estudiantes del plantel de la vocacional 5, en protesta de la violencia y el allanamiento de los granaderos, declaran realizar un paro de 24 horas 94. La represión desatada en contra de las marchas del 26 y la detención de líderes comunistas y estudiantes, los heridos y muertos de esta primera jornada, generalizó la realización de paros indefinidos en varias escuelas; de nuevo se desata la rapidez de respuesta en varios planteles, sobre todo en las zonas del centro, en donde los estudiantes se apoderaron de las calles circunvecinas, creando primero cinturones y vigilando el acceso a la zona; después, creando barricadas.
Desde el 27 de julio el centro de la capital es el escenario de frecuentes enfrentamientos entre estudiantes y granaderos. Cualquier estudiante que transitaba por esta zona, por el simple hecho de ser estudiante, era detenido.
El 29 de Julio, durante una asamblea de Secretarios Generales de la FNET, encabezada por José Rosario Cebreros, se redactaría un pliego petitorio que sería enarbolado por el movimiento estudiantil durante los meses siguientes:

1. - Desaparición del cuerpo de Granaderos
2. - La renuncia de los Grales. Luis Cueto Ramírez y Raúl Mendiolea Cerecero y Tte. Corl. Frías, Jefe y Subjefe de la Policía Metropolitana y Jefe del Batallón de Granaderos.
3. - Nombramiento de las personas que sustituyen a éstas con las características idóneas.
4. - La indemnización si el caso lo requiere, a los deudos de los estudiantes muertos en los hechos del 19-29 de julio, así como atención médica, hospitalización y gastos de curación para los estudiantes lesionados.

5. - Garantías para el estudiantado.
6. - La desaparición del Art. 145 del Código Penal 95

En ningún momento la negociación pareció ser planteada como salida al conflicto por parte de las instancias de gobierno, tanto del DDF, como de la Secretaría de Gobernación. Al contrario, la decisión fue utilizar al ejército como policía, pensando quizás en cortar de tajo el incipiente brote de protesta estudiantil; sin embargo la realidad les demostraría que solo desatarían un movimiento sin precedentes en la historia nacional.

D. La escalada de violencia con la intervención del ejército

Ante la incapacidad del cuerpo de Granaderos de frenar el movimiento, viéndose ellos mismos replegados de las calles del centro capitalino por las brigadas estudiantiles 96, el estado decide utilizar al ejército para inmovilizar las manifestaciones estudiantiles en contra de la represión.
El General Marcelino García Barragán, Secretario de Defensa Nacional se referirá a este tema, de la siguiente forma: "El ejército actuó inmediatamente después de que recibió la petición del regente y del secretario de Gobernación, para sofocar los disturbios provocados... Estamos preparados para repeler cualquier agresión y lo haremos con toda la energía: no habrá contemplaciones para nadie".97 Y así ocurrió.

Soldados de línea pertenecientes a la primera zona militar, al mando del general José Hernández , procedentes del Campo Militar No. 1 (CM1), se dirigieron al primer cuadro de la ciudad. El convoy integrado por tanques ligeros y jeeps equipados con bazookas y cañones de 101 milímetros, y camiones transportadores de tropas salieron del CM1 a las cero horas del día de hoy. La tropa inició su marcha hacia las prepas.98
Los estudiantes se parapetaron en los planteles. La puerta de las escuelas 1 y 3 fue destrozada de un tiro de bazooka 99. Inmediatamente después los integrantes del Segundo Batallón de Infantería, a las órdenes del General Mazón Pineda, entraron a los planteles a bayoneta calada, encontrando una leve oposición 100. La huida de los estudiantes fue cortada por los granaderos y hubo de decenas de detenidos 101. Toda la manzana que rodea la Escuela Nacional Preparatoria fue rigurosamente cateada casa por casa 102, por el ejército. En algunos edificios fueron localizados estudiantes y conducidos a las patrullas de la policía.
Como si se tratase de un asalto a una zona enemiga, la SEDENA planificó una estrategia contra las instalaciones universitarias y politécnicas ubicadas en el centro de la Ciudad de México, hasta tomar por completo la zona.103 Con los Agrupamientos 1, 2 y 3 efectuaron una maniobra de envolvimiento en el área que ocupan las Escuelas Preparatorias 1, 2 y 3 ubicadas en las calles de Justo Sierra y San Ildefonso, dentro del Primer Cuadro de la Ciudad de México para que por medio del convencimiento, permitir que los contingentes civiles que se encuentran ocupando los citados Centros Culturales, depongan su actitud hostil, se entreguen a las autoridades civiles y se restablezca el orden en la Ciudad 104.
En la zona de la Ciudadela, en las vocacionales 2 y 5, algunos estudiantes -300 según informe de la DFS-, que se encontraban en sus planteles a la 1:05 hrs., salieron corriendo dirigiéndose rumbo a las calles de Balderas. Posiblemente tuvieron conocimiento de que el ejército iba a intervenir; aunque muchos de los salieron, dieron la vuelta por Bucareli y nuevamente se introdujeron en la escuela. Un grupo de estudiantes –unos 400-, se parapetaron en un costado de la vocacional 5.

A la 1:50 entraron los granaderos formando un cordón y rodearon la Ciudadela y comenzaron a realizar aprehensiones de estudiantes de la vocacional 5, en las calles de Atenas y Bucareli.
A la 1:55 hrs., frente a la puerta principal de la preparatoria 5, el ejército detuvo a los hermanos Luis Ramírez Javier y Teodoro Ramírez Javier, uno de los cuales iba en busca de su hijo que estudiaba en esa escuela105.
Más tarde entre las 2:40 y las 3:00 de la mañana, una compañía del ejército desalojó a los estudiantes que se encontraban en el interior de las vocacionales 2 y 5, de la Plaza de la Ciudadela.106
Esa madrugada del 30 de julio de 1968, el destacamento militar que participó en la ocupación de los planteles politécnicos y universitarios estaba constituido por los siguientes elementos:
Al mando, el general de Brigada Crisóforo Mazón Pineda

- No.1 Batallón de Fusileros Paracaidistas Batallón de Policía Militar.
- No.2 3er. Batallón de Infantería 2º. Escuadrón Blindado de Reconocimiento.
- No.3 40 Batallón de Infantería 2º. Escuadrón Blindado de Reconocimiento.107

Desde esta primera intervención del ejército en el conflicto estudiantil, hasta la masacre del 2 de octubre, resalta la desmedida fuerza militar empleada en contra de los estudiantes que solo esgrimían reclamos civiles, enmarcados en los postulados constitucionales.

Detenidos y lesionados

Desde los primeros e intensos días del movimiento estudiantil del 23 al 30 de julio las cifras de heridos y detenidos, así como de muertos –que no serían reconocidos-, muestran un manejo caótico para facilitar el encubrimiento de los responsables y la falsificación de información y datos.
Las cifras varían. Fueron detenidos en diferentes rumbos de la ciudad, 343 elementos que participan en desórdenes estudiantiles, la mayoría de los cuales fue puesto en libertad, previa investigación e interrogatorio. Se hacen acreedores a consignación y por tanto permanecen detenidas 39 personasiii. Para Sergio Zermeño

el saldo del 30 de Julio fue de más de 400 lesionados y 1.000 desaparecidos.108
Resalta, a la vez, el carácter de las consignaciones por el que optaría el estado mexicano durante todo el movimiento, evitando la aplicación de los artículos 145 y 145 bis contra los estudiantes, como lo había hecho durante la década anterior contra los líderes ferrocarrileros y del magisterio. De esta manera, los nuevos presos políticos que alimentarían las cárceles serían tratados, desde el inicio, como simples presos consignados a procesos del orden común. El daño en propiedad ajena, el robo, el secuestro, resistencia de particulares, lesiones contra agentes de la autoridad y pandillerismo (sic), serían los delitos a que se les imputaría a los estudiantes movilizados [IV].
Cabe también destacar el carácter selectivo de las detenciones, ya que se tuvo el cuidado de excarcelar a todo aquel estudiante que fuera reconocido como miembro de la FNET, asegurándose bien de que solamente fuera la auténtica disidencia la que resultase castigada109 .

Las declaraciones

El General Alfonso Corona del Rosal, jefe del DDF, el Lic. Luís Echeverría, secretario de gobernación y, en calidad de 'consejeros jurídicos', el Procurador General de la República y el Procurador de Justicia del Distrito y Territorios Federales dan una conferencia de prensa en el despacho del primero. Corona del Rosal informa que, desde el viernes último, mantuvo una constante coordinación con Gobernación y que "al ver las proporciones que los disturbios tomaron la noche de ayer, terminaron por solicitar a la Secretaría de la Defensa Nacional su intervención".
Echeverría, en términos contradictorios, declara que "la autonomía de la universidad estuvo en peligro, debido a ello y en vista de la situación y para evitar derramamiento de sangre, los cuales (sic) se han evitado, fue que se pidió la intervención del ejercito".

E. La UNAM y el Politécnico se unen y conforman el núcleo del Movimiento

Las dimensiones de lo desencadenado por la respuesta violenta del estado mexicano empezarían a lesionar, paso a paso, el tejido social que terminaría roto y que durante años fue el sostén de la vida nacional. Instituciones básicas –como el ejército mexicano, las instituciones de seguridad pública y las procuración y administración de justicia, entre las principales-, fueron estremecidas por los métodos criminales e impunes desatados 110.

A partir del 30 de julio el activismo en las escuelas universitarias y politécnicas se incrementó aún más. En la UNAM se realizaron diferentes asambleas en las escuelas y facultades: A las 9:30 hrs., frente a las Oficinas de Acción Social se efectuó mitin con asistencia de 250 estudiantes en su mayoría de la Facultad de Derecho, posteriormente un grupo subió a la Torre de la Rectoría para hacerle saber al rector de lo ocurrido durante la madrugada. En el Ala de Humanidades en todos los planteles se efectuaron reuniones en las asambleas permanentes. En la Facultad de Ciencias en la asamblea acordaron decretar la huelga indefinida, nombrándose guardias permanentes en el plantel. En la Escuela de Veterinaria se acordó apoyar el movimiento estudiantil por la agresión de que fueron víctimas los preparatorianos, sumándose al paro. En la misma forma, procedieron las asambleas de Química, Medicina, Ingeniería y Arquitectura111. En Odontología los estudiantes de economía organizaron mitin, pidieron que se reunieran en asamblea permanente112. En la Preparatoria 5 por la mañana, un grupo aproximado de 150 estudiantes, estuvo deteniendo momentáneamente en la Calzada de Tlalpan varios camiones, para pintarlos con leyendas en las que se ataca al ejército y a la policía. Grupos de la Preparatoria Uno por la tarde fueron por San Cosme donde detuvieron 3 camiones; pero en este lugar fueron interceptados por la Policía que recuperó los vehículos y efectuó algunas detenciones. Más tarde se reagruparon y volvieron a tomar dos camiones en la misma zona, con iguales resultados, habiendo sido dispersados 113.
La Federación de Estudiantes Técnicos, por su parte, obligada por las circunstancias tuvo que organizar asambleas y acciones en la comunidad politécnica. Haciendo malabares para no ser confundida con la marcha acelerada que tomó el movimiento 114, llegando a acuerdos con el DDF, que no fueron consultados a ninguna escuela en donde pactaron el desalojo del ejército en la Vocacional 5, a condición de inmovilizar a los estudiantes 115.
La FNET fue rebasada por la base politécnica quien acordó en asambleas un paro indefinido y la conformación de las primeras brigadas que buscarían un vínculo con el pueblo 116.

En la explanada de Ciudad Universitaria se celebró un mitin encabezado por el rector Ing. Javier Barros Sierra, ante la presencia de alrededor de 20 mil personas, entre estudiantes, profesores y autoridades de la UNAM y contingentes del Politécnico, Chapingo y la Escuela Normal. La máxima autoridad universitaria repudió la violación a la Autonomía Universitaria:
"Varios planteles de la Universidad Autónoma de México han sido ocupados por el ejército. Durante casi cuarenta años la autonomía de nuestra institución no se había visto tan seriamente amenazada como ahora. Culmina así una serie de hechos en los que la violencia de la fuerza pública coincidió con la acción de los provocadores de dentro y de afuera de la Universidad 117. ...Hoy es un día de luto para la universidad; la autonomía está amenazada gravemente. Quiero expresar que la institución, a través de sus autoridades, maestros y estudiantes, manifiesta profunda pena por lo acontecido. La Autonomía no es una idea abstracta, es un ejercicio responsable, que debe ser respetable y respetado por todos... No cedamos a provocaciones, vengan de afuera o de adentro, entre nosotros hay muchos enmascarados que no respetan, no aman y no aprecian a la autonomía universitaria. La Universidad es lo primero, permanezcamos unidos para defender, dentro y fuera de nuestra casa, las libertades de pensamiento, de reunión, de expresión y la más cara: nuestra autonomía. ¡Viva la UNAM! ¡Viva la Autonomía Universitaria!" 118.

El rector izó el Pabellón Nacional a media asta en señal de luto, se repartió un volante con el título de 'Universitarios de México' en donde manifestaban: La protesta por la invasión a los planteles debe ser organizada. Rechacen a los provocadores. No abandonen la CU. Mañana 31 de julio se llevará a cabo una manifestación de autoridades, maestros y alumnos dentro de CU 119. Los profesores de la Facultad de Ciencias se reunieron y se solidarizaron con la protesta 120. El estado había echado gasolina al fuego.

3.2.2. El movimiento estudiantil de 1968 ha empezado
"El movimiento estudiantil se inició como una querella callejera entre bandas rivales de adolescentes. La brutalidad policíaca unió a los muchachos. Después, a medida que aumentaban los rigores de la represión y crecía la hostilidad de la prensa, la radio y la televisión, en su casi totalidad entregadas al gobierno, el movimiento se robusteció, se extendió y adquirió conciencia de sí… Los estudiantes eran los voceros del pueblo… de la conciencia general 121."
La defensa a la autonomía universitaria retomó gran impulso en las marchas convocadas el 1º y 5 de agosto, la primera convocada por el Rector de la UNAM, Javier Barros Sierra, y la segunda que terminaría con el control que hasta entonces ejercía la FNET en el movimiento.
El salto cualitativo, lo logró dar el movimiento al constituir el Consejo Nacional de Huelga (CNH), como dirección nacional amplia que garantizó la incorporación y la participación democrática de todas aquellas escuelas que apoyasen el pliego petitorio de 6 puntos.

A. Defensa de la Autonomía Universitaria La marcha que partió de la UNAM con

el rector a la cabeza

El 1 de agosto de 1968 se congregaron 25,000 personas en la explanada de CU, en torno al Rector Javier Barros Sierra. Tenían el propósito de realizar una marcha y llegar al zócalo desde CU. Barros Sierra en su discurso mencionó que dicha marcha no solo se manifestaba por la defensa de la autonomía Universitaria, sino por la liberación de todos los presos y el cese a la represión: "Sin ánimo de exagerar, podemos decir que se juega en esta jornada no sólo los destinos de la Universidad y el Politécnico, sino las causas más importantes, más entrañables para el pueblo de México 122." Al finalizar el acto se entonó el himno nacional 123. Por primera vez universitarios y politécnicos, hermanados, defendían la vigencia de las libertades democráticas en México. El rector se comprometió a gestionar la liberación de los estudiantes detenidos. Desconocía que las intenciones del presiente de la república y del secretario de gobernación iban en otro sentido.
La marcha avanzó en orden; sin embargo, un fuerte operativo policíaco y militar se interpuso a su paso en las colonias Nápoles, y del Valle, por la avenida de los Insurgentes. El Rector decidió cambiar el recorrido para evitar provocaciones.

El pliego petitorio de los seis puntos

El 4 de agosto de 1968 representantes del IPN, de la UNAM y de Chapingo dan a conocer el documento de la unidad estudiantil en donde queda plasmado el pliego petitorio de 6 puntos.

1. Los estudiantes exigimos a las autoridades correspondientes la solución Libertad de los presos políticos.
2. Destitución de los generales Luis Cueto Ramírez y Raúl Mendiolea, así como también del teniente coronel Armando Frías.
3. Extinción del Cuerpo de Granaderos, instrumento directo en la represión y no creación de cuerpos semejantes.
4. Derogación de los artículos 145 y 145 bis del Código Penal Federal (delito de disolución social), instrumentos jurídicos de la agresión.
5. Indemnización a las familias de los muertos y a los heridos que fueron víctimas de la agresión desde el viernes 26 de julio en adelante.
6. Deslindamiento de responsabilidades de los actos de represión y vandalismo por parte de las autoridades a través de policía, granaderos y ejército.

Según Octavio Paz, "las peticiones de los estudiantes, por lo demás, fueron realmente moderadas… se resumían en una palabra:… Democratización… Esta demanda recogía la que habíamos hecho un grupo de escritores en 1958 ante disturbios semejantes 124."

El Comité de lucha del IPN se legitima, y la FNET se desacredita
El 5 de agosto de 1968 se convocaron dos marchas en torno a Zacatenco, una convocada por el Comité de lucha del IPN, a las 16:00 y otra por la FNET a las 14:00. Esta última no fue atendida y Cebreros, presidente de la FNET, decide sumarse a la convocada a las 16:00, pero intenta apoderarse del acto. Fracasa y tiene que retirarse junto al puñado de seguidores que le acompañaban 125. Poco pudo hacer ante más de 25.000 estudiantes reunidos Esto inicia la rápida caída del control que ejercía la FNET como estructura de mediación.

La conformación del Comité Nacional de Huelga (CNH)
El 8 de agosto se conforma el CNH como organismo aglutinador y democrático del movimiento, al que podrían integrarse todas las escuelas a nivel nacional que estuvieran de acuerdo con el pliego petitorio de 6 puntos.

En un desplegado hacían saber públicamente que el movimiento estudiantil quedaba integrado, a partir de ese momento, por:

a) Asamblea Plenaria con soberanía y poder político de decisión.
b) Consejo Nacional de Huelga integrado con las siguientes comisiones: relaciones con provincia, brigadas, propaganda, finanzas, información, asuntos jurídicos. Estas comisiones quedaron integradas por dos representantes de la UNAM, dos del IPN, uno de Chapingo y uno de la Normal.

Esto fue un acierto que sucedió en el momento preciso ya que posibilitó la adhesión de amplios sectores estudiantiles, del profesorado y de sociedades de padres de familia, que percibieron al CNH como el único interlocutor legítimo ante el Estado, cerrando el paso definitivamente a los intentos del Estado de realizar una negociación controlada por el mismo.

La Coalición de Profesores de Enseñanza Media y Superior pro Libertades Democráticas
A su vez la organización permanente del estudiantado del IPN y la UNAM, se reforzó significativamente con la participación del profesorado. Durante los primeros días de agosto el profesorado del IPN y de la UNAM se aglutinó en organizaciones de apoyo al pliego estudiantil.
También el 8 de agosto 1968 se constituye la Coalición de Profesores de Enseñanza Media y Superior Pro Libertades Democráticas, con la representación de los profesores de todas las escuelas del IPN y de la mayoría de las escuelas y facultades de la UNAM. La coalición hace suyos los 6 puntos del pliego petitorio del CNH y acuerda sumarse a la huelga general decretada por el movimiento estudiantil. A partir de este momento se incrementó el apoyo al movimiento estudiantil por diferentes sectores fuera del ámbito universitario.
Padres y madres de familia organizados dieron cobertura moral al movimiento de los jóvenes y estudiantes. Las sociedades de padres de familia de diversos planteles resuelven apoyar el movimiento estudiantil.
Un grupo de intelectuales, el 11 de agosto del 68 publican un documento en que manifiestan que las dos extraordinarias manifestaciones públicas (1 y 5 de agosto) "dejaron viva constancia del repudio prácticamente unánime de estudiantes y profesores a la represión militar y policíaca, a la violación a la autonomía universitaria, al anticomunismo del gobierno y de la iniciativa privada, al imperialismo y sus agentes, y a las fórmulas gastadas de un régimen antidemocrático, cuya incapacidad para dialogar con el pueblo y resolver sus problemas con métodos políticos, no policíacos, se vuelven cada vez más evidentes... Los estudiantes luchan por reivindicar las libertades democráticas; por que el ejército y los cuerpos policíacos no se usen para intimidar al pueblo e impedirle el ejercicio de sus derechos; por que el gobierno desenvuelva su acción en el marco de la ley y no al margen de ella; porque se liquiden los mecanismos represivos y anticonstitucionales; por que se derogue el artículo 145 del Código Penal, que a manera de espada de Damocles pende sobre quienes luchan por el progreso y la transformación social de México desde posiciones avanzadas; porque sean liberados los presos políticos; porque se lleve a cabo una genuina reforma universitaria y por una política realmente progresista, capaz de librar a México de la dependencia del imperialismo y al pueblo de su miseria secular 126."
Otro apoyo significativo de ese período fue el de sacerdotes jesuitas que se solidarizaron con las exigencias de maestros y estudiantes. Por último, organizaciones representativas de otros sectores disidentes al gobierno saludaron al movimiento estudiantil. Con fecha 1 de agosto del 68, la Asociación Cívica Guerrerense, en carta de su dirigente Genaro Vázquez Rojas, envió un mensaje al pleno del CNH, que fue difundido como volante en las asambleas del movimiento 127.

Fecha: 24 julio 2002 00:00:00 por: Héctor A. González (tintanegra@mexico.com)

TINTA NEGRAHéctor A. González
¿Usted sabía que el porro identificado como El Fish fue quien proporcionó las armas a los famosos Halcones, aquel grupo de choque para agredir, asesinar y desaparecer a los estudiantes universitarios que se manifestaban el inolvidable 10 de junio de 1971, en el sexenio de Luis Echeverría Álvarez y en la entonces regencia de Alfonso Martínez Domínguez?
El Fish podría ser el eslabón perdido para que rinda su testimonio ante el fiscal Ignacio Carrillo Prieto y tanto el expresidente Echeverría y el ex regente Martínez Domínguez no salgan con sus coartadas. Ambos fueron los responsables de estos hechos sangrientos. No hay más.
Respecto a la matanza de estudiantes en 1968, Echeverría podría echarle la culpa al entonces presidente Gustavo Diaz Ordaz, pero en lo del 10 de junio, ¿a quien le va a responsabilizar?
El fiscal Carrillo Puerto debería citar a la brevedad posible al Fish, antes de que muera “accidentalmente” atropellado en una de las calles de la ciudad de México, para evitar que inculpe a o los dinosaurios priístas. ¿O me equivoco?
Esta es parte de la historia del Fish, un brazo armado del entonces gobierno priísta, quien por cierto deben muchas muertes.
Esta es la historia:
Asesino de estudiantes universitarios, el porro Sergio Mario Romero Ramírez, alías “El Fish”, tiene cuentas pendientes con la justicia desde hace 30 años porque cometió delitos “de lesa humanidad”, afirma Adolfo López, diputado local perredista y líder del grupo Frente Popular Francisco Villa.
El legislador dice que El Fish, por medio de su organización, denominada Ciudadanos de la Antigua Ciudad de México, pretende “erigirse en defensor” de intereses perversos: Giros negros y la mafia del ambulantaje.
Romero Ramírez fue estudiante de la Preparatoria Dos entre 1958 y 1959; presidente de la Generación de Estudiantes de la Facultad de Química de la UNAM en 1962 --fue ahí y entonces cuando creó una red de represión--; y dos años más tarde ocupó la Presidencia de la Sociedad de Alumnos y la Federación Estudiantil Universitaria, FEU. Brazo fuerte del porrismo, la FEU provocó la caída del rector Ignacio Chávez, ameritado hombre de ciencia.
Dos meses antes del Dos de Octubre de 1968, El Fish organizó un grupo de porros armados a quienes ordenó atacar las asambleas y movilizaciones del movimiento estudiantil.
En agosto y septiembre del mismo año del 68, con su centro de operaciones en la Preparatoria Dos, Romero Ramírez, financiado generosamente por el gobierno federal, seleccionó a 60 porros entre los golpeadores más violentos de las escuelas y Facultades de la UNAM, les garantizó impunidad, y les dio la directiva de reprimir a los miembros del Consejo Huelga en particular y, en general, a todos los universitarios disidentes.
Entre los pistoleros que reclutó entonces El Fish en las Preparatorias están los Martínez Corona; El Superman; El Pepe y El Morsi, de la Prepa Cinco; el Nazi, de la Seis; El Musaraña, El Cayos y El Viejo, de la Preparatoria Dos, así como Lamy, Olague y El Puñal, de la Tres.
De acuerdo con las instrucciones y financiado por la Secretaría de Gobernación, El Fish les entregó armas y les estuvo pagando el salario mínimo de aquel tiempo. El preferido del jefe de los porros era El Superman, cabecilla de los matones de la Preparatoria Cinco. Romero Ramírez le regaló tres Volkswagen sedán.
Cuando eran detenidos, los pistoleros del Fish sólo tenían que decir la clave Baena Camargo y la policía los dejaba en libertad.

Pocas horas antes de la matanza del Dos de Octubre, algunos de los porros avisaron a sus amigos que no asistieran a la concentración convocada por el Consejo de Huelga en la Plaza de las Tres Culturas.
El Fish reaparece en escena en 1971, ahora con Los Halcones. En las calles de la ciudad de México, El Jueves de Corpus desquitan el sueldo que les paga el gobierno de Luis Echeverría.
Compañero del Fish, Antonio Solís Mimendi, publicó en 1972 el libro Jueves de Corpus Sangriento (Revelaciones de un halcón. Ahí denuncia que Romero Ramírez "distribuyó metralletas, pistolas calibres .38 y .22."
Solís también dice que el jerifalte de los porros colocó en los edificios altos de las calles de Lauro Aguirre y San Cosme a francotiradores que dispararon contra los estudiantes. Según él, en las cinco horas que duró la operación represiva, "murieron más de 30 y los heridos más de 100 y hubo más de mil golpeados". El Fish fue premiado con cargos de confianza en las delegaciones Tlalpan y Cuauhtémoc, dice el diputado López.
En Tlalpan y Cuauhtémoc, con Guillermo Orozco Loreto y Jesús Dávila Narro como sus jefes, Romero Ramírez se encargó de la comunicación social. Desde luego, hacía las cosas a su manera y de acuerdo con las órdenes y deseos de sus superiores: intimidaba a los reporteros –los que se dejaban intimidar-- para que no escribieran notas que afectaran los intereses y las ambiciones de los delegados y del regente Manuel Camacho Solís.
Posteriormente, Romero Ramírez junto con los sujetos apodados "El Coronel" y "El Sonrisas" se prestó a una farsa: él y sus pistoleros aparentaron pertenecer a un grupo guerrillero denominado Cara, por lo que fueron encarcelados en el Palacio Negro de Lecumberri.
Pero hizo muchos otros trabajos sucios. Fue pistolero a sueldo del actual líder del sindicato del Metro, Fernando Espino. Fiel a la voz del amo, El Fish se robaba las urnas cuando había elecciones; además, para variar, era jefe de un grupo de choque organizado para amedrentar y someter a los trabajadores de ese sistema de transporte.
Acostumbrado al poder, el gran jefe de los porros se lanzó como candidato a la diputación local por el 14 distrito, pero perdió. Ahora tiene la organización Ciudadanos de la Antigua Ciudad de México, donde se ha refugiado.
En las mañanas se le ve comer tamales en la esquina de Reforma y Lieja. Está tranquilo. Sabe que no le van a hacer nada.
No cabe, ni la menor duda, que Los Jinetes de la Impunidad cabalgaban libremente a lo largo y ancho del territorio nacional. ¡Santo Cristito de Colombia!
¡pobre México!

Hola Gatopardo, una pregunta especifica sobre el Movimiento Estudiantil del '68. La manifestación que salió de CU el día 1° de agosto yendo al frente el rector, ¿fue la única que salió de CU?. También un dato que no he podido encontrar en Internet, de un hecho que se dió en el Estadio Olimpico, cuando personal del SMN participó en un simulacro de ceremonia de Inauguración de los Juegos Olimpicos, y en un momento determinado levantaron las manos con la "V" de la Victoria (lo cual generó una gran molestia entre los castrenses y eventuales castigos a militares y conscriptos) Saludos

ALEXANDER STILLE: CADÁVERES EXCELENTES. MAFIA & POLÍTICA

El estadounidense Alexander Stille, profesor de periodismo en la universidad neoyorquina de Columbia, escribió en 1995 uno de los más celebrados y lúcidos libros sobre la mafia (con posterior documental). «Cadáveres Excelentes» rendía homenaje a los jueces Giovanni Falcone y Paolo Borsellino, dos hombres clave asesinados por su lucha contra el crimen organizado en esa hermosa y excesiva ciudad llamada Palermo.
-Una de las frases más famosas del jefe de la mafia Giuseppe Guttadauro es: «para resolver sus problemas, Berlusconi tiene que resolver los nuestros». ¿Cuál ha sido el mayor esfuerzo del primer ministro en este sentido?
-Su esfuerzo por debilitar el poder del sistema judicial y hacer más difícil acusar a los criminales, con leyes como la que ahora se debate en el Parlamento para limitar el uso de las escuchas, cruciales en las investigaciones de la mafia. O la eliminación de las prisiones reservadas a los jefes de la mafia más poderosos. En resumen, meter a la gente en la cárcel por casos criminales es más difícil hoy en Italia. Por eso la frase de Guttadauro es tan gráfica: lo que hace Berlusconi para ayudarse a sí mismo tiene beneficios colaterales para los criminales.
-¿Tiene Berlusconi un acuerdo tácito con la mafia?
-No lo sé y no creo que sea la pregunta clave, precisamente por lo que dijo Guttadauro: la mafia opera con el principio «los enemigos de mis enemigos son mis amigos». Por eso Berlusconi y la mafia están en guerra con el sistema judicial. El problema central con Berlusconi es el conflicto de intereses. Sería obvio que dejara de legislar porque tiene un interés personal en el resultado, ya que su amigo íntimo y ex jefe de campaña, Marcello Dell´Utri, ha sido enjuiciado por connivencia con la mafia. Siendo del norte, el primer ministro no entiende lo horrible que es la mafia en la vida diaria de la gente del sur.
-¿La sociedad italiana hace lo suficiente?
-No lo suficiente. No se han tomado este problema seriamente desde la muerte de Falcone y Borsellino. Hubo una época, dos años después de ambos asesinatos, entre el 92 y el 94, en los que la gente entendió que era un problema nacional. Pero después volvieron a la vida normal, esa «normalidad» condicionada por el poder ilegal de grupos criminales. Ni la izquierda ni la derecha ha visto que esto es una prioridad nacional. El sur vive en un subdesarrollo perpetuo por culpa del crimen organizado. Debería ser obvio que un político que habla por teléfono o va a la boda de un jefe de la mafia debería ser eliminado de la vida pública.

El problema central con Berlusconi es el conflicto de intereses
-¿Estamos más cerca de ver el final del crimen organizado?
-Sí. La policía y los jueces pueden luchar mejor ahora contra la mafia. Los medios están ahí. Lo que no hay es voluntad ni compromiso político, y ese es el problema central. Falcone solía decir algo muy inteligente: la mafia, como todo lo demás, tiene un principio y un fin. Quiero pensar que las circunstancias cambiarán, pero a medio plazo no soy muy optimista pues no veo el compromiso ni en la izquierda ni en la derecha.
-¿El principal obstáculo?
-Italia tiene el problema del sur desde la unificación. Necesitan presión policial y tolerancia cero en las relaciones políticas con la mafia. Y reorganizar la economía del sur. Cerrar el grifo del dinero público para el sur. Adoptar un federalismo fiscal para que el norte deje de subvencionar al sur. La mafia no es el «Padrino», son asesinos y traficantes.

Sinopsis del documental "Cadáveres excelentes", historias de la mafia ", emitido en "Documentos TV", dirigido y presentado por Pedro Erquicia, el martes, 10 de abril de 2007, a las 23:30 horas, por La 2 de TVE:

"Cadáveres excelentes" es la reciente historia de Cosa Nostra de la mano de dos testigos de excepción: el escritor norteamericano Alexander Stille, especialista en la organización criminal, y la veterana fotógrafa siciliana Leticia Battaglia, que durante más de 20 años ha registrado con su cámara los crímenes mafiosos.
Es un homenje Giovanni Falcone y Paolo Borsellino, instructores del maxiproceso de Palermo que pagaron con sus vidas el haber tenido el valor de sentar por primera vez ante la justicia a 19 de los capos más importantes de la mafia siciliana, que fueron condenados a cadena perpetua.
Según "Documentos TV", la existencia de los crímenes de la mafia ha sido negada, o simplemente minimizada, en Italia , durante décadas por el poder político, a pesar de que existen pruebas documentadas de su actividad criminal desde el siglo XIX. De hecho, fue sólo en 1980 cuando por vez primera un político, el comunista Pío La Torre, luchó intensamente para que el simple hecho de ser miembro de la mafia fuera considerado delito. La Torre fue asesinado por la mafia dos años antes de que su propuesta de ley entrara en vigor.
A principio de los 80 hubo en la mafia una sangrienta guerra interna de la que salieron vencedores los Corleoneses, con Salvatore Riina al frente, que lograron diezmar a las otras familias mafiosas. El resultado fue la comisión por parte de la mafia de centenares de asesinatos, que también acabaron con las vidas de altas autoridades del Estado italiano como el general Carlo Alberto Dalla Chiesa, gobernador civil de Palermo y considerado un héroe nacional por su exitosa lucha contra el terrorismo durante los años 70. La máxima tensión criminal se alcanzó con los asesinatos de los jueces antimafia Giovanni Falcone y Paolo Borsellino, que habían intentado dar un serio golpe a la organización criminal en Sicilia con la instrucción sumarial que conduciría al maxiproceso de Palermo.
"Cadáveres excelentes" recoge que, después de varios años de preparación, el 10 de febrero de 1986, comenzó el juicio que se celebró en un búnker especial antibomba, prácticamente tomado por la fuerzas de seguridad y seguido por más de 600 informadores. Presidía el tribunal el magistrado Alfonso Giordano. A los procesados se les acusaba de un total de 120 asesinatos, tráfico de drogas, extorsión y de ser miembros de la mafia. El juicio concluyó el 16 de diciembre de 1987, casi dos años después de su inicio. De los 474 encausados, 360 fueron declarados culpables y condenados a un total de 2.665 años de cárcel.
Fue un gran logro de la justicia, pero la batalla no acabó con el veredicto del tribunal. El proceso de apelación siguió su curso durante cuatro largos años y en 1989 tan sólo 60 de los condenados seguían en la cárcel. Un confidente reveló más tarde que la mafia consintió que se celebrara el maxiproceso sabiendo que los condenados serían muy pronto puestos en libertad, una vez que decayera el interés público por este asunto. De esa forma la mafia podría continuar con sus negocios con toda tranquilidad. Los hechos parecen confirmar que es así como ha sucedido.

En enero de 1992 los jueces Falcone y Borsellino consiguieron las competencias sobre los recursos del maxiproceso. Revocaron las apelaciones que habían resultado satisfactorias para algunos mafiosos que se pavoneaban de su libertad y que, finalmente, acabaron de nuevo entre rejas. Cosa Nostra no les perdonó. Aquel mismo año de 1992, Falcone (23 de mayo) y Borsellino (19 de julio), fueron asesinados por la mafia en unos espectaculares atentados."

En Sudamérica, las mafias fueron fundadas por capos italianos emigrantes de Palermo en Sicilia. Argentina tuvo familias importantes, la familia Sasso, y la familia Galifi, que fueron expulsadas hasta su aniquilación y pocos escaparon a Europa, una investigación publicada en Italia afirmó que la Santa ('Ndrangheta) tiene filiales instaladas en Argentina llamadas 'ndrinas, encargadas de la exportación ilegal de cocaína hacia Europa.[2] [3] [4] Otras de las mafias son la Mafia Peruana y la Mafia Colombiana conocidas por el narcotráfico.

Blue moon
You saw me standing alone
Without a dream in my heart
Without a love of my own
Blue moon
You know just what I was there for You heard me saying a prayer for Someone I really could care for

And then there suddenly appeared before me
The only one my arms will hold
I heard somebody whisper please adore me
And when I looked to the moon it turned to gold

Blue moon
Now Im no longer alone
Without a dream in my heart
Without a love of my own

And then there suddenly appeared before me

The only one my arms will ever hold
I heard somebody whisper please adore me
And when I looked the moon had turned to gold

Blue moon
Now Im no longer alone
Without a dream in my heart
Without a love of my own

Blue moon
Now Im no longer alone
Without a dream in my heart
Without a love of my own

es muy interesante cada una de sus conferencia las realiza basandose en argumentos muy solidos pero lo que mas me llama la atencion es la manera como se dirige a su publico manteniendolo en el tema que se esta tratando pero no es de sorprendernos puesto que este personaje se caracteriza por su manera de dar discursos.

Los periodistas y parlamentarios españoles discuten acaloradamente si es lícito procesar, detener y esposar a los acusados de fraude, cohecho, prevaricación, presuntamente responsables de una sangría de algunos cientos de millones de euros del erario público y si es siquiera legítimo que se publiquen sus nombres y su vera efigie en semejante trance.
La mayoría está de acuerdo en que ese trato infamante debe reservarse para los ladrones de poca monta, a los que tampoco les vendría mal unas cuantas hostias que les pongan las orejas de moño para que aprendan.
El Tribunal de Cuentas especifica cuáles son las tropelías contra lo ajeno de los señores políticos y financieros; el Congreso de los Diputados da por bueno su dictamen; la Fiscalía Especial para la Represión de los Delitos Económicos relacionados con la Corrupción no sabe/no contesta/no le consta.
Los ciudadanos, ya se sabe, preguntándonos qué parte de la lógica capetovetónica aplicar para comprender que, encima, haya políticos, que puedan cobrar 215.376 € anuales brutos (17.948 € mensuales, 598 € díarios), con cargo a los Presupuestos Generales del Estado por dedicarse al noble arte del chanchullo, la cuchufleta, el bodrio, la intriga, la cominería, la sinecura, la vagancia, el contubernio, las canonjías y la mamandurria.
España es el país más rico del mundo: siglos saqueando el erario público, y aún queda botín a repartir.

II.4.5.3. SOBRE LOS CONTRATOS FORMALIZADOS PARA LA COBERTURA DE LA ASISTENCIA SANITARIA Y DEL CONTROL Y SEGUIMIENTO DE LA PRESTACIÓN ECONÓMICA DE INCAPACIDAD TEMPORAL DERIVADA DE CONTINGENCIAS COMUNES

1. Se ha podido constatar la existencia de una importante disparidad entre las tarifas aplicadas por los distintos proveedores de asistencia sanitaria o de servicios de control y seguimiento de la Incapacidad Temporal de Contingencias Comunes, por la prestación de sus servicios a las Mutuas.

En las tres Mutuas de la muestra principal analizadas: Mutuas números 10.- “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT”, 274.- “IBERMUTUAMUR” y 275.- “FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA”, se ha verificado la existencia de tarifas sustancialmente diferentes por la prestación de los mismos servicios (llegando a ser del doble o triple), en función del centro o facultativo que los lleve a cabo o de la ubicación geográfica donde se preste la asistencia sanitaria o el correspondiente servicio.

Si bien estas diferencias pudieran explicarse por razones de mercado (oferta y demanda, calidad del servicio, rapidez en la atención, localización geográfica, etc.), el hecho de que los márgenes de actuación para la fijación de estas tarifas sean tan amplios, unido a factores como la ya señalada falta de transparencia y de concurrencia en los procedimientos internos de adjudicación de los contratos, o la adjudicación de éstos a favor de empresas asociadas o vinculadas directa o indirectamente a las Mutuas adjudicadoras, crea un entorno de actuación que posibilita la existencia de tarifas no ajustadas a precios de mercado, lo que resulta contrario al principio de economía que debe presidir la gestión de los fondos públicos encomendada a las Mutuas.

Por otra parte, las razones expuestas (diferencia de calidad del servicio, de localización geográfica, etc.), no pueden esgrimirse para aquellos supuestos detectados en los que los mismos proveedores facturan por conceptos idénticos, tarifas distintas en función de la Mutua destinataria, como por ejemplo, la estancia en habitación individual en un mismo Centro sanitario que es facturada a la Mutua “FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA” por un importe superior, en un 53%, al aplicado a la Mutua “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT”.

Estas fuertes disparidades entre los precios facturados evidencian, cuando menos, la existencia de importantes márgenes comerciales por parte de las sociedades adjudicatarias, posibilitados por las debilidades en los procedimientos de adjudicación de los contratos que se han puesto de manifiesto a lo largo del presente Informe, que terminan repercutiendo en un encarecimiento innecesario de la gestión y que resultan contrarios al principio de economía que debe presidir la ejecución del gasto público (Epígrafe III.5.4.2).

Por tanto, parece conveniente que por parte del Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración se estudie la posibilidad de promover la formalización, al menos en aquellos supuestos en los que el volumen de concertación así lo aconsejara, de conciertos de asistencia sanitaria para todo el sector, a suscribir entre todas las Mutuas y los principales proveedores de asistencia sanitaria, lo que eliminaría, por un lado, la existencia de precios tan dispares para un mismo servicio, como los que se han puesto de manifiesto en el presente Informe –llegando incluso a duplicarse o triplicarse el precio abonado por idéntico servicio-; y, por otro, posibilitaría la existencia de precios más ventajosos para las Mutuas y, por tanto, para la Seguridad Social, en función del mayor volumen contratado. Carece de sentido que el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, que en definitiva es el que financia estos gastos, soporte costes diferentes para un mismo tipo de servicio.

Por último, debe señalarse que, al menos, la Mutua número 275.- "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA" en los contratos firmados con terceros para la prestación de los servicios de control y seguimiento de la prestación económica de Incapacidad Temporal derivada de Contingencias Comunes, utiliza un sistema de fijación de tarifas a tanto alzado. De este modo, se aplica un coste fijo individual por cada trabajador que esté en la plantilla de las empresas asociadas destinatarias del servicio. Por tanto, el pago no corresponde a actuaciones efectivamente realizadas sobre trabajadores concretos, sino sobre un colectivo potencial, independientemente del número de personas realmente atendidas, y del tipo de actuación ejercida sobre ellas. Este sistema no favorece el establecimiento, por parte de la Mutua, de un control adecuado del coste real de la prestación que está recibiendo de cada empresa, ni la calidad de las actuaciones realizadas. Si el recurso a la contratación con terceros de los servicios de control y seguimiento de la prestación económica de Incapacidad Temporal presenta, como ya se ha apuntado en el punto 2 de la Conclusión II.4.2, dudas sobre su legalidad, eficacia, o control, la modalidad de facturación a tanto alzado presenta ciertas características que acentúan la afirmación anterior –delegación absoluta de la competencia a la sociedad adjudicataria o inexistente acreditación de la veracidad de los servicios prestados, por ejemplo-.Por todo ello, parece conveniente que el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración estudie la posibilidad de no autorizar la utilización de sistemas de fijación de tarifas a tanto alzado para la contratación con terceros, por las Mutuas, de los servicios de control y seguimiento de la situación de baja médica que da derecho a la percepción de la prestación económica de Incapacidad Temporal, por los trabajadores de las empresas asociadas (Epígrafe III.5.3.2).

2. Este Tribunal de Cuentas ha podido constatar la existencia de un tratamiento dispar por las Mutuas en la prestación de asistencia sanitaria derivada de contingencias profesionales en el extranjero, a los trabajadores desplazados por sus empresas asociadas. Mientras que determinadas Mutuas, como por ejemplo la número 274.- "IBERMUTUAMUR", se limitan a aplicar el Reglamento (CE) número 883/2004, del Parlamento Europeo y del Consejo, de 29 de abril, para la prestación de la asistencia sanitaria en los países miembros de la Unión Europea, Espacio Económico Europeo o Suiza, o los convenios bilaterales suscritos por España en materia de Seguridad Social con otros países, otras Mutuas ofertan la cobertura de la asistencia sanitaria en el extranjero, con independencia del país en que ésta tenga que prestarse, a través de seguros privados de asistencia de cobertura mundial. Así actúan, por ejemplo, las Mutuas números 151.- "ASEPEYO", 183.- "MUTUA BALEAR" o 275.- "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA".

Con carácter general, con independencia de la cobertura mundial de la asistencia sanitaria en el extranjero, este tipo de pólizas no hacen referencia alguna a que la cobertura se circunscriba a contingencias profesionales, por lo que la asistencia sanitaria incluye indebidamente los supuestos en los que la contingencia origen sea la enfermedad común o el accidente no laboral; además, no se precisa la necesidad de que los asegurados sean trabajadores desplazados al extranjero por motivos laborales por parte de las empresas asociadas a la Mutua; y, por último, contemplan otras coberturas que nada tienen que ver con la acción protectora del Sistema de la Seguridad Social.

Por otro lado, las pólizas de seguros analizadas suponen, en algunos casos, un trato discriminatorio bien a favor de determinadas empresas asociadas (el supuesto de "IBERIA" en la Mutua "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA"), o bien a favor de un determinado colectivo de trabajadores (el supuesto de "pilotos" de compañías aéreas en la "MUTUA BALEAR"). Discriminación que va en contra del principio de igualdad que preside la acción protectora del Sistema de la Seguridad Social (artículo 2.1 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social).
A mayor abundamiento, estas Mutuas han incumplido el artículo 12 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión, dado que dichos seguros no han contado con la autorización previa del órgano de dirección y tutela de las Mutuas a pesar de afectar a las prestaciones sanitarias y recuperadoras para las que resulta preceptiva la autorización ministerial.
En consecuencia, este Tribunal de Cuentas considera que los seguros privados de asistencia sanitaria de los trabajadores trasladados al extranjero, suscritos por estas Mutuas, exceden de la cobertura prevista tanto en el referido Reglamento (CE) número 883/2004, para la asistencia sanitaria a prestar en los Estados miembros de la Unión Europea, Espacio Económico Europeo o Suiza, como de la establecida en los Convenios bilaterales suscritos por España con otros países en materia de Seguridad Social que sí contemplan la cobertura de la asistencia sanitaria.
Por ello, el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración debe instar a las Mutuas números 151.- "ASEPEYO", 183.- "MUTUA BALEAR" y 275.- "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA" a que procedan a la rescisión de los contratos de seguro privados de cobertura mundial de la asistencia sanitaria en el extranjero, con independencia de que, si las necesidades lo justifican, promueva una nueva y actualizada normativa que regule la asistencia sanitaria, tanto de contingencias comunes como profesionales, para los trabajadores desplazados al extranjero al servicio de empresas españolas (Epígrafe III.5.5.1).
Como consecuencia de lo anterior, resulta necesario que los órganos de control del Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración procedan a la revisión de las pólizas de seguro de cobertura mundial de asistencia sanitaria, contratadas tanto por las Mutuas incluidas en la muestra seleccionada como por las restantes Mutuas, al objeto de comprobar su adecuación a la normativa aplicable.

3. Este Tribunal de Cuentas ha podido constatar que, al menos, las Mutuas números 10.- "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT" y 275.- "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA" prestan asistencia sanitaria a colectivos que no están incluidos en la acción protectora que dispensan en cuanto Entidades Colaboradoras de la Seguridad Social, posibilidad que puede ser autorizada, con carácter excepcional, por el Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales –actualmente Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración-, de acuerdo con las previsiones del artículo 12.6 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión.
Esta asistencia sanitaria se presta utilizando diferentes tarifas en función del destinatario al que se dirija, lo que puede suponer, al no quedar suficientemente objetivada la aplicación de la tarifa, un incumplimiento del principio de igualdad que debe presidir la ejecución de los gastos e ingresos públicos. Como ejemplo, se citan a continuación los casos observados:

- La Mutua número 10.- "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT" tiene aprobadas unas tarifas de ingresos aplicables en el caso de que la Mutua prestase con sus medios propios, atención sanitaria a colectivos ajenos a los trabajadores de sus empresas asociadas o a los trabajadores por cuenta propia adheridos. Resulta destacable el hecho de que existen varios grupos de tarifas que se diferencian en función del destinatario de la asistencia: Mutua General de Seguros, prestaciones sanitarias del seguro escolar, compañías de seguros, otras Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social, Instituto Nacional de la Seguridad Social y varios y particulares.

-Igualmente, la Mutua número 275.- "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA", utiliza unas tarifas para facturar por los servicios sanitarios prestados en centros propios, que distinguen entre los distintos tipos de colectivos siguientes: privados, privados por conciertos (empresas asociadas, Mutuas, Compañías de Seguros y otros sujetos con los que se mantenga un acuerdo para la prestación de servicios y cuyo importe es inferior en un 25% a las tarifas de tipo privado), tarifas según Concierto suscrito entre el Instituto Nacional de la Seguridad Social y la Asociación de Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo, tarifas según Convenio para accidentes de tráfico, y tarifas para conciertos específicos con la autorización previa de la Subdirección General de Gestión de la propia Mutua. Además, la normativa interna de la Mutua dispone que cuando concurran circunstancias que lo justifiquen la Subdirección General de Gestión podrá efectuar bonificaciones en la tarifa aplicable.

Esta práctica podría estar encubriendo un trato de favor a determinados colectivos tales como trabajadores de empresas asociadas sin derecho a la cobertura de asistencia sanitaria –por tratarse de empresas colaboradoras, de las previstas en el artículo 77 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social-, directivos de empresas asociadas, etc., lo que puede suponer un incumplimiento del principio de igualdad y una vulneración de la prohibición de concesión de beneficios económicos de ninguna clase a favor de los empresarios asociados –artículo 5.2 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión-.
En este sentido, el "Informe de Fiscalización de la contratación suscrita por el Sector Público Estatal durante los ejercicios 1999, 2000 y 2001", aprobado por el Pleno del Tribunal de Cuentas, en su sesión de 25 de marzo de 2004, indicaba que continuaban celebrándose de forma irregular por las Mutuas conciertos para la prestación de sus servicios sanitarios y recuperadores a entidades privadas, a pesar de su carácter excepcional previsto en el artículo 12.6 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión y de la prohibición de que la actuación de las Mutuas pueda dar lugar a operaciones de lucro mercantil, prevista en el artículo 5.1 de dicho Reglamento.
El Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración debería proceder a verificar las tarifas actuales utilizadas por las Mutuas para la prestación de asistencia sanitaria a colectivos que no están incluidos en la acción protectora que dispensan en cuanto Entidades Colaboradoras de la Seguridad Social, para evitar su utilización discriminatoria entre diversos colectivos.
Asimismo, el Ministerio debe velar por la utilización restrictiva de la posibilidad señalada anteriormente de celebrar conciertos para la utilización de sus instalaciones sanitarias o recuperadoras con entidades privadas, y, en el marco de la autorización administrativa que ha de conceder a las Mutuas "para la utilización de sus medios sanitarios y recuperadores" establecida en el artículo 12.6 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión, proceder a la aprobación de las tarifas correspondientes –y su actualización anual-, para garantizar que, con los medios de la Seguridad Social, no se realice ningún tipo de trato discriminatorio a empresa o colectivo algunos (Epígrafe III.5.5.2).

4. Las Mutuas dispensan con medios ajenos un elevado porcentaje de la asistencia sanitaria que prestan: más de 472 millones de euros en el ejercicio 2006 y más del 31% de todo el gasto de asistencia sanitaria, tanto de atención primaria como especializada, que gestionan. Y dentro de la asistencia sanitaria derivada de accidentes de trabajo y enfermedades profesionales, prestada con medios ajenos, la mayoría se ejecuta con entidades privadas. Así en el ejercicio 2006, en atención primaria, la concertación con entidades privadas supuso más del 85% del total del gasto realizado por las Mutuas con medios ajenos, y en el supuesto de la atención especializada este índice representó más del 56%.

Sin embargo, este Tribunal de Cuentas ha podido constatar la existencia de recursos propios ociosos en el sector. Así, para las cinco mayores Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social que cuentan con centros sanitarios propios, el índice de ocupación de los mismos en el ejercicio 2006, de acuerdo con la información facilitada al respecto por sus Cuentas Anuales, ha oscilado entre el 67% alcanzado por la Mutua número 275.- "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA" y el 44% que sólo ha podido obtener la Mutua 274.- "IBERMUTUAMUR". Con estos elevados porcentajes de recurso a la concertación de la asistencia sanitaria con entidades privadas ajenas y con estos reducidos niveles de ocupación de los medios propios, resulta especialmente llamativo el escaso recurso a la concertación con otras Mutuas -el 0,70% en atención especializada- provocado por un mal entendido principio de competencia entre ellas. Este sistema es claramente contrario a los principios de economía y eficiencia que deben presidir la gestión económico financiera del Sector Público, según el artículo 31.2 de la Constitución Española.
A este respecto, este Tribunal de Cuentas en su "Informe de Fiscalización de inmuebles en uso por las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo Y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social", aprobado por el Pleno en su sesión de fecha 17 de diciembre de 1998, ya puso de manifiesto la posibilidad de que se estuviera produciendo esta situación: "En los centros de asistencia hospitalaria visitados en esta fiscalización se ha confirmado que el índice de ocupación de las camas es muy bajo, incluso teniendo en cuenta que en la ocupación se incluye la asistencia prestada indebidamente".
Asimismo, el "Informe de Fiscalización de los Centros Mancomunados de las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social. Ejercicio 1996", aprobado por el Pleno del Tribunal de Cuentas el 28 de junio de 2000, puso de manifiesto el mismo hecho para este tipo de centros: "En los Centros Mancomunados de Mutuas se ha producido una excesiva dotación de medios en relación con la demanda existente".

En este sentido resulta especialmente destacable, como positiva a juicio de este Tribunal de Cuentas, la modificación promovida por la Secretaría de Estado de la Seguridad Social del Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales, del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión de las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social, operada por el Real Decreto 1765/2007, de 28 de diciembre, por la que se añade un apartado 2 a su artículo 14, redactado del siguiente tenor literal: "con la finalidad de obtener la mayor eficacia y racionalización en la utilización de los recursos gestionados, las mutuas podrán establecer entre sí los mecanismos de colaboración y de cooperación que sean necesarios. En tales casos, la modalidad de colaboración adoptada podrá revestir forma mancomunada, en los términos previstos en el artículo 12.2 de este Reglamento, y la puesta en común podrá incluir cuantos instrumentos, medios y servicios sean necesarios en orden a la mayor eficacia de los fines señalados".
El Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración debe potenciar la colaboración y cooperación entre las Mutuas para obtener el mayor grado de aprovechamiento de los recursos sanitarios disponibles (Epígrafe III.5.5.3).

II.4.5.4. SOBRE LA CONTRATACIÓN LABORAL

1. El régimen de contratación del personal al servicio de las Mutuas, así como su régimen retributivo, no están sujetos a las normas administrativas reguladoras de esta materia en el Sector Público (Ley 30/1984, de 2 de agosto, de medidas para la Reforma de la Función Pública y sucesivas Leyes de Presupuestos Generales del Estado, básicamente).

Sin embargo, el carácter de fondos públicos del total de los ingresos de las Mutuas haría aconsejable que el régimen de contratación, en general, del personal destinado a prestar sus servicios en el sector, estuviera sujeto a los principios generales que inspiran el régimen de contratación de los empleados públicos, es decir, a los principios constitucionales de igualdad, mérito y capacidad, así como al principio general de publicidad.
Este Tribunal de Cuentas ha podido constatar que, en el período objeto de fiscalización, estos principios generales no han sido garantizados en los procesos de contratación de personal desarrollados por las Mutuas (Apartado III.7). El régimen retributivo general del personal al servicio de las Mutuas tampoco se encuentra sujeto a los principios generales que inspiran las retribuciones de los empleados públicos, su determinación y límites cuantitativos (Subapartado III.7.1).

2. En particular, por lo que respecta a las retribuciones del personal sujeto a contratos de alta dirección y del resto del personal que ocupa cargos de responsabilidad, hay que destacar los siguientes aspectos:

En el ejercicio 2006, teniendo en cuenta sólo los datos obtenidos en las ocho Mutuas incluidas en la muestra, se deduce que un total de 237 personas habrían percibido, con cargo a los fondos públicos que gestionan las Mutuas, unas retribuciones íntegras superiores a las abonadas, de acuerdo con la Ley de Presupuestos Generales del Estado para el año 2006, a los altos cargos del Gobierno y de la Administración General del Estado durante dicho ejercicio. En el ejercicio anterior esta cifra se elevó, para las ocho Mutuas analizadas a 220 personas
Este Tribunal de Cuentas ha detectado en las Mutuas analizadas que las retribuciones medias del conjunto de personas que han superado las percibidas por los altos cargos del Gobierno y de la Administración General del Estado, pasaron de 108 mil euros en el año 2005 a 111 mil euros en 2006, cifras muy superiores a las fijadas, en general, por las respectivas Leyes de Presupuestos Generales del Estado para ambos ejercicios a los altos cargos del Gobierno y de la Administración General del Estado.
Existe una gran disparidad entre las Mutuas analizadas, en cuanto a la retribución máxima percibida por su personal directivo. Hay que destacar la existencia de tres Directores Gerentes que, en el año 2006 y sólo en las ocho Mutuas analizadas, han percibido retribuciones por encima de los 290 mil euros, y que la retribución media de los Directores Gerentes, en estas ocho Mutuas, se ha situado en dicho ejercicio en 225 mil euros.
Por último, es preciso señalar que en los contratos de alta dirección suscritos por las Mutuas con su personal directivo aparecen cláusulas abusivas o contrarias al ordenamiento jurídico, tales como la fijación de retribuciones variables desproporcionadas, la previsión de indemnizaciones por despido superiores a las previstas en el Estatuto de los Trabajadores, o la no exigencia de dedicación exclusiva que sí resulta obligatoria para los altos cargos de la Administración.
La existencia de retribuciones satisfechas con cargo a fondos públicos tan elevadas, así como de incrementos anuales por encima de los fijados para el conjunto de los empleados públicos, son contrarias al principio de economía que, de acuerdo con el artículo 31.2 de la Constitución Española, debe presidir la programación y ejecución del gasto público (Subapartados III.7.1 y III.7.2).

3. Se ha podido constatar que la Mutua número 10.- “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT” ha satisfecho, con cargo a su patrimonio histórico, un importe de 602.312 euros en el ejercicio 2006 y 462.931 euros en el año 2005, en concepto de retribuciones, a siete y seis empleados de la Mutua, respectivamente, para cada uno de los ejercicios señalados, como complemento de las percibidas por éstos con cargo al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social. Esta forma de proceder, si bien no ha causado un perjuicio directo al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, ha supuesto un pago improcedente, además de una ocultación al Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales de las retribuciones íntegras de este personal ya que, en el proceso de elaboración de los respectivos Presupuestos de Gastos de la Mutua, informó a éste, exclusivamente, de las retribuciones a percibir con cargo al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social (Epígrafe III.7.2.3).

No puede olvidarse, en este sentido, que el patrimonio histórico de las Mutuas "se halla igualmente afectado estrictamente al fin social de la entidad", de acuerdo con las previsiones del artículo 68.4 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social, y que, por tanto, no pueden reconocerse obligaciones ni materializarse pagos con cargo a este patrimonio, que, aplicados al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, hubieran constituido una infracción del ordenamiento jurídico.

4. La Mutua de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social número 10.- "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT", ha satisfecho, en concepto de dietas por participación en la Junta Directiva de la Entidad, los importes de 516.533 euros y 595.832 euros, en los ejercicios 2005 y 2006, respectivamente.

De estos importes, 162.461 euros y 171.768 euros, respectivamente, se pueden calificar como improcedentes, por corresponder a dietas por participación en la Comisión Delegada de la Junta Directiva, comisión integrada prácticamente en su totalidad por personal directivo de la Mutua que no forma parte de la Junta Directiva. No obstante, al haber sido satisfechos con cargo al patrimonio privativo de la Mutua, no habrían causado un perjuicio económico directo al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, si bien podrían haber vulnerado el principio de afectación exclusiva del patrimonio histórico de las Mutuas al cumplimiento de sus fines sociales.

Los importes abonados por la Mutua a los miembros de la Junta Directiva han de considerarse excesivos –entre 3.192 euros y 1.769 euros por cada asistencia, sin perjuicio del reintegro de gastos de desplazamiento y alojamiento en los que pudiera incurrir cada uno de sus miembros-, en relación con los que, de acuerdo con la información facilitada al efecto por el resto de Mutuas incluidas en la muestra analizada por este Tribunal de Cuentas, se están abonando en el conjunto del sector. Por otra parte, la Mutua "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT" ha satisfecho indebidamente, con cargo al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, dietas a miembros integrantes de la Junta Directiva, a pesar de no haber asistido a alguna o, incluso, a ninguna de las reuniones mantenidas por este órgano colegiado, por un importe total de 136.750 euros en el conjunto de los años 2005 y 2006.

La Mutua ha utilizado, en los dos ejercicios de análisis, la práctica de abonar indebidamente, con cargo al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, a todos los integrantes de la Junta Directiva la dieta por su asistencia a la Junta General de la Mutua, participación no retribuible de acuerdo con el Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión, por un importe total de 62.769 euros en el conjunto de los dos años analizados, 2005 y 2006.

La suma de ambos importes, 199.519 euros, se ha incluido en la Conclusión II.4.5.11 y en el Anexo I del presente Informe, relativa a aquellos presuntos pagos indebidos que podrían haber originado un perjuicio económico para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

Por su parte, la Mutua "FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA", ha abonado dietas de asistencia a dos tipos de órganos de carácter consultivo, no contemplados en el Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión, la comisión asesora nacional y las comisiones asesoras regionales, por un importe total de 113.158 euros. Esta cantidad figura incluida en la Conclusión II.4.5.11 y en el Anexo II del presente Informe, relativa a aquellos pagos indebidos que podrían haber originado un perjuicio económico para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social (Subapartado III.7.7).

5. Durante el período fiscalizado han existido diferencias muy significativas entre los importes abonados en concepto de aportaciones a planes y fondos complementarios de pensiones, por cada una de las Mutuas de la muestra analizada por este Tribunal de Cuentas. Estos planes de pensiones se formalizaron para dar cumplimiento, básicamente, a lo previsto en el Convenio Colectivo general de ámbito estatal para las Entidades de Seguros, Reaseguros y Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo, en lo que respecta a la previsión social a favor de los trabajadores incluidos en su ámbito personal de aplicación.
Como ejemplo más significativo de los analizados, hay que citar el Plan de Pensiones de la Mutua número 10.- "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT". Este Plan fue promovido con fecha de 1 de enero de 1994. Con posterioridad, el 18 de noviembre de 1999, se acordó entre la empresa, representantes del personal y de las organizaciones sindicales, modificar el régimen de aportaciones y prestaciones del Plan de Pensiones, suscribiendo un plan de reequilibrio financiero que contemplaba un pago por un importe total de 12.176.345 de euros, amortizables en 10 años. Consecuencia de la aportación anual, propiamente dicha, y de la amortización correspondiente del plan de reequilibrio financiero, el importe conjunto satisfecho por la Mutua al Plan de Pensiones durante el ejercicio 2005 ascendió a 2.901.457 euros y a 3.090.039 euros en el año 2006.
Del importe total abonado por la Mutua al Plan de Pensiones en el año 2005, hay que destacar que a favor de cuatro directivos de la Mutua, exclusivamente, se realizaron unas aportaciones de 57.000 euros por contribuciones del propio año y un total de 301.777 euros por aportaciones derivadas del plan de reequilibrio financiero. En total, 22 aportaciones superaron los 10.000 euros en el año 2005 y todas ellas se efectuaron a favor de las personas relacionadas con el grupo de sociedades vinculadas a la Mutua, es decir, tanto a favor de los directivos de la Mutua, como a favor de ex trabajadores de la Mutua que, durante el periodo fiscalizado, ocuparon cargos de responsabilidad en las sociedades vinculadas que se detallan en el epígrafe III.4.2.3 del presente Informe.
Para dar una idea de la dimensión económica de las aportaciones señaladas, baste decir que la capitalización individual o el valor actual del plan, a 31 de diciembre de 2005, que alcanzaban las contribuciones realizadas a favor de los cuatro directivos de la Mutua -por los que se realizaron en 2005 las mayores aportaciones, por un total conjunto de más de 358 miles de euros-, oscilaba entre los 736.115 euros, el mayor, y los 514.291 euros, el menor.
Similar relevancia cuantitativa alcanza la aportación que realiza la Mutua número 183.- "MUTUA BALEAR" a favor del plan de pensiones de uno de sus trabajadores con contrato de alta dirección, en el que, entre otros extremos, se pactó un complemento de jubilación a favor de éste, por el que se le garantizaba "hasta su fallecimiento el salario íntegro que tuviera asignado, en cómputo anual, en el año inmediatamente anterior" al que se produjera su jubilación, una vez descontado el importe que le correspondiera por parte de la Seguridad Social.
A pesar de que, con fecha 30 de diciembre de 2004 y a instancias del propio interesado, el complemento de jubilación se redujo a "una renta equivalente al sesenta y cinco por ciento de la retribución", igualmente una vez descontada la pensión de la Seguridad Social, la capitalización individual o el valor actual del plan a fecha de 31 de diciembre de 2004 ascendía a 745.496 euros y a 917.196 euros en la fecha de jubilación del beneficiario.
En el mismo sentido señalado para las retribuciones del personal directivo, las elevadas aportaciones anuales a Planes de Pensiones con cargo a fondos públicos, así como las desproporcionadas capitalizaciones individuales alcanzadas por éstos, son contrarias al principio constitucional de economía que debe presidir la programación y ejecución del gasto público (Epígrafe III.7.3.1).

Hacienda sanciona a ocho presidentes de colegios sanitarios por dietas indebidas. Son consejeros de la aseguradora Ama, a la que Economía reclama 2,5 millones
Hacienda: cobraron por reuniones que no existieron del consejo de administración
Ama: se pagan dietas por ir a todo tipo de reuniones, no sólo a las del consejo

Los presidentes de ocho colegios médicos, farmacéuticos y veterinarios, cuatro ex presidentes y otras seis personas han sido sancionados por el Ministerio de Economía con 360.000 euros y obligados a devolver 2,5 millones por el presunto cobro indebido de dietas.
Son los miembros del consejo de administración de la Agrupación Mutual Aseguradora (Ama), que con 270.542 mutualistas es una de las dos grandes aseguradoras españolas para profesionales sanitarios. La entidad lleva un año en conflicto con la Dirección General de Seguros (DGS) por una inspección que reveló irregularidades en la retribución a los consejeros.
Tanto la inspección de la DGS como la sanción que impuso Economía van a ser recurridas por Ama, cuya asamblea general aprobó el 30 de junio que no devuelva euro alguno, «sin perjuicio de los efectos que se derivarán de la decisión que sobre el asunto adopten los tribunales de Justicia».
Pero mientras los jueces deciden, en los documentos de Hacienda se indica que durante cuatro años la cúpula de Ama cobró dietas por ir a reuniones a las que no se presentó o que no existieron.
El «exceso de cobro» -como lo califica la inspección en abril de 2008- fue de 456.498 euros en 2004; 677.436 en 2005; 704.248 en 2006, y 683.031 en 2007. Un total de 2.521.214 euros que Economía pide que los consejeros devuelvan.
En el escrito, de 82 páginas, la inspección desmenuza cuánto dinero cobró de más cada consejero. Las cantidades más importantes corresponden al presidente de Ama, Diego Murillo; al actual secretario, Manuel Sánchez García, y al ex secretario, Manuel Campos.
Economía achaca a Murillo haber cobrado de más 86.000 euros en 2004; 113.000 en 2005; 109.000 en 2006, y 111.000 en 2007.
Sostiene, por ejemplo, que en 2004 existen actas de 14 reuniones pero que Murillo cobró por 193. O que en 2007 hubo 10 citas y el presidente fue retribuido por 62.
A Sánchez García -actual secretario de Ama, que fue presidente del Colegio de Médicos de Salamanca- la inspección le marca un exceso de cobro de unos 340.000 euros en cuatro años. A Campos, ex secretario de esta mutua, le reclama 270.000 euros.
El Ministerio ha multado a estos tres responsables de Ama con 225.000 euros y les ha sancionado con 80 meses de inhabilitación.
De los 15 restantes miembros del consejo de administración de Ama, ocho ocupan altos cargos en distintos colegios profesionales sanitarios y tres son ex presidentes. La inspección asegura que cada uno (excepto tres, que no aparecen en las actas de todos los años) cobró una media de 26.000 euros de más en 2004, 37.000 en 2005, 33.000 en 2006 y 30.000 en 2007. En total, cerca de 126.000 euros en dietas. La multa para estos 11 es de 135.000 euros.
Son Juan Sánchez-Harguindey, presidente del Colegio de Odontólogos de La Coruña; Vicente Alapont, presidente del Colegio de Médicos de Valencia; Ricardo Miranda, presidente del Colegio de Médicos de Cádiz hasta hace siete días; Carmen Peña, presidenta del Consejo General de Colegios de Farmacéuticos; Francisco Javier Herrera, vicepresidente del Colegio de Veterinarios de Sevilla; Carlos González-Villardell (es citado en 2006y 2007), presidente del Colegio de Médicos de Sevilla; Eduald Bonet i Bonet (en 2007), presidente del Colegio de Médicos de Gerona, y Alberto García Romero (en 2007), presidente del Colegio de Farmacéuticos de Madrid.
Economía también cita a Javier Domínguez Vallejo, ex presidente del Colegio de Médicos de Burgos; Enrique López, ex presidente del Colegio de Médicos de Málaga, y Celso Mostacero, ex presidente del Colegio de Médicos de Zaragoza (este último, en 2006 y 2007).
En el informe, de abril de 2008, la Dirección General de Seguros concluye: «Se han considerado asistencias al consejo situaciones o hechos relacionados con los miembros del consejo de administración que nada tienen que ver con el objeto de la remuneración vía dieta aprobado por la asamblea de Ama antes y después de junio de 2007».

En una carta enviada a la DGS, la dirección de esta aseguradora explicó que el «concepto de asistencias» abarca no sólo acudir «al consejo de administración, sino a cualesquiera otra reunión o acto que requiera su presencia en el entorno del normal funcionamiento de la entidad». Y, como aprobaron en la asamblea del martes, «los consejeros no van a efectuar en ningún caso la pretendida devolución porque ello supondría el reconocimiento unilateral de una previa apropiación indebida».

He puesto, señor mío, el enlace directo de donde ha sido copiado, cosa que quizás no ha visto al tener los ojos cansados de no leer. Puede comprobar usted que está "protegido" para que no pueda ser copiado y reproducido.
Y como es usted tan inteligente, pruebe a encontrar la fecha del año 2009 de su publicación en la web del tribunal de cuentas, y la de su presentación en el Congreso de Diputados para su aprobación.

Y que conste que lo comprendo: la familia es una de las cosas más grandes, la otra es soportarla.

MARCIAL MACIEL: LA VERDAD ES PELIGROSA

Para el psicoanalista e investigador de la UNAM Fernando M. González, autor del libro La Iglesia del silencio: de mártires y pederastas, los pactos tácitos de la jerarquía católica y entre sus órdenes impedirán que la comisión nombrada por el Papa Benedicto XVI llegue al fondo de las transgresiones cometidas por el fundador de los Legionarios de Cristo, Marcial Maciel. Entre los riesgos que evitarán está, por ejemplo, el de involucrar al entonces cardenal Joseph Ratzinger en la protección de que gozó Marcial Maciel durante el papado de Juan Pablo II.

La cúpula de los Legionarios de Cristo, encabezada por el sacerdote mexicano Álvaro Corcuera, corre el riesgo de ser completamente destituida por el Papa Benedicto XVI cuando concluya la auditoría que realiza el Vaticano a esa congregación debido, entre otras razones, a las acusaciones en su contra por proteger a una red de sacerdotes pederastas.
A esta conclusión llega el investigador Fernando M. González, autor del libro La Iglesia del silencio: de mártires y pederastas, en el que aborda la embestida papal contra la congregación fundada por Marcial Maciel.
"Lo más probable es que, al concluir la investigación, el Vaticano destituya a la cúpula dirigente de los Legionarios para que la nueva dirigencia se encargue de ir limpiando lentamente la institución", asegura González.
–La cúpula actual es encabezada por mexicanos. ¿Es conveniente que siga siendo mexicana?
–Lo más adecuado es que empiece a variar, y entre gente más fresca, menos cómplice del pasado. Por ejemplo, cuando se abrieron los archivos de la KGB, el pasado de la Unión Soviética quedó totalmente incierto. Igual sucede aquí; con la actual condena a Marcial Maciel, el fundador de los Legionarios, el pasado de la congregación también queda totalmente incierto, ya no digamos su futuro. De manera que, si quiere sobrevivir esa institución, hay cosas que no deben seguir ocurriendo en ella.
El investigador considera "cómplices" de Maciel a Álvaro Corcuera, el actual director general de la Legión; a Luis Garza Medina, su vicario general, y a Cristóforo Fernández, procurador general, todos ellos mexicanos y puestos por Maciel en la dirigencia de la congregación.
Agrega Fernando M. González: "En las pesquisas seguramente saldrán a relucir sus complicidades con Maciel. El Vaticano bien podría decirles a los tres: 'Van para afuera, porque ustedes sabían sobre las redes de pederastia y sin embargo callaron'. Cristóforo, por ejemplo, fue efebo de Maciel y además le conseguía menores de edad para que abusara de ellos. Y sin embargo ahí sigue, como tercero en la jerarquía".

De Álvaro Corcuera, descendiente de una conservadora familia tapatía, se dice que sufrió abuso sexual de Maciel, quien luego, en enero de 2005, lo designó sucesor suyo. En su discurso de aceptación del cargo, pronunciado el 23 de enero de ese año, Corcuera lo dejó claro: "Quiero manifestar mi deseo de proseguir en la misma estrecha fidelidad al carisma de la congregación y a la persona del fundador. Y continuar la obra por él iniciada al servicio de la Iglesia".
Pese a que en ese tiempo Maciel llevaba ya años de ser acusado de pederastia y adicción a las drogas, nadie imaginaba entonces que Benedicto XVI lo castigaría a él y a su congregación.
La estrategia papal se inició en mayo de 2006, cuando condenó al ostracismo a Marcial Maciel, y continuó en 2007, al quitarle a los miembros de la orden los llamados "votos privados" que les prohibían criticar los actos de su fundador, quien murió en enero de 2008.
En febrero pasado, el Vaticano obligó a los Legionarios de Cristo a que revelaran públicamente que Maciel tuvo una hija y llevaba una "doble vida". Y tres meses después, en mayo, se anunció que los Legionarios serían investigados por una comisión de cinco visitadores apostólicos. Estas auditorías son intervenciones pontificias que se realizan cuando hay fallas o situaciones anómalas en una orden.
Dicha comisión está integrada por el mexicano Ricardo Watty, obispo de Tepic, México, y miembro de la congregación de los Misioneros del Espíritu Santo; Charles Joseph Chaput, arzobispo de Denver, Estados Unidos; Giuseppe Versaldi, obispo de Alejandría, Italia; Ricardo Ezzati Andrello, arzobispo de Concepción, Chile, y Ricardo Blázquez Pérez, obispo de Bilbao, España.
La comisión empezó a trabajar el pasado miércoles 15 de julio de 2009. Cada uno de sus miembros se ocupa de auscultar a las instituciones de la Legión por zonas geográficas. Al mexicano Watty le tocó México y Centroamérica. Revisan los estatutos y las reglas de la congregación, sus desviaciones de los principios elementales de la fe, la administración de sus recursos económicos.
Psicoanalista e investigador titular del Instituto de Investigaciones Sociales de la UNAM, Fernando M. González*, comenta:
"La comisión tiene muchas posibilidades de avanzar en sus pesquisas, muchísimas y por varios lados. Pero lo sustancial no es el nombramiento de la comisión, sino hasta dónde está dispuesta a llegar. En este momento es difícil predecirlo, pues va a depender de varias negociaciones."
–¿Cómo cuáles?
–Bueno, pongo el caso del único mexicano en la comisión, monseñor Ricardo Watty. Aparte de obispo, él es un religioso que pertenece a la congregación de los Misioneros del Espíritu Santo. Y no olvidemos que todas las congregaciones, al igual que los Legionarios, tienen a sus pederastas, a sus religiosos con mujer y a sus homosexuales con sus parejas. Por ese motivo, hay entre ellas una especie de Omertá: "Yo te cubro a tus pederastas y tú me cubres a los míos". Hay pactos entre ellas. Así opera la estructura eclesiástica.
"¿Se atreverá monseñor Watty a denunciar las redes de pederastas de la Legión de Cristo, que es mucho más poderosa que su congregación? Ese es el punto. Watty la tiene muy difícil, pues los Legionarios también pueden denunciar las desviaciones de los Misioneros del Espíritu Santo. Watty y los otros miembros de la comisión tendrán que llegar a las negociaciones para luego saber qué van a decir y qué van a callar. Ese es el problema de las famosas comisiones."

La verdad negociada

Entrevistado en las oficinas de Tusquets Editores, que acaba de publicar su libro La Iglesia del silencio –en el que analiza el contraste entre el ocultamiento de la pederastia y la exaltación del martirio dentro de la Iglesia católica mexicana–, González sostiene que la red de complicidades se extiende hasta la curia romana:
"Para poder serlo, un sacerdote pederasta depende siempre de una relación social. Y Marcial Maciel durante más de 50 años estuvo protegido por tres instancias vaticanas: la Sagrada Congregación de Religiosos, la Sagrada Congregación de la Fe y la Secretaría de Estado. Hasta el Papa Juan Pablo II lo protegió. Tuvo cómplices. Y las investigaciones deberían incluir a los cómplices."
–Pero el actual Papa, su acusador, estuvo a cargo de la Congregación de la Fe durante el pontificado de Juan Pablo II.
–Sí, pero en ese tiempo Joseph Ratzinger también protegió a Maciel, bloqueando las denuncias en su contra que le llegaban a la Congregación de la Fe, bajo el argumento de que Maciel aportaba muchos bienes a la Iglesia. Eso dijo cuando se le entregó una carta en la que el padre Alberto Athié denunció a Maciel. ¿Por qué cambió ahora Ratzinger? ¿Qué pasó ahí? No lo sé.
"Lo cierto es que, en su estrategia actual, Ratzinger convertido en Papa empezó por eliminar primero a Maciel como se elimina a un tumor canceroso que se quita del resto del cuerpo. Esa fue su sentencia de 2006. Viene hoy el corte quirúrgico a la Legión. Un corte perfecto del cirujano Ratzinger. Eso sí, sin implicar para nada a las congregaciones vaticanas, como diciendo: 'Nosotros nada tuvimos que ver, no somos cómplices de nada', cuando fueron cómplices de todo."
El investigador hace notar que, hasta el momento, los Legionarios no han admitido la pederastia ni la fuerte adicción a las drogas de su fundador, por lo que la comisión podría indagar ambas conductas:
"Los Legionarios siguen sin admitir la pederastia y la toxicomanía de Marcial Maciel. Esas dos facetas se dieron a intramuros de la congregación durante muchos años y con la complicidad de muchos legionarios, de manera que eso no puede demostrarse más que con testimonios de las víctimas. Y es testimonio contra testimonio. De ahí que sigan como si nada hubiera pasado.
"En cambio, se vieron obligados a aceptar que, por lo menos, Maciel tuvo una hija, dejando abierta la posibilidad de que tuvo más hijos. Y eso porque, según versiones, la hija y la madre se presentaron directamente en la Secretaría de Estado y presionaron para que se hiciera pública su situación. A la Legión no le quedó otra salida que admitir lo que ya no podía ocultar: que tiene una hija radicada en Madrid, España, producto de sus amoríos, se dice, con una mujer mexicana."
Y aunque trataron de aparentar que no se habían enterado, porque esa relación se desarrolló fuera de las instalaciones de la orden, enfatiza el investigador, los dirigentes de los legionarios la conocían y la ocultaron por años. Si ahora admiten sólo el caso de la hija es porque adoptan lo que él llama "la estrategia de la vacuna: saco esto para no sacar lo otro, acepto una de las partes para poder silenciar la más contundente", la pederastia.
"Lo último que están dispuestos a aceptar –reitera– es la pederastia, pues si lo hacen tendrán que admitir la existencia de toda la red de pederastas dentro de la institución, y también en sus escuelas, en complicidad con los laicos. Por ahí puede avanzar la comisión investigadora.
Lo mismo puede avanzar por el lado de la toxicomanía de Maciel. Sobre este punto hay denuncias que desde 1952 están en el Archivo Secreto Vaticano. Existen testimonios de un Marcial Maciel que caía en el hospital totalmente drogado, está el informe de un farmacéutico enviado a la Congregación de Religiosos, entre otros casos."
–Algunos exlegionarios suponen incluso que Maciel era un narcotraficante en los años cincuenta, que con el dinero de la droga impulsó a la Legión.

–Sí, hay esas especulaciones, sobre todo la versión de que por entonces solía viajar con aquel famoso maletín de piel de cocodrilo que tenía doble fondo. Se dice que ahí transportaba un polvo blanco. Cuando llegaba al aeropuerto de Nueva York les decía a sus jóvenes acompañantes: "Muchachos, carguen mi maletín, yo los espero afuera". Está la anécdota de que, en una ocasión, en el aeropuerto se abrió el maletín y el polvo blanco se desparramó. Marcial intervino diciendo: "Es polvo de yeso para fabricar santos". Y la libró gracias a que lo vieron vestido de sotana. Pero estos testimonios no comprueban que traficaba droga. No sabemos si la comisión aclare el asunto.
–¿Entonces la comisión no está obligada a tocar fondo?
–Solamente en teoría. Las negociaciones pueden neutralizarla en buena medida. Después, cada uno de sus cinco miembros elaborará su informe secreto. Lo entregarán directamente a la Secretaría de Estado y a la Congregación de Religiosos, y éstas a su vez evaluarán conjuntamente qué decir y qué callar, ya que, en su estructura, la Iglesia está marcada por el silencio y el secreto. Por eso el título de mi libro es "La Iglesia del silencio".
–Pero aquí cuenta mucho la disposición papal. ¿Cuál es su actual actitud ante los Legionarios como institución?
–Tiene a la Legión en la mira, pero no creo que se aviente el boleto de eliminarla sin más, pues le aporta muchas ventajas económicas y políticas. Los Legionarios mandan dinerales al Vaticano. Al crear esta comisión, el Papa intenta más bien lanzar un mensaje simbólico a las demás congregaciones para decirles que su política es de tolerancia cero. Eso sí, castigará en cierta medida a los Legionarios, pero será un castigo muy acotado. No llegará al fondo de las complicidades con Maciel, porque él mismo saldría involucrado.
–¿Qué podrá hacer para dar la impresión de que fueron efectivas las pesquisas de su comisión investigadora?
–Insisto: quitar a la cúpula de los Legionarios, acusarla de complicidad con Maciel. Será otro de sus cercenamientos de cirujano. Principalmente, irán para afuera Álvaro Corcuera, Luis Garza y Cristóforo Fernández, las tres cabezas centrales impuestas por Maciel. Con este solo acto Benedicto XVI se cubrirá de gloria sin llegar al fondo del problema.
Fernando M. González señala que esta medida no le será tan difícil al pontífice, comparada con el golpe que le asestó a la figura de Marcial Maciel:
"En el plano simbólico, ese sí fue un golpe brutal para los Legionarios de Cristo, ya que la figura de su fundador quedó vituperada y denostada, siendo que ellos hasta querían hacerlo santo, puesto que, en la bolsa de valores de las congregaciones, todas aspiran a que sus fundadores sean llevados al altar. Las que no lo logran pasan a una especie de segunda clase."
–¿No hay manera de compensar esa desventaja?
–No veo ninguna. La Legión está configurada como una secta, donde su caudillo y su líder carismático es Maciel. De su figura depende todo el mensaje y el orden simbólico. A diferencia de los partidos políticos, aquí no se puede hacer un cambio de líder. ¡No se puede!

Marcial Maciel ya no será santo

Por Jorge Queirolo Bravo

Pensé que lo lograría, que traspasaría triunfalmente la meta que tanto le habría gustado coronar, pero me equivoqué en forma rotunda. Me refiero, obviamente, a Marcial Maciel Degollado, el siempre evocado fundador de los Legionarios de Cristo. Dicho sacerdote, conocido debido a su predilección sexual por los seminaristas, sonaba como un firme candidato a ser canonizado. Ahora todo se arruinó. El festín de beatería hipócrita se derrumbó como un castillo de naipes en medio de un huracán.

¿Qué evento tan poderoso pudo pasar, como para aguarle la fiesta a los legionarios de la infamia? La respuesta es: algo inesperado y tremendamente sorpresivo. ¿Qué tan sorpresivo? Más de lo que se podría esperar de alguien que supuestamente fue célibe, aunque esto haya sido fuertemente cuestionado mientras el personaje aún vivía. ¿Qué sucedió entonces? Resulta que se dice que el inefable Marcial Maciel, además de violar a un cierto número de seminaristas, también fue padre. ¿Qué tiene esto de raro? ¿No es lo normal que un hombre tenga hijos? Para los mortales comunes y corrientes lo es, mas no para un prelado, de acuerdo con los extraños parámetros establecidos por esa institución tan anómala, decadente y anacrónica que es la iglesia católica.

Para la jerarquía eclesiástica que un cura u obispo viole o someta sexualmente a una legión de niños, adolescentes o seminaristas no parece ser un gran pecado. Solamente es motivo de traslados silenciosos para el religioso afectado, de tal manera que el brazo de la justicia secular, en lo posible, no lo alcance jamás. No es nada más que eso, y todos los actos y resoluciones administrativas que conciernen a estos “percances carnales” no tienen otra finalidad específica, como no sea la de proteger al autor material de dichas aberraciones. El mensaje del alto mando clerical a los sacerdotes es, en ese sentido, bien claro y no deja lugar a dudas: viola a todos los niños que quieras, pero no permitas que te descubran.

Tener un hijo ya es un asunto diferente y mucho más complicado. A los ojos del sacro colegio cardenalicio y los obispados esto sí que es un pecado descomunal, a desemejanza del abuso sexual en contra de menores que, en el mejor de los casos, es visto por ellos como una falta de poca cuantía y mucha frecuencia. Y por eso Marcial Maciel ya no será santo. Su imagen de yeso no adornará las bellas catedrales de las capitales europeas y latinoamericanas. No se erigirán santuarios que inmortalicen su memoria retorcida y libidinosa. Carecerá del honor de presidir, dentro de una urna de vidrio y cargado por sus adeptos, una procesión, pese a que éstas cada día son menos concurridas. Tampoco se imprimirán estampitas a colores, con una aureola blanquecina sobre su cabeza, para recordarles a los feligreses y peregrinos su falsa santidad.

Es que Maciel cometió el notorio desacierto de engendrar una hija, con lo cual su figura cayó perpetuamente en desgracia para los fanáticos trasnochados y andropáusicos que dirigen el Vaticano. Eso de ser papá sí que es imperdonable. ¿Cómo se le ocurrió perpetrar semejante tontería a Maciel? ¿No tenía, en ese momento, acaso, suficientes querubines bien dotados con los cuales revolcarse debajo de las sábanas? ¿Quiso el padrecito jugar a ser hombre? ¿Le sobrevino un súbito arrebato heterosexual? Porque, por lo que sabemos, a Marcialito más bien le picaba el culito. O para manifestarlo con una expresión bien criolla y algo vulgar: le gustaba que le atoren el tubo de escape. ¿Se entendió?

No ahondaré más en el tema. Lo que voy a decir a continuación puede sonar curioso, pero defiendo la opción de Marcial Maciel de haber elegido ser papá. Creo, incluso, que es lo único bueno y positivo que hizo en su inmoral vida. Y el clero diocesano debería respaldarme en mis dichos. ¿No dicen ser los más grandes defensores de la familia? Ahí tienen un buen ejemplo de alguien que trató de formar una familia, aunque informalmente. Marcial Maciel ya tiene un retoño propio que le puede poner flores en su tumba en el día del padre. Sus seguidores probablemente ya no lo harán, asqueados por la pérdida de prestigio de su progenitor espiritual. ¿Y qué dice la curia vaticana de todo este lío? Seguramente ya están buscándole un sucesor menos lujurioso a Marcial Maciel.

A rey muerto, rey puesto.

EL AUTOR LOCAL

La lira, el anacoluto, el más execrable sentimentalismo, el ditirambo y el énfasis se aúnan en los escritos de los autores locales. Y "glosan" los utensilios de labranza, la belleza del cardo y de la amapola o las recias virtudes de las costumbres locales, dignas de cafres del paleolítico. Luego, todo eso queda rebozado con vocablos donde no falte "sublime", "humilde", "tornajo", "emblemático", "antaño", y tampoco "madre", "mujer" y vocativos donde se increpa a Sicilia con arrebatos impúdicos de macho en celo.
Y, de vez en cuando, hay quien se encrespa y recuerda el insoportable olor de cuadra, el bigote austero que adorna a los hombres y mujeres de esta tierra, la tendencia cainita, la maledicencia y el rastacuerismo, y quiere pasar por autor de vanguardia. Su verbo está teñido de acné, de resentimiento y de una lastimosa falta de rigor gramatical; pero recibe hipócritas murmullos laudatorios, y poco a poco se le liman sus ásperas aristas, hasta que un tiempo después, se le ofrece un lugar entre los vates locales, que lo agasajan con un vino acre, inclemente, para poder digerir el forro de cabeza de cerdo y las virtudes de la rima y del ripio. De ahí a la fraternidad media el canto de un folio.
Las mujeres que se lanzan a escribir fingen desenvoltura de hetaira y arrebatos de virginal desasosiego, y suelen poner en sus poemas con paisaje, "árboles preñados", "fértil seno de tierra", estrambóticas pasiones que las llevan hasta el borde del beso, ay, Dios mío, y resuelven osadas con un "no pudo ser", que las pone al borde del ataque de llanto.
Antes o después, el autor descubrirá una mujer sensata y paticorta entre las brumas de su onanismo, y recalará en el ímpetu genitor, el silencio opresivo del miedo a los suegros, y las tibias desventuras de padre mal dormido. Ellas descubrirán un ágrafo solemne a quien presupondrán la vida interior que su mutismo abarque, y poco a poco recalan en ese rincón donde la especie se multiplica o en aquel en donde la soltería enrancia.

Y a cada fiesta mayor, en cada velada literaria, surgirán imparables los gastados recursos de la lira estreñida con loas a Sicilia y agasajos rimados a la mujer, en juegos florales donde recitan rapsodas enfundados en trajes de boda y mortaja, con aromas de ajo y vino agrio.
Y, a veces, para no olvidar su rebeldía y su amor por las vanguardias, citan a un autor, al que descuartizan con entusiasmo, después de no haberlo leído, y se irritan hasta el paroxismo con aquel que usa el subjuntivo, la oración subordinada y algún vocablo que no esté instituido entre los trescientos adjetivos que abarca su incultura.
Si Dios fuera justo y existiera, habría dejado mancos y mudos a los sicilianos que escriben y publican, pero, en su infinita piedad, Onán ya los dejó miopes y los rebozó en caspa y seborrea.

"mujer sensata y paticorta". Eres cruel, muy cruel. Dentro de la subespecie de autor local está el "cronista local" nombrado por el ayuntamiento y el subgénero "pregonero de fiestas". Pero de eso, como decían Tip y Coll, hablaremos la semana que viene.
Otrosí: Onán era un tipo del A.T. que tenía gastadas las rodillas, ¿verdad?

REAL ACADEMIA ESPAÑOLA, RAE. PUNTUACIÓN. USO DE LA COMA

5.2. Uso de la coma

La coma (,) indica una pausa breve que se produce dentro del enunciado.

5.2.1. Se emplea para separar los miembros de una enumeración, salvo los que vengan precedidos por alguna de las conjunciones y, e, o, u. Ejemplos:
Es un chico muy reservado, estudioso y de buena familia.
Acudió toda la familia: abuelos, padres, hijos, cuñados, etc.
¿Quieres café, té o un refresco?

Cuando los elementos de la enumeración constituyen el sujeto de la oración o un complemento verbal y van antepuestos al verbo, no se pone coma detrás del último. Ejemplos:
El perro, el gato y el ratón son animales mamíferos.
De gatos, de ratones y de perros no quiere ni oír hablar.

5.2.2. Se usa coma para separar miembros gramaticalmente equivalentes dentro de un mismo enunciado, a excepción de los casos en los que medie alguna de las conjunciones y, e, ni, o, u. Ejemplos:
Estaba preocupado por su familia, por su trabajo, por su salud.
Antes de irte, corre las cortinas, cierra las ventanas, apaga las luces y echa la llave.

Sin embargo, se coloca una coma delante de la conjunción cuando la secuencia que encabeza expresa un contenido (consecutivo, de tiempo, etc.) distinto al elemento o elementos anteriores. Por ejemplo:
Pintaron las paredes de la habitación, cambiaron la disposición de los muebles, y quedaron encantados.

También cuando esa conjunción está destinada a enlazar con toda la proposición anterior, y no con el último de sus miembros. Por ejemplo:
Pagó el traje, el bolso y los zapatos, y salió de la tienda.

Siempre será recomendable su empleo, por último, cuando el período sea especialmente largo. Por ejemplo:

Los instrumentos de precisión comenzaron a perder su exactitud a causa de la tormenta, y resultaron inútiles al poco tiempo.

5.2.3. En una relación cuyos elementos están separados por punto y coma, el último elemento, ante el que aparece la conjunción copulativa, va precedido de coma o punto y coma. Ejemplos:
En el armario colocó la vajilla; en el cajón, los cubiertos; en los estantes, los vasos, y los alimentos, en la despensa.
Con gran aplomo, le dijo a su familia que llegaría a las tres; a sus amigos, que lo esperasen a las cinco; y consiguió ser puntual en los dos casos.

5.2.4. Se escribe una coma para aislar el vocativo del resto de la oración. Ejemplos:
Julio, ven acá.
He dicho que me escuchéis, muchachos.

Cuando el vocativo va en medio del enunciado, se escribe entre dos comas. Por ejemplo:
Estoy alegre, Isabel, por el regalo.

5.2.5. Los incisos que interrumpen una oración, ya sea para aclarar o ampliar lo dicho, ya sea para mencionar al autor u obra citados, se escriben entre comas. Son incisos casos como los siguientes:

a) Aposiciones explicativas. Por ejemplo:
En ese momento Adrián, el marido de mi hermana, dijo que nos ayudaría.

b) Las proposiciones adjetivas explicativas. Por ejemplo:
Los vientos del Sur, que en aquellas abrasadas regiones son muy frecuentes, incomodan a los viajeros.

c) Cualquier comentario, explicación o precisión a algo dicho. Ejemplos:
Toda mi familia, incluido mi hermano, estaba de acuerdo.
Ella es, entre mis amigas, la más querida.
Nos proporcionó, después de tantos disgustos, una gran alegría.

d) La mención de un autor u obra citados. Por ejemplo:
La verdad, escribe un político, se ha de sustentar con razones y autoridades.

5.2.6. Cuando se invierte el orden regular de las partes de un enunciado, anteponiendo elementos que suelen ir pospuestos, se tiende a colocar una coma después del bloque anticipado. No es fácil establecer con exactitud los casos en que esta anteposición exige el uso de la coma. Pero frecuentemente puede aplicarse esta norma práctica:

a) Si el elemento antepuesto admite una paráfrasis con «en cuanto a», es preferible usar coma. Por ejemplo:
Dinero, ya no le queda. (Es posible decir En cuanto al dinero, ya no le queda).

b) Si, por el contrario, admite una paráfrasis con «es lo que» o «es el que», no se empleará coma. Por ejemplo:
Vergüenza debería darte. (Equivalente a Vergüenza es lo que debería darte).

5.2.7. También suele anteponerse una coma a una conjunción o locución conjuntiva que une las proposiciones de una oración compuesta, en los casos siguientes:

a) En las proposiciones coordinadas adversativas introducidas por conjunciones como pero, mas, aunque, sino. Ejemplos:
Puedes llevarte mi cámara de fotos, pero ten mucho cuidado.
Cogieron muchas cerezas, aunque todas picadas por los pájaros.

b) Delante de las proposiciones consecutivas introducidas por conque, así que, de manera que... Ejemplos:
Prometiste acompañarle, conque ya puedes ir poniéndote el abrigo.
El sol me está dando en la cara, así que tendré que cambiarme de asiento.

c) Delante de proposiciones causales lógicas y explicativas. Ejemplos:
Es noble, porque tiene un palacio.
Están en casa, pues tienen la luz encendida.

5.2.8. Los enlaces como esto es, es decir, o sea, en fin, por último, por consiguiente, sin embargo, no obstante, además, en tal caso, por lo tanto, en cambio, en primer lugar, y también, a veces, determinados adverbios o locuciones que desempeñan la función de modificadores oracionales, como generalmente, posiblemente, efectivamente, finalmente, en definitiva, por regla general, quizá, colocados al principio de una oración, se separan del resto mediante una coma. Ejemplos:

Por consiguiente, no vamos a tomar ninguna resolución precipitada.
No obstante, es necesario reformar el estatuto.
Efectivamente, tienes razón.

Cuando estas expresiones van en medio de la oración, se escriben entre comas. Ejemplos:

Estas dos palabras son sinónimas, es decir, significan lo mismo.
Tales incidentes, sin embargo, no se repitieron.
Este tipo de accidentes están causados, generalmente, por errores humanos.

Si los bloques relacionados mediante estos enlaces forman parte de la misma oración compuesta escrita entre puntos, se suelen separar con punto y coma colocado delante del enlace, al que seguirá una coma. Véase el apartado 5.4.3.

5.2.9. En los casos en que se omite un verbo, porque ha sido anteriormente mencionado o porque se sobrentiende, se escribe en su lugar una coma. Ejemplos:
El árbol perdió sus hojas; el viejo, su sonrisa.
Los niños, por aquella puerta.
En matemáticas, un genio; para la música, bastante mediocre.

5.2.10. En las cabeceras de las cartas, se escribe coma entre el lugar y la fecha. Por ejemplo:
Santiago, 8 de enero de 1999

5.2.11. Se escribe coma para separar los términos invertidos del nombre completo de una persona o los de un sintagma que integran una lista (bibliografía, índice...). Ejemplos:
BELLO, Andrés: Gramática de la lengua castellana destinada al uso de los americanos.
CUERVO, Rufino José: Diccionario de construcción y régimen de la lengua castellana.
— construcción, materiales de — papelería, artículos de

5.2.12. Uso incorrecto de la coma

Debe evitarse separar el sujeto y el predicado mediante coma. Ejemplos de incorrección:
Las estanterías del rincón, estaban perfectamente organizadas.
Un desgraciado incidente, ocasionó la dimisión de la junta directiva.

Se exceptúan, como ya hemos visto (5.2.5), los casos en que media un inciso entre sujeto y predicado. Ejemplos:
La medicina preventiva, como ya ha quedado apuntado anteriormente, permitirá evitar la enfermedad en breve plazo.
La presencia de la protagonista de la película, que vestía un espectacular traje de noche, produjo muy diferentes comentarios.

MARÍA MOLINER: DICCIONARIO DE USO DEL ESPAÑOL. PUNTUACIÓN. USO DE LA COMA

En adelante, y hasta nuevo aviso, aquellos que no dispongan ya de él y quieran saber en qué consiste el verdadero Diccionario de Uso del Español de María Moliner –y poder utilizarlo como ella había previsto–, tendrán que ir a buscarlo a las librerías de lance.

Aviso publicado en octubre de 1998 en El País

Puntuación (fem.). 1 Acción de puntuar un escrito. 2 Conjunto de los signos de puntuación empleados en un escrito y manera de estar empleados. 3 Conjunto de signos y reglas de puntuar. Los signos de puntuación son, en español, los siguientes: coma (,); punto (.); punto y coma (;); dos puntos (:); puntos suspensivos (...); interrogación (¿...?); admiración (¡...!); paréntesis ((...)); corchetes ([...]); comillas («...»); raya o guión (—); punto y raya (.—); guión pequeño (-); doble raya (=).

coma (,).—La coma es el signo de puntuación de uso más arbitrario. Representa una pausa del lenguaje hablado en que no se suspende totalmente la voz, entre partes del discurso relacionadas no sólo ideológica, sino también gramaticalmente. Ahora bien: ni todas las pausas con que se modula el lenguaje hablado se transcriben en el escrito, ni todas las pausas que se representan con comas, obedeciendo a las reglas del uso de este signo, se hacen siempre en el lenguaje hablado. En éste se hacen numerosas pausas cuyo objeto es subrayar o dar un tono especial a la palabra o expresión que precede, o bien dar un reposo a la voz después de una locución larga, en sitios en que la colocación de una coma escrita constituiría falta de ortografía. Se dice, por ejemplo, 'a mí, todo eso me trae sin cuidado', y esa coma sobra en buena ortografía; en cambio, se dice t ambién 'yo estaba en efecto muy cansado', suprimiendo al hablar las comas que, en escritura escrupulosa, deben preceder y seguir a «en efecto». Esto quiere decir que, en cuanto al uso de la coma, hay muchas diferencias entre los escritores escrupulosos en ese punto y los más despreocupados; en general, es de recomendar que, antes de sembrar de comas un periodo, se pruebe a leerlo sin alguna de las que primero se le ha ocurrido poner al escritor.

En las notas que siguen se dan en primer lugar las normas negativas y, después, se hace un primer apartado de las comas preceptivas; y se trata en otro de algunos casos de heterodoxia en la práctica en relación con preceptos de la parte anterior, y de casos de comas susceptibles de ser usadas e igualmente susceptibles de ser omitidas.

1.° No se pone coma entre el verbo y cualquier otro elemento de la oración (sujeto, complemento) directamente unido a él, aunque en, lenguaje hablado se haga una pausa; puede, por ejemplo, decirse 'ellos, con cualquier cosa se conforman'; pero esa coma no se escribe, a menos que interese marcar la pausa por una razón estilística; y, en este caso, es más expresivo usar puntos suspensivos. Es especialmente frecuente la transgresión de esta regla entre un sujeto constituido por una oración de relativo y el verbo: 'El que se pica, ajos come. Quien tenga algo que decir, debe decirlo'.

2.° Tampoco se pone coma regularmente delante de una conjunción simple adverbial («como, cuando, donde»...), adversativa («pero»...), causal («porque»), concesiva («aunque»...), condicional o hipotética («si»...), copulativa («y»), disyuntiva («o»), inductiva («porque»), o de la final «para que», aunque no es simple. Aunque se dicen muy frecuentemente frases con pausa de coma tales como 'dijo «adiós», y se marchó; estaba bien, pero quiso estar mejor; lo sé, porque me lo dijo él mismo'. Y un poco más arriba se ha puesto una coma detrás del paréntesis «(«porque»)» y delante de «o» (caso que es de los que se explican más adelante; véase el caso 1.° del último apartado referente al uso de la coma). La misma «Gramática» de la R. A. da este ejemplo de comas «entre varios miembros de una cláusula independientes entre sí, vayan o no precedidos de conjunción»: 'Al apuntar el alba cantan las aves, y el campo se alegra, y el ambiente cobra movimiento y frescura'. Claro que este es un caso de comas enfáticas y que, con el mismo carácter, podía cada una de ellas ser un punto y coma.

Casos de coma obligada.

1° Entre los términos de una enumeración no enlazados por conjunción (nombres, adjetivos, complementos del verbo, del nombre o del adjetivo, u oraciones): 'Mañana, pasado y el otro son fiesta. Es torpe, vago, bruto y descarado. Es aficionado a jugar, bailar, comer, beber y gozar de todas las maneras. Vinieron ayer, estarán hoy aquí todo el día y se marcharán mañana por la mañana'. (En el caso de varios adjetivos aplicados a un nombre, si el primero es especificativo, puede suprimirse la coma detrás de él: 'Un árbol de sombra muy frondoso'.)

2.° Delante y detrás de una oración intercalada en otra: 'Desde que se fue, hace ya más de un mes, no he sabido nada de él'.

3.° Delante del pronombre «que» explicativo, particularmente si puede caber duda de si debe interpretarse como tal o como especificativo: 'El buey o vaca viejos, que se destinan a carne' (suprimida la coma, resultaría destinado a carne sólo alguno de los bueyes y vacas vicios, en vez de todos). Delante de un «que» de la misma clase, cuando está separado de su antecedente; particularmente, cuando puede caber duda de que lo sea el nombre que está inmediatamente antes de él: 'Aerolito es un fragmento de bólido, que cae sobre la Tierra' (sin la coma, el que cae podría ser el bólido).

4.° En todos los casos en que es preciso hacer notar que una oración o un complemento se relaciona, no con la palabra que le precede inmediatamente, sino con otra más lejana o con toda la oración: 'Sección de una casa comercial, con domicilio propio' (el domicilio propio de que se trata es el de la sección, no el de la casa comercial). 'Para que no se desvíe en su elección, de las normas señaladas' (no 'elección de las normas señaladas'). 'Soltar el cable o cadena, del arganeo del ancla' (no 'cadena del arganeo del ancla'). 'Hacer tomar, o inyectar una medicina' (suprimida la coma, «o» relacionaría a «tomar» e «inyectar», y no a «hacer tomar» e «inyectar»). 'Obligar a alguien a hablar, con habilidad' (no 'hablar con habilidad'). 'Hacer en algo un papel lucido, o lo contrario' (no 'lucido o lo contrario', sino 'hacer... o, por el contrario, no hacer...'). 'No se marchó, por comodidad' (en esta forma, el significado es que la comodidad fue causa de que no se marchara; sin la coma, sería que la comodidad no fue la causa de que se marchara). En resumen, debe ponerse una como siempre que es preciso marcar la separación entre lo que debe ir separado y, con ello, la unión de lo que forma una unidad.

5.° En el lugar de un elemento que se suprime, por ejemplo por ser repetición de otro nombrado antes: 'A unos les gusta una cosa; a otros, (les gusta) otra. Nosotros queremos ir al campo; ellos, (quieren ir) a la ciudad'. Está dentro de este caso la coma que se coloca detrás de «también» u otro adverbio, cuando hay una oración sobreentendida: 'También, cuando va a alguna fiesta' (detrás de «también» se sobreentiende una oración; por ejemplo, 'se pone los pendientes de oro'). 'Siempre, si tiene dinero'.

6.° Delante de «como» cuando esta palabra no expresa igualdad sino que introduce un ejemplo: 'Me gustan las ciudades grandes, como Madrid y Barcelona'. Puede esa coma substituirse por punto y coma o dos puntos cuando es oportuno hacer la pausa que corresponde a estos signos: 'Está dispuesto a cualquier cosa: como irse a América o alistarse en el tercio'.

7.° Delante y detrás de una expresión intercalada:

a) Entre el verbo y otro elemento de la oración: 'Agosto, el mes más caluroso, lo pasamos en el campo'.

b) Delante y detrás de una expresión en aposición que especifica a un nombre: 'Don N. N., alcalde de la ciudad, presidió la ceremonia'.

c) Delante y detrás de un vocativo: 'Vosotros, hijos míos, no sabéis nada de esto'.

d) Delante y detrás de una cláusula absoluta: 'Por fin, superadas estas dificultades, empezajron las obras'. Igualmente, delante y detrás de una expresión pronominal absoluta, como «lejos de eso [ello], en lugar de eso» o «con todo y con eso»: 'Él, lejos de eso, redobló sus esfuerzos'.

e) Delante y detrás de las conjunciones o expresiones conjuntivas cuando, en vez de al principio, están en el interior de la oración; como ocurre frecuentemente con las conjunciones consecutivas «pues, así pues, por consiguiente, por tanto», con «empero» y con otras: 'No estábamos, por tanto, preparados para eso. No vamos, empero, a discutir por tan poca cosa'.

i) Delante y detrás de las expresiones aclarativas o confirmativas «o bien, es decir, esto es, a saber, o sea»: 'Tengo cincuenta años, es decir, doble que tú'. En realidad, las pausas a que dan lugar estas expresiones son más complejas que lo que representan las comas delante y detrás de ellas; pues, en unos casos, se hace delante una pausa que podría representarse por punto y coma: 'Dijo que vendría a las doce; o sea, [es decir,] antes de comer'; y, en otros, se hace delante una pausa de punto y coma y detrás otra que conviene al significado de los dos puntos: 'Por los cuatro evangelistas; a saber: San Juan, San Mateo...', Pero, convencionalmente, se escriben entre dos comas, como queda dicho, en todos los casos; excepto en el de «o sea» cuando va seguido de «que», caso en el cual se puede y suele omitir la segunda coma: 'Está decidido, o sea que ya no hay que pensar más en ello'.

g) Delante y detrás de adverbios o expresiones adverbiales de las que pueden construirse como incisos: «si acaso, además, aparte de eso, así y todo, si bien, en ese caso, en todo caso, por de contado, en efecto, por ejemplo, encima, entonces —equivaliendo a «en ese caso»—, en general, al menos, no obstante, siquiera, también, por tanto» y muchas más, así como todos los adverbios en «mente»: 'Llegué, en efecto, un poco tarde. Dime, entonces, qué es lo que quieres. Le tratan, en general, con consideración. Tú, al menos, estás de acuerdo. Atravesamos, ciertamente, circunstancias difíciles. Él, posiblemente, no está enterado. No estábamos, realmente, preparados para eso'. (En lenguaje hablado se omiten en general estas comas.)

8.° Detrás de las mismas expresiones del párrafo anterior, o sea, las que pueden emplearse como incisos, cuando encabezan la oración: 'Además, estaba muy cansado. También, acuérdate del paraguas. Entonces, no rae esperes esta tarde. Por ejemplo, no le gusta viajar'.

Caso semejante es el de oraciones elípticas antepuestas adverbialménte a una oración: 'Más,' (Está aún más justificado) 'si a él no le interesa, menos (Te lo haré menos) si me lo pides así'. (Obsérvese la diferencia de significado de la frase última si se suprime la coma: «menos si me lo pides así» equivale a «sólo si me lo pides así no te lo haré».)

9.° El caso de «etcétera» es especial: atendiendo a su significado, no debería llevar coma ni

delante ni detrás, pues su traducción española no la lleva ('Antonio, Juan, Pedro y otros'); pero es cierto que, en la dicción, se pone siempre una coma delante y, a veces, otra detrás; la de delante puede ser tan marcada que casi llegue a puntos suspensivos: 'Antonio, Juan, Pedro, [...] etcétera'; por tanto, ésta es inexcusable; pero la de detrás rio se marca a veces en la dicción y, entonces, puede suprimirse: 'La cama, la mesa, las sillas, etcétera, eran de su propiedad'; pero: 'con sombrero, zapatos, guantes, etcétera nuevos...'.

Casos de coma no siempre obligada.

En algunos de los. casos incluidos entre los de coma preceptiva, la profusión de comas próximas puede invitar a prescindir de alguna en la dicción y su supresión en la escritura no constituye falta de ortografía. Son el caso «e» del punto 7.°, o sea, de conjunciones o expresiones conjuntivas intercaladas: 'Habíamos tenido muchos gastos, estábamos cansados, etcétera, y no estábamos por tanto para eso' (se han suprimido las comas de delante y detrás de «por tanto»). El caso «g» del mismo punto, esto es, el de adverbios y expresiones adverbiales intercaladas: 'Atravesamos ciertamente circunstancias difíciles' (esta misma expresión se ha puesto como ejemplo con comas).

En algunos casos de expresiones intercaladas de otra clase en que la coma no se impone en la dicción: 'No sólo le aconsejó, sino que hasta en ocasiones le ayudó con dinero'. En puntuación rigurosa, se pondría coma delante y detrás de «en ocasiones».

Merece especial mención el caso de «por ejemplo»; en general, no se hace distinción, al hacer preceptiva la coma delante y detrás de esa expresión; sin embargo, hay que hacerla: nótese que en la frase 'emparentar, por ejemplo por casamiento, con cierta clase de personas', el inciso abarca también «por casamiento» y en la dicción no se hace nunca separación entre «por ejemplo» y ese final del inciso; es, pues, no sólo permitido sino correcto, no poner coma detrás de «por ejemplo». En otros casos, «por ejemplo» no es un inciso en el interior de una oración, sino que enlaza dos y pertenece, con valor adverbial asimilable al de «como», a la segunda; he aquí tres maneras posibles de enunciar un ejemplo de esta clase, según la prisa con que acuda a la mente la segunda parte de él: 'Algunas veces, voy en taxi; por ejemplo, cuando llueve. Algunas veces voy en taxi, por ejemplo cuando llueve. Algunas veces voy en taxi; por ejemplo, cuando llueve'; y en esas tres formas puede escribirse. La primera es la más ortodoxa, pero la menos frecuente en la enunciación.

Algunos casos en que puede usarse coma y puede también, en escritura menos rigurosa, ser omitida.

1.° Puede ponerse coma delante de una «y» o una «o» que ponen fin a una enumeración, cuando el elemento final al que ellas preceden rompe la uniformidad con los otros: 'Somos amigos, vivimos en la misma casa, nos vemos todos los días, y, con todo eso, no me había dicho nada'. (V. final del n.° 2.° del apartado primero.)

2.° Detrás de un complemento antepuesto al verbo correspondiente: 'En ese caso, llámame por teléfono para decírmelo. Después, ya no me di cuenta de nada. Así, todos quedaron contentos'.

3.° Detrás de la oración afectada por conjunción o subordinada por cualquier otro medio, que se antepone a la principal enlazada con ella 'Porque no le dejamos jugar con nosotros, nos pega. Cuando hayas terminado, avísame. A hacerse simpático cuando quiere, no le gana nadie. Para que no se moleste usted, se lo llevaré yo mismo. Si no vienes pronto, me como tu pastel. Sin que nadie se diese cuenta, desapareció de la reunión. Como no estaba en casa, dejé el recado en la portería. Aunque lo dice, no lo cree. Como tú mismo has dicho otras veces, eso no tiene importancia'. La coma es particularmente superflua si esa oración compuesta forma parte de un periodo más largo y, sobre todo, si va precedida de coma: 'Si te parece, cuando hayas terminado avísame' (no hay coma detrás de «terminado»). 'Eso de que él es el menos inteligente, aunque lo dice no lo cree' (no hay coma detrás de «dice»).

4,° Puede, también, ponerse coma delante de algunas conjunciones, particularmente de las adversativas y causales, cuando la expresión pide una pausa: 'Estoy cansado, pero aún puedo andar más. Se lo di, porque no tenía ganas de reñir'.

5.° Delante de «y» cuando precede a otra conjunción: 'Le he dado sólo veinte duros, y porque no tenía ganas de discutir más'. Igualmente, cuando, en vez de «y», se dice «y eso»: 'Iré sólo un rato, y eso para que no se enfaden'.

6.°. Delante de «y» u «o», cuando enlazan elementos en los cuales ya existe una de esas conjunciones: 'Comemos y cenamos en la pensión, y el desayuno lo tomamos en el café. Pueden venir él o su hermano, o mandar a alguien en su lugar'.

7.° Y, por último, en cualquier caso en que el sentido o la expresión lo hacen necesario; aunque sea entre el sujeto y su verbo, caso de regla negativa más fija. Por ejemplo, 'pocos empleados, son fáciles de dirigir', frase que tiene sentido completamente distinto del que tendría sin la coma.

Y no quedan con lo anterior agotados todos los casos en que el que habla o escribe puede sentir la necesidad de dar a esta expresión cierto énfasis con una pausa de coma o substituyendo la pausa de coma por otra más completa, representada, por ejemplo, por punto y coma.

Desaconsejamos el apócrifo que los gaznápiros incompetentes que campan últimamente en la Editorial Gredos han llamado "edición actualizada".

CARTAS

AL DIRECTOR

"Segunda edición"

El otro día, en Telemadrid, vi una entrevista a una violinista llamada Vanessa Mae, que, entre otras cosas, había hecho una versión de Las cuatro estaciones, la cual describía como más "moderna, dinámica y divertida" que la versión original. Recuerdo que Luis Cobos hizo algo parecido con unas cuantas piezas de música clásica tipo Bolero de Ravel, donde la sensación era de que la velocidad había aumentado, el sonido era más eléctrico y, por supuesto, metía ese ritmo tachín-tachín de fondo, que siempre ayuda. Estos comentarios me recordaron la campaña de prensa que recientemente se ha hecho describiendo una "segunda edición" del Diccionario de uso del español, de María Moliner. Hubo comentarios que disminuían realmente el valor, seriedad y rigor de la edición original y de su autora, sin duda para así dar más valor a la "segunda". El 12 de noviembre se presentó ésta, habiéndose retirado por completo días antes la edición original —la cual ya no se puede comprar—. Es sin duda una versión más "moderna, dinámica y divertida", pero ríanse ustedes del lifting tipo Cobos: la estructura y las definiciones no se han modificado, sino cambiado; con un espíritu carente de pudor y de respeto y lleno de fatuidad, se han permitido de una manera un tanto pretenciosa "actualizar" a doña María Moliner. Me voy a limitar a tres observaciones:

— María agrupaba las palabras en familias etimológicas —daba prioridad a este orden sobre el orden alfabético ortodoxo—. Esto se lo han cargado (me imagino que por la facilidad que tienen ahora los programas de ordenador de ordenar alfabéticamente), diciendo que la autora así lo quería.

— La definición que dio María de la palabra "día" era realmente genial y comprometida, sintetizaba toda la filosofía y la intención del diccionario: "Tiempo que tarda el sol en dar una vuelta completa a la Tierra". En la nueva edición corrigen esto y dicen: "Tiempo que tarda la Tierra en dar una vuelta sobre su eje"... ¿Cómo debería decirse entonces que "el sol sale"?

— El María Moliner no suele entretenerse con palabras malsonantes; dice que "cojones" es un calificativo soez de los testículos, y no abunda más. Ahora ya no es soez, y por eso de que se trata de un diccionario de uso, sus autores añaden cinco o seis expresiones más, del tipo "tres pares de cojones"... Se lo debieron pasar bomba viendo quién resultaba más ocurrente.

Más, hay mucho más que decir, pero téngase en cuenta una cosa: Luis Cobos hace sus versiones y no engaña a nadie, figura él en la portada, antes que Ravel, por muy presuntuoso que esto parezca. Es más, su versión no sustituye a todas las anteriores, ni éstas se retiran del mercado como es el caso que nos concierne. Yo pediría a los nuevos autores un poco de respeto. Dejen en paz al María Moliner y llamen a sus diccionario el Gredos o el Jarreau-Calonge (no se ha consultado, ni siquiera informado, de esta edición a ninguno de los tres hijos vivos de María). O mejor aún, el tachín-tachín: claro que, a lo mejor, ya no vendería tanto.— Olivo Ramón, nieta de María Moliner. Madrid.

Roget(1852), Moliner (1966)

Peter Mark Roget comenzaba así, en 1852, la introducción a su Thesuarus of english words & phrases: "Esta obra pretende satisfacer, respecto del idioma inglés, un desideratum hasta ahora no satisfecho en ningún idioma; a saber, una recolección de las palabras que lo integran y de las combinaciones expresivas que le son propias, ordenadas, no en orden alfabético, como ocurre en un diccionario, sino de acuerdo con las ideas que expresan. El propósito de un diccionario común es simplemente explicar el significado de las palabras, y el problema que pretende solucionar puede enunciarse así: dada la palabra en cuestión, encontrar su significado, o la idea que trata de comunicar. El objetivo que persigue esta empresa es exactamente el inverso; a saber: dada la idea, encontrar la palabra o palabras, por medio de las cuales la idea puede ser expresada más precisa y adecuadamente. Con este fin, las palabras y frases del idioma han sido ordenadas aquí, no de acuerdo con su sonido u ortografía, sino estrictamente de acuerdo con su significado".

Por su parte, María Moliner, más de un siglo después, en 1966, comenzaba así la presentación a su Diccionario de uso del español: "La denominación de uso aplicada a este diccionario significa que constituye un instrumento para guiar en el uso del español tanto a los que lo tienen como idioma propio como a aquellos que lo aprenden y han llegado en el conocimiento de él a ese punto en que el diccionario bilingüe puede y debe ser substituido por un diccionario en el propio idioma que se aprende, y ello, en primer lugar, trayendo a la mano del usuario todos los recursos de que el idioma dispone para nombrar una cosa, para expresar una idea con la máxima precisión o para realizar verbalmente cualquier acto expresivo, y, en segundo lugar [y sólo 'en segundo lugar', recalco yo], resolviendo sus dudas acerca de la legitimidad o ilegitimidad de una expresión, de la manera correcta de resolver cierto caso de construcción, etcétera". (*)

A mediados de 1968, viniendo de Inglaterra, donde por entonces yo residía, le traje a mi madre un Roget. No lo conocía. Se quedó arrobada: "es lo que yo he intentado hacer", dijo.

El Thesaurus de Roget fue reeditado y ampliado, en 1879, por su hijo John Lewis, y otra vez, ya en 1936, por su nieto Samuel Romilly. La edición que yo le enseñé a mi madre era la de 1962. La edición actual es de 1987. Se han editado hasta la fecha más de tres millones de ejemplares. Aquella edición de 1962 ya contaba con lo que los editores actuales llaman "índice": una ordenación alfabética de todas las palabras, con su referencia al orden ideológico original del Thesaurus: lo cual ha facilitado enormemente su manejo. Lo sorprendente y, para mí, admirable, es que nadie, a lo largo de todo ese tiempo, se haya permitido cambiar ese orden original. O suprimirlo: incorporando las referencias al mismo índice, por ejemplo.

Lo que María Moliner hizo en su diccionario fue eso precisamente: incorporar las referencias (lo que ella llamaba "catálogos") a la palabra alfabéticamente ordenada. Pero se anuncia ahora una edición "actualizada" del mismo, y hay anticipos alarmantes de en qué va a consistir ésta: en una radical alteración de su misma estructura original, de todo aquello que ella colocaba "en primer lugar", ciertamente.

Esto es lo que yo opino, y nadie puede privarme del derecho de opinar sobre el futuro de algo que ha marcado mi vida desde que, en 1952, le traje a mi madre —desde París, en aquella ocasión— el Learner's dictionary of current english, de A. S. Hornby y otros, de 1948; que fue lo que se dice que la despertó

La mujer que escribió un diccionario

Hace tres semanas, de paso por Madrid, quise visitar a María Moliner. Encontrarla no fue tan fácil como yo suponía: algunas personas que debían saberlo ignoraban quién era, y no faltó quien la confundiera con una célebre estrella de cine. Por fin logré un contacto con su hijo menor, que es ingeniero industrial en Barcelona, y él me hizo saber que no era posible visitar a su madre por sus quebrantos de salud. Pensé que era una crisis momentánea y que tal vez pudiera verla en un viaje futuro a Madrid. Pero la semana pasada, cuando ya me encontraba en Bogotá, me llamaron por teléfono para darme la mala noticia de que María Moliner había muerto. Yo me sentí como si hubiera perdido a alguien que sin saberlo había trabajado para mí durante muchos años. María Moliner —para decirlo del modo más corto— hizo una proeza con muy pocos precedentes: escribió sola, en su casa, con su propia mano, el diccionario más completo, más útil, más acucioso y más divertido de la lengua castellana. Se llama Diccionario de uso del español, tiene dos tomos de casi 3.000 páginas en total, que pesan tres kilos, y viene a ser, en consecuencia, más de dos veces más largo que el de la Real Academia de la Lengua, y —a mi juicio— más de dos veces mejor. María Moliner lo escribió en las horas que le dejaba libre su empleo de bibliotecaria, y el que ella consideraba su verdadero oficio: remendar calcetines. Uno de sus hijos, a quien le preguntaron hace poco cuántos hermanos tenía, contestó: «Dos varones, una hembra y el diccionario». Hay que saber cómo fue escrita la obra para entender cuánta verdad implica esa respuesta.

María Moliner nació en Paniza, un pueblo de Aragón, en 1900. O, como ella decía con mucha propiedad: «En el año cero». De modo que al morir había cumplido los ochenta años. Estudió Filosofía y Letras en Zaragoza y obtuvo, mediante concurso, su ingreso al Cuerpo de Archiveros y Bibliotecarios de España. Se casó con don Fernando Ramón y Ferrando, un prestigioso profesor universitario que enseñaba en Salamanca una ciencia rara: base física de la mente humana. María Moliner crió a sus hijos como toda una madre española, con mano firme y dándoles de comer demasiado, aun en los duros años de la guerra civil, en que no había mucho que comer. El mayor se hizo médico investigador, el segundo se hizo arquitecto y la hija se hizo maestra. Sólo cuando el menor empezó la carrera de ingeniero industrial, María Moliner sintió que le sobraba demasiado tiempo después de sus cinco horas de bibliotecaria, y decidió ocuparlo escribiendo un diccionario. La idea le vino del Learner's Dictionary, con el cual aprendió el inglés. Es un diccionario de uso; es decir, que no sólo dice lo que significan las palabras, sino que indica también cómo se usan, y se incluyen otras con las que pueden reemplazarse. «Es un diccionario para escritores», dijo María Moliner una vez, hablan do del suyo, y lo dijo con mucha razón. En el diccionario de la Real Academia de la Lengua, en cambio, las palabras son admitidas cuando ya están a punto de morir, gastadas por el uso, y sus definiciones rígidas parecen colgadas de un clavo. Fue contra ese criterio de embalsamadores que María Moliner se sentó a escribir su diccionario en 1951. Calculó que lo terminaría en dos años, y cuando llevaba diez todavía andaba por la mitad. «Siempre le faltaban dos años para terminar», me dijo su hijo menor. Al principio le dedicaba dos o tres horas diarias, pero a medida que los hijos se casaban y se iban de la casa le quedaba más tiempo disponible, hasta que llegó a trabajar diez horas al día, además de las cinco de la biblioteca. En 1967 —presionada sobre todo por la Editorial Gredos, que la esperaba desde hacía cinco años— dio el diccionario por terminado. Pero siguió haciendo fichas, y en el momento de morir tenía varios metros de palabras nuevas que esperaba ver incluidas en las futuras ediciones. En realidad, lo que esa mujer de fábula había emprendido era una carrera de velocidad y resistencia contra la vida.

Su hijo Pedro me ha contado cómo trabajaba. Dice que un día se levantó a las cinco de la mañana, dividió una cuartilla en cuatro partes iguales y se puso a escribir fichas de palabras sin más preparativos. Sus únicas herramientas de trabajo eran dos atriles y una máquina de escribir portátil, que sobrevivió a la escritura del diccionario. Primero trabajó en la mesita de centro de la sala. Después, cuando se sintió naufragar entre libros y notas, se sirvió de un tablero apoyado sobre el respaldar de dos sillas. Su marido fingía una impavidez de sabio, pero a veces medía a escondidas las gavillas de fichas con una cinta métrica, y les mandaba noticias a sus hijos. En una ocasión les contó que el diccionario iba ya por la última letra, pero tres meses después les contó, con las ilusiones perdidas, que había vuelto a la primera. Era natural, porque María Moliner tenía un método infinito: pretendía agarrar al vuelo todas las palabras de la vida. «Sobre todo las que encuentro en los periódicos», dijo en una entrevista. «Porque allí viene el idioma vivo, el que se está usando, las palabras que tienen que inventarse al momento por necesidad».

Sólo hizo una excepción: las mal llamadas malas palabras, que son muchas y tal vez las más usadas en la España de todos los tiempos. Es el defecto mayor de su diccionario, y María Moliner vivió bastante para comprenderlo, pero no lo suficiente para corregirlo.

Pasó sus últimos años en un apartamento del norte de Madrid, con una terraza grande, donde tenía muchos tiestos de flores, que regaba con tanto amor como si fueran palabras cautivas. Le complacían las noticias de que su diccionario había vendido más de 10.000 copias, en dos ediciones, que cumplía el propósito que ella se había impuesto y que algunos académicos de la lengua lo consultaban en público sin ruborizarse. A veces le llegaba un periodista desperdigado. A uno que Ie preguntó por qué no contestaba las numerosas cartas que recibía le contestó con más frescura que la de sus flores: «Porque soy muy perezosa». En 1972 fue la primera mujer cuya candidatura se presentó en la Academia de la Lengua, pero los muy señores académicos no se atrevieron a romper su venerable tradición machista. Sólo se atrevieron hace dos años, y aceptaron entonces la primera mujer, pero no fue María Moliner. Ella se alegró cuando lo supo, porque le aterrorizaba la idea de pronunciar el discurso de admisión. «¿Qué podía decir yo », dijo entonces, «si en toda mi vida no he hecho más que coser calcetines?».

Suelo encontrar libros descatalogados, en www.iberlibro.com que es una red de librerías de varios países con venta online, del mismo estilo que Amazone.

¡Suerte!

Ahora mismo anuncian en su web la edición de 1977:

DICCIONARIO DE USO DEL ESPAÑOL.
MOLINER, María
Librería J. Cintas (Bretón de Herreros, 20 Madrid, Spain)
Descripción: Madrid, Edi. Gredos, 1977, 19x27, LII-1446p. y 1585 páginas. A dos columnas. Tela editorial sin sobrecubierta.

Y si ya no lo tienen, en Iberlibro toman nota de lo que se pide, y cuando aparece, te avisan.

Funciona muy bien.

Muchísimas gracias Gatopardo, gracias a ti y a este blog ya he conseguido mi diccionario María Moliner edición del 77. La única pega es que no tiene sobrecubiertas, pero el resto impecable. Estoy muy feliz y sobre todo muy agradecida.

Un saludo y mucha salud amigo.

Hola gatopardo gracias por tu blog.
Quería adquirir el diccionario de la primera edición por internet. Me gustaría saber a partir de que año fue la segunda edición y si exiten diferncias entre las diferentes reimpresiones de la primera edición.

Gracias de antemano

solo existe una primera edición, de esta se hicieron unas cuantas reimpresiones hasta que en 1999 Gredos lanza la "segunda edición" que no tiene nada que ver con el autentico diccionario y realmente es un fraude para quien esté buscando el sello maría moliner. Se distinguen además porque el copyright de la segunda edición en adelante no es el de maría moliner sino el de su nuera annie jarraud ¿Cómo puede alguien editar una página sobre puntuación, cometiendo errores en las demostraciones?

Esto —se separa— con guión largo o de diálogo, y no con -guión corto- u "ortográfico".
Las comillas ‛simples’ deben respetar las de apertura y cierre o, en su defecto, utilizar las comillas 'genéricas' apostrofadas.
Las comillas dobles, pueden ser las que contienen “apertura y cierre” o en su defecto utilizar el doble "apóstrofo". Pero nunca abrir y cerrar con dos de “apertura‟ o dos ”de cierre”.

ROMANCE DE LA MERIENDA DEL MORO ZAIDE

LA MERIENDA DEL MORO ZAIDE

Víspera de Santos Reyes, segunda fiesta del año, cuando el hijo del rey moro al rey le pide aguinaldo.
-No le pido oro ni plata ni tampoco su reinado, pídole cuatro mil hombres que salgan conmigo al campo.- Si cuatro mil le ha pedido, cinco mil le ha mandado.
Por los campos de Jaén
  van los moros peleando;
tierra por donde ellos iban todo quedaba arrasado;
no dejan cabra ni oveja
  ni pastor con su rebaño,

a no ser un pobre viejo de los miembros quebrantado
-¿Adónde queda mi primo?, ¿dónde quedan mis hermanos?
Dime, dime, tú, el pastor, ¿dónde los moros quedaron?
-En los campos de Malverde todos juntos merendando, comen ternera cocida,
  rico corderillo asado;
unos meriendan deprisa,
  otros meriendan despacio,
a no ser el perro moro que merienda de a caballo:
con la punta de la espada traía el pan a la mano, con la punta de la lanza
  apurre el carnero asado.

Dentro de la función noticiera que tuvieron muchos romances, ocupa en el viejo romancero de los siglos XV-XVI un lugar destacado el llamado "Romancero fronterizo", referente a sucesos de la plurisecular guerra con el reino moro de Granada. Conviene distinguir en él dos tipos de romance muy diversos, que son a la vez representativos de tiempos distintos: el propiamente "fronterizo", en que se refieren incidentes de la guerra de la Frontera, de mayor o menor trascendencia, y el que celebra acciones heróicas de los caballeros que escaramuzan ante Granada durante su cerco por los Reyes Católicos; que poco tienen que ver entre sí.

Los primeros, al igual que otros romances noticieros, tienen escasa cabida en el Romancero oral del siglo XX; se precisa de la concurrencia de razones especiales para que su narración siga interesando. En el romance que comento, ya sabemos que debió de ser la presencia de la palabra "aguinaldo", en el sentido general de 'presente', lo que, en su día, daría lugar a la escena inicial tal como modernamente se canta en el Norte de España (Lugo, Asturias, montaña de León, Cantabria, montaña de Palencia). La palabra no es ajena al viejo romancero fronterizo: "en braços de sus amigas / van todos juramentados / de no bolber a Jaén / sin dar moro en aguinaldo" (dice el romance que comienza "Un día de San Antón", o "Día es de San Antón"); y sospecho que la creación a partir de ella de la escena inicial nos explica el extraño hecho de que se sitúe en la víspera de la fiesta de Reyes la petición de los 4.000 hombres por un caudillo que, a continuación, corre con sus moros los campos de Jaén.
Cuando, en 1946, me estrené como colector de romances de la tradición oral en la aldea de Cirtieño, del concejo de Ponga (Asturias), la versión de este romance que recogí, en vez de hablar de hombres armados, decía, debido a su función petitoria, "pedimos seis mil duros, / cinco mil fueron mandados" (!) y el tema parecía girar en torno a una suculenta merienda campestre. Afortunadamente, otras versiones conservaban bien el relato de la algara contra Jaén. Bastaba comparar el conjunto de las reunidas en el Archivo del Romancero con otros romances fronterizos para entender que el romance de la tradición oral moderna estaba compuesto de motivos típicos de ese subgénero. No obstante, la tradición de los siglos XV-XVI no nos ofrecía versión ninguna de tal romance, ni las crónicas nos ayudaban a encuadrarlo en el tiempo. Pero su antigüedad y su difusión en aquellos siglos nos la garantiza un dicho ingenioso de Garci Sánchez de Badajoz a fines del siglo XV (recordado por Melchor de Santa Cruz en su "Floresta española", 1574), quien, para motejar en una reunión de morisco a cierto caballero, recordó impertinentemente dos octosílabos de nuestro romance:

Todos meriendan a pie
  y el moro Çaide a cavallo.

JOSÉ MANUEL MARROQUÍN. ORTOGRAFÍA. PUNTUACIÓN. USO DE LA COMA

PUNTUACIÓN

§ Los principales signos de la puntuación son la coma (,), el punto y coma (;), los dos puntos (:), el punto final (.), la interrogación (¿?), la admiración (¡!), los puntos suspensivos (...), las comillas (""), los guiones (- -), el paréntesis (), y la diéresis (ü).

§ Estos signos sirven, ya para separar unas de otras las proposiciones o sus partes; ya para dar idea de las relaciones que hay entre ellas; ya para indicar el tono en que han de leerse, y ya para mostrar el lugar en que terminan. Al mismo tiempo señalan las pausas que han de hacerse al leer.

REGLAS PARA EL USO DE LA COMA

§ Se emplea la coma para separar unas de otras las partes semejantes de una misma proposición, como varios sujetos de un mismo verbo, varios verbos que tengan un mismo sujeto, varios complementos de una misma palabra, y varios adjetivos o varios adverbios que modifiquen una misma dicción. Se emplea también cuando una de dichas partes se repite.

§ Si hay dos (y solamente dos) de estas expresiones unidas por una de las conjunciones y, e, o, u, ni, se omite entre ellas la coma.
Ejemplos:
Los soldados dispersos llegaron a la villa, cuál a pie, cuál a caballo.
Hallamos a Dios encima, debajo, delante, detrás, lejos y cerca de nosotros.
Vendí media docena de almohadas, cinco pares de medias y seiscientas botellas de sidra.
Saguanmachica, Nemequene, Tisquesusa y Zaquezazipa fueron los últimos soberanos de los muiscas.
Mirta dejó la pluma sorprendida, temió, gimió, dio voces, vino gente.

Y todos bien armados,
de piedras, de navajas, de aguijones,
de clavos, de punzones,
de palos por los cabos afilados.
Te embistan atrevidos,
te puncen y te sajen,
te tundan, te golpeen, te martillen, te piquen, te acribillen... (1)
Los insectos que se hallan en este territorio son la hormiga, la avispa, el zancudo, la cigarra, la luciérnaga, la salamanquesa, etc.

II
§ La coma sirve para separar varias proposiciones semejantes y breves cuyas partes no hayan de ir separadas por este mismo signo. Pero entre dos proposiciones se omitirá la coma, cuando entre ellas se halle una de las conjunciones y, e, o, u, ni. Habiendo más de dos con una de estas conjunciones, se omite la coma entre las dos últimas.

Ejemplos
El aura susurraba, las aves trinaban, el lucero de la mañana aparecía ya, las cimas de las sierras se veían iluminadas.
Abra usted para que entre la gente, luego métase entre ella.
Para mí habrá con muy poco, pues nada me para en el estómago.
Vicente dibuja y su hermano también, pero éste no lo hace tan bien como el otro.
Se tiene noticia del combate, mas no se sabe aún ningún pormenor ni se ha recibido el parte oficial.

Y luego sobrevenga
el juguetón gatillo bullicioso,

y primero medroso,
al verte, se retire y se contenga.
Y bufe y se espeluce horrorizado,
y alce el rabo esponjado,
y el espinazo en arco suba al cielo
y con los pies apenas toque el suelo.

III
La coma es a veces indispensable para evitar ambigüedades y equivocaciones y, cuando haya de servir para evitarlas, ha de emplearse aun antes de las conjunciones y, e, o, u, ni.
Ardieron las casas de todos mis vecinos, y la mía escapó milagrosamente.
Quien, al ir leyendo este período, no hallara la coma después de vecinos, creería, cuando viera las palabras y la mía, que mi casa también se había quemado, y se engañaría.
El perdón se funda en el olvido y en las naciones sólo se vive de recuerdos.
Aquí parece que se dice que el perdón se funda en el olvido y en las naciones, lo que es un gran despropósito. Una coma después de olvido da al período su sentido verdadero.
Si él me quisiera mal podría perderme.
Omitida la coma en este período, no se sabe si se quiso decir que si él me aborreciera podría perderme o que si me quisiera no podría perderme. La coma después de mal le hace significar lo primero, y lo segundo, colocada después de quisiera.
La que acabamos de poner después de la palabra primero es notable por la misma razón que las de los tres ejemplos anteriores.

Ejemplos
Dé usted de almorzar y de cenar a toda esa gente, y de lo que sobre reserve algo para mí, pues ha días que no como.
Esta casa no era la misma que yo creí haber visto, y, comprado que hube la otra, advertí que podían disponer de ella.
Harto dejó ver el ansia de participar de la herencia, y de la delicadeza no hizo caso.
Él está trabajando años ha para mí, y para sí mismo no ha tenido cuando trabajar.
Si él se restableciera, bien podría auxiliarnos a ti y a mí.

§ Como la coma sirve para indicar que una palabra o frase no pertenece al grupo de palabras a que está inmediata, su uso suele ser provechoso en las transposiciones.

Ejemplo
Más triunfos, más coronas dio al prudente que supo retirarse, la Fortuna, que al que esperó obstinada y locamente.

§ Se usa igualmente de la coma antes y después de toda reunión de palabras o de toda palabra que se pueda quitar o pasar adelante o atrás sin alterar el sentido de la frase; tales son las proposiciones explicativas, los vocativos, los ablativos absolutos, los complementos circunstanciales, etc.
El sujeto, el verbo y el acusativo de una proposición, palabras que casi siempre pueden cambiar de colocación, no deben, a pesar de lo dicho en el párrafo anterior, ir entre comas, como tampoco un simple adverbio o un simple adjetivo.
Hay casos en que, para no multiplicar las comas, conviene no seguir la regla quinta, a no ser que aquéllas contribuyan a la claridad o indiquen las pausas que han de hacerse.
Ciertas voces como pues y sin embargo, que pueden referirse ya a lo que les antecede, ya a lo que les sigue, deben ir acompañadas de la coma, siempre que pueda dudarse con qué están enlazadas, pero no cuando no quepa tal duda.

Ejemplos:

Señora, si usted lo dice por mí, explíquese más.
Cuando gocéis de prosperidad, sed humildes y compasivos.
Clodio, llamado a juicio por haber violado los misterios de la Buena Diosa, cohechó a sus jueces y se hizo absolver.
Si ves que la nutria se para, hazle el tiro.
Haz bien, dice el adagio, y no mires a quién.
Una revolución, cualesquiera que sean los resultados que se le atribuyan, ocasiona siempre más mal que bien.
Harta defensa contra malhechores es la pobreza de vuestra habitación, respondió el huésped, viendo que ésta no contenía sino un montoncillo de heno, un crucifijo, una mesita cubierta con un lienzo basto, y una silla desvencijada.
La zorra, gracias a su sagacidad, adivinó por qué se elogiaban recíprocamente el avestruz y el dromedario.
Los justos, como el oro en el fuego, se purifican en la tribulación.
Ve a buscar al cirujano, y, si no lo hallas, di a la vecina que le avise.
Si no hay quien nos corrija a tiempo, como sucede a menudo, nos pervertimos.
Ofrezco que, si condescienden conmigo, sí complazco a los que han solicitado esta merced.

VI
§ Los relativos, como que y donde, ya vayan con proposición, ya vayan sin ella, se separan de su antecedente con una coma, cuando encabezan una proposición que sirve para dar idea de alguna cualidad o circunstancia de dicho antecedente, sin limitar su significado.
No ha de emplearse la coma si la proposición encabezada por el relativo le hace significar al sustantivo que sirve de antecedente menor número de objetos que el que expresaría estando solo.
Los hombres, que son animales racionales, se distinguen de los brutos.
Aquí se pone una coma antes del que, porque la proposición que son animales racionales no limita la significación de los hombres, sino que expresa la circunstancia de ser animal racional, la cual es común a todo el que sea hombre.
Los hombres que temen a Dios son justos.
Omítese en este ejemplo la coma porque la proposición que temen a Dios limita o reduce el significado de los hombres. Ahora ya no se trata de todos los hombres, como en el primer ejemplo, sino de los hombres que temen a Dios, que, por desgracia, no son todos.
Los guerrilleros, que fueron cogidos con las armas en la mano, fueron fusilados.
Los guerrilleros que fueron cogidos con las armas en la mano, fueron fusilados.
En el primero de estos dos ejemplos, la proposición que fueron cogidos con las armas en la mano indica, merced a la coma, una circunstancia que fue común a todos los guerrilleros. El que no contribuye, pues, a limitar el significado del antecedente guerrilleros.
En el segundo ejemplo, faltando la coma, resulta que solamente fueron fusilados algunos de los guerrilleros, esto es, los que fueron cogidos con las armas en la mano.
El campo, donde he vivido siempre, es la residencia que me agrada.
El campo donde he vivido siempre, es la residencia que me agrada.
En el primero de estos períodos la proposición encabezada por el adverbio relativo donde, no sirve sino para dar al lector una noticia o hacerle una advertencia respecto del objeto llamado campo; el relativo no reduce la significación de su antecedente, sino que lo deja significando tanto como significaría en cualquier otro caso: la coma indica todo esto.

En el segundo, la dicha proposición no precedida de coma hace que campo no signifique los campos en general, sino únicamente aquel en que vivo.
Por lo regular los relativos que deben ir precedidos de una coma pueden ser reemplazados por el cual, la cual, los cuales, las cuales.

Ejemplos
El día, que fue lluvioso, lo pasamos sin salir de casa.
El mozo, que había venido a traer una carta, había partido ya.
Las provincias trasalpinas, que son las que están situadas más allá de los Alpes, se hallan superabundantemente provistas de riquezas inestimables.
La misericordia de Dios, que es inagotable, sólo falta a los que desesperan.
Sólo espero en el Señor, en cuya mano están todas las cosas.

§ Sepáranse con la coma dos sustantivos de los cuales el segundo modifica al primero, haciendo oficio de predicado.
Este caso no es diferente de aquel en que se emplea la coma antes del relativo, pues entre los dos sustantivos siempre se sobreentiende una de las expresiones que es, que era, etc.

Ejemplos:
El cura, hombre docto, graduado en Sigüenza.
Panamá, ciudad fundada en 1519 por Pedro Arias Dávila, es la más antigua de las granadinas.

VIII
§ La coma es necesaria para indicar una pausa después de un sujeto o de un complemento que empiece la frase y que esté separado del verbo por muchas palabras.

Ejemplos
Aquella penetración, aquella actividad maravillosa con que Dios manifiesta su presencia en todas partes, es lo que llamamos Providencia.
El que no há mucho habitaba un palacio lleno de siervos que se desvivían por adivinarle sus pensamientos, habita hoy una horrible, hedionda y sucia mazmorra.
Aquel ejército compuesto de aventureros de todos los países de Europa, devastó todas esas vastas regiones.
Todo el que voluntariamente entre en la asociación, gozará, entre otros privilegios, el de poder usar medias azules.

IX
Cuando se calla un verbo o una frase entera, se escribe la coma en su lugar.
El amor a la gloria mueve las almas grandes; el amor al dinero, las almas vulgares.
Es decir, El amor al dinero mueve las almas vulgares. La coma reemplaza al verbo mueve.

Ejemplo
Dijo que, si le pagaban, sí mataba el tigre, y que si no, no.

Agüela, bien sabes de mis problemas para puntuar, así que este post lo voy a copiar, pegar, imprimir, y lo releeré mil veces, a ver si en mi dura sesera entra la enseñanza; porque mira que me cuesta aprender estas cosas.

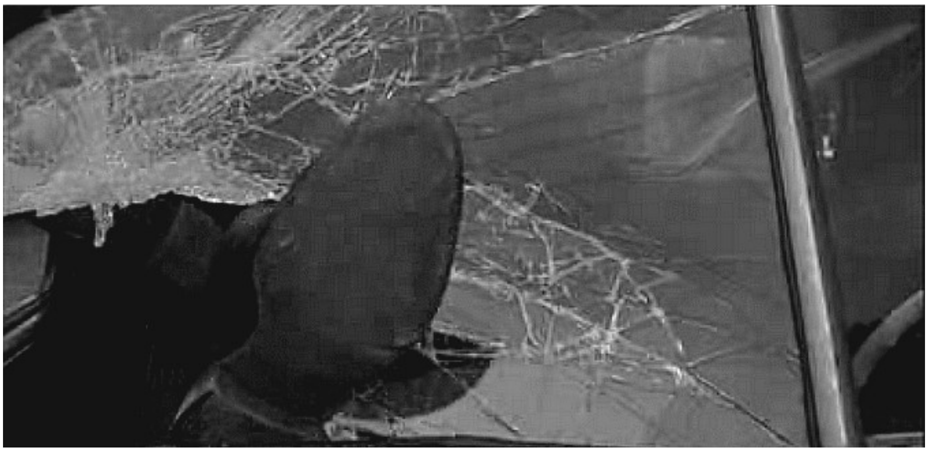
EL RUANO MIGUEL SEBASTIÁN, ENTERRADOR DE LAS ENERGÍAS ALTERNATIVAS, BUSCA CEMENTERIO NUCLEAR



La mafia nunca ha tenido problemas para desembarazarse de sus desechos. Forma parte de las historias que no conviene difundir que algunas funerarias ponen a su disposición ataudes especialmente ligeros y lujosos, con un falso fondo para un segundo finado.

Desde que la mafia entró en la construcción, el cemento armado ha servido de nicho anónimo, y las brigadas de demolición pueden sacar restos humanos en cuanto ahondan en los cimientos de los edificios y los aparcamientos. Y desde que entró en el negocio del reciclaje de residuos sólidos, en los vertederos, bajo montañas de basura, hay una buena cantidad de contaminantes químicos, bacteriológicos, y una más que chocante proporción de occisos y radiactividad. Algunos de los investigadores pardillos que se han paseado por allí para comprobarlo, no volvieron a aparecer, o pasaron del ardoroso ecologismo a desempeñar cargos de libre designación en los aledaños del Ministerio de Industria y Energía o el de Sanidad, defendiendo los intereses de las empresas constructoras, eléctricas, químicas y farmacéuticas.

Como nos maliciábamos, una alternativa para las plantas cementeras después del pinchazo de la burbuja inmobiliaria, consiste en incorporarse al negocio de los basuras tóxicas, utilizándolas como combustible, y a las autoridades les importa un bledo que contaminen el aire, el entorno, y el cemento que producen con niveles peligrosos de furano, dioxinas, y metales pesados.

Esta lenidad con los que nos envenenan no es algo tan raro como nos gustaría pensar. La empresa Erkimia-Ercros entre 1988 y 1993, vertió al pantano de Flix radionucleidos (contaminación radiactiva), metales pesados (mercurio, cromo, níquel, cadmio, cobre, arsénico y zinc), compuestos organoclorados, y productos prohibidos desde hacía años, como el DDT. Diez años después, en un alarde humorístico muy común en nuestro sistema judicial, que si los acusados tienen padrinos suele esperar hasta que prescribe el delito, se llegó a un pacto extrajudicial para evitar la onerosa carga de un juicio público, y condenó a cinco directivos de la planta de Erkimia en Flix, a seis meses y un día de prisión menor y una multa de 30.100 euros, haciendo constar en la sentencia que "los acusados no produjeron daño efectivo a personas ni al medio ambiente, aunque incurrieron en una conducta de riesgo".

Hablamos de 300.000 toneladas de residuos "tremendamente peligrosos", según el Ministerio de Medio Ambiente, que ha formado una masa apelmazada en el pantano de Flix, cuya eliminación se ha presupuestado en 162 millones € y tres años y medio de trabajo para extraerla sin que se mueva y se desplace río abajo, porque eso significaría el envenenamiento del río Ebro y de las tierras circundantes a lo largo de cientos de kilómetros. Ni qué decir que el 90% del coste se paga con los presupuestos destinados al Ministerio de Medio Ambiente; es decir, que lo pagamos con nuestros impuestos;, y punto en boca. Mientras, Erkimia-Ercros ha recurrido la sentencia que la condenó a pagar el 10% de esta factura.

Para no desentonar, las denuncias ante el Tribunal Superior de Justícia de Catalunya (TSJC) de la Organización de Consumidores de Catalunya (OCUC), Ecologistes en Acció, Greenpeace, Alternativa Verda y el Grup de Científics i Tècnics per un Futur No Nuclear a partir de una investigación del periodista Pep Ros siguen en vía muerta. Ningún organismo público ha hecho ni puñetero caso de estos análisis y denuncias, y tampoco el Ministerio de Sanidad ha tomado en cuenta ni ha analizado la radioactividad de los productos alimenticios procedentes de los animales que consumen pienso fabricado por Erkimia-Ercros:

"Los análisis realizados por el laboratorio independiente de la CRIIRAD constatan que el sulfato dicálcico de Erkimia contiene elementos radiotóxicos que se acumulan en el organismo y que son

activos durante muchos años. El sulfato dicálcico se produce a partir de un mineral, la fosforita (procedente del Sahara), que presenta radioactividad en su estado natural. El componente fabricado en Erkimia contiene uranio 238 (tiene un periodo de desintegración de 4500 millones de años. Es el primero de una familia de elementos radioactivos que se generan cuando se desintegran). En la espectrometría gamma aparece otro elemento de la cadena del Uranio 238, el plomo 210 (con un período de desintegración de 22 años) y en la espectrometría alfa del laboratorio IRSN (París) se ha detectado el polonio 210 en unos niveles de 1.400 becquerelios por kilo (un becquerelio es una unidad que mide la radioactividad y equivale a una desintegración por segundo). El Polonio 210 tienen un período de semidesintegración de 138 días, siendo emisor de radiaciones alfa y muy peligroso por ingestión.

(...) este alto contenido en radioactividad del fosfato dicálcico empleado por Erkimia en Flix surge por el hecho de que el plomo 210 o el polonio 210, una vez inhalados o ingeridos, se acumulan en el organismo. El alto contenido energético de la radiación de estos elementos puede romper el ADN de las células. La problemática del polonio 210 es conocida también por ser uno de los agentes cancerígenos presentes en el humo del tabaco y, por tanto, responsable del cáncer de pulmón. El responsable del laboratorio francés CRIIRAD, Bruno Chareyron, señaló que "la ingestión de sólo 0,3 gramos de fosfatos dicálcico por día, cada día del año, conduciría a un niño de entre 2 y 7 años a sobrepasar la dosis máxima anual admisible de radioactividad" (1.000 microSievert por año según la directiva comunitaria).

No es extraño que, viendo lo visto, Miguel Sebastían, ministro de Industria y Energía, esté tan seguro de que habrá "pelea" entre municipios por acoger el cementerio nuclear que saldrá a concurso para el otoño de 2009. Y dice que es seguro, que lo tienen todo estudiado, y crearán puestos de trabajo. Sabe que puede contar con sus aparceros en los Ayuntamientos, y con una ciudadanía que tiene la tasa más alta de adictos a los psicofármacos, por prescripción facultativa, y con un índice de analfabetismo funcional entre los alumnos que han terminado la Enseñanaza Obligatoria, sólo parangonable al de sus padres.

Los mangantes que nos gobiernan saben que no nos vamos a enterar de los desastres que han provocado, ni de los que nos preparan, y que no van a condenar jamás a los responsables.

Dios es bueno cuando estamos vivos...

LEGIONARIOS DE CRISTO: LOS HIJOS DE MARCIAL MACIEL Y EL VATICANO

La doble vida de Marcial Maciel está sujeta a revisión por el Vaticano que inició la prometida y necesaria inspección a los Legionarios de Cristo y toda su congregación religiosa, incluido su particular sistema de educación basado en su herencia teológica, aún utilizado en los colegios privados que existen en el mundo y sus universidades.
La comunidad internacional fue informada oportunamente sobre la pederastia del fundador de los legionarios, pero el Vaticano no ordenó una revisión hasta ahora luego del escándalo de los hijos de Maciel saltó a la luz pública debido a la disputa por su multimillonaria herencia.
Las primeras informaciones noticiosas hablaban de una hija llamada Norma Hilda, de origen mexicano de 23 años, concretamente de Acapulco, Guerrero, radicada actualmente en Madrid, España; pero conforme ha ido pasando el tiempo, los hijos de Maciel se incrementan.
Y es que el fundador de los Legionarios no ocultaba a sus hijos a su entorno más cercano, viajaba con ellos por el mundo, los mantenía económicamente desviando importantes cantidades de dinero, les daba la posibilidad de estudiar en importantes universidades internacionales, incluida desde luego la famosa Anáhuac ubicada en nuestro país.
Los más cercanos conocían a los vástagos de Maciel, por eso esperamos que tanto Álvaro Corcuera, heredero del imperio legionario, como su vicario el regiomontano Luis Garza Medina y Jesús Quirce digan la verdad ante los visitadores del Vaticano.
Son ellos los que conocen con exactitud la existencia de estos muchachos, cuyo único pecado fue ser procreados por un depredador sexual que violó a pequeños discípulos. ¿Qué seguridad tienen los legionarios de que no hizo lo mismo con sus hijos?
Al morir Marcial Maciel, sus supuestos tres hijos mexicanos se quedaron desprotegidos, al menos esos son los que actualmente han intentado recuperar una parte de la herencia exigiendo a la Legión de Cristo la parte que les corresponde, pero puede haber más vástagos, aquí y en el extranjero. ¿Cuantos hijos dejó Maciel? Es una pregunta que tendrá que responder oficialmente el Vaticano.
Lo interesante de esta doble vida de "nuestro padre" como le siguen llamando los legionarios, es la relación que mantuvo con las madres de sus hijos. Hasta ahora, el mundo solo conocía la fascinación de Maciel por los niños guapos, pero que hay detrás de sus mujeres amantes.

Son precisamente sus hijos los que podrán contar la verdadera vida de Marcial Maciel, sus secretos mejor guardados por los actuales dirigentes legionarios para intentar crear un mito de su muerte, una especie de santo fundador que, afortunadamente para la Iglesia y sus fieles, nunca llegará al altar.
La Legión de Cristo ha declarado oficialmente que está "deseosa" de colaborar con el Vaticano en esta inspección iniciada por los enviados del papa Ratzinger. Por tanto, esperamos que unos y otros digan la verdad al mundo. Esperamos que Ricardo Watty Urquidi de Tepic, Ricardo Blázquez de Bilbao, Ricardo Ezzati Andrello de Chile, Charles Joseph Chaput de Denver y Giuseppe Versaldi de Alessandria, Italia, se conduzcan con honestidad en los resultados de sus inspecciones.
¿Que van encontrar estos hombres en los centros educativos de la Legión y en los colaboradores de Marcial Maciel? Secretismo, mucho secretismo, pero también se exhibirá la devoción que siguen profesando los legionarios en sus colegios a un pederasta y padre de varios hijos que combinó el sacerdocio con sus patologías sexuales.
Las fotos de Marcial Maciel siguen colgadas en los colegios legionarios. Si los inspectores del Vaticano no ordenan a la Legión quitarlas, habrá que agregarles las imágenes de los hijos de Maciel.
La multimillonaria herencia dejada por el fundador ha provocado que tanto los herederos legítimos por sangre, como los herederos de la legión empiecen a pelear en la sombra. Seguramente, muy pronto el mundo será testigo de estos pleitos judiciales que iniciarán en México y en otros países por obtener la mayor tajada de los dineros conseguidos con base en donaciones de importantes benefactores que prefirieron seguir con la venda en los ojos a pesar de los hechos denunciados.
Sería importante que los inspectores del Vaticano entrevistaran también a los hijos de Maciel. Ellos tienen mucho que contar de su padre. Tienen mucho que mostrar: documentos, fotografías, pruebas de su relación fraternal con el fundador de los Legionarios. Sería importante que los inspectores no solo entrevistaran a los legionarios, sino a las víctimas de Maciel, a quienes han investigado a la orden desde el periodismo, la historia o la procuración de justicia.
Solo nos queda ver si a los hijos de Maciel y sus abogados los mueve el interés del dinero o si prefieren hacer un bien a la humanidad desenmascarando públicamente a su progenitor.
Esperemos que un arreglo multimillonario no calle sus conciencias. El mundo merece saber la verdad y el fin del engaño. A las víctimas se les debe una reparación.
Los inspectores del Vaticano tienen la responsabilidad de terminar con las mentiras oficiales de la Legión. Si así fuera, como esperamos las personas de buena fe, la Legión debería rechazar definitivamente a su fundador y por consiguiente desaparecer. Una orden religiosa basada en el poder y la influencia teológica unipersonal de su fundador no puede continuar. Sin Marcial Maciel, los Legionarios de Cristo no pueden existir.
Los hijos de Maciel y el Vaticano han quedado unidos por el destino.

AD MAIOREM GLORIAM MEI

Yo soy como los curas que en España nacieron
—soy de la raza quinqui , amiga del parné—, que todo lo ganaron y al rico bendijeron:
tengo el alma de nardo del pícaro mosén.

Mi memoria se ha muerto una noche de luna;
no me acuerdo cuándo, dónde ni en qué lo gasté.
No me pidan facturas o prueba ninguna:
lo hice por los pobres y lo hice con fe

Mi amnesia es natural, aguda y colorada
y la rosa simbólica de mi único ardor es un indio que nace en tierra ignorada y que no tiene aroma, ni forma, ni color.

¿Cuentas? ¡pero no darlas! ¿Pasta? ¡la que me dieren!
¡Que todo como un aura se venga para mí!
¡Que las olas me traigan y las olas me lleven,
y que jamás me obliguen las cuentas a decir!

¿El CIF? No lo tengo. ¿El ISBN? Lo he perdido
¡Qué falta de confianza y de gratitud !.
Vaga idea de recibos tuve... .pero se ha ido
Ni Hacienda me seduce ni adoro su virtud.

De mi buena intencion dudar jamás se pudo.
No se ganan, se heredan, santidad y blasón...
Pero el lema de casa, el mote del escudo, es una alegre niña que renta un mogollón.

Poco pido: diez euros, y si no, dos. Con dejarme, lo que hago por vosotros, hacer podéis por mí...
¡Que Hacienda se tome la pena de buscarme, ya que yo no me tomo la molestia de huir! ...

Mi memoria se ha muerto una noche de luna
no me acuerdo cuándo, dónde ni en qué lo gasté.
No me pidan facturas o prueba ninguna.
del óbolo generoso que no ha de volver.

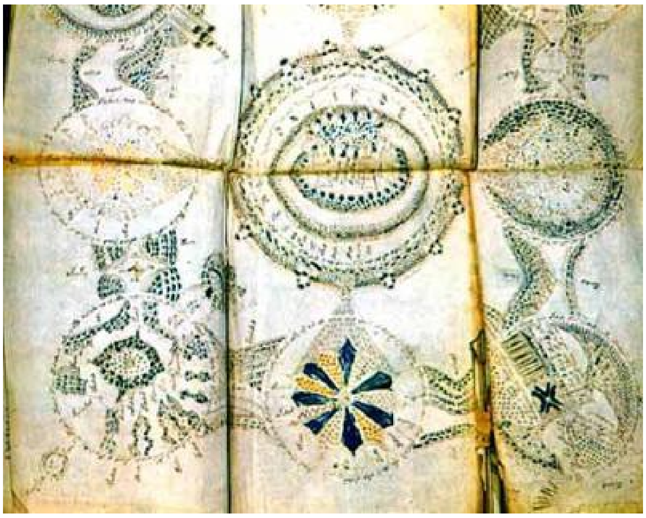
LA EDUCACIÓN



Doña Rosaura jamás se ha dejado tutear por sus amistades, y habla consigo misma cuando está sola para escuchar los arpegios de su voz de soprano, sin permitirse una palabra más alta que otra. Es nieta, hija, hermana y viuda de militares, y supo ser una madre estricta, que inculcó a su hija Verónica las virtudes de una disciplina férrea.
Su esposo, el Coronel Páez, supo secundarla y jamás la desautorizó, y eso se lo reconoce, pero piensa que le perdió la falta de ambición, la carencia de espíritu castrense. Para él su puesto en el Ejercito era un trabajo de funcionario en el Ministerio de nueve a tres; pero llegaba a casa y se cambiaba de ropa, comía, dormitaba un rato y se iba a jugar al ajedrez o se juntaba con los del Club Numismático, luego, volvía a las siete de la tarde, tomaba una merienda-cena ligera y se metía a su despacho con su colección. No se preocupó de nada ni quiso saber nunca del mundo, y su máxima aspiración fue que no se rompiera su rutina.

Cuando murió legó billetes y monedas de doscientos veinte países y más de trescientos libros de numismática al Ministerio del Ejército. Doce años después, Doña Rosaura limpiaba el polvo del legado todos los días, y lo mantenía en perfecto estado de revista, pero le recordaba a su difunto el poco aprecio que habían hecho de su regalo:
-Ya lo decía mi padre: ·"Lo que no es pagado, ni agradecido ni apreciado".
Su padre fue un militar de la cabeza a los pies, un militar a la antigua usanza, que estuvo destinado en África y fue herido y condecorado: pero no supo ser un político y murió con el grado de sargento y una paga de miseria. Ella lo recordaba siempre con su pata de palo y su ojo de cristal, hablando de las batallas en las que había luchado, y se emocionaba recordando cómo los moros, que eran traicioneros y sanguinarios, habían pasado a cuchillo a los supervivientes y se salvó porque lo dieron por muerto… Doña Rosaura se sentía tan curtida en estas atrocidades como ajena a los escrúpulos por las muertes inútiles.
-Un hombre ha de luchar en la guerra y si muere, el compañero lo sustituirá. Así se hizo la grandeza de España y así se mantendrá. La mujer tiene otras batallas que librar…
Y cuando le tocó estar en la trinchera como madre supo luchar sin una vacilación. A Verónica la obligó a soportar estoicamente las sábanas heladas de aquella casa sin calefacción, las camisetas ásperas, los zapatos fuertes y anudados con cordones, y siempre faldas por debajo de la rodilla, jamás pantalones, ni en los más crudos fríos de Enero, y desenredaba con gesto decidido su pelo rizado, sin permitirle otra cosa que unas lágrimas silenciosas, hasta dejarlo recogido en dos trenzas.
Una vez, cuando Verónica tenía nueve años, doña Rosaura vio la puerta de su dormitorio cerrada y se acercó sigilosamente para descubrir la anomalía; Verónica estaba ante el espejo con el pelo suelto, y su camisón recogido por encima del vientre, desnuda… Tenía una expresión extraña y fija, "como una hembra", que llenó de repugnancia a doña Rosaura, y sin decirle una palabra, la abofeteó hasta que las manos se convirtieron en puños, pero no bastaron y cogió la fusta del Coronel, y continuó golpeándola, jadeante y llena de odio. Verónica gemía, pero ahogaba sus gritos y sin embargo su padre acudió con sus gafas caídas y un gesto de estupor, abrazó a su hija y miró a su mujer con una expresión de horror que años después se convertiría en algo habitual. No preguntó porqué, nadie explicó el suceso; pero al día siguiente doña Rosaura rapó el pelo de su hija y un mes después la llevó interna a un colegio de monjas con instrucciones para que extremaran su severidad.
El Coronel no supo entenderla; pero tampoco discutió, sólo demostró su desacuerdo durmiendo en el sofá de su despacho y negándose a hablar con su mujer, salvo cuando había visitas y fingía un trato cortés.
Verónica pidió permiso para quedarse en verano con las monjas y cuando iba doña Rosaura a visitarla le hablaba de las actividades piadosas a las que se dedicaba, con su extraña voz ronca, sin énfasis, como si estuviera leyendo sus palabras. Y doña Rosaura pensaba que una buena educación, una disciplina estricta estaban consiguiendo cortar de raíz aquella fuerza sensual, casi zoológica, que vio en todo su esplendor aquel día en que su hija, sin pudor alguno, se mostraba ante el espejo sin bragas.
Cuando el Coronel no se despertó aquel día, Verónica había cumplido diecisiete años, y seguía en el Colegio interna. Doña Rosaura tuvo que llamar al Hospital Militar adonde lo atendían de unas vagas molestias estomacales, hubo de explicar que "a veces" el Coronel tenía insomnio y para no molestarla se venía a dormir al sofá; pero supo que no le habían creído y sin apenas preguntarle, se llevaron el cadáver, avisaron a la Madre Superiora para que dejaran venir a Verónica al entierro, y un compañero del Ministerio, que dijo ser amigo del Coronel y albacea testamentario, le habló del cáncer que desde hacía dos años aquejaba al Coronel. A los pocos días del entierro vino para acompañarlas al Notario y allí recibió Verónica su emancipación, algunos objetos personales y el dinero en efectivo que su padre le había destinado. Legó su Colección numismática al Ministerio y a su mujer le dejó el usufructo de aquel piso de sesenta metros cuadrados, que había sido su única propiedad.

Durante diez años doña Rosaura imaginó todas las atrocidades y todas la bajezas de su hija, que le escribía una tarjeta de vez en cuando desde Londres, que ella sabía cuna de todas las perversiones; desde Roma, que en su mente sólo era allí donde los cristianos eran arrojados a las fieras, desde Corfú, que no era capaz de ubicar en el mapa, y más tarde desde la India…
Pero desde hacía un año doña Rosaura sabía a ciencia cierta que la buena educación, la estricta disciplina y la severidad moral habían dado frutos.
Volvió Verónica, vestida con un traje de chaqueta negro, una blusa abotonada hasta el cuello, su hermoso pelo recogido en un moño de donde no se escapaba ni un rizo, con la falda por debajo de la rodilla, zapatos abotinados con cordones, y de su equipaje salieron dos docenas de trajes similares, en gris marengo, azul marino, negro, blusas de inmaculada blancura, zapatos cómodos, con cordones y sin apenas tacón y, algo que a su madre le conmovió profundamente, la fusta del coronel con la que una vez le había golpeado ella. Rezumaba serenidad y elegancia.
Y cada día, cuando su hija, llevando su maletín negro, acudía a su trabajo como profesora de idiomas, en un Colegio que ella no conocía, pero imaginaba elegantísimo, doña Rosaura entraba en el dormitorio de su hija, tan austero y falto de comodidades, y miraba su camita perfectamente hecha, quitaba el polvo inexistente, se sentaba en la descalzadora, abría el buró y de un tarjetero de cuero elegantísimo extraía una tarjeta profesional de cartulina gris, y acariciaba las letras doradas, en relieve, adonde estaba reflejado el resultado de su educación:

EL CORTE INGLÉS EN GOTTSCHALKS, DE VICTORIA EN VICTORIA, HASTA LA RUINA FINAL...

Dios nos libre de juzgar la sagacidad y la fiabilidad de los periodistas serios, que contaban y no acababan sobre las sagacísimas inversiones y el esplendor de El Corte Inglés y Gottschalks, EE UU, que no se había visto prosa ditirámbica como ésa desde la prosa administrativa del Boletín Oficial de Castilla-La Mancha referente a José Bono y la de los partidarios del heroico conductor de los pueblos, Enver Hoxha, cuando convirtió por decreto a Albania en el país más rico del mundo.

Como nosotros no estamos enmudecidos por la publicidad con la que El Corte Inglés premia a los dóciles y pacatos , y no tenemos un código deontológico que nos impide citar y poner el enlace directo a las publicaciones que consultamos, tenemos el placer y el honor de remitirles y recomendarles el artículo, publicado en soitu.es, de Beatriz García, titulado "El fin del sueño californiano golpea a El Corte Inglés", donde cuenta ahora el acabóse que vaticinaba hace meses, datos mediante, El Espía que surgió del frío, Nuestro pésame a esos linces del equipo directivo de El Corte Inglés, que, con la misma inteligencia clara y escasísima que doña Obdullia Moncada, van de victoria en victoria, hasta la ruina inminente, sin variar el rumbo.

De nada, ya saben que me gusta ser útil.

Autor: deuda de El Corte Inglés con DICO condiciona el pago del ERE, según UGT

Madrid, 13 jul (EFECOM).- El sindicato UGT denunció hoy que El Corte Inglés adeuda 6,2 millones de euros a la constructora DICO, declarada en concurso de acreedores desde el pasado mes de marzo, lo que impide pagar las indemnizaciones a los 195 trabajadores que se acordó despedir en abril.

Según explicaron a EFE fuentes de la sección sindical, la empresa presidida por Isidoro Alvarez ha abonado ya 6 millones de euros pero está pendiente del pago de otros 6,2 millones, necesarios para pagar las compensaciones de los empleados despedidos, que hasta ahora sólo han percibido un pequeño adelanto y que exigen los 4 millones que tenían que haberse hecho efectivos el pasado 30 de junio.

Un portavoz de El Corte Inglés rechazó las acusaciones de UGT al asegurar que la empresa "ya ha consignado las cantidades correspondientes" por orden judicial.

LA VERDAD ES QUE...

Después de la infestación de los idiotismos como "de alguna manera" y "como muy", arrasa otra epidemia tontilocua con la muletilla "la verdad es que...", perfectamente prescindible para la perfecta expresión, redaccción y comprensión de cualquiera de las melonadas que acompaña.

Se ha perdido el norte y el oremus y aterrizado en el ignoramus, se ha olvidado que la mentira es la base de nuestra civilización, el freno y el bozal de nuestra inicua naturaleza, y el toque de cortesía imprescindible para no liar la mundial. La verdad es cosa de notarios y de registradores de la propiedad, una perfecta inconveniencia, y una grosería merecedora de un buen soplamocos.

Se puede contar por docenas este maldito idiotismo léxico en las noticias, los blogs, los programas de radio, las series y películas españolas, redundando con "sinceramente", "si quieres que te diga la verdad", en un alarde verista que no engaña a nadie, pero consigue irritar a cualquier hijo de vecino provisto de sesos y discernimiento.

Por ejemplo:

"La verdad es que estamos en un partido político y el fin primordial del partido, y hay que decirlo y dejarnos de demagogias, no es el bien de Gijón". (Pedro Muñiz, ex-concejal del PP de Gijón)

—"... la verdad es que es muy problemático*"* (Elena Quiñones)

—"La verdad es que casi todas las fiestas aquí parecen lo mismo*." ... "la verdad es que no me siento atraído por la música de baile"* (Pablo Serrano)

—"La verdad es que Homer, como personaje es un acierto." (Carlos Ysbert)

—"La verdad es que no me siento muy querido aquí." (Juanito)

—"La verdad es que lo llevo mal, sobre todo si no se nota un aumento clarísimo en el caché." ... "...la verdad es que esta vez vamos a hacer bastantes conciertos en recintos de ese tipo." ... "La verdad es que no escucho ni siquiera cinco discos al año que no conociera ya de antes." (Antonio Luque)

—"La verdad es que pegan bien con el juego" ... "La verdad es que el control en FIFA Street 3 es una delicia." (Videojuegos y consolas)

—"La verdad es que este lugar me resulta poco familiar, lo cual es extraño" ..."La verdad es que no pienso mucho en lo que gano." ... "La verdad es que leo muchas cosas malas." (Julia Roberts)

—"...la verdad es que con el triplete hay mucho tema de conversación y de diversión." ..."La verdad es que para un culé como yo, ganar una Champions en el Bernabéu sería lo máximo..." (Xavi Hernández)

—"La verdad es que ha puesto emoción a la etapa" (Alberto Contador)

—"La verdad es que necesitan ayuda y siempre les digo que se dejen llevar pensando en los personajes." (David Yates)

—"L*a verdad es que* lie una bien gorda" (Titular en El País, saltándose el noble arte de acentuar)

—"...la verdad es que no esperaba jugar tan pronto". (Gaizka Toquero)

—"La verdad es que las escuelas no enseñan nada excepto a obedecer órdenes" (John Taylor Gatto)

—"La verdad es que a mi me echaron, esa es la verdad..." (Vicente Sabattini)

—"La verdad es que en momentos así siempre te gusta que tu gente esté a tu lado", "La verdad es que los exámenes me resultaron más difíciles de lo que eran" (Rafael Ruiz Andrés)

—"¡La verdad es que yo no tenía pensado correr este maratón!", "La verdad es que hacía tiempo que el maratón español no contaba con dos jóvenes apuestas tan interesantes como Nimo y Fernando Rey." (Ignacio Romo entrevista a Fernando Rey)

Y 3.840.000 frases con "la verdad es que"...

Gatopardo

La verdad es que tienes razón. Cuánto daño hacen los medios de comunicación al idioma. Y cuánta hipocresía en esa "la verdad es". ¿Quién demonios sabe la verdad? Y quien la conoce ¿cuándo la dice?

SERENATA

Ahora que los ladros perran, ahora que los cantos gallan, ahora que albando la toca
las altas suenas campanan;
y que los rebuznos burran,
y que los gorjeos pájaran
y que los silbos serenan
y que los gruños marranan
y que la aurorada rosa los extensos doros campa, perlando líquidas viertas cual yo lágrimo derramas

y friando de tirito
si bien el abrasa almada, vengo a suspirar mis lanzos
ventano de tus debajas.
Tú en tanto duerma tranquiles en tu rega camalada ingratándote así burla
de las amas del que te ansia
¡Oh, ventánate a tu asoma!
¡Persiane un poco la abra
y suspire los recibos que esta pobra exhale alma!
Ven, endecha las escuchas en que mi exhala se alma que un milicio de musicas me flauta con su compaña, en tinieblo de las medias
de esta madruga oscurada.
Ven y haz miradar tus brillas a fin de angustiar mis calmas.
Esas tus arcas son cejos
con que flechando disparas.
Cupido peche mi hiero
y ante tus postras me planta.
Tus estrellos son dos ojas,
tus rosos son como labias,
tus perles son como dientas,
tu palme como una talla,
tu cisne como el de un cuello,
un garganto tu alabastra,
tus tornos hechos a brazo,
tu reinar como el de un anda.
Y por eso horo a estas vengas
a rejar junto a tus cantas ¡y a suspirar mis exhalos
ventano de tus debajas!

El amor es un sentimiento tan universal que su deformación no influye en su comprensión esencial. El poema se puede leer perfectamente sin obligar al lector a permutar las palabras. Hay lenguajes universales.

DÍA DEL ORGULLO GAY

Los que vivimos la época de los disturbios de Stonewall, y cuando, en aplicación de la "Ley de vagos y maleantes", se encarcelaba a los homosexuales por el mero hecho de parecerlo -y se les desterraba por décadas una vez cumplida la pena- , los padres con dinero llevaban a sus hijos homosexuales a unas clínicas psiquiátricas carísimas (como el Instituto Galton, de Barcelona) para que los curaran mediante terapia aversiva, consistente en ponerles diapositivas de escenas heterosexuales (parejas de hombre y mujer) acompañadas con la música que les gustaba, intercalando parejas homosexuales con descargas eléctricas en los genitales.
El jurista Miguel Miravet Hombrados, propuesto por el PSOE como hijo adoptivo de Valencia, en su obra "Peligrosidad social y medidas de seguridad." Colección de Estudios del Instituto de Criminología y Departamento de Derecho Penal. Universidad de Valencia, 1974, decía: "Se han empleado técnicas terapéuticas… [con] resultados insospechados hasta ahora: un 66 por ciento de curaciones". La terapia es -dice- "no excesivamente dolorosa, pero desagradable. El inconveniente es que el tratamiento es largo y caro: de una a tres veces por semana y, como número medio de sesiones, cuarenta y ocho".
Otros tratamientos psiquiátricos "no excesivamente dolorosos, pero desagradables", consistían en provocar un coma en los pacientes mediante electroshocks, inyecciones de aguarrás, shock de insulina, etc.
Había casos resistentes a estas terapias, y ahí era donde la clínica del Dr. López Ibor, en la que trabajaba el reputado neurocirujano, Dr. Obrador, hacía milagros con la lobotomía (1), como expllicaba en el Congreso de Psiquiatría de San Remo (Italia) de 1973: “Mi último paciente era un desviado. Después de la intervención en el lóbulo inferior del cerebro presenta, es cierto, trastornos en la memoria y la vista, pero se muestra más ligeramente atraído por las mujeres”.

Claro que ese mal versolari, tundepalabras, más blando que un sofá, que los progres ágrafos han canonizado, llamado Mario Benedetti, defendía la esplendida libertad de Cuba -que para algo lo subvencionaban-, negando que fuera el caso de Reynaldo Arenas y tantos otros disidentes. Benedetti justificó así su presidio: "Él, y otros como él están presos en Cuba; pero no por ser disidentes políticos, sino por ser homosexuales".

Ahora, cuando vamos a las manifestaciones del Orgullo Gay por civismo, y solidaridad, las amenazas, el aislamiento y la exclusión grupal, el hostigamiento, las coacciones, las burlas, el desprecio y el maltrato sádico a los que se desvían de la norma y de la mediocridad general, siguen existiendo, aunque ya no se denomine tortura, sino "bulling". Y se siguen administrando cócteles de antipsicóticos, neurolépticos y tranquilizantes en las clínicas afines al Opus Dei a los homosexuales y a los rebeldes, pero también , en las consultas de Psiquiatría de la Seguridad Social , a los descontentos y a los inadaptados, y surten el mismo efecto que una lobotomía; son una camisa de fuerza química que neutraliza la capacidad de reacción ante la frustración y el dolor, y convierte al paciente en un despojo psíquico incapaz de sentir placer o interés y de actuar en consecuencia, con pérdida de memoria anterograda, vértigos, calambres, sequedad en las mucosas, temblores, visión borrosa, y absoluta dependencia de estos fármacos, cuya privación puede acarrear un paroxismo destructivo y suicida. Y con esos mimbres, a ver quien es el guapo que se pone gallito y reivindica sus derechos y sus prerrogativas como individuo.

Pero al César lo que es del César, no hay que confundirse y dejarse llevar por la suspicacia: cuando la reina Sofía de Grecia, se indigna de que haya quienes se manifiesten dando el espectáculo, adornados con abalorios, puntillas, brocados, satenes, sedas, alpacas y brillos, más tapizados que una silla Luis XV, con tocados imposibles, abigarrados, y de un mal gusto atroz, que, incomprensiblemente, se muestran orgullosos en vez de caérseles la cara de vergüenza, seguramente estaba pensando en los que muestro a continuación, fuera de portada, para no herir la sensibilidad de los lectores.

(1) Moniz, el inventor de la lobotomía, recibió el premio Nobel en 1949. Sin embargo, toda su fundamentación se había basado en un único caso clínico ni siquiera humano, como afirma John P. J. Cosmofonio, no es extraño que te enteres ahora de la postura de Benedetti en el caso de Reynaldo Arenas; tampoco se habla de su apoyo incondicional al presidente de Nicaragua, Daniel Ortega Saavedra, cuando fue denunciado por su hijastra, Zoilamérica Narvaez por haberla violado desde los once años.

Se puede ser un canalla y un buen escritor; pero en este caso, sólo unos lectores amantes del aspartamo emocional han podido aupar a autores tan infumables como Benedetti,Paulo Coelho o Jorge Bucay, que son pura filfa.

Ya digo en el artículo que no todo es cosa del pasado. Sólo habría que investigar en la planta de Psiquiatría de la Clínica de Navarra adonde van de cabeza los díscolos del Opus Dei; y comprobar el disparatado porcentaje de población española condenada a la camisa de fuerza química de los neorolépticos y tranquilizantes en pro de la edénica paz social que disfrutamos y los fabulosos resultados de la industria farmacéutica.

La parafernalia de los de abajo debe ser su cara de mala leche, porque mira que son sobrios los tiparracos, en la foto digo.
Lo de Benedetti me ha dejado que si me pinchan no me sacan sangre, aunque para muestra ya tenemos al Márquez.

No lo vas a creer, pero Cuba está llena de turistas europeos disfrazados de Márquez que se las dan de literatos, con niña mulata sentada en sus rodillas incluida; que, por cierto, no sabes hasta que punto les toman el pelo. Pero lo peor no es la imagen ni la impostura, sino que van de comunistas con el carné del partido de su país en la boca.

Un abrazo.

Sí, Pau, es el turismo sexual de los camaradas del partido, los periodistas, y sindicalistas afines que antes iban a las residencias de verano en Rumanía, véase, por ejemplo, lo que cuenta Hipólito Escolar sobre Rafael Alberti:

"Algunas embajadas mostraron su agradecimiento, como la de Bulgaria, que me concedió una medalla de oro, sólo en teoría, de latón en realidad, o la francesa, que me otorgó las Palmas Académicas. Recibí una invitación de la Academia de Ciencias de la URSS, pero no me atreví a aceptarla por si no podía mantener mi régimen alimenticio. También otra del culto embajador de Rumanía. En una cena en la embajada, insistió en la invitación y como yo me resistía alegando que las tardes y las noches en los países socialistas, según me habían contado, eran muy aburridas, Rafael Alberti, que asistía a la cena, comentó:
-Esto te lo soluciona el embajador invitándote a una residencia en el Mar Negro y poniendo a tu disposición una hermosa y cariñosa camarada. Yo he disfrutado de ambas por invitación del Partido."

Sobre las hermosas y cariñosas camaradas que designaban y usaban la Securitate rumana del sádico hijo de Ceaucescu, Nicu, que les arrancaba las uñas, entre otras cosas, si no eran lo suficientemente cariñosas y dóciles.

Ya sabes, luego, con decir el consabido y socorrido "Nosotros no lo sabíamos..."

Es decir, que sí que me creo que Cuba esté llena de babosos atiborrados de Viagra; como me creo que Santo Domingo esté lleno de manadas de viejas grotescas pagándose un jovencito hambriento para creer que son deseables

HERRERILLO COMÚN: PARUS CAERULEUS

En mi lejana adolescencia tuve la suerte de no "socializar" bien, y pude librarme de los rituales de cortejo de mi generación, toscos y maquiavélicos, donde las posibles piezas de caza amatoria solían estar en un estado lastimoso de confusión balbuceante, después de infinitos paseos calle arriba y calle abajo, ellos con ellos, y ellas con ellas, en grupos homogéneos de cuna, clase, y educación. Al cabo, algún suceso extraordinario propiciaba el contacto visual, y ellas frenéticas de dicha, susurraban:

—"¡Me ha mirado!".

Hubiera hecho falta un arduo proceso de domesticación, que yo no tenía, para encontrar interesante aquella peripecia sin argumento, y creo que aguanté una semana.

A partir de entonces me dediqué a desarrollar mi proverbial espíritu cotilla yéndome de acampada, armada de bloc, lápices de colores y unos prismáticos prestados, y me quedaba guarecida en algún refugio natural, quieta durante horas, mientras observaba a los lagartos que salían de entre las grietas de las rocas, a los conejos que boxeaban al amanecer sobre los majanos o el nido de arrendajos, con su ir y venir a su supermercado particular para dar de comer a aquellos guájaros insaciables.

Uno de los pájaros más comunes en España y más encantadores de observar es el Herrerillo Común (Parus caeruleus), que mide unos 11 centímetros. Es cauteloso y huidizo; pero suele perder rapidamente su desconfianza con los ejemplares humanos que no hacen gestos bruscos, tienen un tono de voz pausado y no tratan de acercársele. En ese caso pueden entrar por la ventana por si hubiera en la casa algún apetitoso insecto remoloneando.

En los primeros días de buen tiempo, el macho se lanza en un vuelo nupcial desde la copa de los árboles con sus azuladas alas extendidas, para exhibir el plumaje de su pecho amarillo azufre y su capirote azul, que adquiere en esta época un color más vivo.

El Herrerillo Común prefiere los árboles de hoja caduca y suele evitar los bosques umbríos de coníferas. Desde febrero anida en huecos o en nidales muy estrechos, que elige así para defenderse mejor. Se le puede ver a menudo colgando boca abajo en los extremos de las ramitas, como en este delicioso dibujo que reproduzco aquí, cortesía de Pájaros de España.

Silenciosos en verano, sólo se les oye a primeras horas de la mañana, los herrerillos comunes recobran su vitalidad en setiembre. En esta época van en grandes bandadas, y migran según los años y los sectores geográficos. Disminuyen en invierno, tiempo de hambre para el herrerillo común, que es sobre todo insectívoro, y ha de buscar entonces, larvas y ninfas ocultas bajo las cortezas y las hojas caídas.

Cría en terrenos arbolados, generalmente en bosques caducifolios o mixtos, y en parques y jardines. En invierno visita a menudo los comederos que los amigos de las aves aprovisionan.

Para formar el caracter no hay nada como aprender a observar, a tomar nota de los hechos sin tratar de modificarlos para que coincidan con lo que creemos, y saber esperar. Aplicado al campo de la política me permite observar el comportamiento de cualquier partido político con espíritu de entomóloga, y no trato de ocultar los comportamientos que me repugna admitir, como por ejemplo, las decisiones genocidas contra miles de personas que huyen de la muerte y del hambre de África, mediante un pacto con el autarca marroquí, formado en EEUU en las tácticas de exterminio que la CIA domina; y no tengo la tentación de abandonar los prismáticos cuando observo que a la intifada saharaui, que ha propiciado el partido actual en el gobierno, les han respondido provocando avalanchas suicidas contras las alambradas para negociar el alpiste.

Las leyes que rigen el comportamiento de la bandada mantendrá a sus votantes mirando delicadamente hacia otro lado, entretenidos en picotear hasta la muerte a los especímenes heridos, más débiles, o que no se ajustan a la norma.

Os recomiendo que visitéis los enlaces que pongo a continuación, que observéis lo que existe y es, os emborrachéis de color y de belleza, y dejéis las bebidas de alta graduación y los antidepresivos para quienes tengan vocación de zombi.

AL ESPÍA DEL CNI QUE HA ESCRITO UNA CARTA ABIERTA AL CESANTE ALBERTO SAIZ

Querido espía:
En el "Curso de instrucción básica de periodismo e investigación" que impartimos este servidor, redactor-jefe de "Alimaña News, la noticia antes de que ocurra", y l'agüela Gatopardo para los colaboradores de esta bitácora, en la lección 1ª, punto 1º, explicamos que si el maromo informante/investigado es guapetón, habla bien, tiene presencia, voz bien timbrada, y aspecto agradable (1), y dice cosas como "estoy aquí para servirles", o es un follapavas o es un follaviejas o es un estafador. O lo que es lo mismo, es de la escuela Pepe Bono y nuestra respuesta, sea cual sea nuestra edad, sexo, condición, especialidad y aficiones, ha de ser culo contra la pared, mano a la cartera, y confianza, la justa: sólo en Dios, y no siempre.
En el punto 2º explicamos que si el informante es político o castellano-manchego o árabe, ni caso ni modo, porque consideran una descortesía decir lo que piensan, mienten más que hablan, son más falsos que el alma de Judas, la dentadura de Rajoy, el raciocinio de Rodriguez Zapatero, los balances contables de El Corte Inglés, los Presupuestos Generales del Estado, la monogamia de Esperanza Aguirre, y la exquisita sensibilidad de la Conferencia Episcopal.
Por un módico estipendio estoy dispuesto a dar este curso completo a los miembros del CNI (Centro Nacional de Inteligencia), que los veo muy verdes y muy tiernos.
No acepto VISA, Master Card, American Express, cheques-regalos de El Corte Inglés, ni Turyocios.

De nada. Ya saben, a mí también me gusta ser útil.

JAVIER DEL GRANADO: ELOGIO DEL IDIOMA

Cuando el romance floreció en cantares rimando el verbo con el mar sonoro, nació un idioma de vocales de oro,

y el castellano conquistó los mares.

Le da el latín sus sílabas albares, la lengua griega su ático tesoro,
y el arabismo ruiseñor canoro, rumor de aljibe y trinos estelares.

Mas, fue Berceo que al Olimpo sube, quién dio a la fabla que los mundos mueve, voz de campana y retumbar de nube.

Y hace un milenio que el lenguaje hispano,
-crisol de fuego y madrigal de nieve-, acuña el sol del pensamiento humano.

LO ÉPICO

Lo épico no puede sustentarse con características femeninas. Las mujeres tenemos una especial mala baba para deducir de un síntoma leve una enfermedad de origen medular.

El héroe puede demostrarnos que lo es hasta la temeridad, pero un instinto malévolo e innato nos hace encontrar en aquel gesto mezquino de un día, lo realmente veraz, y todo lo demás se convierte a nuestros ojos en un montaje mixtificador, que no nos engaña.
Y lo peor es que solemos llevar razón.
La revolucionaria Emma Goldman puso en causa la revolución bolchevique porque tenía frío, hambre y no había recursos adecuados para paliar las necesidades del pueblo ruso. Y vaticinó que aquella revolución no merecía la pena que produciría.
A las mujeres hay que convencernos con hechos y no con argumentos, con resultados y no con proyectos. Y sólo nos dejamos embaucar por las hormonas.

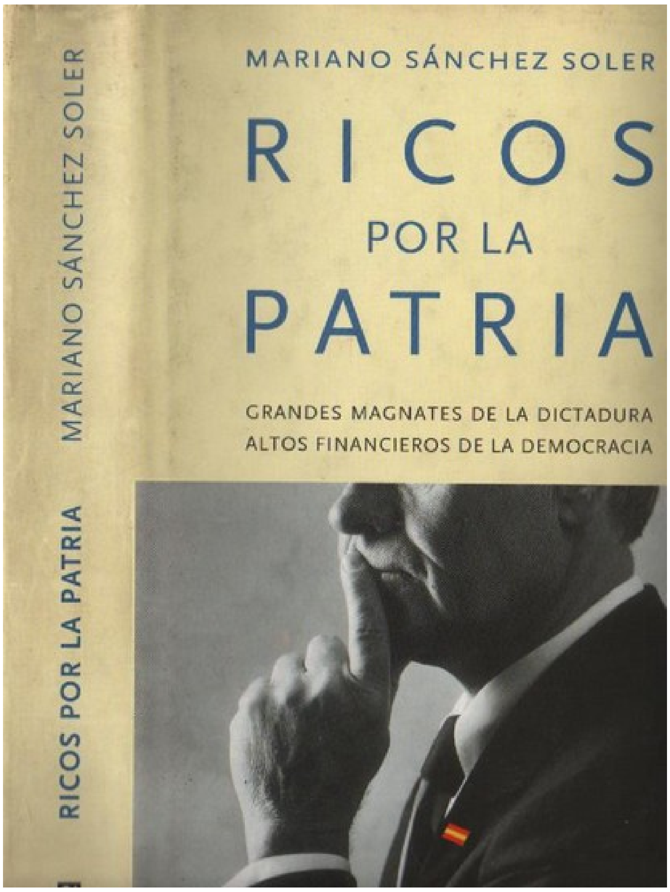
RICOS POR LA PATRIA



"Ricos por la patria" es el título de un libro del escritor y periodista Mariano Sánchez Soler, editado por Plaza & Janés en 2001. Lo consulto mucho recordando mis años de bancario por los 50-60-70. Pero al tropezarme en Internet con los sueldos de los políticos actuales, sumando los de tanto "ex", altos ejecutivos de bancos, caixas y cajas, y fortunas de esta curiosa Democracia, de cotos y listas cerradas, no puedo por menos que pensar que aquellos franquistas quizá fueran unos angelitos comparados con algunos de los actuales, y, sin duda, sus maestros inspiradores.
Los neofranquistas, tipo Narcís Serra y Serra, con tanto poder y cargos como Demetrio Carceller, José y Domingo Solís, José Antonio Girón de Velasco, o el cuñadísimo Ramón Serrano Suñer, cuyos discursos socialistoides también me recuerdan a los de los actuales socialistas. Y afirmo, por propia y triste experiencia, con tan pocos escrúpulos como los demostrados por los expoliadores y algo más falangistas.
Añado en imágenes en lagrancorrupcion.blogspot.com la tan difundida lista 1, la portada y contraportada de "RICOS POR LA PATRIA", y una de las últimas páginas de "Barcelona, 30 años de corrupción" , donde se lee el multimillonario retiro de Maragall y Pujol con sus "secretarias de toda la vida", cobrando ellas más que algunos de los alcaldes mejor pagados del País…

La historia de España, desde la guerra civil hasta la instauración democrática, es también la historia de un enriquecimiento excepcional. Las grandes fortunas, los poderosos personajes que unieron su capital y su destino a la suerte del franquismo, han sabido adaptarse y desempeñar un papel decisivo en el sistema democrático, mientras una nueva generación formada por los Aznar, Rato, Trillo Figueroa, Arias-Salgado, Fernández-Miranda... tomaba el relevo gubernamental en las puertas del tercer milenio.

Ricos por la patria relata la historia de España a través de los grandes nombres de las finanzas españolas. Desde el entorno familiar del general Franco y la llamada «Corte de El Pardo», desfilan los March, Cortina, Fierro, Koplowitz, Aguirre, Fenosa, Melià, Banús... Apellidos que siguen contando entre los más influyentes del capitalismo español. Desde el aparato político del régimen emergen otros millonarios salidos de la Falange, el tradicionalismo y la tecnocracia: los Oriol, Serrano Suñer, Alcocer, López de Letona, Gamero, Carceller, Barrera, Martín Villa, Girón...

En este libro, Mariano Sánchez Soler desvela cómo forjaron sus fortunas a partir de aquellos primeros negocios posibilitados por el franquismo, al tiempo que explica el funcionamiento político de la banca y la modernización capitalista de la aristocracia tradicional. Con su particular manera de entender la política, el general Franco siempre tuvo muy claro que el bolsillo y la patria debían ir indefectiblemente unidos, que sus seguidores no conspirarían contra él mientras sus negocios marcharan viento en popa. Ricos por la patria investiga la vida y milagros de todos ellos y explica el modo en que la transición política española aplicó el viejo axioma de Lampedusa: «Si queremos que todo siga igual, es preciso que todo cambie.»

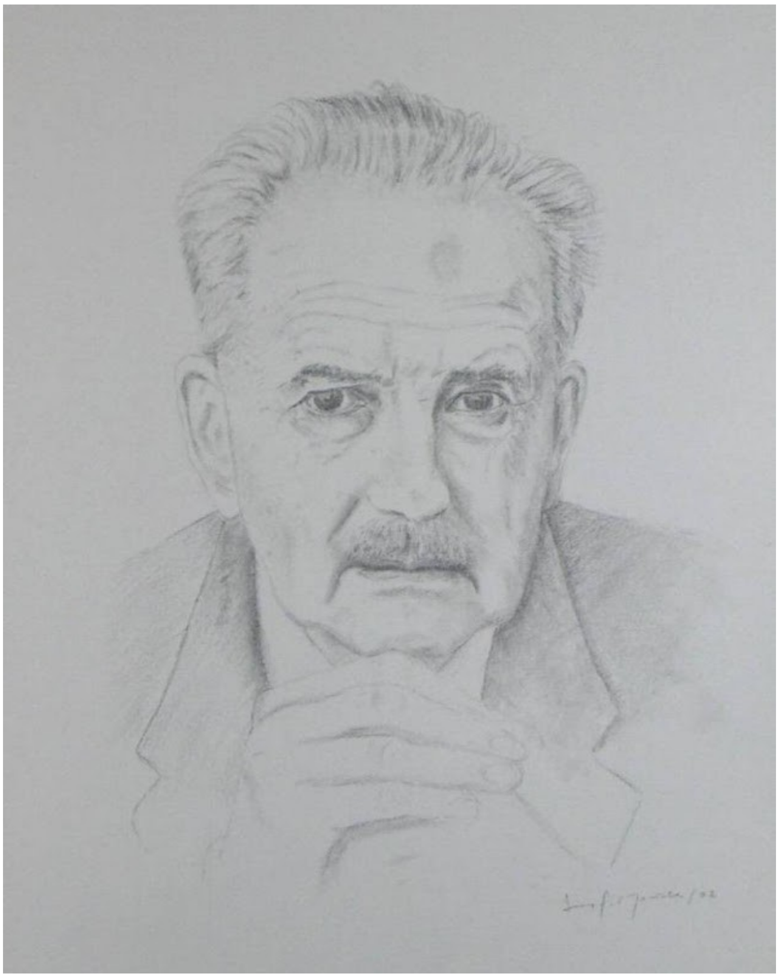
JULIO CARO BAROJA: RECUERDOS. BAROJA Y SU MUNDO



Julio Caro Baroja. Dibujo de Luis Merida

PRELIMINAR

Gusto de guardar silencio cuando me encuentro entre gente que habla mucho. Y a veces, el pensar que lo que se me ocurre al asistir callado a una discusión es tan estimable como lo que dicen los que participan en ella, me produce una secreta alegría. Por otra parte, he buscado refugio en la taciturnidad desde el momento en que el objeto de la perorata o de la controversia pública era una persona allegada. Así, al morir mi tío, mientras se hablaba de él como tema obligado en cenáculos, redacciones de; periódico o cátedras de literatura, mientras se escribían artículos de circunstancias y se pronunciaban algunas conferencias, yo preferí callar.

Me acordé en aquella como en otras ocasiones parecidas de los versos finales de La mort du loup, de Alfred de Vigny;

Gémir, pleurer, prier, est également lâche.
Fais énergiquement ta longue et laurde tâche
Dans la volé où le sort a voulu t'appeler,
Puis, après, comme moi, souffre et meurs sans parler.

Sin embargo, permanecer siempre en silencio puede considerarse como cobardía o indiferencia. Y ahora, dando vuelta a mis recuerdos de más de cuarenta años, he pensado que, ya que no he hablado, puedo escribir. Escribir algo sobre el muerto que no esté influido por lo que acerca de él han dicho gentes con reputación literaria pero que, claro es, le conocieron menos que yo, ni tampoco por lo que sus panegiristas o detractores han dicho de él, casi siempre abusando de la nota tremendista.

He nacido el 13 de noviembre de 1914. Desde mi infancia hasta el 30 de octubre de 1956, puede decirse que he sido la persona que ha tenido trato más continuo e íntimo con Pío Baroja. De niño, mientras mis padres quedaban en Madrid, yo solía pasar grandes temporadas en Vera con él y con mi abuela. Muerta ésta en 1935, el tío vino a vivir con nosotros. Y tras sombríos años de separación y zozobra, después de la guerra, a partir de 1940, hemos vivido más unidos que nunca. A última hora las tornas se volvieron. Los cuidados que me prodigó siendo niño, un niño débil y precoz como el pequeño Dombey, se los he tenido que prodigar, durante una vejez larga y en gran parte parecida a la infancia; una vejez dickensiana.

Porque mi tío en sus últimos años había perdido casi en absoluto la conciencia y había que cuidarle, ya que no tratarle, como a un niño. Al final de sus ochenta y tantos años de vida, todo se le había borrado casi, salvo algunas impresiones infantiles, o de adolescente. Ni la literatura, ni las ideas políticas, ni la religión, ni el arte o la ciencia le interesaban gran cosa. No podían interesarle. Pero, de repente, de noche, se despertaba sobresaltado, angustiado y venía a decirme la causa de su congoja: tenía que ir a examinarse al instituto o a la universidad, y no sabía nada. Para tranquilizarle, lo mejor era no discutir la realidad de estos exámenes terribles, obsesionantes. Era menester decirle que alguien había avisado que quedaban aplazados, que estábamos en vacaciones o que ya se habían celebrado. Y entonces, se ponía contento y, entre risas, volvía a la cama. En otras ocasiones, a la hora de comer o de cenar, me preguntaba: «¿Dónde está Ricardo?», o «¿Por qué no ha venido Darío?», o «¿Qué hace mi hermana?» La respuesta era para mí más angustiosa. Y más angustioso aún el ver que, en alguna ocasión, se daba cuenta de que estaba preguntando por personas muertas. Un hiato enorme existía entre lo que pensaba y lo que decía. A veces, cuando yo cantaba alguna vieja canción, a la par que arreglaba unos papeles o dibujaba un plano, él le decía a Clementina, su fiel vigilante: «Oiga usted cómo canta mi hermano.» Así se le pasaban las horas, dormitando, tranquilo, con una sonrisa plácida o acongojado, según las fases de su dolencia inexorable. Un día después de haber permanecido absorto mucho tiempo, sentado en su sillón, preguntó a un amigo: «¿Y yo cuándo me he muerto?» Otra vez la pregunta fue esta: «¿Y a mí cuándo me van a enterrar?»

Acaso, de tarde en tarde, entre nieblas, una llamarada del antiguo genio surgía en su cabeza y se daba cuenta de eso: de que era un muerto en vida, o una especie de niño desvalido, sin esperanza.

PRIMERAS IMPRESIONES: VERA

Las primeras imágenes que conservo de mi tío, si cierro los ojos, me lo representan como a un hombre de estatura mediana, más bien alta para España (medía aproximadamente 1,70 metros), pero que parecía hasta bajo porque era corpulento, andaba algo arqueado siempre y tenía la cabeza fuerte, voluminosa. El cráneo descubierto resultaba muy grande por causa de la calvicie. El color era bueno, los labios muy rojos se veían entre un bigote lacio y una barba cortada en punta, que de color cobrizo pasaron a ser amarillentos y luego blancos. Los ojos parecían entre castaños y verdosos según la luz. La expresión plácida, un poco triste a veces, sardónica también otras, fue haciéndose más risueña con la vejez, a medida que el cuerpo se iba achicando, encorvando.

Con las manos atrás, mirando al suelo, daba grandes paseos por la carretera de

Francia, frente a Itzea, una y otra vez. Cantidad de veces le acompañaba yo y las conversaciones entre el hombre, solterón, talludo, y el niño de tres o cuatro años, han quedado reflejadas en alguna de sus obras. Por ejemplo, en el capítulo quince del libro cuarto de Las horas solitarias, al hablar de unos húngaros que pasaron por Vera, allá por el verano de 1918. Más tarde las explicaciones entre tío y sobrino fueron haciéndose largas, complicadas. Uno preguntaba, el otro respondía. Nunca oráculo fue más atendido, a pesar de que era el oráculo menos grave y sibilino que pueda darse.

El que lea la mayor parte de los escritos que tratan de mi tío sacará la impresión de que era un hombre triste y áspero. Sin embargo, la realidad es que durante muchas horas de su vida fue jovial, jovial como no creo que lo haya sido ningún escritor español de su época. Si alguien ha reído en casa a borbotones, de una manera dionisíaca, ha sido él. Los demás hemos tenido la risa más difícil, o con un matiz más frío.

El tío, a veces, se sumergía en un mundo imposible de imaginar para la mayoría de los críticos y literatos. Por ejemplo, yo tenía en Vera muchos amigos de mi edad, hijos de vecinos, gente humilde en su mayoría. Y era raro ver, no cómo observaba a aquella fauna infantil, cosa natural en un novelista, sino cómo participaba de sus proyectos y tenía conversaciones largas con ella. Le divertía particularmente la tendencia a la farsa de un amigo mío pelirrojo que se llamaba Josecho, y tan pronto le hablaba con gravedad como adoptaba con él un tono también de «mixtificador». Así se creó una mezcla de popularidad y respeto en torno al tío, que explica el que en cierta ocasión otro niño, hermano de Josecho, le dijera candidamente: «Don Pío, átame la alpargata.»

Josecho comenzaba a contar una historia fabulosa en que él era protagonista. El tío le escuchaba, callado, con atención. Pero de repente fingía enfadarse y le decía: «Josecho, esas son mentiras, malditas mentiras. Eres un bolero.» El otro se defendía medio en broma, medio en serio y el diálogo terminaba, al fin, con una risa abierta.

Recuerdo perfectamente los comienzos de mi «instrucción». Había que aprender a leer. Y no tenía ninguna gana, claro es; la opinión se dividió entre mi tío y mi abuela. Mi abuela creía (con arreglo a lo que se debía creer en el país vasco a mediados del siglo XIX) que no había otro modo de aprender que con un texto clásico: las fábulas de Samaniego. Pero mi tío pensaba que aquellas fábulas eran demasiado conceptuosas y decía que él sólo las había entendido después de los veinticinco años. Cuando me tocaba la lección con mi abuela no había más remedio que pasar por lo de la mona y las nueces, etc. Pero con mi tío la cosa variaba. El texto que usaba no era tampoco muy moderno que digamos: se trataba del Álbum del Momo, donde había muchas poesías burlescas de Martínez Villergas, Rodríguez Rubí, etc. Tal vez de entonces me ha quedado un gusto, más o menos larvado, por la poesía satírica y por la burla, gusto que, en tercer término, procuró diluir mi madre haciéndome leer los cuentos clásicos de la literatura infantil. Pero esto cuando el esfuerzo ya había sido hecho. Pasó aquel período primero y mi tío empezó a darme a leer novelas e historias, sobre todo novelas inglesas para chicos: Stevenson, Rider Haggard, Marryat, Scott. Luego yo me lancé solo a explorar la biblioteca de Vera, aunque no paraba en mis interrogaciones. A veces incluso cuando estaba trabajando, le iba a preguntar una cosa. Entraba en la biblioteca despacio, él me miraba por encima de las gafas, dejaba el papel, la tinta y hablaba, hablaba copiosamente o me leía en voz alta algún trozo de literatura un poco tremebunda, como la escena del cañón, en El 93, de Víctor Hugo. Creía, sin duda, que para mantener el gusto de la lectura había que alimentar la imaginación del niño con descripciones aparatosas. Otras veces me daba unos libros llenos de estampas, de grabados románticos y seguía su trabajo, mientras yo miraba en silencio. Tenía gran aprecio por algunos ilustradores de novelas francesas del siglo XIX y decía que a veces sugerían más que el novelista mismo. Así le ocurría, por ejemplo, con Férat, oscuro ilustrador de La isla misteriosa y de otras obras de Julio Verne que también leí, aunque él decía que este autor era demasiado triste para niños.

Pero no sólo compartíamos las lecturas y los juegos. Yo le acompañaba a veces en rebuscas más importantes para él.

Los tipos, los «caracteres» que había en Vera cuando yo era chico le producían mucha curiosidad: con frecuencia los sacó, más o menos cambiados, en sus libros. Podría ahora fácilmente decir en cuál de ellos aparece Domingo Berasátegui, el albañil gordo, medio macabro, medio jovial, vecino nuestro; donde Martín José, el carpintero aficionado a las farsas cínicas; «Tipito» el confitero; Ignacio el cantero; Berécoche el acordeonista; «Fillipo» el buscador de tesoros; Echegaray el proyectista; «Porthu», «Shaguit» o «Satorra» entre los hombres. Entre las mujeres la Fanny y su rival Pepita Recalde, la Dolores, la Florentina... y muchas más.

Las conversaciones de mi tío con estas y otras personas eran animadas, rápidas. Luego, en casa, volvía a hablar de ellas. Y al cabo de unos meses surgían, con un ropaje más o menos distinto en novelas, cuentos o artículos.

El pesimismo intelectual de la vejez le hizo pensar que también los «tipos», las personas raras, iban desapareciendo del mundo, que todo era más vulgar, más chato y sin carácter que «antes». Desde luego yo recuerdo como una edad mágica aquella en que mi tío buscaba a sus personajes: donde nosotros no veíamos más que un hombre o una mujer bastante vulgar él nos hacía percibir mil matices de carácter y persistía en su tarea de observar. ¡Cuánto tiempo permaneció preocupado —por ejemplo— con un pequeño Rasputín vasco-francés que se llamaba Sugarret! ¡Qué de cabalas no hizo en torno a una ola de anónimos que padeció el pueblo! Las conversaciones transcurridas durante las horas del atardecer con mi madre y otros contertulios le dieron también material para algunos diálogos de sus novelas. Creo que en unos fragmentos de memorias que dejó mi madre, fragmentos que están inéditos, se halla muy bien reflejado el giro de aquellas conversaciones. Mi abuela escuchaba silenciosa, sin comentar nada favorable o desfavorablemente. Sin duda ella, como las señoras de su edad que la visitaban, creían que mi madre, mis tíos y sus amigos eran un poco raros, a causa de la época absurda en que habían nacido. Les reconocían conocimientos profundos, no sólo literarios o artísticos, sino otros difíciles de imaginar. Pero siempre quedaba un poco de desconfianza.

Había en Vera una señora vieja, aún más vieja que mi abuela, que se llamaba doña Micaela Elizondo, viuda de un coronel, primo de don Juan Valera. Y esta señora, que en sus últimos años vivió algo trastornada, tenía una admiración profunda por la sabiduría médica de mi tío. La razón estaba en que éste un día le había dicho que después de comer debía tomar un poco de café puro y una copita de anís y la medicina le pareció tan agradable y útil que no hacía sino alabarla a todas horas. En cambio, claro es, sentía gran prevención por el resto de las ideas de mi tío. Y, así, una tarde otoñal en que había hecho una gran hoguera en la huerta de casa con las hojas caídas y las plantas secas arrancadas, doña Micaela, que paseaba por la carretera con un aire de hada venerable, dijo sarcástica y sentenciosa: «¡Ahí está Baroja, siempre con su espíritu de destrucción!» En nuestra casa de Vera se percibían raros contrastes. En primer lugar, encerrado en la biblioteca vivía mi tío Pío, leyendo y escribiendo con una libertad absoluta. También pasaba temporadas mi tío Ricardo, lanzado a la pintura y a los proyectos más o menos fantásticos: tan pronto dibujando un modelo de barco corno ideando un aparato volador. Mi madre con la mujer de mi tío Ricardo y sus amigas, María Martos, Pilar Zubiaurre, María Gáldez, se dedicaban a los análisis psicológicos de que gustaban las mujeres jóvenes de su época..., y en el comedor, los días señalados, se reunía mi abuela con doña Micaela, doña Javiera y las señoritas de Larrache como representantes de un pasado austero, lleno de formalismo familiar, de rigideces sociales vascas y burguesas, sometidas a la costumbre ancestral con la que no había que bromear. Todas las tardes a las siete, mi abuela, vestida de negro, con un delantal que nunca abandonó, se levantaba e iba a la cocina, y, allí, con las tres muchachas que por lo general tenía, rezaba el rosario. Acaso, mientras tanto, mi tío discutía con un amigo nietzscheano venido de Suiza, como Paul Schmitz, con un joven catalán que soñaba con la Anarquía, o con un escritor madrileño, procesado por haber escrito un libro sobre la guerra de Marruecos, que se le presentaban en Vera como raras aves de paso. En casa de mis abuelos maternos había mucha libertad en punto a ideas, muy poca en materia de costumbres; por eso he de insistir una y otra vez en que un elemento, que podría definirse como puritano, es parte integrante de la personalidad de mi tío; este elemento heredado de su madre estaba acaso menos señalado en sus hermanos.

La abuela, el nieto y el tío constituíamos un triángulo algo independiente dentro de la vida familiar. Aunque yo no he sido de estos seres modernos que han tenido conflictos oscuros, iniciales, con sus padres, ansiaba el ir a Vera y sentirme atendido, ya que no mimado, de una manera imperiosa, absorbente por mi abuela; de modo más enigmático y fascinador por mi tío. Para ellos, muertos en edad temprana un niño y una niña hermanos míos, y antes que naciera mi hermano menor, Pío, en 1928, yo era una especie de problema continuo.

Me desarrollaba enfermizo, débil, y los desvelos médicos de mi tío se repartían por igual entre su madre y yo. A veces ejercía una verdadera dictadura médica sobre la vieja y el niño. Tenía gran fe en la terapéutica de su época, la que había aprendido bajo la férula de don Benito Hernando, una de sus bestias negras universitarias. Manejaba el láudano, la digitalina, el bismuto con una soltura, con una prudencia de médico de cabecera clásico. Con los anteojos calados echaba gravemente en la copita de agua las gotas del medicamento. Mi abuela, en aquella ocasión, debía pensar qué locura tan grande había cometido su hijo al dejar su «hermosa carrera» y escoger esta otra, rara y escandalosa, de escritor, de novelista. Mi tío era hipersensible a las enfermedades y se afectaba más que nadie acaso con las familiares. La muerte de mi hermano Ricardo le produjo una depresión que está reflejada en un capítulo de La leyenda de Juan de Álzate de modo hermosísimo. Este es, por cierto, el primer libro suyo acerca de cuya gestación tengo algunas ideas en la memoria. Su manuscrito se conservaba en Vera, dedicado a mí, y fue el que marcó mi vocación por la Etnografía vasca.

MADRID

En Madrid, sea porque yo tenía que ir a la escuela o al instituto, sea porque la índole de sus salidas de casa era más particular, tenía mucha menos relación, sabía menos de lo que hacía el tío, que en Vera. Pero algo sabía al fin. Nuestra casa estaba en la calle de Mendizábal, 34, 36 más tarde. Hoy día resulta difícil reconocer nada de lo que queda allí. La guerra destrozó la casa y otras vecinas, de suerte que aquella calle que era clara, porque se componía de muchos hotelitos y construcciones bajas, hoy parece oscura y antipática, con sus altas casas de cemento.

¡Cómo ha cambiado el barrio de Argüelles de cuando yo era chico a hoy! En nuestra calle había hoteles de burgueses como nosotros y de aristócratas. Pared por medio con el nuestro estaba el de la duquesa de Frías, enfrente (aún queda) el del conde de Torrepalma; más abajo, cerca de la calle de Ventura Rodríguez, el de la marquesa de Villavieja. A la puerta de las mansiones más o menos señoriales de la calle de Mendizábal se veían porteros patilludos, que recordaban en su aspecto a don Tomás Luceño el sainetero, mayordomos asturianos y gallegos metidos en su frac, fastuosos y sonrientes; por las noches, desde el comedor de casa o de los dormitorios del piso de arriba, se oían los coches de caballos, que volvían de los teatros y de las reuniones a las cocheras del barrio. Al lado de estas imágenes e impresiones de la vida cortesana, recuerdo otras populares, aún decimonónicas también, como la llegada de los carros de bueyes, cargados de jara, a la puerta de la panadería de enfrente, o a los dependientes de las tiendas de ultramarinos tostando café, en la pálidas mañanas de invierno. Veo al zapatero remendón de al lado de casa, a Manini, en su taller adornado de fotos taurinas, con la perdiz enjaulada tomando el sol, mientras el loro del conde de Torrepalma repetía una y otra vez: «¡Ana, dame café!» Una ciega cantaba todos los jueves bajo nuestros balcones con mucho gusto y expresión, acompañándose de la guitarra. Mi tío Ricardo, admirador del tango del Espartero y de otros cantos parecidos, la solía escuchar atentamente y hablaba con ella. Aquella mezcla de cochambre y distinción era deliciosa. Y dentro de mi casa puede decirse que subsistía. Porque, de un lado, la casa era un hotelito construido en la segunda mitad del siglo XIX por un título, para vivir en él, con la holgura con que la gente acomodada vivía en el Madrid de entonces. Pero, por otra parte, aquel hotelito, con sus salones decorados, con sus techos un poco aparatosos, con sus lobos de escayola en el zaguán, con otros detalles más o menos propios de la época en que se hizo, medio elegantes, medio cursis, estaba habitado por una especie de clan compuesto de un escritor, un pintor y un impresor a cual más despreocupados en sus hábitos, y, además, en la parte interior estaba la imprenta y la editorial: la

¡Cuántas noches me habré dormido mecido por el ruido de las máquinas! El olor a tinta de imprimir, a papel, a engrudo, ha dominado toda mi niñez. En el piso alto de la casa, sobre la calle, vivían durante el invierno mi tío Pío y mi abuela, con una persona que era como de la familia, la Julia, confidente de toda mi niñez. En el piso principal teníamos nuestro asentamiento mis padres y yo. En el bajo mi tío Ricardo y mi tía Carmen. El punto de cita familiar era el piso principal. Rara vez mi abuela bajaba al piso de abajo, rara vez subían los del piso de abajo al suyo. ¿Por qué? Porque la que hacía de aglutinante en aquella familia, rara y compleja, era mi madre y, secundariamente, yo.

El niño era «el niño» para todos. Carmencita seguía siendo la hija menor. Mientras en casa de mi tío Ricardo había tertulias abigarradas y se celebraban reuniones abundantes y hasta representaciones teatrales, en la de mi tío Pío apenas se recibía a nadie, salvo a periodistas, literatos jóvenes o aficionados a la literatura que iban, uno a uno, y a horas fijas: casi siempre al final de la mañana.

Yo he conocido en casa de mi tío Ricardo a una serie de personajes famosos que, a veces, eran incompatibles con mi tío Pío: por ejemplo, a Valle-Inclán, un Valle-Inclán atildado y bien vestido que tenía que ver poco con el de las caricaturas y anécdotas. He visto a Azaña, triste, pensativo, con aire doliente. He oído cantar, con mucho gusto y estilo, canciones de fines del siglo pasado a don Juan Echevarría, y hacer pinitos escénicos a Edgar Neville y a Claudio de la Torre... Pero, por otra parte, recuerdo de modo más fuerte si cabe a los extraños tipos que desfilaban por la imprenta de mi padre y que parecían sacados de las novelas de mi tío Pío. En primer término a don Ciro Bayo, con el que solía ir a la «parada» de Palacio o a alguna ceremonia pública, cuyo desarrollo solía explicar con aire doctoral a algún paleto sencillo o algún humilde jubilado, bien dispuesto a escucharle. Cuando las tropas de los cuarteles del barrio de Argüelles salían aguerridas a la calle, era una delicia acompañarlas, también con don Ciro, llevando el paso, al son de los Voluntarios o de otro pasodoble jacarandoso. Tras don Ciro veo al señor Navarrete, el comisionista de vinos riojanos, con manía persecutoria, a Rafael Urbano el teósofo, a Daguerre el traductor mal humorado, a Álvaro Retana que escribía novelas muy subidas de tono y a otras personas que producían bastante interés a mi tío. Pues aquella editorial de mi padre, un tanto absurda, en la que se publicaban desde novelas verdes hasta libros de Filosofía, atraía lo mismo al joven principiante que al viejo catedrático: por allí desfilaron desde César González Ruano, con su jersey amarillo y su aire de joven atrevido y dispuesto a cualquier aventura, a don Adolfo González Posada, el sociólogo venerable.

Allí Caro Raggio, envuelto en un traje aún más desastrado que los de mis tíos, hablaba con unos y otros y pasaba de la alegría a la tristeza y de la tristeza a la alegría como se pasa de la lluvia al sol en un día del mes de marzo. ¡Qué historias le contaban los obreros! ¡Qué escenas y discusiones entre ellos y el patrón y entre el patrón y los literatos famélicos y proyectistas! ¡Qué angustias y zozobras también cuando llegaban algunos sábados y los pagos resultaban difíciles de realizar! Todo esto era materia literaria, materia que mi tío podía animar, pues él, ante todo, fue un testigo de su época. Un testigo que observaba continuamente y que a veces no hablaba de lo que había observado, hasta que aparecía escrito.

Jamás hombre de negocios u hombre de ciencia fue más fiel a su profesión que mi tío lo fue a la suya de observador. La realidad, alegre o triste, casi siempre más triste que alegre, quedaba prendida a su pluma una vez desprovista de superfluidades: de un drama, compartido por nuestra familia año tras año, surgió, por ejemplo, una de sus más hermosas obras, escrita en forma dialogada: el Allegro final. El viejo médico que allí aparece es nuestro médico de entonces don Enrique Dupuy Unzueta, un madrileño castizo a pesar de sus apellidos, que llevaba encima, con aparente estoicismo, el peso del suicidio de un hijo único, pero que en el fondo era un hombre destrozado. El tío hizo del don Enrique real un personaje literario, es decir, más «sintético». Era su procedimiento. Para escribir una de sus buenas páginas se pasaba, sin duda, horas y horas, pensando, después de haber mirado a la persona que le interesaba con aquella mirada suya, medio inquisitiva, medio cándida que sorprendía a tantos. De repente, le venía la idea de lo que había que hacer con la persona observada, el perfil que debía darle.

El escribir no era para él una especie de delirio ni tampoco un trabajo de fotógrafo o de notario. Era una labor paciente, de pintor antiguo, que requería una vida muy regular y ordenada.

A eso de las ocho y media o nueve de la mañana desayunaba y se ponía a trabajar sobre algún original. Si no surgían visitantes estaba manos a la obra hasta el mediodía. Comía a la una con su madre y luego bajaba con ella un rato a nuestro piso, donde hablaba con mis padres o su hermano. A eso de las tres o tres y medía salía. Bajaba por la calle de Mendizábal hacia el centro, cruzaba la plaza de España. Se metía por Leganitos arriba o la Gran Vía, aún sin dibujar del todo, cogiendo Alcalá y el Prado y llegaba hasta la feria de libros del Botánico. Allí charlaba con los libreros de viejo y rara vez dejaba de comprar algo. Con los bolsillos del gabán deformados, llenos, o cargado con un paquete, emprendía la vuelta. A eso de las seis estaba otra vez en casa. Volvía a escribir o corregir pruebas hasta las ocho. A las nueve cenaba. De nueve a diez y media se desarrollaba otra tertulia familiar y luego, en la cama, solía leer varias horas, hasta la una o más tarde.

A veces le acompañé yo en sus paseos a la feria del Botánico. En la calle con frecuencia saludaba, con la mano derecha a la altura del ala del sombrero, a alguien. Pero rara vez se paraba y menos al sol, al que le temía como a enemigo personal.

Yo le preguntaba: «¿Quién es ese señor que te ha saludado?» Y él respondía: Ese era Lerroux, ese era Albornoz, ese era Répide o cualquier otra persona conocida entonces, olvidada hoy. A veces yo notaba también que unos jóvenes decían: «Ahí va Baroja.» Y esta popularidad callejera me producía gran satisfacción, aunque también me di cuenta de que para algunos madrileños no era un personaje simpático. ¿Por qué?, me preguntaba yo. En mi idolatría por los míos no me percataba de que había nacido en un nido de pájaros raros. Creía que los raros eran los demás. Ahora sí, viendo el mundo, ya talludo, comprendo aquella antipatía que podía inspirar y también la que a él le producían gran cantidad de españoles normales, de un bando u otro. Es la antipatía que produce el solitario, el independiente. La que éste siente también. Entre los años de 1920 y 1930 mi tío tuvo muy pocos amigos. A veces, en la calle, se paraba un rato con Azorín, su viejo y fiel camarada de juventud. Pero nunca se hacían visitas. Si no recuerdo mal sólo tres casas eran las frecuentadas por él: la de Ortega y Gasset, la de Juan Echevarría y la de la marquesa de Villavieja. Y al llegar la época de la República estas tres casas dejaron de serle familiares. La del pintor bilbaíno por la muerte de aquél, las otras por razones distintas.

Durante bastantes años de mi primera infancia los domingos fueron regulares en su desarrollo. A eso de las doce y media mi tío y yo cogíamos los bulevares arriba, llegábamos a Colón. De allí al cruce de Serrano y en esta calle a la casa número 53. En ella, en un piso grande, vivía la familia de Ortega, con la que almorzábamos. Existía entonces una gran amistad entre mi tío y Ortega. Yo era sobre todo amigo del hijo menor de éste, de José. Después de comer los hombres charlaban en un despacho. Los niños éramos señores de un dominio mucho más amplio, que constaba de un pasillo largo, una terraza y varios cuartos interiores. De aquella casa, repleta de libros y estantes, recuerdo aún un caimán disecado que presidía, próximo a la terraza, nuestros juegos y una gran fotografía del Caballero de la mano en el pecho de El Greco. Yo era muy pequeño entonces para saber qué se discutía en el despacho: eran proyectos de excursiones, proyectos de obras. A veces también me figuro que surgía la discrepancia entre la opinión basada en el saber académico de Ortega y la opinión personal de Baroja. Todo esto pasó. Cuando yo tenía doce o trece años apenas veía a los Ortega. Mi tío tampoco. La distancia se hizo mayor poco antes de la República, Y solo en estos años últimos reanudé yo las relaciones.

Mi tío no creyó, desde el principio, en el éxito del ensayo republicano. Esto por dos razones. Tenía muy poco aprecio personal por la generalidad de los jefes de los partidos en auge. Consideraba —por ejemplo— que Lerroux era un pobre hombre reblandecido, que Azaña era un remedo de hombre enérgico y que otros eran puros charlatanes. Sentía aversión por algunos jefes socialistas, a causa de su tendencia dogmática, aunque los partidos obreros en sí le producían curiosidad. No sobrestimaba las fuerzas de la izquierda y hubiera visto con gusto un ensayo de dictadura reformista, radical. Pero si el programa de los conservadores le repugnaba siempre, si su tendencia anticlerical era profunda, no por eso dejaba de comprender que éstos tenían mucha fuerza y también ciertos derechos. Así pasó los años que van de 1931 a 1936 sin creer en los unos ni en los otros y augurando casi la guerra civil. Soñaba a veces con un hombre que lo resolviera todo. Otras veces creía que no había remedio. Contra lo que hubiera podido creerse en un intelectual que no gustaba de las recetas democráticas, —el advenimiento de Hitler no le produjo más que preocupación. Por Mussolini sentía una antipatía casi física y las experiencias rusas le parecían propias de un pueblo casi incomprensible para un europeo.

¿Adonde mirar? Mi tío era un liberal a la antigua y los que le gustaban eran los políticos a lo Clemenceau, o a lo Churchill, no los dogmatizantes o los especialistas. No creía que en España las instituciones tuvieran fuerza en sí. Y desde los sesenta y tantos a los ochenta y tantos años vivió como un barco que hace agua, azotado por las olas de un lado y otro, sin que la gente de izquierda le considerara como a uno de los suyos y tampoco, claro es, la de la derecha. El cumplir con su sino fue causa de que perdiera también otra amistad querida, una amistad de la que conservó recuerdo hasta sus días finales. Allá por el año 27 mi tío tenía una tertulia en la vecindad: la de la marquesa de Villavieja. La marquesa era una mujer muy hermosa, que además de serlo tenía la inteligencia despejada y mucha comprensión. Con frecuencia llegaba a casa un sobre azulado con letra grande, picuda, aristocrática. Mi tío sabía que contenía una indicación de la Villavieja para que fuera a pasar la tarde con ella y sus deudos. Rara vez faltaba a aquella tertulia: a veces también continuaba en el verano, pues a Vera llegaban cartas de Zarauz, del palacio de Narros, o de Biarritz. Yo, claro es, no conservé más que el recuerdo de los comentarios de mi tío, siempre admirativos para su amiga. Con la caída de la Monarquía, las relaciones hubieron de enfriarse, suspenderse luego. Pero en sus últimos años mi tío, de vez en cuando, sacaba un paquete de cartas, cartas que no contenían más que indicaciones breves y las leía una y otra vez. Entre las cartas había el retrato de una señora atractiva, distinguidísima, que el viejo miraba con atención, sin decir nada. A los pocos días volvía a aparecer el paquete y a desaparecer luego. Fácil era adivinar la cantidad de recuerdos que traían aquellas cartas y aquel retrato. Pero ninguna palabra los traslucía. Porque mi tío era hombre poco dado a confidencias. ¿Por qué? Éste es un rasgo del carácter suyo que creo vale la pena de que se analice.

FAMILIA

Mi tío Pío nació dentro de una familia en que se amalgamaban de modo extraño la bohemia y el puritanismo. La tendencia a la primera estaba encarnada en su padre, en Serafín Baroja. El segundo en su madre, Carmen Nessi. Si digo que él, desde el punto de vista del carácter se parecía más a mi abuela que a mi abuelo materno, no hago más que repetir la opinión generalizada en casa. Sin embargo, mi abuela era una mujer sin inquietudes intelectuales y de un rigor moral que hoy parecería absurdo. Tenía también cierta tendencia al pesimismo y, dentro de éste, al conformismo. A pesar de ello vivió en muy buena armonía con su marido, que era el hombre más alegre de San Sebastián, pueblo abundante en gente divertida, al menos antes. Mi abuelo pasó por la vida como un pájaro, riendo, cantando y haciendo cosas raras, acompañado de su mujer austera, que le sobrevivió más de veinte años: de 1912 a 1935. Tuvieron cinco hijos de los que alcanzaron edad larga dos varones y no tan larga, pero sí madura, una mujer, mi madre, mucho menor que ellos y muerta también antes que ellos. En 1950. Cada uno nació en un punto distinto de España, a donde la profesión de ingeniero llevó a Serafín Baroja.

Los tres hermanos eran también muy distintos en muchas cosas, aunque parecidos en otras. Mi tío Ricardo, el mayor, heredó más que ninguno la alegría exterior, la despreocupación de mi abuelo. Era de una versatilidad extraordinaria, de un ingenio raro y muy sociable, aunque esto no quiere decir que siempre fuera de trato fácil. Si una persona le resultaba antipática, o si una cosa le parecía mala, era capaz de decirlo a voces, haciendo alarde de una mezcla de befa italiana y de humor vasco. En su época en Madrid unos le tenían gran simpatía, a otros les producía una aversión profunda y a veces hasta irracional. Y él en vez de evitarla la fomentaba con sus juicios terribles y caricaturescos de puro agrios. Mi madre, la menor de los hermanos, era la más equilibrada, y muy independiente en sus juicios. Con frecuencia los tenía opuestos en todo a los de su madre o mis tíos y les discutía de pe a pa una opinión. A veces en la discusión se acaloraban. Pero ella no daba su brazo a torcer y casi siempre adoptaba la postura de mayor transigencia, la menos «barojiana». Defendía, por ejemplo, a Galdós o a Valle-Inclán de las críticas de mi tío Pío, o si éste se burlaba un poco del Mediterráneo hacía la apología de Valencia y Andalucía.

De joven hubiese querido estudiar una carrera. Pero esto no parecía posible en casa. Ella tenía una gran simpatía por el grupo de mujeres que trabajaban en la Institución Libre de Enseñanza y esto también era motivo de discusiones. Mi tío Pío estaba en buena relación con Cossío y otras personas representativas de aquel Port Royal madrileño, mas no así mi tío Ricardo, y cuando surgía el tema de la Institución ya se sabía que la polémica se entablaba entre él y mi madre. Era raro ver, en última instancia, cómo, refunfuñando o no, los dos hermanos reconocían el valor de los argumentos de la hermana y cómo ésta a veces les regañaba o les decía cosas que a nadie hubieran tolerado.

El que más se debatía y se irritaba era mi tío Pío, porque en ocasiones parecía tener una sensibilidad de niño pequeño de los que consideran que sus padres y parientes no les hacen los cariños suficientes. Siempre, fue, en efecto, un poco celoso del cariño de su madre y de su hermana; no creo que tanto del mío. Acaso los psicólogos modernos, puestos a ello, pretendieran aclarar algunos de los rasgos de su carácter a la luz de la idea del «complejo de hermano menor», y tal vez, este complejo, podría explicar las relaciones de él con Ricardo, acerca de las que quiero decir ahora unas palabras.

Hay, sin duda, una correspondencia grande entre el arte pictórico y gráfico de mi tío

Ricardo y el literario de mi tío Pío. Y lo más sorprendente es que cuando Ricardo escribía lo hacía de modo que no resultaba tan acorde con su pintura. Cuando hablaba tampoco, pues era un hombre animado, jovial, con explosiones de entusiasmo y de indignación, que se había pasado la vida pensando en el Renacimiento italiano, en invenciones raras y en proyectos fantásticos.

En la vejez las relaciones de los dos hermanos se habían enfriado, sobre todo del lado de Pío.

Yo sospecho que éste de chico había tenido una gran admiración por su hermano, bien plantado, lleno de fantasía, buen dibujante y hasta un poco matemático. Allá en Pamplona debió comenzar la época de los grandes inventos, la época en que Ricardo dibujaba submarinos, máquinas voladoras, uniformes de explorador, barcos veloces, mapas de islas remotas. Todo esto produjo, sin duda, en el ánimo de Pío una gran revulsión. Después los años hicieron de uno un hombre tenaz, callado, empeñado en realizar una obra y del otro una mezcla de artista, de bohemio y de dandy.

El encanto se rompió de un lado. Mi tío Pío reprochaba a su hermano su versatilidad, el haber derrochado unas facultades extraordinarias. Le indignaron también sus opiniones políticas germanizantes de última hora. Pero a la postre, cuando perdió la conciencia del tiempo, una de las personas de quien más hablaba era de Ricardo. El Ricardo, sin duda, de los años de bachiller, capaz de proyectar un viaje mayor que los del capitán Nemo, el que pensaba, tal vez, que era o había sido la debilidad de su madre y de su hermana. Pero éstas son suposiciones mías, originadas por la propia observación, pues, como he dicho, mi tío Pío era refractario a confidencias y ni siquiera a mí me las hizo. La confidencia le parecía algo que podía considerarse como un tanto impúdico, y un rasgo que le caracterizó siempre, aun en los últimos días, en que parecía no tener conciencia de nada, fue el del pudor, un pudor extraordinario. Pocas veces se hablaba en su tertulia de temas escabrosos, sexuales, aunque de viejo le gustaba hablar del amor como de algo fundamental en su vida. Este pudor fue también probablemente el que le hizo demostrar varias veces, de un modo violento, su aversión a las teorías psicoanalíticas de Freud y el que hacía que en casa se considerara como de mal gusto el tratar de «cosas personales». En torno a los asuntos sentimentales de un miembro de la familia, en torno incluso a las cuestiones de dinero, se guardaba una especie de hermetismo absoluto, y cuando las más graves preocupaciones de esta índole embargaban a todos, se procuraban encubrir mediante una conversación trivial sobre el tiempo, la cantidad de sal que tenía un guiso o la posibilidad de que se enfriara la sopa. Nunca una familia ha hablado menos de asuntos familiares y más de asuntos de los que se llamaban «generales». Es decir, de artes, ciencias, filosofía o política, de todo lo divino y lo humano, con tal de que no tocara de cerca a los asuntos pertenecientes a ella. En esta coyuntura las discusiones eran interminables y sobre materias poco sospechadas.

Ciertos críticos han dicho y repetido que una de las características de la llamada «generación del 98» es la de que para ella no existe la música. No voy a discutir este asunto. Lo único que he de decir aquí es que en la vida familiar de mi tío la música desempeñó un papel grande, si no primordial. Mi abuelo sabía tocar regularmente el violoncelo y era amigo de casi todos los músicos de su época, sobre todo de los vascongados. De chico había estudiado en San Sebastián con Santesteban el viejo. Para el hijo de éste escribió nada menos que el libreto de toda una ópera, en vascuence, en la que —en honor a la verdad— la música es mejor que la letra. A las melodías de un colega suyo en ingeniería, Zuaznábar, les puso letra también en la misma lengua y frecuentó el trato de Gayarre, de Sarasate, de Zabalza y de otros virtuosos de fines de siglo. Mi abuelo era clasicista e italianizante. Gustaba poco de Wagner y de los «modernos». En esta postura era aún más exagerado Zuaznábar. Contaba mi madre que cuando era casi una niña este músico-ingeniero solía llevarla con su hija a los conciertos del Casino de San Sebastián. Si en la primera parte se tocaba algo de Bach, Zuaznábar con voz cavernosa les decía: «¡Esto hay que oírlo de rodillas, como la misa!» Pero si en la segunda parte había algún trozo wagneriano salía de la sala de conciertos de una manera espectacular con las dos niñas y produciendo murmullos y molestias.

En casa, el gusto musical de mi abuelo lo heredó mi tío Pío. Ricardo fue mucho más wagneriano. Mi madre, como siempre, se mantuvo en postura menos rígida. A veces, antes de que yo naciera, en la calle de la Misericordia o en los primeros años de la de Mendizábal, Serafín Baroja, su hija y algún violinista joven, daban pequeños conciertos. A ellos asistían los amigos. A veces también iba a tocar el piano el viejo maestro de la Capilla Real don Valentín Zubiaurre. Y por las noches, en el café de los escritores y artistas del grupo, las discusiones quedaban suspendidas cuando Corvino y Anguita la emprendían con la Sonata a Kreutzer o un aria de Bach. En el Real, mi abuelo, conocía a mucha gente, entre ellos a Basurco, el flautista. Y al volver de la ópera las discusiones eran acaloradas: hacían sentir su antiwagnerismo mi abuelo y mi tío Pío; mi madre y Ricardo defendían a Wagner de sarcasmos e irreverencias. Mi abuelo decía que la música de Wagner era «música de sacacorchos» y Pío la atacaba por considerarla de un simbolismo pesado y demasiado pedagógica y programática. Con los años las discusiones no cejaron.

Pero algunas tardes mi madre sacaba las viejas partituras, los cuadernos de sonatas y con poca ejecución, pero mucho gusto, iba tocando al piano trozos de Mozart, de Haydn y Beethoven, o repasaba las viejas óperas de Bellini y, los románticos más antiguos. El tío Pío escuchaba y a veces recordaba las escenas, incluso la letra de una vieja romanza, pues tenía memoria de cantidad de letras, incluso de zarzuelas, operetas y hasta cancioncillas callejeras. Su gusto era limitado, exclusivo. Llegaba de Bach al romanticismo, pero de Wagner en adelante la música era letra muerta para él. Ni rusos, ni franceses se salvaban. Y con igual tranquilidad decía que Sírawinsky era detestable como que Puccini era un músico para peluqueros. Otra de sus fobias era Chopin.

En cambio, tenía una gran admiración por algunos músicos populares españoles. Le gustaban el brío de Iradier y la gracia madrileña de Chueca.

Otras diferencias, otras predilecciones matizaban el gusto de los hermanos. Mi tío Ricardo y mi madre eran más inclinados a las artes plásticas que mi tío Pío, aunque éste se quejaba frecuentemente de que no le hubieran enseñado a dibujar. De jóvenes incluso tuvieron unas pequeñas veleidades «modernistas» y «simbolistas»: simpatizaban con Valle-Inclán y con otros escritores y pintores de tendencias parecidas, cosa que nunca le ocurrió a mi tío Pío. Sentían también menos interés por la vida popular y por la tierra vasca, aunque lo mejor de la obra de mi tío Ricardo sean paisajes y aguafuertes de temas populares.

En Pío la tradición vasca ejercía un poderoso influjo.

Mi abuelo había escrito cantidad de cosas en vascuence. Mi abuela lo hablaba muy bien, con acento de San Sebastián. De los hermanos la que lo sabía mejor era mi madre. Mi tío Pío iba en segundo lugar y en tercero el tío Ricardo. Mi madre, aún mayor, podía hablar con un poco de esfuerzo. El tío Pío, que lo había hablado de joven, sobre todo en Cestona, ya no hablaba. Pero entendía bien las conversaciones y recordaba cientos de canciones y poesías, y todo lo vasco le atraía. Nunca le interesó, sin embargo, la estructura de la lengua, pues la gramática era para él letra muerta en cualquier idioma. Pero reunió muchos libros y folletos sobre asuntos vascos y tenía ideas muy originales sobre la historia del país, ideas que le servían para fundamentar su antilatinismo y otras posturas que mucha gente consideraba como extravagantes. Porque aunque en España se haya considerado a mi tío como a un gran novelista, un gran creador de tipos y paisajes, siempre se le puso en cuarentena como hombre de pensamiento y aun de sentimiento. Tan simples eran a veces las reacciones de aquella alma exquisita, que un pedantillo cualquiera se creía con medios intelectuales suficientes para acusarla de sencillez, argumentando con pedregosas razones castellanas.

CULTURA

Se ha repetido muchas veces, en son de reserva, que mi tío tenía una cultura atropellada, cosa con la que, la verdad, no sé qué quiere decirse.

En primer lugar nadie en el mundo ha considerado que a los novelistas haya que medírseles o juzgárselos por lo que saben o dejan de saber. No ha sido pauta crítica el justipreciar la cultura de Dickens o Balzac para decir si su obra es buena o mala. Tampoco se puede imaginar a un gran creador de éstos con las preocupaciones de un profesor de universidad. Pero suponiendo que a un novelista hubiera que pedírsele saberes concretos, creo que mi tío sabía más, en conjunto, que la generalidad de los profesores y críticos españoles.

Desde luego no sabía gramática ni le importaba esta disciplina. No había estudiado los sistemas que cualquier bachiller tiene que estudiar ahora para encuadrar sus conocimientos o si los había estudiado no los recordaba. El aspecto formal de la cultura no le interesaba nada. Pero cuando llegaba la ocasión se veía que de una cosa concreta sabía mucho más de lo que pudiera imaginarse. Y que, sobre todo, sabía cosas vitalmente relacionadas con España y con la vida cotidiana de los hombres. Aquí puede hallarse el primer motivo de discrepancia entre él y Unamuno.

«Usted, Baroja, que es un admirador de la ciencia, no sabe fórmulas como el binomio de Newton, y yo, que no lo soy, sí las recuerdo y sé.» A esto parece que mi tío no respondió más que marchándose.

La anécdota puede ser falsa. Pero es representativa. Mi tío sabía distinguir perfectamente lo que es la ciencia en un programa universitario y lo que es como asunto personal, como experiencia vital. Por eso, sabiendo de memoria o no fórmulas como el binomio de Newton, creía que la cultura universitaria era una cosa pobre, protocolar y ridícula, y, sin embargo, era un admirador de la ciencia. Acaso más en su plenitud que en ninguna otra época de la vida, cuando encerrado en Itzea, leía sin cesar.

Esta admiración no era puramente pasiva y se hallaba dominada por una desconfianza extraordinaria hacia ciertos grandes sistemas. Así de las teorías «científicas» más en boga en su época no recogió gran cosa. Las cuestiones sociales le interesaban, pero el marxismo puro le producía poca confianza. Sentía una aversión marcada por el psicoanálisis. Los problemas de la Física moderna no pudo dominarlos, aunque intentó repetidas veces el enterarse de ellos, sin fruto alguno según reconocía. En cambio, leyó mucho y con detenimiento acerca de cuestiones raciales, sobre Biología y lo que, en suma, le permitía su formación de médico, nada matemática ni humanística. Porque, claro es, si su vida se centró en la literatura, no comenzó a interesarse en ella siguiendo cursos o leyendo manuales.

Sin duda, mi tío de chico y de adolescente fue un gran lector de folletines, de aquellos folletines, franceses en su mayor parte, que publicaban los periódicos de la segunda mitad del siglo XIX. Algún profesor de literatura, sabiondo, doctoral y con pretensiones de ironista, ha dicho que mi tío buscó su estilo leyendo tal clase de obras, como si esto fuera una falta, como si los novelistas tuvieran que empezar haciendo un examen académico de los que hemos padecido los que tenemos la desdichada carrera de Filosofía y Letras. Un hombre que quiera comprender la gran novela del siglo XIX, sea la rusa, la francesa o la inglesa, y que ignore el significada del folletín como base de su creación, es como un historiador de la literatura griega que no sepa griego, o un poeta que no tenga más formación que la que le da el Diccionario de la rima. El folletín es el medio de expresión para Ponson du Terrail, pero también para Balzac. En una época de producción en masa, las gentes devoraban a la par las obras de E. Sue y de Víctor Hugo, las de Montepin y A. Dumas. De una especie de magma vital salían las grandes novelas y los grandes engendros: Rocambole y los héroes balzaquianos, los tres mosqueteros con su aire de muñecos y el cura de Tours.

El folletín daba imagen de un mundo misterioso, romántico, popular: lo mismo lo leía el portero en su sotabanco que el presidente del Consejo de Ministros en sus ratos de ocio. El secreto era no negarlo, sino superarlo, y en vez de crear un personaje sin alma que le dominara, crear personajes que parecieran verdaderos, aunque no lo fuesen. Folletinistas fueron Dickens y Balzac, incluso en la forma material de producir sus novelas. Lector de folletines fue Galdós; en su juventud difícil escribieron trozos de folletín a destajo Blasco Ibáñez y Valle-Inclán. Ninguno de ellos, que yo sepa, hizo estudios universitarios sobre los prelopistas o cosas parecidas, que a los que los hemos practicado no nos parecen tan respetables como se les quiere pintar. Pero claro es, el mundo cambia a la vuelta de unos años.

El muchacho que había leído, allá entre el año 80 y el 90 del siglo pasado, cientos y cientos de novelones, descubrió otras cosas, comenzó a inquietarse por mil y un asuntos. El folletín quedó como un légamo, un abono fecundo y nada más.

Cuando mi tío, viejo ya, recordaba los entusiasmos de su adolescencia y quería revivirlos, se llevaba una desilusión. A menudo yo le había oído hablar del entusiasmo que le había producido de chico una novela de Dumas, poco conocida por cierto, que se llama Creación y redención. Muchas veces intenté encontrarla en las librería de viejo. Por fin, un día, hace de esto cosa de diez años, la encontré en la calle Ancha y la llevé triunfante a casa. El tío metió el libro en su cuarto, a la hora de acostarse, con gran curiosidad e ilusión. A la mañana siguiente me dijo que no había podido leer más que unas cuantas páginas: tan absurdo le parecía. Esta y otras experiencias semejantes le produjeron gran tristeza. También le corroboraron la caducidad de las ilusiones, caducidad sobre la que siempre estaba especulando o que le impidió releer obras de mayor talla e incluso de mayor significación en su vida.

Dejando a un lado este asunto de los folletines, con relación al gusto literario referido a obras más importantes, experimentó cambios, pues de viejo valoró de modo distinto a los autores que en su juventud habían constituido su Panteón literario. Así, por ejemplo, terminó teniendo una indiferencia casi absoluta por la obra de Nietzsche, a la que consideraba como demasiado retórica y con un regusto filológico excesivo. Sin duda, también, le repugnaba la idea de coincidir con algunos prohombres del fascismo, por ejemplo Mussolini, por el que tenía una terrible aversión intelectual.

Más curioso a mi juicio es que Stendhal tampoco le entusiasmara como antes. Leía las Memorias de un turista, Luciano Leuwen y algún otro libró de vez en cuando. Pero no quiso volver a leer La cartuja de Parma. Tampoco releyó a Tolstoi ni a Balzac. En cambio, siguió fiel a su admiración por Dickens y a su entusiasmo por Dostoyewski. Siempre que hablaba de los tipos de Dickens, cuyo padrón recordaba al dedillo, sonreía. Y el sentido de lo demoníaco, de lo inquietante, que domina en las novelas de Dostoyewski le producía un gran asombro técnico, como novelista.

Allá entre los años de 1920 y 1930 se familiarizó mucho, a través de traducciones francesas sobre todo, con Thomas Hardy, por el que sentía una admiración fuerte. Leyó también a Meredith con cuidado, a Conrad y a otros novelistas ingleses. Huxley y Lawrence puede decirse que fueron los que llamaron su atención entre los más jóvenes. De los posteriores no tuvo gran idea. También entre 1920 y 1930 leyó mucha literatura francesa moderna. Pero dudo de que ejerciera en él la influencia y, sobre todo, la atracción que le habían producido los viejos autores de narraciones cortas, como el mismo Stendhal, Merimée y otros en su primera época, es decir, la más vigorosa y representativa.

El gran éxito de Proust le dejó frío. En cambio, sentía curiosidad por Gide, aunque no simpatía. Admiraba mucho a Colette y a J. Green. Tambien admiraba a Jules Renard entre los hombres de su época o algo más viejos y conocía al dedillo casi todo lo que se había escrito de notable en Francia a fines del siglo xix y comienzos de éste, no sólo de novela, sino también de poesía: la biblioteca de Vera es testimonio.

Allí están reflejadas sus admiraciones. También sus incompatibilidades laboriosas, pues, por ejemplo, la animadversión hacia Anatole France no es de primer impulso. Está fundada en la lectura de la mayor parte de su obra.

Aquella biblioteca produciría no poca zozobra a un crítico o historiador con ideas comúnmente recibidas. Baroja era poco amigo de Francia —se dice—; sin embargo, la masa mayor de una biblioteca de miles de volúmenes está en francés. Baroja era un hombre poco erudito. Sin embargo, los libros que tenía eran de erudito en gran parte. ¡Qué tiene que ver el autor de La busca o Mala hierba con los siglos XVII y XVIII! Pues a pesar de eso, allí, en Itzea, están leídas por él cantidad de memorias y documentos de aquella época, con el retrato de Bayle en lugar preferente y los de los enciclopedistas puestos aquí y allá.

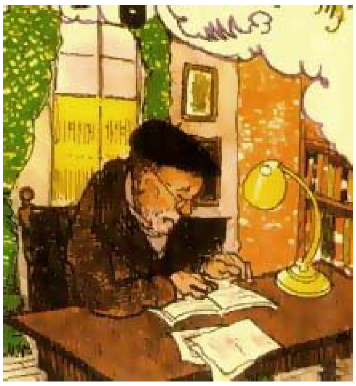
Yo pienso que mi tío había venido muy tarde al mundo. No era, como han dicho algunos, un epígono del siglo XIX, una especie de «posromántico», sino que, por la mayoría de sus gustos y sus ideas era más bien un «prerromántico», un hombre que hubiera vivido a gusto desde la época napoleónica hasta 1840, asistiendo a los estrenos de las grandes óperas, hablando de Filosofía con un sentido aún dieciochesco y buscando pintar con sobriedad, pero con color, las pasiones humanas. Sólo el medio en que vivó le dio otra cosa. Pero en cuanto pudo se sumergió en aquella época. Son testimonio las Memorias de un hombre de acción empezadas en 1912 y concluidas en 1934. También rechazó del romanticismo pleno y del realismo un gesto muy particular. A diferencia de otras gentes de su época mi tío adoptó, casi siempre, el tono menor. Y por eso simpatizaba con los artistas que participaban de él. Se ha dicho, por ejemplo, que quien en pintura representa a la «generación del 98» es Zuloaga. Fue, en realidad, el que retrató a casi todos los hombres de ella. Pero mi tío detestaba la pintura de Zuloaga como algo aparatoso y sin sinceridad. Tampoco pudo nunca tener palabras de comprensión para el tremendismo de Solana, con el que se le relacionó a veces. En cambio, estimaba a Regoyos y a Echevarría, sobre todo cuando pintaba paisajes o flores. Paralelamente sintió aversión por las posturas elocuentes de Unamuno, Valle-Inclán o Maeztu, y gustaba de las observaciones finas de Azorín o de los versos de Machado. En otro campo sentía la misma aversión por los grandes oradores que por los jefes de la política que hacían ostentosa gala de su austeridad. Hombres como Salmerón y Costa, con todos sus méritos, eran como la antítesis de mi tío. Eran almas ibéricas doloridas y un tanto teatrales a la par; no en balde se les comparó con los santones islámicos (sin que esto sea, a mi juicio, un desdoro). Hablaban de España como de algo personal, dominable, como de algo que puede arreglarse con recetas y expedientes.

Por eso mi tío, escéptico y carente de facundia, se sentía incómodo inscrito en la generación del 98. Él con sus ideas de médico racionalista» un tanto stendhaliano, con sus gustos musicales y sus tendencias viejas, dieciochescas casi, con su afición al tono menor o, en todo caso, al exabrupto, aparece al público como una especie de ser fabuloso, amenazador, sarcástico, en un grupo de grandes hombres con grandes barbas y grandes gestos y pretende defenderse, separarse de tanta gravedad.

Pero esto es difícil. Porque cada uno somos, querámoslo o no, hijos de nuestra época.



IDEAS

Muchas veces he procurado buscar la razón de que la gente vea de modo tan claro que mi tío queda incluido en un grupo de escritores, poco más viejos o más jóvenes que él, cuando para él esto era casi algo incomprensible. Y no la puedo hallar más que en incompatibilidades de carácter que hacían que mi tío se sintiera por completo ajeno, no sólo a lo que se decía de su generación, sino también a mucho de lo que pasaba en la España de su época. En primer lugar adoptó, ante el poder público, una actitud estrictamente defensiva: lo mismo en la Monarquía, que en la República, que después.

En cambio, la generalidad de los hombres importantes en las letras españolas, contemporáneos suyos, procuraron entrar en la vida pública y sacar beneficios de ella. Mi tío no tuvo jamás la idea de que él, como escritor importante, podía sacar algo de España o, mejor dicho, del Estado español. Para él el Estado era un mal, el dinero era otro: males necesarios si se quiere, pero no por eso menores. No se movía con soltura en medios oficiales, ni entre personas de las que influían más en la vida del país. ¿Había algo de timidez en esto? Acaso sí. Pero yo más creo en que existía repugnancia terrible, física, hacia ciertas instituciones y personas. Por ejemplo, mi tío «sentía» biológicamente las diferencias raciales. El, calvo, zarco o rubio cobrizo, con un aire nórdico, pero de nórdico oriental (varias veces en París le tomaron por ruso), sentía una antipatía instintiva por la gente muy morena, de pelo rizado, de facciones muy dibujadas. Y sobre esta antipatía formaba toda clase de teorías. Ahora bien, lo importante es que, dominado por ella, tenía que sentirse, y de hecho se sentía, descuajado dentro de una sociedad como la madrileña. Era un tipo poco común entre meridionales. Mas ésta es también la causa de que muchos extranjeros, europeos del Norte, no hayan sentido atracción por él, porque cuando se viene al Sur se buscan cosas propias del Sur. Las ironías de mi tío, envueltas en su rojiza barba, no podían atraer tanto, de primera intención, como los lamentos ibéricos de Unamuno, los primores castellanos de Ortega, o las imágenes andaluzas de García Lorca. Así vivió y escribió más descentrado que nadie y buscó refugio en la soledad. Incluso las personas que venían a casa con idea de solidarizarse con él, quedaban desconcertadas. Porque esperaban encontrar a un hombre apocalíptico y se hallaban con un escéptico, con un carácter mucho más enigmático de lo que reflejaban a veces ciertos de sus libros, aunque otros lo reflejen bien. Les sorprendía la simplicidad del trato, la amabilidad y hasta la tendencia a dejar que el visitante hablara más que el visitado. También les llamaba la atención la indiferencia absoluta que sentía por algunos problemas.

Así, por ejemplo, la religión, no ésta o aquélla, sino cualquier forma de religión, era algo que constituía un capítulo en blanco dentro de su conciencia. Hay que advertir que en tal característica no se diferenciaba gran cosa de su padre, de su hermano y de otros miembros de su familia. La indiferencia familiar debe arrancar de antiguo. Mi abuelo, nacido en San Sebastián en 1840, era un liberal como lo eran los del Norte de España, en donde es tan grande la fuerza de los que no lo son; un liberal galdosiano, anticlerical y progresista. Mis tíos tuvieron tal vez más preocupaciones teóricas que él. Pero Ricardo terminó siendo una especie de admirador de Lucrecio y del paganismo clásico, mientras que Pío concluyó en un agnosticismo que tendía más a ser negativo que positivo, cuando se trataba de asuntos religiosos. Allá entre 1930 y 1935, sin embargo, leyó muchos libros acerca de los orígenes del cristianismo y después, durante la guerra y hasta hace cosa de diez años, leía con frecuencia los Evangelios en una traducción francesa de la Sociedad Bíblica, pues encontraba demasiado retóricas y enfáticas las versiones españolas. Discurría a veces sobre esta lectura. Pero siempre sacaba una sensación de perplejidad de ella.

Más tarde fue hablando menos y menos de temas relacionados con la religión. Tampoco hablaba de la muerte. La esperaba al parecer sin miedo y sin cuidado: como a algo que tiene que llegar y que a la postre no es en sí nada. Así cuando perdió la conciencia jamás le asaltaron terrores, ni misteriosas preocupaciones: sólo los episodios de su juventud eran los que le preocupaban y también aquéllos por los que necesitaba consuelo o ánimo.

¿Qué preocupaba entonces normalmente a mi tío, de modo cardinal? La masa de los hombres y las mujeres, de los ambientes y de las sensaciones. Aquello, en fin, que queda inadvertido para la generalidad, pero que siempre ha constituido la medula del arte novelesco.

Los proyectos de las personas humildes, los asuntos que podían interesar a una pareja de novios pobres, a una madre viuda, a un cesante, a un chico, eran aquellos que llamaban más la atención de mi tío. Él, que pasaba indiferente ante el rascacielos en construcción, que miraba las casas suntuosas con poca simpatía, veía con gusto una habitación modesta, adornada pobremente, pero con cierto gusto o esfuerzo, discutía un viaje en tercera con el que lo tenía que hacer, analizaba la viabilidad de cierto plan enderezado a obtener unos duros. Lo rico, lo fácil, lo aparatoso no le atraía. Pero un esfuerzo hecho en medio de la adversidad o de la pobreza era algo que le encantaba. Luego, su alma lírica, envolvía esto en poesía auténtica, contra lo que se ha dicho y repetido acerca de su arte «fotográfico».

Aborrecía las instituciones fundadas con intención de intervenir en la conciencia individual, o de someterla, fuera el que fuese su signo. Sentía también antipatía profunda por las personas bien situadas dentro de una sociedad organizada burocráticamente y su simpatía por el anarquismo se fundó en este rasgo de su temperamento. Soñaba con lo imposible: con una sociedad en que los méritos individuales fueran los únicos reconocidos. Y por eso siendo liberal y hasta anarquista de temperamento profesaba el culto a los grandes hombres.

Mas no era fácil cuestión la de saber cuáles eran sus grandes hombres. Porque en odios y predilecciones resultaba tajante. Metía en su santuario a Cervantes y a Calderón, pero no a Lope y a Quevedo. Veneraba a Kant, pero no a Hegel. Sentía gran simpatía por Dickens y se incomodaba (creo que justamente) con los ingleses que pretendían parangonarlo con Thackeray. Desde joven hablaba con entusiasmo de Claude Bernard y con desdén de Charcot. Y era difícil saber la razón de las antipatías y las predilecciones porque, en esto sí creo que era vasco típico, es decir, muy poco aficionado a razonamientos largos.

—Esto es así —venía a decir— y el que quiera saber por qué es así que haga el esfuerzo necesario para saberlo.

A veces también daba una razón que parecía secundaria para llevar a cabo la exclusión: la pedantería, la farsantería, la antipatía de ciertos grandes hombres bastaban para excluirlos del panteón individual.

Aquel individualismo absoluto tenía que hacerle estar en choque continuo. Y creo, en verdad, que sobre ningún autor español se han acumulado mayor cantidad de insultos y dicterios provenientes de los comunistas y de las hijas de María, de los socialistas y de los carlistas, de los republicanos y de los monárquicos, de los creyentes y de los librepensadores, pues con constancia negaba la validez, la bondad, a los esquemitas que les servían para vivir y para distinguir lo bueno de lo malo. Y además la negación a veces iba envuelta en forma de exabrupto.

Una de las cosas que más irritación producían a mi tío era el casticismo nacional. Pero no sólo el casticismo folklórico, literario o musical, sino también el casticismo político e ideológico. No era, ciertamente, un internacionalista. Mas la idea de que argumentando con razonamientos más o menos históricos se quisiera someter a todos los españoles a tal o cual programa, le sacaba de quicio. Y lo mismo le daba que defendiera esto un nacional que un extranjero. No comprendía que se dijera de una cosa, para alabarla, que era «muy española». Tampoco que era muy «inglesa» o «francesa». Consideraba que los rasgos específicamente nacionales casi siempre son malos, por lo mismo que en la nación más inteligente que puede haber en el mundo, la mayoría de los subditos son gentes mediocres guiadas por políticos mediocres. Así dijo cosas muy violentas contra Francia, desde este punto de vista. Pero también las dijo contra Inglaterra, contra Alemania, contra Italia y contra España. Batió el récord en éste como en otros campos, aunque cuanto más viejo se fue haciendo también fue perdiendo virulencia hasta que llegó a una edad en la que, a lo más, decía de una cosa, riéndose de modo infantil casi, que era «una farsa» o, más modestamente, una «melonada». ¡Cuántas opiniones de hombres respetabilísimos he oído calificar de «melonadas»! Lo malo es que con mucha frecuencia suscribo la opinión reflejada por esta palabra, aunque no me atreva a decirlo.

El adjetivo agrio, la risa estrepitosa le salían del cuerpo cuando discutía, cuando opinaba, cuando había escrito algo para el público. Pero toda delicadeza era poca en el trato cotidiano, en la vida privada. Ya he dicho que mi tío raramente hizo confidencias. Con la persona a la que respetaba más en los últimos años de su vida, es decir, con mi madre, no creo que tuviera secreto alguno. Pero tampoco le abría demasiado su corazón. A mí creo que aún menos. En parte porque me consideraba como a un hijo, con el que todo pudor es poco, en parte también porque creía que yo no era dado a análisis psicológicos y sentimentales.

En sus obras a veces el cinismo cubre una sensibilidad excesivamente vulnerable. En la vida familiar estos alardes de cinismo desaparecían por completo. Casi nunca ante la gente de casa dijo palabras malsonantes, ni permitía que se dijeran, sobre todo si había mujeres. Siempre gustó, por otra parte, del trato con ellas, a pesar de lo que se ha dicho de su misoginia. La literatura barojiana está llena de encantadoras y enigmáticas siluetas femeninas: yo creo que hasta muy idealizadas. Y he de observar una cosa. Aquel solterón calvo y encorvado, sin gran prestancia, producía gran interés a las mujeres en general. Más a cierto tipo de mujeres un poco románticas que a las de «complexión amorosa», como diría un escritor antiguo; es decir, a las más bien cerebrales que sensuales. Yo sé de más de una que iba a él como quien va a un confesor. Y no porque esperare que le «sacara» en sus novelas como protagonista, sino porque realmente le inspiraba confianza. Creo que mi tío, de haber vivido en otra época y con otras creencias, hubiera podido ser no un gran predicador o disputador teológico —como lo hubiera sido Unamuno, por ejemplo—, pero sí un gran pastor de almas, un confesor pacienzudo y lleno de persuasión. ¿Y qué es, en suma, el novelista sino un confesor de la gente de su época?

LA GUERRA

El año 1935 fue un año crítico en la vida de mi tío Pío. Su madre, que andaba ya bordeando los ochenta y seis años, murió en Vera, el día 8 de septiembre, después de un proceso largo de desintegración vital. Aunque todos esperábamos desde hacía tiempo el desenlace, aunque ya desde hacía años era una sombra triste de lo que había sido, el hueco que dejó fue mucho mayor de lo que podíamos imaginarnos: tanto absorbía el cuidarla, tan fuerte había sido siempre la noción de su presencia. Yo creo que entonces fue cuando mi tío, con cerca de sesenta y tres años ya, dio un gran bajón en todo, comenzó a sentir los síntomas de una vejez que aún había de prolongarse, y cada vez más desprovisto de incentivos. De su novela Las noches del Buen Retiro, fechada en Vera, en el otoño de 1933, a El cura de Monleón, que terminó en los primeros días del año 1936, hay un abismo. Para mi gusto, la obra citada en primer término es una de las mejores que escribió y puede competir con las de sus años de mayor brío. Parece como si hubiera realizado en ella una recopilación de sus ideas y sentimientos de la juventud; pero está cargada a la par de una fina nostalgia de hombre maduro. En la segunda comienzan a verse los titubeos y cansancios de la vejez. Es cierto que en las Memorias y en otros escritos posteriores hay páginas muy buenas. Pero yo tengo por cierto que mi tío empezó a declinar al morir su madre. Y la guerra hizo que el declive se acusara.

El mismo año 35 había ingresado en la Academia. Al final del discurso de ingreso hay un párrafo que resume todas sus inquietudes respecto al futuro: «Aunque racionalmente tenga uno la sensación un poco pesimista del porvenir próximo, siempre se espera algo...» Poco había que esperar de bueno, sin embargo, al menos en la vida familiar: la guerra, la destrucción total de la casa de la calle de Mendizábal, la separación de la familia y la ruina. Y todo esto lo pasó entre los sesenta y los setenta años.

No voy a contar aquí uno por uno los episodios de que constó la vida de mi tío entre 1936 y 1940. Sólo recordaré que poco después de que sobreviniera el conflicto nacional fue preso en la carretera de Irún-Pamplona por unos requetés que iban de Navarra a Guipúzcoa. Estos, aleccionados por un jefe, quisieron fusilarlo. Pero no llegaron a realizar su intento. Mi tío con otras dos personas que lo acompañaban, quedó preso provisionalmente, al atardecer de un pesado día de julio, en la cárcel de Santesteban, de donde le sacó el duque de la Torre. Pasó la noche en casa del médico de aquella villa

y antes del mediodía del día siguiente apareció en Vera en un estado terrible de irritación. Comió allí y luego, siguiendo el consejo que le había dado el mismo duque, emprendió la marcha a Francia. Salimos los dos carretera adelante, andando, cuando al llegar un poco más arriba del kilómetro dos, rumbo al collado de Ibardin, vimos que también camino de Francia iba un automóvil. Lo paramos y pedimos al que lo conducía que nos llevara hasta la frontera misma. Accedió. Era un francés que había tenido la ocurrencia de ver de cerca los sucesos de España y que había sido rechazado al llegar al primer puesto de control nacional. Allá por el kilómetro tercero un carabinero nos paró. El hombre estaba indeciso. Mi tío le explicó su caso, él dijo: «Váyanse, que yo no quiero hacer mal a nadie.»

Llegamos a Ibardin y allí nos bajamos del auto; el tío me dijo: «¿Qué piensas hacer?» Yo respondí que volver a Vera con mi madre. Y nos separamos llenos de tristeza y de inquietudes. Volvía yo carretera abajo, a Vera, cuando oí un ruido de autos a lo lejos y pensando que podía ser objeto de sospecha, al verme solo por la carretera y en aquellas circunstancias, me metí entre los helechales. Vi desde allí pasar a los primeros requetés que se encargaban de guardar la frontera.

Así comenzó la etapa de la guerra. Mas pronto tuvimos nuevos sobresaltos. Al llegar mi tío a San Juan de Luz contó lo que le había ocurrido y la prensa lo publicó poco después. Algunos de los comentarios a la noticia era de una delicadeza extraordinaria. Por ejemplo, un periódico madrileño, se lamentaba de que los requetés no hubieran llevado a efecto su primer propósito.

La publicidad del hecho enfureció a los carlistas, etc., por otra parte. Y yo hube de escribir al tío recomendándole que no hiciera demasiadas declaraciones, dado que de un lado nosotros estábamos en Vera, en zona nacional, y que mi padre estaba en zona republicana, en Madrid. Nuestra situación le asustó: le hirieron también los comentarios socialistas y la actitud de algunos revolucionarios conspicuos para con él. Y esto le llevó a hacer algunas declaraciones nuevas, hostiles a la República. Desde Vera veíamos todo bajo los tonos más sombríos. Lo que para los demás eran ilusiones, en nuestro caso particular se convertía en zozobras permanentes.

El primer momento se superó. Ahora había que pensar en sobrevivir. Comenzaba la época de los acomodos y de las «posturas». Una figura como la de mi tío, antipática para unos y otros, podía, cuando menos, servir para la propaganda. De su nombre se usó y se abusó, como del de otros viejos escritores, artistas y hombres de ciencia. Uno de los hechos que más le perjudicaron en esta hora triste fue, por ejemplo, la aparición en Valladolid, el año 1938, de un libro hecho con fragmentos de otros suyos que lleva el título de Comunistas, judíos, masones y demás ralea. Puedo decir ahora que la selección no la hizo él, que el título tampoco es suyo y que la correspondencia mía de entonces con mi tío y con el editor es suficiente para probar que fui yo el que serví de mediador en un asunto editorial que se presentó de una manera y que resultó de otra. ¡Pero qué importan a la opinión pública tales interioridades! Los grupos políticos querían señuelos, banderolas, propagandas, exageraciones: todo esto era noble, limpio, puro. El traidor, el corrompido, el miserable era el que no aceptaba la propaganda política como un don delicadísimo del pensamiento. Los españoles dejaron de existir y sólo tuvieron existencia España, la República, etc. Al socaire de semejantes conceptos se procedió con ligereza en muchas ocasiones, con maldad manifiesta en otras. A la postre, en un país, donde tanta gente se presta a tantas cosas, surgió una gran preocupación por la «postura», por la manera como se quedaba ante los demás. La guerra civil con su cortejo de miserias y desastres individuales y colectivos, personales y familiares, sirvió para que después de ella muchos se fijaran, ante todo, en la posición en que habían quedado los intelectuales y las personas conocidas ante un público anónimo, como si se tratara dé una función de teatro. Hubo fieros Catones de uno y otro lado que midieron con su rasero la conducta de los demás. Aplicaron fácilmente el criterio de que hay unos buenos que siempre tienen la razón y unos malos que siempre tienen la culpa. Esto les sirvió para culpar a los que, por una causa u otra, no eran demasiado categóricos en sus juicios y actuaciones. Mi tío, que salió de España malquisto, como es natural, de la gente de derecha, o llamada de orden, fue tan zaherido por ella como por los elementos republicanos: con regocijo se le acusó de cobardía, de envilecimiento, de traición, etc. Las circunstancias de la vida personal nada valían entonces. La cosa era hacer buena figura, «mantenerse en una postura airosa», «actuar con arreglo a las convicciones», etc. ¡Triste y desdichada época para el hombre que tenía poca fe! ¡Y qué de hipocresía al socaire de las convicciones e ideales! Todo un estilo de prosa garbancera y altisonante ha surgido en torno a nuestras luchas políticas. Y el hombre público no ha sido al final sino un monigote al servicio de las mismas. Mas ¿para qué hablar de esto con mayor extensión? Mi tío vivió malamente en París unos años, mientras que los hábiles y discretos vivían bien y, además, moralizaban. Volvió a Vera una corta temporada, aún no terminada la guerra, amenazado de una enfermedad que pareció en principio más seria de lo que resultó. Itzea, allá por el año 38, era una casa de espectros. Mi madre se mataba a trabajar incluso en el campo para defender la pequeñísima hacienda familiar: mejor dicho, lo que podían darle mi tío Pío y mi tía Carmen, la mujer de Ricardo. De Madrid todo eran malas noticias. El pueblo estaba hermético, el trabajo para un escritor resultaba difícil. Pensó que ya no le quedaba más que seguir trabajando al amparo de La Nación, de Buenos Aires, y albergar sus huesos cansados en algún hotelillo de suburbio parisiense. Pero la guerra mundial deshizo este proyecto. Y cuando los alemanes invadieron Francia, mi tío, que había escrito algunos artículos violentos contra el hitlerismo al comenzar el nuevo conflicto, se vio obligado, otra vez, a cruzar la frontera, pasó el verano de 1940 en Vera y de Vera vino a Madrid, a abrir un nuevo período de su vida. El último.

AÑOS FINALES

Mi hermano, que tiene más facundia que yo, ha escrito un libro que titula La soledad de Pío Baraja, en el que ha contado bien la vida familiar de 1940 a 1950 poco más o menos. Allí aparecen los amigos más fieles del tío en los años no muy alegres para él, en que, vuelto de Francia, se instaló con nosotros otra vez. Fueron años de pobreza —a veces hasta de miseria— familiar. No quiero hablar mucho de ellos. Me repugnan tanto pensando en mí como pensando en los demás. Porque cuando, a fuerza de luchar, pensamos que los habíamos superado, la muerte quebró todas nuestras ilusiones y esperanzas.

Mi padre, destrozado física y moralmente a consecuencia de la guerra, de la desaparición de todo cuanto tenía en Mendizábal, 36, había alquilada un piso en la calle de Casado del Alisal, frente a los Jerónimos, donde metió los restos de la ruina: mesas rotas, sillas cojas, bargueños faltos de cajones, sillones despanzurrados, cuadros rasgados. De allí nos trasladamos a un piso de al calle de Alarcón y algo después, dentro de la misma casa, pasamos del piso cuarto derecho al izquierdo. En él murió mi padre el año 43, alimentando aún una ilusión irrealizable de restaurar lo perdido. La vida no fue muy blanda con él en ninguna época.

Quedamos, pues, mi madre, mi hermano pequeño y yo con el tío como valedor: él sin dos pesetas y nosotros dependiendo de él. Yo había terminado la carrera de Filosofía y Letras poco antes, con cierto éxito. Pero una cosa son los diplomas y otra el trabajo, y cuando empecé a bucear en el mundo madrileño para ver si encontraba algo que hacer noté más resistencia de la que mis éxitos académicos me auguraban. El primer sueldo que he ganado en mi vida lo gané en el Instituto Británico de Madrid, ayudando en asuntos de tipo literario y lingüístico, tales como revisar traducciones, buscar libros, referencias, etc., al profesor Walter Starkie. Si siento, como siento, un afecto hondo y sincero a la familia Starkie y si considero a Inglaterra como a una segunda patria, poseo más que motivos suficientes para guardar tales sentimientos. Este empleíto en el Instituto me permitió ayudar a mi familia y continuar modestamente los estudios que constituían mi vocación y que luego me dieron nuevas oportunidades, poco aprovechadas siempre. El Instituto fue un refugio también para mi tío. Muchos domingos íbamos allí y junto a la gran chimenea del hall de la casa de la calle de Méndez Núñez comentábamos los acontecimientos de la semana con unas pocas personas. A veces se celebraba una reunión mayor, más formal y aparecía la larga y sardónica figura de sir Samuel Hoare, o la de algún hombre importante, camino de misiones especiales; por ejemplo, el amigo del coronel Lawrence, sir Ronald Stors, el famoso actor Leslie Howard o lord Beveridge. Si mi tío hubiera tenido algunos años menos hubiera encontrado en el Instituto Británico de Madrid, elementos suficientes para una serie novelesca. Pero ya estaba muy cansado, el presente le interesaba poco y sólo escribía acerca de su vida pasada, simplificando cada día más sus hábitos y sus ideas. Poco a poco fue dejando también de salir y llegó un momento en que los amigos más fieles, es decir, el doctor Val y Vera, Luis Fernández Casas, Gonzalo Gil Delgado, el ingeniero Valderrama y algún otro venían a diario a contarle cosas, de siete a diez de la noche.

En estos últimos años de su vida perdió el interés por el Arte, perdió también el interés por la Ciencia. Conservó siempre un sentido ético, simple, severo, sin retórica, pero ya no era sombra de lo que había sido. Escribía con premiosidad usando del expediente de copiar y pegar cuartillas una y otra vez, formando borradores, que luego intentaba reformar pero que no quedaban bien porque la memoria le fallaba y a veces repetía las mismas cosas. A pesar de estas dificultades aún escribió unas Memorias que son de gran interés, digan lo que digan sus detractores, porque habló con libertad de la mayoría de sus contemporáneos.

Muchos de estos españoles que se curan tanto, como he dicho, de las «posturas» ajenas, porque su anonimato les permite no cuidar demasiado la propia, me solían preguntar, cuando mi tío, en estos últimos tiempos, publicaba alguna cosita floja: «¿Por qué no interviene usted en lo que hace don Pío?» También me han indicado que ya no debía escribir, pues lo que escribía no añadía nada a su prestigio, sino que más bien lo disminuía. Y en esto, una vez más, veo que pienso de modo radicalmente opuesto al común. Creo, en primer término, que a un hombre viejo no se le debe dar la sensación, ni un momento siquiera, de que está decadente o flojo y también me parece impertinencia el interferirse en lo que puede crear o dejar de crear una personalidad acusada, ya en estado de declive. Lo que haga será interesante, aunque no sea más que como «documento humano». ¿Es que un hombre a los setenta y tantos u ochenta años no «tiene derecho» a decaer? ¿Es que el espectáculo de la ruina no es tan significativo como el del apogeo y más dramáticamente enternecedor? Tenía razón mi tío cuando decía que en España había mucha cabeza de «cartón-piedra». El siguió su camino, como pudo, hasta el final. Sus rasgos mentales se simplificaron, sus rasgos físicos se ennoblecieron y dignificaron.

La simplicidad de sus razonamientos podía parecer hasta infantil e inadmisible, desde luego, para gentes acostumbradas a adornarlo todo con sutilezas y jeribeques. Pero frente a los requilorios y alambicamientos ibéricos pocas veces le faltó la razón en última instancia. Era el hombre menos parecido a todo lo que había y se estilaba alrededor. En una España dominada en terreno artístico y literario por los adoradores de la forma verbal, de las abstracciones estéticas, en un país en el que las inquietudes religiosas y los movimientos políticos tomaban forma extremadamente dogmática, su realismo simple y su individualismo, resultaban casi incomprensibles.

¿Qué puede haber menos actual que un viejo incrédulo y racionalista Y con una moral estrecha y estrictamente personal? Siempre me acordaré de la repetida sensación de zozobra que experimentaban algunos escritores jóvenes cuando venían a casa a ver a mi tío y le preguntaban sus opiniones acerca de ciertas cuestiones y personas. Porque se entablaba un diálogo en que parecía que unos hablaban en castellano de 1945 y el otro en un idioma extraño y casi ininteligible. Decía, por ejemplo, el joven:

—¿Qué opinión tiene usted, don Pío, de su contemporáneo don Fulano?

—Fulano, ¡psch! Creo que era un tío lata.

Y se iban sucediendo las preguntas y los juicios de carácter radical, categórico, de tipo moral sobre todo. Para él los escritores, los pintores, etc., se dividían entre los que eran buenas personas y los que no lo eran. Mal canon para un historiador de las Artes. Se llevaba la conversación a terreno literario o artístico, se intentaba que juzgara la obra de alguien y el tío fulminaba: «Era un pesado.» «Era un tío lata.» Esto era lo peor, pues creo que en su vida al que más temió fue al hombre aburrido. Pero lo más común era oírle decir: «Era un hombre de carácter insoportable», «Era un mentiroso terrible», «Era un hombre de cuidado», «Siempre andaba con pequeños líos». Así, en cinco o seis minutos, despachaba setenta años de literatura española y luego sonreía con placidez. A veces mi madre le sermoneaba, le decía que no fuera tan arbitrario. Pero él se revolvía afirmando que no había dicho más que la verdad. Aquí podría hacer una distinción fácil entre la verdad de cada cual y la de todos. Mas este casuismo es ajeno a mi carácter. Yo también creo que mi tío decía la verdad. El círculo de sus intereses se fue cerrando, el de sus amistades también. Pero a casa llegaban verdaderas caravanas de curiosos, que, cuando menos, querían hacer una visita única a aquel hombre raro que sobrevivía en Madrid, en este Madrid que de capital de una vieja monarquía europea había pasado a ser una especie de chillón emporio sudamericano. A veces les sorprendía que la puerta de la casa la abriera un viejecito sonriente, de aspecto burlón, que se escusaba ante ellos, y adoptaba un extraño aire de humildad.

Este era el tremebundo don Pío, el de los manuales de literatura y el de los ensayos dogmáticos, el de los artículos de periódicos a treinta duros, cargados de tintas. Y don Pío hablaba de la escasez del carbón, de la miseria de los tiempos, de la dificultad que existe para ganarse la vida honradamente o de la guerra. Sin duda, el visitante se preguntaba a veces inquieto: «¿Pero cuando va a empezar este hombre a hablarnos de Nieízsche y de la generación del 98?» No. Don Pío, como si en todo quisiera llevar la contraria, hacía un canto a Churchill y decía que el existencialismo era la Filosofía en calzoncillos. Los «temas» no salían o se atascaban en la conversación apenas anunciados. Sobre todo los temas esperados.

Entre otras cosas que echó abajo la guerra civil una fue su interés y curiosidad por el siglo XIX. Lo espantoso de la ocasión hizo que nunca más volviera a hablar con gusto, como antes lo hacía, de las guerras carlistas y de las personas que habían intervenido en ellas: el mismo Aviraneta dejó de ser un personaje familiar en casa. Sin duda reconstruía ahora en su cabeza los hechos que le habían producido tanta pasión literaria, con caracteres repugnantes: la vida es maestra de la Historia y en el caso que yo vi al lado, maestra decepcionadora. La guerra civil sufrida no era ocasión para nada más que para callar y sufrir. Las otras debían de haber sido algo parecido.

Pasamos, pues, unos años mediocres, cada cual sumergido en su mundo pero muy unidos. La vida familiar volvió a dramatizarse con la enfermedad y muerte de mi madre, que produjo en casa tanto dolor como desconcierto. El 4 de junio de 1950 quedamos como huérfanos tres hombres de tres edades distintas. Un viejo, bordeando los ochenta, yo pasada la treintena y mi hermano con veintidós años. Nunca creí que podríamos acomodarnos como nos acomodamos. La unión continuó siendo grande. A veces entre el viejo y el chico había discusiones. Pero eran discusiones cómicas e intrascendentes sobre la hora de volver a cenar o sobre cuál de los dos había comido más de unos pasteles que había traído yo. Mi hermano decía una broma. Entonces el tío respondía: «A mí esas bromas de señorito madrileño me tienen sin cuidado. La cuestión es venir puntual a las horas de comer.» Y en esto paraba todo.

Como todos los viejos se había hecho muy riguroso con la marcha de la vida. Y además gran consumidor de medicamentos. Val y Vera no daba abasto. A su experiencia de viejo médico de cabecera vino a unirse la de un joven sabio, el doctor Arteta. Las conversaciones de Arteta con el tío giraban en torno a la Medicina de ayer y de hoy. Arteta, que pertenecía a la generación de histólogos que pueden considerarse ya como los nietos de Cajal, oía con gran regocijo los comentarios que hacía mi tío acerca de los profesores de San Carlos a fines del siglo XIX, comentarios, en general, poco académicos y en los que los doctores Letamendi y Hernando hacían el gasto.

A última hora la vida se le presentó de un modo plácido, casi. Pues, apartado del mundo literario, de las amistades oficiales, de los honores y competencias, se vio rodeado no sólo de los amigos fieles, sino que en torno suyo vio surgir, casi de repente, una serie de muchachas y mujeres, que le alegraban con su alegría, con su belleza o con sus cuidados maternales. Ésta fue la paradoja final dentro de una existencia de solterón que incluso había tenido fama (injustificada una vez más) de misógino.

Unas muchachas encantadoras, sobrinas de don Salvador de Madariaga, a pesar de que creo que nunca mi tío y don Salvador habían hecha buenas migas, le alegraron muchas horas entre los años 50 y 56. Era como si en el habitáculo del viejo pájaro nocturno entraran una serie de pajaritos canoros de brillante plumaje. También recibía a gusto la visita de una señorita irlandesa, profesora del Instituto Británico, miss Joyce, y la de Palmira Abelló, una muchacha estudiante de Filosofía y Letras, muy inteligente y atractiva.

Inspiraba también grandes simpatías entre las mujeres que venían a servirle, entre los obreros que hacían las chapuzas caseras, los carteros, los repartidores, la gente humilde en conjunto, pues a todos sorprendía que un hombre famoso fuera tan sencillo y llano. Hasta el final fue capaz de hablar con un joven o con un niño de tú a tú, sin considerar que existían diferencias sustanciales entre él y su interlocutor.

Pío Baroja, pues, fue desintegrándose lentamente, rumiando los recuerdos de la niñez y de la primera juventud y pensando que el mundo actual era un mundo sórdido, sin interés desde el punto de vista literario. No esperaba nada, no deseaba nada. Los apuros económicos habían pasado. Un poco tarde y gracias al éxito de las Obras completas y de otras ediciones. En estos últimos años todo lo que le producían sus libros lo iba metiendo en un cajón de un armario de luna. No quería complicaciones bancarias, ni problemas de dinero. Pero le gustaba administrar la casa. Así, yo, cada mes le daba una cantidad y él ponía otra. A comienzos del año 54, sin embargo, a raíz de la muerte de su hermano Ricardo, que le afectó más de lo que podía suponerse, se sintió tan abatido que me dijo: «Mira; yo ya no quiero seguir ocupándome de la casa y del dinero. Será mejor que te encargues de todo. Ahí en un cajón del armario de mi cuarto tengo unos billetes. Haz con ellos lo que te parezca.» Yo sospechaba que tenía bastante dinero ahorrado. Pero mi sorpresa fue grande cuando me encontré el cajón casi lleno de billetes de todas clases, desde los de peseta a los de mil, mezclados con calderilla, duros de nuevo cuño y pesetas. Toda una mañana me pasé contando y clasificando dinero. Al final, ya cansado, le dije: «¿Cuánto dinero crees que había en el cajón?» Y me contestó: «¡Psch! Bastante. Lo menos ochenta mil pesetas.» Cuando le respondí que había setecientas cincuenta mil, se asombró un poco. Luego pasó a hablar de otra cosa. Lo mismo hacía cuando yo, después, le exponía mis pequeñas experiencias financieras. Le producían una sorpresa momentánea.

Y lo curioso es que hasta última hora creyó que tenía que escribir, trabajar, para ir viviendo. A veces, como si se tratara de un proyecto lejano le decía a nuestra ama Clementina: «Sí; ahora vamos a ver si Julio y yo damos un empuje y después ya podremos vivir trabajando menos.» Esto a los ochenta y dos años. Era la que tenía, una idea medio novelesca, medio filosófica, de que hay que realizar siempre un esfuerzo grande para sobrevivir. Y aún en la inconsciencia de los últimos meses, cuando la arteriosclerosis tenía minado su cerebro, a todos sus movimientos les daba este sentido: había que preparar originales, escribir novelas largas, hacer viajes, examinarse, buscar datos... Y hacía como que hacía, revolviendo en un maremagnum papeles, cartas y artículos ya publicados.

En un momento de su vida se había definido a sí mismo ante un conjunto de burócratas y charlatanes, como un «hombre humilde y errante». Luego, en otro de humor, había dicho que lo mismo podía haberse clasificado como «hombre soberbio y sedentario». En la última vejez lo de sedentario le cuadraba mejor que lo de errante: pero lo de humilde seguía caracterizándole. Mejor dicho, le pasaba lo que expresó sutilmente el cardenal de Bernis. Cuando se consideraba a sí mismo en el mundo, rodeado de gentes que tienen que llevar a cabo el común esfuerzo cotidiano, se estimaba en poco: era un hombre humilde más. Pero cuando se comparaba con otros de su oficio, ya la humildad no era tanta, pues una parte grande de su obra le satisfacía. Estaba contento de ella, y, así, se leía y releía a sí mismo, y de vez en cuando comentaba: «Pues aquello que escribí yo en Los últimas románticos, que me parecía que era cosa floja, lo he vuelto a leer y ahora me parece que está bastante bien.»

Le gustaba —claro es— que elogiaran sus novelas y hubiera deseado la mayor difusión de ellas. Pero nunca fue capaz de moverse de una manera política para obtener éste u otro beneficio. Cuando se hablaba de la posibilidad de que le concedieran tal o cual premio se encogía de hombros. Estaba seguro de que los premios que dan los hombres no eran para un solitario como él. ¿A qué dedicar, pues, a esto de las recompensas, más atención que la de un comentario fugaz?

No fue hombre que recibiera grandes honores del mundo. Pero a la postre creo que tuvo suerte en los últimos años de la vida privada. Su vejez fue amparada por amigos incondicionales, de una fidelidad a toda prueba. Mujeres y muchachas en el apogeo de su belleza le quisieron con ternura y devoción. Nosotros, los de casa, hicimos cuanto fue posible para que no echara de menos nada. A veces a costa de sacrificios grandes, pues no es pequeña molestia, por ejemplo, hacer del hogar una especie de estación de ferrocarriles, en la que entraban y salían todos los que querían verle, a todas horas. Esto no quita para que alguien haya insinuado últimamente que en torno al viejo desvalido se había formado una especie de muralla de parientes y familiares fanáticos, que le impedían la comunicación verdadera con el exterior. La verdad es que el que no le ha visto en sus años finales ha sido porque no ha querido. Y si yo he determinado en dos o tres casos negar la entrada a alguien, esto se debió a que ese alguien se comportó de manera inadmisible en cualquier medio decoroso.

Es más, creo que si he pecado de algo ha sido de dejar en absoluta libertad a una conciencia que se iba perdiendo. Y así resultaba fácil, últimamente, que un periodista que deseara hacer su articulito viniera a casa, oyera a mi tío y escribiera unas cuantas cuartillas en que las observaciones del viejo quedaban envueltas en retórica tremendista o malevolencia.

Pero los hombres de la prensa amigos de él de verdad, que eran muchos, sabían dar capotazo a estas pequeñas fechorías y yo estoy agradecido a escritores como Cela, González Ruano, Pérez Ferrero y otros por la devoción que sintieron hacia él, paralela a la que siendo joven sintió el viejo maestro Azorín, a quien tanto se ha querido y admirado siempre en casa por todos, grandes y chicos.

FINAL

En el año 1954, el estado mental de mi tío empezó a tomar un aspecto muy alarmante. El proceso arteriosclerósico había llegado a un punto en que la memoria y la facultad de ideación estaban casi perdidos. Es probable también que el exceso de barbitúricos ingeridos durante años y años, en que padeció de insomnio, contribuyera a esta ruina. Seguía con buen apetito y tenía mejor aspecto que algunos años antes. Pero el mal se agravó durante el año 55 y, a comienzo del 56, las fobias, las angustias y los estados de letargo se complicaron con una inseguridad notoria en los movimientos, de suerte que se cayó varias veces. Por fortuna, sin mayores resultados. Mas este peligro de la caída con malas consecuencias flotaba en casa en el ánimo de todos. A las seis de la mañana del 2 de mayo de 1956 mi tío cayó por quinta o sexta vez y se fracturó el fémur derecho por la parte superior. Se levantó, sin duda, de la cama, con un estado de angustia producido por la falta de riego cerebral, y, como varias veces lo había hecho, comenzó a forcejear con la puerta de un armario de luna que tenía en el cuarto anterior a su dormitorio. En este forcejeo resbaló. Ya no volvió a levantarse más. Cuando me llamó Clementina estaba aún en el suelo, mirándonos con un aire medio indiferente, medio abstraído, mil veces más trágico que si hubiera sido el del hombre asustado o vencido por el dolor. Apenas daba muestras de saber qué le había pasado. Pero al llevarle a la cama como pudimos, vimos que la cosa era grave. A las nueve estaba ya en casa Val y Vera, que confirmó lo pensado. Después vino Arteta. A medida que iba pasando el día, el aspecto del tío era peor. Cuando algo después de las nueve de la noche, llegó don Gregorio Marañón, quedó impresionadísimo, tan mal veía la cosa. Un cirujano joven, López Quiles distendió la pierna rota como pudo y antes de iniciar otro remedio se procuró combatir un ataque de uremia que había dejado al tío en estado agónico. La sorpresa de todos fue grande al ver que su organismo respondía con una rapidez vertiginosa al tratamiento. En tres días la urea bajó al estado normal.

Entonces se pensó ya en la operación quirúrgica. Buscaron los médicos un sanatorio en el barrio de Argüelles, nuestro antiguo barrio, en la calle de Quintana, número 9, y el 25 trasladamos al enfermo allí. Iba tranquilo, alegre, sin darse cuenta de lo que le pasaba; hablando en la ambulancia con Vicente Silió, otro fiel amigo, le dijo: «Estos coches camas actuales son muy raros.» Tenía la impresión de que iba o venía de Vera.

La operación fue larga. López Quiles la concluyó tranquilo y con éxito, ante Marañón, Arteta, Val y Vera y el doctor García Vicente, también amigo antiguo. Al siguiente día el enfermo empezó a hacer su vida de sanatorio, siempre tranquilo, sonriente, sin enterarse de gran cosa. Se divertían mucho las enfermeras hablando con él. También las chicas que lo servían; A veces, a medianoche, cuando había que hacerle una cura o una muda» una enfermera muy dispuesta le decía: «Bueno, don Pío, vamos a cantar un poco.» Y empezaban a cantar trozos de zarzuelas viejas. Y el hombre que había perdido la noción de todo lo presente se acordaba con el mayor detalle de la letra de la canción de la Menegilda de la Gran Vía o la de la cerillera de El año pasado por agua. Fueron días en que los amigos se desvivieron, en los que muchos tuvieron la ilusión de volverle a ver en casa, sentado en su sofá o ante la mesa, revolviendo papeles. Yo, la verdad, nunca creí en esto.

La caída era consecuencia de algo mucho más grave en sí que ella misma. De todas suertes resultaba maravillosa la vitalidad del tío: las heridas se le cicatrizaban con rapidez, comía con apetito, hablaba con uno y con otro. A los seis días de sanatorio lo trajimos a casa, a esperar. El mes de junio transcurrió relativamente bien. En julio bastantes amigos se fueron yendo, se notaron también síntomas de que el enfermo decaía, era más difícil moverle, no resistía tanto tiempo sentado y tenía algunos trastornos secundarios. Pasó julio y pasó la primera mitad de agosto. La vida en casa tomaba un aire desesperante. Yo a veces tenía crisis nerviosas que me costaba mucho dominar. Clementina seguía siempre amorosa, impertérrita.

El día 20 de agosto vino mi hermano de Méjico, donde estaba, buscando fortuna, desde 1953. El profesor Bustinza me llevó al aeropuerto a recibirle. Me encontré con que el chico flaco, nervioso, de movimientos un poco bruscos que había salido de Madrid, se había convertido en un hombre fuerte, hecho, lleno de vitalidad. Al llegar a casa y ver al tío tuvo, sin embargo, una crisis de llanto. El tío le reconoció, aunque como siempre, no podía recordar su nombre. Le miraba con una risa maliciosa y decía: «¡Qué fuerte está!» Los días que pasó mi hermano entre nosotros el tío no estuvo mal. Se iba remediando el peligro de que se llagara, a fuerza de cuidados. Pero, justamente, coincidiendo con la vuelta de mi hermano a Méjico, a mediados de septiembre, le sobrevino una pulmonía traumática que Val y Vera cortó. Pero el organismo ya estaba vencido. Las úlceras aparecieron en la superficie del cuerpo y la cara del enfermo tomó un aire triste que hasta entonces no había tenido. Se barruntaba un final más o menos cercano. Yo pensaba que coincidiría con los primeros fríos del otoño y así fue: confieso, además, que no compartía la idea de los optimistas que, ante todo, querían prolongar la vida de aquel cuerpo doliente. Como siempre dejé hacer a los médicos, afanosos pero también pesimistas. Los atardeceres frescos de mediados de octubre dieron a la casa de la calle de Alarcón un aire más melancólico que nunca. Antes, el día 10, se celebró una especie de ceremonia literaria de la que muchos periódicos hablaron. E. Hemingway tuvo una delicada atención con el viejo moribundo. Vino a verle trayendo unos regalos sencillos y a decir unas palabras de admiración y respeto, que mi tío apenas entendió. Yo no las oí porque me salí del cuarto, para ocultar mi congoja. Vi, sin embargo, al escritor norteamericano sentado como un niño grande y tímido que habla a su maestro y a mi tío mirando a la nada, con una expresión más severa que la que hasta entonces había tenido. Esta severidad en la expresión ya no le abandonó mientras tuvo vida. Durante las semanas siguientes las siluetas abatidas de don José García Mercadal, el viejo compañero de tareas, de Rico Godoy, de Silió, de Casas, de Val y Vera, de García Vicente, de F. Echevarría se sucedían al pie del lecho. Los desvelos de la señora de Bustinza y las atenciones de las amigas de mi madre, Pepita Iturrioz y María Martos de Baeza, no servían para levantar al enfermo de su postración. Pero, cosa curiosa, cuando en la habitación entraba alguna muchacha joven de las que le visitaban desde años antes, sus ojos se animaban, sonreía y les cogía la mano con ternura. A veces también besaba la mano de las señoras que le cuidaban y saludaba siempre con una rara compostura.

El día 30 de octubre de 1956, a eso de las tres de la tarde se notó que su organismo entraba en una fase final, después de varios días de fiera lucha. Y salí de la habitación y esperé abatido en el despacho, mirando al sillón donde tantas horas había pasado. A eso de las cuatro entró Arteta en aquel despacho y me dijo: «Ya.»

El final había llegado. Lo que pasó después, en el resto del día, fueron cosas puramente protocolarias. Un gran amigo de casa ya citado, Rico Godoy, se encargó de gestionar los preparativos del entierro. A la noche, rendido, me marché a descansar un poco a casa de la viuda de Ortega, de doña Rosa que, tan maternal y solícita como siempre, me ofreció refugio. Los recuerdos se me agolparon durante las horas pasadas en aquella casa en que faltaba también algo grande. Mientras tanto en Alarcón los amigos pasaron las últimas horas con nuestro muerto. Hubo sitio para algún admirador fervoroso, pero menos familiar en la casa, que estuvo de pie mirando al cadáver desde las seis de la tarde hasta la mañana siguiente. Y llegó la mañana cercana al día de Difuntos que, contra lo que se ha dicho y escrito, no fue agria y desapacible, sino nublada, húmeda y serena. A eso de las nueve empezaron a congregarse gentes en la calle, a subir otras al piso a dar la última despedida al tío.

Como el entierro había de celebrarse dentro de la mayor modestia y con un carácter civil, resultaba difícil imaginar cuál iba a ser su desenvolvimiento. Formamos en el último momento una pequeña comitiva al salir de casa. A la cabeza íbamos Val y Vera y yo encorvados, derrotados. Detrás una presidencia oficial, con don Jesús Rubio y los miembros de la Academia Española. Ante el Museo de Artillería me despedí de esta presidencia y el que quiso cogió un auto o un ómnibus para ir al cementerio. Allí había la cantidad justa de personas: ni muchas ni pocas. Y lo que más me confortó fue ver que en su mayoría eran hombres y mujeres jóvenes. Creo que todos lloramos, pero no se turbó el silencio en el momento de dar sepultura al muerto, más que por los golpes secos de la pala y el repicar lejano de un lapidario, que trabajaba alguna losa.

Unos amigos venidos de Guipúzcoa, del país natal, trajeron algo de tierra en un frasquito: una tierra húmeda como la que le había gustado siempre al tío. La arrojé a la fosa.

Después nos volvimos todos a Madrid por aquel suburbio desolado de las cercanías del Este, tan bien pintado por él, dejándole en compañía de los hombres de su época, de los hombres con los que no había estado conforme muchas veces, pero que quedaban siempre más cerca de él que los actuales. Yo creo que pudo decirse entonces que había muerto el mayor novelista español del siglo XX. Pero también que había dejado de existir el último gran español del siglo XIX.

EPÍLOGO

Vivimos rodeados por la muerte. Desde que nacemos. Cada día que pasa es un milagro. Pero cuando se llega a un hito de la vida en que tenemos más gente entre los muertos que entre los vivos, el milagro nos parece mayor. Más inútil también, ¿Qué hacemos aquí, cuando la mayoría de los nuestros, jóvenes y viejos, listos y tontos, guapos y feos, se han ido? Desde 1935 mi vida ha sido un puro atestiguar muertes de personas queridas. Formaban un todo ante mi conciencia. Un todo que se ha desintegrado ahora casi por completo. De este todo vital, para los de fuera de él, no queda nada, salvo una figura o dos. Los demás no son, no somos, nada. Pero estas figuras que sobreviven, o que quedan destacadas a causa de la obra que dejan: «¿Qué son en realidad?» Son lo que quieren los demás que sean, se achican o agrandan a voluntad. Tan pronto parecen grandísimas, como pequeñas, simpáticas como antipáticas. Constituyen materia para un pequeño artículo de diccionario enciclopédico o para una tesis de doctorado. ¡Pobre destino el del hombre con cierta fama! Más pobre aún que el que duerme en un cementerio de aldea envuelto en la oscuridad, el anonimato. Ahora, al terminar de escribir, al correr de la pluma en estas cuartillas sobre mi tío, pienso más en él que en el novelista Pío Baroja. Pienso en él como puedo pensar en mis padres, en mis abuelos, en lo que he tenido y tengo de más entrañable junto a mí. Si alguno ve propósito apologético en estas cuartillas quiero decirte que no ha sido mi intento el hacer apología. Para mí, mi tío no necesita apología, como no la necesitan mi madre o mis más queridos amigos. Lo único que he pretendido es dejar una visión cercana de un hombre muerto, importante para los demás por unos motivos, más importante para mí por otros.

Yo bien sé que ahora la obra tendrá una vida propia y que el recuerdo de la persona quedará envuelto en controversias. De ellas no saldrá nunca verdad, porque la experiencia indica que, en general, los grupos de controversistas son otros tantos grupos de mentirosos. ¿Por otro lado, cómo se alcanza la verdad?
El mito de Proteo es, como casi todos los relativos a personajes secundarios de la Mitología griega, de gran interés psicológico, pues nos da una especie de clave para entender cuan difícil resulta siempre el obtenerla, cómo se resiste y cómo a quien la posee en un momento puede aparecer bajo formas distintas y extremadas, que desorientan y desilusionan.

El viejo dios marino sólo libraba sus oráculos después de una lucha tenaz, tras haber tomado diversas apariencias. Como decía J.-J. Rousseau en su conocida oda:

Sous diverses figures, arbre, flamme, fontaine, s'efforcé d'echapper à la vue incertaine
Des mortels indiscrets...

Proteo debía ser el patrón de los novelistas, que también escapan a la vista de los lectores y críticos bajo la apariencia de cientos o miles de personajes con opiniones diferentes, con sentimientos contradictorios, con pasiones encontradas. Detrás de todas estas apariencias o apariciones hay un ser único, un hombre con una idea o unas cuantas ideas cardinales. Pero ¿quién está autorizado a decir que ha alcanzado a ver cómo era, en realidad, Cervantes, tras de leer el Quijote, o cómo pensaban y actuaban otros grandes novelistas, autores de obras famosísimas también, después de haberlas leído y releído? Mi propia experiencia me indica que entre la imagen de un novelista, dada por la generalidad de los tratados de literatura y de los libros y artículos que se han escrito sobre él y la que podía obtenerse mediante el trato familiar, cotidiano, hay una gran distancia. No quiero hablar ahora de algunos juicios que han tenido que aprender generaciones y generaciones de estudiantes españoles en aquel linaje de obras que se llaman manuales (y a las que, como dijo alguien, mejor cabría aplicar el dictado de «pedales») para pasar sus exámenes de literatura española en la Universidad acerca de mi tío, Pío Baroja, o de otros contemporáneos suyos. Me refiero a estudios con más pretensiones en los que, por ejemplo, aparece aquél como fanático o como escéptico, como cobarde o como valiente, como seco y frío o como tierno y delicado, sin estilo o con estilo, con calidades poéticas o desprovisto de ellas, como patriota o como antipatriota, etc., etc., según el temple, el pelaje y el humor del crítico, ensayista y pedagogo. La experiencia vital, la incongruencia de todos estos juicios ante lo que yo veía con mis propios ojos ha sido causa de que tenga poca afición a los estudios literarios, aunque guste de la literatura.

Y en fin lo que he pretendido es dar un último paseo junto a la sombra de mi viejo tío. Cuando murió le puse a mi hermano un telegrama con un texto muy corto: Gaur il da. ¿Por qué le anuncié aquella muerte en vasco y no en castellano? Me pareció más íntimo, más recatado, menos oficial. Ahora no me queda más que, en la soledad, seguir viviendo con arreglo a la pauta que me dio. No es cosa fácil.

ROMANCE DE LA MUERTE DEL MAESTRE DE SANTIAGO

MUERTE DEL MAESTRE DE SANTIAGO

Hoy es víspera de Reyes la primer fiesta del año, cuando damas y doncellas
  al rey piden aguinaldo, unas le pedían seda,
  otras el fino brocado,
a no ser doña María,
  tras la puerta se ha quedado.
-¿Tú qué pides, ay, María, tú qué pides de aguinaldo?
-El aguinaldo que pido
  sé que no será otorgado.
-Sí será, María Padilla, aunque pierda mi reinado.
-Yo no quiero oro ni plata,
  ni tampoco tu reinado, vengo a pedir la cabeza del Maestre de Santiago.
-Las cabezas de hombres vivos
  no se dan por aguinaldo;
mas por ser a ti, María, concedido y otorgado.- Estando yo en mi Coimbra, de mi mocedad gozando,
cartas me hubieron venido
  del rey don Pedro mi hermano, que me vaya a los torneos que en Sevilla se han armado, que lleve poquita gente,

que son los gastos muy largos.
Yo llevé ciento de a mula
y otros tantos de a caballo, de ellos vestidos de seda
y los demás de brocado, todos vestidos de verde,
yo, el Maestre, de encarnado.
A la pasada de un río,
a la colada de un vado,
cayó mi mulilla en tierra,
quebré mi puñal dorado;
se me ha ahogado un pajecillo de los míos más amado, conmigo come a la mesa,
conmigo duerme a mi lado, somos hermanos de leche
una madre crió a entrambos.
A la entrada de Sevilla,
encontré un licenciado:
-Vuélvase atrás, el Maestre, que lo llevan engañado, que en Sevilla no hay torneos ni tampoco se han usado.-
-Dios le guarde, el buen rey, Dios le guarde su reinado.
-Bien venido, maestrillo, bien venido y mal llegado;
tu cabeza, hermano mío,
mandada está de aguinaldo.
-Si la tienes prometida,
cúmplase vuestro mandado.- Apenas lo había dicho,
la cabeza le han cortado.
A doña María Padilla
se la llevan de aguinaldo.
La agarró por los cabellos, por el suelo la ha arrastrado:
-Aquí pagarás, Maestre,
aquí pagarás, villano,
cuando me llamaste puta del rey don Pedro tu hermano.- La cogió doña María
y se la tiró al alano.
El alano es del Maestre, conoció que era su amo,
la cogiera con los dientes,
la llevó para sagrado,
con las patas hace el hoyo,
con la boca la ha enterrado,
con la lengua hace clamor,
con los ojos la ha llorado.
Y, a los aullidos del perro, mucha gente se ha allegado.

-¡Ay, triste de mí, mezquino, ay, triste de mí, cuitado!,
si el alano hace aquello, ¿qué haré yo, que soy tu hermano?
¡Tus gustos, doña María,
tus gustos se han acabado!-
Doña María de Padilla
por los aires va volando, por sus buenos procederes
no la quiere Dios ni el Diablo.

La conservación de un romance noticiero en la tradición oral del siglo XX puede deberse, no al interés perdurable del suceso cantado ni a la enseñanza que sobre la vida puede inducirse del caso narrado, sino a su aptitud para ser incorporado a un ritual folklórico. Es lo ocurrido en la tradición peninsular con este espléndido romance, el cual, en su origen, formó parte de la guerra libelística que mantenían, en paralelo a la guerra civil, los “petristas” y los “trastamaristas” a comienzos de la segunda mitad del siglo XIV.

En la versión publicada en el siglo XVI, el romance comenzaba;

Yo me estava allá en Coymbra, que yo me la ove ganado, recordando la conquista de Jumilla a los aragoneses por el maestre don Fadrique en servicio de su hermano el rey don Pedro (pues Jumilla fue también conocida por ese nombre), y seguía:

quando me vinieron cartas
del rey don Pedro mi hermano, que fuese a ver los torneos
que en Sevilla se han armado...;

y las versiones sefardíes de Marruecos confirman que ése era el comienzo original del romance. Sólo en el curso posterior de la acción se hacía referencia en la versión del siglo XVI a la culpabilidad de doña María de Padilla en la muerte del Maestre de Santiago, cuando, al llegar éste a Sevilla, el rey le comunica: “Vuestra cabeça, Maestre, / mandada está en aguinaldo” , y cuando, una vez muerto, envía en un plato la cabeza a doña María . Pero ese verso, en que la palabra “aguinaldo”, usada por don Pedro, tenía el sentido general de ‘regalo’ o ‘estrena’ (el fratricidio no ocurrió en Navidad, sino en el mes de mayo de 1358), tuvo tal poder sugestivo sobre los cantores peninsulares del romance que, a partir de él, se visualizó la ocasión y la escena en que doña María consigue del rey don Pedro que le prometa la cabeza de su hermano el maestre don Fadrique, y así, con esa escena, comienzan las versiones modernas de tierras de Segovia, Logroño, Asturias, León, Zamora y Galicia. No sabemos en qué momento se dotó al romance de esta escena explicativa de la afirmación del rey que se impuso por todas partes; sólo, dados los versos de que consta, que quien la ideó conocía el romance cidiano de las querellas de Jimena.

La anteposición de esa escena hizo posible que el romance se convirtiera en “canto aguinaldero”, en canto petitorio de los mozos y mozas para celebrar la fiesta de Reyes. Gracias a ello, el romance se repitió en muchos pueblos cada año y pasó de generación en generación. Tal ocurrió, por ejemplo, en Siguero en el vecino Sigueruelo (Segovia), donde, en el curso de una excursión a pie desde Santo Tomé del Puerto a Turégano, el 24 de agosto de 1947, tuve ocasión de recoger una versión con texto muy análogo al de la que aquí publico. Y, en 1978 (en compañía de un alumno marroquí y de unas alumnas polacas) pude aún volver a oirlo en versión que nada desmerecía respecto a la recogida en 1947.

Si este uso festivo ha hecho posible la conservación del romance, el empleo “aguinaldero” es también responsable de que, muy frecuentemente, la atención de los cantores se desvíe de la historia narrada, de forma que, tras la escena inicial, el canto sigue con otros versos referentes a los Reyes Magos o de petición directa de aguinaldo a los destinatarios a quien se endereza.

Dejadas de lado estas consideraciones etnográficas, vemos que, como texto poético, el romance del siglo XX, en sus versiones completas, compite en calidad estética con su antecesor del siglo XVI, pues utiliza con extraordinaria eficacia modos y motivos tradicionales: la narración en primera persona que de su viaje hacia la muerte hace el propio asesinado y los detalles premonitorios de la tragedia que durante él se van acumulando: el color rojo del traje de fiesta que, en contraste con sus acompañantes, viste el Maestre; la caída de la mula y quebradura del puñal; la muerte, ahogado, de su paje más querido.

Dado que el romance ha venido cantándose durante cinco siglos y que forma parte de un conjunto de romances viejos referentes a sucesos muy varios de la larga lucha entre el rey don Pedro y sus enemigos, su carácter de romance noticiero (esto es, político) contemporáneo del suceso narrado es, a mi ver, seguro. Resulta, por tanto, interesante confrontar su versión de lo ocurrido con la mejor de las páginas de la crónica del reinado escrita por el Canciller de los reyes Trastámaras, don Pero López de Ayala, quien, para hacer más odiosa la figura de don Pedro (como es su intención constante), exculpa a doña María de Padilla convirtiéndola en ineficaz protectora del Maestre en el momento de su muerte. Claro está que no pretendo con esta observación confundir en un mismo género la fábula libelística poética y la historia cronística tendenciosa , aunque ambas compartan el ser, como toda Historia, invenciones artísticas.

EL CALCO DESHONESTO

A menudo he escuchado historias sobre plagios en Internet. Hay incluso verdaderas leyendas urbanas que hablan de cómo reputados escritores encuentran su inspiración (párrafos enteros de calco inspirador, letra a letra) en las obras de autores desconocidos que pululan por la red. Mis amigos insisten en que debería proteger lo que escribo y no hacerlo público alegremente para consumo de cualquier pícaro copiador, pero a mí nunca me ha importado. No soy tan importante como para que lo remedado pueda tener algún valor.

Hace unas semanas, mirando mis estadísticas, me sonreí al descubrir que alguien había llegado a mi blog buscando la frase "el mar en cien palabras" que es exactamente lo que se solicita en las bases de un pequeño concurso de microrrelatos de la red. Huelga decir que el anónimo visitante encontró sin problemas lo que buscaba en mi breve "el hombre que tiraba letras al mar", perteneciente a mis espejismos en cien palabras. Espero que, si gana ese concurso, me invite al menos a una cerveza virtual por mi inspiración.

Desde entonces curioseo los lugares de donde proceden las visitas, sobre todo si éstas buscan largas frases concretas o algún tema en el que yo sea especialmente prolífica, con la esperanza de ser inspiradora de algún otro escritor en ciernes. Y sí, sí que lo soy, hoy encontré la prueba fehaciente de ello.

¡Qué grata sorpresa! La dulce señorita Mildred publicó el 13 de Mayo de este año, un texto que contiene, sin saltarse una sola coma, mi Boceto, que publiqué en febrero de 2008 y La palabra maldita, publicada en diciembre de 2007.

En fin, lejos de la frustración, sentirme tan segura de mi talento me da una perspectiva benevolente de lo sucedido, más digna y orgullosa. Casi diría que acaricia mi vanidad ser imitada con semejante descaro, sobre todo porque los comentaristas de la señorita Mildred dicen que mis/sus textos son dignos sucesores de los de García Márquez, ahí es nada.

Por todo esto, y a pesar de que omites deliberadamente mi nombre, te perdono mi querida Mildred. Por esto y porque, como ya sabes, pequeña zorrita, por muchos huevos de oro que atesores, la gallina que los pone sigo siendo yo.

Perfil de blogger de la plagiadora "Señorita Mildred":

Foto de la plagiadora Señorita Mildred, seguramente tan falsa como su talento literario.

Pero por si acaso, si la ven cerca, agárrense las carteras, que esta dama expropia lo ajeno con soltura y desparpajo.

Y aquí el artículo "Relatos de un vagabundo", que a estas alturas, ya avisada de que los lectores la han descubierto, sigue publicado en su blog.

Tiene el dudoso honor de pertenecer a la ralea de RAMÓN DURÓN RUIZ, NO ES EL FILÓSOFO DE GÜÉMEZ, SINO EL AUTOR DE UN PLAGIO, de PEDRO J. SORIANO, y a la misma que robó y destrozó la obra de TRINI REINA, como nos contó en su artículo HABLANDO DE PLAGIOS...
Y es que, como ya dije y repito, plagiándome a mí misma:

"Lo que más trabajo cuesta entender es que los plagiarios imaginen que, con esa tontiastucia que se gastan, si roban un escrito y le cambian los nombres propios, incluido el de su autor, nadie lo descubrirá.
Es como para desconfiar de la teoría de la evolución. No todos dejaron atrás la inteligencia imitativa del simio, ni la falta de conciencia ética del reptil."

De nada, ya saben que me gusta ser útil.

PS 22 de junio 2009

Como la señorita Mildred suele copiar en internet sin tasa ni control, en el último de sus calcos, que ha titulado "Historia de el Rey", (sic) (fusilado de El anillo del rey también llamado Esto también pasará), una de esas historias con moraleja, al estilo del infecto Paulo Coelho, que enloquecen a los bobolectores de boboblogs, había puesto al final, virtuosamente:"Conferencia de literatura. La casa de la cultura. Monterrey. Nuevo León", por si colaba; pero ni por esas, y harta del choteo de los lectores avisados, ha decidido poner un escrito original suyo para demostrar al mundo su arte literaria y facundia:
Descifrando tu silencio: Historia de el Rey, escribió:

A la Verga.!!! ese texto no Lo escribi YO. Que chingados No leen abajo o que mierda.!!!!
antes de hablar escribe tu mismo y despues critican BOLA DE IGNORANTES.!!!! y si me creen bien y si no que se vallan muchO a la vrg.

¿ALGUNA otra DUDA??' (sic)

PS 1 julio 2009: La tontiastuta zorrita ha cambiado el texto plagiado y lo ha sustituido por otro que debe ser suyo, viendo las patadas en la chepa que le da al sufrido Diccionario y a la pobre Ortografía.

Menuda sorpresa.
¡Ja!Compadezco a la pobre chica/chico/ente extraterreste apodado Mildred (en la red nunca se sabe). Cuando la gata encuentra una causa justa y empieza a afilarse las uñas, tiembla el mundo!
Gracias por hacerte eco de mi pataleta, pero qué consentida me tienes querida...

Pues... siento llegar hasta aquí por este motivo, pero es que Cosmofonio que es como una especie de ángel en la red también se hizo eco cuando me plagiaron. Fue importante para mí este gesto de Cosmofonio.

Como tú, yo creía que lo que escribía no era digno de plagio, pero cuando lo descubrí me quedé atónita... me habían plagiado más de medio blog... en fin... me alegra que te lo tomes de esta forma, últimamente sobre estos asuntos hay de todos los colores.

Un abrazo

Nadie como la Agüela para dar caña a l@s plagiadores. Me solidarizo con Tautina y me alegro de que se lo haya tomado con "alegre" filosofía:)qué remedio.

A mi lo que me molestó del plagio que sufrí, es que me destrozaran el texto, más que del plagio en si.

VICTOR HUGO: VENI, VIDI, VIXI

J’ai bien assez vécu, puisque dans mes douleurs
Je marche, sans trouver de bras qui me secourent, Puisque je ris à peine aux enfants qui m’entourent,
Puisque je ne suis plus réjoui par les fleurs ;

Puisqu’au printemps, quand Dieu met la nature en fête, J’assiste, esprit sans joie, à ce splendide amour ;
Puisque je suis à l’heure où l’homme fuit le jour,
Hélas ! et sent de tout la tristesse secrète ;

Puisque l’espoir serein dans mon âme est vaincu ;
Puisqu’en cette saison des parfums et des roses,
Ô ma fille ! j’aspire à l’ombre où tu reposes,

Puisque mon coeur est mort, j'ai bien assez vécu.

Je n'ai pas refusé ma tâche sur la terre.
Mon sillon ? Le voilà. Ma gerbe ? La voici.
J'ai vécu souriant, toujours plus adouci,
Debout, mais incliné du côté du mystère.

J'ai fait ce que j'ai pu ; j'ai servi, j'ai veillé,
Et j'ai vu bien souvent qu'on riait de ma peine.
Je me suis étonné d'être un objet de haine,
Ayant beaucoup souffert et beaucoup travaillé.

Dans ce bagne terrestre où ne s'ouvre aucune aile,
Sans me plaindre, saignant, et tombant sur les mains,
Morne, épuisé, raillé par les forçats humains,
J'ai porté mon chaînon de la chaîne éternelle.

Maintenant, mon regard ne s'ouvre qu'à demi ;
Je ne me tourne plus même quand on me nomme ;
Je suis plein de stupeur et d'ennui, comme un homme
Qui se lève avant l'aube et qui n'a pas dormi.

Je ne daigne plus même, en ma sombre paresse,
Répondre à l'envieux dont la bouche me nuit.
Ô Seigneur, ! ouvrez-moi les portes de la nuit,
Afin que je m'en aille et que je disparaisse !

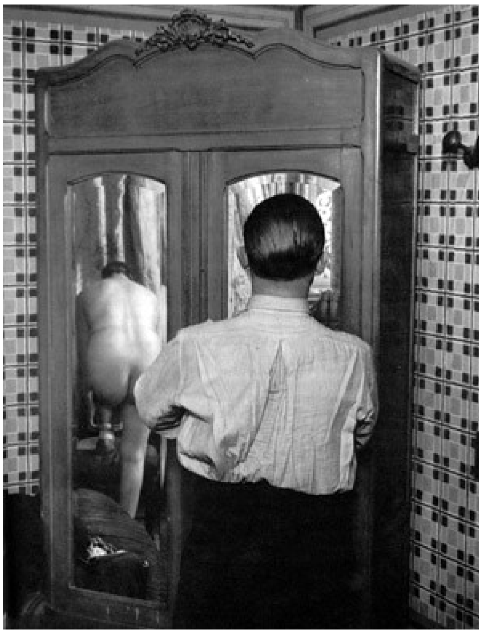
AUTOESTIMA



Desde que empecé a trabajar en el bufete, la mujer de don Claudio, mi jefe, no perdió ocasión de demostrarme su interés. Era una cuarentona con un cuerpo escultural y unos ojos chispeantes de pecado. Yo tenía veintiséis años y no necesitaba hacer un curso de autoestima.
- Si no le gusta la profesión de abogado usted no tendrá problemas…
Y me sonrió.
Siempre he sabido cuando le gusto a una mujer, y sé cuando funciona mi atractivo, aunque sepa disimular, pero doña Irene no se escondía y delante de todo el mundo me hacía la rosca.
- Tiene usted mucha agilidad, lleva la bandeja de la correspondencia con una mano y sin aparente esfuerzo… ¡Qué chico tan fuerte! ¿Hace deporte?
El resto de los empleados fingían no escuchar, pero claro, cuando se fue me dijo el secretario:
-Haz lo que quieras, pero ten cuidado… nosotros ya hemos pasado por lo mismo y quiero advertirte que…
-No me chupo el dedo… ya soy mayorcito, y no necesito consejos.
-¡Ya, ya! – y se quedó muy serio.
Y a los pocos días doña Irene me preguntó delante de todos si sabía que daban una fiesta el sábado siguiente.
- Algo he oído, doña Irene…Espero que sea un éxito y se diviertan…
-Es el aniversario de boda, y solemos invitar a muy pocos amigos, es muy íntimo – y si su tono era sugerente su mirada y su escote directamente desvelaban una falta de pudor total.
Y dije con intención, sepultando mi mirada en su escote:
-Debe ser divertido… y excitante…
Ella lanzó una carcajada y me dijo:
-Es usted muy joven y muy atrevido -Pero no desvió la vista y añadió - Aunque usted no tendrá esmoquin ¿verdad?
Yo mentí recordando que los actores lo alquilan
-Oh, si, tengo uno…
-¡Chico precavido, me gusta!
Después de tres semanas coqueteando con ella, me sobresaltó un poco cuando don Claudio me llamó a su despacho.
-Mi mujer me ha insinuado que se ha fijado en usted... -y trató de esconder su turbación limpiándose las gafas con la corbata.

- No...
-Supongo que el sábado usted tendrá ya algún compromiso… mi mujer me ha dicho que usted tiene esmoquin y…bueno, tal vez no le apetezca...
Yo lo estaba pasando mal por el pobre carnudo, pero naturalmente no me eché para atrás…
- Me siento muy honrado, don Claudio ¿A qué hora es la fiesta?
- La fiesta empieza a las ocho, yo no puedo llegar antes...pero usted venga a las seis...
Es decir, que el marido me dejaba vía libre y consentía.
Cuando salí todos me miraban y bajaron la vista turbados.
Los tres días siguientes pasé mis horas libres yendo de la ceca a la meca para probarme los esmóquines de todas las tiendas de alquiler: los que me venía bien la chaqueta de contorno me venía corto de mangas y el pantalón no me llegaba a los tobillos; el que me estaba bien el pantalón no me quedaba la chaqueta… Y no había forma de convencerles para que desparejaran dos esmóquines. Al final, el sábado, a última hora de la mañana, decidí alquilar dos, de uno usaría la chaqueta y de otro el pantalón, y gasté todos mis ahorros en comprar una camisa blanca impecable, unos zapatos de charol, calcetines de seda, una pajarita, y ropa interior…
Llegué a mi casa con el tiempo justo para prepararme una tortilla francesa y un café. Puse en el video la película "En brazos de la mujer madura" y me relajé mirándola media hora. Luego, llené la bañera, puse medio bote de gel, me lavé a conciencia, me corté las uñas, me afeité con una cuchilla nueva, me embadurné en agua de colonia, y me vestí.
A las seis en punto llegué a la verja de hierro forjado que cerraba una especie de parque. Iba elegantísimo y eufórico. A cincuenta metros vi la casa más impresionante de mi vida, un palacio…
Doña Irene estaba en el jardín, junto a unas mesas preparadas para la fiesta, y hablaba con un señor mayor, que llevaba un esmoquin maravillosamente cortado a su medida, pero en cuanto me vio me hizo un gracioso gesto con la mano para que me acercara. Su mirada ávida me recorrió desde la cabeza a los pies, y me premió con una sonrisa indescriptible.
-¡Es usted un encanto de puntualidad! –Y dirigiéndose a su interlocutor- ¡Jorge, aquí tiene el camarero que le prometí para servir los canapés y las bebidas! Perdone, joven, pero no me acuerdo de cómo se llama usted... ¡Bueno, da lo mismo!

GILLES PERRAULT: NUESTRO AMIGO EL REY. LOS MUERTOS VIVIENTES DE TAZMAMART

Todo Marruecos sabía que les había ocurrido algo aterrador. Se hablaba de ellos en voz baja entre amigos de confianza, pero las conversaciones estaban formadas por preguntas sin respuesta. Desde su secuestro, el 7 de agosto de 1973 por la noche, nadie sabía lo que había sido de los militares encarcelados en Kenitra. Purgaban las penas a las que les había condenado un tribunal ordinario a la vista de la opinión pública mundial, y después habían desaparecido. Traslado no sólo geográfico, sino cronológico: era como si la mano real les hubiera sacado del mundo. Entonces quedan abolidos los códigos jurídicos, las convenciones y los tratados internacionales sobre los derechos humanos firmados por Marruecos, la comedia judicial interpretada en público, y reina, como en la época de las tinieblas, únicamente la arbitrariedad del señor absoluto.

Habían desaparecido en la noche y la niebla, igual que entaño algunos deportados de los campos de concentración nazis, y por los mismos motivos. Pues —y los documentos lo demuestran— era para imprimir un sentimiento de terror a los reacios por lo que se adoptaba la decisión de clasificar a determinados deportados en la categoría Nacht und Nebel: al contrario que los demás, cuyo paradero y cuyo destino eran conocidos de sus familias, ésos, aniquilados, se convertirían en inimaginables.

El silencio duró seis años.

En 1979 una familia recibió unas líneas emborronadas en un trozo de papel transmitido por un guardián comprado a precio de oro. El mensaje pedía con urgencia medicamentos (aspirinas, pomadas oftálmicas, vitaminas, calcio). Hablaba de «el infierno que sufrimos». Decía que los presos se hallaban en «Tazmamart, al pie del yebel Layachi».

Tazmamart se halla en el Alto Atlas, en la carretera de Rich a Gurrama. Unos 80 kilómetros antes de Gurrama, poco después de cruzar un uadi, hay que tomar a la izquierda en una pista que sube a la montaña. Sobre la penitenciaría se yergue un enorme peñón blanco en el cual están pintadas las palabras «Dios, Patria y Rey». El lugar está clasificado como zona militar y los centinelas amenazan con abrir fuego sobre toda persona que trate de acercarse. Los aviones tienen prohibido sobrevolar la región. El invierno, que es glacial, dura ocho meses al año.

Después llegó la carta escrita el 5 de abril de 1980 por Abdellatif Belkebir. El capitán Belkebir fue condenado en el juicio de Sjirat a cuatro años de cárcel y 5.000 dirhams de multa. Cuando por fin dio indicios de vida, hacía más de cinco años que había purgado su pena, comprendida la prisión preventiva.

«He tratado de indicar en esta carta —escribía— todo lo que ha ocurrido desde nuestro traslado desde la casa central de Kenitra a la maldita prisión de Tazmamart. La noche memorable del 7 de agosto de 1973 cambió nuestros destinos. Nos despertaron sin contemplaciones ni aviso previo, nos maniataron, nos pusieron vendas en los ojos y por fin nos tiraron como sacos en camiones militares que nos llevaron a la base aérea. Dos aviones militares nos transportaron como si fuéramos paquetes a Ksar es Suk, desde donde otros camiones militares nos trasladaron del mismo modo a Tazmamart, la terrible Bastilla.

»Al llegar, por la mañana, nos registraron y nos condujeron a toda prisa a nuestras celdas asfaltadas; nos encerraron uno por uno para no sacarnos de allí jamás.»

El suboficial mecánico Benaissa Rashdi había sido condenado a tres años de cárcel y 250 dirhams de multa por su participación en el ataque al «Boeing». De hecho, su papel se había limitado a armar los «F-5» por orden de sus superiores y sin que dudara ni un solo momento de que se trataba de un vuelo de entrenamiento de rutina.

Sus dibujos permiten ver exactamente las celdas de las que él y sus camaradas no han salido nunca desde el 8 de agosto de 1973, o sea, 16 años en el momento en que se escriben estas líneas.

Salvo los muertos.

Dieciséis años sin salir una sola vez de esas celdas para la eternidad.

Miden 3,90 metros de largo por 2,40 metros de ancho y 3,73 metros de alto. En un rincón hay retretes turcos sin cadena. Una losa de cemento sin colchón sirve de cama. Dos mantas y basta. Ni mesa ni silla. Los únicos utensilios que se ponen a disposición del preso son un tazón de plástico y un plato.

La principal característica de los calabozos es que noche y día están sumidos en la oscuridad. El aire, pero no la luz, llega por 17 agujeros de 10 centímetros de diámetro perforados en la parte del muro que da al pasillo. El pasillo en sí carece de luz, los carceleros no la encienden mas que cuando se distribuye el rancho, para ver el plato que se les tiende. En el techo existe otro agujero, también de 10 centímetros de diámetro, pero un falso techo de chapa ondulada tapa la luz. Así, incluso en verano, cuando el sol alcanza su nivel más brutal, los emparedados de Tazmamart no disciernen el paso de la noche al día más que por una atenuación casi imperceptible de las tinieblas que les rodean.

Dieciséis años de noche.
El castigo tiene un carácter simbólico. El sol, la luz, no son para Marruecos argumentos turísticos. Son la riqueza hasta para los más desposeídos, la belleza gratuita exaltada por poemas, cuentos, canciones. «Reino del sol», repite el propio rey, pero para las víctimas de la mano real, se trata de las tinieblas. A partir del momento de la detención, el primer castigo es la privación de la luz, antes incluso de las torturas. Una venda sobre los ojos, durante meses, para quienes van al derb Muley Sherif; una mazmorra oscura, durante dieciséis años, para los de Tazmamart.

Los presos, pese a estar aislados, no están solos. En su estilo, que introduce una especie de ingenuidad en la descripción del infierno, Abdellatif Belkebir escribe: «Las pulgas y las cucarachas son las dueñas indiscutibles de este sitio. Proliferan los escorpiones. A veces llegan serpientes que persiguen a las ratas por el pasillo, para gran diversión de los carceleros armados de porras, tristes guardianes del infierno, que disfrutan con estos espectáculos macabros. El croar de los cuervos y el ulular de los buhos confieren una nota de abandono a esta siniestra prisión.»

Como el hormigón de las celdas hace eco con el mínimo ruido, en lugar de apagarlo,como haría la piedra, la cacofonía es ensordecedora: soliloquios de presos que tratan de huir del mutismo, diálogos aullados, recitaciones en voz alta del Corán, que muchos aprenden de memoria gritándose las suras de una celda a la otra. Divagaciones de un camarada que va cayendo en la locura, llamadas de socorro de los agonizantes. Los presos dicen unánimemente que el estruendo figura entre sus peores sufrimientos.

El frío es otro suplicio tanto más duro cuanto que a los militares se les encarceló en Kenitra en el mes de julio de 1971 o en el de agosto de 1972: llevaban sus uniformes de verano, con los cuales han de hacer frente al riguroso invierno de la montaña.

La alimentación es frugal. Por la mañana, un vaso de café frío y un bollo. A mediodía, un caldo claro en el que nadan unas verduras. A la tarde un plato de pasta. «Cuando nos dieron dos sardinas y un huevo duro, al cabo de varios años de privaciones, fue para nosotros un gran acontecimiento.»

Aplastados por el régimen al que se les sometía, los presos iniciaron una huelga de hambre. La interrumpieron al cabo de ocho días, sin haber recibido la menor visita de los responsables del presidio; los carceleros se regocijaban abiertamente por no tener que atender al servicio del rancho (en ningún caso puede la distribución de la pitanza a alguien durar más de diez segundos). Un preso cayó enfermo. «¡Qué se muera!», respondieron los carceleros. En julio de 1974 expiró la pena de dos militares. Cuando uno de ellos se asombró por no salir en libertad, el guardián le preguntó: «¿Cuánto te había tocado? —Tres años—. Aquí no hay que decir tres años, hay que decir para siempre.»

Comprendieron que la prisión sería su tumba.

«La vida del preso se ha convertido en una lucha incesante —escribe el capitán Belkebir—. La lucha contra el frío: el invierno es glacial, en Tazmamart nieva. El preso se despierta de noche tiritando, y transido se lanza a un baile de loco. El zumbido del aire en las tejas da a la noche un carácter demoníaco. En verano el calor es tórrido, casi se ahoga uno en las mazmorras y el preso se ve obligado a pegar la nariz al "chivato" de la puerta para aspirar algo de aire fresco, y cuando, agotado, con el techo ardiendo, quiere buscar algún reposo en su cama de piedra, es asaltado por todas partes y sin cesar por todo género de parásitos (chinches, pulgas, mosquitos, cucarachas, arañas, etc.). Los escorpiones vienen pérfidos a colarse bajo las mantas; el espectro de ese repugnante animal nos prohibe hacer cualquier movimiento espontáneo: varios presos han sufrido sus picaduras. El aburrimiento disminuye mucho la moral y el físico del preso. Para romper esa rutina mortal, está obligado a caminar a tientas, pero el espacio es reducido. Toda conversación es casi imposible, pues la disposición de las mazmorras la impide, y el escándalo de las demás voces transforma el edificio en un auténtico carnaval. El único refugio que le queda es la plegaria y la postración. El Corán fue un gran apoyo a todo lo largo de nuestra estancia (varios de nosotros lo hemos aprendido de memoria, evidentemente por vía oral).

»El preso está vestido de harapos, va descalzo, el pelo y la barba que no ha pasado por el peluquero desde hace varios años le dan el aspecto nada tranquilizador de un auténtico vagabundo. Las lluvias del otoño transforman a la mayor parte de las celdas en un pantano y después en una marisma.»

A lo largo de dieciséis años ni una visita médica ni de enfermeras, ni una atención a los presos enfermos. Todos ellos eran jóvenes y se hallaban en la cumbre de su forma física. Las mazmorras los destrozaron físicamente en poco tiempo.

»Mi salud es precaria —escribe otro preso—. He perdido la dentadura, tengo destrozado el estómago, orino más de 12 veces al día y tengo eccemas por todo el cuerpo. No te inquietes, no temo en absoluto a la muerte. Lo único que pido es que llegue silenciosa, conforme a las normas del Islam.»

Y otro dice: «Imagínate momias ambulantes de cuarenta y cinco kilos de peso, con una cara desolada, pelo y barba largos, que se cortan con un pedazo de cinc afilado. En cuanto a las uñas, nos las cortamos como podemos con los dientes, es decir, los que todavía los tienen. Estos infortunados paladines del suplicio están en sus tres cuartas partes medio locos, y los de treinta años están calvos...»

La muerte no tarda en llegar. Abdellatif Belkebir: «Un compañero que tenía excelente salud nos informó de que sangraba mucho por la nariz; después nos comunicó que ya no se podía sostener sobre las piernas. Cuando estaba solo, ya no podía venir a tomar la comida a la puerta y se hacía las necesidades en los harapos. Como los carceleros se contentaban con abrir y cerrar, poco les importaba que se comiera o no. El compañero era valiente y todos los días nos comunicaba cómo estaba, y su moral era buena. Se inició una parálisis parcial que pasó a ser total. El delirio del compañero nos hizo compartir con él noches de pesadilla. Cuando ya no pudo hablar, vinieron a sacarle con sus mantas. Unos minutos después volvieron con él y lo dejaron sin más en el suelo helado de la cárcel. "Le hemos puesto una inyección", dijeron con tono hipócrita. Al día siguiente el camarada exhaló su último suspiro. Llegaron enmascarados (por el hedor), lo sacaron envuelto en sus harapos y lo enterraron en el patio sin ritos religiosos.»

La hierba crece en el patio de la prisión, porque los presos no tienen derecho a pisarlo. El director, hombre avezado, trae un rebaño de cabras y de corderos. Una fosa común recibe a los muertos, enterrados sin que se observen los ritos musulmanes. Para los presos, todos los cuales son profundamente creyentes, es el colmo del horror. Las cartas lo expresan de forma unánime. Aceptan la muerte, pero desean que «venga silenciosa, conforme a las normas del Islam». Se les niega hasta eso. Uno de ellos escribe: «Se llega a oír hasta la agonía del moríbundo durante uno o dos días, hasta que se apaga en el silencio. Cuando llegan, lo envuelven en una manta sucia. Se oyen las palas y los picos de fuera y termina la operación.» Y otro dice: «¡Sin una mortaja ni abluciones en un país musulmán! Creo que desde Ramsés II ningún preso ha padecido los malos tratos, los sufrimientos y las penas que soportamos nosotros.» La evocación, a primera vista insólita, de Ramsés II es justa: el poder del Faraón se ejerce hasta el más allá.

Otro preso murió de hemorragia rectal.

En ese mundo cerrado por excelencia florecen fantasmas y supersticiones. Todos los presos tienen una fijación morbosa con un buho, convertido para ellos en la encarnación de la muerte. El ave nocturna empezaría a ulular cuando un enfermo entra en la agonía y se detendría en el momento exacto de su defunción.

En otoño de 1982 había: diecinueve cadáveres en la fosa común. En la primavera de 1990 eran veintisiete.

Se desconoce el número exacto de los emparedados de Tazmamart. La cárcel está integrada por varios bloques sin comunicación entre sí. Se sabe con certeza que allí estuvieron presos los militares sublevados de Kenitra, pero entre los muertos enterrados en el patio figuran oficiales y suboficiales que no aparecen en ninguna lista de condenados. ¿Por qué se les ha enviado ahí, en virtud de qué sentencia? Nadie sabe decirlo. Su presencia no guarda forzosamente relación con las dos tentativas de golpe de Estado. Se dice que una tarde un suboficial de guardia en la puerta del palacio de Rabat vio llegar a una mujer titubeante, totalmente ebria. No la reconoció y le negó la entrada. Era una princesa real. El suboficial salió para Tazmamart.

El teniente M'barek Tuil, encargado del armamento de los «F-5» en la base de Kenitra, constituye una excepción notable entre sus compañeros: trasladado con ellos a la cárcel, tuvo el privilegio de salir de ella con un breve permiso. Tuil está casado con una estadounidense, con la que tiene un hijo. Nancy Tuil volvió a los Estados Unidos, donde enseña matemáticas en Nebraska. A instancias de ella, la Embajada de los Estados Unidos en Rabat multiplicó las gestiones para obtener detalles sobre el destino corrido por su marido. En 1985, cuando la situación económica de Marruecos le ponía a merced del padrino estadounidense, M'barek Tuil recibió un tratamiento para dejarle presentable, se le sacó de su celda, se le llevó a Rabat y se le enseñó al embajador de los Estados Unidos, Joseph Verner Reed, actualmente jefe de protocolo del Departamento de Estado. Después de ello, se volvieron a llevar al teniente a Tazmamart para correr la misma suerte que los demás. Su único privilegio consiste en que puede intercambiar correspondencia con su mujer. Una vez al año, un gendarme entrega en la Embajada de los Estados Unidos el paquete con sus cartas; una vez al año, el director de la cárcel le entrega a él las escritas por Nancy Tuil.

Aida Hashad, farmacéutica muy próspera, hizo una tentativa desesperada de tener noticias de su marido, oficial de aviación preso en Tazmamart. Gracias a amigos bien situados, supo qué día jugaría el rey al golf en Dar es Salam. Se acercó al campo con su hija Huda, de 15 años. Los centinelas apostados en el exterior dejaron pasar a las dos mujeres, cuya pertenencia a la alta burguesía era evidente. Huda corrió hacia el rey con una carta en la mano y llegó hasta él antes de que la retuvieran los guardaespaldas. Hassan jugaba con invitados extranjeros. Dio la orden de que le acercaran a la muchacha y le preguntaran lo que quería, como si se tratara de una gestión común y corriente de la Corte para entregarle un placet. Aida Hashad y su hija quedaron muchos meses bajo la vigilancia especial de la Policía.

El militante sindicalista Hucin el-Manuzi comparte probablemente el calvario de los militares.

El-Manuzi, sentenciado en rebeldía en el proceso de Marrakech, en 1971, fue secuestrado el 1 de noviembre de 1972 en el aeropuerto de Túnez por la Policía secreta marroquí y fue devuelto al país en avión especial. Tenía veintinueve años. Si todavía vive, hoy tendrá cuarenta y siete. Su familia no pudo obtener ninguna información sobre su paradero. También él es Nacht und Nebel. Sus padres se enteraron por los pasquines de búsqueda pegados en los muros, que lo calificaban de «muy peligroso», de su participación en la tentativa de evasión del teniente coronel Ababu, del brigada Akka y de los hermanos Burquat... Su padre, un poco demasiado activo, fue detenido en 1973, torturado en el derb Muley Sherif, trasladado a otro centro de detención, donde permaneció diez meses y después llevado a la cárcel de Casablanca. Quedó incluido en el juicio de julio de 1976, o sea, tres años después de su detención, contra cuarenta y dos militantes (uno de los múltiples juicios que no hemos ni siquiera mencionado, pues harían falta varios volúmenes para tratar de manera exhaustiva de la represión judicial en Marruecos). Durante los debates, el abogado Abderrahim Herrada hizo que el presidente le formulase la siguiente pregunta: «¿Tiene algún pariente preso?» El infortunado padre mencionó a su hijo, cuyo paradero le era desconocido. Acabó por ser absuelto.

Toda la información indica que si Hucine el-Manuzi no ha sucumbido al régimen concentracionario, se encuentra en Tazmamart.

Y con él, quizás, algunos de los desaparecidos por docenas en Marruecos.

Las cartas son rarísimas y evitan citar nombres por motivos de seguridad evidentes. «Un compañero está enfermo», «Unos camaradas querían escribir al rey, que Dios guarde...». Los carceleros, de una crueldad notable por su constancia, se abstienen de deslizarse por la pendiente de la corrupción ante la perspectiva de un castigo implacable en caso de que se les descubra. Todos saben que el director de la cárcel, que no está sometido a ningún mando, rinde cuentas directamente a Palacio. Los guardias les consiguen a los presos a precio de oro luz, el tiempo justo para garabatear un mensaje. El precio del sello, que evidentemente paga la familia, es alto: 10.000 dirhams. El sueldo mensual de un profesor no supera los mil dirhams.

¿Por qué?

En lo que respecta a los militares de Sjirat, el encarnizamiento real podría explicarse, aunque no justificarse. Hassan II consideraba que Ufkir le había frustrado en su venganza al orientar a los jueces hacia la clemencia. Pero los cuarenta y tres oficiales y suboficiales del Ejército del Aire fueron condenados por un tribunal sumiso al rey, poco avaro de penas capitales y que sancionó con penas de prisión a hombres que no eran ni siquiera comparsas, dado que ignoraban que al llenar el depósito de un «F-5» estaban colaborando en una tentativa de golpe de Estado. Y esos hombres sufren en la cárcel el mismo destino que sus compañeros de Sjirat...

Y, ¿qué crimen ha cometido el sindicalista El-Manuzi para que lo expíe desde hace dieciocho años en condiciones tan atroces?

¿Qué crimen merece un castigo cuyo sadismo meticuloso y paciente hace que el justiciero sea peor que el castigado?

Hassan II dijo un día: «Para mí el colmo de la dicha es poder mirarme todas las mañanas en el espejo, al afeitarme, y no tratarme, una mañana, de "cerdo". Ése es el colmo de la dicha.» (1)

Cuando hizo aquella confidencia, los emparedados de Tazmamart llevaban ya dieciséis años de sufrimientos.

Tal vez no piensa en ellos por la mañana, ante su espejo, sino por la noche, durante las horas de diversión, que tanto le gustan y que prolonga hasta la madrugada. ¿Viene, en la profusión lujosa de sus palacios, cuando está rodeado de sus bufones y de sus putas la imagen de Tazmamart a introducir en su placer la deliciosa pimienta del contraste absoluto? ¿Disfruta más al pensar en los muertos vivientes?

¿O es sencillamente su sistema de gobierno un ejercicio razonado del terror? Su

Policía no ignora que de la cárcel han salido cartas. Todo Marruecos conoce la existencia de Tazmamart. Sin embargo, el régimen de esos torturados no cambia en absoluto. También eso se sabe. Esa arrogancia en el crimen es pedagógica. Cada marroquí debe comprender que puede verse metido por inadvertencia en un asunto peligroso, como el mecánico que llena el depósito de un avión de caza soñando con su amor y al que no bastará con que le condenen unos jueces considerados implacables para escapar a lo indecible. El miedo irracional que ello causa produce una sumisión tan absoluta como absoluto es el poder. Cuando los frentistas, que salían cantando a sufrir quince años de prisión por haber distribuido octavillas se enteren del destino de los muertos vivientes, sentirán que algo se rompe en ellos: no se sentirían con fuerzas para hacerle frente. Imposible mirar de frente el sol negro de Tazmamart.

Buchenwald, Mauthausen, Sachsenhausen y otros campos Nacht und Nebel no duraron tanto tiempo.

En el momento de escribir estas líneas se puede afirmar con una casi total certidumbre que el lugar más atroz del planeta (los nazis decían «el agujero del culo del mundo»), el lugar donde el hombre es peor para el hombre, se halla a una hora de avión de Madrid, a dos de París, no lejos de una carretera por la que circulan los autobuses de turistas fascinados por la belleza de las cosas.

¿Qué más decir? ¿Qué palabras acumular al pie de ese monumento del horror?

Las únicas válidas aducibles son las que escriben ellos.

La mirada se desliza sobré las cartas escritas con mano temblorosa, llenas de letra apretada porque hay demasiado que decir y no hay bastante papel y se detiene acá o acullá en una frase:

«Los "antihombres", un poco más que ratas, un poco menos que hombres.»

«Una muerte horrible que ingurgitamos gota a gota. Desde que entramos en el agujero negro no hemos salido ni un solo día al sol.»

«Los muros de Tazmamart esconden el secreto más horrible que conoce la Humanidad.»

«En cuanto a los compañeros que quedan, unos se pasan el día acostados y otros se desplazan a cuatro patas.»

«Ayudadnos, si todavía anida nuestro recuerdo en vuestros corazones; hablad por nosotros, no silenciéis esta matanza, cerrad filas, pedid nuestra libertad.»

«Los que quedan están al borde de la locura.»

«Si guardáis silencio es como si nos entregarais a la fosa común de Tazmamart.»

Ésta es la tumba de los vivos
Este es el foso en que estamos hundidos
Aquí han expirado las aspiraciones inocentes
Aquí está el centro de todos los dolores

Nuestra desgracia, está escrito.
Dios no se puede concebir.
Oh, amigos, oh, santos, rezadle para que nos envíe
A quien nos liberará.

La última carta data del verano de 1989. No ha cambiado nada, sino que la mayor parte de los presos ahora se pasan la vida acostados, ensuciando la manta que tienen debajo, pues ya no tienen la fuerza ni la voluntad de arrastrarse hasta el agujero de evacuación.

«Un poco más que ratas, un poco menos que hombres...»

Asociaciones de derechos humanos han vuelto a denunciar la existencia de centros de detención y tortura clandestinos en Marruecos. Amnistía Internacional denunció en 2004 la detención ilegal (sin que figure en registros) de unas 4.000 personas, habiendo sido detenidas con la excusa de los atentados de Casablanca del 16 de mayo de 2003.

EL INFORME DE LA UNIVERSIDAD JUAN CARLOS I SOBRE LAS ENERGÍAS RENOVABLES O LA CIENCIA ESPAÑOLA TRAS LOS PASOS DE LYSENKO

Lev Landau: -¿Así pues, usted argumenta que si cortamos una oreja a una vaca, y a su descendencia, y así sucesivamente, tarde o temprano nacerán vacas desorejadas?
Trofim Lysenko: En efecto.
Lev Landau:Entonces, señor Lysenko, ¿cómo se explica usted que sigan naciendo niñas vírgenes?

Afortunadamente, para los gobernantes españoles que subvencionan con fondos públicos los estudios académicos que confirmen sus conclusiones, siempre habrá desinhibidos catedráticos capaces de pergeñar y firmar informes que nieguen la cruda realidad de los hechos, siguiendo la escuela de Lysenko, el padre de la ciencia soviética que dio base científica a los planes quinquenales agrícolas de Stalin, obteniendo un triunfo tras otro, -a pesar de las malas cosechas y la hambruna generalizada- en la eliminación y persecución de los científicos contrarrevolucionares, partidarios de ponderar los hechos y tomarlos en cuenta.
Véase el sonrojante Informe de la Universidad Juan Carlos I, "Study of the effects on employment of public aid to renewable energy sources", firmado por los profesores Gabriel Calzada Álvarez 1, Raquel Merino Jara, Juan Ramón Rallo Julián y la asesoría técnica de José Ignacio García Bielsa, todos ellos pertenecientes a esa recua de especialistas de alquiler de los lobbys 2 empresariales, como los de la Fundación Ideas, del PSOE, por ejemplo, muy valorados por los miembros del Parlamento Europeo, que pueden obtener y citar sus oportunos informes técnicos y seguir camuflando el hecho de que los políticos y los deportistas pueden llegar a la cima sin la más elemental cultura , ni puñeteras ganas de adquirirla, y con el cerebro de una gallina de Guinea, siempre que tengan el desparpajo necesario para engolar la voz y usar el tono enfático al leer lo que les escriben sus monosabios. .

En la web del Instituto Juan de Mariana, órgano de agit-prop de los autores del Informe, y donde se dan autobombo, hay una reseña de una conferencia de su director en la Third International Conference on Climate Change, apadrinada por The Heartland Institute, y otras ilustres medianías arrebujadas en el lobby de Exxon Mobil Corp, donde dice, entre otras cosas:

" En la parte más técnica de la conferencia el presidente del Instituto Juan de Mariana (Gabriel Calzada Álvarez) explicó el coste real de los empleos verdes en España, que superan el medio millón de euros en subvenciones por puesto de trabajo creado y el coste de oportunidad de estas políticas. En este sentido, señaló la ineficiencia relativa de estas tecnologías -motivo por el que exigen la redistribución forzosa de recursos hacia sus actividades- y el sacrificio que suponen en términos de empleo."

Cuando dice lo de la parte más técnica se refiere a unas osadas fórmulas matemáticas consistentes en colocar en el numerador a las churras y las merinas en el denominador, para obtener como resultado que "cada empleo verde que la Administración subsidia se destruyen 2,2 trabajos en el sector privado, aparte del coste de oportunidad para la generación de nuevos puestos de trabajo que tal contribución supone", cuya falta de base lógica comenta estupefacto José M. de la Viña en sus artículos El informe español que ha causado estupor a Obama (I) y (II)
Estos Institutos de estudios y fabricantes de informes sobre energía, en la línea de Nomisma Energía, de Prodi y sus secuaces 3, que son utilizados y valorados por los lobbys empresariales y los políticos, no tienen nada que ver con la suerte que pueden correr trabajos como "Análisis crítico a la ORDEN FOM/1100/2002 sobre verificación periódica de contadores", preparado por el Instituto de Investigación Tecnológica de la Escuela Técnica Superior de Ingeniería, Universidad Pontificia Comillas de Madrid, preparado para la Asociación Española de la Industria Electrica, UNESA, por los investigadores del IIT: José Ignacio de la Fuente León, Pedro Sánchez Martín, Jesús Pascual Peco González:
Si las conclusiones del informe fueran ciertas, habría que expulsar de sus puestos a todos los funcionarios que intervinieron en la redacción de la Orden que, con 18 años de retraso, establecía el control metrológico del Estado sobre los contadores de inducción (los del disco que da vueltas) y fijaba las condiciones que debía cumplir su verificación periódica y su vida útil máxima.
Los autores del informe dicen, entre otras cosas, sobre la fórmula del error propuesta en la Orden FOM/1100/2002 4:

- (...) la fórmula resulta ser inconsistente pues no garantiza que un contador cuyo error real (es decir, el que verdaderamente afecta al consumidor a la hora de pagar de más o de menos a la compañía distribuidora) esté dentro de límites supere el ensayo de verificación.

(...) Y también:

- La fórmula es errónea:
  La primera y más importante es que la fórmula propuesta en la Orden FOM/1100/2002 no conduce a discriminar aquellos contadores con error por encima del 3% (desechables) respecto a aquellos con error por debajo del 3% (pueden seguir funcionando).

- Falta de transparencia en la fórmula:
  Si se quiere establecer un procedimiento de verificación objetivo y justo, es fundamental que la fórmula

utilizada para decidir si un contador es válido para seguir operando o debe ser sustituido, sea lo más transparente y clara posible. En este sentido, en ningún lugar de la Orden FOM/1100/2002 aparece explicado el origen de los coeficientes de ponderación 1.71, 0.77 y 0.52 que figuran en la fórmula. El efecto que tienen dichos coeficientes de ponderación afectando a los errores relativos en valor absoluto |e| no obedece a ninguna realidad física en el cálculo de error relativo total cometido por el contador bajo ensayo, como queda probado a través del ejemplo aclaratorio anteriormente expuesto.

- El error propuesto en la Orden FOM 1100/2002 no guarda relación alguna con la diferencia existente entre lo que paga de más o de menos el consumidor a la compañía distribuidora, y lo que debería pagar.

La inconsistencia de la fórmula puede tener consecuencias muy negativas para la distribuidora, máxime si como se aprecia en estudio de Andalucía, el error de los contadores crece a medida que decrece el valor de la intensidad de ensayo.

Y, sin embargo, sucesivos gobiernos, PP y PSOE, siguen colocando los intereses y los enjuagues más que ilegales de las compañías eléctricas contra los derechos de los consumidores a no ser estafados, y no hay miedo de que se vayan a utilizar por nuestros respresentantes en el Parlamento Español y Europeo los informes de los ingenieros José Ignacio de la Fuente León, Pedro Sánchez Martín, Jesús Pascual Peco González, del Instituto de Investigación Tecnológica, visto cómo se las gastan, ni tampoco los del Ingeniero Antonio Moreno Alfaro 5, que lleva más de veinte años denunciando éste y otros atropellos, y ha puesto en juego su patrimonio, su puesto de trabajo y hasta su seguridad personal por negarse a ser cómplice de la estafa.
No digo que nuestros representantes los descarten conscientemente, Dios me libre de reconocerles criterio y discernimiento, es que los lobbys que apadrinan la política energética en España y en Europa no se los van a presentar subrayados en amarillo listos para usarlos, y acompañados de prebendas, invitaciones, honores sociales, y regalías, que es lo que esta parva de botarates que nos representan entienden.

2 "Son muy variadas las razones que han llevado al enquistamiento de los lobbistas en Bruselas. En algunas ocasiones se trata de una simple falta de escrúpulos y en otras de mera necesidad técnica. No obstante, una de las causas primarias es que estos agentes privados facilitan enormemente el trabajo de una sobrecargada tecnocracia*. Los lobbistas lo saben, y con sus abultadas cuentas de gastos no escatiman en la elaboración de informes técnicos, propuestas legislativas y todo lo que consideren necesario para agradar a los servidores públicos que puedan satisfaces sus aspiraciones. Todo ello es bienvenido por una burocracia incapaz de desdoblarse para cumplir con una abrumadora carga de tareas.*"

4 La Orden FOM 1100/2002 fue anulada judicialmente el 27.01.2005 por haber sido tramitada incorrectamente y aún no ha sido sustituida por el Gobierno, por lo que los 24 millones de contadores de inducción que están en servicio carecen de control metrológico y, en consecuencia, no pueden ser sometidos a verificaciones periódicas. No obstante, las compañías eléctricas lleven cobradas por estas verificaciones más de 8.000 millones de euros, que se incrementan cada día en 600.000 euros.

EL CORTE INGLÉS: MÁS TIESOS QUE LA MOJAMA

Este año, los dividendos que El Corte Inglés pagará (o no) a los accionistas de la Fundación Ramón Areces van a consistir en un pay-pay y dos cubitos de hielo por accionista. Con esta impedimenta se pretende aguantar la falta de aire acondicionado. Aunque, los cubitos de hielo para que no se derrita el adhesivo dental Corega con el calor, se suministrarán en formato líquido, corriendo por cuenta del accionista su conversión a sólido.
Como´se han percatado todos los que han entrado a El Corte Inglés, Isidoro Álvarez encuentra serias dificultades para pagar la factura de la luz. Además de escatimar con el aire acondicionado, la mitad de las bombillas están apagadas y pintadas de amarillo para alegrar el ambiente. Con la musiquilla ambiental y la peste a pies y a sobaquillo escabechado que suele florecer en ambientes tropicales, se espera que el cliente esté más atontado y dócil cuando es cazado por los vendedores.

Este reportero que firma y rubrica ha procedido a efectuar la investigación de campo que requerían los artículos de mi colega, y, sin embargo, amigo, El Espía y de Pumarín, sagaz copista de El confidencial . Me he presentado en los conocidos grandes almacenes con la frase mágica:
-Io sono un cobrattore di Endesa e mi comanda don Salvatore.
Me han regalado unas muestras de desodorante y me han enviado para el signor González Palomino , a la Fundación Ramón Areces, diciendo que él era el encargado de la bolsa. Allí no funcionaba el timbre (les han debido de cortar ya la luz) y el guarda de seguridad estaba disputando con un gato unos restos de bocadillo.
Según he sabido de fuentes generalmente bien informadas, lo del aire acondicionado ha sido una decisión sabia, digna de haber sido tomada por el mismísimo don Ramón Areces, que en gloria esté, pero polémica. Mientras que el Patronato de la Fundación Ramón Areces agradece que se facilite su proceso de amojamamiento, algunos jovenzanos levantiscos como Federico Mayor Zaragoza (que ha dado instrucciones a su notario y albacea para que lo criogenicen) han protestado por los desperfectos que ha producido en su botox facial y en el Pelijoven.
Los sindicatos, conscientes de la crisis de Wall Street que padecemos, que si no de qué, han aplaudido la medida. Fasga y Fetico han agradecido a la patronal la oportunidad que se da a los trabajadores de gozar de una sauna en el trabajo. Comisiones Obreras, siempre radical y dando la nota con sus exigencias, ha pedido, si pudiera ser y no hubiera inconveniente, que los jefes de planta tengan a bien considerar la posibilidad de plantear unas negociaciones para impulsar unas mejoras en las condiciones laborales de los trabajadores, para que les permitieran abanicarse con los cartones que sobran de la sección de camisería caballeros y que, si esto no fuera posible (y ellos, que defienden y quieren a la empresa los primeros, lo entenderían) se accediera a que los vendedores (una vez que hubieran atendido al cliente y abanicado a su superior) se dieran un poquito de aire con la mano.
Juan Manuel de Mingo ha contestado que sobran vagos y faltan manos para agarrar clientes. Y con eso se ha cerrado la negociación.
Comisiones Obreras ha anunciado la convocatoria de un plante de 10 minutos , a las siete de la mañana, en el metro de Portazgo. Con un par.
Las mismas fuentes generalmente bien informadas nos han asegurado que la Junta directiva de El Corte Inglés ha contratado a Allison Dubois para que le pregunte a don Ramón Areces si da su permiso para trasladar los grandes almacenes a Cuba para reducir gastos, y contratar a Fidel y a Raúl Castro como jefes de planta para aumentar la productividad.
Seguiremos informando.

Autor: Expulsada trabajadora después de 34 años en El Corte Inglés

Miembros de la plantilla de El Corte Inglés de Vigo realizarán concentraciones hoy y el viernes desde las 21.00 hasta las 22.30 horas en la puerta principal de El Corte Inglés, para exigir la "readmisión" de una trabajadora que llevaba 34 años en la empresa y fue "despedida después de coger dos bajas laborales cortas en los últimos dos meses". Durante las concentraciones, que se hará un reparto de información entre los clientes y se facilitará una hoja para la recogida de firmas de apoyo a la reivindicación.

CENTRALES NUCLEARES: MIGUEL SEBASTIÁN, EL CAPATAZ DE PRODI EN ESPAÑA

La fiscal romana Giuseppa Geremia tuvo más suerte que, Falcone, Dalla Chiesa, o Borsellino. Por ahora no ha terminado sus días en una mesa de autopsias como cadáver corruptible a todos los efectos menos al del sistema político italiano. Geremia vive hoy desterrada en Cerdeña, consciente de que su sentencia de muerte se ejecutará un día u otro, cuando no quede ni Ferdinando Imposimato para escribir el obituario.

En 1996, Geremia realizó una de las mejores investigaciones anticorrupción de los últimos treinta años: el caso de la privatización del holding Cirio-Bertolli-De Rica. En 1993, siendo Romano Prodi presidente del IRI (Instituto di Reconstruzione Industriale), la compañía, valorada por el banco Credito Italiano en un margen de 6.000 a 9.000 millones de liras, es vendida por el IRI en 3.100 millones de liras a una compañía fantasma llamada Fi.Svi, creada poco antes por amigos de Prodi, cristiano demócratas del Sur de Italia y que desapareció tres meses después de la operación. Antes de pagar al IRI, Fi.Svi, que nunca pudo acreditar tener capital para hacerlo, dividió ilegalmente el holding y vendió a la compañía alemana Unilever la parte correspondiente de Bertolli (petroleos). Con ello pudo pagar al IRI. Esta escandalosa operación fue posible porque Romano Prodi, en Mayo de 1993, en el mismo día que asumía su cargo de presidente del IRI presentaba su "dimisión" como alto ejecutivo de Unilever. El trapicheo hizo sonrojar hasta a un mafioso, amigo de Prodi, como el Alcalde de Nápoles, Antonio Bassolini, que habló de "transacción sucia y escandalosa". En un informe de más de 12.000 páginas el equipo de investigadores contables dirigido por Renato Castaldo demostró cómo la transacción había sido planeada y organizada con Prodi meses antes. La documentación obtenida por la policía en las oficinas de Unilever en Milán revelaban paso a paso la trama y el papel de otra compañía, hasta el momento en la sombra, en la operación: Goldman Sachs.

Cuando en 1996, la fiscal Geremia presentó cargos contra Prodi por corrupción, abuso de poder y conspiración criminal, Prodi era primer ministro. Geremia sufrió coacciones y amenazas de muerte contra ella y su familia. Las medidas de seguridad no sirvieron de nada porque la información de su domicilio, numero de teléfono o itinerarios (aparentemente alto secreto del ministerio de interior) pasaba al instante a sus acosadores. El fiscal general Michelle Coiro mostró su solidaridad con Geremia y fue fulminantemente destituido: "Michele Coiro non è compatibile con la guida della procura di Roma e deve essere trasferito". Muere convenientemente meses después. Geremia es desterrada a Cerdeña y el juez Edoardo Landi da carpetazo al caso y considera perfectamente ajustada a derecho la venta de Cirio-Bertolli-De Rica.

En una entrevista realizada en 2003 a Domenico Pacitti, éste declaraba:

"La Operación Mani Pulite (Manos Limpias) que se comenzó en 1992, demostró principalmente que los partidos políticos italianos eran financiados ilegalmente por la industria y que esto era sólo la punta de un enorme iceberg de corrupción política. A este fenómeno la prensa italiana le llamó "Tangentopoli". Bueno, pues esto y cosas peores han ocurrido y ocurren siempre, lo que pasa es que ahora los partidos políticos se han vuelto bastante descuidados"

La impunidad de Prodi muestra que la operación Mani Pulite sólo tocó la superficie de la corrupción y la ola de dimisiones, exilios y suicidios (voluntarios y ayudados) que provocó limpió la maquinaria delictiva de elementos superfluos como Craxi y la hizo más eficaz.
El caso de Giuseppa Geremia sirvió de aviso a mareantes porque se había iniciado una investigación sobre otro asunto más grave y de mayor envergadura económica, que había logrado silenciarse años antes, pero que, en 1996, sale de nuevo a raiz del escándalo de los trenes de Alta Velocidad: la empresa Nomisma.

Nomisma fue fundada en Bolonia en 1981 por Romano Prodi y se definía como "centro de investigación económico". Prodi tenía 42 años y ya tenía un buen curriculum. Era un cachorro del cardenal Ruini, criado en la Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore de Milán, recomendado a Andreotti, que lo nombró Ministro de Industria en 1978, en aquel inolvidable período donde le volaron los sesos a Mino Pecorelli y a Aldo Moro. Romano Prodi, que, al parecer no era tan gilipollas como decían sus compañeros de facultad, supo dónde tenian secuestrado a Moro por una sesión de ouija en la que el espíritu del Padre Sturzo (fundador del Partido de la Democracia Cristiana) le informó a él y a su mujer, la signora Flavia, también hembra de católicas virtudes, de la calle y número donde tenían escondido a Moro. Prodi -cuenta escandalizado el magistrado Imposimato- insistió en esta versión y en que había informado a la policía pero se le había olvidado informar a los jueces.

Gracias a estas relaciones con el más allá y con el más acá, Romano Prodi creó lo que Il Giornale llamó "una auténtica mafia" en Reggio Emilia. Nomisma recibía innumerables encargos de informes que sustentaran técnicamente decisiones del Consejo Provincial de Bolonia, consejo presidido por Vittorio Prodi, hermano de Romano. Otras veces, los informes eran encargos perfectamente inservibles para justificar facturas: Paolo Prodi, otro hermano, recibió 150.000 euros por una "Historia de la Iglesia en Bolonia"... Nomisma facturó millones de euros por estudios sobre temas como "vacaciones públicas", "el impacto de la seguridad en nuestra región", etc, etc.

Transcribo las palabras de Pacitti sobre estos informes:

"Pero el pelotazo de Nomisma fue su informe sobre la Alta Velocidad por encargo de los Ferrocarriles Italianos. La factura del informe ascendía a seis millones de euros, a razón de 3 euros por palabra y en él se decían perlas del estilo: "La ventaja de la Alta Velocidad es la Velocidad", "La Velocidad es muy valorada porque ahorra tiempo", "La preferencia por el tren es inversamente proporcional a la distancia: los que viven cerca de la estación tienden a usar más el tren" o "El precio de mercado de un piso cuya vista a la playa esté bloqueda por una construcción de 8 alturas inevitablemente cae".

Según el juez instructor Mario Antonio Casavola, que estudió los informes que Nomisma hacía para el gobierno italiano y regional, éstos eran inútiles, inservibles y, la mayoría de las veces, copiados de periódicos y enciclopedias. Este magistrado, que, en 1996 declaró ante la Corte las coacciones que había sufrido por parte de sus superiores para que abandonara el caso, tuvo que renunciar a encausar a Prodi porque, aunque Nomisma era claramente una sociedad con actividades fraudulentas, no había pruebas de que Prodi (que formaba parte de estas como miembro de su "Consejo Científico" y presidente del IRI) hubiera realizado personalmente tales tejemanejes.

Efectivamente, en 1982, cuando Ciriaco de Mita, tambien encausado por corrupción, encarga a Prodi la gestión del IRI, éste deja la dirección de Nomisma al resto de su familia y él se queda en una sección aparentemente "técnica" como el "Consejo Científico", pero que, según Casavola, Imposimato y otros magistrados era la auténtica matriz de decisiones y poder de la compañia.

Actualmente Nomisma ha creado una filial llamada Nomisma Energia, cuyo responsable hoy es David Tabarelli, aunque sus dueños reales sigue siendo la Mafia de Bolonia de Prodi. Esta empresa se presenta como una Think-tank, o sea lo mismo que fue la empresa en su origen: un criadero de informes fraudulentos. Esta vez acompaña la estrategia de ENEL para ampliar el mercado de centrales nucleares en Europa y Latinoamérica. Sus informes siguen teniendo la misma altura científica y técnica que los que acompañaban los trapicheos de la Alta Velocidad. Pero Nomisma ha fichado para su Comité Científico a Miguel Sebastián Gascón, Ministro de Industria español, y es muy posible que lo que no consiguieron los valerosos fiscales y magistrados anticorrupción lo consiga Zapatero y Sebastián: hundir definitivamente a Prodi.

Ferdinando Imposimato en su libro "Corruzione ad Alta Velocità.Viaggio nel governo invisibile" dice: "El crimen organizado se ha extendido por toda Italia y mi temor ahora es que se extienda a toda Europa bajo la dirección de Prodi." Pero Prodi creo que no ha evaluado la magnitud del incontrolabre cretinismo de Rodríguez Zapatero y Sebastián. Lo que en el mundo de las altas finanzas se habría llevado con discreción, en voz baja y con pocas palabras, que decía John Wayne, aquí se ha ido anunciando como logros geoestratégicos de un presidente inculto y paleto. Y Miguel Sebastián ha considerado que formar parte de una empresa con un historial de corrupción como Nomisma es una medalla digna de figurar en su curriculum oficial y en la web del ministerio.

Rodríguez Zapatero no sabe idiomas, habla mal el español, desconoce los más elementales términos económicos; sus referencias culturales nos retrotraen a lo peorcito de la progresía franquista, pero siempre ha tenido la suficiente astucia de arrimarse al dinero. El escándalo de la venta de Endesa a ENEL, que su gobierno organizó, supone que se ha dado el control de la energía en España a una empresa que representa lo peor del poteri forti italiano y cuya estrategia para los próximos años es la aumentar el número de centrales nucleares e invadir los mercados donde exista moratoria nuclear.

El problema principal, señalado sin rubor por Tabarelli, es buscar territorios cercanos que admitan cementerios nucleares. En España nunca faltarán alcaldes cerriles que ofrezcan sus municipios para basurero nuclear a cambio de unto, ni ciudadanos que los voten.

En la operación ENEL un día estudiaremos cómo la familia Entrecanales se ha hecho con el control de las renovables, no para su implantación, sino para negociar el modo de impedirlas cuando se acabe la moratoria nuclear. Es otro servicio al país del lobby liberal, como Intermoney (también en la hoja de Servicios de Miguel Sebastián).

Prodi comenzó sus acercamientos a Zapatero en octubre 2006, en una reunión bilateral en Madrid donde se trató la fusión de Abertis y Autostrade y donde Zapatero dijo amén amén a la necesidad de una política energética común. Pero, para entonces, el director de la Oficina Económica de Presidencia del Gobierno de Zapatero, David Taguas, ya hacía tres años que estaba trabajando para Nomisma. tambien en su "Comité Científico". Por supuesto, Moncloa no consideró que existia incompatibilidad alguna. Y de hecho, no la había porque, como la Historia posterior demostró, todos estaban de acuerdo con vender Endesa a Enel .

El pacto de febrero de 2007 entre Prodi, que acababa de fichar también a Sebastián para su Comité Científico de Nomisma, y Zapatero sellaba nuestro futuro en Europa con Italia, la mafia de Bolonia y la energía nuclear. Miguel Sebastián salió de las cloacas financieras a la política en unas elecciones a la Alcaldía de Madrid, que perdió estrepitosamente. Ni los mismos militantes del PSOE se explicaban por qué Zapatero había elegido un personaje tan desconocido e inane para enfrentarse a Gallardón. Fue su presentación, que lo llevó al Ministerio de Industria en 2008.

El PSOE ha ido aprendiendo de Italia que la corrupción es una forma de Estado y necesita un entramado jurídico que la sustente y fortalezca. El fraude de las fundaciones, que se multiplicaron por 900, en los años 80 podía ser productivo a efectos fiscales, pero, como arquitectura económica criminal era rígida y poco adecuada para expandirse. Los procesos contra la Mafia y contra la Corrupción en la Italia de los 90 demostraron que la creación, por parte del Estado, de sociedades económicas paralelas, pero cebadas con fondos públicos, eran el blindaje perfecto para la clase política. El PSOE ha calcado el modelo de expolio en ese invento llamado Sociedades Estatales. Rodríguez Zapatero y Miguel Sebastián defienden acaloradamente el think tank energético, es decir de donde proceden y donde están: en un pozo de mierda.

Por cierto: alguien debería pasarle el peine espeso a Greenpeace España. Su campaña descafeinada contra la continuidad de Garoña huele a componenda que alimenta.

No sé de dónde sacas tanta información, pero es muy interesante. La verdad es que Sebastián nos ha subido la luz a base de bien, parece que haya sido ministro sólo para esto. Sólo te falta relacionarle con Florentino Pérez, estoy seguro de que lo están. Me ha gustado mucho esta entrada.

ELECCIONES PARA EL PARLAMENTO EUROPEO

Cuando elijan a quienes van a ir al Parlamento europeo, piensen en los 5.965 euros mensuales que cobrarán, vayan o no vayan a trabajar, a lo que se le añadirán 298 euros por cada día que efectivamente hagan acto de presencia, aunque no den palo al agua.
Si son ex-ministros, cobrarán además, los 5.430,29 euros mensuales de paga que les queda por haber sido miembros del Gobierno.
En el Parlamento español, los Diputados tienen cuatro meses de vacaciones, repartidas desde diciembre hasta el 10 de febrero, y desde el 30 de junio al 1 de setiembre. De los 180 días del semestre, sólo tienen 43 días hábiles; pero no siempre ni todos suelen hacer acto de presencia, y por ello cobran 3.020,79 € a lo que hay que añadirle las dietas y complementos por pertenecer a una comisión de trabajo, que pueden redondear una cifra cercana a los 15.000 € mensuales

Voten ustedes con la conciencia plena de que a nuestros representantes no les temblará la mano a la hora de dictar leyes para afrontar la crisis y regatearle cada céntimo a los parados, y a los pensionistas, y recortar gastos y logros sociales.
No les nieguen su voto.

VIDA BRIBONA

En una cuna pobre fui metido, entre bayetas burdas mal fajado, donde salí robusto y bien templado,
y el rústico pellejo muy curtido.

A la naturaleza le he debido más que el señor, el rico y potentado, pues le hizo sin sosiego delicado,
y a mí con desahogo bien fornido.

Él se cubre de seda, que no abriga, yo resisto con lana a la inclemencia;

él por comer se asusta y se fatiga, yo soy feliz, si halago a mi conciencia, pues lleno a todas horas la barriga, fiado de que hay Dios y providencia.

LEIRE PAJÍN ES TONTA POR ESENCIA, PRESENCIA Y POTENCIA

"Les sugiero que estén atentos al próximo acontecimiento histórico que se producirá en nuestro planeta: la coincidencia en breve de dos presidencias progresistas a ambos lados del Atlántico, la presidencia de Obama en EEUU y Zapatero presidiendo la Unión Europea".

"La mirada que el nuevo presidente está dando al mundo (Obama), y la mirada que incluso impregna a las respuestas a la crisis económica internacional, tiene mucho que ver con la mirada y las políticas que hemos puesto en este país fuera y dentro de nuestras fronteras".

Dixit Leire Pajín, secretaria de Organización del Partido Socialista Obrero Español.

Escribí este comentario en el blog de Leire Pajín, pero evidentemente no ha dejado que saliera publicado (lástima, porque no es mi intención ofenderla, solo darle mi opinión). Hace referencia a dos articulos en su blog (un sobre un video de una niña y otro sobre las elecciones). Afortunadamente gracias a Internet hay otros foros como este.

Leire,
la frase que más me ha gustado de este video es lo que le decía el padre a esta niña: "tu eres por lo que haces... no por lo que dices".
(mi frase es "es más facil decir que hacer")
Por qué crees que la gente NO ha ido a votar?. Decís que han ido en los feudos del PP. Quien les impidió ir a los de los feudos del PSOE.
Aplicate el cuento, sé consecuente y no obsecuente, y deja de hablar para oírte a tí misma, que es la impresión que das.
Eso sí, has amenizado la campaña que era muy aburrida con tus chistes de terráqueos, ja ja.

PATXI IBARRONDO, DE IZQUIERDA ANTICAPITALISTA: EL BOTÍN SANTANDER

Un texto similar a éste fue leído, en mi nombre (por ausencia), durante la presentación en Santander de Esther Vivas, cabeza de lista de la candidatura de Izquierda Anticapitalista al Parlamento europeo.

Han querido los duendes del azar, aunque quizá no sea casualidad pero sí un reflejo simbólico felíz, que este Acto Electoral de presentación de Izquierda Anticapitalista en Santander lo estemos celebrando en la Plaza de Numancia. Numancia es un nombre histórico que ha quedado grabado en el lenguaje común de la gente como símbolo de resistencia activa. La frase "resistencia numantina" se ha hecho extensivo a la oposición de un pueblo o sociedad o alguien individual a cualquier tipo de avasallamiento, invasión o tiranía.
¿Y qué mayor invasión de la sociedad civil que la del neoliberalismo capitalista y globalizante, pretendiendo y logrando (por el momento) acabar con su diversidad horizontal, uniformando todas las riquezas culturales y políticas del mundo para instalar definitivamente el pensamiento único? Esa es la más insolente y efectiva manera de sojuzgar y someter a los pueblos. La Roma imperial araba con sal todo vestigio de identidad en los territorios "bárbaros" conquistados. Ahora se arrasan los cerebros con el arma de la televisión al servicio de la propaganda dominante.
A esta pequeña Cantabria, cuyo eco es como decir una Sicilia peninsular, se la llamó, durante la larga pesadilla del franquismo, el "cortafuegos del norte". Una zanja profunda donde morían las dos revoluciones fronterizas, al ser colonizada por algunas de las familias fundamentalistas adictas al Régimen.

El principal apellido de esas poderosas familias que se reparten el pastel es Botín. La Familia banquera por antonomasia. Santander es su ciudad talismán; ostenta el dudoso privilegio de ser su nido y su catapulta hacia el estrellato financiero. No es necesario insistir en su considerable influencia y su impunidad: el estrecho trato con la familia real Borbón, sus fotos de respaldo mutuo con un presidente Zapatero que sigue al pie de la letra sus consignas neoliberales; sus impunidades judiciales en casos claros de blanqueo de dinero negro y otros sucios asuntos de aquí y de allá. Decir familia Botin es decir poder en grado superlativo.
Todo ese imperio económico ha tenido su origen y su desarrollo inicial en Cantabria. Desde sus raíces en el Paseo Pereda, Botín se ha convertido en uno de los más influyentes prootagonistas del capitalismo especulativo universal. Es un ejemplar de primera magnitud del fenómeno neoliberal de la crisis que está asustando en este momento al mundo. Una crisis estructural del Sistema que ahora pretenden que paguemos entre todos. Pero, mientras los de abajo intentamos salir del descalabro laboral y social, propiciado por ellos, los "botines" del mundo ponen a salvo sus fortunas en paraísos fiscales y se las arreglan para hacerse todavía más ricos.
Los símbolos son, por lo regular, anuncios de una evidencia de fondo. En los últimos años ha habido un cambio notable en el devenir de esta región. El Banco Santander ya no se llama "banco", lo que sin duda es por algo. El imperio económico de Botín se llama Santander a secas. La ciudad y sus habitantes han sido simbólicamente secuestrados. Su destino y su proyección han quedado indisolublemente unidos, más que nunca, al logotipo del banco que manda en esta tierra.
En su estrategia de largo alcance, el banquero de la corbata roja y el traje gris como emblemas ha conseguido convertir esta región en un lucrativo cortijo, lo que le sirve de trampolín y le otorga el lustre del pedigrí de clase. Es esta autonomía, en efecto, una finca particular a su merced y donde reina el silencio por decreto. La discreción es la madre de todos los negocios subvencionados. Por su propio bien, los políticos comen de su mano, al igual que están a su entero servicio otros innumerables vasallos de todos los niveles de la escala social. El Santander más que un banco es una secta ultra infiltrada en los entresijos de la vida diaria.
El ilustre Mandamás acaba de recibir la Medalla de Oro como hijo ilustre de Cantabria y ya recibió antes la equivalente de la ciudad de Santander. El suyo es un poder piramidal absoluto: Maneja las Cuevas de Altamira, maneja la Universidad de Cantabria, la UIMP de verano y la pontificía de Comillas. Acaba de crear, con el gobiermo autonómico (que pondrá como siempre los fondos precisos) otra fundación para impulsar la aspiración de Santander a Ciudad Europea de la Cultura en 2016, cuando carece de una biblioteca pública. Botin maneja todo lo habido y por haber porque no tiene oposición alguna, sino parabienes y agradecimientos de padrino.
Sin embargo, aquel que rompe la regla de oro de la "omertá" santanderina ya puede tomar la senda del destierro o resignarse al ostracismo. Porque los tentáculos del pulpo están por todas partes y no se le dará ni una sola oportunidad de ser un ciudadano. Precisamente por la impuesta y acatada (por miedo o por interés) Ley del Silencio.
La consigna general es: "Al enemigo ni agua". Se entiende por enemigo todo aquel que osa oponerse o siquiera criticar públicamente y de manera efectiva a los intereses de las familias del Establecimiento. Eso es jugar con las cosas de comer y, como todo el mundo sabe, con las cosas de comer no se juega en absoluto.
Aquí tenemos un presidente regionalista de la más rancia derecha, coaligado con el PSOE y en pleno esperpento mediático. Revilla es a las anchoas lo que aquel Hormaechea de entonces era al toro semental "Sultán". En ambos casos y para Cantabria, el horizonte sigue siendo, bajo el barniz hortera de un costumbrismo ruraloide y pintoresco, un horizonte de ladrillo especulativo que no cesa. Una depredación arbitraria y constante del paisaje que es desconocida fuera de aquí. Por más que se perpetran evidencias de espectaculares delitos, existe un curioso desinterés general hacia lo que ocurre en este sempiterno "cortafuegos del norte".

Hay ahora mismo grandes proyectos insostenibles en marcha, que son muy lucrativos para las mafias desarrollistas que mandan en las instituciones, pero nefastos para el territorio y negativos para esta Comunidad, su presente y su futuro.
Mañana ya veremos qué formas adquiere la lucha por una Cantabria y un mundo entero sin depredadores financieros, alternativo, más libre y más justo. Hoy por hoy, la única esperanza de frenarlos, y apostar por un país sostenible, es votar la presencia de una izquierda real y posible en el Parlamento Europeo.
En el Parlamento Europeo se dictan directrices y leyes de obligado cumplimiento para los países miembros. Frente a la construcción de la Europa de las oligarquías, representadas por lo actuales partidos mayoritarios, se necesita hacer realidad la Europa de los pueblos, la de la gente de abajo.
Votar Izquierda Anticapitalista es querer eso mismo y combatir por ello.

Patxi Ibarrondo

Los partidos hegemónicos, de izquierda y derecha, han logrado silenciar cualquier alternativa democrática. Gracias a esa mordaza en los medios de comunicación, rehenes de la publicidad institucional y empresarial, mucha gente no sabrá que Izquierda Anticapitalista se presenta a las elecciones para el Parlamento Europeo.

Poco se habla del fraude a la Seguridad Social, si no es para referirse a los trabajadores que tratan de alargar las bajas por enfermedad o accidentes de trabajo. Bendita prensa, benditos periodistas, y benditos miembros del Congreso, y benditos Gobiernos, aquejados de una ceguera selectiva que les impide percibir el desfalco sistemático que cometen las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales con lo que se evitan la tentación de tratar de pararlo.
Según el Real Decreto Legislativo 1/1994, las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo son asociaciones empresariales sin ánimo de lucro, y se financian a través de las cuotas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales, que recauda la Tesorería General de la Seguridad Social. Traducido al español fetén, esto quiere decir, que es un nido de siluros poco amigos del trabajo, con intereses espurios, donde lucrarse a costa del Erario Público sin tasa, sin disimulo y sin pudor , con el beneplácito de sus compinches en el Gobierno.
En sucesivos informes de fiscalización, desde 1995, el Tribunal de cuentas ha señalado numerosas irregularidades en las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales, como, por ejemplo:

- Los contratos de obra y suministro que realizan no se han ajustado a las normas legales de concurrencia y publicidad
- En el personal y los directivos, así como en las empresas contratadas, existen múltiples supuestos de incumplimiento del régimen de incompatibilidades El personal y los altos cargos han realizado actividades privadas prohibidas por el ordenamiento jurídico, y han creado un entramado societario para prestar sus servicios, prácticamente en exclusiva, para las Mutuas que éstos dirigen o para las que trabajan.
- Esta forma de actuar ha supuesto una utilización impropia de los recursos públicos y del patrimonio de la Seguridad Social mediante una gestión de la contratación en la que los intereses privados se han solapado con el interés público, generando un beneficio económico antijurídico a quienes eran responsables de su gestión. Ha llevado a cabo operaciones distintas a aquellas a las que deben limitar su actividad.
- Ha distribuído beneficios económicos entre los asociados.
- No ha imputado a las empresas creadas por los directivos y contratadas, sino a las Mutuas, los costes derivados de sus actividades.
- Los trabajos y contratos externos contratados por las mutuas no se corresponden con la facturación de los servicios cobrados a la Seguridad Social, incluso duplicando las facturas.
- Algunas de estas empresas han cobrado con cargo a la Seguridad Social por trabajos y servicios que nadie ha podido demostrar que hayan sido realizados.
- Etcétera...

Quienes se encuentran en las juntas directivas de las Mutuas (veáse ASEPEYO, UNIVERSAL MUGENAT, COSTAISA, S.A, PREVISORA GENERAL, MUTUALIDAD DE PREVISIÓN SOCIAL A PRIMA FIJA, PREVISORA GENERAL DE INVERSIÓN S.L.U, AURA GLOBAL S.L, IURIS ASSESSORS I GESTORS, S.L, GESTION Y TRANSMISIÓN DE SOCIEDADES, S.L., GESTION Y TRANSMISIÓN DE SOCIEDADES EXPANSIÓN, S.L., TRANSMISION DE SOCIEDADES URGENTES S.L., SANTA ISCLA UNIÓN, S.A., AGRUPACION DE CENTROS Y SERVICIOS PARA MEDICINA Y SALUD, S.L, UNIDES PREVISIÓN, A.I.E., GRUPO PREMESER, A.I.E, RESTON CONFORTING, S.L., RIGOS STAR PROMOTOR, S.L, TELEMÁTICA INTERACTIVA SERVINET, S.L, etc) son los mismos viejos conocidos de siempre, por encima de los rigores de la Ley y la Justicia de este país, interrelacionados con la mafia política y financiera que se lucra de la corrupción

generalizada y la promueve a lo largo de las décadas y los sucesivos gobiernos.
Por donde pasan se llevan hasta los alacetes.
¿Y la Fiscalía Anticorrupción, contra los delitos económicos? Muy bien, gracias.

Gatopardo

Copio desde la página 28 hasta la página 63 del "Informe de Fiscalización sobre los procedimientos de contratación de las Mutuas de accidentes de trabajo y enfermedades profesionales de la Seguridad Social", realizado por el Tribunal de Cuentas:

II.4. CONCLUSIONES

II.4.1. Conclusiones generales referentes al cumplimiento por las Mutuas del marco normativo aplicable

1. Las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social no han ajustado, en general, su gestión contractual a los principios de objetividad y transparencia a los que deben adecuar su gestión económico financiera todos los sujetos integrantes del Sector Público estatal, incluidas las Mutuas (artículo 69.1 de la Ley 47/2003, de 26 de noviembre, General Presupuestaria).
En especial, las Mutuas no han promovido concurrencia ni publicidad alguna en su contratación, eludiendo así unas de las principales formas de garantizar no sólo la objetividad y la transparencia en su gestión, sino también los principios de eficiencia y economía en la contratación, tal y como ha venido advirtiendo este Tribunal de Cuentas en relación con la contratación de las Mutuas desde el ejercicio 1995, en diversos y sucesivos Informes de Fiscalización (Apartado III.1).

2. Las Mutuas quedaron sujetas directamente, por primera vez a partir del 1 de enero de 2007, a las prescripciones del Texto Refundido de la Ley de Contratos de las Administraciones Públicas relativas a la capacidad de las empresas, publicidad, procedimientos de licitación y formas de adjudicación para los contratos que superaran determinados umbrales cuantitativos -contratos de obras de cuantía igual o superior a 5.278.000 euros o 5.150.000 euros en la actualidad, excluido el Impuesto sobre el Valor Añadido, y contratos de suministro, de consultoría y asistencia y de servicios de cuantía igual o superior a 211.000 euros o 206.000 euros en la actualidad, con exclusión, igualmente, del referido Impuesto-, en virtud de la ampliación del ámbito subjetivo de la Ley de Contratos de las Administraciones Públicas, operada por la Ley de Presupuestos Generales del Estado para 2007.

Sin embargo, esta reforma acometida en el año 2007 se ha manifestado, en la práctica, inoperante para el sector de Mutuas, debido a los elevados umbrales cuantitativos fijados por la Ley.
Así, en las fechas comprendidas entre el 1 de enero y el 30 de junio de 2007, sólo se habían iniciado dos expedientes de contratación que superaran los referidos umbrales cuantitativos en todo el sector de Mutuas (Epígrafe III.1.1.2).

3. La aprobación de la Ley 30/2007, de 30 de octubre, de Contratos del Sector Público, ha supuesto la reforma en profundidad de los procedimientos de contratación de las Administraciones Públicas y de las entidades de ellas dependientes, en general, y de las Mutuas, en particular, y, a juicio de este Tribunal de Cuentas, ha de suponer un importante avance en la transparencia de las actividades contractuales de las Mutuas.
Esta Ley regula la adjudicación de los contratos de los entes, organismos y entidades concebidos como "poder adjudicador", entre los que se encuentran las Mutuas, tanto para los contratos sujetos a regulación armonizada, como para los que no alcancen los umbrales cuantitativos exigidos a éstos (los ya señalados 5.150.000 euros para los contratos de obras y 206.000 euros para los contratos de suministros, de consultoría y asistencia y de servicios).

Para los contratos sujetos a regulación armonizada regirán, con carácter general, las normas de adjudicación de los contratos de las Administraciones Públicas. Para los contratos cuyas cuantías económicas no superen los umbrales cuantitativos fijados en los sujetos a regulación armonizada, la adjudicación estará sometida, en todo caso, a los principios de publicidad, concurrencia, transparencia, confidencialidad, igualdad y no discriminación; las entidades afectadas aprobarán unas instrucciones, de obligado cumplimiento en el ámbito interno de las mismas, en las que se regulen los procedimientos de contratación, que deben ponerse a disposición de todos los interesados en participar en los procedimientos de adjudicación de contratos regulados por ellas, o publicarse en el perfil de contratante de la entidad; y se entenderán cumplidas las exigencias derivadas del principio de publicidad con la inserción de la información relativa a la licitación de los contratos cuyo importe supere los 50.000 euros en el perfil del contratante de la entidad.
La mejora en los procedimientos de contratación de las Mutuas sólo será posible si se asegura el estricto cumplimiento de la Ley en los contratos que superen los referidos umbrales y si se garantiza, para todos los demás, la aplicación efectiva de los principios señalados en el párrafo anterior, a través de las instrucciones internas de contratación que han de elaborar las Mutuas, en cumplimiento del artículo 175 de la Ley de Contratos del Sector Público (Subapartado III.1.2).

4. Se ha detectado la existencia de múltiples supuestos de incumplimiento del régimen de incompatibilidades, previsto en la Ley 53/1984, de 26 de diciembre, que afecta también al personal de las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social 7:

> El régimen de incompatibilidades del personal al servicio de las Mutuas es el contenido en la Ley 53/1984, de 26 de diciembre, de Incompatibilidades del Personal al Servicio de las Administraciones Públicas, y en su Reglamento de desarrollo, el Real Decreto 598/1985, de 30 de abril, sobre Incompatibilidades del Personal al Servicio del Estado, de la Seguridad Social y de los Entes, Organismos y Empresas Dependientes.
> Este régimen de incompatibilidades hace referencia no sólo a aquellas personas que desempeñando una actividad laboral o puesto de trabajo en el Sector Público, pretendan ejercer una segunda actividad laboral, sea ésta pública o privada, sino a la prohibición de realizar actividades privadas que se relacionen con la entidad en donde estas personas estuvieran destinadas. En concreto se pueden destacar las siguientes prohibiciones: desempeñar actividades privadas que se relacionen con los asuntos en que estas personas estén interviniendo por razón de su puesto de trabajo en el Sector Público; pertenecer a Consejos de Administración u órganos rectores de sociedades cuya actividad esté relacionada con la de la entidad en donde presten sus servicios estas personas; ejercer cargos en sociedades concesionarias, contratistas de obras, servicios o suministros, o arrendatarias; o participar en más de un 10% en el capital de estas últimas sociedades (Subapartado III.3.1).

> Este régimen de incompatibilidades se complementa, en el supuesto de los Directores Gerentes y Altos Cargos de las Mutuas, con unos supuestos de incompatibilidad adicionales establecidos en la Ley General de la Seguridad Social, derivados de la relación singular existente entre las Mutuas y sus empresas asociadas (no podrá ostentar el cargo de Director Gerente quien pertenezca al Consejo de Administración o ejerza cualquier actividad remunerada en cualquier empresa asociada, o quien posea una participación igual o superior al 25% de su capital social, o quien tramite por cuenta de la Mutua, convenios de asociación para la cobertura de las contingencias profesionales).

Este régimen singular que afecta a los Directores Gerentes y altos cargos de las Mutuas, tiene una naturaleza distinta al régimen general que resulta aplicable al resto de su personal, ya que no contempla auténticos supuestos de incompatibilidades, sino más bien de inhabilidad, inelegibilidad o prohibición de designación (Subapartado III.3.3).

Sin embargo, ni las propias Mutuas afectadas han iniciado los expedientes disciplinarios que hubieran resultado oportunos, ni por parte del Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales (actualmente denominado Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración) se ha instado su incoación.
La existencia de numerosos supuestos en los que las actividades desarrolladas bien por los Directores Gerentes o altos cargos de las Mutuas, bien por el resto de trabajadores de las Mutuas, han conculcado el régimen de incompatibilidades y han colisionado abiertamente, en muchos casos, con los intereses de las Mutuas, debería haber motivado la incoación de los correspondientes expedientes disciplinarios -el artículo 60.3 j) del Convenio Colectivo del sector de Mutuas tipifica como infracción muy grave "desarrollar una actividad, por cuenta propia o ajena, que esté en concurrencia desleal con la actividad de la empresa"-, y, en el supuesto de actuaciones de sus altos cargos, el establecimiento de la responsabilidad, en su caso, exigible en los Estatutos de cada Mutua.
Consecuencias disciplinarias y de derecho administrativo que, derivadas de la existencia de supuestos de incompatibilidades ligadas a la contratación en la que concurran intereses privados que colisionen con los intereses públicos, deben entenderse sin perjuicio de la posible existencia de otro tipo de responsabilidades, contables, civiles o penales, cuando concurran los requisitos constitutivos de unas u otras.
Así, como se verá a lo largo del presente Informe, algunos responsables de la gestión de las Mutuas, se habrían prevalido de sus cargos como responsables de la contratación de las Mutuas para, directamente o mediante influencia, asegurar la adjudicación sistemática de contratos en beneficio de empresas en las que a su vez tenían intereses directos o indirectos, todo ello a costa del presupuesto de la Seguridad Social (Apartado III.3).

5. En efecto, la falta de incoación de expedientes disciplinarios y de exigencia de responsabilidades, ha contribuido a que, con cierta frecuencia, el personal al servicio de las Mutuas haya realizado actividades privadas prohibidas por el ordenamiento jurídico, en ocasiones mediante la creación de sociedades vinculadas a altos cargos u otro personal de las Mutuas, sociedades que prestan sus servicios, prácticamente en exclusiva, para las propias Mutuas que éstos dirigen o para las que trabajan, tal y como se pone de manifiesto a lo largo del presente Informe (Subapartado III.4.2).
Esta situación ha supuesto una utilización impropia de los recursos públicos y del patrimonio de la Seguridad Social mediante una gestión de la contratación en la que los intereses privados se han solapado con el interés público, generando un beneficio económico antijurídico a quienes eran responsables de su gestión.
Además, con la entrada en vigor de la Ley 30/2007, de Contratos del Sector Público, el pasado mes de mayo de 2008, plenamente aplicable al sector de Mutuas, el incumplimiento del régimen de incompatibilidades del personal al servicio de las Mutuas constituirá uno de los supuestos de prohibición para contratar con las entidades del

Sector Público.
Por consiguiente, tras la ya producida entrada en vigor de la Ley de Contratos del Sector Público, la infracción del régimen de incompatibilidades por parte del personal de las Mutuas no sólo llevará aparejada la sanción que corresponda al infractor, sino la nulidad de pleno derecho de los contratos que hayan podido ser celebrados por las Mutuas con las personas, físicas o jurídicas, en quien concurra esta causa de prohibición para contratar, circunstancia que debe ser vigilada no sólo por las Mutuas, sino también por los órganos de control y tutela sobre las Mutuas del Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración (Subapartado III.3.1).

6. Las Mutuas no realizan suficientes controles sobre los posibles incumplimientos de su personal facultativo del régimen de incompatibilidades del personal al servicio del Sector Público y no efectúan control alguno sobre las incompatibilidades que pudieran afectar al personal facultativo externo, que presta sus servicios a través de contratos de arrendamiento de servicios o a través de sociedades cuyo objeto social es la prestación de asistencia sanitaria.
En este sentido, este Tribunal de Cuentas ha podido constatar la existencia de, al menos, ochenta y dos supuestos de incompatibilidades entre el personal facultativo que presta sus servicios en siete de las ocho Mutuas incluidas en la muestra (Subapartado III.3.2).
El incumplimiento del régimen de incompatibilidades del personal facultativo que presta servicios para las Mutuas, ya ha sido puesto de manifiesto por este Tribunal de Cuentas en diversos Informes de Fiscalización –véase, por ejemplo, el "Informe de Fiscalización de los Centros Mancomunados de las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social. Ejercicio 1996", aprobado por el Pleno del Tribunal de Cuentas el 28 de junio de 2000-.
Sin embargo, ante la situación de escasez de personal facultativo en el sector sanitario español, y a la vista de las líneas de actuación ya emprendidas desde diversos ámbitos sanitarios públicos, para dar solución a la insuficiente oferta de personal facultativo (véanse las medidas adoptadas por la Generalitat de Cataluña, por la Comunidad de Madrid, y, más recientemente, por la Comunidad Autónoma de La Rioja, que han declarado la compatibilidad para el desempeño de un segundo puesto de trabajo de carácter asistencial en el sector público sanitario por razones de interés público), este Tribunal de Cuentas considera necesario que, por parte del Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración, se promuevan, en coordinación con otros Departamentos Ministeriales, en su caso, las reformas legales o reglamentarias que permitan superar y resolver el actual conflicto existente entre dos intereses públicos legítimos –el estricto cumplimiento de la legalidad vigente aplicable al régimen de incompatibilidades, por un lado, y la efectiva prestación del servicio público, por otro, garantizando la cobertura de la asistencia sanitaria que las Mutuas tienen atribuida-.

II.4.2. Conclusiones que afectan a la tutela administrativa ejercida por el Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales

1. La Ley General de la Seguridad Social establece, en su artículo 5, que corresponde al Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales "la dirección y tutela de las Entidades Gestoras y Servicios Comunes de la Seguridad Social, así como de las entidades que colaboren en la gestión de la misma".
La facultad de dirección y tutela de las Mutuas se hace efectiva a través de, entre otras competencias, la exigencia de autorizaciones administrativas previas a la realización de una serie de operaciones de contenido económico por parte de estas Entidades Colaboradoras, todas ellas detalladas a lo largo del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión, aprobado por Real Decreto 1993/1995, de 7 de diciembre.

Este régimen de autorizaciones administrativas previas adolece, a juicio de este Tribunal de Cuentas, de las siguientes deficiencias:

* Las autorizaciones previas exigidas por la Ley de Contratos de las Administraciones Públicas, en su artículo 12, o, desde el mes de mayo de 2008, por la Ley de Contratos del Sector Público, en su artículo 292, para la celebración de los contratos por las Entidades Gestoras y Servicios Comunes de la Seguridad Social –autorización del Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales, actualmente Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración, en aquellos contratos que superen los 902 miles de euros y del Consejo de Ministros cuando su importe sea igual o superior a los 12.020 miles de euros-, no guardan una correspondencia en sus cuantías con los supuestos de autorización exigidos a las Mutuas en el Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión.
Así por ejemplo, mientras en determinados supuestos el Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión no fija ningún tipo de límite cuantitativo mínimo para la solicitud de autorización, exigiéndola en todos los casos (conciertos de asistencia sanitaria), en otros establece un umbral cuantitativo muy reducido y sólo para determinados tipos de gasto (150 miles de euros en cualquier tipo de inversión real), y en otros no exige ningún tipo de autorización previa por muy elevado que sea el importe a contratar (como es el caso de los contratos de servicios, que comportan relevantes partidas de gasto), lo que carece de sentido si se compara con las autorizaciones exigidas por la normativa de contratación a las Entidades Gestoras y Servicios Comunes de la Seguridad Social.

*De la información facilitada por las Mutuas incluidas en la muestra, sobre los contratos formalizados que han estado en vigor durante el período de tiempo objeto de la presente Fiscalización, se desprende que en torno a un 38% de los contratos y a un 33% del importe ejecutado han sido objeto de autorización previa. Sin embargo, este volumen de autorizaciones administrativas no se ha correspondido, a juicio de este Tribunal de Cuentas, con aquellos contratos que, en consideración a sus aspectos cuantitativos y/o cualitativos, tienen una mayor relevancia en la gestión de las Mutuas –contratos de renting o contratos de externalización de servicios esenciales para la colaboración en la gestión-.

En consecuencia, el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración debería analizar la conveniencia de promover la reforma del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión para, por un lado, hacer coincidir los umbrales cuantitativos para los que resulta necesaria la autorización administrativa previa en los contratos a celebrar por las Mutuas, con independencia de cual sea su objeto, con los exigidos por la Ley de Contratos del Sector Público a las Entidades Gestoras y Servicios Comunes de la Seguridad Social y, por otro, revisar el resto de contratos, tipos y cuantías, que han de ser objeto de autorización administración previa (Subapartado III.2.1).

2. El control y seguimiento de la situación de baja médica que da origen al reconocimiento del derecho a la prestación económica de Incapacidad Temporal derivada de Contingencias Comunes (en adelante ITCC) está encomendado por Ley a las Mutuas. La externalización de esta gestión por parte de las Mutuas, es decir su encomienda a terceros, que supone la privatización indirecta del ejercicio de potestades públicas atribuidas por Ley exclusivamente a ellas, necesita una habilitación normativa expresa que, sin embargo, no existe.
Estas actuaciones externalizadas consisten, entre otras, en la localización de trabajadores en situación de baja por incapacidad temporal derivada de enfermedad común o accidente no laboral, en la realización de visitas médicas, o en la práctica de pruebas diagnósticas o la investigación –mediante el recurso a detectives privados- de la actividad profesional de estos trabajadores.

La inexistencia de la señalada habilitación, que no se encuentra ni en la Ley General de la Seguridad Social, ni en el Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión, ha impedido, además, la inclusión de este tipo de contratos entre los sujetos a autorización ministerial previa y, por consiguiente, ha reducido las posibilidades de control sobre la existencia y contenido de estos contratos por parte del Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales.
Esta situación se ve agravada por el hecho de que la externalización del control y seguimiento de la prestación económica de Incapacidad Temporal derivada de Contingencias Comunes conlleva, en determinados supuestos, una ausencia total de control por parte de las Mutuas contratantes, sobre la actividad llevada a cabo por los terceros adjudicatarios de estos contratos, lo que supone, dado el carácter público de las prestaciones y de los fondos que las Mutuas gestionan, una importante debilidad en el procedimiento de control interno de su gestión económico financiera. La dificultad de verificar la efectiva realización de actividades de control y seguimiento, y de evaluar su eficacia (ya que la competencia sobre el alta médica radica en los Servicios Públicos de Salud), así como las graves irregularidades puestas de manifiesto a lo largo del presente Informe en cuanto al control de la facturación de estos servicios por parte de sociedades vinculadas a las propias Mutuas, con el consiguiente riesgo de aparición de perjuicios económicos para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, plantea interrogantes sobre la conveniencia de mantener este sistema en sus términos actuales (Epígrafe III.5.3.2).
A la vista de esta situación, procede que el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración estudie si existen, o no, razones objetivas que justifiquen esta externalización, procediendo, en caso afirmativo, a promover la correspondiente modificación normativa, y en caso negativo a adoptar las medidas de control necesarias para que esta situación no continúe.
En el supuesto contrario, el Ministerio debería promover la reforma del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión de las Mutuas para regular, con la precisión necesaria, la competencia de las Mutuas para concertar con terceros este tipo de actividad y establecer, en su caso, el sometimiento de la celebración de los correspondientes contratos a su autorización previa, autorización que debería concederse con carácter restrictivo, en la medida en la que entraña el ejercicio de potestades públicas, y siempre con las debidas garantías de control tanto por parte de las Mutuas, como de los órganos de control y tutela del propio Ministerio (Epígrafe III.2.1.1).

3. Por último, el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración debe continuar potenciando el control ejercido sobre la contratación en general de las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social, dada la relevancia cualitativa y cuantitativa de las incidencias e irregularidades puestas de manifiesto a lo largo del presente Informe.
La entrada en vigor de la Ley de Contratos del Sector Público y su aplicación a las Mutuas va a suponer una mayor exigencia de que los procedimientos de las Mutuas se ajusten a dicha Ley, lo que que debe dar lugar a un reforzamiento de los controles que el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración ejerce sobre estas Entidades, a través de sus Centros Directivos con competencia en la materia: la Dirección General de Ordenación de la Seguridad Social, la Dirección General de la Inspección de Trabajo y Seguridad Social y la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social (Subapartado III.1.2).

II.4.3. Conclusión que afecta a la Inspección de Trabajo y Seguridad Social El artículo 78.2 b) de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social atribuye a la Inspección de Trabajo y Seguridad Social "la inspección de la gestión, funcionamiento y cumplimiento de la legislación que les sea de aplicación a las entidades colaboradoras en la gestión" de la Seguridad Social.

La Ley sobre Infracciones y Sanciones en el Orden Social, Texto Refundido aprobado por Real Decreto Legislativo 5/2000, de 4 de agosto, dedica íntegramente, dentro de su capítulo III. Infracciones en materia de Seguridad Social, una sección, la número III, a las acciones u omisiones de las Mutuas, susceptibles de constituir infracciones en materia de Seguridad Social, en cuanto Entidades Colaboradoras, y con independencia de las que pudieran cometer como organizaciones empresariales.
La Inspección de Trabajo y Seguridad Social ha levantado cuatro actas de infracción, durante el marco temporal de la presente Fiscalización, que guardan relación con algunas de las acciones u omisiones que pueden cometer las Mutuas, susceptibles de constituir infracciones en materia de Seguridad Social. Dos de ellas hacen referencia a supuestos de cesión ilegal de mano de obra, utilizada como instrumento de captación de empresas por las Mutuas, otra ha sido practicada por llevar a cabo la contratación de servicios sanitarios con terceros sin existir conciertos previos autorizados por el Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales, y, por último, la cuarta de las actas de infracción señaladas, ha sido practicada por no haber declarado la incompatibilidad del desempeño del puesto de Gerente de una Mutua con la elección para el cargo no retribuido de Vicepresidente y Consejero de una empresa asociada a la Mutua.
Los tres tipos de actuaciones detalladas en las actas de infracción señaladas, han sido prácticas habituales en el sector de Mutuas en los últimos ejercicios, según las verificaciones que ha podido realizar este Tribunal de Cuentas.
Asimismo, este Tribunal de Cuentas ha observado otras prácticas, distintas a las ya enumeradas, que también podrían ser susceptibles de constituir infracciones en materia de Seguridad Social, entre las que se pueden destacar: dar publicidad o difundir públicamente informaciones y datos referentes a su actuación, sin la previa autorización; no solicitar las autorizaciones preceptivas en materia de inversiones o contratación con terceros; llevar a cabo operaciones distintas a aquellas a las que deben limitar su actividad; distribuir beneficios económicos entre los asociados; y no diferenciar las actividades desarrolladas como servicios de prevención, o no imputar a las mismas los costes derivados de tales actividades.
Por todo ello, la Inspección de Trabajo y Seguridad Social debe incluir en los futuros programas generales de objetivos que elabore, de acuerdo con las previsiones del artículo 29 de su Reglamento de Organización y Funcionamiento (Real Decreto 138/2000, de 4 de febrero), la potenciación de la inspección que ejerce sobre las actuaciones de las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social, que puedan ser susceptibles de constituir infracciones en materia de Seguridad Social, en cuanto a su consideración de Entidades Colaboradoras de la Seguridad Social: concertación de servicios sanitarios con terceros o ejecución de inversiones sin las preceptivas autorizaciones, realización de actuaciones distintas a las que deben limitar su actividad, distribución de beneficios económicos entre sus empresarios asociados, etc. (Subapartado III.2.2) 8.

II.4.4. Conclusiones que afectan a la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social

1. La Intervención General de la Seguridad Social tiene atribuida la competencia de la realización con carácter anual, de una auditoría de cuentas sobre cada una de las Mutuas, de acuerdo con las previsiones del artículo 71.2 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social y del artículo 168 de la Ley General Presupuestaria, así como el ejercicio del control financiero sobre la situación y funcionamiento de su gestión en el aspecto económico financiero, de conformidad con lo previsto en el artículo 39 del Real Decreto 706/1997.
Los informes que realiza la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social ponen de manifiesto de forma reiterada la existencia de numerosas limitaciones al alcance, la proliferación de ajustes, tanto de índole contable y/o presupuestaria, como de los que afectan al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social –que se ha visto perjudicado por actuaciones improcedentes de las Mutuas-, y la abundante inclusión de salvedades en la opinión de los informes.

Por todo ello, la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social debería analizar la conveniencia de introducir cambios en la forma en que ejerce el control sobre las Mutuas, con el objetivo de alcanzar una mayor eficacia en la consecución de resultados, por cuanto el modelo de control interno utilizado en la actualidad no ha evitado la proliferación de deficiencias en la gestión de las Mutuas, como se pone de manifiesto en el presente Informe 9.
Asimismo, el procedimiento contradictorio establecido para dirimir las discrepancias entre las conclusiones y recomendaciones de los informes de la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social y los criterios mantenidos al respecto por las Mutuas, se muestra ineficaz por las elevadas demoras que se producen en su tramitación y resolución. Demoras que dificultan, cuando no impiden, la consecución de los objetivos perseguidos con las conclusiones y recomendaciones de los informes emitidos.
Por ello, la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social, conjuntamente con la Dirección General de Ordenación de la Seguridad Social, cada una en el ámbito de sus respectivas competencias, deberían impulsar los cambios que resulten oportunos para agilizar el actual procedimiento contradictorio de resolución de discrepancias (Subapartado III.2.3) 10.

2. La información cuantitativa sobre la contratación, en general, incluida en la Memoria que integra las Cuentas Anuales de las Mutuas es prácticamente irrelevante y ofrece unas cifras muy inferiores a las incluidas en los contratos efectivamente formalizados.
De acuerdo con lo previsto en la adaptación del Plan General de Contabilidad Pública a las Mutuas, se incluirán en el apartado 5. Contratación, de la Memoria, sólo determinados tipos de contratos y de éstos, aquellos que superen el umbral cuantitativo de 150.253 euros.
Así, el número total de contratos celebrados por las Mutuas y que reunieron las características señaladas, se elevó, en el ejercicio 2006, a 160 contratos, por un importe conjunto de 112 millones de euros y en el ejercicio 2005, a 128 contratos, por un importe de 87 millones de euros.
Dada la escasa representatividad que alcanza el volumen de contratación incluido en la Memoria que integra las Cuentas Anuales de las Mutuas, en relación con los gastos e inversiones susceptibles de considerarse como operaciones contractuales –el 11,41% en el ejercicio 2005 y el 11,28% en el ejercicio 2006–, la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social debería promover, en el ejercicio de las competencias que le atribuye el artículo 125.3 b) de la Ley General Presupuestaria, la modificación de la regulación del contenido de la Memoria de las Mutuas, en cuanto a la información a facilitar en relación con la contratación. Ésta debería ofrecer información sobre todos los tipos de contratos previstos en la Ley de Contratos del Sector Público, con detalle de las formas de adjudicación y con indicación expresa de los adjudicatarios que hayan superado el 5% del importe total de contratación efectuada en el año y de los terceros a los que se les hayan adjudicado contratos por cualquiera de los procedimientos restrictivos de la concurrencia que permite la normativa reguladora de la materia.
Con ello se igualaría, facilitando la agregación de la información, la regulación del contenido de la Memoria de estas Entidades Colaboradoras, en este apartado, a la regulación existente para las Entidades Gestoras y Servicios Comunes de la Seguridad Social (Apartado III.4) 11, 12.

II.4.5. Conclusiones que afectan a las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y

Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social

II.4.5.1. SOBRE LA CONTRATACIÓN, EN GENERAL

1. Las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social carecieron en su gestión contractual, con carácter general, de unos procedimientos reglados y aprobados por normas internas, reguladoras de cauces formales de obligado cumplimiento para la celebración de contratos de obras, suministros, asistencia y consultoría, o servicios, así como para los de carácter patrimonial o para aquellos necesarios para la concertación de la asistencia sanitaria que prestan con medios ajenos, con excepción de algunas instrucciones internas aprobadas por ciertas Mutuas, que regularon sólo aspectos parciales de la contratación.
Así, gran parte de los contratos celebrados por las Mutuas se tramitaron sin sujeción a un procedimiento preestablecido en garantía del buen fin contractual y de la defensa del interés público, lo que supuso, en primer lugar, una gran heterogeneidad en los procedimientos de contratación, no sólo entre Mutuas, sino incluso en el ámbito de contratos de la misma tipología de una misma Mutua, y, en segundo lugar, una elevada falta de transparencia y objetividad en las contrataciones que han afectado a diversos aspectos de su gestión contractual.
La ausencia de un procedimiento regulador de los aspectos esenciales de la contratación constituye un obstáculo significativo para el cumplimiento de los principios de eficacia, eficiencia y economía que deben presidir la gestión de los fondos públicos, dado que genera numerosas debilidades de control interno, provoca falta de transparencia en la gestión, no favorece una adecuada promoción de la publicidad y la concurrencia y no garantiza un correcto seguimiento de la ejecución de los contratos (Subapartado III.4.1).

2. Las Mutuas no dispusieron de registros o de bases de datos que les permitieran tanto a ellas, como a este Tribunal de Cuentas, un conocimiento exacto de los contratos celebrados y vigentes en cada ejercicio económico. A este respecto, las bases de datos de contratos elaboradas por las Mutuas a petición de este Tribunal de Cuentas contienen numerosas deficiencias y omisiones y no constituyen una relación exhaustiva de los contratos celebrados en los ejercicios de referencia, lo que supone una importante debilidad de control interno, incompatible con una eficiente gestión contractual (Subapartado III.4.1).

3. Ninguna de las Mutuas analizadas efectuó publicidad de sus contratos por ningún medio a su disposición, entendida ésta como la comunicación de la necesidad de contratar a los posibles interesados, por ejemplo mediante la publicación de un anuncio en diarios de difusión nacional o simplemente a través de la página web de la que todas ellas disponen.
Tampoco promovieron concurrencia en sentido estricto, en cuanto ésta se entiende como el hecho de facilitar la participación en el acceso a la contratación, de todas las personas y empresas que puedan estar interesadas en la presentación de sus respectivas ofertas. En los supuestos en que hubo solicitud de una pluralidad de ofertas ésta se efectuó mediante una invitación directa de la Mutua, generalmente a sus proveedores habituales y a sus empresas asociadas. En el resto de los supuestos analizados, la adjudicación del contrato se realizó directamente a la empresa elegida, sin evaluación de otras ofertas, condiciones ni precios.
Los citados principios de publicidad y concurrencia, son instrumentales de los de transparencia y objetividad y de los de eficacia, eficiencia y economía, cuya aplicación por el órgano de contratación implica que la selección del contratista se verifique mediante un procedimiento que garantice la imparcialidad y la objetividad en la elección, en el sentido de que la_adjudicación se realice a favor del candidato que reúna las mejores condiciones para_ejecutarlo, y no en virtud de criterios impropios o ajenos a los que deben regir la gestión de los_fondos públicos (Subapartado III.4.1).

4. En relación con lo anterior, hay que señalar la alta prevalencia de las contrataciones de obras, adquisiciones de bienes o ejecución de servicios, así como de la concertación de la asistencia sanitaria, con empresas asociadas, tanto en lo que se refiere al número de contratos adjudicados como al importe de los mismos.
Este Tribunal de Cuentas ha podido constatar que un 34% del número de contratos y un 59% del importe contratado, fueron formalizados por las Mutuas con sus empresas asociadas. Al menos, 255 contratos, por importe de 19,8 millones de euros, se formalizaron en fechas próximas a las de la suscripción del documento de asociación con la Mutua correspondiente.
Asimismo, el importe de la facturación realizada por las Mutuas con sus empresas asociadas durante el periodo fiscalizado ascendió al 47% de los gastos totales realizados. Es decir, prácticamente la mitad de los gastos de las Mutuas susceptibles de ser ejecutados por terceros, se facturaron por sus empresas asociadas.
Este alto nivel de contratación con empresas asociadas evidencia la existencia de criterios de adjudicación impropios de un marco objetivo y transparente de actuación en la utilización de recursos públicos (artículo 69.1 de la Ley General Presupuestaria), y constituye, por sí mismo, un serio riesgo para el efectivo cumplimiento de los principios de eficiencia y economía que deben presidir la ejecución de los fondos públicos gestionados por las Mutuas, consagrados en el artículo 31.2 de la Constitución Española.
A este respecto, resulta especialmente demostrativo que la Mutua “FRATERNIDAD MUPRESPA”, en el pliego de condiciones generales que facilitaba a las empresas interesadas en la presentación de ofertas, hubiera establecido expresamente como circunstancia favorable para la adjudicación del contrato, el hecho de que la empresa estuviera asociada o existiera un compromiso de asociación a la propia Mutua.
Este Tribunal de Cuentas considera que la adjudicación de contratos, financiados por fondos públicos, no puede ser utilizada por las Mutuas como un incentivo para la captación y fidelización de empresas. Este hecho implica una discriminación injustificada de las empresas que están asociadas a otras Mutuas, condiciona la libertad de decisión sobre la entidad de la Seguridad Social con la que cubrir las contingencias protegidas, y en cualquier caso, no constituye un criterio válido en sí mismo ni para la valoración de las ofertas, ni para la selección de las empresas adjudicatarias, con el consiguiente riesgo de aparición de perjuicios económicos para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social al apartarse las adjudicaciones de las condiciones del mercado (Subapartado III.4.1).
Pero además, esta falta de transparencia en la contratación ha facilitado la aparición de empresas creadas para satisfacer, en exclusiva, necesidades de las Mutuas, cuya constitución_ha sido impulsada, en muchos casos, por personas vinculadas a esas mismas Mutuas, bien de_forma directa por pertenecer a su plantilla o a su Junta Directiva, o bien de forma indirecta, por_estar relacionadas con las personas anteriores. Estas personas ocupan en muchos casos_cargos de relevancia en la toma de decisiones sobre qué se contrata, por cuánto y con quién._De esta forma, se han creado entramados societarios que han resultado beneficiarios_exclusivos de las adjudicaciones de los contratos de las Mutuas, beneficios de los que eran_partícipes los propios gestores de las Mutuas a través de su participación, directa o indirecta, en esas mismas sociedades, a costa todo ello del presupuesto de la Seguridad Social (Apartado III.3 en relación con los subapartados III.4.1 y III.4.2).5. Los criterios de adjudicación utilizados en la contratación para la valoración de las ofertas en los casos en que las Mutuas las solicitaron, no se determinaron con carácter previo en los correspondientes pliegos, con algunas excepciones. En estos casos, no fue una práctica habitual seguida por las Mutuas la de dejar constancia en un acta de las invitaciones cursadas, las ofertas recibidas ni las razones de su aceptación o rechazo.

Estas omisiones conllevan el riesgo de que no se respeten los principios de objetividad, igualdad y no discriminación y pueden resultar contrarias a los principios de eficiencia y economía (Subapartado III.4.1).

6. En la fase de preparación de los contratos, las Mutuas no han procedido a la formación de un expediente donde se hiciera constar la necesidad de la contratación y su justificación por parte de los órganos o unidades competentes de la Mutua. Con carácter general tampoco se elaboraron modelos tipo o pliegos de condiciones generales para contratos de objeto análogo; o de condiciones particulares aplicables a cada concreto contrato; ni los pliegos de prescripciones técnicas precisando las características de los bienes, servicios o prestaciones objeto del contrato.
Estas omisiones llevan aparejado el riesgo de incumplimiento de los principios de eficiencia, eficacia y economía, al no acreditarse la necesidad de la realización del gasto ni prefijarse con exactitud las contraprestaciones a realizar por los adjudicatarios de los contratos (Subapartado III.4.1).

7. En numerosos supuestos, las Mutuas no habían solicitado ninguna documentación relativa a las empresas contratadas que permitiera comprobar su solvencia económica y financiera y su capacidad técnica o profesional para ejecutar los contratos adjudicados, sino que consideraron que bastaba el conocimiento previo que la Mutua tenía del proveedor. Tampoco establecieron determinadas cautelas o garantías exigibles al contratista o en otros supuestos en los que sí se previeron en el contrato correspondiente, no las hicieron efectivas.
En ningún caso solicitaron las Mutuas la acreditación de que las empresas que contrataban estaban al corriente de sus obligaciones tributarias y para con la Seguridad Social, aspecto este último relevante en el caso de empresas no asociadas, respecto de las que las Mutuas no disponen de esta información, dado que podrían estar reconociendo obligaciones a favor de empresas deudoras de la Seguridad Social (Subapartado III.4.1).

8. Se han detectado numerosos supuestos en los que las Mutuas ni siquiera habían formalizado en un documento contractual la ejecución de las obras, las adquisiciones de bienes y los trabajos de consultoría o de prestaciones de servicios con empresas externas, algunos de ellos de relevante cuantía.
En algunos casos, fue la oferta de la empresa estableciendo sucintamente el precio y el objeto del contrato, aceptada mediante firma por el representante de la Mutua, el único documento regulador de los derechos y obligaciones de las partes y de las condiciones de ejecución.
Los contratos formalizados y vigentes durante el periodo fiscalizado, que las Mutuas incluyeron en las bases de datos facilitadas a este Tribunal de Cuentas, supusieron un porcentaje sobre la totalidad de los gastos susceptibles de ser catalogados como contractuales que se sitúa en el 27% en el año 2006 y en el 28% en el ejercicio anterior. Aún descontando el efecto que en el cálculo de estos porcentajes puede suponer el gasto procedente de contrataciones menores, el bajo valor del coeficiente apuntado evidencia una escasa e insuficiente tasa de formalización de los contratos por parte del conjunto del sector de Mutuas.
Esta circunstancia puede tener consecuencias relevantes en la gestión de los fondos de la Seguridad Social que compete a las Mutuas, dado que la formalización por escrito de las cláusulas del contrato estableciendo los elementos esenciales del mismo (la identificación de las partes contratantes, la competencia y capacidad de éstas para celebrar el contrato, la determinación del objeto, la fijación de un precio cierto y un presupuesto máximo, las condiciones y el plazo de ejecución y la definición de los derechos y obligaciones que asumen cada una de las partes), resulta imprescindible para garantizar la seguridad jurídica y la salvaguarda de los intereses públicos que deben presidir las relaciones con terceros de cualquier entidad responsable de la gestión de fondos de esta naturaleza (Apartado III.4).

9. Especial relevancia adquiere la ausencia de formalización documental de los conciertos de asistencia sanitaria, que alcanza unos niveles muy similares a los del resto de la gestión contractual de las Mutuas. Así, en el conjunto de las tres Mutuas objeto de la muestra principal, el porcentaje de formalización de los conciertos de asistencia sanitaria alcanzó sólo el 30% del gasto ejecutado.
En el supuesto de la asistencia sanitaria prestada con medios ajenos, la falta de formalización de los conciertos adquiere una mayor trascendencia cualitativa debido a que la concertación de la prestación de la asistencia sanitaria con personas jurídicas exige autorización ministerial, como establece el artículo 12 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión, y ésta, a su vez, sólo se concederá cuando exista un informe positivo por parte de la autoridad sanitaria competente relativo a las instalaciones y servicios del tercero. El hecho de concertar la prestación de la asistencia sanitaria sin la correspondiente cobertura contractual y por ende, sin la preceptiva autorización del, entonces, Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales, no supone únicamente un incumplimiento de índole formal que dificulta la garantía de la seguridad jurídica y la salvaguarda de los intereses públicos, sino que cobra, en este supuesto, especial relevancia al afectar a la garantía de la salud de las personas (Epígrafe III.5.2.2).
Por todo ello, este Tribunal de Cuentas considera necesario que la Inspección de Trabajo y Seguridad Social incremente sus actividades de control sobre la concertación de la asistencia sanitaria y recuperadora prestada con medios ajenos por las Mutuas, dado que "concertar, utilizar o establecer servicios sanitarios, de prevención de accidentes, de recuperación o de rehabilitación propios o de terceros, sin la debida autorización del organismo competente" constituye una de las infracciones muy graves en las que pueden incurrir las Mutuas, de las tipificadas en el artículo 29 de la Ley de Infracciones y Sanciones en el Orden Social (Subapartado III.2.2).
Sin perjuicio de lo anterior, este Tribunal de Cuentas pondrá en conocimiento de la Dirección General de la Inspección de Trabajo y Seguridad Social toda la información correspondiente a los hechos descritos en el presente Informe, a fin de que, en el ejercicio de sus competencias pueda realizar, en su caso, las actuaciones necesarias para determinar si las acciones u omisiones descritas constituyen infracciones administrativas en el orden social.

10. Las tres Mutuas incluidas en la muestra principal dispusieron, en algunos casos de "contratos-tipo" elaborados por sus servicios jurídicos si bien, salvo excepciones, no se correspondieron con los contratos suscritos en la práctica, que se redactaron para cada caso concreto.
En estos supuestos se detectaron deficiencias en la redacción del clausulado de los contratos formalizados, como la indefinición del objeto y de las obligaciones que asumen las partes, del plazo de ejecución de los trabajos y de las consecuencias en caso de incumplimiento e incluso del plazo de duración.
Es especialmente relevante la falta de establecimiento de cautelas y controles dirigidos a asegurar la adecuada ejecución y cumplimiento de los términos del contrato; práctica agravada por la ausencia de pliegos de cláusulas de condiciones, que se incorporan al contrato y definen con mayor precisión las condiciones generales y particulares de la contratación (Subapartado III.4.1).

11. Algunos contratos contenían cláusulas abusivas, debilitadoras de la posición contractual de la Mutua contratante y susceptibles, en determinadas circunstancias, de causar perjuicios a los intereses económicos de la Mutua y por tanto de la Seguridad Social (Subapartado III.4.1).

Esta incidencia afectó especialmente a los contratos de arrendamiento de inmuebles, celebrados por las Mutuas objeto de esta fiscalización:

*Por un lado, los contratos establecían cláusulas de renuncia a favor del arrendatario de derechos recogidos en la Ley 29/1994, de 24 de noviembre, de Arrendamientos Urbanos (LAU). Por ejemplo, la renuncia a los derechos de adquisición preferente, de cesión o subarriendo, así como cláusulas de carácter abusivo a favor del arrendador, como la asunción a cargo de las Mutuas, como arrendatarias, del coste de las reparaciones necesarias para la conservación del local, por ejemplo.
En todos estos casos, la renuncia a derechos que corresponden por Ley a las Mutuas como arrendatarias y la presencia de cláusulas abusivas en las condiciones contractuales, son contrarias a las normas de buena gestión y presentan el riesgo de perjudicar los intereses públicos, en cuanto rompen el equilibrio contractual que deben mantener las obligaciones que asumen las partes, máxime teniendo en cuenta la finalidad pública de la actividad de las Mutuas como Entidades Colaboradoras en la gestión de la Seguridad Social.

*Por otra parte, los contratos de arrendamiento, en los que las Mutuas actuaban como arrendatarias, preveían, con carácter general, la constitución a favor del arrendador, de una fianza equivalente a dos mensualidades de renta. A este respecto debe recordarse que el artículo 36.6 de la vigente Ley 29/1994, de 24 noviembre, de Arrendamientos Urbanos, establece que "quedan exceptuadas de la obligación de prestar fianza las Administraciones Públicas (...), así como los organismos autónomos, entidades de derecho público y demás entes públicos dependientes de ellas, cuando la renta haya de ser satisfecha con cargo a sus respectivos presupuestos".

Este Tribunal de Cuentas considera que el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración debe promover las modificaciones normativas que correspondan, para incluir de forma expresa e indubitada a las Mutuas dentro del ámbito del referido artículo 36.6 de la Ley de Arrendamientos Urbanos. En este sentido, hay que precisar que alguna Mutua ya ha aplicado esta excepción de prestar fianza en sus arrendamientos, invocando el referido artículo 36.6 de la Ley de Arrendamientos Urbanos. Sobre este particular, este Tribunal de Cuentas ya expresó su opinión favorable en el "Informe de Fiscalización de la contratación suscrita por el sector Público Estatal durante los ejercicios 1999, 2000 y 2001", aprobado por el Pleno en su sesión de 25 de marzo de 2004.

*Por último, hay que señalar que algunos contratos de arrendamiento así como de adquisición de inmuebles, se realizaron directamente con personas o entidades próximas a las Mutuas -con empresas asociadas, que a veces eran, asimismo, sus proveedoras habituales de otros bienes y servicios, o, incluso, con entidades vinculadas-. En estos supuestos no se ha acreditado la promoción de la concurrencia que constituye una garantía básica del cumplimiento de los criterios de eficacia, eficiencia y economía, así como de objetividad y transparencia administrativa que deben presidir la gestión de los fondos públicos que tienen encomendada las Mutuas, tanto por mandato constitucional como de la Ley General Presupuestaria. Sería conveniente, por tanto, a juicio de este Tribunal de Cuentas, que el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración, en el ejercicio de sus competencias en materia de dirección y tutela de las Mutuas y como garantía adicional del cumplimiento formal de los trámites establecidos por la normativa aplicable a este tipo de operaciones, solicitara directamente una tasación independiente complementaria que permitiera una valoración contradictoria de los precios de mercado (Subapartado III.4.3).

12. Hay que señalar también la práctica observada en las tres Mutuas incluidas en la muestra principal analizada, de prorrogar durante largos periodos de tiempo los contratos de servicios y los conciertos de asistencia sanitaria suscritos con algunas empresas, entre las que se cuentan un número relevante de empresas asociadas. También se ha detectado, en algún supuesto concreto, incluso la concertación de asistencia sanitaria con carácter indefinido.
El recurso continuado a las prórrogas de los contratos, así como a su duración indefinida, supone una limitación a la concurrencia. La perpetuación de la misma empresa en la prestación de un servicio supone además la pérdida de la oportunidad para las Mutuas, de realizar prospecciones de mercado con la posibilidad de obtener mejores ofertas tanto desde el punto de vista económico como de las condiciones de prestación del servicio (Subapartado III.4.1).

13. En ningún supuesto, las Mutuas analizadas han verificado la existencia de crédito adecuado y suficiente con anterioridad a la formalización de los contratos, ni han suscrito la oportuna toma de razón en contabilidad en aquellos supuestos en los que el compromiso de gasto pudiera extenderse a ejercicios futuros (Epígrafe III.5.2.3)[13].

14. Este Tribunal de Cuentas ha detectado deficiencias significativas en la justificación de la ejecución de los contratos, que ponen de manifiesto la existencia de debilidades en los procedimientos de control interno de las Mutuas y generan el riesgo de que se estén imputando al presupuesto de la Seguridad Social costes no suficientemente justificados. Así, en muchos de los contratos analizados no existe acreditación formal por el responsable de la unidad correspondiente de la recepción o realización de conformidad de los trabajos objeto de los contratos. A este respecto, se han detectado supuestos en los que no se formalizaron las actas de recepción de las obras que determinan el final de la ejecución y el comienzo del plazo de garantía de las obras, ni tampoco las de la recepción de bienes o de conformidad con los servicios prestados. En este punto las Mutuas consideraron suficiente la conformidad dada por el responsable de la Mutua a la factura correspondiente. Tampoco exigieron en muchos supuestos otros documentos soporte de las facturas presentadas, como por ejemplo partes de horas en el caso de contrataciones de personal de apoyo externo o calendarios parciales de ejecución en el caso de desarrollo de proyectos (Subapartado III.4.1).

15. En el área de la asistencia sanitaria y del control y seguimiento de la Incapacidad Temporal derivada de Contingencias Comunes, se han detectado, asimismo, debilidades en los procedimientos de control interno de la facturación, en las tres Mutuas incluidas en la muestra principal, que suponen un riesgo para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social:

*Así, en un porcentaje significativo de las facturas giradas por las empresas adjudicatarias a las Mutuas analizadas, no constaba la naturaleza de la contingencia protegida (común o profesional), o la identificación de los trabajadores atendidos, o el contenido del servicio o asistencia prestados, o la empresa asociada a la que pertenecían los trabajadores.

*En el ámbito del control y seguimiento de la ITCC se han detectado: actuaciones realizadas por las empresas adjudicatarias en situaciones de no baja médica, o con anterioridad al plazo a partir del cual, en virtud de lo previsto en el artículo 131 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social, el coste de la prestación económica es asumido por la Mutua, o incluso con posterioridad al alta médica.

En todos estos supuestos, los deficientes procedimientos de control interno sobre la facturación utilizados por las tres Mutuas, incrementan de forma significativa el riesgo de que se imputen costes no suficientemente justificados al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

* Asimismo, se ha facturado dentro del concepto de control y seguimiento de ITCC, los servicios que corresponden a la realización de reconocimientos médicos al personal de determinadas empresas asociadas, cuyo coste debería sufragarse por su Servicio de Prevención Propio o Ajeno y no por la Mutua, con cargo al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social (Epígrafe III.5.5.4)

* Por último, este Tribunal de Cuentas ha podido constatar en muchos casos, el incumplimiento de los requisitos que establece el artículo 82 del Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión (que exige consentimiento informado del trabajador o conformidad de la autoridad sanitaria del Servicio de Salud correspondiente) en la facturación de asistencia sanitaria derivada de contingencias comunes, girada a las Mutuas.

Todas las incidencias apuntadas corroboran que los procedimientos de control interno utilizados por las tres Mutuas analizadas, sobre la facturación de los servicios prestados por empresas externas referidos a la asistencia sanitaria o al control y seguimiento de la situación de baja médica que da derecho a la prestación económica de Incapacidad Temporal derivada de Contingencias Comunes, son insuficientes lo que provoca un riesgo significativo de que, con cargo al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, se estén canalizando gastos no asumibles por la Seguridad Social, por no quedar suficientemente acreditada su realización, por no corresponder a trabajadores protegidos o a empresas asociadas, por tratarse de actuaciones no permitidas o fuera de los plazos previstos por el ordenamiento jurídico, por referirse a prevención de riesgos laborales o por no reunir las autorizaciones administrativas necesarias (Subapartado III.5.4).

16. El conjunto de deficiencias señaladas en los 15 puntos anteriores revela la existencia de importantes debilidades en los procedimientos de control interno de las Mutuas, que evidencian una gestión contractual alejada de los principios que deben regir la gestión de fondos públicos, en especial de los de eficiencia y economía, cuyo cumplimiento viene exigido por el artículo 31.2 de la Constitución Española.

El origen de las deficiencias detectadas, a juicio de este Tribunal de Cuentas, se encuentra:

*En primer lugar, en la no inclusión de las Mutuas en el ámbito subjetivo de la Ley de Contratos de las Administraciones Públicas (al menos hasta el 1 de enero de 2007, fecha en la que sí empiezan a estar comprendidas, aunque esta inclusión no haya resultado eficaz debido a los elevados umbrales establecidos para la sujeción a los procedimientos de contratación).

* En segundo término, en los insuficientes controles establecidos por las propias Mutuas en cuanto al cumplimiento de:

o Los principios generales que informan la gestión de los fondos públicos, de la cual la contratación es un instrumento esencial.

o El régimen de incompatibilidades que afecta a su personal.

* Por último, en la debilidad de los procedimientos administrativos de control sobre las Mutuas.

En conclusión, las Mutuas han actuado, en general, en su actividad contractual –actividad que afecta a relevantes aspectos de su gestión y a importantes partidas de gasto procedentes de los presupuestos públicos- al margen de los principios de transparencia y objetividad que eran de obligado cumplimiento en su gestión económico financiera en tanto en cuanto sujetos integrantes del Sector Público estatal, sin promover concurrencia y publicidad alguna en la contratación, comprometiendo los principios de eficiencia y economía que informan la ejecución del gasto público (Apartados III.1 a III.5, ambos inclusive).

II.4.5.2. SOBRE LAS PERSONAS Y ENTIDADES VINCULADAS A LAS MUTUAS

1. EXISTENCIA DE PERSONAS Y ENTIDADES VINCULADAS 14

Un caso de singular relevancia cualitativa, dentro de la contratación de las Mutuas, lo constituye la realizada con personas o entidades vinculadas a la propia Mutua a través de los miembros de su Junta Directiva, de su personal directivo o de otro personal de su plantilla (por ejemplo, mediante Fundaciones, Mutualidades, Compañías de Seguros o Sociedades de distinto objeto social).
En estos casos, además de los incumplimientos de los principios que deben inspirar una correcta aplicación de los fondos públicos y de las debilidades en el control de la gestión económica del patrimonio de la Seguridad Social por parte de las Mutuas, ya señalados en las conclusiones del epígrafe anterior y que se reproducen en todas y cada una de las Mutuas analizadas, se suman, en relación a las entidades vinculadas, otros incumplimientos de la normativa sobre incompatibilidades y de la normativa sobre Seguridad Social, que unidos a una instrumentalización antijurídica de los contratos en beneficio de intereses particulares, podrían dar lugar a responsabilidades administrativas, contables o, incluso, penales de las personas responsables de tales incumplimientos.
En muchos casos, estas entidades vinculadas a las Mutuas, reunieron las siguientes características:

− Se trataba de entidades creadas o dirigidas por personal perteneciente o vinculado a una determinada Mutua.

− Su actividad se ejercía en exclusiva o mayoritariamente para la Mutua a la que estaban vinculadas.

− Además, en determinados supuestos, las entidades vinculadas disponían de un número escaso de personal, a veces inexistente, para prestar los servicios que facturaban. Esta circunstancia plantea dos consideraciones:

- O bien los servicios o actividades que estas empresas facturaban, en realidad se dejaban en manos de terceros ajenos a las mismas mediante su subcontratación, lo que estaría produciendo un sobrecoste innecesario para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social –la utilización de intermediarios para la contratación de obras, suministros, servicios y/o actividades-.

- O bien el escaso personal del que disponían y el reducido valor añadido que aportaban – como, por ejemplo, en los contratos de servicios que tienen por objeto determinadas actividades como el control y seguimiento de la ITCC-, llevarían a plantearse si las propias Mutuas no podrían haber realizado de forma directa con su propio personal el servicio o actividad externalizado, lo que, a su vez, habría producido un ahorro de costes para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

En ambos casos, la mera existencia de un margen comercial no justificado a favor de los adjudicatarios estaría provocando un sobrecoste innecesario, en perjuicio del patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, y la transformación de la figura del contratista en mero intermediario, beneficiario de la operación (Subapartado III.4.2).

2. NÚMERO DE ENTIDADES VINCULADAS Y VOLUMEN DE FACTURACIÓN

En siete de las ocho Mutuas incluidas en la muestra realizada, se ha detectado la existencia de personas y entidades que, vinculadas a miembros de la Junta Directiva, al personal directivo o a otro personal de la plantilla de una determinada Mutua, han mantenido relaciones comerciales de distinta naturaleza con esa misma Mutua.
A continuación se muestra el cuadro correspondiente al epígrafe III.4.2.1 en el que se indican el número de personas y entidades vinculadas a cada una de las Mutuas incluidas en la muestra de la presente Fiscalización, así como el importe total de las relaciones comerciales mantenidas con las mismas.

En el subapartado III.4.2 del presente Informe se incluye información individual de todas las entidades o personas físicas vinculadas a las Mutuas que se presentan agregadas en esta Conclusión. La información incluye, para cada una de las empresas o personas físicas vinculadas, el volumen de facturación girado a la correspondiente Mutua durante los ejercicios 2005 y 2006, el porcentaje de dependencia económica respecto de la Mutua en ambos ejercicios, y el epígrafe del presente Informe en donde se analizan individualmente cada una de ellas.

3. ANÁLISIS DE LAS INCIDENCIAS OBSERVADAS

A continuación se detallan algunos de los supuestos más relevantes de las relaciones establecidas por las Mutuas objeto de esta Fiscalización con sus entidades vinculadas. A estos efectos, se han considerado, por su trascendencia cuantitativa y cualitativa, como más relevantes los correspondientes a las Mutuas números 151.- “ASEPEYO”, 10.- “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT” y 274.- “IBERMUTUAMUR”. No obstante, en 4 de las 5 restantes Mutuas objeto de análisis, también se han detectado supuestos de entidades vinculadas, en el número cuantificado en el Cuadro número 3 anterior, de los que pudieran derivarse responsabilidades de tipo administrativo, contable o penal, y que se analizan exhaustivamente en los respectivos epígrafes del subapartado III.4.2 del presente Informe.

3.1. Mutua número 151.- "ASEPEYO"

La relación comercial más destacable con empresas vinculadas a la Mutua número 151.- "ASEPEYO", de las que figuran en el Cuadro número 3 anterior, es la existente con la sociedad COSTAISA, S.A. (más de 17 millones de euros de facturación anual), sociedad cuya dependencia económica de la Mutua es prácticamente absoluta (Epígrafe III.4.2.2).
Las vinculaciones de la sociedad COSTAISA, S.A., con la Mutua lo son a través de la "Fundación Antoni Serra Santamans", que posee el 70% de su capital social, y en cuyo patronato figuran varios miembros que son personal de la Mutua, entre los que figura el propio Director Gerente.
Toda la facturación emitida por COSTAISA, S.A., a la Mutua en el período fiscalizado proviene de la ejecución del contrato formalizado con fecha 1 de enero de 1984, para la prestación de diferentes servicios de carácter informático. En relación con este contrato se deben destacar las siguientes incidencias:

− No se ha acreditado que en su adjudicación inicial, ni en sus sucesivas prórrogas, existiera algún tipo de publicidad, ni que se justificara la necesidad, conveniencia o insuficiencia de medios, ni la realización de estudios de mercado que soportaran la elección realizada, ni su adecuación a los precios de mercado.

− A pesar de las numerosas prórrogas formalizadas, en la ejecución del contrato se han producido modificaciones tan elevadas en su precio que sólo podrían estar justificadas por la existencia de alteraciones sustanciales en su objeto o en sus condiciones contractuales, que conjuntamente habrían exigido su denuncia o resolución. Así, el precio inicial del contrato ascendió a 840.780 euros (2.227.456 euros, valor actual a 31 de diciembre de 2006), mientras que la facturación en el ejercicio 2006 se elevó a 15.153.371 euros (IVA excluido)

Las consideraciones anteriores apuntan la existencia de una autocontratación encubierta reforzada por:

− El Director Gerente de la Mutua y Presidente de la Fundación (Fundación que posee casi el 70% del capital social de COSTAISA, S.A.), afecta con su actuación contractual a más de un patrimonio –el de la Mutua, el de la Fundación y el de la empresa-, creando, en el marco de sus facultades de decisión, relaciones jurídicas entre ellos.

− Además, desde 1 de enero de 1984 (fecha en la que se suscribe el contrato) hasta el 19 de julio de 2001, el Director Gerente de la Mutua ha desempeñado diversos cargos de responsabilidad en la sociedad COSTAISA, S.A., entre los que hay que destacar el de Administrador Único.

Estos hechos evidencian la existencia de la figura del autocontrato, que únicamente podría ser admitida cuando no existiera colisión de intereses que pusiera en riesgo la imparcialidad o la neutralidad de la operación, lo que no es el caso.

Por tanto, el contrato celebrado por la Mutua con COSTAISA, S.A., –autocontrato- podría estar viciado de nulidad, pues resulta evidente la existencia de una múltiple colisión de intereses: los de la empresa que presta el servicio, los de la Fundación que participa en la empresa y los de la Mutua que recibe servicios de la empresa y de la Fundación.

Además, la referida autocontratación, realizada al margen de las condiciones del mercado, por un importe de más de 34,5 millones de euros en el periodo fiscalizado, es contraria al efectivo cumplimiento del principio de economía exigible en la gestión de los fondos públicos por el artículo 31.2 de la Constitución Española.

Las relaciones mantenidas por la Mutua “ASEPEYO” con la sociedad COSTAISA, S.A., instrumentadas a través de la figura del autocontrato y al margen de las condiciones del mercado, han supuesto un beneficio económico para dicha sociedad, en la que han tenido intereses directos o indirectos el Director Gerente de la Mutua y otro personal directivo, sustentadas sobre la base de un autocontrato antijurídico y a costa del patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

Además, de las relaciones económicas mantenidas por la Mutua número 151.- “ASEPEYO”, tanto con la sociedad COSTAISA, S.A., como con el resto de las cinco entidades vinculadas, cuantificadas en el Cuadro número 3 anterior y detalladas en el epígrafe III.4.2.2 del presente Informe, se podrían derivar diversas responsabilidades disciplinarias para el personal de la Mutua relacionado con estas entidades (por vulneración del régimen de incompatibilidades que afecta al personal de las Mutuas), que deberían ser exigidas por la propia Mutua y, en su defecto, por el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración.

Todo ello sin perjuicio de la posible existencia de responsabilidades contables o, incluso, penales, en las que podrían haber incurrido los responsables de la contratación con estas seis entidades vinculadas a la Mutua (Epígrafe III.4.2.2)

3.2.- Mutua número 10.- “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT”

A) EXISTENCIA DE UN GRUPO DE ENTIDADES ESPECIALMENTE VINCULADO AL PERSONAL DE LA MUTUA

Este Tribunal de Cuentas ha detectado la existencia de, al menos, 55 entidades vinculadas a la Mutua de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social número 10.- “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT” (Epígrafe III.4.2.3)

Entre ellas adquiere singular relevancia la existencia de un grupo de 41 entidades relacionadas con personal de la Mutua, especialmente con su personal directivo (Subepígrafe III.4.2.3.1 y Anexo VI del presente Informe), que constituye un entramado societario que podría estar persiguiendo la obtención de beneficios económicos para sus socios, actuando de forma coordinada, en detrimento del patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

Este grupo de sociedades comprende varias entidades que, además de reunir las características generales ya definidas para el conjunto de las entidades vinculadas, presentan complementariamente una serie de rasgos específicos:

− Se trata de entidades en las que figuran directivos, trabajadores y ex trabajadores de la Mutua “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT”. Así, un total de 53 trabajadores en activo y 14 ex trabajadores ocuparon los puestos de administración y dirección de estas 41 entidades, que fueron desempeñando de forma sucesiva o simultánea (Anexo VI).

En este aspecto debe destacarse la sociedad PREVISORA GENERAL, MUTUALIDAD DE PREVISIÓN SOCIAL A PRIMA FIJA, compañía aseguradora, creada en 1989, especializada en la cobertura de accidentes, enfermedad y asistencia sanitaria y vida, por cuanto en ella ocupan o han ocupado a lo largo del tiempo, cargos de responsabilidad, 23 trabajadores de la Mutua en activo y 7 ex trabajadores. Como prueba del lugar destacado que ocupa en el grupo de sociedades vinculadas, hay que señalar que esta Mutualidad es la propietaria del inmueble situado en la calle Aragón, número 385, de Barcelona, que ha constituido la sede social de 7 de estas 41 entidades vinculadas. Este inmueble fue adquirido el 14 de diciembre de 2005, a través de PREVISORA GENERAL DE INVERSIÓN, S.L.U., sociedad cuyo capital pertenece íntegramente a la compañía aseguradora.

Por lo que se refiere a la composición del accionariado de estas 41 sociedades, este Tribunal de Cuentas únicamente ha podido tener conocimiento exacto de la correspondiente a la sociedad AURA GLOBAL, S.L. –a través de la información pública existente en el Registro Mercantil-, que estuvo integrada en 2006 por 55 socios, de los cuales 43 eran trabajadores en activo de la Mutua “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT” (uno de ellos el entonces Director Gerente), 8 habían sido miembros de la plantilla de la Mutua en el pasado, y otros 2 estaban indirectamente relacionados con personal de la Mutua en ésta y en otras sociedades vinculadas.

Del resto de sociedades, este Tribunal de Cuentas no ha podido conocer la composición de su capital debido a la imposibilidad de acceder a la correspondiente información fiscal, por los motivos señalados en el apartado II.3. “Limitaciones” del presente Informe.

− Para la creación de un buen número de estas entidades vinculadas, se recurrió a sociedades intermediarias (despachos de abogados, etc.), cuyo objeto social era precisamente la constitución y administración de otras sociedades.

Es el caso de IURIS ASSESSORS I GESTORS, S.L., que constituyó 5 de las sociedades del grupo de vinculadas, de GESTION Y TRANSMISIÓN DE SOCIEDADES, S.L., que constituyó otras 5 sociedades de las vinculadas o de GESTION Y TRANSMISIÓN DE SOCIEDADES EXPANSIÓN, S.L., y TRANSMISION DE SOCIEDADES URGENTES, S.L., que constituyeron una sociedad del grupo cada una.

La práctica seguida en estos casos consistió en domiciliar en un primer momento la sociedad creada en el mismo domicilio social de la constituyente, establecer como objeto social generalmente el negocio inmobiliario y nombrar administradores a personas pertenecientes a la sociedad constituyente. En el transcurso de un breve espacio de tiempo se procedía a modificar las escrituras para recoger su actividad real y su nuevo domicilio social, y los cargos de administración pasaban a ser ocupados por personas vinculadas a la Mutua. Este procedimiento ha permitido que permanecieran ocultos quienes eran los verdaderos socios fundadores de la sociedad que se creaba, cumpliendo, sin embargo, formalmente la exigencia establecida por el Reglamento del Registro

Mercantil -artículos 114 y 175 Real Decreto1784/1996, de 19 de julio-, respecto a que en la inscripción primera de las sociedades tanto anónimas como limitadas, debe necesariamente constar la identidad del socio o socios fundadores.

− Muchas de las entidades vinculadas domiciliaron su sede social en direcciones comunes:

- Así, en la sede social ya referida, sita en la calle Aragón, número 385, de Barcelona y durante el año 2006, tuvieron su domicilio siete de estas entidades.
- En la calle Tuset, número 28, de la misma ciudad, estuvieron domiciliadas a lo largo del tiempo nueve de ellas.
- En la calle Balmes, número 49, otras tres, y en el número 28 de la misma calle, igualmente otras tres sociedades.
- En la Avenida Diagonal, número 478, de Barcelona, tuvieron su sede cinco sociedades.
- En la misma dirección del municipio de Alcalá de Guadaira se domiciliaron otras dos sociedades de las vinculadas.Y otras dos sociedades compartieron su sede en la calle Castelló, número 24, de Madrid.

El hecho de que los ingresos de estas sociedades no procedieran de una actividad empresarial desarrollada directamente por ellas, sino de su participación en las empresas relacionadas, les ha permitido atribuir a sus socios los beneficios empresariales obtenidos por las participadas sin evidenciar la existencia de ninguna relación económica directa con la Mutua “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT”.

− Por último hay que mencionar, como otro de los rasgos comunes del grupo, la creación de algunas Agrupaciones de Interés Económico por parte de las empresas vinculadas a la Mutua “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT”. Así, se ha podido constatar la creación en el año 2000, de dos agrupaciones de esta naturaleza, UNIDES PREVISIÓN, A.I.E. (disuelta en 2004) y GRUPO PREMESER, A.I.E. Su objeto era facilitar el desarrollo de la actividad de sus socios, sin ánimo de lucro, a través de la realización de actividades y prestación de servicios auxiliares, tales como servicios administrativos, informáticos, de compras e inmobiliarios. Ninguna de ellas establece en sus Estatutos cantidad alguna en concepto de capital social.

En particular, los ingresos de PREMESER, A.I.E., provienen de las participaciones que para sufragar sus gastos, aportan sus socios. Esta participación se fija en función de los volúmenes de ventas de cada uno de ellos. Estos socios, durante los dos ejercicios fiscalizados, fueron 12 de las sociedades vinculadas, de las que 11 mantuvieron relaciones comerciales con la Mutua.

La creación de estas agrupaciones podría haberse utilizado como una herramienta de captación de empresas a favor de la Mutua, ofreciendo a éstas la prestación de servicios de carácter administrativo, informático, etc., de forma gratuita o a bajo coste. El coste real de los servicios prestados se financiaría por los socios de la agrupación –todos ellos sociedades vinculadas a la Mutua-, recuperándose a través de la facturación a ésta de sus servicios habituales, por lo que finalmente estarían siendo financiados con fondos públicos y provocando un perjuicio económico para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social (Subepígrafe III.4.2.3.1).

B) RELACIONES COMERCIALES DE LA MUTUA “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT” CON EL GRUPO DE ENTIDADES VINCULADAS A SU PERSONAL

Para la exposición de las incidencias observadas en el análisis de las relaciones entre Mutua “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT” y sus sociedades vinculadas, distinguiremos entre tres subgrupos de entidades según la naturaleza de sus relaciones comerciales:

a) Empresas vinculadas que ejecutaron obras.

b) Empresas vinculadas que prestaron diversos servicios.

c) Y, por último, como subgrupo más representativo cuantitativamente, las empresas vinculadas dedicadas a la prestación de asistencia sanitaria y al control y seguimiento de la prestación económica de Incapacidad Temporal derivada de Contingencias Comunes.

A continuación se detallan los aspectos más relevantes de cada uno de estos subgrupos de empresas vinculadas a la Mutua “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT”:

a) Empresas vinculadas que ejecutaron obras.

Desde el 1 de enero de 2004 hasta el 31 de diciembre de 2006, un 87% de los contratos de obras celebrados por la Mutua “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT” se repartieron entre dos de las empresas vinculadas al personal directivo de la Mutua: RESTON CONFORTING, S.L., y ASGENTA, S.L., que presentaron durante los ejercicios 2004 y 2005 una dependencia económica de la Mutua absoluta, ya que la práctica totalidad de su facturación se hizo a la Mutua “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT”.
Ambas sociedades fueron constituidas por sociedades interpuestas, ubicaron su sede social en domicilios comunes a otras empresas del grupo de sociedades vinculadas, y en sus órganos de dirección y administración figuraron varias de las personas relacionadas con la Mutua y con todo el grupo de entidades vinculadas.
Las principales incidencias que se han podido constatar en el análisis de las relaciones comerciales mantenidas por la Mutua “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT” con estas sociedades, son las siguientes:

- Como en todos los supuestos relativos a las sociedades a ella vinculadas, la Mutua no promovió publicidad ni concurrencia alguna entre empresas, en el momento de proceder a la adjudicación de los contratos de obras a estas sociedades.La independencia de las personas de la Mutua responsables de garantizar la correcta ejecución de las obras, respecto de las empresas adjudicatarias, es cuestionable:

    - Así, este Tribunal de Cuentas ha detectado la existencia de intereses económicos comunes de la persona de la Mutua responsable de la recepción o no de conformidad de las obras, su Director de Compras, Inversiones y Servicios Generales, con el apoderado de RESTON CONFORTING, S.L., que era además ex trabajador de la Mutua. Ambas personas son socios y administradores mancomunados de una sociedad dedicada al negocio inmobiliario.

o Además, en ninguno de los supuestos analizados se designó un Director Facultativo de las obras independiente, dado que la dirección se encomendó y abonó a la propia empresa encargada de su ejecución, como una partida más del presupuesto, en contra de los principios de buena gestión que deben presidir el proceso de ejecución del gasto público, que aconsejan que los contratos de consultoría y asistencia que tengan por objeto la vigilancia, supervisión, control y dirección de la ejecución de las obras, no puedan adjudicarse a las mismas empresas adjudicatarias de los correspondientes contratos de obras, ni a empresas vinculadas a éstas.

- Como en buena parte de las sociedades vinculadas al personal directivo de la Mutua "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT", las dos sociedades analizadas dispusieron de escaso personal para la ejecución de los trabajos encomendados por la Mutua (cinco empleados, en total, encuadrados en trabajos de oficina en RESTON CONFORTING, S.L., y dos empleados encuadrados en trabajos de oficina y uno en construcción en ASGENTA, S.L.). En ninguno de los contratos analizados, la Mutua solicitó la acreditación de su solvencia técnica, económica o financiera de las empresas contratistas.

  Consecuencia de lo anterior, los contratos de obras que les encomendó a ambas sociedades la Mutua número 10.- "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT", necesariamente hubieron de ejecutarse mediante la subcontratación de los trabajos con otras empresas, por lo que la actuación de estas sociedades pudo consistir en una mera y prescindible interposición entre la Mutua y los auténticos contratistas de las obras, con el consiguiente encarecimiento del coste de las obras con cargo al patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

- En este punto, es necesario señalar que algunas de las empresas subcontratistas de las dos sociedades analizadas, realizaban el mismo tipo de trabajos directamente para "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT", con importes de facturación relevantes, lo que hace aún más evidente la innecesaria intermediación de RESTON CONFORTING, S.L., o de ASGENTA, S.L. En ninguno de estos supuestos, los trabajos efectuados para la Mutua dieron lugar a la formalización de los correspondientes contratos, formalización que por la cuantía y entidad de las obras encomendadas hubiera resultado aconsejable.

  Sin perjuicio de lo anterior y a través del análisis comparativo de una muestra de facturas directamente giradas a la Mutua por las empresas subcontratistas, por obras e instalaciones efectuadas en inmuebles de la Mutua, y las partidas incluidas en las certificaciones de obras emitidas por RESTON CONFORTING, S.L., y ASGENTA, S.L., este Tribunal de Cuentas detectó la existencia de, al menos, cinco casos, por un importe global de 57.208 euros, en los que se produjo la coincidencia de los conceptos incluidos en ambos documentos, lo que podría suponer la existencia de partidas de obra facturadas dos veces a la Mutua.

  Por ello, la cuantía de las cinco partidas de obras señaladas, por un importe global de 57.208 euros, se ha incluido en la Conclusión II.4.5.11 y en el Anexo I del presente Informe, relativos a todos aquellos presuntos pagos indebidos que podrían haber originado un perjuicio económico para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

Todo lo anterior pone de manifiesto, además, la debilidad del control ejercido por la Mutua y, por tanto, el elevado riesgo de que haya existido un perjuicio para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social como consecuencia de la interposición de estas entidades, al margen de la duplicidad de facturas antes señalada. Interposición que habría permitido la obtención de beneficios, directa o indirectamente, por parte del personal de la Mutua con intereses en las referidas empresas, sin ninguna otra finalidad aparente que la de obtener ganancias al margen del tráfico mercantil real (Subepígrafe III.4.3.1.1).

b) Empresas vinculadas que prestaron diversos servicios, mantenimiento en general y servicio informáticos.

Entre los contratos de servicios suscritos por la Mutua, hay que destacar los formalizados con sus empresas vinculadas RIGOS STAR PROMOTOR, S.L., y TELEMÁTICA INTERACTIVA SERVINET, S.L.

Estas sociedades reúnen varias de las características comunes a las empresas vinculadas al personal directivo de la Mutua "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT": RIGOS STAR PROMOTOR, S.L., fue constituida por una sociedad intermediaria, ambas sociedades utilizan domicilios comunes a otras empresas del grupo de sociedades vinculadas, y en su órganos de dirección y administración figuran varias de las personas relacionadas con la Mutua y con todo el grupo de empresas vinculadas.

Asimismo, presentan las mismas deficiencias generales ya citadas sobre contratación con entidades vinculadas, respecto a los procedimientos y formas de adjudicación y en cuanto a los procedimientos de control interno utilizados en la ejecución y seguimiento de los contratos.

- Por lo que se refiere a RIGOS STAR PROMOTOR, S.L., cuyo objeto social era el negocio inmobiliario, sus ingresos, durante el periodo fiscalizado, procedieron íntegramente de su actividad de prestación de servicios a la Mutua (por un importe situado en torno al millón de euros en el año 2005), con la que celebró diversos contratos cuyo objeto fueron servicios relacionados con el mantenimiento preventivo y correctivo de locales, y de gestión y mantenimiento de comunicaciones.

  Con personal insuficiente (tres trabajadores encuadrados como empleados de oficina) para la realización de los servicios solicitados por la Mutua (tenía suscritos doce contratos en vigor en el período fiscalizado y se prestaron numerosos servicios complementarios sin cobertura contractual), la empresa tuvo que recurrir, necesariamente, a la subcontratación de determinadas actividades de mantenimiento, por lo que, una vez más, la actuación de la Mutua recurriendo a esta sociedad, vinculada a su personal directivo, se debe considerar como improcedente ya que el recurso a un mero y prescindible intermediario entre la Mutua y los auténticos contratistas de los contratos de mantenimiento, provoca, innecesariamente, un incremento de costes para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social y supone un beneficio económico, directo o indirecto, a favor del personal de la Mutua con intereses en dicha empresa interpuesta, sin fundamento en el tráfico mercantil real (Subepígrafe III.4.3.1.3).

- Por lo que se refiere a la sociedad TELEMÁTICA INTERACTIVA SERVINET, S.L., hay que hacer constar que, desde 1995, entraron a formar parte de la misma diversos cargos directivos de la Mutua "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT", a través de las participaciones suscritas por una de las empresas administradas por éstos, SANTA ISCLA UNIÓN, S.A. En sucesivas ampliaciones y redistribuciones de capital, fueron integrándose en el accionariado de la empresa, otras sociedades vinculadas al personal directivo de la Mutua TELEMÁTICA INTERACTIVA SERVINET, S.L., prestó a la Mutua "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT", durante todo el período de fiscalización, diversos servicios relacionados con los sistemas de información y las telecomunicaciones (por un importe de 850.000 euros en el año 2006, por ejemplo), a través de contratos adjudicados directamente sin publicidad ni solicitud de ofertas a terceros, consistentes, entre otros, en servicios de consultoría informática en diversos entornos a través de su personal técnico, desarrollo de aplicaciones de gestión de la Mutua e implantación de una red informática privada alojada en la propia empresa (housing), cuyo uso ofrecía a los asociados, proveedores, colaboradores y empresas asociadas que fueran autorizados por la Mutua.

La fuerte vinculación al personal de la Mutua, junto con la naturaleza de los servicios que TELEMÁTICA INTERACTIVA SERVINET, S.L., ofrecía al mercado y que prestaba a la propia Mutua, generaban una situación que posibilitaba el intercambio y el solapamiento de intereses entre la Mutua y su empresa vinculada, especialmente en lo relativo a una posible utilización indebida, con fines comerciales, de la información que la Mutua disponía respecto de sus asociados y de su colectivo de trabajadores protegido. Adicionalmente, situaba a la empresa en una posición privilegiada para prestar sus servicios a clientes del entorno de la Mutua (sus proveedores, colaboradores y asociados) y ésta a su vez, se veía favorecida por la posibilidad de ofrecer un catálogo de "servicios adicionales" (como la prestación de servicios informáticos y de asesoramiento) a sus empresas asociadas, dando lugar a una red de intereses comerciales cuyos rendimientos serían recogidos en última instancia por esta sociedad mercantil.

Todos estos "servicios adicionales" quedan al margen de las actividades reservadas a las Mutuas por el artículo 68.2 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social, lo que podría constituir una de las conductas calificadas como de infracciones muy graves de las tipificadas en el artículo 29.1 de la Ley de Infracciones y Sanciones en el Orden Social (Subepígrafe III.4.3.1.3).

c) Empresas vinculadas dedicadas a la prestación de asistencia sanitaria y de servicios de control y seguimiento de la prestación económica de Incapacidad Temporal derivada de Contingencias Comunes.

Debe señalarse que la mayor parte de las entidades vinculadas al personal de la Mutua número 10.- "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT" tienen por objeto la prestación de asistencia sanitaria o de servicios de control y seguimiento de la prestación económica de Incapacidad Temporal derivada de Contingencias Comunes (CENTROS CANARIOS DE MEDICINA Y SALUD, S.L., CENTRES CATALANS DE MEDICINA I SALUT, S.L., PROYECTOS SOUND, S.L., PAUTA SYSTEM, S.L., PERPLEX GESTIÓN Y DESARROLLO, S.L., CENTROS SANITARIOS GENERAL, S.A., o MEDIGEST SALUD, S.L., entre otras).

En el análisis efectuado sobre las empresas adjudicatarias de las prestaciones de asistencia sanitaria y control y seguimiento de la Incapacidad Temporal derivada de Contingencias Comunes se han detectado las mismas deficiencias que ya se han señalado para el resto de entidades vinculadas en cuanto a la adjudicación y ejecución de los contratos formalizados.

No obstante, hay que destacar la inexistencia de procedimientos de control interno adecuados para garantizar la corrección de las prestaciones realizadas y la realidad de las actividades facturadas (facturas donde no consta relación de trabajadores atendidos, o empresas a las que pertenecen o la asistencia o gestión practicadas).

En el área de gestión del control y seguimiento de la Incapacidad Temporal, en particular, cobra especial relevancia la inexistencia de informes acreditativos de la necesidad de la contratación, dadas las dificultades existentes para evaluar la eficacia (localización de trabajadores, llamadas telefónicas, citaciones, etc.) o la eficiencia (alta médica competencia de los Servicios Públicos de Salud correspondientes y no del personal facultativo de la Mutua) de la contratación con terceros de este servicio.
En este sentido se ha constatado:

- Por una parte, que en algunas sociedades con un elevado importe de facturación girado a la Mutua, el número de trabajadores era reducido y el número de servicios prestados fue escaso, resultando un coste elevado respecto a la prestación recibida.
- Y por otra, que se realizaron actuaciones de control fuera de los períodos de tiempo en que la Seguridad Social debería asumir este coste (actuaciones realizadas después de la reincorporación del trabajador a su puesto de trabajo tras el alta médica o en el periodo en que la prestación económica es por cuenta del empresario y no de la Mutua)

Las incidencias descritas ponen de manifiesto el riesgo de que el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social haya podido verse perjudicado, pues, por una parte, la realización de la prestación no siempre ha quedado acreditada, y por otra, el coste de las actuaciones facturadas resulta muy elevado, de forma que si la Mutua hubiera optado por utilizar medios propios en la prestación de los servicios, su gestión de los fondos públicos habría resultado más eficiente y económica. Y una vez más, se habría producido un beneficio económico, directo o indirecto, para el personal de la Mutua con intereses en dichas empresas (Subepígrafes III.5.4.1.1 y III.5.4.4.1).

C) CONCLUSIÓN SOBRE ENTIDADES VINCULADAS A “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT”

Los hechos puestos de manifiesto en el presente apartado, relativo a las 41 sociedades vinculadas al personal directivo de la Mutua de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad número 10.- “UNIVERSAL MUGENAT”, evidencian la existencia de un entramado societario, a través del cual, algunos directivos de la Mutua habrían obtenido beneficios económicos, directos o indirectos, al haberse prevalido de sus cargos como responsables de la contratación de la Mutua para, directamente o mediante influencia, asegurar la adjudicación sistemática de contratos, a costa del presupuesto de la Seguridad Social, a empresas en las que a su vez tenían intereses directos o indirectos.
Otro de los posibles objetivos del entramado societario podría ser la prestación de servicios de carácter administrativo, informático, etc., de forma gratuita o a bajo coste a empresas asociadas a la Mutua, constituyéndose esta prestación como una herramienta de captación de empresas, desviando su coste a la Seguridad Social mediante su facturación encubierta a la Mutua, provocando un perjuicio económico en la gestión de los fondos públicos.
En ambos supuestos existe un elevado riesgo de que estas sociedades hubieran estado facturando a precios superiores a los de mercado o, incluso, hubieran podido facturar actuaciones o servicios no prestados a la Mutua.

Por parte del Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración se debe, en todos los supuestos enumerados a lo largo del presente Informe y agrupados en el epígrafe III.4.2.3, así como en el Anexo VI, instar a la Mutua a que instruya los expedientes necesarios para la exigencia de las posibles responsabilidades disciplinarias a que hubiere lugar, dadas las numerosas vulneraciones del régimen de incompatibilidades detectadas, ligadas a la contratación en la que concurran intereses privados que colisionen con los intereses públicos, así como instar a la Mutua a que proceda a la rescisión de los contratos que pudiera seguir manteniendo con todas estas sociedades.

Y todo ello, sin perjuicio de la apreciación, por los órganos jurisdiccionales correspondientes, de otras posibles responsabilidades contables, civiles, e, incluso, penales –dado que algunos de los hechos que se ponen de manifiesto en el Informe, podrían ser constitutivos de algunos de los delitos tipificados en el Código Penal como de estafa (artículos 248 y ss.), apropiación indebida (artículos 252 y ss.), delito societario (artículos. 290 y ss.), falsedad documental (artículos 390 y ss.), tráfico de influencias (artículos 428 y ss.), malversación de caudales públicos (artículos 432 y ss.), o fraude (artículos 436 y ss.)-, en las que hubieran podido incurrir los responsables de la Mutua relacionados con sus empresas vinculadas (Epígrafe III.4.2.3)15, 16.

3.3.- Mutua número 274. "IBERMUTUAMUR"

En el caso de la Mutua de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social número 274.- "IBERMUTUAMUR" resultan destacables, de entre las 22 sociedades incluidas en el Cuadro número 3 anterior, los siguientes grupos de sociedades a ella vinculados:

a) La empresaria individual "M.D.B." y la sociedad BURGALIMAR PROMOTORES PARA EL DESARROLLO, S.L., resultaron ser las principales adjudicatarias de las obras de la Mutua en el conjunto de los tres ejercicios analizados -más del 85% del importe de los contratos de obras formalizados desde el 1 de enero de 2004 al 31 de diciembre de 2006-.

No ha podido determinarse por este Tribunal de Cuentas el porcentaje que, sobre la cifra de negocios de estas empresas, representó su facturación a la Mutua, por cuanto los correspondientes estados contables no obraban en el Registro Mercantil, en el primer caso por tratarse de un empresario individual y en el segundo por encontrarse las cuentas de la sociedad calificadas con defectos.

Ambas empresas estaban, en el período objeto de fiscalización, vinculadas entre sí (la titular de la empresa individual era a su vez uno de los socios de la sociedad limitada y el domicilio empresarial de la primera, la calle Industria número 22 de la localidad de Baños de la Encina, provincia de Jaén, era también el domicilio personal de los socios de la segunda).

A su vez, ambas empresas estaban vinculadas a "IBERMUTUAMUR" a través de la relación de sus propietarios con el Jefe del Departamento de Obras de la Mutua, con quien compartían intereses económicos en una tercera sociedad, denominada MAJOEMFE PROMOTORES, S.L., asimismo dedicada a la promoción y construcción inmobiliaria y domiciliada en la misma localidad (Baños de la Encina, provincia de Jaén). Esta empresa no facturó a "IBERMUTUAMUR" en ninguno de los ejercicios fiscalizados.

Hay que señalar que el Jefe del Departamento de Obras de la Mutua era, además, el responsable de realizar la propuesta de adjudicación de la mayoría de las obras adjudicadas y de efectuar el seguimiento de la ejecución de todas ellas, dando conformidad a las certificaciones de obra expedidas por estas empresas.

Además, estas empresas carecieron de personal suficiente para ejecutar las obras adjudicadas, por lo que previsiblemente tuvieron que acudir a la subcontratación para su realización. Sin embargo, "IBERMUTUAMUR" manifestó desconocer la existencia o no de subcontratistas y no proporcionó a este Tribunal de Cuentas información alguna sobre este extremo, lo que pondría de manifiesto que no existe supervisión alguna de las obras por parte de la Mutua. Tampoco acreditó el haber recabado la información acreditativa de que estas empresas dispusieran de los recursos humanos y técnicos necesarios para la ejecución de las obras adjudicadas.

En este supuesto el recurso sistemático a la subcontratación por parte de las empresas adjudicatarias, podría haber convertido a éstas en meras intermediarias "de facto" entre la Mutua y los subcontratistas de las obras, con el consiguiente riesgo de un incremento de costes para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social (Subepígrafe III.4.3.2.1).

b) Las sociedades SANIDAD Y VENTAS, S.L., y PRAXIS 2000, S.L., mantuvieron durante el periodo fiscalizado, una dependencia económica prácticamente absoluta de la Mutua, así como un vínculo personal con el Jefe del Departamento de Suministros (a través de su cónyuge en el primer caso, y por sí mismo en la segunda de las sociedades citadas), lo que supuso por parte de éste una grave vulneración del régimen de incompatibilidades y un conflicto de intereses que constituye por sí mismo un riesgo de que los suministros realizados por estas dos sociedades, no se hayan ajustado a los precios y condiciones de mercado, lo que podría haber provocado un perjuicio económico para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

Los hechos puestos de manifiesto evidencian, una vez más, la creación de sociedades para la realización de suministros o prestación de servicios, en exclusiva, para las Mutuas, por su propio personal para la obtención de beneficios, directos o indirectos, a través de su participación en las empresas adjudicatarias, a costa del presupuesto de la Seguridad Social. Por tanto, en este supuesto podrían, asimismo, existir responsabilidades contables o, incluso, penales imputables a los responsables de contratación de la Mutua.

Sin embargo, detectada la vinculación de la sociedad PRAXIS 2000, S.L., con el Jefe del Departamento de Suministros de la Mutua (dado que la sociedad es de su propiedad), por la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social, la Mutua únicamente se limitó, con fecha de 11 de octubre de 2005, a proceder a la rescisión de su contrato laboral basada en el artículo 54 d) del Estatuto de los Trabajadores (incumplimiento grave y culpable del contrato, por "la trasgresión de la buena fe contractual, así como el abuso de confianza en el desempeño del trabajo"). La calificación inicial del despido por parte de la Mutua fue la de "despido disciplinario", lo que haría considerar el despido como "procedente" y, por tanto, que el trabajador careciera del derecho a percibir indemnización alguna. Sin embargo, posteriormente la Mutua cambió unilateralmente la calificación del despido, sin haber agotado la vía jurisdiccional, pasando a calificarlo como "improcedente", lo que implicó el pago de una indemnización por despido a favor del trabajador de 163.382 euros.

Por ello, este pago podría ser calificado como indebido y haber supuesto un perjuicio económico para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, por lo que se ha incluido en la Conclusión II.4.5.11 y en el Anexo III del presente Informe, relativos a aquellos presuntos pagos indebidos que podrían haber originado un perjuicio económico para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social (Subepígrafe III.4.3.2.2 y subapartado III.7.5).

El importe global facturado por este grupo de empresas a la Mutua número 274.- "IBERMUTUAMUR" en los ejercicios 2005 y 2006, se elevó a más de 3,5 millones de euros en cada uno de ellos. Este Tribunal de Cuentas ha constatado que la facturación a la Mutua constituye la única fuente de ingresos de todas y cada una de las sociedades analizadas, por lo que su dependencia económica de los fondos públicos de la Seguridad Social gestionados por la Mutua es absoluta.

En todas estas sociedades resulta especialmente significativo el escaso número de trabajadores –incluso inexistente en algún caso- que formaron parte de su plantilla, lo que, dado su importante volumen de facturación, pone de manifiesto que su actividad podría haberse subcontratando con terceros. Esta intermediación innecesaria produciría un sobrecoste en detrimento del patrimonio de la Seguridad Social.

La existencia de este grupo de sociedades evidencia, una vez más, la proliferación de empresas creadas por personal próximo o relacionado con las Mutuas para prestar servicios, en exclusiva, a esas mismas Mutuas, al margen de las condiciones de mercado, y en flagrante conflicto de intereses, en perjuicio de la Seguridad Social.

La vinculación de este grupo de sociedades con la Mutua lo fue a través de cuatro Técnicos de prevención que figuraban en la plantilla de "IBERMUTUAMUR" y, simultáneamente, prestaban sus servicios profesionales en una de estas sociedades, vulnerando el régimen de incompatibilidades del personal de las Mutuas. Además, se constató otra vinculación a través de una quinta persona que desarrollaba su actividad profesional en una de estas sociedades, unida por vínculo de parentesco con el Director Gerente de la Mutua.

Entre este grupo de sociedades, hay que destacar las relaciones mantenidas por la Mutua con el INSTITUTO DE FORMACIÓN E INVESTIGACIÓN EN CONDICIONES DE TRABAJO, S.L. (INFICOT), que ha facturado, al menos, el importe de 501.912 euros en los años 2005 y 2006 por la realización de cursos de formación al personal de la Mutua, cuya efectiva realización no ha sido suficientemente acreditada a este Tribunal de Cuentas.

Estos pagos podrían ser calificados como indebidos y haber supuesto un perjuicio económico para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social, por lo que se han incluido en la Conclusión II.4.5.11 y en el Anexo III del presente Informe, relativos a aquellos presuntos pagos indebidos que podrían haber originado un perjuicio económico para el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social (Subepígrafe III.4.3.2.3 y epígrafe III.7.4.2).

d) Por último, hay que resaltar la vinculación con el principal suministrador de productos farmacéuticos de la Mutua "IBERMUTUAMUR", que es la farmacia "Licenciado B.S.B.", y cuyo titular desempeña simultáneamente el puesto de trabajo de "Responsable" del depósito farmacéutico del Hospital "IBERMUTUAMUR" de Murcia. Además, esta persona está unida por vínculo de parentesco con el Consejero General de la Mutua, lo que supone una doble vulneración del régimen de incompatibilidades que afecta al personal de las Mutuas. La Mutua con su actuación ha favorecido los intereses personales de uno de sus trabajadores, relacionado con uno de sus directivos (Subepígrafe III.4.3.2.2).

4. CONCLUSIÓN GENERAL SOBRE PERSONAS Y ENTIDADES VINCULADAS

Las vinculaciones descritas han afectado en distinto grado a los principios generales que debieran haber presidido la gestión económico financiera de las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social, esto es, legalidad, eficacia, eficiencia y economía.

La proliferación de este tipo de empresas vinculadas a las Mutuas introduce elevados riesgos de que el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social se esté viendo perjudicado por las relaciones comerciales mantenidas con estas sociedades, dado que no pueden obviarse las consecuencias que esta práctica irregular conlleva (apartándose de las reglas del mercado y asegurando la contratación de las actividades que constituyen su objeto social a determinadas empresas, vinculadas al personal de las propias Mutuas adjudicadoras). Ambas circunstancias podrían estar produciendo una distorsión de las condiciones generales de la contratación y de los precios de mercado, obviamente a favor de las empresas vinculadas y, por tanto, de sus socios o partícipes –personas relacionadas con las Mutuas por formar parte de su Junta Directiva o pertenecer a su personal directivo o a su plantilla- y en contra de los intereses económicos de la Seguridad Social, produciendo un beneficio económico para dicho personal a costa del presupuesto de la Seguridad Social, sobre la base de una relación antijurídica (Subapartado III.4.2).

No obstante, para una delimitación más precisa de las posibles responsabilidades de todo tipo – disciplinarias, del orden social, contables o, incluso, penales- en las que hubieran podido incurrir las personas que han llevado a cabo las actuaciones irregulares que se ponen de manifiesto a lo largo del presente Informe de Fiscalización, habría resultado necesario la práctica de pruebas y/o verificaciones en las sociedades o empresas vinculadas a las Mutuas que este Tribunal de Cuentas no ha podido realizar.

En este sentido, en el ejercicio de la función fiscalizadora prevista en el artículo 136 de la Constitución Española y que le atribuye el artículo 2 de la Ley Orgánica 2/1982, de 12 de mayo, del Tribunal de Cuentas, no ha podido realizar ningún tipo de prueba y/o verificación en estas sociedades o empresas vinculadas, dado que el deber de colaboración para con el Tribunal de Cuentas exigido por el artículo 7 de la referida Ley Orgánica, queda circunscrito a las entidades que integran el Sector Público, señaladas extensivamente en el propio artículo 4 de la referida Ley Orgánica.

Asimismo, para poder determinar con mayor precisión la posible existencia de responsabilidades que a título indiciario han sido advertidas en el curso de la presente

Fiscalización, habría resultado necesario el acceso a determinada información de tipo fiscal relativa a la composición accionarial o a la titularidad de las participaciones de algunas de las sociedades vinculadas, así como a la cuantía y destino de sus resultados, información a la que no ha podido tener acceso este Tribunal de Cuentas. De haberse dispuesto de la referida información este Tribunal de Cuentas podría haber delimitado con mayor precisión la naturaleza de las distintas responsabilidades cuyos indicios se ponen de manifiesto en el presente Informe.

La relevancia cuantitativa y cualitativa de las incidencias detectadas por este Tribunal de Cuentas que afectan a siete de las ocho Mutuas fiscalizadas, en relación con la proliferación de empresas vinculadas a las Mutuas, evidencian la necesidad de seguir profundizando en la potenciación de los controles que, por parte del Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales –actualmente Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración-, se vienen realizando sobre los procedimientos de contratación y el cumplimiento del régimen de incompatibilidades del personal de las Mutuas, ejercidos a través de sus Centros Directivos con competencias en la materia: Dirección General de Ordenación de la Seguridad Social, Dirección General de la Inspección de Trabajo y Seguridad Social e Intervención General de la Seguridad Social.

Por todo ello, el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración, en su condición de órgano de dirección y tutela, debe proceder, en el plazo más breve posible, a la revisión de las relaciones comerciales mantenidas por las Mutuas enumeradas con las sociedades que, cuantificadas en el Cuadro número 3 anterior, se detallan en los epígrafes III.4.2.1 a III.4.2.8, ambos inclusive, y que se analizan individualmente en los respectivos apartados del presente Informe, al objeto de determinar:

− Si es preciso, en su caso, poner en conocimiento de los órganos competentes los hechos que pudieran provocar la exigencia de responsabilidades de tipo disciplinario, del orden social, contable o penal.

No debe olvidarse, en este sentido, la posible responsabilidad que incumbe a los asociados que desempeñen funciones directivas, establecida en los Estatutos de cada Mutua, quienes responderán "frente a la Seguridad Social, la Mutua y los empresarios asociados, por el daño que causen por actos contrarios a la normativa aplicable o a los Estatutos, así como por los realizados sin la diligencia con la que deben desempeñar el cargo", de acuerdo con las previsiones contenidas en el artículo 70.4 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social.

Por último, los hechos puestos de manifiesto a lo largo del presente Informe sobre la proliferación de personas o entidades vinculadas a las Mutuas analizadas, evidencian un elevado riesgo de que este tipo de prácticas irregulares se puedan estar produciendo en otras Mutuas, por lo que el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración debe adoptar las medidas necesarias para determinar el alcance de esta situación, a fin de adoptar, en su caso, las medidas necesarias para su corrección (Subapartado III.4.2).

NOTAS

7 Las Mutuas "ASEPEYO" e "IBERMUTUAMUR" han formulado a este respecto unas alegaciones idénticas y meramente argumentativas en las que tratan de sostener, de modo contrapuesto a lo que dispone la legislación vigente, que la Ley 53/1984, de 26 de diciembre, de Incompatibilidades del Personal al Servicio de las Administraciones Públicas no les resulta de aplicación.
En términos parecidos se ha manifestado la Mutua "UNIMAT" en su escrito de alegaciones.
A este respecto baste ahora recordar como se señala en el apartado III.3 del presente Informe, que la Ley 53/1984, de 26 de diciembre, de Incompatibilidades, delimita en su artículo 2 su ámbito subjetivo de aplicación, es decir, señala a qué personal resulta de aplicación y afirma, en su apartado 1, que "la presente Ley será de aplicación a*: ...f)* el personal al servicio de la Seguridad Social, de sus Entidades Gestoras y de cualquier otra Entidad u Organismo de la misma", así como a "g) el personal al servicio de entidades*, corporaciones de derecho público, fundaciones y consorcios* cuyos presupuestos se doten ordinariamente en más de un 50 por 100 con subvenciones u otros ingresos procedentes de las Administraciones Públicas".
En sus alegaciones, las Mutuas "ASEPEYO", "UNIMAT" e "IBERMUTUAMUR" admiten que la delimitación subjetiva del ámbito de aplicación de la Ley de Incompatibilidades "es la incluida en el artículo 2, donde se determinan las tipologías de personal concretas a las que les es de aplicación la ley".
No admiten, sin embargo, que las Mutuas puedan considerarse integradas en el concepto "cualquier otra entidad" de la Seguridad Social a que se refiere la letra f) del artículo 2 de la Ley recién transcrito.
La simple lectura en su integridad del artículo 2 de la Ley 53/1984, de 26 de diciembre, de Incompatibilidades, evidencia que el ámbito subjetivo de aplicación de esta Ley está diseñado de manera no organicista, y de forma extensa, exhaustiva y omnicomprensiva, abarcando todo el personal del sector público, desde el personal civil y militar de las Administraciones Públicas, hasta el personal de cualesquiera entidades financiadas en más del 50 por 100 con fondos públicos con independencia de su naturaleza jurídica, pasando por el personal que desempeñe funciones públicas y perciba sus retribuciones mediante arancel, e incluyendo "todo el personal, cualquiera que sea la naturaleza jurídica de la relación de empleo" Es en este contexto en el que la Ley de Incompatibilidades se refiere en el citado artículo 2, apartado 1, letra f), a todo el "personal al servicio de la Seguridad Social", sea éste "de sus Entidades Gestoras" o de "cualquier otra Entidad u Organismo de la misma". Como es obvio, el personal al servicio de las Mutuas es personal no dependiente orgánicamente de las Entidades Gestoras de la Seguridad Social, pero desde luego, sí es personal al servicio de la Seguridad Social en relación con la gestión de contingencias de accidentes de trabajo y enfermedades profesionales o con la gestión de la prestación económica de Incapacidad Temporal derivada de Contingencias Comunes, de acuerdo con el artículo 68 del TRLGSS y con el Real Decreto 1993/1995, de 7 de diciembre, por el que se aprueba el Reglamento sobre colaboración en la gestión de las Mutuas, y, en cualquier caso, es personal retribuido con cargo al Presupuesto de la Seguridad Social. A este respecto, las Mutuas "ASEPEYO" e "IBERMUTUAMUR" parecen soslayar en sus alegaciones el hecho de que ambas son Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social.
En cualquier caso, las únicas "otras Entidades" de la Seguridad Social, a las que se refiere la Ley de Incompatibilidades, distintas de sus Entidades Gestoras u Organismos Autónomos o asimilados (como lo es la Tesorería General de la Seguridad Social en virtud de la disposición adicional sexta de la Ley 6/1997, de 14 de abril, de Organización y Funcionamiento de la Administración General del Estado), sólo pueden ser las Mutuas ya que no existen "otras Entidades" distintas de éstas, a las que pueda referirse la Ley.
Por otra parte, las Mutuas "ASEPEYO" e "IBERMUTUAMUR" consideran, en relación con el hecho de que las retribuciones del personal de las Mutuas sean abonadas con cargo a fondos públicos, que "el Tribunal de Cuentas intenta confundir una argumentación teórica con una regulación inexistente".
A este respecto, estas Mutuas parecen no tener presente que el artículo 2.1.g) de la Ley de Incompatibilidades dispone que "La presente Ley será de aplicación a*: (...) g) el* personal al servicio de entidades*, (...)* cuyos presupuestos se doten ordinariamente en más de un 50 por 100 con (...) ingresos procedentes de las Administraciones Públicas". La mera lectura de este precepto evita la realización de cualquier otra puntualización, habida cuenta que los Presupuestos de las Mutuas se dotan ordinariamente al 100 por 100 con cargo a los Presupuestos Generales del Estado, a través de los ingresos procedentes de las cotizaciones de la Seguridad Social.
A mayor abundamiento, la Ley 53/1984, de 26 de diciembre, de Incompatibilidades establece expresamente en su artículo 1 que "A los solos efectos de esta Ley se considerará actividad en el sector público la desarrollada por*... los altos cargos y restante personal... de todas las Administraciones Públicas (...)* entendiéndose comprendidas las Entidades colaboradoras y las concertadas de la Seguridad Social en la prestación sanitaria".
Las Mutuas "ASEPEYO" e "IBERMUTUAMUR" sostienen, sin embargo:

- En primer lugar, que este artículo 1 de la Ley afectaría únicamente a los empleados públicos que pretendieran ocupar un segundo puesto de trabajo en una Mutua, pero no a los trabajadores de las Mutuas.

Esta interpretación, meramente argumentativa, trata de soslayar el hecho previo de que el personal de las Mutuas, por lo expuesto anteriormente, está incluido en el ámbito subjetivo de aplicación de la Ley y no puede evitar, ni anular, el hecho incontrovertible de que entre las actividades que expresamente se consideran por la Ley como actividades del sector público, estén expresamente consignadas las desarrolladas por el personal de las Entidades Colaboradoras de la Seguridad Social (las Mutuas). Donde la Ley no distingue –ya que no hace excepciones en relación con el alcance de las actividades desempeñadas en el ámbito del sector público a los efectos de la aplicación del régimen de incompatibilidades (entre las que están incluidas las del personal de las Mutuas)-, las Mutuas "ASEPEYO" e "IBERMUTUAMUR" pretenden aplicarse una excepción excluyente no contemplada en la norma (ubi lex non distinguit nec nos distinguere debemus)

- En segundo lugar, las propias Mutuas "ASEPEYO" e "IBERMUTUAMUR" reconocen, en abierta contradicción con su argumentación anterior, que "las Mutuas, en principio estarían incluidas dentro del concepto funcional de sector público que a estos efectos establece la Ley de Incompatibilidades". Pero apelan a su naturaleza de entidades asociativas de naturaleza jurídico privada (citando jurisprudencia constitucional), para concluir que "el personal que conforma las plantillas de las Mutuas se somete, pues, al Estatuto de los Trabajadores y, en consecuencia y al menos en principio, debería quedar completamente al margen de la Ley de Incompatibilidades de 1984".
A este respecto cabe simplemente insistir en que en ningún momento el presente Informe ha puesto en duda la naturaleza asociativa de las Mutuas. Es la propia Ley de Incompatibilidades, y no el Tribunal de Cuentas, la que, "a los solos efectos de esta Ley", califica la actividad del personal de las Mutuas como "actividad del sector público", de igual manera que esta Ley engloba en dicho concepto, además, la actividad de todo el personal de todos los entes, organismos y empresas del Sector Público, por mucho que se trate de entes de Derecho privado, y cualquiera que sea su naturaleza jurídica (artículo 1), así como la de la relación de empleo de su personal. Precisamente, la propia Ley tiene presente esta circunstancia expresamente en su artículo 2, apartado 2, cuando incluye en su ámbito de aplicación a "todo el personal, cualquiera que sea la naturaleza jurídica de la relación de empleo", lo que incluye, obviamente, no sólo al personal sujeto al régimen estatutario de la función pública, sino también al personal sujeto al régimen laboral común del Estatuto de los Trabajadores.

En definitiva, es la Ley 53/1984, de 26 de diciembre, de Incompatibilidades, y no el Tribunal de Cuentas, la que sujeta a su disciplina reguladora al personal al servicio de cualquier Entidad, sea cual sea su naturaleza jurídica, financiada en más de un 50 por 100 con fondos públicos, incluido, todo el personal de la Seguridad Social sea éste "de sus Entidades Gestoras" o de "cualquier otra Entidad u Organismo de la misma"; y es también la Ley, y no el Tribunal de Cuentas, la que, "a los solos efectos de esta Ley", califica expresamente la actividad del personal de las Mutuas como "actividad del sector público".

8 En trámite de alegaciones, la Dirección General de la Inspección de Trabajo y de Seguridad Social ha informado de que, a partir del cuarto trimestre del año 2007 acometió la tarea de reactivar la realización de actuaciones inspectoras sobre el cumplimiento de las obligaciones de colaboración de las Mutuas, planificando la actividad inspectora en base a la información solicitada al efecto a la Dirección General de Ordenación de la Seguridad Social.
Fruto de esta reactivación, en el año 2008 se han realizado actuaciones de comprobación sobre 21 Mutuas, respecto a la autorización previa del Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración de los conciertos de asistencia sanitaria suscritos con el sector privado, habiendo sido confirmadas en vía administrativa las actas extendidas a diez de dichas Mutuas por infracción muy grave por incumplimiento de dicha obligación.
Asimismo, y por lo que respecta a la verificación de la separación real y efectiva de las actividades desarrolladas por las Mutuas en materia de prevención de riesgos laborales, la referida Dirección General ha informado de que, durante 2008, está llevando actuaciones inspectoras sobre cuatro Mutuas, que se harán extensivas, en el año 2009, a otras cinco Mutuas, y que, en el plazo de cinco años, se generalizarán a todas las entidades del sector.
Por último, la Dirección General de la Inspección de Trabajo y Seguridad Social ha indicado de que se está analizando, conjuntamente con la Dirección General de Ordenación de la Seguridad Social, la posibilidad de actuación en otros seis capítulos relacionados con las Mutuas.

9 En trámite de alegaciones, la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social ha manifestado que no le corresponde determinar cual debe ser el modelo de control interno aplicable a las Mutuas, ni tampoco su posible modificación o potenciación, ya que estas cuestiones se encuentran reguladas en la Ley General Presupuestaria (artículo 168, por lo que respecta a la auditoría de cuentas, y artículo 167.4, en cuanto a la cobertura legal del informe adicional al de auditoría de cuentas, que anualmente viene realizando sobre cada una de las Mutuas).

Este Tribunal de Cuentas no puede aceptar la alegación formulada, dado que la recomendación está referida a la introducción de "cambios en la forma en que se ejerce el control", cambios que podrían alcanzarse intensificando los controles que se ejercen actualmente (incrementando los recursos materiales y/o humanos, diversificando el objeto de los controles, realizando auditorías de tipo horizontal sobre determinados aspectos clave de la gestión económico financiera de las Mutuas...). Y todo ello en base a las previsiones del artículo 147.1 de la Ley General Presupuestaria, cuando dispone que "el Gobierno a propuesta de la Intervención General de la Administración del Estado, y a iniciativa de la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social, aprobará las normas para el ejercicio por esta última del control en las entidades que integran el sistema de la Seguridad Social", y del artículo 165, cuando atribuye a la Intervención General de la Administración del Estado la competencia para elaborar el Plan anual de auditorías, en el que se incluirán las actuaciones a realizar durante el correspondiente ejercicio... por la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social".

10 La Intervención General de la Seguridad Social ha informado, en trámite de alegaciones, de que "está estudiando la posibilidad de modificar el procedimiento de discrepancia con la finalidad de acortar su duración y de esta forma hacerlo más eficaz".

11 La Intervención General de la Seguridad Social ha comunicado, en trámite de alegaciones, que está desarrollando una modificación de la Adaptación del Plan General de Contabilidad a las Mutuas, en la cual "está previsto entre otros aspectos, actualizar la información relativa a la contratación que suministran las MATEPSS en sus cuentas anuales, de forma que recoja con mayor detalle las operaciones contractuales que efectúen estas entidades adaptadas a las formas de adjudicación y tipos de contratos contemplados en la normativa vigente".
Efectivamente, mediante Resolución de 20 de enero de 2009 (B.O.E. número 29 de 3 de febrero), de la Intervención General de la Administración del Estado, se ha modificado la adaptación del Plan General de Contabilidad Pública a las Mutuas de Accidentes de Trabajo y Enfermedades Profesionales de la Seguridad Social. Su Apartado Segundo introduce una serie de modificaciones en el contenido de la memoria, aplicables ya en la elaboración de las Cuentas anuales del ejercicio 2008, entre las que destaca la información a incluir en su apartado 5.- "Contratación", ya plenamente homologable con la exigida para las Entidades Gestoras y Servicios Comunes de la Seguridad Social y coincidente con la tipología de contratos establecida por la Ley de Contratos del Sector Público.

12 Las Mutuas "ASEPEYO" e "IBERMUTUAMUR", en trámite de alegaciones, han realizado una revisión del marco normativo de control al que están sometidas, llegando a afirmar que "aunque las Mutuas son entidades privadas en cuanto a su formación, las funciones que realizan son entendidas por la Administración Pública como públicas por lo que el régimen jurídico de las Mutuas está totalmente determinado por las normas, no dejando margen a la autonomía de creación y funcionamiento de las mismas".
Ambas Mutuas hacen un repaso del ordenamiento jurídico recopilando aquellas obligaciones, relacionadas con su gestión económico financiera, que les resultan exigibles a las Mutuas: sujeción al Plan de Contabilidad Pública; rendición de cuentas al Tribunal de Cuentas; integración de sus presupuestos en el Presupuesto de la Seguridad Social; gestión recaudatoria de sus recursos por la Tesorería General de la Seguridad Social; límite de sus gastos de administración; u operaciones patrimoniales sujetas al Reglamento sobre el patrimonio de la Seguridad Social y/o a la autorización ministerial.
Tras este estudio las Mutuas "ASEPEYO" e "IBERMUTUAMUR" concluyen que "sorprende, una vez más, que el Anteproyecto de Informe pretenda ignorar o, en todo caso, omitir la existencia de estos controles...". De esta conclusión parece desprenderse que las Mutuas alegantes –o más concretamente la persona que ha ejercido su representación en el trámite de alegaciones- no han analizado con detalle el Anteproyecto remitido, dado que en el mismo se dedica un apartado específico a señalar el marco jurídico aplicable al sector de Mutuas y a la materia objeto de fiscalización; otro apartado concreto a especificar el régimen de tutela –y, por tanto, de control- del Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración, a través de cada uno de sus Centros Directivos con competencias en la materia –Dirección General de Ordenación de la Seguridad Social, Inspección de Trabajo y Seguridad Social e Intervención General de la Seguridad Social-; y, por último, en cada uno de los restantes apartados del Informe se realiza un análisis exhaustivo del marco jurídico que regula el funcionamiento de cada una de las materias analizadas.
Asimismo, el análisis de la normativa de control al que están sometidas las Mutuas conduce a los alegantes ("ASEPEYO" e "IBERMUTUAMUR"), a afirmar que "todas sus cuentas, hasta las del ejercicio 2006, inclusive, han sido auditadas por la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social, se ha sometido a las inspecciones pertinentes de la Dirección General de Ordenación de la Seguridad Social y... facilitado toda la información que le ha requerido el Tribunal de Cuentas... al que consta que la(s) Mutua(s) compareciente(s) ha(n) conformado sus cuentas con arreglo a la normativa vigente y que su actuación no ha merecido ninguna observación de irregularidad que no fuere menor o subsanada", lo que pone de manifiesto un desconocimiento de los procedimientos mediante los que se ejerce la función fiscalizadora del Tribunal de Cuentas, identificando erróneamente los objetivos y alcance del examen y comprobación de la Cuenta General del Estado de cada ejercicio, con los de las Fiscalizaciones de carácter singular que, en el ejercicio de las competencias atribuidas por el artículo 3.a) de la Ley 7/1988, de 5 de abril, aprueba anualmente el Pleno del Tribunal de Cuentas.

13 La Intervención General de la Seguridad Social ha manifestado, en trámite de alegaciones, que "la incorporación de estas entidades al Sistema de Información Contable de la Seguridad Social –a partir del ejercicio 2007-, supone un importante avance en la gestión económico financiera de las Mutuas, por cuanto permite aplicar con mayor rigor y uniformidad la normativa contable y presupuestaria".

14 A los efectos exclusivos de la presente Fiscalización se han considerado personas o entidades vinculadas:

- Aquellas personas físicas o jurídicas que, en el ejercicio de su actividad profesional o en el ejercicio de la actividad que se derive de su objeto social, han mantenido relaciones de tipo comercial, soportadas en contratos o sin cobertura contractual, con una determinada Mutua y que, además, se encuentran relacionadas con la Mutua:

  - En el supuesto de personas físicas, directamente por pertenecer o haber pertenecido a su Junta Directiva, a su personal directivo o a su plantilla; o indirectamente, por estar vinculadas por razón de parentesco con alguno de sus integrantes.

  - En el supuesto de empresas u otras personas jurídicas, por contar o haber contado en sus órganos de dirección o administración o en su plantilla con personas que o bien directamente pertenezcan simultáneamente a la Junta Directiva, al personal directivo o a la plantilla de la Mutua; o indirectamente estén vinculadas, por relación de parentesco, o por compartir intereses económicos a través de otras sociedades, con alguno de sus integrantes.

- Aquellas sociedades que posean o hayan poseído participaciones en el capital de las anteriores, de las que ha tenido conocimiento este Tribunal de Cuentas a través de la información pública existente en los correspondientes Registros Mercantiles.

- Aquellas personas o entidades integrantes de la Junta Directiva que hayan percibido retribuciones en concepto de administración complementaria de la directa, a pesar de la prohibición explícita que efectúa el artículo 75.2 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social, que considera esta percepción como una de las causas de inelegibilidad para integrar los órganos de dirección de las Mutuas.

15 El Ministerio de Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales informó a este Tribunal de Cuentas, con fecha 9 de octubre de 2007, de la existencia de dos informes especiales emitidos por la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social, en el ejercicio de sus competencias en materia de control interno de la gestión económico financiera de las Mutuas, reguladas en el Real Decreto 706/1997, de 16 de mayo.
El primero de los informes especiales fue remitido por la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social a la Intervención General de la Administración del Estado y a la Fiscalía General del Estado, con fecha 22 de junio de 2007, y en él se ponían de manifiesto "graves irregularidades de gestión, consistentes en la existencia de múltiples vinculaciones e interrelaciones entre una serie de empresas mercantiles y la propia Mutua".
El segundo informe especial fue remitido por la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social a la Presidencia de la Sección de Enjuiciamiento de este Tribunal de Cuentas, con fecha 19 de julio de 2007, y en él se hacían constar "irregularidades detectadas en el ámbito de colaboración en la gestión de la prestación económica de incapacidad temporal derivada de contingencias comunes, que afectan a los gastos relativos al control y seguimiento de esta prestación" y de los que podría deducirse que "la Mutua habría incurrido en un supuesto de responsabilidad contable tipificado en el artículo 49.1 de la Ley 7/1988, de 5 de abril, de Funcionamiento del Tribunal de Cuentas, al concurrir todas y cada una de las condiciones determinantes de esta tipificación".
Asimismo, con fecha 16 de septiembre de 2008, la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social comunicó la emisión, con fecha 7 de mayo de 2008, de un "Informe Complementario sobre las vinculaciones a la gestión de la Mutua y sobre posible responsabilidad contable por alcance". Este informe, complementario a los dos informes especiales señalados, fue remitido, de acuerdo con lo manifestado al efecto por el mencionado Centro Directivo, a idénticos destinatarios que los correspondientes informes especiales.

16 En trámite de alegaciones, la Mutua "UNIVERSAL MUGENAT" ha manifestado que "algunas de estas presuntas deficiencias e irregularidades" están siendo objeto de "investigación en el procedimiento penal de Diligencias Previas 3532/07-J, seguido en el Juzgado de Instrucción nº 21 de Barcelona". Asimismo, comunica que por Resolución de 1 de octubre de 2007, de la Secretaría de Estado de la Seguridad Social, se inició un "procedimiento administrativo para la adopción de medidas cautelares respecto de la Mutua para la subsanación de supuestas irregularidades" -medidas cautelares que podrían adoptarse en base a las previsiones del artículo 74 de la Ley General de la Seguridad Social por el Ministerio de Trabajo e Inmigración-. Con fecha 14 de mayo de 2008, según ha informado la Mutua, la Dirección General de Ordenación de la Seguridad Social aprobó un Plan de Subsanación presentado por la entidad con fecha 16 de enero de 2008.
Sobre el cumplimiento de las medidas previstas en el Plan de Subsanación la Mutua ha informado que "en el punto segundo del Plan se indica entre las medidas a realizar: la desvinculación total y absoluta de las empresas afectadas por las irregularidades puestas de manifiesto en sus informes por la Intervención General de la Seguridad Social. Al respecto, hay que indicar que en el momento de redactar este informe –escrito de alegaciones-, se ha completado la desvinculación total y absoluta que culmina, con la aprobación expresa del Ministerio y del Juzgado que instruye el caso, para la adquisición de diez de los centros asistenciales propiedad de algunas de estas empresas y con la asunción del personal que prestaba servicio en ellas".

Soy una trabajadora de una de estas Mutuas y todo lo que ha salido a la luz es cierto, lo sospechabamos todos. Lo que no dice el informe es que todo ese dinero salía de lo que se ahorraban en las prestaciones y ayudas a los mutualistas en los que se escatimaba hasta el último centimo. Es un escandalo que no esten ya en la cárcel!

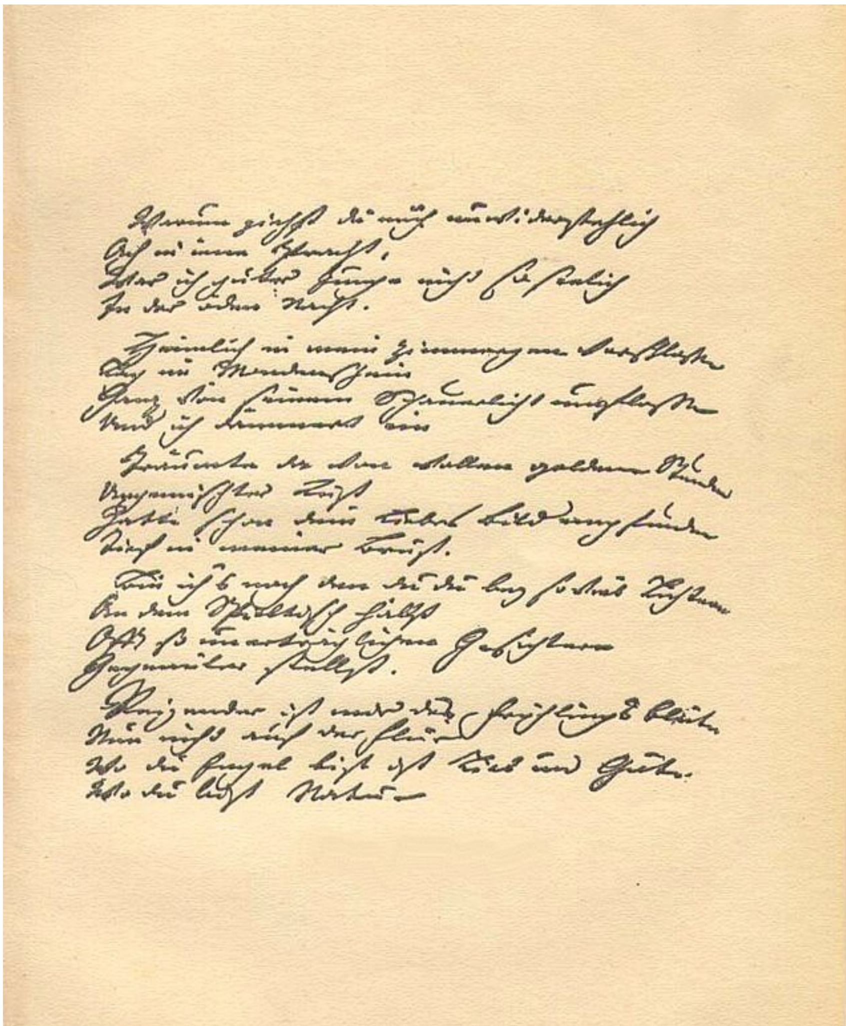
MANUSCRITO ENCONTRADO EN LEIPZIG



Manuscrito encontrado en Leipzig (Atribuido a J P. Eckermann)

Ya a las puertas de la muerte, tengo dudas y me pregunto si no habré malgastado mi tiempo y mi talento por esa fidelidad casi perruna a mi maestro, que nunca fue conmigo tan benevolente como quise creer y dejé traslucir en aquellas notas, publicadas bajo el título de "Conversaciones con Goethe". Nunca se debería reflexionar sobre el pasado a esta edad; quizás la única enfermedad piadosa en la vejez fuera la amnesia, puesto que ya nada podemos transformar de nuestro pretérito. O tal vez sea ésta la última oportunidad que Dios nos ofrece para reconciliarnos con nuestra miserable naturaleza y solicitar su divina piedad con sincera contrición, sin los espejismos de nuestra juventud, la soberbia y la fatuidad que nos engañan cuando sólo somos, a fin de cuentas, criaturas defectuosas que de nada deberíamos vanagloriarnos.

Mi maestro y protector, Goethe, tampoco se salvó de estas vanidades y ése fue el motivo verdadero por el que ocultó el manuscrito que dio lugar a su inmortal Fausto, que encontramos entre los papeles de un conocido nuestro, alquimista y filósofo, perteneciente a una noble familia lejanamente emparentada con el Gran Duque y con el que mantuvimos estrecha relación a propósito de la teoría de los colores, que Goethe se apropió, sin mencionarnos, si bien trabajamos en ella por igual Fausto Svanitz —ese fue el nombre que utilizó para salvaguardar su apellido en el ámbito científico— y yo, aunque es verdad que cada uno investigamos con desigual fortuna, ya que Svanitz pretendía que la luz era energía y, como tal, sujeta a las leyes de la Física; algo tan absurdo que quizás hubiera debido alertarnos sobre los desequilibrios que lo llevarían al suicidio, acaso por excesivos escrúpulos al haber seducido a una joven de los alrededores, cosa que nunca llegué a calibrar con exactitud, ya que la tal Gretchen ni siquiera quiso la reparación económica e incluso se abstuvo de acusar a Fausto Svanitz, no obstante su pobreza y juventud, por lo que llegamos a sospechar que nunca existió tal seducción más que en el desequilibrado cerebro del anciano alquimista.

Dada su importancia social y la delicada situación que podría arrostrar su familia si la noticia y los motivos del suicidio trascendían, fui enviado por Goethe para sustraer la última confesión de Fausto Svanitz, escrita, al parecer, la víspera de su muerte, y dejamos creer en un malhadado accidente, provocado por la mezcla de gases venenosos de sus redomas y alambiques, ocultando la prueba de su absoluta voluntad de morir, junto con la fórmula de los gases letales que, minuciosamente, apunto en su último cuaderno de experimentación.

Transcribo ahora, por primera vez, aquello que escribió Svanitz y que mi maestro jamás menciono, ni siquiera omitiendo el nombre del autor, para no menoscabar el mérito de su Fausto y la gloria consiguiente.

Confesión que suscribo y rubrico en plena posesión de mis facultades.

Weimar, enero del año de gracia de 1854.

CARTA ENCONTRADA EN EL LABORATORIO DE FAUSTO SVANITZ EL DÍA DE SU MUERTE

A lo largo de mi vida he escrito cientos de cuadernos con mis experimentos, hipótesis de trabajo, mis rudimentarias conclusiones y mis grandes descubrimientos; pero ésta es la primera vez que intentaré describir lo que no puedo cuantificar ni resumir en fórmulas científicas. La vida siempre tiene la obscena ironía de lo desconocido por demasiado próximo y, un día u otro, se venga de nosotros con sus sarcasmos más crueles porque tratamos de ignorarla.

Yo, que he menospreciado a los literatos, inventores y no descubridores de la realidad, que adolecen de la más elemental cosmogonía y gozan de la estima de unos lectores en consonancia con su enciclopédica necedad, hoy cambiaría toda mi sabiduría por encontrar su facilidad de palabra, y rompo una y otra vez las páginas apenas empiezo, incapaz de redactar sencillamente, sin adjetivos vacuos, lo que es mi más genial hallazgo: el amor.

Ante este vocablo, todo lo que la palabra inefable significa se agolpa en mi cerebro y paraliza mi pluma sin poder transmitir esta nueva mirada sobre el mundo, en la que advierto otra armonía y otras leyes que no hubiera podido conocer antes de amar, ahora que ya es demasiado tarde para aprender a familiarizarme con esta extraña lucidez.

Nací cuando mis padres ya no esperaban descendencia. Hijo único y heredero de una gran fortuna, me crié rodeado de seres dispuestos a endulzar mi niñez, llena de quebrantos de salud. Desde muy temprano fui miope y, como se desprende de esta tara —o quizás la miopía sea la consecuencia de lo que mi alma abarca —, dediqué toda mi atención al estudio minucioso de los volúmenes empolvados de la biblioteca paterna y, casi sin advertirlo, me alejé de mis semejantes más inmediatos para recluirme en una zona aneja de la casa de mis padres, ya ancianos y sin energías para interesarse en un hijo, largo tiempo deseado, que vino a romper una rutina de sosiego mucho más fuerte que el pálido recuerdo de sus esperanzas de continuidad. De vez en cuando, con un sobresalto, recordaban que mi educación y mi porvenir eran, en parte, responsabilidad suya, y yo escuchaba en esas ocasiones sus monólogos sobre lo que debería ser mi conducta, reflejo de sus fantasmas y sus miedos y no de una mínima perspicacia respecto a mis posibilidades. Durante mi adolescencia los detesté con todas mis fuerzas; pero en mi juventud y su decadencia final llegué a sentir por ellos una mezcla de piedad y fastidio que jamás exterioricé.

Mi verdadera pasión desde la infancia fue la lectura, los experimentos de química y física, y las matemáticas, y cuando murieron mis padres y pude escapar así a su vigilancia, inicié mis estudios sobre los cuerpos vivos, saber que participa de todas las materias, pero tiene su propia metodología y sus leyes específicas.

De todos estos años hablarán mis cuadernos de anotaciones, rigurosamente agrupados en orden cronológico, que guardo en el laboratorio bajo llave. Sólo destruiré antes de morir aquél que contiene mis experimentos para hallar la piedra filosofal, porque en el transcurso de esa búsqueda, la materia me desveló propiedades que la humanidad no sabría utilizar sin una evolución espiritual similar a la que consigue el investigador.

Puedo decir, sin miedo a utilizar las palabras para esconder la realidad —porque no soy un literato—, que el único conocimiento verdadero se logra a través de la acumulación de datos y más datos, observando maniáticamente cada manifestación de la materia; pero la síntesis suprema donde todo se interrelaciona y adquiere sentido —la sabiduría—, es una explosión de potencia creadora, y el estudioso puede, al fin, ser algo más que un notario de la ciencia cuando se despoja de todo lo que ha aprendido. No es una paradoja de sofista al uso, aunque quien lea esto con la imaginación poco estricta de un habituado a las novelas pueda pensarlo.

Pero no es a ellos a los que me dirijo, porque no me entenderían. Escribo para quienes dejarán su juventud, sus fuerzas y su armonía con el entorno, para buscar en los alambiques y en las fórmulas yertas de los manuales, las minúsculas, insignificantes y consabidas leyes, estipuladas antes por otros, quizás no mejores ni más geniales; sólo más pacientes que sus contemporáneos. Y aunque sepan que nada nuevo podrán añadir, comprobarán por sí mismos cada axioma, cada afirmación, y no poseerán otra prebenda que la sed y la avidez que el conocimiento proporciona y no calma. Me dirijo a quienes desean desentrañar la creación para conocerla, pero no buscan transformarla aunque sólo les concierna a ellos descubrir el modo de lograrlo, porque el papel del sabio no incluye ningún poder, y toda su capacidad creadora debe huir de la realidad y concreción de sus proyectos, porque la prostituiría y nos condenaría.

A mis continuadores se lo advierto: todo conocimiento se adquiere a través de la aceptación de sucesivos a priori, y todo juicio racional confirma un prejuicio irracional e intuitivo, porque el cerebro se adecua a lo ya sabido y bloquea la comprensión de lo desconocido. Por eso, todo lo que resulta claro y verosímil para la conciencia incide en la ancestral pereza de nuestra capacidad cognoscitiva, y aquello que eriza y repugna a nuestra lógica suele ser lo que representa un peldaño más alto para la evolución de nuestra inteligencia. Por esta causa, cuando el investigador haya superado todos los vacíos y los obstáculos formales en la disciplina escogida, debe despojarse de toda certeza y toda seguridad, y buscar, desde el primer grado de su aprendizaje, las grietas responsables de la fragilidad de todo su edificio lógico; aun cuando todo le parezca sólido e irrefutable deberá objetar con la despiadada incredulidad de un abogado del diablo, hasta desmoronarlo íntegramente.

Sólo después de dudar sistemáticamente de todas y cada una de las demostraciones, el sabio puede encontrar la piedra filosofal en el fondo de sus redomas, como resultado y síntesis de todos los elementos innobles que mezcló, y sabrá en qué consiste. Si evitase con mis indicaciones el proceso que lleva a ella, invalidaría su consecución, porque importan tanto los intentos fallidos como el éxito final o el fracaso definitivo: suprema sabiduría de la Alquimia, y sublime parábola del hombre, exiliado en un universo gélido y magnífico que lo ignora, pero no lo soslaya, puesto que nos interpela una y otra vez, en cada generación.

Hubiera podido morir apaciblemente, «colmado de días», sin vislumbrar otra realidad que la accesible a mi limitado raciocinio; sin embargo me suicidaré a medianoche para perder mi alma eternamente, según lo estipulado con el Tentador. ¿Quién creería un despropósito mi pacto con Mefistófeles si conociese lo que obtuve a cambio? La mayoría de la humanidad muere sin saber de otra embriaguez que la pérdida de lucidez en el estado semicomatoso de una intoxicación etílica; pero yo habré degustado aquella que exige luz, más luz, y es vertiginosamente límpida: amar y ser amado un día. Todas las mujeres del mundo existentes en Gretchen amaron a todos los hombres en mí. Podría ser una historia banal a fuerza de repetirse, si no fuera tan esencialmente distinta de cuanto se vive en el transcurso de una vida. Por eso, respetadme los que me sobreviviréis: amé y fui amado al precio de mi alma y del resto de mis días sabiendo lo que significa la eternidad para el amor.

Como todos, conocí el placer carnal en periódicas efusiones sexuales, que procuré como simples medidas higiénicas para la estabilidad de mi mente y un organismo sano. Nunca fueron ni remotamente comparables a las emociones que viví solo, en mi laboratorio, cuando la aridez de los ensayos fallidos y la fatiga acumulada se resolvían en un fogonazo de clarividencia y la materia desvelaba otra incógnita para mi insaciable pasión por conocer. No quise que las mujeres interfirieran en mi vida y situé mis episódicas incursiones en los contornos, lejos de mi domicilio; cambié la dirección de mis pasos conforme llegaba el hastío a una relación, pero siempre hallé mujeres saludables y risueñas que, tal vez agradecidas por el privilegio de conmocionar la carne y la bolsa de un hombre rico, creyeron o fingieron amarme, pero a mí nunca me interesaron más allá de unos momentos: el tiempo que medió entre la turbación de los instintos y la desmadejada somnolencia de después. Así llegué al dintel de la vejez, con el espíritu aún ávido y la carne saciada.

Sin embargo, cuántas noches en mi adolescencia lloré de rabia por aquel cuerpo indómito, indiferente a los consuelos que yo le procuraba, sin que ningún placebo lo engañase por mucho tiempo y nada anestesiase su feroz energía. Cómo sufrí entonces, cuando todas las mujeres me parecían deseables e inaccesibles. Llegué a creerme un monstruo entonces, incapaz de inspirar otra cosa que repulsión, o piedad en el mejor de los casos.

Hasta que conocí a María, una campesina terca y silenciosa que me observaba en mis paseos, cuando ella venía a buscar forraje a un terreno de mi propiedad y jamás contestó a mis saludos. Una tarde, no sé aún que pasó por su cabeza, se acercó al ribazo donde yo descansaba después de mis largas caminatas para mortificar el cuerpo, y sin mediar palabra cogió mi mano y me condujo a la cima de un cerro cercano, señaló al sol poniente y me sonrió turbada. Ninguno de los dos tomó la iniciativa, y, sin embargo, en un acuerdo que parecía estipulado desde siempre, nos amamos despaciosos y asombrados, una vez y otra, durante algo más de un año. Un día faltó y al siguiente vino con un joven robusto, atezado, y creo que fue la primera vez que me habló: “Es mi marido —dijo—: nos casamos ayer.”

Ya no acudí nunca más a la hondonada donde la esperaba, ni he vuelto a subir al cerro que se ve desde mi ventana. Durante casi cincuenta años había olvidado a María, enterrada quizás bajo las sucesivas mujeres que fueron acogedoras conmigo, y no sé por qué la recuerdo hoy con un nudo en la garganta. Tal vez fue el amor más auténtico de mi vida: nada nos pedimos porque todo lo teníamos y nunca nos mentimos: callamos como criaturas inmersas en un juego mágico y solipsista en el que sobran las palabras porque no hay que disfrazar el hastío.

El hombre no es un todo: nacemos privados de alma y sólo el transcurso del tiempo, la existencia, y la impregnación emocional nos conforma un espíritu. El adulto que soy es el hijo del lactante únicamente provisto del reflejo de succión para sobrevivir. Nada de lo que soy es enteramente mío: todo lo que viví me condicionó; lo que aprendí fue descartando arbitrariamente todas las demás parcelas del conocimiento y en esa necesidad de optar se trasluce, paradójicamente, la falta de libertad del hombre, que nunca podrá abarcarlo todo y desechar lo que no desea con conocimiento de causa. Trascendí al hombre elemental y compulsivo, víctima de todas las ignorancias, es cierto, pero negando una parte de mí que quedó anquilosada.

La exterioridad absoluta no existe, puesto que nos implica en sus imponderables y no hay autonomía en ningún hombre nacido de madre: todo está interrelacionado en el universo, pero su designio nos es desconocido. Del mismo modo que la miopía fue causa de mi desinterés por los espacios abiertos y condiciono mis tendencias introspectivas –a la vez que se agravó por no ejercitar la vista hacia lo lejos–, mi interés por el estudio me alejó de mis semejantes, con los que no podía compartirlo y, al mismo tiempo, se desdibujaron, disformes e insubstanciales como ese bosque borroso que rompe la línea del horizonte y apenas se me representa como masas de luz y sombra ante mis ojos.

No se escoge la naturaleza de la inteligencia que desarrollaremos: existe el cogitativo, que sólo retiene lo esencial, la verdad última, lo trascendental, las constantes, deduce lo general de lo particular y nada puede sino dejar libre curso a esta tendencia que se impone por carencias al descartar otras formas de ser y estar en el mundo. Y, existe esa otra inteligencia acumulativa de situaciones y experiencias, que enumera sin establecer categorías ni graduar cualitativamente, y solo obedece a la causalidad de las sugerencias exteriores, debido a una falta de valoración ultíma de la realidad. Un tipo de inteligencia siempre se afirma por incapacidad para ser de otro modo.

Recuerdo con toda nitidez el momento, a principios de la primavera pasada, en que di cima a mis investigaciones sobre la piedra filosofal. Gocé de un placer tan puro y tan alto, fue tan intenso el éxtasis, que tuve miedo. Supe inmediatamente que, a partir de entonces, todo me dejaría un sabor de ceniza y nada sería nunca tan exaltante como aquel momento, sabiendo como sé que mi naturaleza es, en lo esencial, disconforme y exige una progresión geométrica en los estímulos para responder con la misma pasión cada día. Así descubrí que mi identidad no era un refugio para mi alma, sino su prisión Dejé de estar orgulloso de mis logros para sentirme mutilado de los hombres que no he sido, los proyectos que no realicé y las cosas que no amé. Descubrí mi limitación y no mi plenitud. Durante los días que siguieron la música de Mozart fue un ungüento para mi alma maltrecha y mis nervios enfermos. Y la contemplación de Gretchen me reconcilio con la vida.

Amar es no juzgar. Privados de los estereotipos y referencias con los que calificamos para definir, en el amor nos encontramos carentes de los asideros habituales que configuran nuestro sistema de valores. El amor es una alteración de la percepción, una fiebre cerebral, pero también una ascesis El amante trasciende su propia limitación humana, su depauperación racional, para acceder a ese estadio donde no importan tanto los defectos y virtudes —que lo son hasta encontrarlos en el ser amado– como las características. El amante sufre y goza de un espectáculo humano que sobrepasa su habitual receptividad: a través del sentimiento amoroso aprehende otra realidad, tan innegable como su propia identidad y descubre el amante novel y el experto la dimensión del otro. El objeto amado nos hace vivir como un cataclismo la alteridad, lo que no somos, con una añoranza de fusión que es, también, el deseo de traspasar los límites de nuestro propio ser, nuestra piel, en los que descubrimos una sima y una prisión. El otro, el amado, tiene una realidad ontológica tan formidable y tan arrasadora a los ojos del amante que anula cualquier petrificación, por muy profunda que sea, para percibir la propia inanidad y subrayar las propias carencias.

El amor es una llamada a nuestra irracionalidad, pero también al supraconocimiento. El sistema cognoscitivo es, habitualmente, reptante y somnoliento —en el ser humano el raciocinio es un automatismo sin consecuencias—, y sólo cuando se llega a traspasar las barreras del anquilosamiento mental —mediante la ascesis mística, la sabiduría, el amor o el dolor— se despiertan algunas de las parcelas del cerebro, inutilizado en su mayor parte, desaparece ese estado vegetativo desde el que reconocemos el mundo y nos reconocemos, para vislumbrar otra realidad, desde otra perspectiva, y algo similar a la primera vez de todas las cosas y todas las vivencias, se impone a nuestra percepción. El amor abre puertas a una forma de conocimiento ajena a los prejuicios —única sabiduría posible— y más allá de la obnubilación del enamorado se encuentra la clarividencia, esa mirada con la que contemplarían el mundo el primer hombre y la primera mujer que lo estrenaron.

Nadie puede tener mayor deuda con Dios que yo, que he cambiado su paraíso por esta parcela de la creación que me dio en usufructo, y por lo mismo, nadie estará nunca más seguro de su infinita misericordia, que no desespero en alcanzar aun hoy, cuando estoy dispuesto a condenarme mediante el suicidio que exigió Mefistófeles. Porque amé y fui amado, sé que esta sed de absoluto Dios la puso en mí, como sé que el único pecado imperdonable para Él, si nos ama, ha de ser la desesperación de quien no crea que la piedad y el perdón han de ser gratuitos, al margen de todo merecimiento. Quien ama no juzga, no hace sumarios: sólo puede amar.

Para mi mente ahíta de abstracciones e incógnitas despejadas, ¡que temblor! No sé qué mecanismos, incluso al margen de mis conveniencias y mis opciones, desencadenó Gretchen, para iniciarme en los misterios de una sabiduría tan ancestral como el mundo y siempre nueva para quien ama. Todos los amantes del mundo perciben con estupefacción que aman a pesar de si mismos, de su decisión y aun al margen de sus previsiones. Casi siempre existe una profunda ironía en la elección; siempre es el amor el que nos escoge y nos señala sin que podamos, a priori, detectar lo que ocurrirá: igual que en una catástrofe natural, en el amor hay algo imprevisible y se vive como un seísmo que agrietara v alzase abruptas zonas de nuestra integridad. Quien ama y es amado no se halla satisfecho y colmado en el amor, sino profundamente desarbolado, sujeto pasivo por excelencia, y descubre con honda zozobra su falta de entidad. El amado nos ofrece un sentimiento gratuito y gratificante por el que nos descubre nuestro vacío y la hondura de nuestra iniquidad, nuestra falta de merecimientos por contraste con el bien que se obtuvo.

Y en la iniquidad todo está permitido, salvo el arrepentimiento

Mi amada Gretchen, aunque perdiera mi alma no podría arrepentirme de nuestro amor, y volvería a suicidarme si Dios, a cambio del olvido, me propusiera prorrogar mi existencia. Renunciaría gustoso a todo lo que aprendí y todo lo que he vivido, salvo a tu recuerdo, porque descubrí mi insegundad radical con tus caricias; pero antes sólo existió en mí un piadoso abotargamiento, que me hizo creerme ajeno y autosuficiente, y el prójimo era una entelequia, que nada significaba fuera de los inconvenientes que impone y resuelve. La percepción de la gratuidad, el lujo que es el otro, su insoslayable realidad, al margen de mí, profundamente valiosa por si misma y como troquel de mi identidad, sólo la tuve desde la vivencia de tu alteridad. "Ama al prójimo como a ti mismo"podría muy bien ser una vía de ascesis a la supraconciencia y no una norma moral. Sólo quien ha percibido que su realidad esencial es el trasunto del vacío último y su vértigo, está cerca de trascender sus paupérrimas certeza para llegar a la fulgurante visión de un yo que sólo nos limita y nos acota la realidad, y que hemos preferido al resto porque es nuestro, en un supremo fatalismo en el que no escogemos ser quienes somos, sino lo que somos.

Al amarme subrayaste la arbitrariedad de mi egocentrismo y su absurdo, precisamente porque me amaste sin merecérmelo, en mi desnuda condición, con todas mis limitaciones que jamás has señalado acusadoramente. Quizás por ello me sentí deudor de tu benevolencia y, por extensión, descubrí hasta qué punto soy, como todos, un ser proyectado a la nada, sin más valor que el que se otorgue arbitrariamente a mi existencia, siempre anodina, siempre prescindible. Salvo para quienes me aman: Gretchen y Dios.
No aspiro a merecerlo; sólo sé que ese amor legitima mi vida, mi muerte y mi conducta.

Demasiados sustantivos abstractos para mi gusto. La lectura te lleva por momentos en volandas, pero al final tropiezas con demasiado raciocinio. Falta amor, aunque parezca mentira.

Por otra parte os seguiré leyendo.

Pau: la palabra "maravilla" no es pertinente aquí, por mucho que te guste la palabra y el texto.

Moncho: no has leído a Goethe, ni a Eckermann, y con esas premisas, no tienes ni repajolera idea de lo que representa este heterónimo. Y la literatura, el raciocinio y el amor sin la etiqueta y el precio no sabrías ni a qué especie pertenecen.

Perdona gato, pero es que no me llaman melón todos los días. La verdad es que me sienta bien.

Te invito a tomar un trago, y como prueba de buena voluntad te dedico estos versos escritos por una sandía que conozco hace ya mucho, y que para hablar de amor no necesitaba palabras terminadas en de.

"Sabe, si alguna vez tus labios rojos quema invisible atmósfera abrasada, que el alma que hablar puede con los ojos también puede besar con la mirada."

(Reconozco que me gustó un poquito lo de "troquel de mi identidad", a pesar de todo. También reconozco que has sido piadoso, pues ¿qué hace un gato de la casa de Anjou respondiendo a un melón que no ha leído a Gohete ni a Eckermann, y que no sabe lo que es el amor, ni la literatura, ni el raciocinio, si no es por la etiqueta que cuelga de sus pristinas colas?
No pierdas más el tiempo conmigo, gato, que los melones no somos gente de bien)

Aprecio, comentó el gato, con grande perplejidad, tras devorar con desdén la consabida frutita, que toda mi identidad se va poniendo marchita,
y hasta el alma se me escapa por una negra oquedad.

Mas poco a poco descubro que ha de ser una otredad,
y que no es alma inmortal la que el ojete me irrita, pues me parece notar que va pepita a pepita, saliendo por ese sitio la inmunda hortalicidad.

¡Qué me pasa! Se quejaba nuestro gato enamorado ¡Más valiera que de ascesis fuera hecha apreciación, que esta huida de mi ser me incomoda la existencia!

¡Qué me ocurre! Realidad de alimento incontrolado, que hace de mi unicidad cenizas de combustión, excretando displacer y de corazón ausencia.

AMIGOSDELPALACIO.ORG: MANIFIESTO EN CONTRA DE LA CESION DEL PALACIO DE BOADILLA DEL MONTE A LA SGAE

- ADHERIRSE AL MANIFIESTO O COLABORAR EN LA RECOGIDA DE FIRMAS -

EL AYUNTAMIENTO DE BOADILLA DEL MONTE CEDE EL PALACIO POR 75 AÑOS A LA SGAE, PARA LA INSTALACION DE OFICINAS PRIVADAS DE VARIAS DE SUS SEDES.

LA ASOCIACION DE AMIGOS DEL PALACIO DE BOADILLA DEL MONTE MANIFIESTA SU DESACUERDO POR LOS SIGUIENTES MOTIVOS:

1.- USO CULTURAL Y PUBLICO

El Palacio fue comprado por el Ayuntamiento de Boadilla con dinero público (6.000 millones de ptas.) para darle un uso público y cultural. La SGAE incumple ambas premisas porque es una entidad privada y el uso que pretende darle es para oficinas privadas. Es un acuerdo claramente beneficioso para la SGAE, que toma el Palacio como propio para la ejecución de sus fines privados, sin ofrecer ninguna contraprestación para los ciudadanos, sus legítimos propietarios.

El Palacio y su entorno es un Bien de Interés Cultural protegido:
El convenio urbanístico por el que se expropió dice que el Ayuntamiento se compromete a: "asignar los bienes que se cederán a usos de especial relevancia cultural, museística, educativa y de alta especialización." "El Ayuntamiento asume la obligación jurídica de no alterar en ningún momento el uso asignado al palacio, que se definirá de UTILIDAD PÚBLICA, para destinarlo a cualquier uso dotacional público." "El Ayuntamiento asume el deber jurídico de NO DISPONER del palacio a FAVOR DE PERSONAS O ENTIDADES DE NATURALEZA PRIVADA."
Las actividades culturales a realizar van dirigidas única y exclusivamente a los socios o miembros de la SGAE, privando para siempre a los ciudadanos de la oportunidad de visitar su interior, incumpliendo además el artículo 19.2 de la Ley 10/1998 de Patrimonio Histórico de la Comunidad de Madrid: "Los bienes de interés cultural podrán ser objeto de visita pública al menos una vez a la semana y en días y horas previamente señalados".

2.- CONSERVACIÓN DEL PATRIMONIO HISTÓRICO

EL PALACIO ES UN B.I.C (BIEN DE INTERES CULTURAL). Está Protegido por la Ley 16/1985, de 25 de junio de 1985, reguladora del Patrimonio Histórico Nacional, que entre otras cosas no permite ampliaciones ni incremento de las superficies construidas. El proyecto de la SGAE vulnera esta ley al pretender construir dentro del conjunto monumental: residencias para becarios y profesores, auditorio, biblioteca, auditorio al aire libre, etc. que pasarán a ocupar más de 15.000 metros cuadrados. El convenio incluye una cláusula que especifica: "La fórmula de realización de las obras de rehabilitación del palacio será de la libre elección de Fundación Autor."
No es aceptable que se pretenda convertir un espacio histórico y peculiar como la cocina del Palacio, en cocina y comedor "para lugar de encuentro entre artistas y profesionales del sector". Pretensión que nos parece caprichosa e injustificada.
EL PALACIO ESTA PROTEGIDO POR SENTENCIA JUDICIAL. En 2003 la Asociación de Amigos del Palacio de Boadilla del Monte ganó un contencioso al Ayuntamiento por la cesión del Palacio al Ministerio de Defensa. En el AUTO en el que se dictaban medidas cautelares quedaba recogido:
"Solo se permiten las actuaciones encaminadas a su conservación, de los valores que contienen y a la restauración de aquellos que se hubieran degradado prohibiéndose específicamente, las actuaciones de segregación, aumento de volumen o de ocupación y labores que no sean de mantenimiento, consolidación y recuperación de cerramientos, elementos auxiliares, mobiliario."

Desde esta Asociación abogamos por una restauración del Palacio y su entorno fiel al original, respetando sus trazas y fisonomía. Además no se debe aceptar en ningún caso la construcción de nuevos elementos que desfiguren la fisonomía histórica del palacio.

3.- UNA ESCANDALOSA ADJUDICACION REALIZADA POR UN ALCALDE IMPUTADO EN LA TRAMA DE CORRUPCION

El Ayuntamiento de Boadilla del Monte, regido entonces por el Ex-Alcalde Arturo González Panero, actualmente imputado en el caso de CORRUPCION GURTEL, diseñó el concurso para ceder el Palacio a la SGAE, sin dar la oportunidad a otras fundaciones o instituciones de presentar otros proyectos, y decidir cual de ellos podría ser más conveniente. Redactó unas bases a medida para las pretensiones y necesidades de la SGAE, lo que ilegitima el proyecto.
La Asociación de Amigos del Palacio de Boadilla del Monte y las personas abajo firmantes manifiestan SU DESACUERDO con la cesión del Palacio a la SGAE y EXIGEN a las autoridades responsables:
1. LA ANULACION INMEDIATA DEL CONVENIO-CESION DEL PALACIO A LA SGAE.
2. LA RESTAURACION RIGUROSA Y URGENTE DEL PALACIO Y JARDINES.
3. QUE EL DESTINO DEL PALACIO SEA DE USO CULTURAL EN BENEFICIO DE TODOS LOS CIUDADANOS.

Autor: La SGAE alquila la capilla

24-06-2009 Nota de Prensa APB

APB: "La SGAE cede la capilla del Palacio Infante D. Luis a una productora para grabar capítulos de la serie Águila Roja"
LA SGAE contrata con una productora la parte de mayor valor del Conjunto Histórico Artístico, pieza arquitectónica única del Neoclásico español (Siglo XVIII), que alberga el sepulcro de la Condesa de Chinchón.

Los Concejales de APB y PSOE pedirán al Ayuntamiento información sobre qué está pasando en el Monumento.

Varios vecinos del municipio que paseaban por los aledaños del Monumento fueron los primeros en dar el aviso. Su preocupación, mucho movimiento de vehículos frente al Monumento, una zona acordonada de carga y descarga con maquinaria y materiales, y decidieron llamar a los Grupos de la oposición para que se informaran de lo que ocurría en el interior del edificio.

Los Concejales atendieron la llamada y acudieron al Monumento, encontrándose una zona pública acordonada y reservada frente al edificio para labores de carga y descarga, sin que constara autorización alguna por la reserva de ese espacio público por parte del Ayuntamiento.

Una vez han accedido los concejales al Monumento (que tiene la consideración de Conjunto Histórico Artístico desde 1.974 y con la protección de Bien de Interés Cultural (B.I.C) han podido comprobar que la Capilla del Palacio, pieza única del neoclásico español que alberga el sepulcro de la Condesa de Chinchón, está siendo "usada por terceros con los que contrata la SGAE" en concreto, para llevar a cabo la grabación de distintos capítulos y escenas de la popular serie AGUILA ROJA.

"Los responsables de la productora que está llevando a cabo los trabajos nos han manifestado que tienen contrato con la SGAE y que tienen autorización de esta entidad. Que ellos tienen permiso de la SGAE y que el contrato se lo pidiéramos a la SGAE" manifestó Angel Galindo, Portavoz de APB.

Los grupos de la oposición entienden que esta cesión, no está permitida en los términos de la cesión del inmueble, cesión que se encuentra denunciada judicialmente ante el TSJ de Madrid, el mismo que instruye el Caso Gürtel, por el que ha sido imputado el exalcalde González Panero, máximo responsable de la cesión del Palacio a la SGAE.

“Creemos que hay un uso que la SGAE no puede hacer y que el Ayuntamiento como dueño ni siquiera conoce y desconocemos a cambio de qué y cuánto cobra por ello, si lo hace. La SGAE dispone del Palacio como si fuera su casa y eso no lo vamos a permitir. El Alcalde Siguero debe actuar de inmediato” concluyó Angel Galindo, Concejal de APB.

24 DE MAYO 2009: MANIFIESTACIÓN EN MADRID POR LA NEUTRALIDAD EN LA RED, CONTRA EL CANON Y LAS CANONJÍAS

Como los albañiles no cobran un canon cada vez que entramos en los edificios que han construido; como los campesinos y los verduleros no cobran un canon cada vez que comemos fruta, hortaliza o verdura que han vendido; como los confeccionistas y diseñadores no cobran un canon cada vez que usamos la ropa que hemos adquirido; como los actores no cobran un canon cada vez que se pasa una película o una serie en la que han participado; ni el que inventó los chistes cobra un canon cada vez que contamos uno; y como tampoco cobra un canon el cirujano que ha ideado una nueva técnica quirúrgica cada vez que se utiliza; eso del canon aplicado preventivamente por si acaso pirateamos las "creaciones" de una panda de mediocres que no venden ni un Saci (los directivos de la SGAE y su séquito), cediéndoles la función recaudatoria que sólo compete al Estado, y sin control sobre sus finanzas por parte de la Hacienda Pública ni el Tribunal de Cuentas, que nadie se extrañe que nos parezca una felonía y nos subleve.

EL INFORME RYAN REVELA QUE, EN LAS INSTITUCIONES CATÓLICAS, LAS VIOLACIONES Y ABUSOS SEXUALES SON ENDÉMICOS CONTRA LOS NIÑOS A SU CARGO

Según un informe conocido hoy, la violación y el acoso sexual eran "endémicos" en las escuelas de formación profesional y orfanatos gestionados por Iglesia Católica irlandesa La investigación, que ha durado nueve años, descubrió que los sacerdotes católicos y monjas aterrorizaron durante décadas a miles de niños y niñas en la República de Irlanda, mientras que los inspectores del gobierno no fueron capaces de detener las palizas, violaciones y humillaciónes continuadas.
El juez del Alto Tribunal, Sean Ryan hizo publicó hoy el informe final, de 2.600 páginas, de la Comisión de Irlanda sobre el abuso contra niños, que se basó en el testimonio de miles de antiguos internos y funcionarios de más de 250 instituciones dirigidas por la iglesia. Se requirió la presencia de la policia en la conferencia de prensa, ya que se produjeron escenas de airada indignación porque se les impidió la entrada a las víctimas.
Desde la década de 1930 hasta el cierre de instalaciones en el decenio de 1990, más de 30.000 niños a los que que se consideraban como pequeños ladrones, rateros o de familias disfuncionales -una categoría que incluye a menudo a las madres solteras- fueron enviados a la severa red de escuelas industriales, reformatorios, orfanatos y albergues de Irlanda.
Ante el descubrimiento de estos hechos, el nuevo arzobispo de Westminster, monseñor Vicente Nichols, se ha apresurado a decir que aquellos sacerdotes que participaron en el abuso sexual de niños han tenido un gran coraje al afrontar sus propias acciones. En una entrevista que se transmitirá esta noche en ITV News at Ten, dijo: "Pienso en aquellos miembros de órdenes religiosas y en algunos de los clérigos en Dublín que han de hacer frente a estos hechos de su pasado y que, por instinto, como es natural, preferirían no ver. Para eso se necesita coraje, y tampoco debemos olvidar que este informe eclipsará todo el bien que también hicieron" Sobrevivientes de Abuso Infantil en Irlanda (ISOCA), una organización creada para ayudar a las víctimas, ha condenado al recién nombrado jefe de la Iglesia Católica en Inglaterra y Gales por sus observaciones.

"Lo que ha dicho el Arzobispo es una basura y eso usando un adjetivo muy amable. Creo que he oído este tipo de estupideces pronunciadas por los políticos irlandeses como Bertie Ahern, el ex primer ministro. Es la palabrería de quien no lleva la razón y que me deja frío . Lo que el Arzobispo de verdad tiene que hacer es analizar el carácter y la naturaleza de la gente de la que está hablando y preguntarse si son capaces de ser buenos" -dijo Patrick Walsh.
El informe reveló que el abuso sexual y la violación son "endémicos" en las instituciones para niños varones, principalmente las dirigidas por la orden de los Hermanos Cristianos, y que los supervisores siguieron una política que agravó el peligro. Las niñas bajo la supervisión de las órdenes de monjas, principalmente las Hermanas de la Misericordia, sufrieron muchos menos abusos sexuales, pero, en cambio, tuvieron que padecer constantes agresiones y humillaciones ideadas para demostrarles lo poco que valían.
"En algunas escuelas era una rutina las palizas ritualizadas. A la niñas se les sujetaban artilugios diseñados para maximizar el dolor y se les golpeaba en todas las partes del cuerpo", señala el informe. "La denigración personal y de sus familias estaba muy extendida."
El informe llegó a la conclusión de que cuando las autoridades religiosas tuvieron que enfrentarse con la evidencia de los abusos sexuales optaron por transladar a los culpables a otro lugar, donde, en muchos casos, eran libres de abusar de nuevo.
"Hay evidencia de que tales personas volvían a asumir puestos de enseñanza a los pocos días de haber recibido dispensas por serias acusaciones o admisiones de haber cometido abusos sexuales" señala el informe. "La seguridad de los niños en general no era un asunto digno de tenerse en cuenta"
La iglesia católica se ha enrocado ante el informe, que fue retrasado en repetidas ocasiones por demandas de la Iglesia, pérdida de documentación y presunta obstrucción del gobierno.
Los Hermanos Cristianos retrasaron la investigación durante más de un año con una demanda que defendió con éxito el derecho de sus miembros al anonimato en todas las referencias en el informe, incluso en los casos en que los Hermanos han sido condenados por ataques sexuales y físicos contra los niños.
La Iglesia ya ha protagonizado diversos escándalos por los abusos sexuales de varios sacerdotes en diversas parroquias irlandesas. Los expertos de la Comisión han tratado de producir un amplio retrato del daño sexual, físico y emocional infligido a los niños que fueron sus víctimas. Miles de sobrevivientes dijeron que no tenía ninguna forma segura de contar sus historias hasta que la investigación se inició, porque gran parte de la sociedad católica irlandesa los habría considerado unos mentirosos.
ISOCA ha dicho hoy que es hasta ahora el Vaticano quien ha sido el encargado de investigar sus órdenes religiosas en la República.
John Kelly, el coordinador de ISOCA en Dublín, dijo: "Ahora que la comisión Ryan [Laffoy] ha terminado, hacemos un llamamiento al Papa Benedicto XVI para que convoque un tribunal especial para investigar a fondo las actividades de las órdenes religiosas católicas en Irlanda."
"Entre otras cosas, por ejemplo, un tribunal así podría determinar el paradero de los bienes públicos irlandeses que fueron objeto de apropiación indebida durante muchos años por las órdenes religiosas y de su restitución al erario del Estado irlandés."
Durante las investigaciones de la comisión, se recogió evidencia oral de más de 1.000 personas, de edades comprendidas principalmente entre los 50 y 70 años.

Varios cientos viajaron a Irlanda desde EE.UU. y Australia, para describir su infancia de terror e intimidación.
Una de las víctimas, John Walsh, de Isoca, calificó el informe como un hachazo que había dejado enormes heridas abiertas. "El poco consuelo que tenemos es saber que se ha reivindicado a las víctimas que fueron violadas y abusadas sexualmente", dijo. "Estoy muy enojado, amargado, y me siento defraudado y engañado. Nunca habría abierto mis heridas si hubiera sabido que esto iba a ser el resultado final. Ha sido devastador para mí y para la mayoría de las víctimas porque no hay procedimiento penal ni petición de responsabilidades."
La primera juez de la comisión, María Laffoy, dimitió de su cargo en 2003, alegando que el departamento irlandés de Educación -que estuvo a cargo de la inspección de los orfanatos y escuelas industriales- se negó a entregarle la documentación.

Tengo una novela inédita de un autor catalán titulada "Vertedero de muñecas" en que se toca tangencialmente la pederastia en los colegios católicos españoles. ¿Y aquí cuándo? ¿O los del Opus Dei son mejores que los Legionarios de Cristo? ¿Los jesuitas más santos que los nemesianos? ¡Pero si hasta el pobre Javier Ortiz, recién fallecido, lo insinúa en su obituario! Pero poco podemos esperar de un país que no consigue enterrar a sus muertos. ¿Le vamos a pedir que condene a éstos si no lo hace con asesinos?

Autor: ENTREVISTA: MICK WATERS narra los abusos sufridos en su infancia

Las palabras de Mick Waters puedan parecer duras leídas negro sobre blanco, pero su voz es como su mirada: un flujo constante de pena, rabia y misericordia. Ésta es la historia de este sexagenario, contada por él mismo en la terraza de una modesta cafetería de Coventry, en el centro de Inglaterra.
"Yo tenía 10 años cuando me llevaron a la escuela industrial de la congregación de los Hermanos Cristianos en Artane. Era en los primeros años 50. El Gobierno le había adjudicado a mi familia una casa nueva en Dublín pero era demasiado pequeña y yo me quedé a vivir con mi abuela y seguí yendo a la escuela de siempre. Al cabo de dos años me convocaron en los tribunales por algo relacionado con la escuela. Yo no sabía qué podía ser. Fui con mi padre y dijeron que llevaba dos años sin ir a la escuela. Yo era un niño y no entendía de qué hablaban. El problema es que mi familia me había registrado en la nueva escuela pero yo seguí yendo a la vieja. No me hicieron caso y me encerraron en Artane".

"Para mí fue como si me llevaran a la cárcel. Era una injusticia tan grande... Pero a nadie le importaba. Luego supe que todo se debía a que las órdenes religiosas que regentaban las escuelas industriales iban cada lunes a los tribunales para conseguir nuevos niños porque el Estado les pagaba según el número de alumnos".

"Hoy puede parecer extraño que me hicieran eso. Pero el poder de las órdenes religiosas era tan grande que el Gobierno no se atrevía a intervenir. Si un niño moría en un instituto no estaban obligados a informar a la policía para que investigara. Como dentro había una Iglesia, se consideraba tierra consagrada que no se podía corromper. Yo estaba traumatizado en Artane. No estaba acostumbrado a una escuela con 850 niños, enorme, un viejo castillo oscuro y muy frío, un lugar muy hostil. Sentía un vacío absoluto. Nunca te veían como a un niño pequeño. Te enfrentabas a todo tipo de castigos corporales. Te golpeaban en las manos o en el trasero, te retorcían el cuello, había todo tipo de castigos. Te pegaban con cualquier cosa. Lo hacían para que te conformaras".

"Aquellos enormes dormitorios con 250 niños tenían una habitación de castigo y se oían los gritos de los niños llorando de horror y dolor. Los gritos se extendían por todo el dormitorio y eran otra forma de meternos el miedo en el cuerpo. Y abusaban sexualmente de los niños, les degradaban sexualmente enfrente de los otros niños. De mí también abusaron sexualmente. Oh, sí. Yo era una persona fuerte. Aún lo soy. Y a la gente con carácter siempre la llevaban a la habitación de castigo y ahí dos o tres hermanos hacían lo que querían contigo, para satisfacer sus costumbres más sucias. Cuando eres un niño no comprendes los abusos sexuales. No sabes lo que es el sexo. Pero en el fondo del corazón sabías que era algo malo. Hay cosas que no comprendes pero sabes que son algo terrible".

"Muchos niños estaban como muertos. En realidad nunca tuvieron vida. Fueron, fuimos todos, destruidos allí. Sin nadie que les cuidara, que les enseñara qué hacer, cómo coger un autobús, pagar un alquiler o preparar la comida. Cómo vivir".

"Nunca hablabas con los demás de lo que te pasaba. Tenías miedo de que viniera el hermano y tú fueras el siguiente. Una vez se lo mencioné a un sacerdote muy joven que estaba en su primer destino. Se quedó sorprendido y en su inocencia les preguntó qué pasaba. Le trasladaron y ese día me pegaron hasta dejarme inconsciente. Estuve seis semanas en el hospital".

"Yo dejé la escuela con 15 años. Traté de volver con mis padres pero no pude. La conexión se había roto. Me fui al Ejército pero se dieron cuenta de que era menor y trabajé repartiendo periódicos. No podía encontrar nada mejor porque en cuanto decía de qué escuela venía me veían como una mala persona. Era un estigma. No había nada para mí y en cuanto pude me vine a Inglaterra. Hice todo tipo de trabajos. E intenté educarme. Sabía que necesitaba educación porque es la clave para todo. Iba a la escuela nocturna. Estudiaba inglés, y matemáticas. Más tarde hice un curso de cinco años de psicología. Quería trabajar en algo que me permitiera ayudar a otra gente. Dio sentido a mi vida. Trabajé en un instituto con víctimas de malos tratos. Ahora trabajo con gente que ha sufrido abusos en Jersey, en las islas del Canal. Llevo 25 años trabajando en el mundo de la educación, aquí en Coventry. Es muy gratificante. Hay niños que no saben leer ni escribir con propiedad pero tienen un cerebro preparado para el conocimiento". [Waters insiste en que se publique su teléfono, por si algún lector necesita contactar con él: (+44) 0 2476.551.952]

Y prosigue su relato: "Me casé joven. Pero no podía explicarle a mi esposa lo que me había ocurrido. Simplemente no podía. Lo intenté muchas veces, pero tenía miedo de que me dejara. Con el paso del tiempo se lo acabé explicando. Y ella me dijo: 'Sabía que había algo, lo sabía, pero no podía preguntártelo; tenía que esperar a que tú me lo dijeras a mí'. Y todo salió bien".

"Durante mucho tiempo intentamos que se reconociera lo que pasó en las escuelas. Por fin, el 11 de mayo de 1999, Bertie Ahern [entonces primer ministro de Irlanda] se disculpó. Fue fantástico, algo grande. Era el final de un viaje y el principio de otro. El momento de dejar trabajar a la comisión de investigación y ver qué ocurría. Ahora, de alguna manera me siento vindicado por el trabajo de la comisión. En líneas generales damos la bienvenida al informe porque refleja lo que creemos que nos pasó. Por supuesto, en opinión de mucha gente los religiosos que cometieron los abusos tenían que haber sido identificados pero las órdenes eran muy reacias a admitir lo que ocurrió; para ellos no había pasado nada y tendríamos que estar agradecidos de que se hubieran ocupado de nosotros. Han estado obstruyendo mucho. No querían entregar ningún documento porque sabían que había muy mala gente, sabían lo que habían estado haciendo, y que muchos habrían acabado en la cárcel. Para ser sincero, se llegó a un acuerdo con esas órdenes, que aceptaron entregar esa información con la condición de que no saliera de la comisión y no se publicara".

"Las órdenes habían entregado a algunos seglares que cometían abusos para hacer ver que afrontaban el problema. Pero nunca entregaron a los mayores perpetradores. Los trasladaban de escuela a escuela y les cambiaban el nombre".

"La gente me pregunta si tengo alguna foto de cuando estaba en el instituto, pero no: no había cámaras allí, no se tomaban fotografías. Hace cuatro o cinco años, viendo una vieja película de un festival de Corpus Christi me identifiqué a mí mismo, cuando tenía 11 años. Fue la primera vez que me vi de niño en aquel lugar. Porque tampoco había espejos, nunca veías tu propio reflejo".

"No puedo creer en las enseñanzas de la iglesia católica. Creo en Dios, tengo temor de Dios, pero no creo en una iglesia que se esconde en la ley canónica para esconder sus abusos. Creo que ahora en Irlanda está pasando con los niños inmigrantes lo que nos pasó a nosotros. Hay demasiados menores inmigrantes que son llevados a refugios y desaparecen. Y a nadie parece importarle. Una vez le dije al arzobispo de Dublín: 'por favor, no me diga que los abusos de niños en el seno de la Iglesia son cosa del pasado.

La gente sabe que personas de muy alta posición en la jerarquía esclasiástica estaban al tanto de lo que ocurría'. ¿Y qué están haciendo? Ahora puede suceder lo mismo. A tus hijos o a tus nietos. ¿Cómo sabes que no? Todos tenemos que hacer lo posible por acabar con esto. Tenemos que proteger a los niños hasta que pueden protegerse a sí mismos".

"Cuando empezó este movimiento, hace más de 10 años, muchos conocidos católicos dejaron de hablarnos a mí y a mi mujer por lo que decíamos de la Iglesia. Fue triste pero es un precio que hubo que pagar. En el último año y pico se han percatado de que estaban equivocados. Pero si lo hubieran hecho hace 10 años a lo mejor se podría haber ayudado a aquel niño o aquella niña de la calle. Pero así es la vida. Así es la naturaleza humana. Ojalá la gente se de cuenta de que este informe explica lo que pasa en Irlanda, pero en realidad se refiere a algo que pasa en el mundo entero".

No, si al final tendrán razón con la campaña esa del lince.

Te invito a leer mi artículo y te aseguro que al final estarás de acuerdo en que en Irlanda los linces están más protegidos que algunos niños.

todos sabemos que esas porquerias de abusos sesuales y violaciones masivas en todo el mundo ocurren en escuelas catolicas protestantes judias cretianos ortodoxos y evangelicos (aca en argentina son de lo peor junto con los afros) privadas y publicas siendo el primer puesto por lejos en las publicas y las privadas laicas seguidas de las catolicas protestantes etc es peor en las universidades pero a eso lo llaman abuso sexual o acoso sexual y es todavia peor en otros ambitos donde incluso captan con engaños a chicas para la trata de blancas lo de la iglesia catolica es malo pero es mucho peor es en las otras religiones protestantes empezando con los evangelicos incluso en los judios y los laicos esta es una enfermedad que no tiene cura ya que se sabe que el 60 por ciento de las mujeres de entre 11 y 50 años han sido abusadas en distintos ambitos mediante manoseos desnudadas toqueteadas y con juegosa sexuales sin penetracion por lo que es dificil probar el delito los casos de violacion y demas son menos comunes y alcanzan a un 20 por ciento de ese total no defiendo a los curas pero miren para todos lados ya que hay mierda en todas partes esto es ante todo una estrategia para destruir la iglesia catolica ya que se ensañan con la misma inglesia catolica y no con otros entes religiosos

LA TARIFA ELÉCTRICA, EN MANOS DE UN PEÓN DE LA MAFIA DEL KILOWATIO

Combata la corrupción difundiendo www.estafaluz.com

En el Diario de Sesiones del Congreso de los Diputados (1) correspondiente a la Comisión de Industria, Turismo y Comercio celebrada el 17.02.2009, el diputado Antonio Erias Rey (2) del Grupo Popular, formuló una pregunta a Pedro Marín Uribe (3), actual secretario de Estado de Energía (4), sobre la subida aplicada por el Gobierno a la tarifa eléctrica en enero de 2009, en la que, cómo no, me citaba:

> "Hay una controversia que también está en la calle. Perdóneme que sea tan contundente a la hora de preguntarle estas cosas, pero es que verdaderamente me asaltan muchas dudas.
>
> No sé si el ingeniero sevillano, don Antonio Moreno Alfaro, tiene alguna disputa tradicional con el ministerio, pero parece que ha llegado a la conclusión de que los datos aportados por el ministerio no son correctos; supongo lo habrán chequeado, porque si no, sería conveniente que lo hicieran.

Yo le reclamo que lo hagan, porque me preocupa mucho si es verdad lo que dice sobre la factura, ya que nosotros no disponemos de capacidad para poder hacerlo, solamente las eléctricas y ustedes pueden hacerlo.

Por eso le reclamo que nos explique si la tarifa tipo 202 ha subido el 338 y el 276 por ciento o si es lo que el ministerio nos ha dicho.

Si es lo que el ministerio nos ha dicho, en unos casos se trata de unas cifras y unos parámetros ciertamente prudentes, en otros casos más elevados, pero cuando hablamos del 338 y del 276 por ciento la verdad es que ya nos preocupa más.

Y si esto viene de la mano de una persona que tiene experiencia acreditada y profesionalidad, si no es verdad, el ministerio tendrá que desmentirlo, si es una difamación, será un delito, pero si no lo es, también deberán aclararlo".

16.6- Análisis de la pregunta de D. Antonio Erias Rey al Gobierno Puesto que el diputado D. Antonio Erias Rey es catedrático de Economía aplicada voy a pasar por alto el galimatías morfológico y sintáctico que perpetra, pero como una de sus funciones es "controlar la acción del Gobierno", es lógico esperar que una pregunta suya sobre una decisión económica del Gobierno que afecta a 24 millones de usuarios esté perfectamente documentada para evitarse el bochorno de quedar como un bobo, sobre todo, teniendo a su disposición las explicaciones y la documentación incluidas en www.estafaluz.com

Primera incorrección: No es cierto que yo haya afirmado que "la tarifa tipo 2.0.2 ha subido el 338 y el 276 por ciento", porque:

- ignoro cómo una tarifa puede subir simultáneamente el 338 y el 276%
- lo que he afirmado es que la subida media real aplicada el 01.01.2009 a la tarifa 2.0.2 (4.05 euros/mes) es un 340.10% superior a la afirmada por el Gobierno (0.92 euros/mes) en su nota de prensa de 29.12.2008, y así lo demuestran los documentos incluidos en el apartado 14.7 de la entrega 14.- La tarifa de la corrupción: Análisis de la primera subida de 2009, entre los cuales está la tabla de incrementos medios reales aplicados el 01.01.2009.

Segunda incorrección: No es cierto que "solamente las compañías eléctricas y el Gobierno" dispongan de la capacidad necesaria para comprobar la veracidad de los datos facilitados por el Ministerio de Industria sobre las subidas medias aplicadas el 01.01.2009 a las tarifas eléctricas, sino que cualquiera que tenga unos conocimientos matemáticos elementales puede comprobarlo comparando las tarifas eléctricas de 01.07.2008 y 01.01.2009
16.7- La respuesta de Pedro Marín Uribe al Congreso la respuesta de Pedro Luis Marín Uribe a la pregunta de D. Antonio Erias Rey fue la siguiente:

"Paso a otra pregunta de D. Antonio Erias, del Grupo Popular, que ha tratado muchísimos temas.
Me referiré a uno que ha mencionado, pero que es un poco anecdótico.
Me ha hablado de una persona que realiza denuncias y que anuncia datos de subidas del 300 por ciento de la luz, etcétera. Es una persona que viene remitiendo denuncias de estas características al ministerio —se tiene registro de ellas— desde el año 1997, fechas en las que el entonces ministro, seguramente con muy buen criterio, no hizo excesivo caso de las acusaciones, puesto que eran sin pruebas.

En este periodo, diversas empresas eléctricas han llevado a esta persona ante los tribunales y en todos los casos sus acusaciones no han tenido valor, no ha tenido pruebas.
Por tanto, esa es la tónica que mantiene el ministerio desde el año 1997 y que desde que yo soy secretario general de la Energía hemos seguido manteniendo. No hemos dado más credibilidad que la que se ha dado.
Por supuesto, estos datos son fáciles de comprobar no solamente por nosotros, como usted decía, y por las empresas, sino que con los datos de facturación anuales y otros se puede ver que estas subidas no son correctas. En cualquier caso, las acusaciones de facturaciones incorrectas hay que tramitarlas ante las comunidades autónomas, ante los tribunales, por supuesto, por la vía judicial.
Doy por cerrado este tema y enlazo con el de la facturación".

16.8.- Análisis de la respuesta de Pedro Marín Uribe al Congreso

Existen dos posibilidades:

a)- Pedro Luis Marín Uribe no ha leído mis denuncias .

b) - Pedro Luis Marín Uribe sí ha leído mis denuncias.

a) Si no ha leído mis denuncias, Pedro Luis Marín Uribe habla por boca de ganso, como un simple correveidile que se limita a repetir el guión dictado por el presidente del Gobierno y el ministro de Industria, los dos máximos responsables políticos y penales de que el Boletín Oficial del Estado (en adelante, BOE) esté siendo utilizado para cometer una estafa (6) que genera actualmente 350.000 euros diarios, afecta a 24 millones de clientes de las compañías eléctricas, y lleva reportados a éstas al menos la mitad de los más de 8.000 millones de euros (7) cobrados ilegalmente por el alquiler de los contadores de la luz.

b) Si ha leído mis denuncias, Pedro Luis Marín Uribe es un prevaricador, pues, como master y doctor en Economía por la London School of Economics y profesor titular de Economía Aplicada tiene -o debiera tener- los conocimientos matemáticos para discernir y comprender en qué consiste la estafa (8)

En cualquiera de los dos casos, Don Pedro Luis Marín Uribe ha aplicado la máxima de que "a quien quiera saber, mentiras con él"

16.8.1.- Falsedades en la respuesta de Pedro Marín Uribe al Congreso
Las falsedades cometidas por Pedro Luis Marín Uribe en su respuesta al diputado D. Antonio Erias Rey son las siguientes:

Primera falsedad: Es falso que "desde el año 1997 se tiene registro de las denuncias que esta persona viene remitiendo al Ministerio de Industria", ya que mi primera denuncia ante dicho Ministerio es de 08.11.1999. En ella puse en conocimiento del entonces ministro Josep Piqué los dos siguientes hechos:

- La estafa en los precios de alquiler de los contadores. Si desea más información sobre este asunto, pulse aquí para ir al comienzo de las ocho entregas dedicadas a explicar la estafa (Primera entrega: 6.- La estafa, paso a paso: Antecedentes. Última entrega: 13.- La estafa, paso a paso: Ejecución/ Gobierno PSOE (III)).

- La inexistencia de una normativa oficial sobre verificación y renovación del parque de contadores. Si desea más información sobre este asunto, pulse aquí para ir a 3.- 7.500 millones de euros por un servicio inexistente.

Segunda falsedad: Es falso que las acusaciones hechas en mis denuncias ante el Ministerio de Industria "son sin pruebas".
Para demostrar esta segunda falsedad bastan, precisamente, los dos documentos adjuntos a mi citado escrito de 08.11.1999, el cual no recibió respuesta (mis escritos posteriores, incluidos los dirigidos al presidente del Gobierno, tampoco).
Dichos documentos, requisados ambos por inspectores de la Comisión Europea durante los registros efectuados los días 12 y 13 de mayo de 1998 en las sedes de Landis & Gyr Española (Sevilla), Siemens (Madrid) y Schlumberger (Barcelona), son los siguientes:

1.- Notas de la reunión de 23.11.1995 de los fabricantes de contadores con Unesa

La reunión a la que se refiere este documento es la celebrada en la sede de Unesa por los fabricantes de contadores y las compañías eléctricas el 23.11.1995, dos días después de que El País publicara la noticia Los tribunales investigan el presunto lobby del contador, en la que se sacaba por primera vez a la luz pública al grupo clandestino Contact. Si desea más información sobre este asunto, pulse aquí para ir al comienzo de las dos entregas dedicadas a explicar el papel de los fabricantes de contadores en la estafa (Primera entrega: 8.- La estafa, paso a paso: Ejecución/ Fabricantes (I). Última entrega: 9.- La estafa, paso a paso: Ejecución/ Fabricantes (II)).

La importancia de este documento radica en que dos de las partes implicadas en la estafa (los fabricantes de contadores de contadores y las compañías eléctricas) reconocen que los precios de alquiler publicados en el BOE han sido calculados partiendo de los datos falsos facilitados al Ministerio de Industria por los fabricantes de contadores.

En la página 4 de este documento constan, literalmente, las siguientes afirmaciones de Gustavo Eisenberg, entonces director de la Asociación nacional de fabricantes de bienes de equipo, quien en la citada reunión representaba a los fabricantes de contadores:

"En 1.984 se dictó una disposición por el Ministerio de Industria y Energía autorizando el cobro mensual al consumidor del 1.25% del precio del contador.
Este factor se aplica sobre los precios de lista, cuando debería hacerse sobre los reales, los cuales son inferiores en un 50% o más.
Si este asunto saliera a la luz pública, podría producirse un escándalo de imprevisibles consecuencias para todos.
El Sr. Rivero [Pedro Rivero Torre, actual presidente de Unesa] conoce bien este problema".

Si desea más información sobre este asunto, pulse aquí para ir a 9.4.- La traición, al descubierto en El País.

2.- Escrito de 26.05.1996 de la Asociación nacional de fabricantes de bienes de equipo al Ministerio de Industria.

Respecto a la inexistencia de una normativa oficial sobre verificación y renovación del parque de contadores, este documento, redactado por los fabricantes de contadores, afirma lo siguiente:

"(…) la Orden de 20.12.84 del Ministerio de Industria y Energía revisó los precios máximos de alquiler de los contadores para tomar en consideración la "adecuada renovación y actualización del parque de contadores" por las Empresas Eléctricas, con el objeto de evitar "los perjuicios para la calidad y fiabilidad de la medida" que se derivan de la no renovación y actualización del parque.

El instrumento legal establecido por el Estado para que el control metrológico del parque de contadores se realice con calidad y fiabilidad es la VERIFICACIÓN PERIÓDICA, establecida desde 1985 por la Ley de Metrología, pero que hasta la fecha no se ha puesto en marcha.

> (…) al no ser todavía obligatorio este control metrológico mediante la VERIFICACIÓN PERIÓDICA, las acciones de renovación y actualización de contadores han sido limitadas, existiendo aún centenares de miles de contadores eléctricos instalados con más de 40 años de antigüedad y millones con más de 30 años que no están siendo sometidos a un control legal que garantice la exactitud de la medida".

Respecto a la estafa en los precios de alquiler de los contadores, este documento es una velada amenaza al Ministerio de Industria, motivada por la difícil situación económica en la que entonces se encontraba el sector debido a la inexistencia de una normativa oficial que obligara a las compañías eléctricas a verificar periódicamente sus parques de contadores y a retirar aquellas unidades que llevaran instaladas más de 30 años (la normativa, que debió entrar en vigor en 1984, junto con el Real Decreto 1725/1984, sigue sin existir).
El documento es una velada amenaza porque incluye una tabla y un gráfico que bastan por sí solos para demostrar que el BOE miente y está siendo utilizado desde al menos 1986 para cometer una estafa en los precios de alquiler de los contadores de la luz.

TABLA I.- EVOLUCION DEL MERCADO DE CONTADORES ELECTRICOS Y OTROS INDICES RELACIONADOS

Los valores porcentuales de pmm y pma, así como sus respectivas representaciones gráficas, coinciden si los valores de pma se calculan conforme a lo establecido en la condición 16 de la póliza de abono aprobada mediante el Real Decreto 1725/1984, es decir, multiplicando por la constante k= 1.25/100 los valores de pmm

La estafa es tan burda que, como le demuestro seguidamente, para descubrirla basta un simple vistazo a las dos últimas filas de la tabla y a las curvas II y III del gráfico, cuyos significados son los siguientes:

Penúltima fila de la tabla I: Incluye los valores porcentuales del precio medio de mercado del contador monofásico de simple tarifa (que es el instalado en la práctica totalidad de las viviendas) entre los años 1986 y 1997. El valor tomado como referencia es el precio medio de mercado en 1986. Así pues, cada uno de los doce valores porcentuales indicados en esta fila ha sido obtenido multiplicando por 100 el cociente resultante de dividir cada precio medio de mercado por el precio medio de mercado en 1986.

Última fila de la tabla I: Incluye los valores porcentuales del precio de alquiler del contador monofásico de simple tarifa publicado en el BOE entre los años 1986 y 1997. El valor tomado como referencia es el precio de alquiler publicado en el BOE en 1986. Así pues, cada uno de los doce valores porcentuales indicados en esta fila ha sido obtenido multiplicando por 100 el cociente resultante de dividir cada precio de alquiler por el precio de alquiler en 1986.

Curva II: Es la representación gráfica de los doce valores indicados en la última fila de la tabla.

Curva III: Es la representación gráfica de los doce valores indicados en la penúltima fila de la tabla.

Veamos si los precios de alquiler de los cuales proceden los valores porcentuales indicados en la última fila de la tabla y representados en la curva II han sido calculados conforme a lo establecido legalmente, que es lo afirmado por el Gobierno, o, por el contrario, han sido calculados ilegalmente y encubren una estafa, que es lo que vengo denunciando desde el 08.11.1999 ante el Ministerio de Industria; desde el 25.06.2001, ante la Presidencia del Gobierno y la Jefatura del Estado, y desde el 19.01.2000, ante los tribunales.

Real Decreto 1725/1984, de 18 de julio precio medio del mercado

...bre 1984 BOE.—Núm. 230

16. Instalaciones de contadores y otros aparatos.—La instalación que ha de servir de base para la colocación de los contadores u otros aparatos de medida podrá ser realizada por las empresas eléctricas o bien por instalador autorizado, a elección del propietario y por su cuenta, en lugar que cumpla las condiciones reglamentarias.

Los abonados tienen derecho a facilitar los contadores y otros aparatos de su propiedad, o alquilárselos a las empresas suministradoras de energía eléctrica, o a otras entidades legalmente establecidas extrañas a ellas, siempre que los aparatos de medida pertenezcan a un sistema y tipo homologados, y estén verificados oficialmente con resultado favorable. El tipo de alquiler aplicable por las empresas suministradoras de energía eléctrica no será superior al 1,25 por 100 mensual del precio medio del aparato.

Las empresas eléctricas estarán obligadas en todo caso a suministrar en alquiler aparatos contadores no especiales, monofásicos o trifásicos de capacidad normalizada, de hasta 63 amperios por hilo, e interruptores de control de potencia (ICP) para la misma intensidad nominal, así como los de doble tarifa, relojes y demás aparatos necesarios para la aplicación de la tarifa nocturna con el mismo límite de intensidad. Para estos aparatos el Ministerio de Industria y Energía fijará las cantidades concretas máximas que se puedan aplicar por su alquiler, en base al mismo 1,25 por 100 mensual del precio medio del mercado del aparato.

La venta y alquiler de toda clase de aparatos por empresas o entidades legalmente establecidas, extrañas a las Empresas suministradoras de energía eléctrica, no se someten a esta regulación por no estar en régimen de precios autorizados.

Los equipos para la medida y control de un determinado suministro se considerarán adscritos a la correspondiente instalación y no será necesaria su sustitución siempre que sean adecuados a las características del suministro solicitado por un nuevo abonado.

Si la empresa suministradora decidiese utilizar aparatos de control, tales como limitadores de corriente o interruptores de control de potencia (ICP), podrá hacerlo, previa comunicación al abonado, ateniéndose, en lo que a la instalación de dichos aparatos se refiere, a lo siguiente:

a) Como regla general se ubicarán en el domicilio del abonado.

b) De no estimarse convelnete esta ubicación, se instalarán en la centralización correspondiente junto a los aparatos de medida del propio abonado, bien entendido que en este caso los aparatos serán, preceptivamente, bien de reenganche automático o bien reenganchables por el abonado desde su propio domicilio. El alquiler a percibir, en este caso, será el correspondiente al del ICP de accionamiento directo de la misma intensidad.

En los casos en que el ICP se instalase con posterioridad a la fecha de iniciación del servicio, todos los gastos de dicha instalación serán a cargo de la Empresa suministradora.

Según la condición 16 de la póliza de abono aprobada mediante Real Decreto 1725/1984 (BOE de 25.09.1984), que continúa vigente, "el Ministerio de Industria fijará las cantidades concretas máximas que las compañías eléctricas pueden aplicar por el alquiler de sus equipos de medida no especiales, en base al 1.25% mensual del precio medio de mercado del aparato".

Así pues, el precio máximo de alquiler (pma) de un contador es el producto de su precio medio de mercado (pmm) por la constante K= 1.25/100. Es decir:

pma= (1.25/100) x pmm

Le voy a poner un ejemplo práctico para que compruebe qué sucede cuando se representan gráficamente dos series de valores porcentuales y los puntos de una de las series se obtienen multiplicando por una constante los puntos de la otra.

Supongamos que los precios medios de mercado (pmm) del contador monofásico de simple tarifa entre 1986 y 1997, que es el período al que se refieren la tabla y el gráfico adjuntos al escrito de 26.05.1996 de la Asociación nacional de fabricantes de bienes de equipo al Ministerio de Industria, fueran los indicados en la página 3 del escrito de 29.08.2000 de dicha Asociación al Ministerio de Economía (este Ministerio detentó las competencias en tarifas eléctricas desde el 28.04.2000 al 18.04.2004, en que no existió el Ministerio de Industria).

Para simplificar los cálculos, utilizaré sólo los tres primeros valores:

pmm 1986= 5.478 pesetas
pmm 1987= 5.657 pesetas
pmm 1988= 6.055 pesetas

Tomando como referencia pmm 1986= 5.478 pesetas, los valores porcentuales son los siguientes:

pmm 1986= 100 x (5.478/5.478)= 100
pmm 1987= 100 x (5.657/5.478)= 103.26
pmm 1988= 100 x (6.055/5.478)= 110.53

De acuerdo con lo establecido en la condición 16 de la póliza de abono aprobada mediante el Real Decreto 1725/1984, los precios máximos de alquiler (pma) correspondientes a los tres anteriores precios medios de mercado (pmm) son los siguientes:

pma 1986= 5.478 x (1.25/100)= 68.48 pesetas
pma 1987= 5.657 x (1.25/100)= 70.71 pesetas
pma 1988= 6.055 x (1.25/100)= 75.69 pesetas

Tomando como referencia pma 1986= 68.48 pesetas, los valores porcentuales son los siguientes:

pma 1986= 100 x (68.48/68.48)= 100
pma 1987= 100 x (70.71/68.48)= 103.26
pma 1988= 100 x (75.69/68.48)= 110.53

Como ve, los valores porcentuales de pmm y pma coinciden, lo cual es lógico, dado que la relación pma/pmm es constante (el valor de la constante es k= 1.25/100).
Y puesto que coinciden los valores porcentuales de pmm y pma, también coinciden las curvas representativas de dichos valores.
Ahora, si observa las dos últimas filas de la tabla adjunta al escrito de 26.05.1996 de la Asociación nacional de bienes de equipo al Ministerio de Industria, verá que no coinciden, lo cual tiene como consecuencia que tampoco coincidan sus representaciones gráficas (es decir, las curvas II y III del gráfico adjunto al mencionado escrito de 26.05.1996).

¿Por qué no coinciden las dos citadas filas ni, por tanto, las curvas II y III?

El motivo es obvio: Porque los precios máximos de alquiler a los que corresponden los valores porcentuales indicados en la última fila no han sido calculados multiplicando por la constante K= 1.25/100 los precios medios de mercado a los que corresponden los valores porcentuales indicados en la penúltima fila.

La tabla y el gráfico adjuntos al escrito de 26.05.1996 de la Asociación nacional de bienes de equipo al Ministerio de Industria son, por tanto, dos pruebas fehacientes e irrebatibles de la estafa en los precios de alquiler de los contadores de la luz, pues demuestran que los precios de alquiler publicados en el BOE no han sido calculados conforme a lo establecido en la condición 16 de la póliza de abono aprobada mediante el Real Decreto 1725/1984, que es lo afirmado por el Gobierno en el propio BOE.

Así pues, es suficiente un simple vistazo a la tabla y/o el gráfico adjuntos al segundo de los documentos anexos a mi denuncia de 08.11.1999 ante el Ministerio de Industria para comprobar que el Boletín Oficial del Estado está siendo utilizado desde 1986 (3) para cometer una estafa en los precios de alquiler de los contadores (la cantidad estafada está representada por la superficie comprendida entre las curvas II y III).

> (3) La fecha exacta desde la que el BOE está siendo utilizado para cometer una estafa en los precios de alquiler de los contadores de la luz es 29.12.1984, fecha de publicación de la Orden de 20.12.1984 del Ministerio de Industra. > 10.- LA ESTAFA, PASO A PASO: EJECUCIÓN/ GOBIERNO PSOE (I))

Tercera falsedad: Es falso que "diversas empresas eléctricas han llevado a esta persona ante los tribunales y en todos los casos sus acusaciones no han tenido valor, no ha tenido pruebas". Y es falso por los siguientes motivos:

- He sido yo el que ha llevado a las compañías eléctricas ante los tribunales (concretamente, ante la Audiencia Nacional), y no al revés.

- Mis acusaciones "no han tenido valor" no porque yo no aportara pruebas sino porque, como demostraré documentalmente en las entregas correspondientes a Implicados/Justicia, los magistrados y fiscales de la Audiencia Nacional y el Tribunal Constitucional archivaron fraudulentamente el procedimiento penal incoado para investigar los hechos denunciados en mi querella.

  Como muestra de dicho archivo fraudulento basten dos datos:

  - La única diligencia practicada en los 18.6 meses transcurridos entre la orden de incoación del procedimiento penal (25.05.2001) y el primer auto de archivo (13.12.2002) fue la toma de declaración a los querellados (a mí no se me tomó declaración a pesar de haberlo solicitado reiteradamente).

  - El recurso de apelación contra el archivo del procedimiento penal fue desestimado sin haber sido leído por el tribunal.

16.8.2.- ¿Por qué Pedro Marín Uribe mintió al Congreso?

Si los hechos denunciados por mí son tan evidentes que para probarlos bastan los dos documentos adjuntos a mi escrito de 08.11.1999, el segundo de los cuales obra en el Ministerio de Industria desde finales de mayo de 1996, ¿por qué Pedro Luis Marín Uribe insiste en su respuesta de 17.02.2009 al Congreso en que mis denuncias "son sin pruebas" y carecen, por tanto, de credibilidad?:

> (…) en 1997, el entonces ministro, seguramente con muy buen criterio, no hizo excesivo caso de las acusaciones, puesto que eran sin pruebas. (…) en todos los casos sus acusaciones no han tenido valor, no ha tenido pruebas. Por tanto, esa es la tónica que mantiene el Ministerio desde el año 1997 y que desde que yo soy

> No hemos dado más credibilidad que la que se ha dado".

Los motivos por los cuales Pedro Luis Marín Uribe insiste en que mis denuncias "son sin pruebas" y carecen de credibilidad son, entre otros, los siguientes:

> - El Gobierno al que pertenece Pedro Luis Marín Uribe es del PSOE, el partido que planificó la estafa, la cometió desde el 30.12.1984 hasta el 06.05.1996 y la vuelve a cometer desde el 18.04.2004. Si desea más información sobre este asunto, pulse aquí para ir al comienzo de las cuatro entregas dedicadas a explicar la planificación de la estafa y su ejecución por el PSOE (Primera entrega: 7.- La estafa paso: Planificación. Última entrega: 13.- La estafa, paso a paso: Ejecución/ Gobierno PSOE (III)).
>
> - La estafa se comete desde la Secretaría General de la Energía, cuyo responsable es Pedro Marín Uribe.
> - Pedro Marín Uribe fue nombrado a dedo (y sabe, por tanto, que puede ser cesado a dedo).

Nada más lógico, por tanto, que Pedro Marín Uribe, tercer responsable político y penal de que la estafa continúe cometiéndose desde el 21.04.2008, intente encubrirse a sí mismo, al PSOE y a los dos máximos responsables actuales de dicho delito (José Luis Rodríguez Zapatero, presidente del Gobierno, y Miguel Sebastián Gascón), que son, además, quienes pueden destituirle.

Y puesto que Pedro Marín Uribe sabe que mis acusaciones son ciertas, nada más lógico que utilice la (rancia e inútil) técnica de ningunearme, descalificarme y desacreditarme, afirmando que "es un tema un poco anecdótico", "las denuncias de esa persona son sin pruebas" y "desde que soy secretario general de Energía sigo la tónica, seguida desde 1997 con muy buen criterio por el Ministerio de Industria, de no hacer caso de las acusaciones de esa persona".

16.8.3.- ¿Para quién trabaja Pedro Marín Uribe?
Aunque es evidente que el sueldo de Pedro Marín Uribe lo pagamos los contribuyentes y que dicho pago es a cambio de que garantice nuestra defensa y proteja, mediante procedimientos eficaces, nuestros legítimos intereses económicos (art. 51.1 de la Constitución), es posible que usted, tras leer lo expuesto hasta ahora, se haga la siguiente pregunta: ¿para quién trabaja Pedro Marín Uribe?

Si se ha hecho usted la citada pregunta, le voy a facilitar tres datos que le ayudarán a encontrar la respuesta.

Primer dato.- Como secretario general de la Energía, primero, y como secretario de Estado de la Energía, después, Pedro Marín Uribe es desde el 21.04.2008 el máximo responsable del organismo encargado de la elaboración y, en su caso, aprobación de la tarifa eléctrica.

Así pues, Pedro Luis Marín Uribe es el máximo responsable de que la Comisión Nacional de Energía (CNE), dependiente de la Secretaría General de Energía (art. 15.6 del Real Decreto 1182/2008), disponga del tiempo necesario para a) analizar detalladamente cada propuesta de tarifa eléctrica del Gobierno y b) emitir el correspondiente informe con la antelación suficiente para que el mismo pueda ser estudiado por el Gobierno, dos objetivos de la máxima importancia, ya que

- la energía eléctrica es un bien de primera necesidad

- la tarifa eléctrica afecta a 26 millones de usuarios, de los cuales, casi 24 millones son domésticos

- la facturación de energía eléctrica supera los 22.000 millones de euros anuales (cada 1% que el Gobierno sube la tarifa eléctrica representa para los usuarios el pago adicional de 220 millones de euros/36.600 millones de pesetas anuales)

- los datos relativos a los costes sufragados por la tarifa eléctrica proceden en su mayor parte de las propias compañías eléctricas

- la fijación de la tarifa eléctrica es un tema enormemente complejo y difícil, como reconoce la propia presidenta de la CNE.

Veamos a continuación si Pedro Marín Uribe permite que la CNE disponga del tiempo necesario para a) analizar detalladamente la propuesta de tarifa eléctrica del Gobierno y b) emitir el correspondiente informe con la antelación suficiente para que el mismo pueda ser estudiado por el Gobierno.

Como le expuse en el apartado 14.2 de la entrega 14.- La tarifa de la corrupción: Análisis de la primera subida de 2009, la ley establece que en la fijación de las tarifa eléctrica se cumplan los siguientes trámites:

1. El Ministerio analiza los datos recibidos de las compañías eléctricas, relativos a los costes de las actividades reguladas (venta de energía a tarifa, transporte de energía y distribución de energía), y redacta la propuesta de tarifa del Gobierno.

2. El Ministerio remite la propuesta de tarifa del Gobierno a la CNE.

3. La CNE remite la propuesta de tarifa del Gobierno al Consejo Consultivo de la Electricidad (CCE), integrado en la CNE.

4. El CCE facilita a cada consejero una copia de la propuesta de tarifa del Gobierno.

5. Cada miembro del CCE analiza la propuesta de tarifa del Gobierno y hace sus alegaciones a la misma.

6. La CNE analiza las alegaciones de los consejeros del CCE y redacta su informe.

7. La CNE remite su informe al Ministerio.

8. El Ministerio remite el informe de la CNE a la Comisión delegada de Asuntos Económicos.

9. La Comisión delegada de Asuntos Económicos remite el informe de la CNE al

> Consejo de ministros.
> 10. El Consejo de ministros analiza el informe de la CNE, justifica todas aquellas decisiones que sean contrarias a las recomendaciones del mismo, aprueba la tarifa eléctrica y publica ésta en el Boletín Oficial del Estado.

Desde el 21.04.2008, en que Pedro Marín Uribe fue nombrado secretario general de la Energía, se han aprobado dos tarifas eléctricas: la que estuvo vigente desde el 01.07.2008 al 31.12.2008 y la actual, vigente desde el 01.01.2009.

Tanto en el primer caso como en el segundo, Pedro Marín Uribe obligó a la CNE a emitir su informe por el procedimiento de tramitación de urgencia, que sólo es exigible por razones de probada excepcionalidad, de forma que la CNE y el CCE tuvieron sólo siete días naturales (es decir, cinco días laborables) para realizar los trámites 3 a 7, ambos incluidos.

Como de costumbre, la CNE dejó constancia de dicha anomalía en sus respectivos informes: el Informe 24/2008, en el que dicha Comisión elude afirmar de forma directa que la tramitación se ha efectuado por el trámite de urgencia, y el Informe 36/2008, en el que afirma literalmente lo siguiente:

> "Como se ha mencionado en anteriores informes, esta Comisión hace constar la escasa información recibida en la Memoria, así como el reducido margen de tiempo para permitir a esta Comisión informar adecuadamente sobre las propuestas de tarifas integrales y retribución de las actividades reguladas".

Pedro Marín Uribe obligó a la CNE a emitir ambos informes por el procedimiento de tramitación de urgencia a pesar de saber que desde al menos el año 2000 la CNE viene advirtiendo en sus informes, especialmente en Informe 14/2001, de que dicho procedimiento impide que la CNE y el CCE analicen detalladamente la propuesta de tarifa del Gobierno. Si desea más información sobre este asunto, pulse aquí para ir a 14.4- ¿Cumple el Gobierno su obligación de defender los legítimos intereses generales?

Segundo dato.- A pesar de saber que el déficit tarifario acumulado desde el año 2000 es ficticio porque la CNE no ha contado nunca con el tiempo necesario para analizar las propuestas de tarifa del Gobierno y ha sido calculado a partir de datos fraudulentos y aplicando criterios contables irregulares, Pedro Marín Uribe hizo, entre otras, las siguientes afirmaciones el 09.05.2008, en que sólo habían transcurrido tres semanas desde su nombramiento como secretario general de la Energía:

> - "Tomaré en mucha consideración la propuesta de subida de la luz que proponga en julio de 2008 la CNE, la cual espero que sea del 20%"
>
> - Las medidas adoptadas en la legislatura anterior para acabar con el déficit tarifario fueron insuficientes y para solucionarlo habrá que adoptar alguna iniciativa adicional".

Inmediatamente después de que Pedro Marín Uribe hiciera estas afirmaciones, Endesa declaró que estaría encantada de que la subida de la tarifa eléctrica fuera del 20%.

Respecto a la "iniciativa adicional" adoptada por el Gobierno para solucionar el déficit tarifario, que rondaba los 16.000 millones de euros a finales de 2008 y podría alcanzar los 22.500 millones de euros a finales de 2009, le informaré en la próxima entrega, cuyo tema será la inminente liberalización del mercado eléctrico.

Como consecuencia de dicha liberalización, el próximo 1 de julio desaparecerán las tarifas reguladas (salvo la denominada Tarifa de Último Recurso, o TUR) y los 24 millones de abonados domésticos nos veremos obligados a contratar el suministro de energía con una compañía eléctrica a un precio libremente fijado por ésta.

Tercer dato.- En el domicilio del abonado hay dos elementos que en el 90% de los casos son alquilados a la compañía eléctrica. Dichos elementos son el contador y el interruptor de control de potencia (ICP).

Veamos cuál es la actitud del Pedro Marín Uribe respecto a cada uno de estos dos elementos.

El contador es un elemento de medida. Mide la energía consumida por el abonado.

En general, el error de medida del contador aumenta con el tiempo, por lo que es imprescindible verificarlo periódicamente y sustituirlo una vez agotada su vida útil, con objeto de que dicho error se mantenga dentro de los límites establecidos legalmente.

La finalidad por la cual el abonado paga mensualmente una cantidad en concepto de alquiler es, precisamente, que la compañía eléctrica verifique periódicamente el contador y lo sustituya tras agotar su vida útil.

La cantidad total pagada desde 1984 por los abonados por el alquiler de los contadores supera actualmente los 8.000 millones de euros y se incrementa diariamente en 600.000 euros, pero las compañías eléctricas no han realizado ninguna verificación periódica ni retirado los contadores electromecánicos con más de 30 años de antigüedad, porque el Gobierno aún no ha publicado la normativa que defina en qué consiste dicha verificación y cuál es la vida útil máxima de un contador electromecánico (conforme a lo establecido en la disposición adicional segunda del Real Decreto 809/2006, los contadores electromecánicos, también denominados de inducción y ferraris, dejaron de instalarse el 30.06.2007. Desde el 01.07.2007, se instalan exclusivamente contadores estáticos, también denominados electrónicos).

Como consecuencia de la inexistencia de dicha normativa, el estado actual del parque nacional de contadores electromecánicos en alquiler, formado por 22.9 millones de unidades, es el siguiente, a pesar de los más de 8.000 millones de euros que los abonados llevamos pagados por su verificación periódica y sustitución:

- Contadores que llevan instalados más de 10 años sin haber sido sometidos a verificación periódica y no ofrecen, por tanto, ninguna garantía de exactitud en la medida:
15.8 millones (69% del parque). Fuente: Recurso de 13.12.2002 de UNESA contra la Orden FOM 1100/2002.

- Contadores que continúan instalados a pesar de haber superado su vida útil máxima (30 años):

Pedro Marín Uribe no ha hecho absolutamente nada para conseguir que el Gobierno publique la normativa sobre verificación periódica y renovación de los contadores electromecánicos ni para impedir que los abonados continuemos pagando 600.000 euros diarios a las compañías eléctricas por un servicio que no recibiremos mientras el Gobierno no publique dicha normativa.

Veamos ahora la acuación de Pedro Marín Uribe respecto a los interruptores de control de potencia (ICP).

El ICP es un elemento de control. Controla que la potencia conectada por el abonado no sea nunca superior a la que figura en el contrato. Si en algún momento la potencia conectada es superior a la contratada, el ICP desconecta la instalación eléctrica, impidiendo el funcionamiento de todos los aparatos conectados a ella.

El ICP no mejora la seguridad de la instalación eléctrica del abonado ni, por supuesto, "evita riesgos innecesarios para tus electrodomésticos y para tu hogar", como, mediante una publicidad engañosa y alarmista, afirman las compañías eléctricas.

La única y exclusiva finalidad del ICP es proteger el derecho de pernada denominado término de potencia, que es la cantidad que, aunque no consumamos nada, los abonados pagamos mensualmente a las compañías eléctricas por garantizarnos el suministro de la potencia contratada. La cantidad total cobrada anualmente por las compañías eléctricas por dicho derecho de pernada ronda los 5.000 millones de euros. Si desea más información sobre este asunto pulse aquí para ir a 2.1.- Término de potencia.

Pues bien, a pesar de que el ICP no afecta a la seguridad de la instalación eléctrica del abonado y es un elemento que sólo beneficia a las compañías eléctricas, en la propuesta de Orden que Pedro Marín Uribe remitió el 13.06.2008 a la CNE hay dos disposiciones relacionadas con dicho interruptor:

- La disposición adicional primera, en la que a) se recuerda a las compañías eléctricas su deber de informar de forma fehaciente a los abonados la obligación que tienen éstos de instalar el ICP y b) se establece la penalización a aplicar a los abonados que no cumplan dicha obligación.

- La disposición adicional segunda, en la que se ordena a la CNE que emita un informe donde se detalle el estado de cumplimiento y ejecución de los planes de instalación de ICP por las compañías eléctricas.

16.9.- La mafia del kilowatio
Es evidente que, aunque bien pagado, Pedro Marín Uribe es un simple peón de una organización lo suficientemente poderosa para obligar a 23 millones de usuarios a pagar 8.000 millones de euros por un servicio que no reciben y para utilizar impunemente el Boletín Oficial del Estado como instrumento de una estafa que supera los 4.000 millones de euros y es tan burda que queda al descubierto con sólo echar un vistazo a las curvas representativas de la evolución del precio medio de mercado del contador monofásico de simple tarifa y del precio de alquiler de dicho contador.
La organización de la cual Pedro Marín Uribe es un simple peón está formada por las grandes compañías eléctricas y los dos principales partidos políticos, que controlan el aparato del Estado y, en particular, la Administración de Justicia, un eslabón absolutamente imprescindible, pues sin su cooperación, activa u omisiva, la organización carecería de impunidad y no podría tomar represalias legales contra quienes se atreven a denunciar sus delitos.

Ello demuestra que las compañías eléctricas y el PSOE y el PP han elegido la segunda de las dos opciones apuntadas por el magistrado italiano Paolo Borsellino, asesinado en Palermo en julio de 1992:

> "Política y Mafia son dos poderes que viven del control del mismo territorio: o se hacen la guerra o se ponen de acuerdo"

Fue designado secretario general de Energía el 21.04.2008, nueve días después de que Miguel Sebastián Gascón fuera nombrado Ministro de Industria, Turismo y Comercio.
Con anterioridad, coincidió con Miguel Sebastián Gascón en distintos foros académicos y económicos, entre ellos, Economistas 2004, que elaboró el programa económico del PSOE.
Fue designado secretario de Estado de la Energía el 17.04.2009, diez días después de la creación de esta Secretaría.

4) Funciones de la Secretaría General de Energía: Según establece el Real Decreto 1182/2008, la Secretaría General de Energía depende directamente del ministro de

Industria, Turismo y Comercio y tiene, entre otras, las siguientes funciones, que son ejercidas por la Subdirección General de Energía Eléctrica, dependiente de la Dirección General de Política Energética y Minas:

> "Elaboración de propuestas sobre regulación y, en su caso, aprobación de la estructura de tarifas, precios de productos energéticos y peajes, así como retribución de las actividades llevadas a cabo en el marco del sector eléctrico".

La Secretaría General de Energía es responsable de la elaboración y aprobación de las tarifas eléctricas (entre las cuales está el precio de alquiler de los contadores de la luz) y de la retribución de los costes sufragados con dichas tarifas, de la cual procede el denominado déficit tarifario, y tiene la obligación de "garantizar la defensa de los consumidores y usuarios, protegiendo, mediante procedimientos eficaces, los legítimos intereses económicos de los mismos" (artículo 51.1 de la Constitución).
La Secretaría General de Energía pasó a ser Secretaría de Estado de Energía el 07.04.2009 (Real Decreto 542/2009), siendo suprimida el 17.04.2009 (Real Decreto 640/2009).

PRÓXIMA ENTREGA

Como le expuse anteriormente, el tema de la próxima entrega será la liberalización del mercado el próximo 1 de julio, la cual elimina las tarifas reguladas (salvo la tarifa de último recurso) y nos obliga a los 24 millones de abonados domésticos a contratar el suministro de energía con una compañía eléctrica a un precio libremente fijado por ésta.

Si con las tarifas reguladas por el Gobierno estábamos totalmente indefensos ante las compañías eléctricas, es fácil predecir lo que nos ocurrirá si no actuamos organizadamente a partir del próximo 1 de julio, en que las tarifas serán libremente fijadas por dichas compañías.
Muchas gracias por su atención

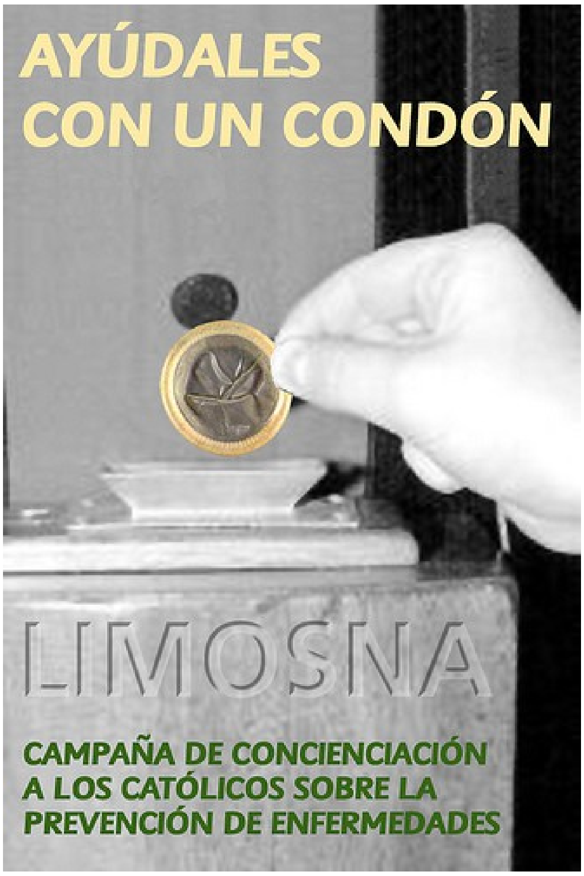
PERIODISMO Y PEDERASTIA EN MÉXICO



Frente a los periodistas europeos, tan fofitos, bien pensantes, grisaceos, y apegados a los grandes temas intrascendentes, que sólo arriesgan su puesto en el escalafón y su ego, los periodistas mexicanos, se sitúan en el punto de mira de los sicarios, los narcotraficantes, los traficantes de niños y mujeres, las redes de explotación sexual, y los políticos cómplices, abarraganados con las mafias que manejan un montante superior al PIB de muchos países, y bendecidos y absueltos por una Iglesia Católica corrupta y cómplice.
En su labor informativa demuestran un valor temerario con tal de ser fieles a su público y su profesión, y reflejar los graves problemas que viven los ciudadanos. Y no se muerden la lengua, no pactan ni miran a otro lado, a pesar de ser amenazados, y tener que arrostrar el peligro cierto de ser secuestrados, torturados, y asesinados como tantos de sus colegas.
Para pasmo y congoja, la policía mexicana acaba de encontrar la primera red de pederastia, mediante el dudoso protocolo de infiltrar agentes que simulan la conducta que persiguen, con lo cual duplican los envíos de fotos y vídeos de pornografía infantil en la red; mientras que los periodistas llevan lustros denunciándo con nombres y apellidos las redes de menoreros que han convertido a México en un punto de turismo sexual pederasta conocido, y reconocido, donde coexisten políticos, empresarios, sacerdotes, narcotraficantes y mafiosos, sin que la justicia intervenga, si no es para acusar y acosar a los investigadores, o levantar el cadaver del periodista metijón que los denunció.

Aquí una muestra de programas de televisión respaldados por una amplia audiencia en México: se demoniza y se alerta sobre los peligros que corren nuestros niños en Internet. No se cuenta que los autores de más del noventa por ciento de los abusos sexuales a menores proceden de su entorno familiar: parientes, profesores y sacerdotes. Reconocer esto es tabú, queridos míos, porque haría peligrar la imagen de estas sacrosantas instituciones, tan sobrevaloradas.

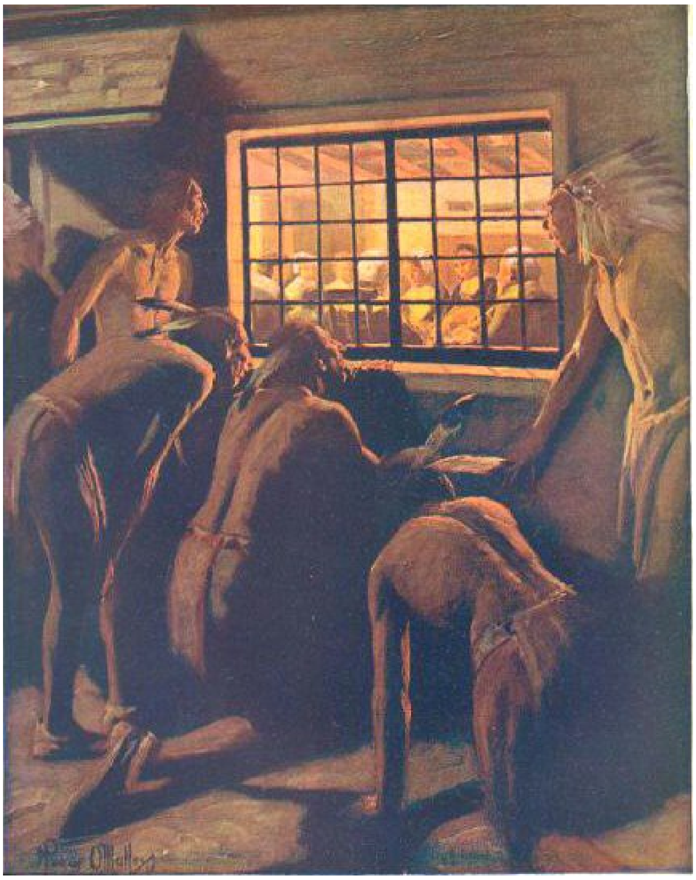
ANTONIO ESCOHOTADO: HISTORIA DE LAS DROGAS



4. La penetración de lo ilegal en la ley.

En los países productores hay una complicidad inextricable entre traficantes e institucio-nes. La versión de un inglés que estuvo preso durante algún tiempo en La Paz sería escandalosa si no fuese extremadamente veraz:
«Toda la farsa de la "guerra a la droga" nace de una deliberada mistificación de la realidad política. Cuando se subraya la amenaza a las instituciones que supondría la estructura de poder "paralela" de la delincuencia, la opinión común busca negar lo que ya es completamente obvio, esto es, que los intereses del contrabando han prevalecido ya, han logrado ya penetrar, corromper y subvertir el entero tejido del Estado [...] La situación real es que ningún gobierno puede permitirse renunciar al control sobre el tráfico de la droga, y que en casi todos los casos donde se ha dado amplia publicidad a un episodio de corrupción individual era para encontrar un chivo expiatorio o adquirir alguna ventaja moral sobre adversarios políticos» [56].
En Colombia, por ejemplo, la institución de los llamados «tribunales especiales militares» no sólo parece ligada a una arrogación del derecho a definir la legalidad en materia de tráfico, sino a la necesidad de sostener mecanismos de arbitraje para conflictos internos entre las principales organizaciones. Más exactamente:
«La campaña antidroga ha servido solamente como cortina de humo para esconder un incesante y vasto proceso de monopolización del tráfico [...] gestado en el seno de las mismas organizaciones que se proponían combatir la "amenaza". La consecuencia es que el período de mercado libre en Colombia constituye un mero recuerdo, y en su lugar se desarrolla un nuevo tipo de cártel de la cocaína, bien engrasado y altamente eficaz» 57.

Tanto en Colombia como en los demás países comprometidos con la erradicación de la coca y sus derivados ha llegado a montarse lo que Arnao llama una «política de represión selectiva», orientada a liquidar el pequeño tráfico y la producción artesanal. Las ventajas del sistema son evidentes, ya que el periódico descubrimiento de alijos y laboratorios proporciona a las fuerzas policiales y militares una fachada de respetabilidad y observancia de los compromisos internacionales, mientras a la vez consolida precios monopolísticos para el gran tráfico. Por una triste aunque previsible ironía, los beneficios de la prohibición siguen sin rozar a los cultivadores indígenas, que deben soportar plagas químicas y condenas a perpetuidad cuando no venden la materia prima del negocio a precios irrisorios, para que el cártel oligárquico-militar de cada país perpetúe sus privilegios. Por lo mismo, «el intento de ilegalizar un vicio individual se ha resuelto en la creación de una ilegalidad estructurada para el disfrute de ese vicio, y en la infiltración de la ilegalidad en las instituciones» 58. Puede servir de ejemplo, entre la infinidad de noticias aparecidas sobre el particular, una de Venezuela, país marginal en la producción y distribución de cocaína. Cierto magistrado ha sido destituido por poner en libertad a siete traficantes que detentaban 106 kilos de cocaína, y habían exportado ya más de 40 a Estados Unidos, cuando estaban cumpliendo una larga condena.
«El ministro de Justicia, José Manzo, dijo al respecto que él elaboró un informe al presidente Jaime Lusinchi en el que denuncia más de 400 casos ocurridos últimamente, análogos al que acaba de protagonizar el magistrado Silva Garrido» 59.
Pero no hace falta ir a Latinoamérica para hallar casos semejantes. En España todavía está fresco el recuerdo de un juez de instrucción y un magistrado del Tribunal Supremo que fueron separados de la carrera judicial —el primero sólo temporalmente— por poner en libertad al mafioso Bardellino. Más recientes aún son acusaciones hechas por la policía y la magistratura sueca, que implican al gobernador civil de Sevilla y a miembros de la Brigada de Estupefacientes de la Costa del Sol con un confidente suyo, de nacionalidad alemana, acusado de introducir en Suecia 20 kilos de cocaína 60.
Una sentencia dictada en Estocolmo considera hechos probados que los servicios del confidente «se pagaban con partidas de cocaína decomisadas por la policía española, luego comercializadas en Suecia y en la RFA» 61. Algo después, un subcomisario de policía es detenido con un kilo de esta sustancia, en un asunto que implica a un senador socialista y al delegado del Gobierno de Melilla 62. No sería difícil acumular docenas de casos análogos en otros países europeos. Por lo que respecta a Estados Unidos, es difícil encontrar un solo día sin alguno. Entre la apertura y la conclusión del sonado juicio contra D. Steinberg, por ejemplo, a quien se acusó de introducir unas mil toneladas de marihuana en el país, el fiscal fue separado dos veces del cargo (la primera por barbitúricos y conducción en estado alcohólico, la segunda por consumo de cocaína) y el principal policía responsable de su detención fue expulsado del cuerpo por sugerir a un colega el tráfico de cocaína, cuando en años anteriores había «perdido» un kilo, y luego kilo y medio de dicha sustancia 63.
Sin embargo, en América Central y Meridional la situación no puede equipararse a la europea o a la norteamericana, ni cualitativa ni cuantitativamente. No es lo mismo cerrar los ojos —por dinero, desde luego— al tráfico de un bien que se exporta y cerrar los ojos al de un bien importado, pues lo primero proporciona divisas y lo segundo las enajena. Tampoco es análogo prohibir algo espontáneamente que prohibirlo en virtud de chantajes políticos. La peculiar relación que guardan América del Norte y América del Sur a partir del primer Roosevelt perpetúa un cuadro de rencores y desprecios, apoyado a nivel estadounidense por el esquema de comprar materias primas baratas y devolverlas en forma de manufacturas caras, sosteniendo gobiernos de fuerza que impidan movimientos políticos de signo socialista o radical en su vecindad. El gigante económico y militar norteamericano ha promovido sistemáticamente la corrupción desde el Río Grande hacia abajo, y ahora recoge la cosecha de esa siembra. Su cruzada imperial contra ciertas drogas ofrece a los débiles un imprevisto ojo por ojo, que entienden de igual manera Bolivia y Nicaragua, Cuba y Costa Rica, Colombia y Panamá, México y Brasil. Latinoamérica es sencillamente ajena a la constelación wasp, ajena al apostolado de Brent y sus sucesores, lo cual significa que se aprovechará de ella tal como aprovechó Inglaterra la prohibición china.

Dada la extendida corrupción y el fuerte tráfico de marihuana, pasta base de coca y cocaína que caracteriza prácticamente a todo el hemisferio suramericano, un razonamiento elemental deduciría que las leyes son permisivas o siquiera poco severas con esta cuestión. Pero una ecuación inexorable —y, a la postre, muy comprensible— liga el gran comercio de drogas ilícitas con la severidad legislativa, pues cuando los traficantes están imbricados en la propia maquinaria estatal se protegen de competidores menos recomendados con un derecho draconiano. Esto es manifiesto entre los principales productores de opiáceos en Oriente —Siria, Turquía, Persia, Afganistán, Pakistán, Birmania, Tailandia, Indonesia y Malasia aplican la pena de muerte—, y se observa igualmente en Latinoamérica con los productores y exportadores. Argentina, Bolivia, Brasil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, México, Perú y Venezuela no sólo castigan duramente la producción y el tráfico, sino la simple tenencia y el consumo 64. En Venezuela, por ejemplo, donde el propio ministro de Justicia reconoce unos cuatrocientos casos de soborno entre magistrados «últimamente», la posesión puede ser punible con condenas de hasta diez años, y el cultivo o tráfico con veinte; en Argentina y Costa Rica las penas pueden llegar a los quince años, y en México, Bolivia o Colombia el traficante tiene muy altas probabilidades de morir antes incluso de llegar a prisión, si no posee los debidos salvoconductos, expedidos por la autoridad en funciones. En realidad, esto último puede extenderse a todos los países del hemisferio, donde quizá sólo la posesión de un pasaporte norteamericano protege en cierta medida.

Aunque Estados Unidos siga esgrimiendo como tesis básica la «invasión» padecida a manos de extranjeros, es curioso que sea el país con más nacionales encarcelados en Latinoamérica por tráfico de drogas ilícitas. Ya antes de comenzar los años ochenta unos 2.000 norteamericanos se encontraban en dicha situación, y la DEA expresaba un ferviente aunque equívoco deseo de «rescatarlos» 65. Un nivel máximo de corrupción y una severidad máxima de las leyes florece con nitidez en los propios Estados Unidos; Arizona y Florida, los dos Estados que reciben más importaciones de drogas ilegales, son los únicos que tienen en vigor pena de muerte para el tráfico. En el caso de Florida al menos, la eficacia de esa medida para grupos distintos de las verdaderas mafias no acaba de ser perceptible para nadie: sus ciudades se encuentran sencillamente atiborradas de cocaína.

Por otra parte, para los países situados al sur del Río Grande, suspender la exportación al vecino septentrional representaría una catástrofe, aunque la mayoría de esos beneficios acabe en bancos europeos, cuando no reinvertido en Norteamérica. El informe de la Operation Cashflow, hecho en colaboración por la DEA, la CIA y el NSC (National Security Council) en 1985, sugiere que México y Colombia obtienen «el 75 por 100 de sus ingresos totales por exportación de la marihuana y la cocaína» 66. Panamá —principal banquero inmediato de las divisas resultantes— recibe cada año miles de millones de dólares en depósitos. La cocaína parece haber unido a anticastristas y casuistas, sandinistas y Contra, guerrillas y oligarquías. Se diría que para América Latina la tragedia es no acabar de enriquecerse tampoco con este colosal negocio, cuya parte principal se distribuye dentro de un círculo que en vez de colaborar con el progreso de cada país conspira contra él.

a. Un apunte sobre las riendas del asunto.

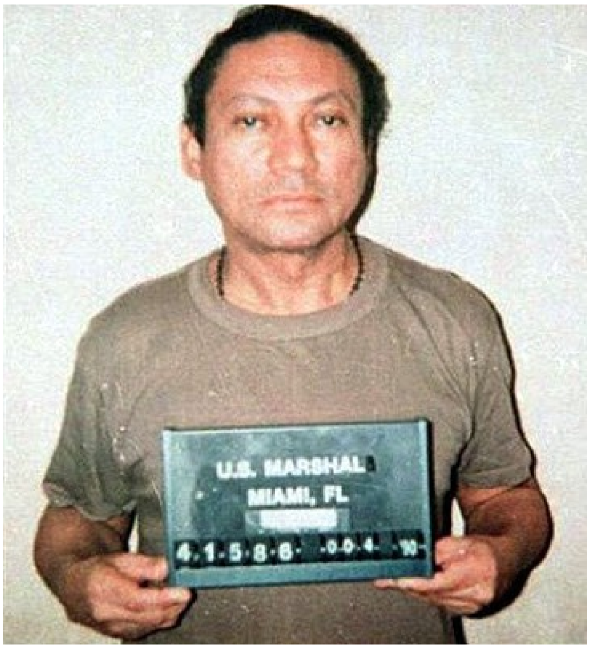
Allí donde ha sido posible descubrir redes de grandes traficantes —como la de A. Sicilia-Falcón y la de A. Rivera— han aparecido embarazosas conexiones no sólo de esos gangs con los más altos peldaños políticos de sus respectivos Estados, sino con servicios secretos que llegan en sus ramificaciones hasta la Casa Blanca. Estas conexiones podrían deberse a un ánimo inmediato de lucro, pero quizá son explicables también como la conducta de quien se limita a aceptar algo considerado inevitable, a fin de poder orientarlo hacia una meta defendida hace mucho tiempo, como sostener grupos antirrevolucionarios haciendo fluido el intercambio de drogas por armas e influencia.



Esto es lo que acontece con la heroína en Afganistán, Pakistán, el Triángulo Dorado y Tailandia. Todo indica que acontece igualmente en América Latina con la cocaína. Sicilia-Falcón, por ejemplo, fue originalmente un anticastrista que luego renovaba su pasaporte en Cuba, invertía en bancos suizos y rusos, estaba infiltrado por la CIA y se movía con perfecta impunidad en México con un carnet de agente especial de Gobernación, el superministerio del que suelen ser titulares todos cuantos luego accedieron a la Presidencia. Quien montó las primeras operaciones escabrosas en relación con cocaína y financiación del anticastrismo fue T. Shackley 67, director de la división de operaciones secretas de la CIA y segundo de W. Colby en este organismo. Ambos habían intervenido en operaciones semejantes cuando estuvieron destinados en Saigón, y ambos colaboraron en echar tierra sobre el asunto de la World Finance Corporation en Florida. El siguiente director general fue G. Bush, cuyo asesor particular para asuntos de seguridad nacional ha sido acusado de actuar como contacto entre Washington y el cártel de Medellín, en un intercambio de financiación a la Contra nicaragüense por salvoconductos para introducir cargamentos de cocaína desde Colombia a Estados Unidos 68. Una extraña empresa llamada Arms Supermarket —donde participaban, entre otros, el Mossad israelí, el general Noriega y el teniente coronel O. North, agente del selectísimo Consejo de Seguridad Nacional americano— fue el primer proveedor de la guerrilla antisandinista, antes de montarse la famosa conexión Irán-Contra. Se conserva, por ejemplo, una nota autó grafa de North —el 12 de julio de 1985— con las palabras: «cuando Supermarket termina mal, $ 14 M[illones] para financiar de droga» 69. Pero Bush era y es un miembro del Consejo de Seguridad Nacional también, y cuando Estados Unidos trató de expulsar a Noriega de Panamá parecía inminente su caída hasta que un día el general panameño convocó a la prensa para decir escuetamente: «Tengo a Bush cogido por las pelotas» 70.

Poco después, la arrogancia —o el peligro de tener a Noriega en libertad— provoca la sangrienta invasión del país, que destruye barrios enteros de la capital y termina con la captura del dictador. Quien se instala como nuevo hombre fuerte de Panamá —el voluminoso Guillermo Endara— será pronto acusado por la DEA de conexiones con el narcotráfico, y el país sigue siendo un líder mundial en el blanqueo de ese dinero.
Sea como fuere, el subcomité de Relaciones Exteriores del Congreso americano, presidido por el Senador J. Kerry, ha dicho que tiene varios testimonios «comprobados» sobre el detalle de las operaciones hechas antes y después del Irangate. Según Kerry, «está muy claro que en el abastecimiento a la Contra hubo dólares del narco tráfico»71.
Los pilotos identificados hasta ahora introducían en Estados Unidos —usando itinerarios y pistas facilitados por la CIA— avionetas cargadas con quinientos kilos de cocaína en cada viaje. Desde 1982, Bush dirige el plan llamado Estrategia Federal Contra las Drogas.
Es posible que en este terreno el tiempo depare revelaciones todavía más sorprendentes, y lo hasta hoy conocido acabe siendo una menudencia. Dicen que en 1986 se descubrió un enorme complejo agrícola mexicano, con más de siete mil campesinos siervos y casi diez millones de kilos de marihuana almacenados 72. Una cantidad semejante —ocho veces superior a la producción anual del país, a juicio de la DEA hasta entonces—, no parece posible sin artillería antiaérea, ejércitos informales y mucho apoyo político en todas las esferas. Por otra parte, en México la Procuraduría General de la República acaba de declarar que «nuestro país dedica casi una tercera parte de sus fuerzas armadas y más de medio millón de dólares diarios para poner freno al tráfico de drogas, que está reconocido aquí como la principal amenaza contra la seguridad nacional»73. Debe añadirse, quizá, que según los mexicanos el negocio de la marihuana está controlado por el ejército precisamente, y el gobierno por la CIA.
Militares o no, empresarios de este calibre ascienden pagando impuestos a corporaciones (como Jardine los pagaba a Bulwer Lytton y Palmerston), y caen a consecuencia de impuestos que las corporaciones se pagan unas a otras, de tanto en tanto. En Colombia, donde los grandes traficantes son enemigos de la DEA pero amigos de la CIA, sus grupos paramilitares asesinaron en 1988 a unas 3.300 personas por asuntos de droga, según American Watch, una filial de Amnistía Internacional 74.

LA CARA OCULTA DE LOS KENNEDY

La ideología es nefasta para el cerebro: elimina la diferencia que hay entre las convicciones y las creencias; entre la adhesión crítica, con condiciones, y la defensa a ultranza y sin fisuras.

La mayor parte de los crímenes de la humanidad están basados en las ideologías, las creencias, y la lealtad al grupo al que se pertenece, ya sea la familia, el pueblo o la patria o cualquiera de los subproductos del espíritu gregario. Cualquier consigna perversa, del tipo "la familia es lo más importante", o "Todo por la patria" contiene la exacta dosis de irracionalidad para que se convierta en un dogma irrebatible para un necio, carente de la base cultural, filosófica y científica necesaria para saber y comprender y discernir.

Gracias a una ciudadanía amente, que aplica la fe y la credulidad donde haría falta un rigor moral e intelectual y un espíritu crítico que no posee, obtenemos líderes electos fotogénicos, simpáticos y más falsos que el alma de Judas.

John F. Kennedy fue uno de ellos: fue elegido por su juventud, vigor, dinamismo, limpieza democrática, e idealismo: una imagen perfectamente urdida con ayuda de la ceguera crítica de sus electores y sus cronistas: su aspecto saludable y bronceado se debía a la enfermedad de Adisson, un fallo en las glándulas suprarrenales, y su dinamismo se debía a las dosis continuas de cortisol, un glococorticoide que interfiere gravemente en la capacidad mental para tomar decisiones ponderadas y sensatas, ya que, entre otros efectos secuandarios, produce insomnio, incremento de la líbido o satirismo, ansiedad, y delirios paranoicos. Si a esto se suman las inyecciones diarias de anfetaminas, hormonas y enzimas, que le suministraba el doctor Max Jacobson, también llamado "Doctor Feelgood", un taumaturgo mimado por las estrellas y los políticos afines a los Kennedy, que se hizo de oro cultivando su drogadicción.

Y por si fuera poco, la leyenda adornó a Kennedy con una herida de guerra que le producía dolores de espalda; aunque la triste realidad es que había nacido con una pierna más corta que la otra, sufría dolores crónicos de espalda, y también necesitaba inyectarse diariamente drogas opiaceas paliativas del dolor.
El pueblo soberano puso su seguridad y la del mundo en manos de un hombre drogado con esteroides, anfetaminas, y opiaceos, que percibía la realidad distorsionada por el filtro de su poliadicción.

Y eso, por no hablar de sus alianzas familiares con la mafia, a la que pertenecía el clan Kennedy.

En el documental "La cara oculta de los Kennedy" no se analiza la amencia y la alienación de sus votantes y sus partidarios; sino la trayectoria rampante de una familia nefasta. No es poco mérito entre tanta hagiografía sobre este clan maldito.

Toda la razón. Una mujer muy cercana a mi sombra votó a Suárez porque era guapo. Y más de un pollo votó a Pujol porque era catalán (¿no lo eran los otros?). Pero así estamos. Suerte que la democracia es el mejor gobierno que se conoce.

Por cierto, Gatopardo: reconozco que debía haberlo hecho mucho antes, pero estoy leyendo El Gatopardo.

ROMANCE DE LA MUERTE DEL DUQUE DE GANDÍA

9
MUERTE DEL DUQUE DE GANDÍA

Lloran condes, lloran duques, lloraba la frailecía,
también llora el Padre Santo por el Conde de la Oliva, siete días con sus noches que el Conde no parecía.
Un pregón pregonó el rey,
  un pregón, que así decía:
"Todo el que al Conde hallare
  medio reino le daría.
Al que lo hallare muerto,
  las cien doblas le daría;

al que le hallare vivo,
a oro le pesaría”.
Ahí se acercó un pescador que pescaba noche y día:
-Yo estando, mi señor,
pescando como solía,
oí un combate en el agua que la mar se estremecía.- Tiran barcas y barquillas y al buen Conde sacarían.
Ya le traía su tío,
en la iglesia lo metía:
-¿Quién te mató, mi sobrino, que de ti no hubo mancilla?
Si te mató por dinero,
muchas doblas le daría;
¿si te mató por la esposa de gran celo que tenía?-
Ya le enterraba su tío;
la noche le ensoñaría:
-Mucho me llorasteis, tío,
responder no vos podía.
Me ha matado el pescador
que las señas os daría.
Me quitó el jubón de grana como lo estrené aquel día, me quitó reloj del seno
y el dinero que tenía, un anillo de diamantes
sólo una ciudad valía.
Me puso peso al pescuezo,
cien libras y más tenía.-
Ya se levanta su tío
y a las Cortes lo metía:
-El que este delito hace ¿qué castigo merecía?
“Que le aten pies y manos
y lo arrastren por la villa”- Los huesos que le quedaron el pueblo se ahumaría.

b)

Estrellas no hay en los cielos, la luna no aparecía.
¡Dios del cielo, Dios del cielo,
el Dios de la judería,
a todos criasteis ricos
y a mí en gran pobrería!
Yo me estando un hombre pobre,
pescando mi primería,
vi venir tres a caballo
haciendo gran polvarina, llevan un bulto en el hombro que de negro parecía,

el bulto echaron al río,
  entero se estremecía.
Eché ganchos y gancheras,
  por ver lo que me salía,
me salió un duque mancebo, hijo de rey parecía:
camisa lleva de holanda,
  cabezón de perla y sirma,
anillo lleva en su dedo,
  cien pobres ricos se haríen.
Recogí la red al barco,
  a la mi casa me iba.
Topé la puerta cerrada,
  ventanas que no se abríen;
pregoneros pregonando
  por toda aquella villa:
“Quien viera al hijo del Conde, dádivas que le daría:
el que dé señas de muerto,
  en su lugar le pondría;
quien diera señas de vivo,
  medio reino le daría”.
Yo, el pobre y el mezquino,
  a decírselo iría:
-Ábreme tú, el portero,
  yo os diré lo que veía:
Yo me estando un hombre pobre,
  fui a pescar mi pobrería,
vi venir tres a caballo,
  haciendo gran polvorina,
bulto llevan en el hombro
  que de negro parecía,
el bulto cayó al río,
  el río se estremecía.
Recogí la red al barco
  y a la mi casa me iba, topé las puertas cerradas
  y puertas que no se abríen.- Ya lo toman al mezquino, matar ya lo mataríen.

Entre los temas aún cantados en el siglo XX se halla algún romance de los llamados noticieros, escritos para comentar sucesos de mayor o menor interés para el común de las gentes. Claro está que, si, pasados los siglos, algunos de esos romances han seguido recordándose es porque su “fábula” podía interpretarse como “ejemplo”, por encerrar un mensaje de interés general al margen del hecho puntual en él recordado. Es lo que vemos en estos dos relatos basados en la maliciosa (aunque verídica) interpretación de lo ocurrido en Roma cuando, en el año 1497, desapareció una noche el Duque de Gandía y su cadáver vino a ser hallado en el fondo del Tíber. Los españoles que allí residían no dudaron en atribuir el asesinato a su hermano César Borgia. La rivalidad personal de los dos hijos del Papa Alejandro VI les había conducido a actuar políticamente en campos opuestos: Juan, del lado de los Reyes Católicos; César, aliado de los franceses. El romance noticiero original (conservado en Pliegos sueltos del siglo XVI) no aclaraba el misterio del crimen, pues el relato no incluía una narración objetivada del “suceso”, del asesinato del Duque y la acción de hacer desaparecer su cadaver arrojándolo al río; y, al final, el Papa cerraba la investigación sin resolver el caso. Pero el romancista proporcionaba a los contemporáneos del “suceso” claves suficientes para que no considerasen el caso insoluble: nota, primero, la diligencia con que los españoles buscan al Duque desaparecido (versos 10-11), dejando ver, por defecto, el desinterés de los romanos; después subraya que al cadaver sacado del fondo del río no se le han robado sus joyas y dineros (versos 29-32), siendo, pues, patente que los asesinos tenían como objetivo su persona y les sobraba riqueza (versos 33-35), y, por último, en el desenlace, presenta a un arzobispo, “que de la trayción sabía”, hablando al oído del Papa y consiguiendo que Alejandro VI decida cambiar su inicial maldición a los que hubieran matado a su hijo, por un generoso perdón que incluye la bendición pontifical de los asesinos. Estas insinuaciones eran suficientes para que, en aquellos días los lectores del romance se confirmaran en la sospecha de que el crimen lo había cometido César, el hijo favorito del sinuoso Papa Borgia, según lo que explícitamente acusarían todos los historiadores del suceso afectos a la causa españolista. Pero, pasado el tiempo y al ir repitiéndose y adquiriendo estructura poética tradicional el romance impreso en los Pliegos sueltos, el relato, como “novela policiaca”, no resolvía el misterio del horrible crimen, lo dejaba abierto a la interpretación de cada uno. Cuando los cantores no contaron ya con información extra-narrativa que les ayudase a resolver el caso, centraron su interés en el “pobre pescador” como único posible protagonista de la narración, y en torno a él reelaboraron la “fábula”.

Nada sabemos de un probable canto tradicional del romance noticiero en España, pues las únicas ramas del romancero oral del siglo XX que conservaron memoria de él son las judeo-españolas de los sefardíes de Marruecos y del Oriente Medio (Turquía, Siria, Grecia y Macedonia) herederas de las comunidades judías salidas de España en 1492, cinco años antes del suceso, y no sabemos si fueron los judíos expulsados de Portugal en 1497, o los residentes en Roma, o los “marranos” que huyeron posteriormente por miedo a la Inquisición quienes divulgaron el romance de los Pliegos sueltos. Pero lo que sí está claro es que el romance oral del siglo XX de ambas tradiciones sefardíes ha substituido el cierre, en falso, del caso judicial propio del romance noticiero, en el cual, tras la cristiana bendición de los asesinos, el Papa se conforma con enterrar a la víctima en Santa María del Pópulo poniendo en su sepultura el rótulo“Aquí yaze el mal logrado / del buen Duque de Gandía”, por una secuencia narrativa en que se da cuenta que el pobre pescador es condenado y ajusticiado como presunto autor de la muerte.

Esta forma de cerrar el sumario resultaba, en principio, tan ambigua como la del texto impreso en los Pliegos sueltos, en cuanto al misterio del crimen. De ahí que haya podido ser entendida de dos formas muy diversas, según vemos en las dos versiones que aquí he publicado. representativas la primera de la tradición judeo-española de Marruecos y la segunda de la tradición del Medio Oriente.

En Oriente, los cantores sefardíes creen en la inocencia del pescador, cuyo único “crimen” es el ser demasiado “simple” y caer en la trampa tendida por los poderosos que controlan la justicia y pregonan “quien traiga señas de muerto / en su lugar lo metería”, ya que en tal pregón cabían dos interpretaciones: ser tratado como “hijo del Conde”, al igual que el muerto”, o compartir con el muerto su destino. El mensaje del romance es que los pobres, los marginados, no deben colaborar con la justicia oficial, con el poder, pues siempre es ajeno a sus intereses y corrupto. Para hacer explícita esta “lectura” del “ejemplo” narrado, las comunidades sefardíes orientales acudieron al simple recurso de hacer que el pobre pescador se convierta en el narrador objetivo de la historia, anticipando en el discuro romancístico lo que antes sólo constaba en el romance como declaración ante los poderosos. Así colocadas, las mismas palabras que luego conducirán al declarante a la muerte, resultan para el receptor del romance descripción innegable de la escena del crimen.

En Marruecos, por el contrario, las comunidades sefardíes, lejos de desconfiar de la justicia, de quien desconfían es de los pobres, por el mero hecho de serlo. La declaración del pobre pescador no se cree; por ello es preciso desautorizarla. Ahora bien, para no destruir la estructura de "novela policiaca", que es la gracia del romance, los interesados en dejar clara esta otra enseñanza en el "ejemplo" no cayeron en la tentación de narrar explícitamente por delante cómo fue el crimen, sino que esperaron al final de la historia para contraponer al testimonio del pescador otro testimonio de carácter indubitable. Aunque, objetivamente, la declaración del tío del muerto ante la Corte no valga más que la del pobre pescador, las palabras del muerto en el sueño (como, en la otra versión, la narración en primera persona) llevan al oyente del romance a la convicción de que lo así dicho es la verdad. Convenciones literarias y creencias atávicas se encargan de cerrar toda otra posibilidad, y el pobre pescador recibe el castigo merecido.

Quede para los sociólogos el poner en relación uno y otro texto del romance con los prejuicios de los miembros de los dos tipos de comunidad judía que existían antes de la Segunda Guerra Mundial en los países del Oriente y del Occidente mediterráneo, prejuicios surgidos en su diario convivir con las otras gentes.

GRIPE PORCINA: EL FIASCO DE 1976: THE SWINE FLU FIASCO

El 5 de febrero de 1976, en Fort Dix (New Jersey) el recluta David Lewis le manifiesta al oficial instructor que se siente cansado y débil, pero cumple con las tareas y ejercicios asignados. A las 24 horas fallece por gripe.
Dos semanas más tarde, funcionarios del Ministerio de Salud hacen público que la gripe causante de esta muerte y de la hospitalización de otros cuatro soldados, es una variedad conocida como "gripe porcina". No se añade que, en los análisis efectuados a los soldados de Fort Dix, 500 tenían el virus y no habían presentado ningún síntoma de enfermedad.
A partir de este momento se lanza una campaña "preventiva" por parte de médicos, políticos y compañías farmaceúticas a la que la nación americana responde de forma entusiasta con un estado general de histeria colectiva. Se desata el Terror y lo que la Historia de la Medicina y la Prensa conocen pudorosamente como "The Swine Flu Fiasco". El término fiasco, en inglés, significa: "un fracaso completo, una acción que termina en un final ridículo".
Efectivamente, Estados Unidos desentierra todos sus fantasmas, recuerda el medio millón de muertos de la Gran Gripe de 1918 y pone en marcha la mejor burocracia medica de la que es capaz.
A mediados de marzo todos los Centers for Disease Control (Centros de Control de Enfermedades) deciden, con el científico criterio de "por un por si acaso", respaldar al presidente Ford para que recabe los fondos necesarios para vacunar a todo el país.
El 24 de marzo, tras caer derrotado por Ronald Reagan en las primarias de Carolina del Norte, el presidente Ford anuncia a la nación la campaña de vacunación total . Hubo maliciosos que interpretaron esta medida desmesurada como un último intento por recobrar el lobby farmaceútico que había virado su apoyo hacia Reagan.
Fuera como fuera, los debates para que el Congreso aprobara una partida presupuestaria de cientos de millones de dólares fueron agrios y destemplados, sobre todo, teniendo en cuenta que los apocalípticos daños se resumían en un soldado muerto y cuatro constipados. Y lo que ya era más que sospechoso y apuntaba siniestras maneras: las farmaceúticas insistían en que el Gobierno Federal se hicieran responsables económicos de los posibles efectos adversos de las vacunas,
A mediados de agosto y gracias al trabajo de una carismática figura del deporte y médico del Departamento de Salud, Educación y Bienestar Social, el doctor Delano Meriwether, Ford consigue los fondos para vacunar a doscientos veinte millones de norteamericanos. El Dr Meriwether promete realizar semejante hazaña en tres meses. La vacunación empieza en octubre. El 16 de Diciembre, cuando ya se habían vacunado cuarenta millones de personas, el Gobierno decide suspender la vacunación. Se habían producido 33 muertes fulminantes debidas a la vacuna y cientos de personas desarrollaban ya el gravísimo y raro síndrome de Guillain-Barré. Entre los caídos por la Salud y por la Fe en América y la Medicina, se hallaba il capo di tutti capi, Carlo Gambino. La prensa atribuyó la maldad a Carmine Galente. El doctor Archie Kalokerinos directamente al Gobierno.

Por cierto, el terrorífico virus de Fort Dix era el H1N1.
Nada nuevo bajo el sol.

ROBERTO MATURANA: EL MISTERIOSO POLAR MIST

Publicado en Tribuna de Periodistas

Cerro Vanguardia S.A. cargó a bordo del buque pesquero Polar Mist 474 lingotes que contenían oro y plata. "Para tener una idea de lo que el pesquero transportaba basta decir que hoy la onza de oro se cotiza en los mercados internacionales a unos US$

900 y cada kilo de oro es igual 32 onzas”. Se estima que el cargamento tendría un valor de US$ 10 millones a US$ 20 millones, bastante más que los US$ 1,7 millón declarados al salir del Puerto Argentino”. La AFIP seguramente ya habrá iniciado un expediente sobre Cerro Vanguardia dueño de este embarque tan particular.

La explotación minera de Cerro Vanguardia se encuentra en Santa Cruz y ha contribuido a que nuestro país sea hoy el decimoquinto productor mundial de oro y se estima que estará entre los 10 primeros exportadores en 2011, según la Secretaría de Minería. La producción de oro de la Argentina creció más de 6.000% entre 2003 y 2008. La experiencia de transitar por Cerro Vanguardia permite observar personal extranjero, seguridad extrema, arsénico y hasta secuelas en la piel durante más de un año a quienes ocasionalmente la han visitado, entre una de las dañinas consecuencias visibles.

El hundimiento de este pesquero que cargaba oro permite llevar al conocimiento público “la ruta que sigue el oro desde su explotación a su destino final”, silenciada hasta el momento. El Polar Mist nos da una idea del fabuloso negocio oculto de las mineras en la Argentina, que desde hace años exportan como “escoria” junto con el oro y la plata de nuestros yacimientos, material que en destino se procesa y cuadruplica su valor. La prensa chilena llamó la atención sobre estos mecanismos de “ocultamiento del Estado argentino y las empresas mineras” radicadas en nuestro país, que eligen países como el nuestro, ricos en minerales, propensos a las gestiones corruptas y al negocio paralelo, reembolsos escandalosos, decretos ad hoc, bajas regalías con la promesa de “grandes inversiones”.

Decreto K para el oro K

Un ejemplo de cómo el Estado gestiona nuestras riquezas es el decreto 1089 de mayo de 2003: las mineras no pagan impuesto a las ganancias por los montos anuales destinados a prevenir y subsanar las alteraciones sufridas por el medio ambiente provocadas por las actividades mineras. El importe anual, obvio, lo fija la propia empresa minera y puede deducir el equivalente al 5% de los costos operativos de extracción y beneficio. Es el país el que asume dichos costos que se deducen del impuesto a las ganancias.

Se reintegra a las empresas mineras, luego de transcurridos doce períodos, el Impuesto al Valor Agregado (IVA) por los créditos fiscales por la importación y adquisición de bienes y servicios destinados a prospección, exploración, ensayos mineralúrgicos e investigación aplicada. Además, estas empresas, a los fines del cálculo del impuesto a las ganancias pueden optar por un régimen de amortización acelerada de sus inversiones. Este régimen puede significar un menor pago del impuesto a las ganancias a lo largo de la vida útil del proyecto minero.

Los nuevos emprendimientos y las unidades productoras existentes que incrementen su capacidad productiva mediante proyectos de ampliación gozan de estabilidad fiscal por el término de treinta años desde la fecha de presentación del estudio de factibilidad de la mina (es decir, declaración de que la mina es rentable). A estos emprendimientos no se les pueden establecer nuevos impuestos, ni tasas ni gravámenes, ni aumentar los montos de los existentes. Las minas existentes a la fecha de promulgación de la ley no gozan de esta estabilidad fiscal pero sí de todas las otras ventajas que la ley establece. El Decreto de necesidad y urgencia 417 de 2003 autoriza la libre disponibilidad de las divisas que las Compañías Mineras obtengan por sus exportaciones. En consecuencia, el oro de todos convertido en divisas se va del país sin que los problemas de endeudamiento externo y la necesidad de divisas que el país tiene sean contemplados con algún tipo de retenciones.

El Estado K, socio del saqueo de los yacimientos, desoyendo la ley, está ciego de poder y contribuye al beneficio de las empresas mineras a costa del empobrecimiento de sus gobernados. “Los gobiernos de las provincias, entonces, tratan de convencer a la gente de que las inversiones aportarán mayores regalías y darán más trabajo, pero en realidad esto no es así y como los yacimientos son finitos, en general no más de 10 años, la explotación intensiva solo acelera los tiempos de agotamiento del recurso y finalmente, cuando el ingenio se levanta no queda nada y los pueblos que de ellos vivieron mueren, si no han tenido un verdadero crecimiento en recursos alternativos como pueden ser industrias que elaboren la materia prima que se extrae”.

Memoria de los hechos

Ya explicamos en otra columna que sólo ilegalmente puede un pesquero transportar minerales. En cambio, la explicación de Cerro Vanguardia para transportar su carga minera en un pesquero es simple y libre de la obligación de respetar la ley: "Es un barco que tiene bodega, y por lo tanto se puede usar para transportar distinto tipo de productos". Uno de los responsables de la minera, contó que para los envíos alternan la contratación de diferentes empresas de transporte.

"Este viaje fue aprobado por la Prefectura", agregó. Según las declaraciones de quienes estaban a bordo del pesquero, todos reconocieron saber la valiosa carga que transportaban, y afirmaron que éste no era el primer viaje de este tipo.

Repasemos la crónica del hundimiento del Polar Mist:

“La señal de alerta fue recibida por el personal de MRCC-Ushuaia, Centro Coordinador de Rescate en el Mar de Ushuaia, perteneciente a la Armada Argentina, a través de su par de Punta Arenas (Chile).

La Armada Argentina en su condición de Autoridad de Aplicación del Convenio de Búsqueda y Rescate marítimo (Ley 22445) suscripto por la República Argentina, informa que a las 10:40 hs. se recibió un mensaje de emergencia por parte del buque pesquero “Polar Mist” que se encontraba sin propulsión aproximadamente a 20 millas náuticas (37 km) al noreste de Punta Dúngenes (Estrecho de Magallanes), en posición 52º 10’ de latitud sur y 067º 50’ de longitud oeste, con olas de entre 7 y 8 metros de altura y 8 personas a bordo.

Ante esta situación el MRCC-Ushuaia asumió las funciones de Búsqueda y Rescate (SAR). Con tal motivo se destacó, a la zona de emergencia, a las 12:30 hs. un helicóptero Sea King de la Armada Argentina, desde la Base Aeronaval Rio Grande. Dicha aeronave tenía previsto arribar a la vertical del pesquero siniestrado aproximadamente a las 13:15 hs.

En proximidades del buque pesquero “Polar Mist” se encontraba el remolcador “Golondrina” de bandera argentina. Asimismo la Armada Argentina destacó al Transporte A.R.A. Canal Beagle, que estaba localizado a una distancia de 106 millas náuticas (195 km) y al Buque Logístico A.R.A. “PATAGONIA” ubicado a 208 millas náuticas.

A las 13:50 hs. finalizó el rescate de los tripulantes quienes fueron evacuados a bordo del Sea King hasta Río Gallegos donde recibieron las atenciones correspondientes”.

Recordemos

El Polar Mist —propiedad de la firma pesquera con base en Chile, Isla del Rey— zarpó de Punta Quilla, en la ciudad argentina de Santa Cruz. El parte de embarque asegura que en su interior iban bolsas de "bullion doré", una manera técnica para designar lingotes con contenido aurífero. Como valor de la carga, el documento entregado a la Aduana transandina asegura que alcanza US$ 1,6 millón y se afirma que el cargamento es de 2,9 toneladas. Ambas cifras serían rectificadas luego del naufragio, cuando se conoció la magnitud y valor de lo que llevaba el pesquero.

La investigación que se sigue en la Argentina determinó que el embarque pertenece a la minera Cerro Vanguardia, cuyo dueño es un consorcio anglobritánico y en la que el Estado argentino, específicamente la provincia de Santa Cruz, tiene una pequeña participación y la compañía Manantial Espejo, esta última propiedad de una canadiense y en la que hasta el año pasado —cuando comenzó su funcionamiento— poseía un 10% de la propiedad un fondo de inversión vinculado al dueño de Microsoft, Bill Gates.

Manantial Espejo, cuya dueña es Minera Tritón, no ha estado exento de polémica y los habitantes de la zona en que está ubicada, cerca de la ciudad de San Julián, han cuestionado el uso de arsénico en las operaciones y las excesivas regalías tributarias que Santa Cruz —tradicional bastión de la familia Kirchner— ha otorgado a las operaciones mineras existentes en la zona.

Relato que plantea más dudas que certezas

Apenas llegó la ayuda, los tripulantes del Polar Mist decidieron abandonar el barco. Todos vestían trajes de buzo herméticos y antes de saltar dejaron encendido el motor, algo completamente inusual en los estrictos códigos marítimos. El barco ya sin tripulantes queda flotando "al garete" en el océano, es decir en estado de abandono.

Un par de horas más tarde, arribó al lugar el remolcador Beagle, propiedad de la filial de la naviera Ultramar. Este remolcador se encontraba a casi 400 kilómetros del lugar, llegó tras una comunicación recibida desde Punta Arenas. "No nos llamaron, pero en la XII Región todos sabían que había un barco en problemas", indicó una fuente que participó en la operación. No lo llamaron y navegaron a toda máquina desde 400 km para asistir al pesquero.

Cuando llegaron a la boca oriente del estrecho, los tripulantes del Beagle se encontraron con una imagen desoladora. El Polar Mist (que significa Niebla Polar) estaba vacío, el motor seguía encendido y no había señal alguna de los pasajeros. Para los tripulantes del Beagle el hecho llamó la atención porque en este tipo de procedimientos se suele detener los motores y tratar de anclar la nave para no perder la posición del navío. En la Prefectura de Río Gallegos confirmaron esta medida. Una alta fuente de la autoridad transandina precisó que de todos los rescates que han realizado, "nunca nos habíamos topado con una embarcación que siguiera con el motor en marcha". Esta acotación de profesionales del remolque oceánico desnuda una trama oculta en torno del Polar Mist. El pesquero en el pedido radial de socorro que se encuentra grabado informó que estaba sin maquina. ¿Por qué estaba con el motor en marcha y abandonado en el océano hacia 24 hs? Una explicación posible es que el motor en marcha se necesita para utilizar el guinche que eleva la carga desde la bodega en las operaciones de descarga. Si se realizó un trasbordo, interesaba la carga, el buque no tenía ningún interés para quien lo abandonó.

En las proximidades del buque cuando se efectuó el rescate de la tripulación por medio del helicóptero, se encontraba el remolcador argentino Golondrina. ¿Por qué el remolcador Golondrina tripulado por profesionales del remolque oceánico no brindó en ese momento la asistencia y remolque del Polar Mist que quedó 24 hs. a flote hasta la llegada del remolcador chileno Beagle? ¿Dónde permaneció el Golondrina y que órdenes recibió de las autoridades navales argentinas? ¿A qué puerto o zona de operaciones navegó al dejar en abandono al Polar Mist?

El remolcador chileno Beagle fue quien hallo al pesquero luego de buscarlo 24 hs. y encontró las escotillas de bodega abiertas. Este buque tomó remolque del pesquero por orden de Prefectura Naval Argentina y comenzó a navegar hacia Chile. Horas más tarde PNA le ordenó navegar hacia Santa Cruz. Aproximadamente 3 horas después de esta orden el pesquero comenzó a escorarse (inclinarse) y luego se hundió en aguas internacionales.

Las preguntas surgen simplemente para quien conoce el tema del remolque marítimo:

¿Por qué no se puso dotación de guardia en el pesquero si funcionaba el motor y no tenía impedimento a la navegación, ya que estaba flotando luego de 24 hs. en abandono?

Cuando el remolcador enganchó el remolque a la bita del pesquero, ¿no se revisó el estado de la sala de máquinas a la par que pararon el motor encontrado en marcha?

¿No se revisó la bodega para verificar su estanqueidad, es decir, verificar que no entrara agua?

¿Cómo un remolcador oceánico dotado de elementos no auxilió taponando la entrada de agua al mismo?

Si el motor funcionaba, podía accionarse las bombas y sacar el agua que pudiere entrar, ¿por qué no se hizo?

Cuando se tomo el remolque el buque flotaba perfectamente y no se registraba inclinación en el mismo ya que este no había chocado contra piedra alguna, quiere decir entonces, que el agua que ingresó y que lo hundió, debió entrar de otro lado, como de una vía de agua calibrada o la rotura de una tubería o la apertura de toma de mar. Cuando un buque remolca, el remolcador observa al remolcado para visualizar inclinaciones que detecten ingreso de agua, ¿por qué no fue enviada una dotación de emergencia al pesquero para obturar el ingreso de agua?

En Punta Arenas, en tanto, ha circulado la versión de que quizá el Polar Mist ya no tenga los lingotes en sus compartimentos. Quienes sostienen esta tesis aseguran que las escotillas abiertas y La declaración de uno de los tripulantes respecto a que debían "encontrarse" con un remolcador en un lugar preestablecido, pero que éste no llegó, sólo han incrementado las ya numerosas interrogantes que rodean el naufragio del "Niebla Polar".

"Según consta en el documento de embarque Nº 09 061 ES03 000003 Z el destino final de la mercadería en tránsito internacional era Suiza y el flete pagado solamente para cubrir el trayecto Punta Quilla (Arg)– Punta Arenas (Chl) ascendió a la suma de 28.450 dólares, datos certificados por el Agente de Transporte Aduanero (Reg 30-6737336-7) Marcelo O Hansen, como apoderado de Hansen y Cia S.C como agentes de Major Cargo Ltda de Chile.

Una curiosidad es que en la documentación de embarque se detalla como observación que el barco está en óptimas condiciones para cumplir con el traslado a puerto de descarga (Punta Arenas) y resalta que todo está en orden tanto en calidad, cantidad como acondicionamiento dentro de la embarcación, lo que hace todavía mucho más increíbles las versiones que se dan sobre los supuestos motivos por los cuales el barco naufragó”.

Mientras desatamos una guerra con el campo por migajas, liberamos a las empresas mineras de todo impuesto, para que se lleven miles de millones con decretos a medida, mientras Cristina, la Presidente Testimonial y Néstor se desgañitan en su lucha por los mas pobres, que jamás verán un centavo de los millones que se extraen de suelo patrio a favor de ellos mismos y en desmedro de la Nación.

El Arzobispo de Buenos Aires reiteró su preocupación por "la falta de diálogo institucional en el país" y alertó sobre "la violencia, la exclusión, la injusticia y la mentira".

Al igual que los poderosos genocidas de ayer, los Kirchner y sus funcionarios, serán juzgados porque su política aplicada es generadora de hambre y genocidio.

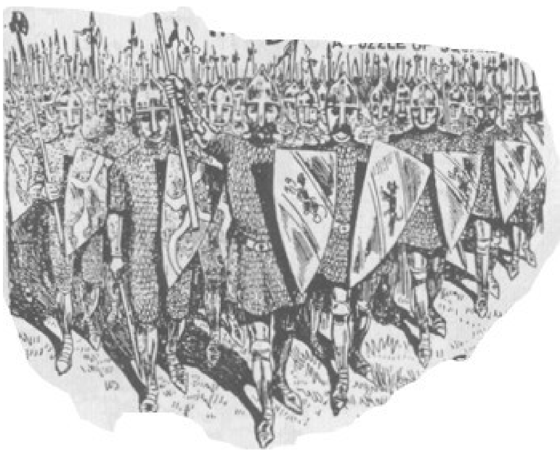
POR QUÉ SE OCULTA QUE EL CID ERA MUJER, BISEXUAL, BASTANTE CASQUIVANA, PENDENCIERA, E HIRSUTA



No puedo por menos que objetar a la muy ilustre profesora Oliver que sostiene que Mio Cid fue escrito por un árabe cultísimo de la morería siguiendo con la cortina de humo que oculta la verdad.

No citaré otras fuentes que las que la crítica y la historiografía han soslayado, sin importarles un ardite que parezca que el rey cristiano anda timándose con la soldadesca, como un Alberto de Mónaco cualquiera, con tal de no reconocer que CID era una mujer. Y aquí queda esto:

> "El rrey le dixo: —Levad suso, Çid, ca non quiero yo que me besedes los pies, mas las manos; e, si lo así non feziéredes, non averedes mi amor.— E Çid le dixo: —Señor, pues pido vos por merçed que me otorguedes vuestro amor en guisa que lo oyan todos quantos aquí están.— El rrey le dixo que le plazié, e perdonó le ante todos e otorgó le su amor".

Sólo por misoginia se ha ocultado que CID se correponde con las siglas de Confaciam Ius Dominarum, Concupiens Insatiabillis Delectossa, Carissima Iustissima Domina, y Confortat Iocunda Dominatrix, y por eso así se le denominó cariñosamente.

Dado su hirsutismo, pudo mesarse la barba cuando le plugo, y dio y tomó de hembra y de varón con la misma jocundia que buscó guerra con moros y cristianos, de donde viene esa salaz expresión que define a quien se halla en pleno estro: "...va buscando guerra", como tantas veces se dijo de CID.

Sólo el machismo, la ignorancia, y la homofobia explican que sus amores con Ximena Díaz, hija del conde Diego Rodríguez de Asturias, prima del rey Alfonso VI, hermana del conde Don Fruela, y el desagrado que le mostró el que no quiso ser su suegro se hayan desvirtuado y tergiversado, y se haya omitido la razón por la que CID decidiera abreviarle su congoja y lo mandara a mejor vida.
Y esto lo supieron y ocultaron Abadal i de Vinyals, Acutis, Adams, Aebischer, los dos Alonso, (A. y D.), Armistead y Silverman, Catalán, Escelicer, Bello, Benedetto Croce, Montaner, Rico, Menéndez Pidal y toda la patulea que los siguió.

El profesor Felipe Márquez, lo demostró matemáticamente con la ayuda de la cábala:

— Piense usted cuántas noches a la semana ha querido pasar una noche loca en plan CID triunfador/a.

Multiplíquelo por 2 y súmale 5

Multiplíquelo por 50

— Si ya pasó su fecha de cumpleaños le ha de sumar 1755
— Si aun no ha pasado, le suma 1754
Réstale el año de su nacimiento incluyendo las 4 cifras.
Súmele 5

Obtendrá un número de 3 cifras:
— La primera cifra es el número de veces que pensó al principio
— La segunda cifra es su edad.

La cábala no miente.

RODRIGO COTA: DIÁLOGO ENTRE EL AMOR Y UN VIEJO

COmiẽça vna obra de. Rodrigo cota amanera de dialago en-trel amor: y vn viejo q̃ escarmentado dl muy retraydo se figura en vna huerta seca y destruyda dela casa dl plazer derribada se muestra cerrada la puerta en vna pobre zilla choça metido / al ql subitamẽte parescio el amor: cõ sus ministros y aql humil mẽte procediẽdo y el viejo en aspera manera replicãdo vã discurriẽdo por su habla fasta ql viejo dl amor: fue vẽcido y començo a hablar el viejo enla manera siguiẽte.

Comiença vna obra de Rodrigo Cota a manera de diálogo entrel Amor y un Viejo que, escarmentado dél, muy retraýdo, se figura en vna huerta seca y destruyda, do la casa del Plazer derribada se muestra, cerrada la puerta, en una pobrezilla choça metido. Al qual súbitamente paresció el Amor con sus ministros y, aquél humilmente procediendo y el Viejo en áspera manera replicando, van discurriendo por su habla fasta quel Viejo del Amor fue vencido. Y començó a hablar el Viejo en la manera siguiente:

Cerrada estaua mi puerta.
¿A qué vienes? ¿Por do entraste?
Di, ladrón, ¿por qué saltaste las paredes de mi huerta?
La hedad y la razón
ya de ti man libertado.
Dexa el pobre coraçón,
retraýdo en su rincón,
contemplar quál las parado.
Quanto más queste vergel
no produze locas flores ni los frutos y dulçores que solíes hallar en él.
Sus verduras y hollajes
y delicados frutales hechos son todos saluajes, conuertidos en linajes
de natíos de eriales.
La beldad deste jardín ya no temo quela halles ni las ordenadas calles ni los muros de jazmín.

Ni los arroyos corrientes de biuas aguas notables ni las aluercas ni fuentes ni las aues produzientes los cantos tan consolables.
Ya la casa se deshizo
de sotil lauor estraña
y tornosse esta cabaña
de cañuelas de carrizo.
Delos frutos hize truecos
por escaparme de ti, por aquellos troncos secos,
carcomidos, todos huecos
que parescen cerca mí.
Sal del huerto, miserable.
Ve buscar dulce floresta, que tú no puedes enésta
hazer vida deleytable.
Ni tú ni tus seruidores
podés bien estar comigo, que, aunquestén llenos de flores, yo sé bien quántos dolores ellos traen siempre consigo.
Tú traydor eres, Amor;
delos tuyos enemigo
y los que biuen contigo son ministros del dolor.
Sábete que sé que son
Afán, Desdén y Desseo,
Sospiro, Celos, Passión,
Osar, Temer, Afición,
Guerra, Saña, Deuaneo,
Tormento y Desesperança,
Engaños con Ceguedad, Lloros y Catiuidad,
Congoxa, Rauia, Mudança,
Tristeza, Dubda, Coraje, Lisonja, Troque y Espina
y otros mil deste linaje, que con su falso visaje
su forma nos desatina.

Amor:

En tu habla representas que nos has bien conoscido.

El Viejo:

Sí, que no tengo en oluido
cómo hieres y atormentas.

Esta huerta destruyda manifiesta tu centella.
Dexa mi cansada vida,
sana ya de tu herida
más que tú de su querella.

Amor:

Pues estás tan criminal,
hablar quiero con sossiego por que no encendamos huego como yesca y pedernal.
Y pues soy Amor llamado, hablaré con dulcedumbre,
recibiendo muy temprado
tu hablar tan denodado, en panes de dulcedumbre.

El Viejo:

Blanda cara de alacrán,
Fines fieros y rauiosos;
los potajes ponçoñosos
en sabor dulce se dan.
Como el más blando licor
es muy más penetratiuo, piensas tú con tu dulçor penetrar el desamor
en que me hallas esquiuo.
Las culebras y serpientes
y las cosas enconadas son muy blandas y pintadas
y a la vista muy plazientes;
mas un secreto venino
dexando pueden llegar,
qual, según que yo adeuino, dexarías enel camino
que comigo quies llevar.

Amor:

Ala habla que te hago,
¿por qué cierras las orejas?

Viejo:

Porque muerden las abejas aunque llegan con halago.

Amor:

No me vaias atajando que yo lo que quieres quiero.

Viejo:

Ni muestres tú falagando que, aunque agora vienes blando, bien sé que eres escusero.

Amor:

Escucha, padre señor,
que por mal trocaré bienes, por vltrajes y desdenes
quiero darte gran honor.
A ti questás más dispuesto para me contradezir, assí tengo presupuesto
de sofrir tu duro gesto por que sufras mi seruir.

El Viejo:

Ve daý, pan de çaraças.
Vete, carne de señuelo.
Vete, mal ceuo de anzuelo.
Tira allá, que membaraças.
Reclamo de paxarero,
falso cerro de vallena,
el ques cauto marinero
no se vence muy ligero
del cantar dela serena.

Amor:

Tu rigor no dé querella que manzille tu bondad
y, pues tienes justedad, sigue los caminos della.
Al culpado, si es aussente,
lo llaman para juzgar.
Pues, ¿por quál inconuiniente al presente ygnocente
no te plaze descuchar?

El Viejo:

Habla ya. Di tus razones, di tus enconados quexos,
pero dímelos de lexos.
El ayre no menfeciones.
Que, según sé de tus nueuas, si te llegas cerca mí,
tú farás tan dulces prueuas quel vltraje que ora lleuas ésse lleue yo de ti.

Amor:

Nunca Dios tal maleficio
te permita conseguir, antes para te seruir
purifique mi seruicio.
Qual en tanto grado cresca que más no pueda subir, porque loe y agradesca
y tan gran merced meresca
qual me hazéys en oýr.
Por estimados prouechos
a vos, gratos coraçones, con muy biuas aficiones
os meto dentro de mis pechos.
Porque puede agradescer
ser oýdo aqueste día,
do haré bien conoscer quánto yerro puede ser desechar mi compañía.
Y ¿ladrón llamas a uno,
sin que tengas más enojos que, sin ser ante tus ojos, no jamás llegó a ninguno?
Y, pues hurto nunca vuo
ante la vista del ombre, ¿qué respecto aquí se tuuo
o por quál razón te plugo darme tan impropio nombre?

El Viejo:

No despiertes, que más quiebre,
desonra biuos y muertos, que a nuestros ojos abiertos
echas sueño como liebre.
No te quiero más dezir.
Déxame de tu conquista:
tú nos sueles embayr,
tú nos sabes enxerir
como egibcio nuestra vista.

Amor:

Soy alegre que me abras
y tu saña notifiques, aunque a mí me damnifiques
por rotura de palabras.
Quel furor, ques encerrado do se encierra, más empesce:
la vengança en el ayrado,
es calor vaporizado
que no dura y enuanesce.

Porque a mí que desechaste ames tú con afición,
ten comigo la razón:
faré salua que te baste.
Y será desculpación
de tu quexa y dela mía:
yo saluarme de ladrón,
tú serás, en conclusión,
no tachado en cortesía.
Comúnmente toda vía
han los viejos vn vezino enconado, muy malino,
gouernado en sangre fría.
Llámasse Malenconía.
Amarga conuersación.
Quien por tal estremo guía ciertamente se desuía
lexos de mi condición.
Mas después que te sentido que me quieres dar audiencia, de mi miedo muy vencido,
culpado, despauorido,
se partió de tu presencia.
Éste moraua contigo
enel tiempo que me viste
y por esto te encendiste en rigor tanto comigo.
Donde mora este maldito
no jamás ay alegría ni honor ni cortesía
ni ningún buen apetito.
Pero donde yo me llego
todo mal y pena quito, de los yelos saco fuego
y a los viejos meto en juego
Y a los muertos ressuscito.
Al rudo hago discreto,
al grossero muy polido,
desembuelto al encoigdo
y al inuirtuoso neto.
Al couarde esforçado, Escasso al liberal,
bien regido al destemplado,
muy cortés y mesurado
al que no suele ser tal.
Yo hallo el sumo deleyte, yo formo el fausto y arreo
y tan bien cubro lo feo con la capa del afeyte.
Yo hago fiestas de sala
y mando vestirse rico.
Yo tan bien quiero que vala
el misterio de la gala quando está en lo pobrezico.

Yo las coplas y canciones,
yo la música suaue,
yo demuestro aquel que sabe
las sotiles inuenciones.
Yo fago bolar mis llamas
por lo bueno y por lo malo, yo hago seruir las damas,
yo las perfumadas camas,
golosinas y regalo.
Yo baylar en lido son,
yo las danças y corsautes,
y aquestos son los farautes que yo embío al coraçón.
En las armas festejar
inuinciones muy discretas,
el justar y tornear,
en la ley de batallar
trances y armas secretas.
Visito los pobrezillos,
fuello las casas reales.
De los senos virginales
sé yo bien los rinconcillos.
Mis pihuelas y mis lonjas
a los religiosos atan;
no lo tomes por lisonjas,
si no ve, mira las monjas:
Verás quán dulce me tratan.
Yo hallo las argentadas,
yo las mudas y cerillas, luzentoras, vnturillas
y las aguas estiladas;
yo la líquida estoraque
y el licor de las rasuras, yo tan bien cómo se saque la pequilla, que no taque las lindas acataduras.
Yo mostré retir en plata la vaquil y alacrán
y hazer el solimán
que en el fuego se desata.
Yo mil modos de colores
para lo descolorido;
mil pinturas, mil primores,
mil remedios dan amores
con que enhiestan lo caýdo.
Yo hago las rugas viejas
dexar el rostro estirado
y sé cómo el cuero atado
se tiene tras las orejas.
Y el arte de los vngüentes que para esto aprouecha.
Sé dar cejas en las frentes, contrahago nueuos dientes

do natura los desecha.
Yo las aguas y lexías
para los cabellos roxos, aprieto los miembros floxos
y do carne en las enzías.
A la habla temulenta,
turbada por senetud,
yo la hago tan esenta
que su tono representa
la forma de juuentud.
Sin daño dela salud
puedo, con mi sufficiencia, conuertir el impotencia en muy potente virtud sin calientes confaciones, sin comeres muy abastos,
sin conseruas ni piñones,
estincos, sateriones,
atíncar ni otros gastos.
En el ayre mis espuelas
fieren a todas las aues
y en los muy hondos cóncaues las reptilias pequeñuelas.
Toda bestia de la tierra
y pescado de la mar
so mi gran poder sencierra sin poderse de mi guerra con sus fuerças amparar.
Algun aue que librar
se quiso de mi conquista, solamente con la vista
le di premia dengendrar.
Mi poder, tan absoluto que por todo cabo siembra, mira cómo lo secuto:
árbol ay que no da fruto
do no nasce macho y hembra.
Pues que ves que mi poder
tan luengamente sestiende, do ninguno se defiende
no te pienses defender.
Y a quien buena ventura
tienen todos de seguir recibe, pues que precura
no hazerte desmesura,
mas de muerto rebeuir.

El Viejo:

Según siento de tu trato
enque armas contra mí,
podré bien dezir por ti:

¡Qué buen amigo es el gato!
El que nunca por niuel
de razón justa se adiestra, nunca da dulce sin hiel,
mas es tal como la miel
do se muere la maestra.
Robador fiero sin asco,
ladrón de dulce despojo,
bien sabes quebrar el ojo
y después vntar el caxco.
O muy halagüeña pena,
ciega lumbre, sotil ascua.
O plazer de mala mena,
sin ochauas en cadena nunca diste buena Pascua.
Maestra lengua dengaños,
pregonero de tus bienes,
dime agora por qué tienes
so silencio tantos daños.
Que aunque más doblado seas
y más pintes tu deleyte, estas cosas do te arreas son diformes caras feas encubiertas del afeyte.
Y ¿cómo te glorificas
en tus deleytosas obras?
¿Por qué callas las çoçobras
Delo biuo mortificas?
Di, maldito, ¿por qué quieres encobrir tal enemiga?
Sábete que sé quién eres,
y si tú no lo dixeres,
questá aquí quien te lo diga.
El libre hazes catiuo,
al alegre mucho triste,
do ningún pesar consiste
pones modo pensatiuo.
Tú ensuzias muchas camas con aguda rauia fuerte, tú manzillas muchas famas
y tú hazes con tus llamas
mil vezes pedir la muerte.
Tú hallas las tristes yeruas
y tú los tristes potajes, tú mestizas los linajes,
tú limpieza no conseruas.
Tú doctrinas de malicia,
tú quebrantas lealtad,
tú con tu carnal cobdicia
tú vas contra pudicia sin freno donestidad.
Tú vas alos adeuinos,
tú buscas los hechizeros,

tú consientes los agüeros
y prenósticos mezquinos, creyendo con vanidad
acreer por abusiones
lo que deleyte y beldad
y luenga conformidad
pones en los coraçones.
Tú nos metes en bollicio,
tú nos quitas el sossiego, tú con tu sentido ciego
pones alas en el vicio.
Tú destruyes la salud,
tú rematas el saber,
tú hazes en senetud
la hazienda y la virtud
y el auctoridad caer.

El Amor:

No me trates más, señor,
en contino vituperio,
que si oyes mi misterio
conuertirlo has en loor.
Verdad es que inconuiniente alguno suelo causar,
porque del amor la gente,
entre frío y muy ardiente,
no saben medio tomar.
El aue que con sentido
su hijo muestra bolar ni lo manda abalançar
ni que buele con el nido.
Y quien no está proueýdo
de tomar término cierto,
muchas vezes es caýdo.
Y el amor apercebido
quiere el ombre, que no muerto.
Dallí dizen ques locura atreuerse por amar,
mas allí está más ganar
donde está más auentura.
Sin mojarse, el pescador
nunca coma muy gran pez.
No ay plazer do no ay dolor.
Nunca ríe con sabor
quien no llora alguna vez.
Razón es muy conoscida que las cosas más amadas con afán son alcançadas
y trabajo en esta vida.
La más deleytosa obra que en este mundo se cree es do más trabajo sobra, que lo que sin él se cobra sin deleyte se possee.

Siempre vso desta astucia para ser más conseruado:
que con bien y mal mezclado
pongo en mí mayor acucia.
Y rebuelto allí vn poquito,
con sabor de algún rigor,
el desseo más incito,
que amortigua el apetito
el dulçor sobre dulçor.
No lo prueuo con milagro:
cosa es sabida llana que se despierta la gana
de comer con dulçe agro.
Assí yo con galardón
muchas vezes mezclo pena, que en la paz de dissensión, entre amantes la quistión
reyntegra la cadena.
Por que no trayga fastío
mi dulce conuersación, busco causa y ocasión
con que a tiempos la desuío.
Que lo que sale del vso contino sabe mejor,
y por esto te dispuso
mi querer, por que de yuso subas costumbre mayor.
Por ende, si con dulçura me quieres obedescer, yo haré reconoscer
en ti muy nueua frescura.
Ponerte en el coraçón
este mi biuo alboroço.
Serás en esta sazón
de la misma condición que eras quando lindo moço.
De verdura muy gentil
tu huerta renouaré,
la casa fabricaré
de obra rica, sotil.
Sanaré las plantas secas,
quemadas por los friores.
En muy gran simpleza pecas, viejo triste, si no truecas
tus espinas por mis flores.

El Viejo:

Allégate vn poco más.
Tienes tan lindas razones, que sofrirte que mencones

por la gloria que me das.
Los tus dichos alcahuetes,
con verdad o con engaño,
en el alma me los metes.
Por lo dulce que prometes,
Desperar es todo el año.

El Amor:

Abracémonos entramos, desnudos, sin otro medio:
sentirás en ti mi remedio,
en tu huerta frescos ramos.

El Viejo:

Vente a mí, muy dulce Amor.
Vente a mí braços abiertos.
Ves aquí tu seruidor
hecho sieruo, de señor, sin tener tus dones ciertos.

Amor:

Hete aquí bien abraçado.
Dime, ¿qué sientes agora?

Viejo:

Siento rauia matadora,
plazer lleno de cuydado;
siento fuego muy crescido;
siento mal y no lo veo;
sin rotura, estó herido;
no te quiero ver partido ni apartado de desseo.

Amor:

Agora verás, don Viejo, conseruar la fama casta.
Aquí te veré do basta
tu saber y tu consejo.
Porque con soberuia y riña me diste contradición, seguirás estrecha liña
en amores de vna niña
de muy duro coraçón.
Y sabe que te reuelo
vna dolorida nueua,
do sabrás cómo se ceua
quien se mete en mi señuelo:
Amarás más que Macías,

hallarás esquiuidad,
sentirás las plagas mías,
fenescerán tus viejos días
En ciega catiuidad.
O viejo triste, liuiano,
¿quál error pudo bastar que te auía de tornar
ruuio tu cabello cano;
y essos ojos descozidos
que eran para enamorar;
y essos beços tan sumidos,
dientes y muelas podridos,
que eran dulces de besar.
Conuiene tan bien que notes que es muy más digna cosa en tu boca gargajosa
pater nostres que no motes.
Y el tosser que las canciones
y el bordón que no el espada y las botas y calçones que las nueuas inuenciones ni la ropa muy trepada.
O marchito corcobado,
a ti era más anexo
del yjar contino quexo que sospiro enamorado.
Y en tu mano prouechoso,
para en tu flaca salud,
más vn trapo lagañoso para el ojo lagrimoso que vihuela ni laúd.
Mira tu negro garguero
de pesgo seco pegado.
Quán crudío y arrugado
tienes, viejo triste, el cuero.
Mira en esse ronco pecho
cómo el huélfago te escarua.
Mira tu ressollo estrecho, que no escupes más derecho de quanto tensuzias la barua.
Viejo triste entre los viejos que de amores te atormentas, mira cómo tus artejos parescen sartas de cuentas.
Y las uñas tan crescidas
y los pies llenos de callos y tus carnes consumidas
y tus piernas encogidas,
quáles son para cauallos.
Amargo viejo, denuesto
de la humana natura, ¿tú no miras tu figura
y vergüença de tu gesto?

¿Y no vees la ligereza que tienes para escalar?
¿Qué donayre y gentileza
y qué fuerça y qué destreza la tuya para justar?
Quién te viesse entremetido en cosas dulces de amores y venirte los dolores
y atrauessarte el gemido.
O quién te oyesse cantar Señora de alta guisa
y temblar y gagadear,
los gallillos engrifar,
tu dama muerta de risa.
O maldad enuegescida.
O vejez mala de malo.
Alma biua en seco palo,
biua muerte y muerta vida.
Deprauado y obstinado desseoso de pecar.
Mira, malauenturado, que te dexa a ti el pecado
y tú nol quieres dexar.

El Viejo:

El qual ynol muerde, muere
por graue sueño pesado, assí haze el desdichado
aquien tu saeta fiere.
¿A dó estauas, mi sentido?
Dime ¿cómo te dormiste?
Durmiósse tiste, perdido,
como haze el dolorido que escuchó de quien oýste.

Cabo:

Pues en ti tuue esperança,
tú perdona mi pecar.
Gran linaje de vengança
es las culpas perdonar.
Si del precio el vencido
del que vence es el honor, yo, de ti tan combatido,
no seré flaco caýdo
ni tú fuerte vencedor.

FELIX SORIA. LA GRIPE MEXICANA NO ES PORCINA NI LETAL

En vista de que a la industria farmacéutica le interesa que no comparemos el porcentaje de morbilidad de la mal llamada gripe o influenza "porcina" en relación con el número de afectados, y su calidad de vida, les recomiendo el artículo publicado en Im-Pulso, el martes 28 de abril de 2009, donde dice, entre otras cosas:

"La gripe porcina o mexicana, al igual que todas las enfermedades similares y que en principio no son letales, tiene una tasa de morbilidad que está en función, entre otros factores, de la calidad media de las condiciones de vida de las personas y, por extensión, de la colectividad (eficiencia alimentaria, higiene personal, asitencia sanitaria, etcétera).
Sin ninguna duda, la epidemia de gripe que acusa México multiplicará exponencialmente el número de muertes causadas en el país azteca si se ceba en la población de Somalia o Zimbabue. Y por las mismas razones pero en sentido contrario, causará menos fallecimientos --si es que causa alguno-- en España, Alemania o Suecia." (...)
¿Hasta cuándo se seguirán supeditando los criterios científicos e informativos a los propios del espectáculo y del entretenimiento?"

No creo que la industria tenga interés en que no verfiquemos el porcentaje de morbilidad, o por lo menos no más que los políticos o los medios de cumunicación.

Si bien las cifras son bajas, lo son de momento y si no se toman las medidas adecuadas podrían aumentar.

Si los esfuerzos de las autoridades sirven para contener la propagación del virus... habrá quien diga que en realidad nunca existió y si fallan dirán que no hicieron lo suficiente.

De entrada, debo pedir disculpas a todos los mexicanos que se hayan sentido injuriados por denominar la influenza que ha sido descubierta en vuestro país como "gripe mexicana".
Recurrí a esa denominaicón para evitar la que están utlizando en el "mundo civilizado", gripe porcina, cuando en realidad no hay evidencias suficientes de que el virus sea de origen porcino.
Cada año hay nuevas gripes o virus de la influenza que se transforman al paso por distintos climas, colectivos humanos, etcétera e incluso tras transitar por distintas especies.
La famosa gripe aviar que hace apenas dos años causó similar alarma que la actual sólo provocó ¡¡¡243 muertos en todo el mundo!!!, lo que supone la milésima parte de los fallecimientos que causa una de las cíclicas gripes comunes que circulan por el mundo.
Eso sí, los laboratorios Roche lograron multiplicar por tres el precio de un fármaco llamado Tamiflu.
Lamento que vuestro Gobierno haya aprovechado este fenómeno mediático y acaso interesado para alterar vuestras vidas y la actividad social y política mexicanas.
El mejor remedio contra las gripes es el desarrollo, comer mejor, educar más, dar una sanidad pública más eficiente y, sobre todo, dejar de hacer políticas de sanidad basadas en estadísticas manipuladas.
Un abrazo a todos los mexicanos de buena voluntad.

CONTRA EL OLVIDO Y LA IMPUNIDAD: PÁVEL GONZÁLEZ Y DIGNA OCHOA

Ni olvido ni perdón

Para vergüenza de la raza humana y de la Justicia de México, Pável González, de veinte años, fue secuestrado, torturado, violado, y ahorcado. Y sus asesinos, miembros del grupo de extrema derecha Yunque, que se permitieron el lujo, además, de pavonearse y amenazar a los compañeros y amigos de Pável, siguen impunes, gracias al miedo o la complicidad de policías, ministerio público, jueces y forenses que, en el colmo de la desvergüenza, certifican que no pueden saber si Pável estaba vivo cuando recibió los golpes, las heridas, la rotura de cráneo, y las lesiones internas y externas que presentaba , o fueron producto de una caída en el descenso del cadaver. Algo que sabe discernir cualquier estudiante de primer año de Anatomía Patológica.
Un suscinto resumen de los hechos comprobados:
- El 19 de abril de 2004, un día antes del 5° aniversario del estallido de la Huelga, Noel Pável González González desapareció, dejando su bicicleta en las instalaciones de la facultad de Filosofía y Letras.
- El viernes 23 de abril de 2004, se levanta el acta de desaparición Ese mismo día por la tarde fue encontrado su cuerpo sin vida, colgado en una cruz ldonde estaban inscritas las etras "EDNA-ZMASH" con una svástica en la parte posterior, en el Pico del Águila, en las inmediaciones del cerro del Ajusco.

- Los que transportaron el cuerpo de Pável, desde El Pico del Águila hasta el tanatorio público, fueron miembros del Escuadron de Rescate y Urgencias Médicas (E.R.U.M.), dependiente de la Secretaría de Seguridad Pública del Distrito Federal, y lo hicieron sin haber recabado la preceptiva presencia de un Juez que ordenara el levantamiento del cadaver, sin que los forenses y la policía científica, ni el Ministerio Público realizaran la inspección en el lugar del hallazgo. Entre otras irregularidades, dejaron caer el cuerpo "accidententalmente" por un desnivel de más 60 metros.

- Hasta aproximadamente a las 7:30 en la mañana del día sábado 24 de abril, sus padres no son informados del hallazgo.

- El forense que informa a su padre de los resultados de la primera autopsia, realizada en el Servicio Médico Forense (SEMEFO), le explica que el cuerpo presenta lesiones internas, externas, perianales y genitales, fractura de craneo con pérdida de masa encefálica causado con un objeto que podría ser un bate, y, posteriormente ahorcamiento, y todo ello a lo largo de los cuatro días anteriores a su muerte, desde el primer día de su desaparición hasta el día de su muerte.

- El domingo 25 de abril, a petición de sus padres se levanta una averiguación previa en el Ministerio Público Nº. 50, razón por la que se realiza una segunda autopsia horas antes del entierro.

- El lunes 26 de abril llega a la coordinación de Estudios Latinoamericanos, al Comité Cerezo, al comité de apoyo a las FARC y a varios estudiantes de la Facultad de Filosofía y Letras, compañeros de Pável González, un correo electrónico amenazante, remitido desde una identidad referida al grupo Yunque, sociedad secreta de ultraderecha violenta, y alude en él a "Apocalipsis", uno de sus grupos de choque.
Pero ni la policía ni el Ministerio Público, ni el Juez indagaron la IP del remitente, ni en las posibles conexiones con el asesinato de Pável y las actividades delictivas de los miembros de Yunque, responsables de palizas, torturas y asesinatos contra estudiantes comprometidos con la causa de la izquierda y los defensores de los derechos humanos en México. Siempre con absoluta impunidad.

La perversa táctica que consiste en hacer que la víctima se convierta en reo, se consigue haciendo que un forense extienda un certificado médico diciendo que no hay trazas del vil asesinato más que evidente, sino que se trata de un suicidio. Y, mientras, la policía ignora todos los indicios , desprecia las pruebas, se dedica a investigar cada recoveco de la vida de la víctima para demostrar que tenía ciertas frustraciones sociales, y algún desequilibrio psíquico, y no era feliz.
La misma táctica que usaron con Digna Ochoa, defensora de los Derechos Humanos, torturada durante varias horas y ultimada a tiros, cuya muerte los forenses dictaminaron como suicidio.
Aquí se pueden ver las imágenes de las lesiones que los forenses no vieron, ni encontraron, ni reseñaron en el cadaver de Digna Ochoa. Ni el más tercermundista de los forenses podría pasarlos por alto, si no es interesadamente.
México no sólo es un estado fallido; sino una infamia en la superficie de la Tierra, mientras los responsables de los asesinatos sigan impunes, y no sean investigados por policías eficientes, y llevados ante Jueces justos e imparciales, cosa que no parece existir en México.
Y Pável, como Digna, y tantas otras criaturas torturadas y asesinadas, estarán en nuestra memoria mientras vivamos para recordarnos que quizás nosotros tampoco supimos defenderlos ni merecerlos.

Autor: PGJDF Y SSP reconocen la actuación

México, D.F., a 3 de enero de 2008.
La Procuraduría General de Justicia del Distrito Federal (PGJDF) y la Secretaría de Seguridad Pública del Distrito Federal (SSPDF) aceptaron la Recomendación 16/2007, emitida por la Comisión de Derechos Humanos del Distrito Federal (CDHDF), por un caso de ejercicio indebido del servicio público e irregularidades en la integración de la averiguación previa, a raíz de la muerte del estudiante universitario Noel Pavel González González.

Después de investigar los hechos narrados por el peticionario, padre de Noel Pavel, esta Comisión llegó a la convicción de que fueron violados los derechos de las víctimas y el derecho a la seguridad jurídica.

El joven Noel Pavel González González desapareció el 19 de abril de 2004 y su cuerpo fue encontrado el 23 de abril del mismo año sujeto a una cruz en el lugar conocido como el Pico del Águila, en el cerro del Ajusco. Su cuerpo fue rescatado por elementos del Escuadrón de Rescate y Urgencias Médicas (ERUM) sin la presencia del agente del Ministerio Público y los peritos en criminalística y fotografía de la PGJDF, quienes debieron resguardar el lugar de los hechos y recabar las pruebas pertinentes.

Al identificar el cuerpo de su hijo, los padres de Noel Pavel González González señalaron que presentaba severas lesiones. El Ministerio Público explicó que el cuerpo se le había caído al personal del ERUM, quien no pudo evitar que el cadáver se impactara y rodara por el terreno accidentado. Los rescatistas indicaron que las condiciones de horario, climáticas y de equipo, no fueron favorables para el rescate. No contaron con lámparas para iluminarse en el camino, siendo esta una de las circunstancias que les impidieron observar la forma en que encontraron el cadáver y que propiciaron que la camilla en que se transportaba el cuerpo se deslizara cuesta abajo.

Para la CDHDF, lo anterior cobra gran relevancia en la investigación pues las evidencias que no fueron recabadas pudieron haber arrojado indicios fundamentales para determinar si la muerte de Noel Pavel González Gónzalez tenía características suicidas, homicidas o accidentales.

El cuerpo de González González fue examinado en diversas ocasiones aún después de ser sepultado por el Servicio Médico Forense (SEMEFO) y la PGJDF. No obstante, los resultados finales fueron contradictorios: el SEMEFO señaló que las lesiones fueron causadas después de su muerte y la Procuraduría capitalina que éstas se ocasionaron antes de que perdiera la vida.

Por tales motivos la CDHDF recomendó a la PGJDF ampliar la investigación de los hechos ocurridos, investigar la responsabilidad de los servidores públicos involucrados y colaborar con el Tribunal Superior de Justicia del Distrito Federal (TSJDF) para definir la participación de los peritos médicos forenses en la investigación de hechos relacionados con el fallecimiento de alguna persona.

A la SSP recomendó modernizar equipo, material y capacitación, así como contratar personal especializado para el ERUM y colaborar con la Procuraduría capitalina para que los servidores públicos de esa Secretaría preserven el lugar donde se haya cometido algún hecho ilícito.

La Comisión reconoce el compromiso de la Procuraduría General de Justicia del Distrito Federal y la Secretaría de Seguridad Pública del Distrito Federal con el respeto a los derechos humanos de los habitantes del Distrito Federal al aceptar la Recomendación 16/2007.

JULIA R. ROBLES: LAS GUAPAS DEBERÍAN MORIR

Tautina Vaiamalla, con el seudónimo de Julia R. Robles ha escrito "Las guapas deberían morir...", editado en Tres Fronteras.
Los que atendemos el correo de Gatopardo, estamos hartos de recibir mensajes del género verduriento para Tautina, a la que consideramos de la casa, aunque no se mate a colaborar aquí. Para ellos, que la persiguen campo a través de sus sucesivas bitácoras, cambios de nombre y otras tácticas para excitar a sus lectores, nuestra pretensión de corregirle es un sindiós de cuatro gatos con ínfulas; pero es que nosotros conocemos a Tautina: tiene la belleza más pecaminosa que ha pisado la tierra desde que Lilith puso a mil a los habitantes del Antiguo Testamento; tiene más peligro para la virtud que una caja de bombas; tiene la lúbrica osadía de una contrabandista del lenguaje, y todo eso adobado con un estilo modulado y profundo de niña bien educada y viciosa, característico de esa clase de mujeres contra las que siempre nos previnieron, y por la que a nadie con dos dedos de frente le importaría ser condenado al infierno.

Así es que, no estamos de acuerdo con el título del libro: las mujeres como Tautina no deberían morirse nunca si hubiera justicia...
Si quieren comprobar que no mentimos sobre los encantos de Tautina, alias Julia R. Robles, vayan el sábado 25 de abril, a las 19:30h, en el Centro Párraga de Murcia (antiguo Cuartel de Artillería), y nos cuentan... Allí va a presentar su libro "Las guapas deberían morir" en el Festival de Literatura SOS 4.8. junto con El armario de Abdou, de Gonzalo Gómez Montoro y Negro sobre fondo azul, de José María Jiménez.
Y para ir calentando los ánimos, pueden leer sus relatos eróticos, seleccionados en Cupido.

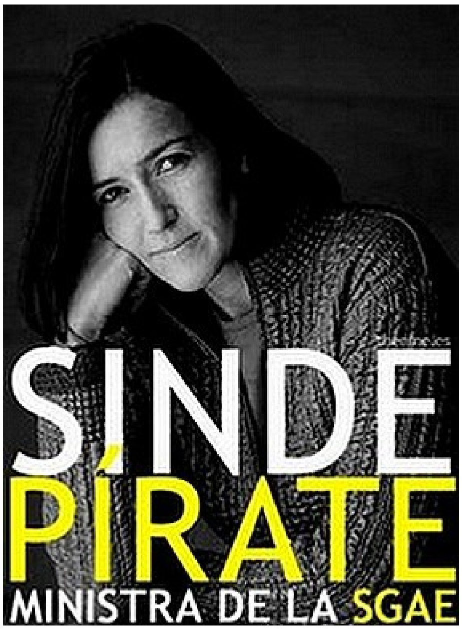
[LA ASOCIACIÓN DE INTERNAUTAS PIDE LA RECUSACIÓN DE ÁNGELES GONZÁLEZ-SINDE COMO MINISTRA DE CULTURA]



POR LAS LIBERTADES CIVILES, CONTRA LA VIGILANCIA Y CONTRA EL CANON DIGITAL

Ante el reciente nombramiento de la Señora Ángeles González-Sinde como Ministra de Cultura, la Asociación de Internautas quiere transmitir a la opinión pública que la Sra. Ministra carece de aptitud, imparcialidad y neutralidad que el desempeño de las funciones que su alto cargo exige y que, sobretodo, existe un claro conflicto de intereses entre las decisiones que debe tomar y sus intereses privados y/o profesionales.

12-04-2009 - De conformidad con la "Ley 5/2006, de 10 de abril, de regulación de los conflictos de intereses de los miembros del Gobierno y de los Altos Cargos de la Administración General del Estado", que tiene como objetivo fundamental establecer las obligaciones que incumben a los miembros del Gobierno y a los altos cargos de la Administración General del Estado para prevenir situaciones que puedan originar conflictos de intereses, la Ministra tendrá que inhibirse en muchísimos supuestos por existir conflicto de intereses.

El articulo 4º de la Ley es claro, al respecto dice: que hay conflicto de intereses cuando los altos cargos intervienen en las decisiones relacionadas con asuntos en los que confluyen a la vez intereses de su puesto público e intereses privados propios, de familiares directos, o intereses compartidos con terceras personas. Y según el Artículo 7.1 "quienes desempeñen un alto cargo vienen obligados a inhibirse del conocimiento de los asuntos en cuyo despacho hubieran intervenido o que interesen a empresas o sociedades en cuya dirección, asesoramiento o administración hubieran tenido alguna parte ellos, su cónyuge o persona con quien conviva en análoga relación de afectividad, o familiar dentro del segundo grado y en los dos años anteriores a su toma de posesión como cargo público".

Ángeles González-Sinde ha estado al frente de la Academia de las Artes y las Ciencias Cinematográficas de España (AACCE) desde Diciembre de 2006 hasta la fecha de su nombramiento. El Vicepresidente de la AACCE durante su mandato, y actual presidente en funciones, es a su vez Presidente (desde 2004) de DAMA (entidad de gestión de Derechos de Autor de Medios Audiovisuales). Ángeles González-Sinde también ha sido presidenta de ALMA (sindicato de Autores Literarios de Medios Audiovisuales). Su padre, José María González-Sinde, fue fundador tanto de AACCE como de ALMA. Tanto el hermano de Ángeles González-Sinde como su tio pertenecen en la actualidad a AACCE. Así mismo, Ángeles González-Sinde es administradora de dos empresas, una de ellas con domicilio social en su propio domicilio particular, cuyos objetos sociales se enmarcan dentro del los CNAE 9211 y 9212 (referidos todos ellos a actividades empresariales cinematográficas).

Por consiguiente, ya desde antiguo tiene intereses personales y familiares directos con todo lo relacionado con la industria del cine y la gestión de los derechos de autor.

Durante el tiempo que ha permanecido al frente de la AACCE ha gestionado y percibido subvenciones del Ministerio de Cultura en diversas ocasiones, como por ejemplo para los premios Goya: 132.222,00 euros en 2006, 132.222,00 euros en 2007 y 150.000,00 euros en 2008.

Bajo su mandato, la AACCE ha incrementado su patrimonio notablemente con la cesión de inmuebles por parte del Estado, como el palacete sito en el numero 3 de la madrileña calle Zurbano, que constituye desde Enero de 2007 la sede de la AACCE y que les fue entregado por la Ministra de Cultura Carmen Calvo. Previamente, este palecete fue acondicionado con dinero público, como se desprende de las resoluciones del Ministerio de Educación, Cultura y Deporte (BOE 311 de 29/12/2003) por la que se adjudican para la rehabilitación y acondicionamiento del edificio por 1.719.793,20 Euros, y la resolución del mismo ente (BOE 274 de 16/11/2005) por la que se adjudican en concepto de:"Obras de acabado del salón de actos y proyecciones de la Academia de las Artes y las Ciencias Cinematogrficas de España" por 788.207,56 Euros.

También ha disfrutado de otros beneficios como suministros de material gratis, según se desprende de la Resolución del Ministerio de Cultura (BOE 100 de 27/4/2006) referente al "Suministro e instalación de elementos de proyección de películas de 35 mm., reproducción de sonido de proyección, videoproyección e iluminación de sala, con destino a la Academia de las Artes y las Ciencias Cinematográficas de España" ascendiendo el importe a 125.484,16 Euros. Es decir un suministro de bienes de equipo y consumibles efectuados a un ente privado para sus fines propios resulta que es sufragado por el Erario Público.

Según sus propias declaraciones efectuadas el 25 de Enero de 2007 "la Academia es una fundación y sólo cuenta con las ayudas que la administración otorga a una sociedad cultural sin ánimo de lucro -explica-, debe atraer patrocinadores privados".

Dentro de la filmografía en la que ha participado como guionista y/o directora Ángeles González-Sinde, también ha disfrutado de diversas ayudas y subvenciones por parte del Ministerio de Cultura.
En una conferencia pronunciada el 10-04-2008 en el Foro de la Nueva Sociedad, se quejaba por las escasas subvenciones del cine, "es una de las partidas menores del Ministerio de Cultura y es como el presupuesto de cualquier museo importante", o, en el discurso de gala de los Goya, en donde arremetió contra la banda ancha y las redes P2P, con las que pretende acabar como sea, aunque eso suponga la criminalización de gran parte de la sociedad, en especial de la juventud.

Su vinculación con la industria cinematográfica alcanza tal grado de notoriedad, que el propio César Antonio Molina, anterior Ministro de Cultura, en la trasmisión de poderes ha bromeado con que, en vez de entregarle una cartera, le "entregaba una claqueta".

Por otra parte es de reseñar la inquietud que embarga al sector cultural, fuera del ámbito del cine, que se expresa en estas palabras de la presidenta de ARTE Carmen Peire: "es muy difícil que una persona del cine tenga una visión global de los problemas de los sectores culturales".

Toda esta larga y consolidada trayectoria personal evidencia una falta de objetividad e imparcialidad, tanto objetiva como subjetiva, que le inhabilita para tomar decisiones en todo lo relacionado con la industria cinematográfica de conformidad con lo establecido en la "Ley 5/2006, de 10 de abril, de regulación de los conflictos de intereses de los miembros del Gobierno y de los Altos Cargos de la Administración General del Estado", y concretamente con lo recogido en los anteriormente citados artículos 4 y 7.1.

Es evidente que la Señora Ministra está incursa en esta causa de inhibición, ya que las decisiones que pueda tomar y repercutan en el ámbito de la industria cinematográfica, también afectan a sus intereses personales, familiares y a su entorno profesional, por lo que deberá de inhibirse o, en caso contrario, además de las responsabilidades políticas y administrativas reguladas en la "Ley 5/2006" podría incurrir en responsabilidades penales.

Pero además doña. Ángeles González-Sinde ha demostrado ser incapaz de entender Internet y la Sociedad de la Información, clave para el futuro de España y todo ello a pesar de que ha declarado "que a los cineastas les afecta más la Ley de la Sociedad de la Información que la Ley de Cine". Por ejemplo ha llegado a decir, citamos textualmente: "¿para qué necesitamos todos una línea de ADSL de no sé cuantos gigas? ¿Para mandar e-mails?". Dejando ya a un lado su completo desconocimiento 'técnico' de las velocidades de conexión que "disfrutamos" en España (No existe nadie en nuestro País que tenga una conexión de "Gigas", sino una cantidad, como mínimo, 1000 veces menor) tampoco conoce ningún otro servicio, de los que hay decenas de ellos, que la banda ancha requiere. Sólo se centra en el de las descargas P2P.

También en el conflicto abierto entre las Entidades de Gestión de derechos de Autor, las Empresas tecnológicas y los ciudadanos por el "canon digital" su postura, desde las anteriores instancias a las que ha pertenecido, es curiosamente coincidente, a veces de forma exácta, con la del presidente de la SGAE (que también fue presidente de la AACCE entre los años 1994 y 1999). Ambos lo definen como "sólo son unos céntimos" (a pesar que esos céntimos suman, al final, cientos de millones de euros al año). También coinciden en declaraciones cuando dicen: "el canon digital diseñado por el Gobierno no resuelve el problema, pues no es suficiente para recuperar el coste de...". "El canon es un pequeñísimo porcentaje que ampara los derechos de propiedad intelectual de todo el mundo, seas un autor pequeño, seas grande" o en echar "la culpa" a la Administración y las operadoras que "deben asumir la responsabilidad de ese tráfico de contenidos de música y cine. Algún sistema habrá para ver el uso que cada cliente da al ADSL, para contar las descargas culturales, y que los autores cobren por su trabajo".

Por el contrario, la Asociación de Internautas entiende que Internet debe continuar siendo una ventana abierta a todo el Planeta por la que asomarse a un espacio de libertad global, que posibilita por primera vez en la historia de la humanidad la igualdad de oportunidades en el acceso al conocimiento y la cultura. Y eso es irrenunciable. Y aunque debemos esforzarnos en armonizar el derecho individual de autor con el derecho de todos a la cultura, la Industria de contenidos debe asumir que los modelos de negocio que no puedan competir en el nuevo escenario tecnológico, en el que se desarrolla la creación cultural, tienen que desaparecer, y no pueden sostenerse artificialmente a costa de restringir las libertades civiles e instaurando privilegios como el canon, que en tiempos de crisis como la actual, no solo es insolidario, sino inmoral .

En conclusión, dado la incapacidad de Doña Ángeles González-Sinde, para entender Internet y la sociedad emergente, y que, sin perjuicio de la jerarquía administrativa, también esta en riesgo la objetividad, imparcialidad e independencia del alto cargo que le ha sido encomendado, en especial siempre que intervengan alguna de las instituciones mencionadas, y en general en todo lo referente a la gestión de contenidos culturales y derechos de autor, se reconsidere su continuidad al frente del Ministerio tal y como clama toda la Red.

SÍNTESIS LAPIDARIAS

Lo esencial suele transparecer lo absurdo.

La vida, como la verdad, está desnuda debajo de todos los disfraces que la escamotean.

La primera claudicación de la inteligencia es confundir símbolo y símil.

Norma de conducta piadosa con el género húmano: no comentar, ni bajo tortura, las creencias religiosas y los alifafes del deterioro físico.

La síntesis es el epítome de la elocuencia, como la verborrea es el epítome de la vacuidad.

Todo es más interesante que uno mismo.

Éticamente, sólo cabe tener nostalgia por lo que no se ha vivido.

El sufrimiento no da derechos.

La verdad de quien no tiene que mentir, nunca es interesante.

Los seres de una pieza suelen estar mal hilvanados
Ni los más contumaces masoquistas se han descargado jamás una canción de Ramoncín o de Teddy Bautista, ni una película de González Sinde.

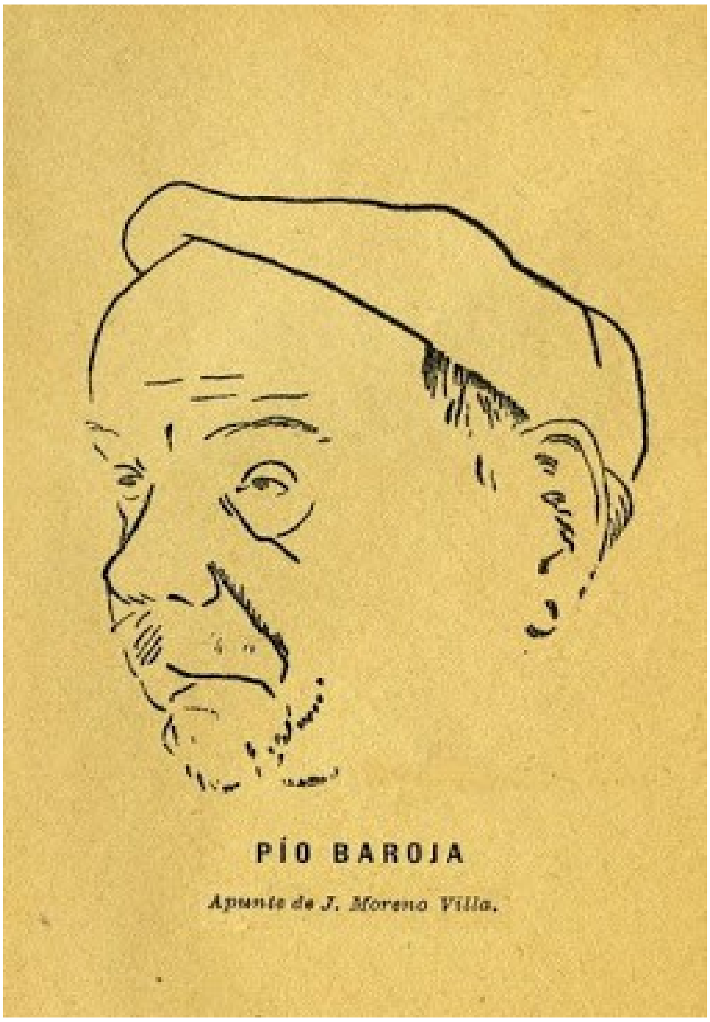
PÍO BAROJA: CRÍTICA ARBITRARIA



Apunte de José Moreno Villa

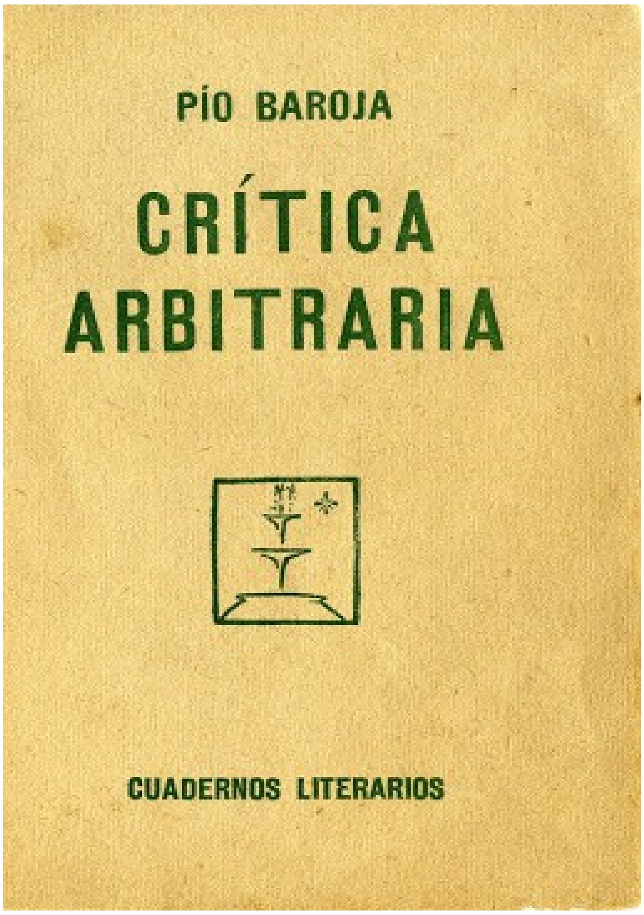
Palabras de «Azorín»

«En octubre de 1902 se encargó de redactar El Globo un grupo de escritores jóvenes e independientes. Había sido El Globo el más literario de los periódicos madrileños diarios. En la nueva redacción reinaba gran entusiasmo. Los compañeros de Baroja —que formábamos parte de la redacción— quisimos que el escritor vasco se encargase de la crítica de teatros. Conocíamos la independencia inflexible de Baroja y deseábamos que en la crítica de teatros —tan sumisa frecuentemente a diversas influencias— se ejercitase el libre criterio de nuestro compañero. Cedió Baroja a nuestras instancias; pero fue muy breve la duración de su gestión crítica en El Globo. El primer artículo lo publicó Baroja el 29 de octubre, con motivo del estreno de una refundición clásica: Reinar después de morir, de Vélez de Guevara; la última crítica apareció el 3 de diciembre, al día siguiente de la primera representación de una comedia de Benavente: Alma triunfante. En el número del 14 del mes citado, a la cabeza de un artículo de Marquina en que se da cuenta de un estreno de Selles —La mujer de Loth—, se lee la siguiente nota: «Pío Baroja, nuestro muy querido amigo, se sintió anoche ligeramente enfermo. Eduardo Marquina le substituye esta vez en sus tareas. Baroja recobrará la salud en breve, y esperamos que desde el próximo estreno tornen a aparecer en El Globo sus hermosas críticas». No; no debían aparecer más; no aparecieron más. Baroja desdeñaba su misión con gran repugnancia; no le placía trasnochar; no se avenía a escribir, atropelladamente, a las dos de la madrugada, un artículo de crítica literaria. Además, cada día, su independencia suscitaba mayores dificultades y conflictos. Este artículo de Baroja, tan original, tan libre, en medio de la general mediocridad, era un motivo de escándalo en la Prensa. «¿Esto es crítica?», se preguntaba el mundillo de los teatros. «Pero, ¡este hombre es un bárbaro!» Y generalmente se convenía en que tales artículos no debían continuar. Baroja no podía hacer crítica de teatros durante mucho tiempo; al fin, se puso enfermo... Por excepción, meses más tarde, hizo la crítica de La escalinata de un trono, de Echegaray.

Es corta la labor de Baroja como crítico de teatros; pero reputamos por esencial esta labor. La reputamos esencial para el estudio del teatro español moderno. Hay entre estos artículos, breves, pero originalísimos y definitivos, estudios sobre la dramaturgia de Echegaray, de Benavente, de los Quintero. Debiera algún editor inteligente recoger en un volumen estos artículos de Baroja; consultados habrán de ser por los críticos y los historiadores de nuestra literatura.»

* * *

A estas palabras de invitación, escritas por «Azorín» en un artículo titulado: Baroja y el teatro clásico, del A B C, respondemos con el presente cuaderno, que recoge todos aquellos artículos.



Reinar después de morir, de Vélez de Guevara

Indudablemente soy un hombre que no sirve para crítico de teatros. He salido del Español, y maldito si se me ocurre decir nada que valga cuatro cuartos.

Es la segunda o tercera vez que he visto representar una comedia de nuestros clásicos, y esta vez me pregunto, como en las otras, a mí mismo: ¿Seré yo tan imbécil para no comprender las bellezas de esta obra?

Miro al público y lo veo escuchar atentamente. Sin duda le gusta, le interesa. A mí no es que no me guste ni que no me interese; pero no me entusiasma.

El primer acto resulta agradable. La Guerrero está bien; más que su manera de declamar, que me parece algo monótona, con un tonillo quejumbroso, me gusta su figura, el ademán y el gesto. Su cara tiene una expresión de espiritualidad grande. Díaz de Mendoza no se distingue en este acto, y el que hace de Rey de Portugal está feliz en el desempeño de su papel.

En el entreacto dicen a mi lado:

—¡Mire usted que atreverse a refundir una comedia de Vélez de Guevara! Es una profanación.

Yo afirmo que esto de la profanación es una martingala de los que no les gusta el teatro clásico. Es como si a mí me quisieran leer en el café una novela de Pereda o un drama de Selles, es lo primero que yo diría.

—¡Aquí, en el café! ¡Delante de ese mozo! Cá, hombre. Es una profanación.

Pasa el segundo acto; pasa el tercero; en la escena en que arrebatan los hijos a Inés de Castro, una señora se desmaya.

Concluye la comedia, y el público aplaude y llama a Zeda repetidas veces.

Indudablemente el señor Villegas, que ha hecho la refundición de la obra de Vélez de Guevara, la ha debido de aligerar de una porción de parlamentos larguísimos y pesados, porque yo recuerdo haber leído Reinar después de morir hace mucho tiempo, y que me pareció de un aburrimiento estupefaciente.

La mise en scene muy buena. He oído decir a uno a mi lado que los muebles, trajes y armas están copiados de tallas y relieves del siglo XIV. A mí, con perdón de los que saben más que yo de cosas tales, me parece esto una puerilidad. Probablemente para un arqueólogo lo que se haga en un teatro no llegará a tener la fidelidad necesaria; para la mayoría de los espectadores, que no tenemos una idea muy clara de qué clase de muebles usaban entonces, no nos produce esta fidelidad impresión alguna.

Además, probablemente el autor de la comedia Reinar después de morir y las demás de su época, tendría una idea tan justa de la vida del siglo XIV como nosotros.

Si el drama en sí es bueno, yo creo que no necesita de nada, ni aun siquiera de decoraciones. Una compañía de actores excelentes representando Hamlet en camiseta, creo que haría estremecer al público.

Y no se me ocurre más. La comedia de Vélez de Guevara no me ha parecido una maravilla; la refundición la creo excelente; el trabajo de los actores, bueno.

Otra cosa que me pareció muy bien fue que no reprodujesen en el último acto la escena que representa el cuadro de Martínez Cubells; porque el tal cuadrito es de lo desagradable que hay en el Museo Moderno.

El sainete El viejo celoso, del inmortal manco de Lepanto, es una quisicosa que nos parecería muy mediana si la firmase un sainetero moderno.

Indudablemente yo no sirvo para crítico de teatros.

(29 de octubre de 1902)

Aurora,* de D. Joaquín Dicenta.

Cuando llego representan el sainete. El teatro no está lleno.

Comienza el primer acto; no sé si ir contando el argumento de la obra, porque ésta se halla ya impresa, y se vende él libreto en la puerta del teatro Moderno. Para el que no lo conozca, lo contaré:

Aurora es una muchacha obrera, a quien ha seducido y abandonado después el patrón de la fábrica donde trabaja. Enferma, y rechazada por sus padres, ha ido a dar en la cama de un Hospital, donde ha conocido a Manuel, un practicante de Medicina que le ha enseñado a leer, a escribir y a ser buena. Esta Aurora se hallaba recogida por unas monjas, cuando por la influencia de un señor, don Homobono, amigo y agente de ellas entró a servir en casa de Matilde.

Matilde es una niña prometida de su primo, un médico joven que viaja por el extranjero y que se llama Manuel.

El matrimonio proyectado no es sólo de inclinación, sino de interés, porque un general, tío de Matilde y de Manuel, les lega a éstos su herencia a condición de que se casen uno con otro.

Aurora averigua por la criada de la casa que Matilde no guarda la fe jurada a su prometido, que le engaña con Enrique. Llega el novio, y Aurora ve que es el practicante de Medicina, su Manuel.

En el segundo acto, Manuel aparece como primo hermano del Máximo de Electra, dedicándose a la ciencia y descubriendo microbios. Don Homobono ha cambiado de opinión, y mejor que casar a Manuel con Matilde, le parece que el dinero del general quede en manos de las monjas, de las cuales es agente.

Aurora, que sabe que Matilde no es honrada, amenaza a ésta con que va a dar a Manuel noticias del lío que tiene con Enrique; y Matilde le dice que, como no tiene pruebas, Manuel no la creerá.

Pero la prueba viene en seguida; Matilde envía a su criada con una carta para Enrique, y la criada entrega esta carta a Aurora. Aquí está la prueba; y entonces Aurora le cuenta a Manuel la traición de Matilde, y le dice qué su novia y Enrique están citados a la noche en un kiosco del jardín.

En el tercer acto, Manuel va al punto de cita de Matilde y de Enrique, y sorprende a su prometida cuando va a entrar en el kiosco; rompe con ella y se une con Aurora.

Este es, como se puede contar deprisa, a las dos de la mañana, y por uno que no sabe contar, el argumento de Aurora, la obra de D. Joaquín Dicenta.

Hay dramaturgos en cuyas obras nace el conflicto de la intensa comprensión de la vida de los personajes, como Shakespeare e Ibsen; hay otros que forjan su trama y después acoplan los personajes a la trama forjada. De esta última clase son casi todos los autores españoles antiguos y modernos, y entre ellos D. Joaquín Dicenta.

Y no sólo en esto es español el autor de Juan José, sino que se ven en él las mismas preocupaciones calderonianas acerca del honor y la honra... y otras entidades metafísicas de las cuales no se cuidan los hombres nuevos, o si se cuidan no es de la misma manera, ni de la misma forma arcaica que lo hacen los personajes de Aurora.

Este método esquemático de formación del drama hace que todos los personajes sean también esquemáticos.

Aurora, la protagonista, tiene muy poco carácter; es una de tantas perlas del fango que puso en boga Eugenio Sué en su Chouette de Los misterios de París. La seduce el patrón. Es posible; pero no es lo corriente. Generalmente, el que seduce a la obrera es el obrero o el golfo. En Madrid y en París, el señorito hace casi siempre con las modistas, corseteras y muchachas que viven del trabajo, el primo. En Madrid, lo sé por observaciones particulares; en París, esto que digo se puede leer en las Memorias de Goron. El jefe de Policía cuenta que los obreros parisienses dicen, señalando a las cocottes: —Los burgueses se llevan nuestras sobras.

Don Homobono, el agente de negocios de las monjas, es una especie de Pantoja, sólo que como Galdós tiene sangre de reaccionario, hizo de Pantoja un tipo bonito, y el autor de Aurora ha hecho un tipo odioso.

El de Matilde es naturalmente falso: la niña egoísta de nuestra clase media, la que busca un marido rico, no es, desgraciadamente, tan cándida ni tan enamorada para entregarse a su novio antes de casarse. En tal caso lo hace después.

Los demás tienen poco relieve: el doctor Ramírez parece un personaje de Leopoldo Cano; la madre de Matilde recuerda a la tía de Electra.

En la representación me pareció observar una disparidad absoluta entre los espectadores de butacas y los de paraíso.

—¿Me tuteas?—dice Matilde en el segundo acto.

—¿No me tuteas a mí tú? — contesta Aurora.

Todo el paraíso rompió en aplausos, y todo el patio de butacas quedó silencioso.

En otras frases de índole parecida sucedió lo mismo.

En el tercer acto se oye con frecuencia a Manuel la palabra «caballero», la frase «manchar mi honra», etc., etc., y otras que a mí no me parece que se armonizan bien en boca de hombres nuevos, dispuestos a formar humanidades nuevas.

En la ejecución se distinguieron el señor Juárez, en su papel de don Homobono, y García Ortega, en el de Manuel.

Al fin de los actos y a mitad del tercero fue llamado a escena y aplaudido el Sr. Dicenta.

La dicha ajena*, de los Sres. Álvarez Quintero.

No tengo, la verdad, gran simpatía por la obra, ya extensa, de los Sres. Álvarez Quintero.

Esta falta de simpatía procede, más que nada, del pensamiento que integra en general las obras de estos aplaudidos autores. Hay siempre en sus comedias y sainetes un fondo de moralidad burguesa, un vuelo de la fantasía tan corto, que molesta.

Así como la corriente íntima que anima las obras de los Sres. Quintero me parece pobre y sin alientos, así también la parte exterior, la pintoresca me resulta muy agradable y entretenida.

La dicha ajena, estrenada en la Comedia con aplauso, es, no un estudio, pero sí una acción entre dramática y entre cómica; basada en la mala pasión de la envidia.

Comienza la obra con un prólogo: una escena entre dos médicos; el uno, José Ramón, fracasado en la vida y en su carrera; el otro, lleno de esperanzas y de ilusiones.

Desde que terminaron sus estudios no se han vuelto a ver hasta pasados cinco años, en que vuelven a encontrarse en Guadalema, pueblo donde vive Gonzalo Vega, hijo de un herrero.

Tras de la conversación comienza el primer acto.

Se encuentran en el casino de Guadalema unos cuantos señores, la mayoría muy maldicientes, y se pone de manifiesto las antipatías y las envidias que provocan los éxitos médicos de Gonzalo Vega, muchacho humilde, el hijo del herrero, que va prosperando. Estas conversaciones maldicientes escucha José Ramón, el condiscípulo de Gonzalo, que defiende con poca energía a su amigo.

En esto llega Gonzalo y expone su proyecto de un Asilo para niños pobres.

El acto es bonito, muy movido; yo no sé si estará sacado de la realidad, como decían por allí; pero aunque no lo esté, es muy entretenido y agradable; un poco sainetesco resulta de vez en cuando, un tanto Lara, pero de Lara, bueno.

No creo que se puede pedir más. No va uno a exigir a los Quintero lo que se les puede exigir a Donnay o a Benavente.

Entre los tipos que se mueven en la sala del Casino, para mi gusto, los más reales son el del periodista y el del catedrático. El hombre que guarda todos los periódicos que encuentra, y se incomoda si alguien le pide uno; los que juegan al billar, y otros que aparecen, son caricaturescos y de brocha gorda.

Al comienzo del segundo acto hay varias escenas bien hechas y muy bien representadas por Vallés, y sobre todo por Matilde Rodríguez. Se inicia la oposición del pueblo a la idea de Gonzalo de fundar el Asilo. Sólo Gracia Latorre y su padre, y algunos amigos, colaborarán en la obra del médico. Desde este momento la comedia se hace lánguida; el motivo de la oposición y de las dificultades que se oponen al proyecto se repiten hasta cansar. El acto termina con los amores de Gonzalo y de Gracia, y ésta, que ve que es imposible la realización de la obra de Gonzalo por el pueblo entero, se decide a llevarla a cabo con su fortuna, pidiendo a su novio que le ayude.

Todo el mundo notó en el asunto de este acto cierta semejanza con la idea fundamental de la obra de Ibsen El enemigo del pueblo. Un crítico decía: Esto es El enemigo del pueblo en género chico.

En este acto también hay una nota acerca de la envidia española, que más que por lo antipatriótica, me pareció repulsiva por lo personal. Cuando dice allí un personaje que en España agrada levantar una figura para tener el gusto después de hacerla caer, me pareció que por boca de ese personaje hablaban los Quintero. La personificación de esa envidia en la bandera española es absurda, lo digan los autores o lo diga Ayala; la envidia es universal y enciclopédica.

Otra de las cosas que en este acto se nota es la impotencia de los autores para sostener la tensión dramática.

En ningún momento llegan a arrebatar al público por el fuego de la pasión, por la galanura del pensamiento o por la belleza de las imágenes, como lo consiguen siempre con la nota cómica.

En el tercer acto, el proyecto de la novia de Gonzalo comienza a realizarse; van llegando espectadores de la fiesta celebrada para comenzar las obras del Asilo.

Vuelve Gracia y una amiga suya, que cuentan algunos detalles graciosos del acto verificado. Se acerca Gonzalo; éste queda solo con su novia; hablan de José Ramón, que ha desaparecido, y Gonzalo cuenta cómo ha salvado de la muerte a la hija de su condiscípulo y la extraña actitud de éste, que le induce a sospechar en su amigo una ruin pasión.

Llega éste, y solo con Gonzalo, le confiesa que la envidia le roe, y que llevado por ella hizo fracasar el proyecto altruista de fundación del Asilo.

Gonzalo le perdona. El padre de Gracia concede la mano de su hija al modesto hijo del herrero, y la comedia termina.

La confesión del envidioso en el tercer acto aleja el pensamiento de la idea iniciada en el segundo acto, de que el fracaso del proyecto depende de la mala voluntad del pueblo entero, pues se ve claramente que todo ha sido obra de un amigo desleal.

En Guadalema, el pueblo donde la obra se desarrolla, ha habido un solo envidioso del bien ajeno; los demás han sido sólo indiferentes y apáticos.

La obra, como casi todas las de los Quintero, se resiente de una gran debilidad de pensamiento; todos los actos están defendidos por incidentes secundarios, de género siempre cómico.

En la ejecución se distinguieron Matilde Rodríguez, que estuvo admirable en algunos momentos; Vallés, Rubio, Tallaví y Mora.

«Debut» de la Bartet y de Le Bargy.

Al ir al teatro pensaba:

—Es posible que esto no sea tan bueno como dicen. París tiene una gran ventaja sobre todos los demás pueblos del mundo: es un pedestal.

Habrá en todas partes actores tan notables como la Bartet y Le Bargy—me decía—; pero como éstos están sobre el pedestal se les ve mejor desde lejos.

París impone sus ideas, sus costumbres al resto del mundo, al menos al mundo latino; unas veces estas cosas son buenas, otras medianas.

La Bartet y Le Bargy son de lo más excelente que desde hace algunos años nos ha impuesto París.

Para su debut, los dos sociétaires de la Comedia Francesa escogieron la obra de Dumas, hijo, L'Etrangére.

La obra es ya conocida por el público madrileño; ha sido, según oigo decir, traducida al castellano y representada en el teatro de la Princesa; además, la Duse y alguna otra artista italiana la han puesto en escena varias veces.

Esto me evita la tarea de contar el argumento, tarea bastante desagradable, y que casi siempre se hace mal, no sé por qué.

La obra resulta ya algo vieja, como casi todas las de Dumas, hijo. A mí no sólo me parece vieja, sino mezquina. Todo lo de Dumas me produce un buen efecto mientras lo veo representar; cuando pienso en ello, ahora, por ejemplo, mientras escribo, se me antoja estrecho, ahogado.

Este Dumas, hijo, hombre de un ingenio agudísimo, maestro consumado en el arte de preparar las situaciones, maestro también en salvarlas en el instante en que van a hacerse demasiado escabrosas para el público, maestro también en sacar partido de las cuestiones palpitantes, este hombre, que parece bueno, que parece ingenuo en sus obras, no sé por qué me da la sensación de un reverendísimo egoísta, de un hombre sin corazón.

La extranjera, como casi todas las comedias de Dumas, hijo, está hecha con una habilidad prodigiosa; todo se halla admirablemente ajustado, como en un plano; pero resulta intelectual, fríamente intelectual. No sale el drama espontáneamente de la vida, como esas maravillosas figuras de Rodín, que parecen brotar del mármol, apenas desbastado; el drama se desarrolla matemáticamente, inexorable. Sólo una ejecución como la de hoy por la compañía Bartet y Le Bargy puede hacer interesantes este juego de bibelots llenos de gracia y de ingenio.

Señalóse la Bartet como una actriz eminente; pero para mí lo más notable, lo más primoroso, fue el trabajo de Le Bargy. No estamos acostumbrados a ver actores parecidos. ¡Cómo hizo el papel del duque! Era el aristócrata, grande, cínico, valiente; cierto que le acompaña la figura. Su tipo es de una elegancia exquisita; tiene un dominio absoluto de la escena; ni una vez se destruye la armonía de sus gestos y de sus ademanes. La voz es fuerte, varonil; da la impresión de un hombre refinado y enérgico. Se comprende que este actor tenga tantos entusiastas en la alta sociedad de París, que haya podido eclipsar a veces al ilustre smart, príncipe de Sagan.

La Bartet es un tipo ideal, delgada, esbelta, rubia; la voz dulce, melodiosa, que a veces se hace dura y fuerte. Su modo de moverse y de sentarse tiene una elegancia encantadora. La dicción suya es para nuestros oídos algo más clara que la de Le Bargy.

En la escena del cuarto acto, en que el duque ofrece a su mujer la carta que ella ha escrito a Gerard, estuvieron los dos, la Bartet y Le Bargy, a una altura colosal.

El poeta, el razonador tranquilo que siempre aparece en las obras de Dumas, hijo, y que va poniendo los puntos sobre las íes a los términos del problema, y que representó M. Duroy, estuvo muy bien. Mlle. Silviac tuvo momentos muy felices, como Mlle. Marie Laura.

Los demás contribuyeron a la armonía del conjunto.

El público, muy selecto; pero tosiendo de tal manera, que a veces aquello, más que teatro, parecía un Hospital.

Francillon— Gringoire.

En la casa de un comerciante de Tours ha ido a alojarse el Rey Luis XI, de Francia, aquel hombre extraño y pensativo, supersticioso y cruel, cuya figura siniestra nos ha legado la leyenda.

Mientras está en la mesa, oye desde las ventanas estrépito en la plaza. Es Gringoire, el pobre poeta famélico que canta la balada de los «Ahorcados»; una balada que él ha compuesto, en donde alude al jardín del Rey Luis, poblado de árboles, de cuyas ramas cuelgan racimos de hombres.

El rey manda llevarlo a su presencia; Ollivier le Dain le insta para que cante la balada de los «Ahorcados», y Luis XI, al oírla, condena al poeta a ser colgado; pero después le perdona, con la condición de que llegue a enamorar a Loyse, la hija del comerciante en cuya casa se aloja el rey.

Quedan solos el poeta miserable y Loyse, y el poeta canta con entusiasmo la poesía y canta a los desvalidos y a los miserables. Loyse se enternece, pide al rey el perdón de Gringoire y el rey le perdona.

Yo no he sentido hace mucho tiempo una impresión tan honda como viendo a Le Bargy en el papel de Gringoire, declamando los versos impecables de Teodoro de. Banville. Era el poeta pobre, abandonado, triste, humilde, hambriento, con el alma llena de sueños; a veces tristemente cómico, a veces trágicamente terrible. Ante aquel soplo de poesía, ante aquella balada tan tierna de los desgraciados, de los parias, de los humildes, se borró en mi espíritu el recuerdo de Francillon, la comedia antes representada, con todas sus gracias y alardes de ingenio.

Tengo que hacer un esfuerzo para recordarla. Francillon todo el mundo la conoce; es un cuento amable, falso, que se desarrolla en el ambiente artificioso de todas las obras de Dumas, hijo. A veces la comedia tiene un carácter completo de vaudeville; a veces se levanta; la intriga está llevada siempre con una habilidad extraordinaria.

La Bartet, en el papel de Francillon, estuvo encantadora; vehemente, enamorada, llena de travesura, de ingenuidad, al principio, cuando sólo sospecha la traición de su marido; después, desesperada, cuando quiere convencer a todos tercamente de que si su marido le ha engañado a ella, ella también ha engañado a su marido.

Tuvo la actriz momentos admirables de gracia, de pasión, actitudes llenas de armonía, movimientos de un ritmo espléndido. Demostró una vez más la ductilidad de su gran talento.

Le Bargy en Francillon estuvo notabilísimo por su naturalidad, por los matices que dio a su papel.

Los demás actores que representaron en Francillon ayudaron al conjunto artístico de la obra. En Francillon y en Gringoire se distinguió la ingenua de la compañía, señorita Nicove, que en Francillon hizo de hermana de Limen de Riverolles, y en Gringoire de Loyse.

La Paix du Ménage.

Ciertamente no hay clase que tenga tanta tolerancia, tanto espíritu de jemenfichisme que dicen los franceses, como nuestra aristocracia. Otro público cualquiera que hubiese asistido a la representación de La Paix du Menage, de Guy de Maupassant, hubiera protestado de los atrevimientos, de las frases cínicas y brutales de la obra; el público selecto de la Zarzuela no se escandalizó; al revés, oyó con verdadera complacencia la comedia.

Esto a mí me parece un signo de superioridad. Creo que inmoralizar es un trabajo beneficioso, un trabajo meritorio, y más en sociedades como la nuestra, llenas de prejuicios rancios y de preocupaciones arcaicas.

La amoralidad es la forma más alta de la intelectualidad; esta amoralidad, unida a la expresión sincera del pensamiento, hace de un hombre algo superior a su raza y hasta a su especie.

Ahora, que yo creo que para inmoralizar hay que hacerlo con gracia, y La Paix du Menage no la tiene. Es la comedia ésta un cuento de Maupassant llevado al teatro, en donde un marido filósofo que no cree en las supersticiones del honor, y que acepta de buen gusto al amante de su mujer, se halla enamorado de su esposa, y la quiere hacer su querida; y viendo que ella no acepta tan noble misión, ofrece dinero y más dinero; es una obra donde hay un regateo entre el esposo y la esposa no muy edificante.

Esta obra, además de ser irreal, tiene un dejo amargo, sin idealidad alguna; la mayoría de las veces es grosera, es triste, es cínica; parece escrita por un irreconciliable enemigo de las mujeres.

Y el hombre amoral no debe ser triste; la tristeza es cristiana; debe ser tranquilo, alegre, sereno y fuerte; como un hijo de Apolo.

Sólo a fuerza de gracia en la ejecución se puede hacer pasar esta comedia, y la ejecución fue primorosa. La Bartet estuvo admirable en su papel de madame Salus, una mujer cansada de la villanía de los hombres; Le Bargy muy bien como amante fiel.

Después, para suavizar la aspereza de La Paix du Menage, se representó L'Etincelle, ese amable cuento de Pailleron que parece escrito por uno de los espirituales narradores del siglo XVIII, para ser representado en un salón a la Pompadour, entre un minué y una pavana.

La mujer sin ilusiones, hastiada de la bestialidad de los hombres, se transformó en L'Etincelle, por obra y gracia de la Bartet, en una amable dama, coqueta y desenvuelta; el amante cínico, en amante apasionado. Hicieron entre los dos grandes actores y la señorita Ninove una labor de encaje, fina y delicada.

Después del cuento amargo y del cuento espiritual, vino el folletín, el Enigma y de Paul Hervieux,y allí pudimos descubrir en el anciano marqués de Nesle al amante de La Paix du Menage y al amante de L'Etincelle.

La velada fue muy agradable, sobre todo muy edificante. Obras como esta de La Paix du Menage pero más ingeniosas, son las que nos convienen para deshelar un poco esta vida, fría y dura que padecemos todos, por respetar unos cuantos convencionalismos y unas cuantas tonterías que no nos sirven más que para amargarnos la existencia.

El Marqués de Priola.

Tras de la Visita de bodas, una comedia de Dumas, hijo, que el público tomó por sainete y que es una obra muy sentida, comenzó la representación de Le Marquis de Priola.

—Es un Don Juan a la moderna:— oigo decir a unos y a otros, y no parece sino que la frase la han aprendido en viernes, porque todos dicen lo mismo.

Se levanta el telón. El marqués de Priola es hijo de un italiano y de una inglesa, aristócrata, guapo, desdeñoso, que ha llegado a los cincuenta años sembrando ruinas en derredor. Corazones rotos, pericardios sangrientos; una sala de disección.

A pesar de su indiferencia, el marqués ha recogido a un muchacho, Pedro Morain, hijo de su querida. El padre legal de Pedro se suicidó y la madre se murió de pena. Pedro Morain estudia Medicina. Yo tiemblo; un joven que estudia Medicina y que aparece en un drama, no tiene más objeto que decir cosas desagradables.

Mientras se entera uno de todo esto, nos hallamos en un salón de la Embajada de Italia. El señor marqués discretea con madame Villeroy, una dama muy coqueta, y la invita a ir a su casa a contemplar unas colecciones de almanaques galantes que tiene Priola y que se han hecho célebres en París. La dama acepta y le asegura al marqués que no le teme; que le considera como a un pobre pingüino.

Tras de este desafío orgulloso, el señor marqués se encuentra con su antigua mujer, divorciada y casada con un sabio, el señor de Chesne. El terrible seductor, con la más infernal de sus sonrisas, se entretiene en reavivar el amor en el pecho de su antigua mujer, y aquí termina el primer acto.

Al día siguiente, en el segundo acto, estamos en casa de Priola. Mme. de Villeroy va a ver los famosos almanaques, y a demostrarle al marqués que es un presumido. Priola le enseña los almanaques, y la dama, cuyo propósito de resistencia no debía de ser muy grande, pierde los estribos y está a punto de dispararse como una pistola, cuando Priola, irónico, con la más mefistofélica de sus sonrisas, concibe una idea humillante; le aconseja a la dama que siga por el camino de la virtud, y la acompaña a la puerta. Ella se marcha, suponiendo que éste la sigue.

El estudiante de Medicina, Morain, se indigna con la conducta de su protector, y Priola monta en cólera y le dice una porción de cosas desagradables.

En el tercer acto Priola va a la cita que le ha dado su antigua mujer en casa de una amiga, Mme. Savieres, una señora muy severa, que quiere demostrar a Mme. Le Chesne la inconstancia de Priola . Esta señora oculta a Mme. Le Chesne tras de una cortina y comienza a coquetear con Priola. Este pierde ahora los estribos y abraza a la Savieres. Cuando la dama siente los brazos del conquistador ceñidos a ella—Juana—, grita. —Y Juana, la ex marquesa de Priola, aparece tras la cortina.

El marqués reconoce haber caído en un lazo.

En esto llega Morain con Savieres. Quedan Priola y su hijo. El hijo predice a su padre la parálisis, y en efecto, al poco rato el marqués, después de hacer un alarde de sus teorías, cae con un acceso. El hijo asegura que le cuidará, y termina el drama.

La obra esta me ha producido una impresión desagradable y repulsiva. Como representación fiel de la realidad, creo que no lo es; idealidad, no tiene ninguna. Si no hubiera relampagueo de ingenio en algunas escenas; si no fuera representada con tanta perfección, yo aseguraría que esta obra era vulgar y sin gracia.

Yo creo que el teatro francés de ahora, dentro de veinte años se considerará con menos aprecio que se considera hoy a Dumas, hijo, y a Sardou,

El desarrollo de la acción dramática en El Marqués de Priola, está llevado con un acierto grande en los dos primeros actos, en el último es demasiado rápido.

La encarnación del tipo no me parece cosa genial. Priola es un sátiro, un baudeleriano, no del arte, sino de la vida, pero un satánico pequeño, mezquino, que no recuerda; a pesar de sus alardes, ninguna de esas grandes figuras antiguas del mal que aparecen en las literaturas; si recuerda algo es al héroe de Feuillet, el conde Luis de Camors, y al Esseintes de Huysmans, en su novela À Rebours.

Tampoco este Priola es un superhombre; generalmente la crueldad no aparece más que en los débiles.

El hombre fuerte aplasta al que se opone a su paso; pero no lo mortifica. ¿Para qué?

En toda esta obra se siente el cansancio de una sociedad fatiguée, al que va unido una gran lujuria cerebral.

La comedia está escrita para lucimiento de un gran actor. Le Bargy estuvo notable, elegante, en el primer acto; después ya trágico, más; recordó a Zacconí, cosa para mí desagradable.

La Bartet, en su corto papel, llena de gracia y de naturalidad.

El teatro, brillante.

Los tres galanes de Estrella,* por D. Juan Antonio Cavestany.

Parece que D. Juan Antonio Cavestany no tiene grandes simpatías entre los señores del público, y menos aún entre los señores de la crítica.

Los tres galanes de Estrella se comparaba por algunos de los citados señores con obras del género chico; yo por mi parte no la he encontrado ni mejor ni peor que la mayoría de las cosas que he visto en la temporada.

Hay algo simpático en esta comedia, y es que el autor no trata de resolver ningún problema, ni de exponer llaga social en su obra. Su objeto es entretener al público con lances de amor, intrigas y desafíos, y esto lo consigue el señor Cavestany.

Se dice en el cartel que esta obra es imitación de las de nuestro antiguo teatro; a mí me parece mejor que aquellas.

En el primer acto hay un madrigal muy bonito, que lo dijo con suma perfección don Fernando Díaz de Mendoza, y en las otras jornadas trozos de poesía muy lucidos.

En conjunto, la comedia del señor Cavestany me pareció amable y discreta. La representación fue muy esmerada y la mise en scene soberbia.

El tiempo en que el señor Cavestany pone los personajes de su comedia es bien conocido, y por esto se presta a que la fidelidad de trajes y mobiliario pueda ser apreciada. En el tercer acto, la decoración del parque del Buen Retiro, de noche, fue de un gran efecto.

Al final del cuarto acto el público llamó a escena al autor, pero el señor Cavestany no estaba en el teatro.

Malas herencias,* de D. José Echegaray.

Figúrense ustedes el estado de un salvaje ante el cual un prestidigitador hace sus juegos de manos, traga cintas que luego las escupe ardiendo, saca una pecera de un sombrero de copa, y otra porción de diabluras. Pues un estado parecido al de ese modesto salvaje es el mío, después de haber presenciado el estreno de Malas herencias de don José Echegaray.

Yo, ahora, lo confieso, tengo los nervios de punta, como si hubiera oído chirridos desagradables, gritos de mujeres histéricas y otra serie de cosas por el estilo; pero no encuentro en mí mismo una impresión del alma, ni el cerebro asombrado por la idea grande, ni el corazón conmovido por un sentimiento hondo de ternura, de dolor o de pena.

Yo creo que cuando D. José Echegaray tiene la fama que tiene, debe merecerla; y como mi voto no ha de achicar ni de agrandar su fama, por esto, y además porque como crítico apenas me llamo Pedro, me permito opinar y me aventuro a decir que, si en general el teatro de Echegaray me disgusta, en particular Malas herencias me revienta.

La obra fue estrenada en América y en la Coruña; el argumento es posible que se haya contado en algún periódico; pero a pesar de esto lo diré rápidamente, si mis nervios me lo permiten.

Blanca es una muchacha que frecuenta la casa de un señor que a punto fijo no sé si se llama D. Prudencio o D. Basilio.

Supongamos que es D. Basilio. Blanca tiene amores con Víctor. En el primer acto, un amigo de D. Basilio da la noticia de que el padre de Blanca, el señor Ibarrola, al morir ha dado su apellido y una fortuna considerable a la muchacha, y que su hermano Roberto viene a Madrid en busca de Blanca. Víctor vive con su tío. don Marcial Buitrago. Los padres de Víctor y de Blanca eran enemigos acérrimos, y al llegar Roberto a la casa donde está su hermana, se encuentra con el tío de Víctor; se reconocen ambos como enemigos y concluye el acto.

En el segundo, Roberto manda a su hermana que deje a Víctor, y el tío de éste ordena a su sobrino que abandone a Blanca.

El tercer acto se desarrolla en casa de Víctor; se va a realizar un desafío entre éste y Roberto. Víctor promete a su novia que no se batirá con Roberto; llegan los padrinos de Víctor y persiste él en no batirse. Entonces su tío don Marcial, con el pretexto de dar una explicación a los padrinos del enemigo de su sobrino, sale y se bate con Roberto. Víctor sospecha lo que pasa, sale, se encuentra con su tío atravesado por Roberto, se bate con éste y lo mata, y Blanca se va con su amante.

Yo no sé por qué esto se llama Malas herencias; mejor podría decirse Fatalidad y

Tontería, o algo por el estilo.

La obra tiene, como casi todas las de Echegaray, un aspecto de problema entre geométrico, algebraico y logarítmico. ¡Problemas! ¿Pero hay problemas de esa clase en el mundo? Yo creo que no.

En Malas herencias la sociedad, como el coro de las tragedias griegas —es frase del autor—, se encarga de envenenar todas las cuestiones. No creo que la sociedad sea precisamente buena; pero tampoco se me figura que sea mala. Cuando ofende, cuando mata, no es por maldad; es por egoísmo implacable, por ese frío del que se queja Ibsen en su Juan Gabriel Borkman.

La casa de don Basilio, en donde se desarrollan los dos primeros actos de Malas herencias es como casi todas las de las comedias de Echegaray, de esas casas en que todo el mundo amigos y extraños entra y sale cuando le parece.

Los tipos de la obra son de cartón, sin matices; unos muy buenos, muy buenos; otros muy vengativos, muy vengativos, y otros muy tontos, muy tontos.

Esta obra, como las demás de Echegaray, me parecen escritas por un hombre de talento que no ve la vida más que por un agujero muy pequeño; la lente de su cámara oscura —hablaremos, si no en sabio, en fotógrafo— tiene desigualdades, y se reflejan en el interior las cosas de un modo absurdo y a veces monstruoso. Hay aquello que tanto se ha ensalzado de los caracteres sostenidos, regla teatral que obliga a un hombre a salir ceñudo, en el primer acto, y a permanecer ceñudo hasta el último. Todo es aquí seco, sin jugo; no hay nada curvo, multiforme, ondulante como la vida, todo es anguloso como una figura de Geometría.

Al público le sigue gustando y entusiasmando las obras de Echegaray. El nervio tosco necesita impresiones toscas. Creo que es una frase.

Es muy posible, dada la influencia de la crítica, a mi parecer perjudicial, porque quita la espontaneidad del público, es muy posible que si la crítica se muestra adversa a la obra y forma respecto a ella un ambiente hostil, el público mañana no se entusiasme tanto como se ha entusiasmado hoy; pero eso no impedirá que dramas como Malas herencias sean los pastos intelectuales que aquél desea.

Díaz de Mendoza y la Guerrero estuvieron muy bien, ésta especialmente en el tercer acto.

Una noticia que corría por el saloncillo: Se decía que D. Tomás Luceño preparaba la refundición de Malas herencias para el año que viene.

La consideraba ya como obra clásica.

Alma triunfante,* por Jacinto Benavente.

No soy un entusiasta de Benavente; lo confieso para que el que me lea pueda poner sobre mi criterio, que es el criterio de uno que casi no lo tiene, sus simpatías o sus antipatías por el escritor.

Decía yo a un conocido que toda la obra de Benavente me parecía sepulcral.

—¿A usted?—me dijo asombrado.

—Sí, a mí.

Muchas veces, al ver otras obras de Benavente, ligeras, de gracia, me han producido la misma impresión fúnebre, de desmayo, de aniquilamiento, que me ha hecho hoy Alma triunfante.

Hay mucha diferencia entre la tristeza activa que protesta y se irrita contra las cosas y los hombres, y la tristeza pasiva que se resigna y acepta todo. La de Benavente es esta tristeza pasiva; sus hombres y sus mujeres son figuritas resignadas, que sufren en un infierno de hielo bajo un horizonte de plomo. A veces, estas figuritas quieren ser hombres y mujeres; gritan y se quejan, y sus gritos y sus quejidos tienen un tono falso.

Yo contaría el asunto de Alma triunfante. ¿Para qué? El asunto es lo de menos. Esto de que haya o no haya drama, cuestión que les gusta discutir a los críticos, me parece una cosa de poca importancia.

Lo interesante es descubrir el temperamento del escritor entre las frases de sus personajes, y el temperamento de Benavente, en ésta como en las demás obras suyas, me parece el de un hombre tétrico, que disimula el aniquilamiento moral de su espíritu en Alma triunfante, con la profundidad de su inteligencia en Amor de amar o en La comida de las fieras, con el brillo de su ingenio.

Pero por dentro anda la procesión; el irónico, el ingenioso, guarda en las interioridades de su espíritu un fondo de místico, de defectuoso moral, que no es bastante iluminado para poner su vista en el cielo, ni es bastante fuerte para querer vivir la vida.

Alma triunfante, como obra teatral, creo que está bien hecha; como manifestación de un espíritu, es débil.

Es un drama gris, triste, verdaderamente deprimente. Todas estas vidas se quejan, se lamentan, no sirven para realizar nada, no tienen energía para resolver nada, y además se cierne sobre ellas la idea religiosa como una mariposa negra.

Este drama Alma triunfante, me recuerda esa triste flora de cementerio; hay alguna poesía aquí, pero es como esas corolas que nacen de los detritus, y en que cada punto blanco es un glóbulo de pus caído en la madre tierra.

Benavente, como Rusiñol —los dos espíritus muy elevados— tienen la misma impotencia sentimental de creación; parece que en los dos los instintos están debilitados y la voluntad muerta.

Los dramas de Benavente son como esos niños encanijados que nacen para llenar los osarios, y que tienen la desdicha, después de morir, de no dejar un esqueleto bien constituido.

Que en toda la obra se ve el reflejo de un talento; que las palabras que envuelven las ideas son propias y acertadas; que la constitución es ingeniosa, ¿para qué decirlo?

A mí me entusiasma la mina, la galería subterránea, cuando después de recorrerla se ve el agujero por donde entra a torrentes el gran sol, padre de la vida; me entristece el hueco sin luz.

A mí, que no voy con los viejos y que no quiero continuamente el tono mayor y la charanga estrepitosa a cada momento, me parece también mal esta representación gris de la vida, sin grandeza y sin fuerza, Toda esta obra respira misticismo; a cada paso se habla de resignación, y de Dios. La vida cristiana origina el conflicto. Si entre todos los personajes hubiera una verdadera alma triunfante, el conflicto se resolvería en seguida.

De los tipos, ninguno llega a impresionar más que la retina. Se siente la tristeza de todos ellos; no se siente el dolor.

No creo que en Alma triunfante encontrará nadie reminiscencias de obras extranjeras.

De los actores, se distinguió, a mi modo de ver, la señorita Bremón en el segundo cuadro del primer acto, que es el más sugestivo de la obra.

La escalinata de un trono,* por D. José Echegaray

Desde las últimas crónicas —o lo que sean— que escribí en El Globo, me han sucedido cosas que, para una vida humilde y monótona como la mía, son acontecimientos: he cumplido treinta años; he andado sobre un caballo, más o menos árabe, en las llanuras africanas, y he comprado un gorro de dormir.

Lo primero es grave, gravísimo; pero lo último es todavía más. El frío, la calvicie, una porción de cosas tristes...

Todas las noches, cuando me acuesto, murmuro a manera de rezo:

—¡Abominemos de la civilización! La civilización ha inventado el gorro de dormir.

Y digo todo esto para señalar al amable lector el estado psicológico habitual de este revistero de teatros, que es, poco más o menos, el mismo en que me encontraba al entrar esta noche en el Español a asistir al estreno de La escalinata de un trono.

Venecia, una noche de Carnaval, la plaza de San Marcos. En el fondo se ve la Iglesia bizantina, a los lados casas iluminadas, como es natural, a la veneciana. Teodora sale con su dueña; un mago le asegura que subirá la escalinata de un tronó, pero no con su amante Roger. Ella dice que si no es con su novio, no quiere la corona.

Entonces las máscaras tratan de ver a una mujer que desprecia el trono por el hombre a quien quiere e importunan a Teodora, hasta que Roger sale en su defensa.

Roger no conoce a sus padres y espera unos papeles que le darán a conocer su origen. Su criado se los trae, y añade al entregárselos a Roger que en Pisa le podrán dar más detalles de su nacimiento. Roger lee los papeles, y loco por lo que descubre en ellos, se decide a ir a Pisa.

En el segundo acto estamos en el interior de la Torre del Hambre, así llamada porque allí murió, con sus hijos el conde Ugolino, encerrado por el padre de Roger, el arzobispo Moaldiní. En la Torre se reúnen Teodora, Roger, Stéfano, el tirano de Pisa, esbirros y carceleros. Roger escucha y oye la relación de los crímenes de su padre y de las liviandades de su madre. Rechaza a su novia como hombre deshonrado, y cuando el tirano sale de la prisión con sus esbirros, que arrastran a Teodora, queda en el calabozo solo Roger.

El tercer acto es una logia del palacio de Stéfano; en el fondo se ven torres y remates de monumentos. En esta sala se desarrolla el desenlace de la obra, en que Roger muere y Teodora asesina al tirano de Pisa.

La obra no gustó. El público no sintió el estremecimiento que le producen las obras de Echegaray. Las escenas pasaron y pasaron ante la indiferencia de la gente, que no llegó a conmoverse ni siquiera un momento. Todo aquello es frío, muerto; no tiene alma, ni vigor, ni sangre.

Hay una escena, la del cementerio, que podría ser trágica y es completamente grotesca. Roger, ejerciendo de Hamlet, no dice más que ñoñerías, y cuando su razón vacila y ve las cabezas de las brujas que aparecen entre el follaje de los sepulcros, el público sintió claramente ese paso tan corto que hay entre lo sublime y lo que no lo es.

En este drama los personajes son más acartonados que lo son en los demás dramas de Echegaray; tienen todavía menos humanidad. En el diálogo en verso hay frases enérgicas, pero hay también una barbaridad de ripios y de cosas de mal gusto.

El otro día leía en un periódico francés un artículo de un periodista que escribía desde Noruega. Contaba que había visto a Ibsen, achacoso, rodeado de sus amigos, y decía que el autor de Braud, de vez en cuando enviaba a los periódicos poemas ñoños, que «los amigos se apresuraban a impedir que se publicasen».

Echegaray no está en un período de decadencia tan marcado como el gran autor noruego; tampoco ha puesto tanto meollo en sus obras como aquél; pero ha decaído mucho su vigor dramático.

Yo, si fuera jefe del Estado, a Echegaray, como a hombre que ha removido ideas, que ha tenido grandes alientos, que ha derrochado generosamente un talento superior en obras medianas, le declararía gloria nacional y le daría la jubilación forzosa.

Era muy difícil que en la representación de este drama se distinguiera alguno, y así fue...

Los Cuadernos Lliterarios no pretenden ser una colección análoga a las que ya circulan en la librería española. Sin desdeñar al gran público, cuya avidez de lectura parece colmada por la incesante producción novelesca, querrían los cuadernos literarios hablar a un núcleo de lectores que no limitan su curiosidad a la ficción narrativa, y ofrecer al mismo tiempo a los escritores que hoy cultivan géneros menos solicitados campo modesto e independiente.
En el propósito de los Cuadernos Literarios está el responder con la fidelidad posible a las corrientes espirituales, quizá un poco antagónicas, para vistas de cerca, que se van marcando en nuestros días. Junto a la obra del hombre consagrado, con personalidad definida, cabe aquí la tentativa del escritor joven que ve claro su propósito. Pretenden, en suma, los cuadernos literarios ser un reflejo déla vida literaria contemporánea, sin reducirla al círculo intelectual de un grupo; de una tendencia o de un país. (Texto de la presentación en contraportada)

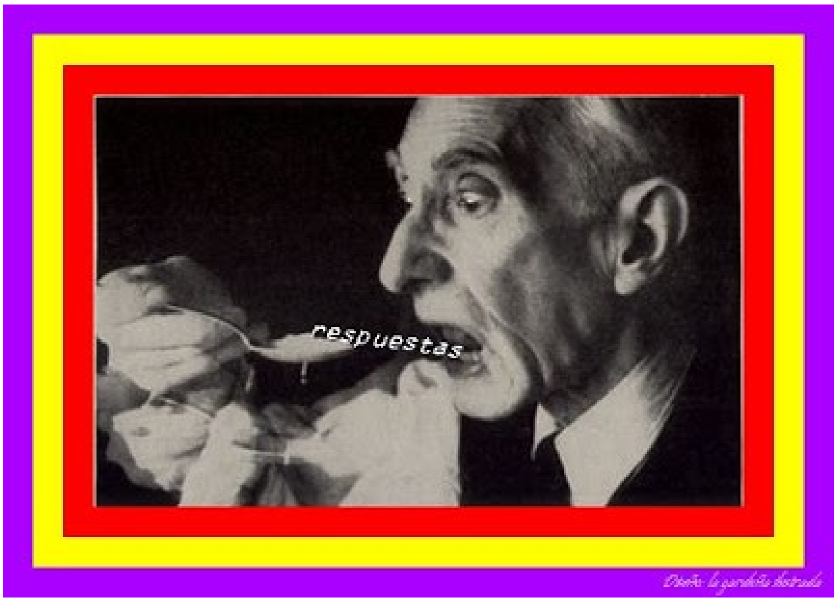
EL PARLAMENTO EUROPEO LO CONFIRMA: EN ESPAÑA, LA CORRUPCIÓN ES ENDÉMICA; LAS GARANTÍAS JURÍDICAS, UNA PAMEMA; Y LA JUSTICIA, UN PARIPÉ



RESOLUCIÓN DEL PARLAMENTO EUROPEO

A. Considerando el proceso de reclamaciones que ofrece a los ciudadanos y residentes europeos un medio de obtener la reparación no judicial de sus reclamaciones cuando éstas conciernen a asuntos derivados de los ámbitos de actividad de la Unión Europea,

B. Considerando el artículo 6, apartado 1, del Tratado de la Unión Europea que afirma que «la Unión se basa en los principios de libertad, democracia, respeto de los derechos humanos y de las libertades fundamentales y el Estado de Derecho, principios que son comunes a los Estados miembros»,

C. Considerando el artículo 6, apartado 2, del Tratado de la UE, por el que la Unión se compromete a respetar los derechos fundamentales tal y como se garantizan en el Convenio Europeo para la Protección de los Derechos Humanos y las Libertades Fundamentales (CEDH),

D. Considerando que todo ciudadano o residente de un país firmante del CEDH que considere que ha sufrido una violación de sus derechos humanos debería dirigirse al Tribunal Europeo de Derechos Humanos de Estrasburgo, y que antes de presentar cualquier demanda ante este Tribunal debe agotar las vías de recurso internas como establece el artículo 35 del citado CEDH,

E. Considerando el artículo 7 del Tratado de la UE que dispone los procedimientos por los que la Unión puede responder a las vulneraciones de los principios contemplados en el apartado 1 del artículo 6 y dirigirle recomendaciones adecuadas,

F. Considerando que el artículo 7 también otorga al Parlamento el derecho a realizar una propuesta motivada al Consejo para determinar la existencia de un riesgo claro de violación grave por parte de un Estado miembro de los valores en los que la Unión se fundamenta,

G. Considerando el artículo 7 de la Carta de los Derechos Fundamentales de la Unión Europea que garantiza la protección de la vida privada y familiar, incluido el domicilio privado de los ciudadanos, y el artículo 8 del CEDH que confiere los mismos derechos y aclara que «no podrá haber injerencia de la autoridad pública en el ejercicio de este derecho, sino en tanto en cuanto esta injerencia esté prevista por la ley y constituya una medida que, en una sociedad democrática, sea necesaria para la seguridad nacional, la seguridad pública, el bienestar económico del país, la defensa del orden y la prevención del delito, la protección de la salud o de la moral, o la protección de los derechos y las libertades de los demás»; considerando que el Parlamento, el Consejo y la Comisión se han comprometido a respetar la Carta en todas las actividades que llevan a cabo,

H. Considerando que el derecho a la propiedad privada está reconocido como derecho fundamental de los ciudadanos europeos en el artículo 17 de la Carta de los Derechos Fundamentales, que dispone que «toda persona tiene derecho a disfrutar de la propiedad de sus bienes adquiridos legalmente, a usarlos, a disponer de ellos y a legarlos»; que «nadie puede ser privado de su propiedad más que por causa de utilidad pública y en los casos y condiciones previstos por la ley y a cambio de una justa indemnización»; y que «el uso de los bienes podrá regularse en la medida que resulte necesario para el interés general»,

I. Considerando el artículo 18 del Tratado CE que dispone que «todo ciudadano de la Unión tendrá derecho a circular y residir libremente en el territorio de los Estados miembros, con sujeción a las limitaciones y condiciones previstas en el presente Tratado y en las disposiciones adoptadas para su aplicación»,

J. Considerando que, según lo dispuesto en el artículo 295, el Tratado CE: «no prejuzga en modo alguno el régimen de la propiedad en los Estados miembros»; que, de acuerdo con la jurisprudencia del Tribunal de Justicia, dicha disposición sólo reconoce la competencia de los Estados miembros para establecer el régimen de la propiedad; que dicha jurisprudencia ha confirmado que esa misma competencia debe ejercerse siempre en conexión con los principios fundamentales del Derecho comunitario, como son la libre circulación de bienes, personas, servicios y capital (véase la Sentencia de 22 de junio de 1976 en el asunto C-119/75 Terrapin / Terranova [1976] Rec. 1039),

K. Considerando, sin embargo, que con arreglo a la jurisprudencia reiterada del Tribunal de Justicia, el derecho de propiedad forma parte de los principios generales del Derecho comunitario, pero no constituye una prerrogativa absoluta, sino que debe tomarse en consideración en relación con su función en la sociedad, y que, por consiguiente, pueden imponerse restricciones al ejercicio del derecho de propiedad, siempre y cuando estas restricciones respondan efectivamente a objetivos de interés general perseguidos por la Comunidad y no constituyan una intervención desmesurada e intolerable que afecte a la propia esencia de los derechos así garantizados (véase la sentencia de 10 de diciembre de 2002 en el asunto C-491/01, British American Tobacco (Investments) e Imperial Tobacco, Rec. 2002, p. I11453),

L. Considerando que, no obstante dicha jurisprudencia, el Tribunal de Justicia ha mantenido de forma reiterada que, cuando una normativa nacional no está comprendida en el ámbito del Derecho comunitario, se carece de competencia comunitaria para apreciar la RR770602ES.doc 3/18 PE416.354v02-00 conformidad de dicha normativa con los derechos fundamentales cuya observancia garantiza el Tribunal de Justicia (véase, por ejemplo, el auto de 6 octubre 2005 en el asunto C-328/04, Vajnai, Rec. 2005, p. I-8577, apartados 12 y 13),

M. Considerando el artículo 1, párrafo primero, del Protocolo adicional nº 1 al CEDH que declara que: «toda persona física o moral tiene derecho al respeto de sus bienes»; que «nadie podrá ser privado de su propiedad sino por causa de utilidad pública y en las condiciones previstas por la ley y los principios generales del Derecho Internacional»; y que, según el párrafo segundo, «las disposiciones precedentes se entienden sin perjuicio del derecho que poseen los Estados de dictar las leyes que estimen necesarias para la reglamentación del uso de los bienes de acuerdo con el interés general o para garantizar el pago de los impuestos, de otras contribuciones o de las multas», y que, al ratificar dicho Protocolo, España formuló una reserva respecto del artículo 1 a la vista del artículo 33 de la Constitución Española, que reza así: «1. Se reconoce el derecho a la propiedad privada y a la herencia. 2. La función social de estos derechos delimitará su contenido, de acuerdo con las Leyes. 3. Nadie podrá ser privado de sus bienes y derechos sino por causa justificada de utilidad pública o interés social, mediante la correspondiente indemnización y de conformidad con lo dispuesto por las Leyes.»,

N. Considerando que la obligación de ceder propiedad privada adquirida legítimamente sin entablar el proceso debido ni percibir la indemnización adecuada, así como la obligación de pagar costes arbitrarios por el desarrollo de infraestructuras no solicitadas y a menudo innecesarias, constituyen una vulneración de los derechos fundamentales de la persona en virtud del CEDH y a la luz de la jurisprudencia del Tribunal Europeo de Derechos Humanos (véase por ejemplo, Aka contra Turquía1),

O. Considerando que, en 2008, las autoridades españolas aprobaron unas instrucciones relativas a la aplicación de la Ley de Costas de 1988, ignorada durante muchos años, a lo largo de los cuales se produjeron grandes daños medioambientales en las zonas costeras españolas; que incluso las instrucciones actuales no proporcionan unas medidas de ejecución claras para las autoridades regionales y locales implicadas, y que muchas de las nuevas peticiones recibidas atestiguan el carácter retroactivo de las instrucciones y la destrucción o demolición arbitrarias de propiedades de particulares adquiridas legítimamente, sus derechos con respecto a tales propiedades y su capacidad para transmitir esos derechos por vía sucesoria,

P. Considerando que, en vista del actual trazado de la línea de demarcación, los afectados tienen la firme impresión de que se ha establecido de forma arbitraria, a expensas de los propietarios extranjeros, como por ejemplo en la isla de Formentera,

Q. Considerando que la mencionada Ley de Costas afecta de manera desproporcionada a los propietarios particulares de bienes, cuyos derechos deberían verse plenamente respetados, y, al mismo tiempo, no tiene un impacto suficiente en los auténticos autores de la destrucción costera, responsables en muchos casos de unos desarrollos urbanísticos excesivos en las costas, incluidos complejos vacacionales, y que estaban mejor situados para saber que su actuación era sin duda contraria a las disposiciones de la ley en cuestión, 1) Sentencia de 23 de septiembre de 1998; véase también la Resolución del Parlamento, de 21 de junio de 2007, sobre los resultados de la misión de investigación en las comunidades autónomas de Andalucía, Valencia y Madrid, en nombre de la Comisión de Peticiones (DO C 146 E de 12.6.2008, p. 340).

R. Considerando que en el curso de la actual legislatura parlamentaria, la Comisión de Peticiones, en respuesta al número ingente de peticiones recibidas, ha llevado a cabo investigaciones detalladas, ha informado en tres ocasiones de la magnitud de los abusos de los derechos legítimos de los ciudadanos de la UE sobre sus bienes legalmente adquiridos en España, y expresaba también su inquietud acerca del desarrollo sostenible, la protección del medio ambiente y el suministro y la calidad de las aguas, así como con respecto a los procedimientos de contratación pública, por lo general en relación con las deficiencias en el control de los procesos de urbanización por parte de las autoridades de comunidades autónomas y locales en España,[1] así como con respecto a los procedimientos de contratación pública, que son objeto en la actualidad de procedimientos judiciales tanto en España como ante el Tribunal de Justicia de las Comunidades Europeas,

S. Considerando que se han dado muchos casos en que todas las administraciones, central, autonómicas y locales han sido responsables de haber puesto en marcha un modelo de desarrollo insostenible, que ha tenido gravísimas consecuencias, por supuesto medioambientales y, además, sociales y económicas,

T. Considerando que el Parlamento Europeo ha recibido muchas peticiones procedentes de particulares y de diferentes asociaciones que representan a ciudadanos de la UE en las que formulan reclamaciones sobre diversos aspectos de la actividad urbanística, y constatando que en muchos de los problemas expuestos en las peticiones presentadas que tratan sobre la expansión urbanística no se observa infracción del Derecho comunitario -véanse las comunicaciones a los miembros de la CE- y que deberían resolverse agotando la vía judicial del Estado miembro concernido,

U. Considerando que existen cada vez más pruebas de que las autoridades judiciales en España han empezado a reaccionar ante el reto que supone la urbanización excesiva en muchas zonas costeras, en particular mediante la investigación y la imputación de cargos contra funcionarios locales corruptos quienes, por sus acciones, han facilitado desarrollos urbanísticos no reglamentados sin precedentes en detrimento de los derechos de los ciudadanos de la UE, que han conllevado daños irreparables a la biodiversidad y la integridad medioambiental de muchas regiones de España; considerando que el Parlamento ha observado, sin embargo, en respuesta a estas acusaciones, que los procedimientos incoados siguen siendo de una lentitud desmedida y que las sentencias dictadas en muchos de estos casos no pueden ejecutarse de forma que compensen a las víctimas de tales abusos, y que ello ha reforzado la impresión, compartida por muchos ciudadanos de la UE de nacionalidad no española, acerca de la falta de actuación y parcialidad de la justicia española; considerando que debe tenerse en cuenta, sin embargo, que la instancia de recurso procedente, una vez agotadas las vías nacionales, es el Tribunal de Derechos Humanos,

V. Considerando que esta actividad extendida que respaldan las autoridades locales y regionales irresponsables a través de una legislación inadecuada y en ocasiones injustificada, que en muchos casos es contraria a los objetivos de varios actos legislativos europeos, ha dañado considerablemente la imagen de España y de los amplios intereses económicos y políticos que tiene en Europa, debido a la aplicación laxista de las legislaciones urbanísticas y medioambientales vigentes en las Comunidades Autónomas españolas en algunas actuaciones urbanizadoras, así como la aparición de algunos casos relevantes de corrupción ocasionados por ellas,

W. Considerando que los Defensores del Pueblo regionales han intervenido frecuentemente, en circunstancias muy difíciles, para defender los intereses de los ciudadanos de la UE en casos relacionados con abusos urbanísticos, aunque en general, las autoridades regionales han desoído sus esfuerzos,

X. Considerando que el artículo 33 de la Constitución española alude al derecho a la propiedad y que ha habido distintas interpretaciones de ese artículo, en particular en relación con la afectación de la propiedad a un uso social, frente a los derechos de las personas sobre sus viviendas, que no aún no ha recaído sentencia firme sobre la aplicación de la legislación urbanística en la Comunidad Valenciana,

Y. Considerando que el artículo 47 de la Constitución Española determina que todos los españoles tienen derecho a disfrutar de una vivienda digna y adecuada, y manda que los poderes públicos promuevan las condiciones necesarias y establezcan las normas pertinentes para hacer efectivo este derecho, regulando la utilización del suelo de acuerdo con el interés general para impedir la especulación,

Z. Considerando que el Gobierno nacional español tiene el deber de aplicar el Tratado CE y de defender y garantizar la plena aplicación del Derecho comunitario en su territorio, independientemente de la organización interna de las autoridades políticas, según lo dispuesto en la Constitución del Reino de España,

A*a*. Considerando que la Comisión, actuando en virtud de los poderes que le confiere el artículo 226 del Tratado CE, ha incoado procedimientos contra España ante el Tribunal de Justicia en un asunto relativo a los excesivos abusos urbanísticos que han tenido lugar en España, que afectan directamente a la aplicación por parte de las autoridades valencianas de la Directiva sobre contratos públicos[2],

A*b*. Considerando que la Comisión, a instancias de la Comisión de Peticiones, ha abierto una investigación sobre más de 250 proyectos urbanísticos que han sido objeto de un dictamen negativo por parte de las autoridades competentes en materia de agua y de cuencas fluviales y que pueden por tanto situar los proyectos en contravención de la Directiva Marco del Agua [3], particularmente en Andalucía, Castilla-La Mancha, Murcia y Valencia,

A*c*. Considerando que muchas de esas urbanizaciones se encuentran lejos de zonas urbanas consolidadas y exigieron unos gastos notables en servicios básicos como electricidad, agua e infraestructuras viarias; que estas inversiones suelen beneficiarse de financiación comunitaria,

A*d*. Considerando que, en muchos casos documentados de problemas urbanísticos en España, la Comisión no ha actuado con la suficiente firmeza, no sólo respecto a la ejecución del principio de cautela de la legislación medioambiental, sino también por la laxa interpretación de los actos cometidos por las autoridades locales y regionales competentes con efecto legal vinculante, tales como la «aprobación provisional» de un plan de desarrollo urbanístico integrado por parte de una autoridad local,

A*e*. Considerando que el objetivo de la Directiva de evaluación ambiental estratégica [4], cuyo artículo 3 trata explícitamente del turismo y la ordenación del territorio, es contribuir a un elevado nivel de protección del medio ambiente y contribuir a la integración de consideraciones medioambientales en la preparación y adopción de algunos planes y programas con vistas a fomentar un desarrollo sostenible; y la

Directiva marco en el sector del agua [5] obliga a los Estados miembros a prevenir el deterioro de sus aguas y promover la utilización sostenible de sus recursos hídricos naturales,

A*f.* Considerando que las sucesivas visitas realizadas por la Comisión de Peticiones en el marco de la investigación han indicado que, con frecuencia, muchas autoridades locales y regionales malinterpretan gravemente estos objetivos (no solo en las regiones costeras) a la hora de proponer o acordar programas urbanísticos extensos; considerando que la mayoría de los planes urbanísticos denunciados por las peticiones conllevan la reclasificación de suelo rural a suelo urbanizable, para el provecho económico considerable del agente urbanizador y el promotor; considerando asimismo que hay muchos casos de terrenos protegidos, o terrenos que deberían protegerse en vista de su vulnerable biodiversidad, que se desclasifican y reclasifican, o no se clasifican en absoluto, precisamente para permitir la urbanización de la zona en cuestión,

Ag. Considerando que tales consideraciones conforman los abusos al que están sometidos miles de ciudadanos de la UE, quienes, como consecuencia de los planes elaborados por los agentes urbanizadores, no sólo han perdido sus bienes legítimamente adquiridos, sino que se han visto obligados a pagar el coste arbitrario de proyectos de infraestructuras a menudo no deseadas e innecesarias que afectaban directamente a sus derechos a la propiedad y que han acabado en catástrofe financiera y emocional para muchas familias,

A*h*. Considerando que muchos miles de ciudadanos europeos, en diferentes circunstancias, han adquirido propiedades en España de buena fe, actuando conjuntamente con abogados locales, urbanistas y arquitectos, sólo para descubrir más adelante que han sido víctimas de abusos urbanísticos cometidos por autoridades locales poco escrupulosas y que, en consecuencia, sus propiedades se enfrentan a la demolición porque se ha descubierto que han sido edificadas ilegalmente y, por lo tanto, no tienen valor y no pueden venderse,

A*i*. Considerando que los agentes inmobiliarios de los Estados miembros, como los del Reino Unido, y otros prestadores de servicios relacionados con el mercado inmobiliario en España, siguen poniendo a la venta propiedades en urbanizaciones nuevas, a pesar de que tienen necesariamente conocimiento de que existe una posibilidad evidente de que el proyecto en cuestión no se termine o no se construya,

A*j.* Considerando que las islas y las zonas costeras mediterráneas de España han sufrido una destrucción masiva en la última década, ya que el cemento y el hormigón han saturado esas regiones de tal forma que han afectado no sólo al frágil medio ambiente costero, la mayor parte del cual está nominalmente protegido en virtud de la Directivas sobre hábitats [6]/Natura 2000 y aves [7], como ha ocurrido en casos de urbanizaciones en el Cabo de Gata y Murcia, sino también a la actividad social y cultural de muchas zonas, lo que constituye una pérdida trágica e irreparable de su identidad y legado culturales, así como de su integridad medioambiental, y todo ello principalmente por la avaricia y la conducta especulativa de algunas autoridades locales y miembros del sector de la construcción que han conseguido sacar beneficios masivos de estas actividades, la mayoría de los cuales se han exportado [8],

A*k*. Considerando que este modelo de crecimiento tiene consecuencias negativas también sobre el sector turístico, ya que se trata de un modelo devastador para el turismo de calidad, puesto que destruye los valores del territorio y fomenta la expansión urbana excesiva,

Al*. Considerando que se trata de un modelo expoliador de los bienes culturales, que destruye valores y señas de identidad fundamentales de la diversidad cultural española, destruyendo yacimientos arqueológicos, edificios y lugares de interés cultural, así como su entorno natural y paisajístico,

A*m*.Considerando que el sector de la construcción, que ha obtenido considerables ganancias durante los años de rápida expansión económica, ha pasado a ser la primera víctima del actual desplome de los mercados financieros, a su vez provocado en parte por la especulación en el sector inmobiliario, y que ello afecta no sólo a las empresas en sí, que ahora se enfrentan a la quiebra, sino también a las decenas de miles de asalariados del sector de la construcción que ahora se enfrentan al desempleo por culpa de las políticas urbanísticas insostenibles que se siguieron y de las que ahora han pasado a ser víctimas.

1. Pide al Gobierno de España y de las comunidades autónomas implicadas a que lleven a cabo una profunda revisión de toda la legislación que afecta a los derechos de los propietarios particulares de bienes como resultado de una urbanización masiva, con objeto de poner fin a los abusos de los derechos y las obligaciones consagrados en el Tratado CE, en la Carta de los Derechos Fundamentales, en el CEDH y en las directivas europeas pertinentes, así como en otros convenios de los que la UE forma parte;

2. Pide a las autoridades españolas que se deroguen todas las figuras legales que favorecen la especulación, tales como el agente urbanizador;

3. Considera que las autoridades regionales competentes deben suspender y revisar todos los planes urbanísticos nuevos que no respetan los criterios rigurosos de sostenibilidad medioambiental y responsabilidad social, y que no garantizan el respeto por la propiedad legítima de los bienes adquiridos legalmente, y que detengan y anulen todos los desarrollos urbanísticos en curso que no han respetado o aplicado los criterios establecidos por el Derecho comunitario, principalmente por lo que se refiere a la adjudicación de contratos urbanísticos y al cumplimiento de las disposiciones en materia de agua y medio ambiente;

4. Pide a las autoridades españolas que velen por que ningún acto administrativo que obligue a un ciudadano a ceder su propiedad privada adquirida legítimamente encuentre su fundamento jurídico en una ley adoptada después de la fecha de construcción de la citada propiedad; ello sería contrario al principio de irretroactividad de los actos administrativos, que es un principio general del Derecho comunitario (véase la sentencia del TJCE, de 29 de enero de 1985, en el asunto C-234/83, Gesamthochschule Duisburg, p. 333) que garantiza a los ciudadanos seguridad jurídica, confianza y expectativas legítimas de protección en el marco del Derecho de la UE;

5. Pide a las autoridades españolas que desarrollen una cultura de la transparencia dirigida a informar a los ciudadanos de la gestión del suelo y a impulsar mecanismos de información y participación ciudadana efectivos;

6. Insta al Gobierno español a realizar un debate público, con la participación de todos los órganos administrativos, que suponga un estudio riguroso mediante la formación de una comisión de trabajo sobre el desarrollo urbanístico en España, que permita tomar medidas legislativas contra la especulación y el desarrollo insostenible;

7. Insta a las autoridades regionales y nacionales a que establezcan mecanismos judiciales y administrativos operativos, que impliquen a los Defensores del Pueblo regionales, quienes son competentes para proporcionar medios que permitan acelerar el acceso a la justicia y la indemnización a las víctimas de abusos urbanísticos en virtud de las disposiciones de la legislación en vigor;

8. Pide a los organismos financieros y mercantiles competentes implicados en el sector urbanístico y de la construcción que participen activamente con las autoridades políticas en la búsqueda de soluciones a los problemas existentes derivados de la urbanización masiva, que ha afectado a centenares de miles de ciudadanos europeos que han optado por acogerse a las disposiciones del Tratado CE y que, en virtud del artículo 44, han ejercido sus derechos de establecimiento en un Estado miembro que no es su país de origen;

9. Insta a las autoridades nacionales, regionales y locales competentes a que garanticen una solución justa a los muchos casos pendientes de ciudadanos de la UE afectados por la no terminación de sus viviendas como consecuencia de la deficiente planificación y coordinación entre las instituciones y las empresas de construcción;

10. Señala que, si las partes perjudicada no obtuvieran satisfacción de los tribunales españoles, deberán recurrir ante el Tribunal Europeo de Derechos Humanos, dado que las presuntas violaciones del derecho fundamental a la propiedad no entran dentro de la competencia del Tribunal de Justicia;

11. Apela a las instituciones de la UE para que proporcionen asesoramiento y ayuda, si así lo solicitan las autoridades españolas, con objeto de proporcionarles los medios que les permitan superar de manera efectiva las desastrosas repercusiones de la urbanización masiva en las vidas de los ciudadanos en un período de tiempo debidamente corto pero razonable;

12. Pide a la Comisión, al mismo tiempo, que garantice el respeto riguroso de la aplicación del Derecho comunitario y de los objetivos establecidos en las Directivas cubiertas por esta Resolución, para que se exija su cumplimiento;

13. Expresa su preocupación y desaliento por el hecho de que las autoridades jurídicas y judiciales españolas hayan puesto de manifiesto que no están debidamente preparadas para hacer frente a las repercusiones de la urbanización masiva en las vidas de las personas, como prueban los miles de reclamaciones recibidas por el Parlamento y su comisión pertinente en la materia;

14. Considera alarmante la falta de confianza generalizada que los peticionarios parecen mostrar frente al sistema judicial español como un medio eficaz para obtener reparación y justicia;

15. Manifiesta su preocupación por la ausencia de una transposición correcta de las Directivas 2005/60/CE y 2006/70/CE sobre el blanqueo de dinero [9], que son objeto ahora de un procedimiento de infracción, lo que ha limitado la transparencia y las acciones judiciales contra la circulación ilegal de capital financiero, incluidas inversiones en determinados proyectos urbanísticos de gran envergadura;

16. Opina que las personas que hayan adquirido de buena fe una propiedad en España y se hayan encontrado con que ha sido declarada ilegal deben tener derecho a obtener una indemnización adecuada a través de los órganos jurisdiccionales españoles;

17. Considera que si los particulares que adquirieron una propiedad en España a sabiendas de la probable ilegalidad de la transacción realizada pueden ser obligados a soportar los costes del riesgo que asumieron, con más razón debe aplicarse por analogía este mismo razonamiento a los profesionales del sector; por consiguiente, los promotores que celebraron contratos de cuya ilegalidad deberían haber tenido conocimiento no deben tener derecho a compensación por el abandono de unos proyectos debido a la falta de conformidad con la legislación nacional y comunitaria, ni deben tampoco gozar de un derecho de recuperación automática de los pagos ya abonados a los municipios si dichos pagos se realizaron a sabiendas de la probable ilegalidad del contrato que estaban celebrando;

18. Considera, no obstante, que la falta de claridad, precisión y certidumbre respecto a los derechos de propiedad individual contemplados en la legislación en vigor y la falta de aplicación adecuada y sistemática de la legislación en materia de medio ambiente son la primera causa de muchos problemas relacionados con la urbanización, y que esto, combinado con cierta laxitud en los procesos judiciales, no sólo ha complicado el problema, sino que también ha generado una forma endémica de corrupción de la que, otra vez, la principal víctima es el ciudadano de la UE, pero que también ha ocasionado pérdidas sustanciales al Estado español;

19. Considera las conclusiones de la Síndica de Greuges de la Comunidad Valenciana (Defensora del Pueblo), institución de reconocido prestigio en la defensa de los derechos fundamentales de los ciudadanos, que manifiesta que los derechos de los propietarios se han podido ver afectados, bien por haber sido infravalorados por el agente urbanizador, bien por tener que asumir unas cargas de urbanización impuestas unilateralmente por el mismo y a veces excesivas;

20. Considera necesario que el acceso a la información y la participación ciudadana en el proceso urbanístico se garanticen desde el inicio del mismo, facilitando información medioambiental a los ciudadanos, de forma clara, sencilla y comprensible;

21. Considera igualmente que no se ha acotado en la legislación urbanística en vigor, ni por las autoridades competentes, la definición de «interés general», amparándose en este concepto la aprobación de proyectos insostenibles, desde un punto de vista medioambiental, obviándose en algunos casos evaluaciones de impacto medioambiental e informes de la correspondiente Confederación Hidrográfica con carácter negativo;

22. Reconoce y apoya los esfuerzos de las autoridades españolas por proteger el medio ambiente costero y, allí donde sea posible, restaurar ese medio ambiente de forma favorable para la biodiversidad y la regeneración de las especies autóctonas de fauna y flora y, en este contexto específico, les insta a que revisen urgentemente y, en su caso, modifiquen la Ley de Costas a fin de proteger los derechos de los legítimos propietarios de viviendas y de aquéllos que poseen pequeñas parcelas en zonas de la costa que no tienen un impacto negativo sobre el medio ambiente costero; hace hincapié en que dicha protección no debe concederse a proyectos de desarrollo especulativos que no respetan las directivas de la UE en materia de medio ambiente; se propone revisar las peticiones recibidas sobre este asunto a la vista de la respuesta de las autoridades competentes españolas;

23. Manifiesta su preocupación acerca de la situación de la planificación urbana en el municipio de Marbella, en Andalucía, donde se han construido ilegalmente decenas de miles de viviendas, que infringen probablemente la legislación comunitaria en materia de protección del medio ambiente, participación pública, política del agua y contratación pública, y que están a punto de ser legalizadas gracias a un nuevo plan general urbano, que priva de seguridad jurídica y de garantías a los compradores, los propietarios y los ciudadanos en general;

24. Elogia la labor de los Defensores del Pueblo regionales y de su personal, a quienes respalda plenamente, así como a los fiscales más diligentes, quienes recientemente han realizado considerables esfuerzos para restablecer la aplicación de los procedimientos correctos a estos asuntos por parte de algunas de las instituciones afectadas;

25. Elogia también la actividad de los peticionarios, sus asociaciones y las asociaciones comunitarias locales, que engloban a decenas de miles de ciudadanos españoles y no españoles, quienes han llamado la atención del Parlamento sobre estos asuntos, y quienes han sido esenciales para garantizar los derechos fundamentales de sus vecinos y de todos los afectados por este complejo problema;

26. Recuerda que la Directiva de evaluación de impacto ambiental[10] y la Directiva de evaluación ambiental estratégica[11] imponen la obligación de consulta al público implicado en la fase de establecimiento y elaboración de los planes, y no —como tan a menudo ocurre en los casos en que se llama la atención de la Comisión de Peticiones— una vez la autoridad local ha acordado los planes de facto; recuerda, en el mismo contexto, que cualquier modificación sustancial efectuada en los planes existentes debe también respetar este procedimiento y que los planes deben ser actuales, estadísticamente precisos y estar actualizados;

27. Recuerda, asimismo, que la Comisión está facultada por el artículo 91 del Reglamento (CE) nº 1083/2006 [12] a interrumpir la provisión de fondos estructurales, y por el artículo 92, a suspender dicha dotación a un Estado miembro o una región implicada, y a estipular correcciones en relación con los proyectos receptores de fondos que posteriormente considere que no han cumplido plenamente con la normativa que rige la aplicación de los actos legislativos pertinentes de la UE;

28. Asimismo, recuerda que el Parlamento, como autoridad presupuestaria, también puede decidir colocar en reserva los fondos destinados a políticas de cohesión si lo considera necesario para persuadir a un Estado miembro a que ponga fin a graves vulneraciones de la normativa y los principios que está obligado a respetar, sea con arreglo al Tratado o como consecuencia de la aplicación del Derecho comunitario, hasta el momento en que el problema se haya resuelto;

29. Reitera las conclusiones recogidas en sus resoluciones previas que ponen en tela de juicio los métodos de designación de los agentes urbanizadores y los poderes con frecuencia excesivos otorgados a los urbanistas y promotores inmobiliarios por parte de determinadas autoridades locales, a expensas de las comunidades y los ciudadanos que residen en la zona;

30. Insta una vez más a las autoridades locales a que consulten a sus ciudadanos y les hagan partícipes en los proyectos de desarrollo urbanístico, con objeto de fomentar un desarrollo justo, transparente y sostenible en los casos necesarios, en el interés de las comunidades locales y no en el exclusivo interés de los promotores, inmobiliarias y otros intereses creados;

31. Pide a las autoridades competentes en materia urbanística que amplíen los procesos de consulta urbanística a los propietarios, con acuse de recibo, siempre que haya cambios en la calificación de sus propiedades, proponiendo a los municipios la citación directa y personal durante los trámites de apelación de los planes de ordenación o recalificación;

32. Condena con firmeza la práctica ilícita por la que ciertos promotores socavan mediante subterfugios la propiedad legítima de bienes de los ciudadanos de la UE, interfiriendo con las notificaciones del registro catastral, e insta a las autoridades locales a que establezcan garantías jurídicas apropiadas para luchar contra esta práctica;

33. Hace hincapié en que, en los casos en que pueda exigirse indemnización por la pérdida de propiedad, debería concederse a un tipo apropiado y de conformidad con la jurisprudencia del Tribunal de Justicia y del Tribunal Europeo de Derechos Humanos;

34. Recuerda que la Directiva sobre las prácticas comerciales desleales [13], obliga a todos los Estados miembros a proporcionar a los consumidores que han sido víctimas de tales prácticas medios adecuados para obtener una tutela judicial efectiva y a garantizar el establecimiento de sanciones adecuadas contra dichas prácticas;

35. Insta una vez más a la Comisión a que inicie una campaña informativa dirigida a los ciudadanos de la UE que adquieran propiedades inmobiliarias en un Estado miembro que no sea el suyo propio;

36. Encarga a su Presidente que transmita la presente resolución al Consejo y a la Comisión, al Gobierno y al Parlamento del Reino de España, así como a los Parlamentos de las Comunidades Autónomas, los Defensores del Pueblo nacionales y regionales de España y a los peticionarios.

EXPOSICIÓN DE MOTIVOS

El proyecto de Resolución que ahora se somete a la consideración del Parlamento Europeo es necesario de cara a garantizar el respeto de los derechos de muchos miles de ciudadanos europeos en virtud del Tratado.
La Comisión de Peticiones no se ha tomado su actuación a la ligera, sino que ha organizado tres misiones de investigación en España en el transcurso de la presente legislatura. El propio Parlamento ha aprobado dos resoluciones sobre el tema que respaldan los hallazgos de la comisión: la primera en 2005 y la segunda en junio de 2007[14]. La posición del Parlamento que resultó entonces de la votación figura en el considerando «N» de este proyecto de Resolución.
Si las autoridades competentes nacionales o locales hubieran llevado a cabo acciones tangibles para dar respuesta a las inquietudes anteriormente mencionadas por esta comisión, no está claro si esta Resolución habría sido necesaria, pero como no fue así, su necesidad es manifiesta.

No obstante, hoy en día, miles de ciudadanos europeos siguen siendo víctimas de un sistema de urbanización masiva que en muchas ocasiones, según la Comisión de Peticiones, ha ignorado sus derechos legítimos como propietarios, al tiempo que ha destruido el medio ambiente costero mediterráneo y los frágiles ecosistemas en muchas zonas del litoral y el interior de España. Varios peticionarios han presentado su caso para su control en diversas ocasiones durante las muy concurridas reuniones de la Comisión de Peticiones, y las autoridades, sobre todo las de la Comunidad Valenciana y, en menor medida, las de Andalucía, han aprovechado la oportunidad de defender sus actuaciones.

Entretanto, la Comisión Europea ha abierto un caso de infracción contra España, directamente relacionado con la urbanización en la Comunidad Valenciana y la aplicación de las Directivas sobre contratos públicos, y se encuentra investigando otros supuestos incumplimientos de la legislación comunitaria en asuntos relacionados con el medio ambiente y el agua. Resulta clave considerar si el efecto acumulativo de tantos proyectos urbanísticos a gran escala que carecen de un informe positivo de la autoridad competente en materia de agua podría imposibilitar la aplicación de la Directiva marco en el sector del agua al negar el abastecimiento de agua para consumo humano y agrícola.

Muchos ciudadanos europeos han decidido vivir en España por todas las ventajas que ofrecen el país y sus habitantes, y al hacerlo, han ejercido los derechos que les han sido otorgados como ciudadanos europeos en virtud de los Tratados. Sin embargo, los problemas que aborda el presente informe afectan también a los propios españoles, que han presentado las mismas, si no más, peticiones a este respecto. Por este motivo, algunas autoridades políticas y dirigentes de partidos consideran inadmisible la afirmación de que los extranjeros, que evidentemente no comprenden la legislación española, son los únicos que plantean estos problemas, o que las víctimas no tienen más que dirigirse al juzgado más cercano para que les aclaren y resuelvan su situación. De hecho, muchos peticionarios han intentado llevar a cabo esta medida sin obtener resultado alguno; otros no pueden permitírselo económicamente.
La mayoría se encuentran desorientados por los consejos contradictorios que reciben de las autoridades locales y de los abogados a los que han recurrido en busca de asesoramiento sin que les hayan ayudado mucho (por no mencionar los numerosos casos en que las autoridades municipales y los propios abogados han resultado partes intrínsecas del problema). La mayoría de los peticionarios y muchos juristas están desconcertados por la falta de seguridad jurídica y la confusión resultante de una legislación imprecisa o excesivamente compleja en materia de desarrollo urbanístico y sus implicaciones, junto con unas disposiciones de aplicación cada vez más confusas.
La recién recuperada Ley de Costas de 1988 es otro ejemplo de ello. La Comisión de Peticiones reconoce que en España, la planificación urbanística es competencia de las Comunidades Autónomas y municipios; reconoce también que las autoridades nacionales tienen competencia en asuntos tales como el marco general de la ley del suelo y en cuestiones medioambientales como el abastecimiento de agua y la protección de las especies clasificadas. La comisión conoce bien el ámbito de aplicación y la aplicabilidad de la legislación nacional y no induce a error a ninguno de los peticionarios en estos puntos. De hecho, hemos consultado al Defensor del Pueblo regional, el Sindic de Greuges, en varias ocasiones.
Sin embargo, las leyes aplicables en estas zonas deben guardar conformidad con las disposiciones generales de los Tratados y actos legislativos de la UE y corresponde al gobierno nacional verificar que éste es el caso. La Comisión de Peticiones ha intervenido sobre la base de estos fundamentos jurídicos, en función de las peticiones recibidas de conformidad con el artículo 194 del Tratado CE[15].

Interviene porque los ciudadanos europeos tienen derechos en virtud de los Tratados y respeta el principio de subsidiariedad.

Interviene porque los ciudadanos europeos han recurrido a la Comisión de Peticiones para que les ayude a resolver sus dramas personales, ya sean particulares o colectivos, y los diputados al Parlamento Europeo, que han sido directamente elegidos, han respondido en defensa de los derechos de su electorado.

Interviene porque cree que todos los Estados miembros tienen la obligación política, jurídica y moral de actuar de conformidad con los principios fundamentales contenidos en los Tratados, incluida la Carta de los Derechos Fundamentales, firmada por los presidentes de las tres principales instituciones de la UE. Los ciudadanos europeos esperan que sus políticos respeten lo que han firmado y no intenten eludir su responsabilidad.

La crisis financiera mundial, con lo que ella implica, ha tenido claras y duras consecuencias en el sector español de la construcción, lo que representa una tragedia para los trabajadores afectados. No obstante, ya antes de los acontecimientos acaecidos en otoño de 2008, este sector se encaminaba al desastre. Los años de urbanización masiva y destrucción del litoral que han conllevado considerables beneficios financieros para el sector y excesos de construcción masiva (puesto que en la actualidad existen un millón y medio de viviendas de nueva construcción esperando comprador y unos cuantos campos de golf), basados en las irracionales y codiciosas suposiciones de los promotores inmobiliarios y urbanizadores, dan ahora paso a una terrible recesión en el país.
Las autoridades españolas, concretamente las autonómicas, siguen sin querer reconocerlo, mientras que las víctimas se cuentan por miles. En muchas ocasiones, su actitud ha sido como mucho condescendiente respecto a los derechos de propiedad individual; en los peores casos, ha resultado totalmente desdeñosa.

Se han producido daños paisajísticos, como ponen de manifiesto numerosos informes de referencia16, mientras que los proyectos urbanísticos pendientes persisten como espadas de Damocles de hormigón sobre un gran número de comunidades costeras y rurales. Es por este motivo que la Resolución pide a las autoridades locales que suspendan y revisen los proyectos existentes y que no procedan hasta que se haya demostrado su sostenibilidad, con la participación de las comunidades locales en su elección, y se hayan garantizado salvaguardias medioambientales. Asimismo, deben respetarse los derechos legítimos de propiedad.

El informe de la primera misión de investigación en España en 2004 ya describía con detalles lo que estaba ocurriendo y sus repercusiones. Durante la segunda misión, algunos políticos y promotores, sentados codo con codo en la misma sala de reuniones como para enfatizar su apoyo umbilical, llegaron incluso a culpar de la situación a la Comisión de Peticiones, afirmando que era la responsable de la pérdida de inversiones en la Comunidad Valenciana, y les dijeron un tanto de lo mismo a los miembros de la delegación de la comisión. En el transcurso de la tercera misión en Valencia, que tuvo lugar en 2007, la arrogancia alcanzó su punto álgido cuando se dijo a los miembros de la delegación que las peticiones recibidas eran producto de la imaginación colectiva de la comisión. En enero tuve la oportunidad de debatir abiertamente la cuestión con el Consejero competente de la Comunidad Valenciana, pero resultó imposible hacer lo propio a nivel nacional.

Quizás no es una coincidencia que las autoridades españolas judiciales y del orden llevaran a cabo sus investigaciones al mismo tiempo que la comisión realizaba las suyas. Como todos sabemos, el resultado ha sido una lista casi interminable de políticos y funcionarios locales españoles, peninsulares e insulares, que han sido detenidos acusados de corrupción en relación con acuerdos de urbanización masiva celebrados en los últimos años. Ya es un hecho por todos conocido que en la última década se ha empleado más cemento y hormigón en la construcción de viviendas en España que en Francia, Alemania y Reino Unido juntos. Obviamente, esta tragedia ha hecho sombra al válido argumento que sostienen muchas personas en su crítica a las investigaciones de la comisión; esto es, que, por supuesto, no todas las autoridades locales son corruptas, ni todas han caído en la tentación del dinero fácil. Muchas han actuado de forma responsable, puesto que la mayoría de los alcaldes locales sólo se preocupan por sus comunidades; lo triste es que también han sido víctimas de la urbanización masiva.

Muchos miembros del sector inmobiliario, con los que la ponente ha mantenido reuniones, también son víctimas de la carrera por la riqueza y el poder político de los principales agentes. Sin duda, las constructoras más pequeñas que operan de forma sostenible, de conformidad con los requisitos locales y con objetivos más modestos y respetuosos con el medio ambiente, serán las que, a la larga, contribuirán a la regeneración del sector cuando se establezcan y respeten una serie de mecanismos reglamentarios y de orden.

La Comisión de Peticiones cuenta con cientos de estudios de casos particulares contenidos en los documentos presentados por los peticionarios. Estos casos abarcan una amplia variedad de situaciones específicas, tal y como se desprende de la tabla adjunta al presente informe. La mayoría de las peticiones han sido presentadas por particulares en representación de los residentes de una comunidad concreta; otras cuentan con una mayor base de apoyo; algunas proceden de personas mayores muy vulnerables que temen que los ahorros de su vida, que han invertido en su casa de retiro, vayan a quedar en manos de agentes locales irresponsables y sin escrúpulos.

La Comisión de Peticiones ha intentado clasificar las peticiones a fin de que los problemas afrontados por los ciudadanos europeos resulten más fáciles de identificar para aquellos a los que compete encontrar una solución, ya sea jurídica o política. En la Resolución, la comisión ha sugerido una serie de posibilidades que podrían estudiarse con el fin de garantizar que los ciudadanos europeos reciben la indemnización oportuna por las pérdidas que han sufrido como consecuencia de la apropiación del suelo que se ha llevado a cabo. Asimismo, ha pedido la adopción de medidas preventivas, ya que el principio de precaución debe regir la evaluación de impacto ambiental de todos los programas.

Ante todo, pide una mayor seguridad jurídica y un mayor respeto de los propietarios legítimos y sus derechos. Debe restaurarse la confianza en el sistema judicial español, especialmente en vista de las declaraciones presentadas por abogados insignes de la Comunidad Valenciana, en las que afirman claramente que no existía recurso jurídico alguno para las víctimas de la urbanización masiva. Esto redundará en beneficio de ciudadanos y municipios.

Pide que se ponga a disposición del público información más precisa y que mejore la transparencia de las promociones inmobiliarias, con total claridad en cuanto a lo que implican para los propietarios. Cuando vaya a incurrirse en gastos, deberán ser justificables y razonables, en lugar de arbitrarios, como ocurre a menudo en la actualidad. Nadie debería perder sus tierras o sus viviendas sin las debidas garantías procesales y una indemnización justa y apropiada, de conformidad con la jurisprudencia del Tribunal Europeo de Derechos Humanos que todos los Estados miembros están obligados a respetar en virtud del segundo apartado del artículo 6 del Tratado de la Unión Europea.

La comisión pide a las autoridades españolas competentes que revisen y modifiquen, cuando proceda, la legislación, a fin de garantizar los derechos contenidos en el Tratado en relación con los propietarios, y que cancelen las promociones que no respeten o apliquen las leyes comunitarias 17 Los nuevos proyectos urbanísticos que no observen la sostenibilidad medioambiental, la responsabilidad social y los derechos de los propietarios legítimos deberían suspenderse y revisarse. La función de los agentes urbanísticos y las condiciones en que las autoridades locales les han adjudicado los contratos públicos han sido objeto de muchas peticiones y actualmente, son objeto de procedimientos de infracción ante el Tribunal Europeo de Justicia. Por este motivo, la ponente no realizará más observaciones al respecto, salvo que la comisión ha apoyado totalmente a la Comisión Europea en lo relativo a esta actuación, al igual que muchos peticionarios.

La comisión entiende y respalda a las autoridades españolas en sus intentos de conservación y de, en su caso, restauración del entorno costero. Lo que no entiende es por qué se ha recuperado la Ley de Costas de 1988 a estas alturas, después de estar treinta años prácticamente en desuso mientras se producía tanta devastación. ¿Por que su aplicación es tan caótica y arbitraria cuando se demuelen antiguas casas costeras, pero se tolera la construcción de nuevos apartamentos? ¿Por qué se permitió la adquisición de estas viviendas durante los últimos treinta años, de conformidad con todos los requisitos legales en cuestión, salvo una ley con efecto retroactivo a la que ahora tienen que enfrentarse los propietarios legítimos y que les priva de sus derechos como tales?

Resulta razonable que los especuladores y promotores inmobiliarios que contaban con los recursos legales para estar bien al tanto de la situación deban ser sancionados, pero no que las personas que adquirieron su vivienda de buena fe y cumplieron los requisitos impuestos deban perder sus derechos, así como los de sus familias y descendientes, respecto a sus inmuebles.

La Comisión Europea puede usar el procedimiento de infracción para asegurarse que un Estado Miembro cumpla con sus obligaciones de los Tratados y Directivas Europeas. El Parlamento Europeo que no tiene esta arma a su alcance, pero puede usar su autoridad presupuestaria para conseguir fines similares si así lo decide. Baste decir a este punto que hay muchos casos en los que urbanización masiva ha incorporado elementos de la financiación europea, para permitir al Parlamento y su Comité de Control Presupuestario, investigar tales casos más de cerca si no se resuelven con prontitud las peticiones presentadas ante el Parlamento. Como redactora del informe espero que no sea necesario llegar a tal extremo.

TRINI REINA: "AZULES ATARDECERES DE LA MEMORIA"

SERENIDADES

"He andado muchos caminos"… (A. Machado)

Las estaciones se sucedían con premura, llevándome del desconsuelo al júbilo;
del algo, al menos nada,
en un vértigo tragicómico.

Temerariamente, mis pasos,
se allegaron al lóbrego túnel de la muerte.
La aguardaba, creía percibir su aliento, el álgido jadear de su guadaña...
Mas la muerte frecuentaba tugurios diferentes.

El apego a la vida,
el amor sin condiciones que a ella profeso, jalaron de mí hasta dolerme
y me dejaron tiritando en una primavera veleidosa.

He andado muchos caminos…
Mis pies hollaron mármol y plumas, también flores y arenas.
Y, ¡cómo no!, guijarros tortuosos.
Ahora, que los años me sobrepasaron, hora es de amainar la marcha ¡Basta ya de prisas y desvelos!
Transitando voy una vereda de espuma que no sé en qué ángulo tendrá su meta;
pero a la que me acerco, cuerpo y alma, henchida y serena.

A quienes somos lectores omnívoros, y tenemos el vicio de la lectura, de vez en cuando encontramos una forma de decir, una voz literaria inclasificable y personalísima, una manera de escribir como nadie sobre temas que todos los escritores han tratado, y un dominio del lenguaje, de su sentido y su contenido y su musicalidad, como si cada palabra y cada frase ocuparan su sitio exacto, y por derecho propio., que a cada relectura crece, y se enriquece , y se ahonda. Cada cien años nace alguien capaz de escribir así: como Trini Reina.
Acaba de publicar su primer libro de poesías, "Azules atardeceres de la memoria".
Lo podéis encontrar en EL TALLER DEL POETA, una interesante iniciativa editorial digna de apoyarse, y les aconsejo que pidan la firma de la autora, porque dentro de un tiempo, ese libro será una pieza codiciada entre los bibliofilos y los amantes de la literatura.

Agüela, te agradezco estas alentadoras palabras, que me han dejado sin palabras. Bueno, quizá porque mi ego se ha inflado tanto que me ha apretado la garganta y paralizado los dedos.

Espero que te haya gustado el libro en su conjunto y te doy las gracias por apoyarme desde el principio, cuando ni siquiera yo creía en mis poemas.

PD: Has elegido el poema que mejor define mi vida de ahora.

COMO UNA COLILLA

Nada sería peor que saber la verdad, pensaba Purita.
Miró la imagen de la Virgen del Perpetuo Socorro, y como siempre que pasaba ante ella, musitó una jaculatoria, porque su fe era ya su único refugio y la única luz que iluminaba su Camino -"San Josemaría, ayúdame"- musitó mirando aquella sonrisa benévola y un poquito pícara en su retrato enmarcado.
Las tres de la mañana y seguía sin venir a dormir, porque últimamente su casa se había convertido en un Hotel con desayuno, como esos que, en vacaciones, servían para tener que volver desde cualquier punto adonde les llevara el deseo de Javier de conocer sitios nuevos.
Volvió a colocar bien todos los ceniceros de adorno sobre la mesita y se preguntó en qué momento se había convertido en una extraña. Y recordó aquel domingo en que Javier, después de dormir la siesta, se duchó y se acicaló con esmero, se puso el traje azul y casi desde la puerta, le dijo:
-Volveré tarde. No me esperes levantada...
Ella se había arreglado también para acompañarle, claro. Estaba abrochándose el collar de perlas, y sintió como se le paraba el corazón. Sólo pudo contestar con la voz rota:
-Ya sabes que no me puedo dormir hasta que vuelves...
Y aquellas vaharadas de tabaco y de perfume en su ropa... aquel gesto hermético con el que la escuchaba planear una visita a los amigos o la boda de un sobrino, y la frialdad con la que le advertía:
-No cuentes conmigo, yo no iré...
Cuarenta y siete años olvidándose de pensar por sí misma, de ir y venir con él, de atender hasta sus mínimos caprichos, hablando y pensando a través de él... y todo eso no valía nada, él la había apartado sin explicaciones, como si fuera una zapatilla vieja.
Había oído tantas veces que los hombres eran así con una sonrisa incrédula y ahora le pasaba a ella. Pero no podía callar ni un día más. Necesitaba que le dijera a la cara: "Ya no te quiero."

Javier entró, dijo -"¿No duermes?"- y se fue al dormitorio sin esperar respuesta. Ella le siguió:
-Tenemos que hablar, Javier.
- ¿Ahora? ¡Estoy molido!
-Ahora. No voy a esperar más tiempo tus explicaciones... bastante he esperado ya...
Él suspiró irritado, colgó la chaqueta en el "galán de noche" y se sentó en la cama sin retirar la colcha, y sin mirarla a la cara:
-De acuerdo, ahora será: ¿qué quieres que te explique?
-Quiero que me expliques porqué haces tu vida como si yo no existiera; quiero que me expliques qué he hecho mal para que no cuentes conmigo a la hora de salir a divertirte. Quiero saber por qué quedas con tus compañeros de trabajo y con tus amigos, a cenar y a comer, y ya no me llevas. Quiero que me digas a la cara si es que ya no me quieres y qué significa para ti que durante cuarenta y siete años yo no haya ido sola a ningún sitio sin ti y, de pronto, no pueda contar contigo para nada y tú no te dignes... Quiero que me expliques en qué me he equivocado... porqué me dejas tirada como una colilla...
El llanto le atenazó la garganta y todos los sollozos que había ahogado, que había aplazado, la derrumbaron y se abatió sobre ella su debilidad, su desesperanza, su humillación.
Javier bajó la vista y murmuró sin abrazarla, harto:
- Tengo cuarenta y siete años, mamá, ya es hora de que salga solo y haga mi vida...tienes que comprenderlo...

NOTITIA CRIMINIS: EL BANCO DE ESPAÑA INTERVIENE LA CAJA DE AHORROS DE CASTILLA-LA MANCHA

Por bachillera, metijona, y catacaldos, al querer añadir el Real Decreto publicado en el BOE de 20 de marzo de 2009, me he cepillado el artículo que había publicado diciendo que los que leemos Notitia Criminis ya nos lo veíamos venir.
No tengo ganas de volver a escribirlo, así es que, para salir del paso, les recuerdo que en agosto de 2008 ya remendaba:

"Para darse una somera idea del gatuperio y el enjalmo que tienen montado en este país, aconsejo leer Notitia Criminis.
Aviso:
Sus artículos, como, por ejemplo, "Caja Castilla-La Mancha prestó 40 millones de Euros a empresas de Juan Antonio Roca"(1) no son aptos para público infantil. "
Y si, como ciudadanos dignos de serlo, quieren informarse de las trapacerías y chanchullos que han tenido a bien amparar todos los partidos políticos -el dinero sucio no tiene ideología-, y que durante años han consentido los organismos de control fiscal, contable y judicial, mientras los grandes medios de comunicación nos marean con chuminadas políticas y sucesos de crónica negra: lean y no se salten ni una coma:

BOLETÍN OFICIAL DEL ESTADO Núm. 76 Domingo 29 de marzo de 2009 Sec. I. Pág. 29864
I. DISPOSICIONES GENERALES JEFATURA DEL ESTADO
5238 Real Decreto-ley 4/2009, de 29 de marzo, por el que se autoriza la concesión de garantías derivadas de la financiación que pueda otorgar el Banco de España a favor de Caja de Ahorros de Castilla-La Mancha.

El Banco de España ha comunicado al Ministro de Economía y Hacienda que la Caja de Ahorros de Castilla-La Mancha requiere la provisión de una financiación extraordinaria para superar sus dificultades transitorias de liquidez y así posibilitar el mantenimiento de su operativa y el cumplimiento de todas sus obligaciones frente a depositantes y acreedores en general.
Con el fin de que el Banco de España pueda otorgar a la citada entidad la financiación requerida, el presente real decreto-ley autoriza la concesión de avales de la Administración General del Estado para garantizar al Banco de España las obligaciones económicas derivadas de la citada financiación.
La concesión de la citada garantía es coherente con lo dispuesto en el artículo 101 del Tratado de la Comunidad Europea y con las funciones encomendadas al Tesoro Público por la Ley 47/2003, de 26 de noviembre, General Presupuestaria, entre las que se encuentran las de contribuir al buen funcionamiento del sistema financiero nacional y responder de los avales contraídos por el Estado según las disposiciones establecidas legalmente.
El importe de las garantías que se otorgarán al amparo del presente real decreto-ley se imputarán al límite presupuestario a que hace referencia el apartado Uno del artículo 54 de la Ley 2/2008, de 23 de diciembre, de Presupuestos Generales del Estado para 2009.
También se dispone que, en caso de la eventual ejecución de las garantías, el Fondo de Garantía de Depósitos en Cajas de Ahorro reembolsará al Tesoro Público la cuantía que resulte de aplicar a la cantidad a satisfacer por éste al Banco de España el porcentaje que representen, a la entrada en vigor del presente real decreto-ley, los depósitos garantizados por el Fondo sobre las obligaciones exigibles de la entidad.
En el marco de las competencias que se asignan al Banco de España en la Ley 26/1988, de 29 de julio, de Disciplina e Intervención de Entidades de Crédito, aquel ha acordado con fecha 28 de marzo de 2009, la sustitución provisional de administradores de la entidad Caja de Ahorros de Castilla-La Mancha.

Los requisitos de extraordinaria y urgente necesidad que justifican la aprobación del presente real decreto-ley, derivan de la inmediata necesidad de asegurar que la entidad esté en condiciones de seguir cumpliendo todas sus obligaciones frente a depositantes y acreedores.
En virtud de lo anterior, y a propuesta del Vicepresidente Segundo del Gobierno y Ministro de Economía y Hacienda, en uso de la autorización concedida en el artículo 86 de la Constitución y previa deliberación del Consejo de Ministros en su reunión celebrada el 29 de marzo de 2009,
DISPONGO:
Artículo 1. Autorización del otorgamiento de garantías derivadas de la financiación que pueda otorgar el Banco de España a favor de Caja de Ahorros de Castilla-La Mancha.
Con el fin de cumplir con el ejercicio de las funciones encomendadas al Tesoro Público, en el artículo 91d) de la Ley 47/2003, de 26 de noviembre, General Presupuestaria, y de conformidad con lo dispuesto en los artículos 113 a 116 de la misma, se autoriza a la Administración General del Estado para avalar durante el ejercicio 2009 por un importe máximo de 9.000 millones de euros en garantía de las obligaciones derivadas de las financiaciones que pueda otorgar el Banco de España a Caja de Ahorros de Castilla-La Mancha.

Artículo 2. Imputación de las garantías.
Las garantías a conceder al amparo del presente real decreto-ley estarán comprendidas dentro del límite al que hace referencia el apartado Uno del artículo 54 de la Ley 2/2008, de 23 de diciembre, de Presupuestos Generales del Estado para 2009.
Artículo 3. Formalización del aval.
El Ministro de Economía y Hacienda acordará el otorgamiento de las garantías y fijará las condiciones particulares de las mismas dentro de los límites establecidos en este real decreto-ley.
Artículo 4. Obligaciones del Fondo de Garantía de Depósitos en Cajas de Ahorro.
En caso de ejecución de las garantías a las que se refiere el presente real decreto-ley, el Fondo de Garantía de Depósitos en Cajas de Ahorro reembolsará al Tesoro Público la cuantía que resulte de aplicar a la cantidad a satisfacer por el Tesoro Público al Banco de España el porcentaje que representen, a la fecha de entrada en vigor del presente real decreto-ley, los depósitos garantizados por el Fondo sobre las obligaciones exigibles de la entidad.
Disposición adicional única. Gestión de pagos por el Tesoro.
En el caso de la eventual ejecución del aval a que se refiere este real decreto-ley, se autoriza a la Dirección General del Tesoro y Política Financiera para que pueda efectuar los pagos correspondientes a las obligaciones garantizadas mediante operaciones de Tesorería con cargo al concepto específico que se fije a tal fin. Con posterioridad a su realización, la Dirección General del Tesoro y Política Financiera procederá a la aplicación definitiva al presupuesto de gastos de los pagos realizados en el ejercicio, salvo los efectuados en el mes de diciembre, que se aplicarán al presupuesto en el primer trimestre del siguiente año.
Disposición final primera. Habilitación normativa.
Se autoriza al Ministro de Economía y Hacienda para dictar las normas que resulten necesarias para la aplicación y desarrollo de lo previsto en este real decreto-ley.
Disposición final segunda. Entrada en vigor.
El presente real decreto-ley entrará en vigor el mismo día de su publicación en el «Boletín Oficial del Estado».
Dado en Madrid, el 29 de marzo de 2009.

MANUEL MINDÁN MANERO. TESTIGO DE NOVENTA AÑOS DE HISTORIA: MI COMPAÑERO JOSÉ MARÍA ESCRIBÁ

-A propósito de José Mª Escribá, y puesto que fuistéis compañeros, ¿me podrías decir algo de su personalidad de entonces?
-Sí; vino a Zaragoza a estudiar segundo curso de Teología, procedente de Logroño, en cuyo Seminario había estudiado como externo los cursos anteriores, y donde su padre era empleado de un comercio de tejidos. Era sobrino carnal de Don Carlos Albás, canónigo-arcediano del Cabildo de Zaragoza. Él no residía en mi Seminario, sino en el de San Francisco de Paula, y lo mismo que sus compañeros de residencia, tenía que venir diariamente, mañana y tarde, a las clases que se daban en el que yo vivía, que era el Pontificio. Y aunque él era algo mayor que yo, por lo menos un curso, coincidíamos en algunas clases y charlábamos fuera de ellas con frecuencia y hasta bromeábamos algunas veces.

Acerca de su personalidad, te puedo decir que era un poco más alto que yo, de facciones redondeadas y blancas, de manos gordezuelas y suaves; le gustaba ir no sólo limpio, sino perfumado; era un poco afectado en su porte, blando en sus movimientos, aunque a veces pretendía manifestarse enérgico. Era bueno y cumplidor en su comportamiento; era también piadoso, aunque su piedad tenía un cierto aire feminoide, por lo cual le llamaban de mote: la "Rosa Mística". En las clases lograba buenas notas aunque no los primeros puestos. Apenas intervino en manifestaciones culturales fuera de las clases, ni tampoco en actividades apostólicas, como las obras misionales, las organizaciones catequísticas, etc. No obtuvo ningún grado académico, ni en Filosofía ni en Teología ni en Derecho Canónico en nuestra Universidad Pontificia, pero en los últimos años se examinó de algunas asignaturas en la Facultad Civil de Derecho, pero no de todas.
Con el objeto de que te des cuenta más exacta de su modo de ser, te voy a contar dos anécdotas: para preparamos a las Órdenes, él de presbítero y yo de subdiácono, a que me he referido antes, hicimos los ejercicios espirituales preparatorios, internos en el Seminario de San Carlos. Los actos religiosos comunes, (meditaciones, pláticas, rezos, etc.) tenían lugar, no en la iglesia principal pública, sino en un oratorio privado que había en uno de los pisos superiores. Escribá solía ocupar en los bancos, un lugar junto al pasillo central, precisamente delante de mí; en cierta ocasión, al finalizar un acto en el que habíamos estado de rodillas, yo seguí de rodillas con las manos juntas apoyadas sobre el respaldo del banco de delante. Escribá se sentó, y al sentarse rozó su espalda con mis manos. Se volvió y me dijo: "Por favor, quita las manos que me deshaces". Quité las manos y no quise contestar. Pero al salir, le esperé junto a la puerta y le dije: "-Pero, ¿qué te pasa, José Mª, que te derrumbas de puro blandengue que eres?". Respuesta suya, "-¿Y qué voy hacer, si Dios me ha hecho blando y dulce como la miel de la Alcarria?". Este hecho reflejaba bien un aspecto de su temperamento .
En cierta ocasión habíamos bajado a la clase de la tarde y estábamos esperando, con relativo silencio en el Claustro, la llegada del profesor para entrar en el aula después de él. Entre tanto, llegaron los compañeros de San Francisco y como de costumbre algunos de los seminaristas de nuestro Seminario, aprovechaban estos momentos para charlar un poco con ellos. Aquella tarde uno de los nuestros, mayor que nosotros, pues era de vocación tardía, llamado Julio Cortés, que había estado algún tiempo en Hispanoamérica, se dirigió a Escribá a quien conocía de antes, porque era riojano o por lo menos había vivido en Logroño; comenzó a hablar con él en conversación algo viva, creció el tono, se oyeron palabras fuertes e incluso malsonantes, algunas acompañadas de insultos y luego pasaron a los golpes, se enzarzaron, cayeron las gafas rotas, y hubo que acudir a separarlos. Fue un pequeño escándalo que luego, en parte, pagamos todos. Los rectores de los dos Seminarios acordaron el castigo. Durante un mes a la salida de las clases de la tarde, tuvimos que reunimos las dos comunidades en la capilla de nuestro Seminario para rezar juntos el rosario. Cortés y Escribá, destacados de los demás y de rodillas, cada uno a cada lado del altar mayor dirigían el rezo.
-¿He oído decir que el P. Escribá, antes de ser sacerdote fue Director del Seminario de San Carlos?
-No, eso se funda en dos equívocos. Uno respecto al Seminario. Ya te hablé en otra ocasión de lo que era y significaba el Seminario de San Carlos. José María Escribá no perteneció nunca a dicho Seminario. Pero en los dos pisos superiores del edificio de San Carlos, estaba instalado el Seminario que había fundado el Cardenal Benavides con el nombre de "Seminario de Pobres de San Francisco de Paula". A este Seminario estuvo vinculado Escribá; el cual, en cierto modo, estaba incomunicado con el de San Carlos: tenía escalera distinta, el comedor y los servicios distintos, etc.
-¿Por qué se llamaba de Pobres? ¿Es que los que residían en él vivían gratis?
-No sé cuál sería la intención del Arzobispo fundador, pero en el tiempo a que nos referimos, la única diferencia económica que existía era, que mientras en el Pontificio se pagaban seis reales por la pensión diaria, en el de San Francisco se pagaban sólo cinco. El otro equívoco se refiere al cargo de Director. Ordinariamente llamamos Director a quién dirige una empresa, una institución o un centro. En nuestro caso se designaba con este nombre a los auxiliares del Rector, encargados de vigilar el orden y la disciplina de los alumnos. En el Seminario de San Francisco había un Rector, que era nombrado por el Arzobispo y solía haber dos Directores-Vigilantes, propuestos por el Rector, entre los seminaristas mayores que ya vestían manteos, y que reunían unas ciertas condiciones. Este es el cargo que tuvo Escribá.

-También se ha dicho que procedía de familia noble. ¿Qué me dices de esto?

-A él le gustaba presumir de condición familiar superior a la de sus compañeros y solía hacerse el señorito; quizá por esto los demás le tildaban de "pijaito" (Pijaito: en lenguaje aragonés significa: señoritingo, petimetre, que presume afectadamente de posición o de riqueza, y adopta actitudes y comportamientos que no le corresponden.) Algunos biógrafos de Escribá han querido explicar este concepto que se tenía de él, por el hecho supuesto de que los seminaristas compañeros solían ser de condición pueblerina y casi todos hijos de labriegos, y que por lo tanto eran inferiores a él en finura y modos sociales. Pero esto sólo sería verdad en algunos casos que no llegarían a formar ambiente. No todos los estudiantes del Seminario eran aldeanos; había muchachos de poblaciones importantes como Alcañiz y Caspe, y de capitales como Pamplona y Zaragoza que no tenían nada que envidiar a Logroño. Ni todos eran campesinos: había hijos de comerciantes como él, de maestros y profesores, de farmacéuticos y médicos. Había también un grupo de jóvenes navarros y alaveses, de familias bien acomodadas, que venían a estudiar para prepararse a recibir los grados. Este afán de presumir de apellido y de familia le duró toda la vida; llegó un momento que comenzó a hacerse llamar Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer, juntando sus dos nombres de pila y añadiéndose de Balaguer, que da un cierto sabor de nobleza. Han dicho que tenía derecho a hacerlo; pero lo cierto es que ni sus padres ni sus abuelos lo usaron. Más aún, luego le buscan y le encuentran un título nobiliario: el de marqués de Peralta, que tampoco utilizaron sus abuelos ni sus bisabuelos, pero él lo asume y lo ostenta (El título de marqués de Peralta fue concedido según unos por el Archiduque Carlos, pretendiente a la Corona de España en la Guerra de Sucesión, según otros por el Rey Felipe V a D. Tomás Peralta, Secretario de Estado, Justicia y Guerra del Reino de Nápoles. Lo rehabilita en 1968 D. José María Escribá. Creo que hay en Aragón varias docenas de personas vinculadas al apellido Peralta que hubieran gozado de mayor derecho para la rehabilitación. Ninguno de los ascendiente de José María lo ostentó).
Y me pregunto, ¿por qué asumirlo y ostentarlo? Se me hace duro creer que tratándose de un sacerdote, obedeciese a una tentación de vanidad social. No sé de ningún sacerdote que aun teniendo claro derecho, haya hecho cosa semejante. Debió haber otros fines que yo no acierto a comprender. Pero para el que pretenda hacer obras mundanas, tal vez le vayan bien condiciones y títulos nobiliarios, pero para el que intenta hacer "Obra de Dios", no sólo sobran sino que entorpecen y escandalizan. Me acuerdo, a propósito, de San Francisco de Borja y de tantos otros Santos, que no sólo descendían de nobles, sino que ejercieron brillantemente la nobleza; pero en cuanto se convirtieron a la llamada del Señor, abandonaron toda sombra de vanidad, para abrazarse, despojándose de todo, a la cruz desnuda de Cristo. Quizá por eso varios años después, mejor aconsejado, renunció al título en favor de su hermano; pero el daño estaba ya hecho.

-Como sabrás, Escribá está en camino de ser beatificado.

-Lo sé, pero eso no hace que deje de ser verdad todo lo que te he dicho. Desde luego, Escribá no era un malvado, como algunos han pensado; pero también creo que las cosas que de él te he contado son incompatibles con la virtud heróica que, al menos antes, se exigía para iniciar el proceso de beatificación. Creo más bien que era un buen sacerdote sujeto a dos pasiones dominantes: la de presumir de alta alcurnia y la de dominio y mando sobre los demás.

-Entonces, ¿crees que la Iglesia se precipita al dar este paso, como han pensado ya algunos ilustres eclesiásticos?
-Yo no diría que la Iglesia se precipita, sino que está apremiada y acosada por la impaciencia de los partidarios del P. Escribá, que quieren ver oficialmente santificado a su fundador, aun a costa de que no se hagan las minuciosas investigaciones que aseguren totalmente una perfecta santidad. Hay que admitir, y yo lo admito, lo que disponga la Iglesia. Pocas beatificaciones ha habido, en que tantas personas respetables hayan expresado su extrañeza frente a dicha precipitación. En la revista ÉPOCA -Núm. 363, 10 de febrero de 1992, pág. 20-,el padre Rafael Pérez, agustino, presidente o promotor de la causa de beatificación de José María Escribá, dice: "el título de marqués de Peralta pertenecía a su padre". Lo cierto es que ni su padre ni ninguno de sus antepasados directos lo usó ni probablemente supieron nada de ese título. Desde el primer titular nadie lo ostentó, hasta que lo rehabilitó José María. También dice que "A las 24 horas lo había traspasado (el título) a su hermano pequeño". Esto es francamente falso; todos sabemos y somos testigos de que José María ostentó el título de marqués durante unos cuatro años. Otra cosa es que a posteriori se hayan hecho documentos con fechas convenientes. Ahora, que un hombre que desdibuja de este modo la verdad sea el promotor o presidente de la causa, da que pensar. Por mi parte debo decir que nada tengo contra el que fue mi compañero de Seminario, pero, desde luego el Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer, ex-marqués de Peralta, poco tiene que ver con el José María Escribá Albas que yo entonces conocí.

ANTONIO MORENO ALFARO, EXPLICA CUÁNTO NOS FACTURARON DE MÁS EN EL RECIBO DE LA ELECTRICIDAD

Nuestro héroe, Antonio Moreno Alfaro, en su página web www.estafaluz.com explica pormenorizadamente cómo comprobar y calcular CUÁNTO NOS HAN FACTURADO DE MÁS LA COMPAÑÍA ELÉCTRICA EN ENERO DE 2009. Y cómo reclamar
El gobierno del PSOE es cómplice de la estafa continuada de las compañías eléctricas a los consumidores; como lo fueron, antes, el gobierno del PP, los tribunales, los políticos electos que han votado en contra de los intereses de sus representados, y una ciudadanía amodorrada que continúa aceptando los abusos con resignación y fatalismo, y cuanto más se agacha, más se le ve.

ODA A LA ALEGRÍA EN PRIMAVERA

¿Y a mí qué cojón me importa lo que usted siente y opina?
Cuéntele a su vecina
ese pastiche de almorta.

¿Está usted muy deprimido?
Beba anís en cantidad.
Pero tenga usted piedad:

Reprímase su gemido

¿Ha leído usted a Benet?
¿Le gusta mucho Strawinsky?
Pues le falta la Lewinsky para hacer de Caganet

¿Es de derechas o izquierda, nuclear o ecologista?
Pues quítese de mi vista
Lo mejor es que se pierda

¿Le duele este perro mundo?
¿Le maltrata el universo?
Pues escríbalo en un verso
y jódase, Segismundo

Si le deprime el futuro, si no le encuentra razón
coja usted un buen tazón
y llénelo de cianuro.

IL DIVO: GIULIO ANDREOTTI

Il Divo, (2008), dirigida por Paolo Sorrentino, relata, en tono sarcástico y satírico, y con fuertes contraluces, el paso de Giulio Andreotti por la política italiana y su presunta relación con la mafia.
Esta película concursó en el Festival de Cine de Cannes, recibió una ovación de casi diez minutos,y fue galardonada con el Gran Premio del Jurado.

Epigramas de Giulio Andreotti:

"Está en los evangelios: cuando a Jesucristo se le preguntaba por la verdad, él nunca respondía”.
"En las novelas policiacas siempre se encuentra al culpable, en la vida real casi nunca ocurre”.
"La mezquindad de un hombre bueno es muy peligrosa”.
"El tirano más difícil de odiar es uno mismo”.
"Soy un hombre mediano, pero cuando miro a mi alrededor no veo ningún gigante”.
"Pensar mal de tu prójimo es un pecado, pero un acierto”.
"El poder desgasta, sobre todo, cuando no se tiene."
"Gobernar no consiste en resolver problemas, sino en hacer callar a quienes los plantean."
"No tengo vicios menores”.
"En la carrera de la imparcialidad siempre nos quedamos a medio camino."
"Lo que realmente se quiere mantener en secreto no debería contarse ni a uno mismo"
"No es fácil explicar nuestro país a los extranjeros. En Italia, los trenes más lentos se llaman rápidos, y el Corriere della Sera (noticias de la tarde) sale por la mañana”.
“El poder es solamente facilidad de expresión.

LA VOLUNTAD DE ESTILO

En mis tiempos, había una norma de elegancia que se llamaba el método de los 21 botones: por ejemplo, un traje de chaqueta y falda, (2 botones) estampado en cuatro colores (+ 4) con frunces o tableado en la falda, (+1) cinco botones en la chaqueta, (+5) dos bolsillos (+2), con un bolso con cierre dorado (1+1) y un par de sandalias con cierre de hebillas(2+2), significaba que sólo admitiría una joya, un único adorno, ni siquiera un par de pendientes en las orejas, para no caer en la chabacanería.

Cuando leo a los autores con voluntad de estilo, esos que intentan deslumbrar con metáforas de osada factura, con una adjetivación excesiva, superlativa, y aliteración de ideas y sucesos heterogéneos, que enjaretan al hilo del relato, echo en falta el método de los 21 botones, aplicado a la literatura. Y tampoco estaría de más que a las virtudes cardinales de prudencia, justicia, fortaleza y templanza, se añadieran la sobriedad y la contención.

Ornato del texto mediante adición:

"María besó a Juan" —diría el clásico. El autor con voluntad de estilo jamás se atrevería a dejar que la acción del sujeto recaiga sobre Juan sin más aditivos, sin decir que su boca se entreabrió, y su lengua —que no olvidará de calificar de húmeda— acarició los labios y se introdujo como si fuera un viajero que llega a Itaca descalzo…

Los lectores somos buenos, somos pacientes, tenemos cierta propensión a la benevolencia con quien nos describe con premiosa precisión la mecánica del ósculo o la del sonajero, paso a paso, por si la hubiéramos olvidado o no la hubiéramos aprendido. No contento, el autor con voluntad de estilo adorna el beso con ojos entrecerrados, respiración agitada: y acaba con un crescendo donde se decline el verbo morir: ya sea muriéndose de deseo o de ganas o de amor, ya sea dejando morir el día tras los visillos o sintiéndose morir de felicidad. El autor suma y suma y suma adjetivos, adverbios y metáforas sin ton ni son, con la loca certeza de que nadie va a poner pies en pared y le va a preguntar a cuento de qué mete a un viajero sin zapatos y a Itaca en un vulgar beso, como todos los besos, y por qué no puede decir "María besó a Juan" y confiar en nuestra inteligencia.

Repetición:

El autor con voluntad de estilo no acabaría ahí, sino que repetiría tantas veces como fuera preciso hasta convertir un beso en un ritornello ascendente y redundante: María lo besó con dulzura, dejando que su lengua y sus labios acariciaran como plumas de miraguano la boca de Juan; y lo besó con furia, aplastando sus labios y usando su lengua con determinación; lo besó mordisqueando sus labios… hasta que el lector, ahíto, baja la mirada y busca el siguiente punto y aparte.

Ampliación:

El autor con voluntad de estilo en este punto y aparte no ceja, sino que ofrece una ampliación discursiva: María, mientras besa, piensa, sí, en su infancia, a ser posible recordará sus incursiones eróticas con un primo afectuoso o brutal, sus recovecos mentales con disquisiciones sobre Bruckner o Wittgenstein, o la última vez que se cambió de casa y pintó las paredes de amarillo, y notó el sabor de un gotazo de pintura en sus labios… porque no hay autor con voluntad de estilo que ignore y no explote las posibilidades de la sinestesia. Y en su ayuda, para infatuar el texto, acude a la tradición descriptiva del paisaje, y describe el lunar en la espalda, las cortinas adamascadas, el tono de la piel y del cabello, de los ojos, del tipo de tristeza o de alegría, con referentes literarios, incisos entresacados de las enciclopedias sobre los utensilios, los oficios olvidados, las labores de aguja o el arte etrusco, incluidos con heterogénea impropiedad mientras María y Juan se besan, y el lector cae en la cuenta de que va por la página cuarenta, y ese beso, santo Dios, es un antídoto de la lujuria.

El autor con voluntad de estilo logrará colmar su pulsión grafómana si, a propósito del beso, embriagado por su talento, nos endilga un tratado sobre esa cavidad limitada por los labios, los carrillos, la bóveda del paladar, el suelo de la boca, los pilares del paladar y la úvula o campanilla, la lengua, los dientes, las glándulas salivares, y acudirá a la histología, a la fisiología y a lo que sea menester con tal de no caer en la vulgaridad de exponer un hecho, de todos conocido, sin hacerlo con la prosopopeya de quien describe un continente inexplorado.

Lo que se corresponde con la traca ascendente de unos fuegos artificiales, viene a ser la adición enfática, la acumulación de adjetivos y recursos oratorios sobre gradatio para decir lo dicho anteriormente, y usará la metáfora, la metonimia, el sinécdoque, la anadiplosis, la alegoría, la antítesis, la dilogía, la hipálage, el hipérbaton, y escribirá algo así:

Sus labios como una patria perdida y encontrada, bocas en la que se refugian y se buscan. Alma tibia, húmeda y exacta. Labio donde se halla la verdad y la paz y la ternura. Oh, sexo facial , eros sin saña, sí, cabalgadura y freno, amor al límite, ilimitado. Noche yemal con sus vahos y sus dulces comas. Barrio Malesherbes. Gabinete oblongo. En la profundidad de las alfombras, de cicloides, abigarramientos en los frunces de las tapicerías, y, apiadándose, la inflexión de las voces. La muerte no es un himno sino un beso…

Pueden continuar hasta la extenuación, porque lo importante es que el lector descuidado llegue a la conclusión de que ha de tratarse de alguien que escribe muy bien, ya que dice cosas que no se le ocurren a cualquiera y, además, no tienen demasiado sentido. Ése es el truco.

Si a esto se añade el recurrido y socorrido truco de hablar alternativamente en primera o segunda o tercera persona, en masculino y en femenino, ora en plural ora en singular, para poder dar al crítico la ocasión de ensalzar la riqueza, la complejidad y la multiplicidad de registros, planos y lecturas, la estructura de bucle, y decir que esos universos semánticos suponen un auténtico reto para el lector, frases que suele utilizar de forma recurrente para otorgar el diploma de exquisitez a los autores y a los lectores, y, lo más interesante, tener contento al dueño del periódico y al de la editorial del fenómeno literario de turno.

Y por lo que más quiera, maestro dÈrsu, no identifique usted la sabia utilización del adjetivo, el uso de la elipsis narrativa, la idoneidad de los recursos estilísticos, y el homenaje que usted hace a la inteligencia del lector, con esa gárrula voluntad de estilo que me hace chirriar los dientes, y desearle al autor tantos latigazos como palabras innecesarias haya usado con desconsiderada prolijidad.

MUJERES

La mujer latina tiene la misma carga erótica que una santa pintada por Kiko Argüello, y merece la misma consideración intelectual y artística.

La mujer latina se ha instalado en ese limbo vital que es el victimismo, gracias al cual no tiene responsabilidad de sus actos, ni de sus decisiones, ni de su papel en la historia. Ha elevado lo emocional y la degradación sentimental a categorías de antinomias kantianas.

La mujer latina es profundamente inculta, mentalmente perezosa, y ha elegido la reivindicación de la ignorancia y de la incompetencia como recurso retórico de la captatio benevolentiae. En lugar de enterarse para qué sirve esa porción de sesos llamada lóbulo frontal (y, de paso el resto del cerebro), nos da la paliza, inmisericorde, con el relato pormenorizado de su vida personal, su costumbrismo de la cotidianeidad, y su falta de respeto por la inteligencia ajena.

La mujer latina ha convertido su relación filial, fraternal, de pareja, y maternal, en el carburante inagotable para sus alifafes, y para ese martirologio vomitivo que cuenta, detalla, rumia, regurgita y pormenoriza, como un endiablado encaje de bolillos, filtiré y punto repulgo de su inanidad.

Hay una porción de la humanidad que mira al universo y al fondo de los mares, que observa el fin de un mundo y el nacimiento de otro, que investiga, indaga, descubre y se apasiona despejando las incognitas de la vida y la materia. A la mujer latina sólo le interesa su propia parusía vindicativa y lacrimógena: ese bendito día en el que se le reconozca que las demás mujeres son unas furcias envidiosas, su novio no la entiende, su hijo no la quiere, su padre la desprecia, su jefe la discrimina, y los hombres la maltratan, pero ella se merece la luna...

Y siempre, con bisutería de más y una talla de menos.

Yo soy mujer latina, y difero de la opinion del articulista. Habla de la mujer latina como un ser inculto y falto de inteligencia, lo cual NO es cierto, porque brutas hay en todos lados. ¿O no??

Por eso mismo este artículo del tema "personal y arbitrario" lo titulé "Mujeres", en general, para que se aplique a cualquier mujer que, como la mayoría de las latinas, aburra con su egocentrismo inmisericorde a quien esté provisto de oídos.

Y no hacía falta que dijera usted que es latina: se nota en el uso de las mayúsculas sin respeto por la honesta ortografía, y en el interrogativo-exclamativo de cierre como recurso retórico.

¿O qué?

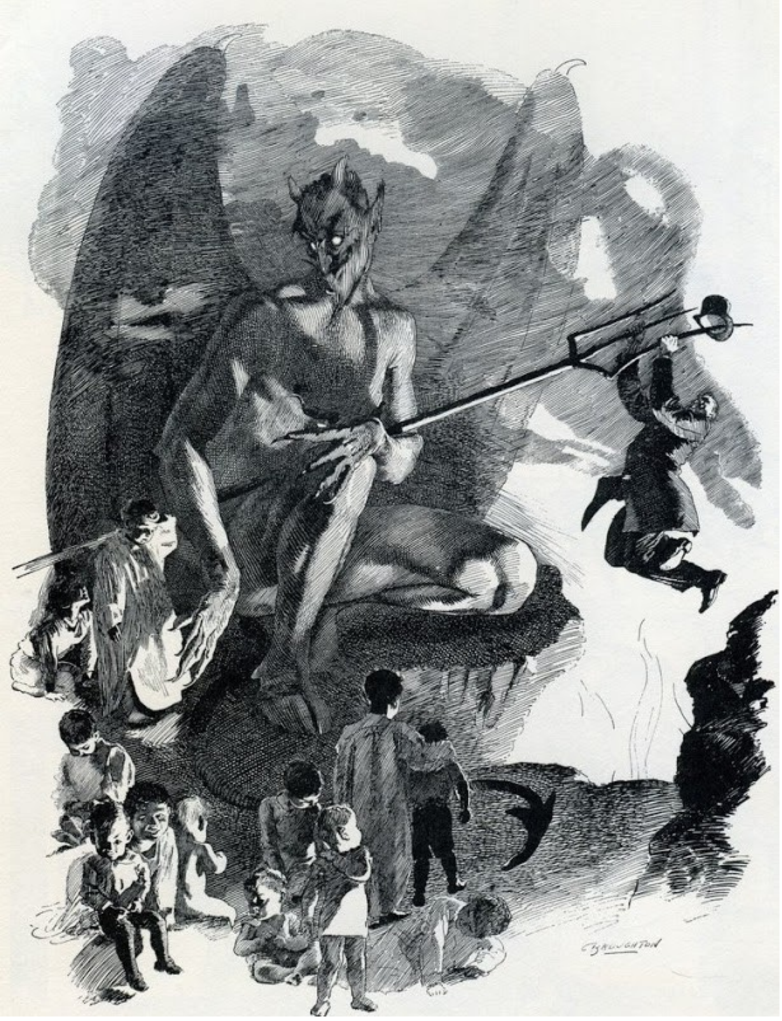
LA MELAZA MÍSTICA Y EL ASPARTAMO EMOCIONAL



No hay nada como transgredir todas las leyes de la más elemental humanidad, haberle pegado fuego a cualquier noción de ética, y ser un malnacido, o una absoluta nulidad amorfa, para descubrir, cuando vienen mal dadas, que existe lo que pomposamente llaman vida interior y espiritualidad.

La melodía varía; pero la letra se parece mucho: es un soniquete en el que la divinidad y el alma se condimentan con ideales aptos para una catequesis dirigida por residentes de un frenopático. En su modesta opinión, Dios resulta ser una especie de gurú new age que se preocupa apasionadamente por las deposiciones anímicas, y los desmelenes biográficos de sus pequeños, a los que les suministra, como verdad revelada e incuestionable, refranes bíblicos, aforismos orientales, apotegmas egotistas, y proverbios dignos del buen Juanito, en un popurrí donde se mezclan, al buen tuntún, los Vedas, J.J. Benitez, el Chilam Balám, Oupenski, los Brahmanas, Iker Jiménez, los gnósticos, Krishnamurti, San Malaquías, los Upanishads, Madame Blavatski, Nostradamus, el Mahābhārata el Popol Vuh, Platón, Castaneda, los Quichés, el libro de Urantia, el esoterismo y el exoterismo, las leyendas celtas, y los remedios y consejas de la abuela.

Además, por mucho que estos nuevos creyentes tengan serias dificultades para comprender y retener los conocimientos de Filosofía, Matemáticas, Química y Física de un bachiller no muy espabilado, hablan con total desfachatez del diagnóstico mediante la lectura del iris y el color del aura, de la homeopatía, del magnetismo, del cuarzo, del

Tao, del Zen, de las teorías científicas del doctor Hamer, de los enteógenos, del tunel y los guías de luz en el umbral de la muerte, de la reencarnación, la antimateria, los viajes astrales, y como guinda, no puede faltar en este batiburrillo, la teoría cuántica.

Da igual que sean más bordes que la grama o más tontos que Pichote: son como los Legionarios de Cristo o los miembros del Opus Dei, pencos convencidos de formar parte decisiva y consciente del plan de Dios, y tienen esa misma sonrisa, más falsa que el alma de Judas, su melosa complacencia y su beligerante fraternidad edulcorada.

La hiperglucemia y la hipertensión que me provocan la melaza mística y el aspartamo emocional de estos mendas es el origen de este irreprimible deseo de patearles el culo y partirles la jeta, que me llevará, cualquier día de estos, de cabeza a la cárcel y al infierno.

La melaza mistica y edulcorada, es el efecto de una causa. La causa un cauce de optimismo y apertura emocional, que transporta a los afectados a una infantil pero inocente llama de consumo mistico. Una especie de catarsis intelectual de obligado paso, abismos de muchos. Refugio pantanoso meloso de los que se quedaron atrapados en un snobismo sin sustancia.

El infinito y la cara oculta de las posibilidades perceptivas no estan alabasto de la melosia, como tampoco de la critica literaria agresiva y violenta al projimo.

Ambos se quedan en ningun lado, unos colgados de la "AGE" con sonrisas orientales, y los otros en la perfida actitud del cinismo y la mala educacion.

Aunque ambos saben que mas alla de las formas, la vida palpita sobrepasando a la mas creativa fantasia, es un concmiento silencioso y con unos efectos a la vista.

Tu no eres un gato ni siquiera pardo, tampoco meloso, simplemente un perdedor que no alcanzara ha vislumbrar mas que lo obvio de una catarsis mistica deficiente, esta tan a la vista........

Lo otro requiere otras cualidades.

MODUS VIVENDI

Yo vivo
como quien busca un galeón hundido en alta mar, día tras día,
sin brújula y sin norte,
con un viejo mapa desgarrado como única certeza, que reproduce a escala el último fraude
y la atroz belleza del primer fracaso.
Yo escribo concelebrando la inicua naturaleza de lo inane, sin fe y sin liturgia, cuando todo es silencio alrededor

y nada significa alinear las palabras:
la única ascesis a mi alcance,
a falta de algún viaje a ningún sitio
o de un apasionado amor, que olvidaré enseguida, como siempre, porque no se parece a Pío Baroja ni a don César de Echagüe.

EL MORO BÚCAR ANTE VALENCIA

8

a)

Velo, velo viene el moro,
  ya viene por la calzada, mirando iba a Valencia
  como está tan bien cercada:
-¡Oh Valencia, oh Valencia,
  de fuego fueras quemada, primero fuiste de moros

que de cristianos ganada!
Cuando tú eras de moros,
eras de plata labrada,
ahora que eres de cristianos ni de piedra mal tallada.
Si mi espada no se quiebra
y el caballo no me falla, antes que venga la noche
a moros serás tornada
y a ese perro de Ruy Cid lo arrastraré por la barba.
Su mujer Jimena Gómez
será la mi cautivada
y su hija doña Urraca
será mi enamorada,
la otra hija más chiquita
tendrá que hacernos la cama.
Ruy Cid bien lo estaba oyendo de altas torres donde estaba:
-Asómate, hija mía,
de pechos a esa ventana, detenme a ese perro moro
de palabras en palabras,
las palabras sean pocas,
pero de amores cercanas.
-¿Cómo le hablaré de amores?
¡yo de amores no sé nada!-
-Bienvenido seas, morillo, buena sea tu llegada.
Siete años había, siete,
que por ti visto delgada.
-Y otros tantos hay, señora,
que por ti no rapo barba;
si eso me dices de veras,
échate de la ventana,
te recogeré en mis brazos
o en haldas de la mi capa.
Yo traigo un anillo de oro
en la punta de mi lanza:
mujer que tenga este anillo
nunca morirá encintada;
hombre que tenga esta espada nunca morirá en campaña.
-Vete de ahí, perro moro, no digas que te fui falsa, que en las cuadras del mi padre
un caballo se ensillaba,
no sé si es para ir a moros,
no sé si es para ir a caza,
cuando Babieca relincha,
o ensilla o cabalga.
-No tengo miedo a Babieca ni al Cid ni a su armada, si Babieca corre mucho,

  mi yegua mejor volaba;
que no hay caballo ninguno que tras de mi yegua vaya, si no fuera un potrezuelo que se me perdió en Granada.
-Ese potrezuelo, moro,
  mi padre le da cebada.- Estando en estas razones,
  el su padre que asomaba:
-¡Buenos días, el mi yerno,
  larga ha sido tu tardada,
mas, antes de que lo seas,
  hemos de jugar la espada!-
Deja los caminos anchos
  y tira por las aradas.
-¡Mal haya sea el labrador que hizo tamaña labrada!-
Donde pon la yegua el pie, pone Babieca la pata.
-¡Oh mal haya sea el potro
  a su madre maltrataba!
-¡Oh mal haya sea la madre que a su hijo no esperaba!- Al pasar el Río Verde, le tiraba una lanzada;
la lanza quedó en el cuerpo
  y el palo cayó al agua.

b)

-¡Oh Valencia, oh Valencia,
  de fuego seáis abrasada, que antes fuiste de moros
  que de cristianos ganada!
No pasará mucho tiempo,
  de moros seréis tornada.
A ese que llaman el Cid lo he de prender por la barba y le tengo de hacer
  molinero de la hogaña,
y su mujer guapa y rica
  la he de tener por esclava
y su hija la menor
  la que me haga la cama
y su hija doña Urraca
  ha de ser mi enamorada.- Oídolo había el buen Cid
  de su sala donde estaba, dados de oro tiene en mano
  y al suelo los arrojara:
- Levántate tú, Urraca,
  espejo en que me miraba,

quítate paños de siempre
   y ponte los de la Pascua, con agua de esa redoma
   arrebólate la cara
hasta que saques el rostro como espada acicalada;
con ciento de tus doncellas asómate a la ventana,
y a ese moro que allí viene entreténmelo en palabras, mientras ensillo a Babieca
   y doy un filo a mi lanza;
las palabras sean pocas
   y de amor sean tocadas.
-¿Cómo lo haré, mi padre,
   que de amor no entiendo nada?
-Yo te enseñaré, mi hija,
   como si fueras usada.-
-Dios te guarde, el morito, que venís por la cañada.
-Alá te guarde, señora,
   a ese balcón asomada.
-Siete años, el morito,
   que por ti no duermo en cama ni como pan en manteles ni me sirven mis criadas.
-Y otros tantos, mi señora, que por ti ciño la espada.-
Él metió mano a su pecho
   y ha sacado una granada, que los cascos eran de oro,
   y los granos de esmeralda.
-Si no fuera por temor,
   en tus brazos me arrojara.
-Arrójese, la señora,
   la recibiré en mi halda.-
Ellos en estas palabras,
   Babieca que relinchara.
-¡Traición, traición, mi señora traición me tenéis armada!
-No soy falsa, el morito,
   por la fe de ser cristiana, los caballos que relinchan es por falta de cebada
y si no serán los mozos, que vendrán a echarles agua.-
Ellos en estas palabras,
   el Cid que a ellos llegaba.
Ha salido el moro a huir que los vientos no le alcanzan.
El Cid llegando al falucho, morito ya pasaba.

Este romance, del cual aún tuve la fortuna de oir y anotar una versión oral en el pueblo fronterizo de Nuez (Aliste), después de asistir a un Auto de Reyes popular, en las Navidades de 1947/48, combina dos escenas de la gesta de “Mio Cid”: aquella en que el Rey Búcar envía al Cid un amenazador mensaje recordándole que Valencia fue de sus abuelos y la de la persecución por el Cid del moro derrotado en batalla hasta las orillas del mar. La primera no ha llegado a nosotros en verso, pues coincide con una de las páginas perdidas del manuscrito del poema épico y, por tanto, sólo conocemos su asunto gracias al resumen que de ella hizo Alfonso X, en la “Versión crítica” de su Estoria de España, según otro manuscrito análogo al conservado.

Aparte, la transición de la doble escena desde las épica al romancero resulta oscurecida por otros hechos: desde luego, porque no es posible reconstruir el arquetipo del romance, ya que, antes de la primera versión de él publicada circularon otras con versos y motivos distintos, de las que sólo conocemos citas de versos sueltos. Y, sobre todo, porque de las refundiciones épicas posteriores a la vieja gesta de “Mio Cid” de 1144, milagrosamente conservada en un códice del siglo XIV, sólo sabemos lo que deja entrever de ellas la historiografía posterior a Alfonso, y esas crónicas combinan la tradición épica con una “Historia del Cid” de corte hagiográfico escrita por un monje de Cardeña para atraer peregrinos a su monasterio, quien, en vez de prosificar fielmente el poema épico que utilizaba, conforme había hecho Alfonso X con el poema primitivo, lo glosó y manipuló a su gusto. De resultas, los detalles en que las crónicas más tardías recuerdan, en una y otra escena épica, pormenores más cercanos a los de la narración romancística que los propios del “Mio Cid” de 1144 no sabemos qué origen tienen: ¿épico?, ¿cronístico?, ¿romancístico?

Más clara es ya la historia del propio romance, su conservación y evolución a lo largo de cinco siglos de vida oral, pasando de memoria en memoria. El primer texto completo del romance que conocemos se debe a que un poeta del primer tercio del siglo XVI, Francisco de Lora, dispuesto a lucir sus habilidades versificatorias, se entretuvo en glosar, “por la más nueva arte”, “el más viejo romance” que había oído, ya que su glosa fue impresa en un Pliego suelto de aquellos que cualquier lector podía permitirse comprar en una feria dado su bajo precio. Del Pliego suelto lo extrajo, en 1548, el impresor de Amberes Martin Nucio para incluirlo, sin la glosa, en su “Cancionero de Romances”, arreglándolo con la adición de 14 octosílabos inventados por el corrector. Pero, con anterioridad y con posterioridad a la glosa de Francisco de Lora, versos sueltos del romance, con variantes discordantes respecto a las del romance impreso en el Pliego suelto, eran citados (o parodiados) por poetas portugueses como Pedro d’Almeida (1516), Gil Vicente (1532) o Jorge Ferreira de Vasconcelos (1547), lo cual nos pone de manifiesto una transmisión oral del romance muy extendida, ya que no sólo era muy conocido en España sino en Portugal. Entre las abundantes citas del romance en el siglo XVII, hay dos que se destacan por darnos a conocer versos ajenos al texto divulgado en Pliegos sueltos y Cancioneros del siglo XVI, la de Gonzalo Correas (1630) y la de una “Comedia de las haçañas del Cid y su muerte con la tomada de Valencia” (publicada en Lisboa, 1603, y reimpresa ese mismo año en Madrid), donde se dramatiza su texto recordando muchos de sus versos. Lo más interesante de estas citas es el hallar en ellas versos y motivos ajenos a la versión glosada por Francisco de Lora que tienen correspondencia en la tradición oral del romance llegada hasta los siglos XIX y XX.

En la tradición oral moderna, se han recogido versiones portuguesas (tanto en el Norte de Portugal como en el Sur y en las islas atlánticas), zamoranas (en Aliste y en Sanabria), leonesas, andaluzas (de la tradición gitana), judeo-españolas (de Marruecos y Orán) y catalanas. Basándome en ellas, me he decidido a ofrecer dos textos: el primero recoge la herencia del noroeste peninsular, el segundo la de las tres últimas tradiciones citadas, atendiendo a la fundamental divergencia que se observa en unas y otras entre la posibilidad de que la hija del Cid llegue a enternecerse ante la galantería del joven moro o lo engañe hasta el final desmintiendo su acusación de traición.

La tradición oral de tan diversas comunidades de cantores coincide, frente a la vieja versión oída por Francisco de Lora, en haber dotado a la hija del Cid de una voz propia, desde el momento en que su padre le exige atraer con palabras amorosas al moro y ella protesta su inexperiencia en amores. La escena del "diálogo amoroso" entre la doncella y el galante moro se ha apoderado del tema. Ese nuevo foco de la narración es ya patente en la versión acogida en la Comedia de 1603, donde, como es la norma en las versiones tradicionales modernas, aparece la instrucción cidiana "las palavras sean pocas / y a-que-has de amor tocadas" (aunque sin la réplica de la hija) y la advertencia de la doncella "váyaste el moro de hay / non digas que te fui falsa / que mi padre el Cid Ruy Dias / hoy a encillado, hoi cavalga", así como el poner en boca del moro galanteador la comparación "que si bien corre Bavieca / mi yegua buela sin alas", que en otros textos (en Portugal en 1516 y 1547 y en España en 1630) se documenta como un hecho objetivo en la persecución del moro por el Cid.

Aunque el proceso novelizador de la escena épica arranque desde la propia creación del romance y haya avanzado progresivamente para dar lugar a lo escenificado en 1603, la creatividad colectiva ha seguido después operando en esa misma dirección, haciendo que el motivo narrativo de la competencia de las cabalgaduras sea, cada vez más, anticipado como parte argumental del "diálogo amoroso" y que la famosa increpación de Babieca a la yegua, "rebentar devría la madre / que a su hijo no esperava", se explique en medio de la conversación de la doncella y el galante moro, suponiendo para el "potro" cidiano una inesperada filiación.

Con todo, aunque en el curso de su vida oral la trama de la doble escena épica esté lejos de haberse fosilizado y en su variación esté la clave de que siguiera siendo atractiva para nuevas generaciones de cantores, subsiste en el romance del siglo XX un componente esencial del episodio épico del siglo XII: la burlona actitud del Cid respecto a su engreido y confiado enemigo, que en el viejo poema se subrayaba con sus palabras de saludo a Búcar:

> -Acá torna, Búcar, venist d'alent mar,
> verte as con el Cid, el de la barba grant, > saludar nos hemos amos e tajaremos amistad.

EL CORTE INGLÉS: INFORME SABI AÑO 2008: MÁS DE 7.800 DESPIDOS EN UN AÑO

Como confirma el SABI (Sistema de Análisis de Balances Ibéricos), El Corte Inglés había despedido 7.844 empleados entre febrero de 2007 (105.172 empleados) y febrero 2008 (97.328 empleados)

¿Algún amable sindicalista nos puede indicar la cifra exacta de empleados despedidos en estos últimos doce meses?

¿O les tendremos que informar nosotros, que no cobramos las subvenciones del Estado ni las cotizaciones de sus afiliados?

Sacar conclusiones precipitadas y no contrastar los comentarios, lleva, a veces, a quedar con el "culo al aire". Lo más sonado en los últimos tiempos ha sido el video que el Gran Wyoming a "colado" Intereconomía.
Si tratar de igualar el hecho, el comentario sobre los "despidos" de El Corte Inglés es falaz, ya que se deducen de comparar dos cifras anuales que no son homogeneas por error del "SABI", ya que los 97.328 EMPLEOS de 2008 equivalen a más de 110.000 trabajadores, mientras que los 105.172 trabajadores de 2007 equivalen a poco más de 94.000 EMPLEOS. ¿Se entiende?

Esperamos que nuestra respuesta haya sido considerada amable, y si no, en todo caso, educada.

1º Demuestre documentalmente que SABI está equivocado.
2º Demuestre documentalmente la equivalencia empleo/trabajador.
3º Aporte nº de trabajadores despedidos que consta en los archivos de su sindicato, que espero estén más actualizados que sus páginas web.
4º Repásese los artículos del Derecho Laboral sobre qué es un ERE y las diferencias legales y jurídicas con el despido masivo.
5º Aporte información legal y transparente de las subvenciones que recibe Comisiones Obreras, el sueldo de sus liberados y balance de cuentas de la Organización. Eso lo puede hacer en su página web y, así, tiene algo que decir.

6º Ahórrese las referencias televisivas para el corro de marujas que son ustedes.

En el "Informe Anual del Ejercicio 2007, que el Consejo de Administración de El Corte Inglés, S.A. somete a la aprobación de la Junta General de Accionistas, convocada para el día 31 de agosto de 2008", (firmado y rubricado por Isidoro Álvarez) dice:
"Se han creado 4.800 puestos de trabajo, que sitúan la plantilla total en 109.800 personas".
En el informe Anual del Ejercicio 2006, dice "Se han creado 4.390 nuevos puestos de trabajo, con lo cual la plantilla a jornada completa ascendía al cierre del ejercicio a 96.871 trabajadores.", (frente a los 92.481 del informe del año 2005)

¿Es que los informes Anuales están falseados?

Según CCOO en 2007 hay 105.172 trabajadores ¿en qué mes? ¿Cuál es el número exacto de personas empleadas a tiempo completo en ECI, a fecha de hoy?

¿No se habrán tragado los sindicatos varios miles de despidos sin las garantías jurídicas que representa un expediente de regulación de empleo?

Y no se preocupe por la amabilidad y educación de su respuesta, esas son características que la patronal suele valorar mucho en sus lacayos: pero nosotros lo que valoramos en nuestros interlocutores, es el rigor intelectual, la valentía, y la integridad sin monerías, aunque sean más bastos que el barro de hacer bacines. Aquí no vendemos nada.

la verdad, encontré este espacio rebuscando ciertas noticias de interes para los trabajadores de ECI, así pude ver la bases ideológicas de vuestra noble organización, y veo que la adulación os gusta mas de lo que decis, si no quieren un e-mail falso (no es falso pero alla cada uno)no publique usted ni el contenido, ni la respuesta, a eso se le llama sesgar la información, algo en lo que ECI es un experto.
volviendo al primer mensaje, lo que usted define como "ni una miajica de dato objetivo", es una forma bastante burda de leer el mensaje inicial, donde se aportan datos suficientes sobre el paisaje sindical de ECI, cosa que por supuesto desconoce, y la diferencia de trato entre las distintas secciones existe, otra cosa es que usted en su literariamente adornada prosa quiera plasmarlo, no es lícito en un conflicto argumentar en vacío...reponga el mensaje inicial y luego responda, a lo que hace usted le llaman fascismo..

Muy Sr. mío: para cualquiera que sepa leer, avisamos constantemente que no aceptamos comentarios con faltas de ortografía, con un remite e.mail falso y que no se ciñan al tema del artículo.
Pues bien, por todos y cada uno de esos conceptos su comentario debería de ser borrado.
Pero lo dejo para escarnio de los sindicalistas que usted reivindica, y que son de vergüenza ajena, en El Corte Inglés (sí, cuando se habla de una empresa se ponen todas las letras, y no las siglas con que lo bautizan ustedes), y en el resto de España.
Desde luego, no es este el lugar apropiado para contarnos sus penas de sindicalista, y esperar comprensión y simpatía.
Y vayan quitándose la manía de llamar fascista a quien no simpatiza con sus enjuagues, y sus maniobras: han dilapidado ustedes la confianza de la clase obrera en los últimos treinta años y ya no nos queda credulidad ninguna.

LA COMUNIDAD DE MADRID PROTEGE EL OLIVAR DE CHAMARTÍN, SEGÚN LOS DESEOS DE DIEGO CATALÁN

Artículo completo en Defensa del Olivar de Chamartín

Esta medida*, adoptada por la Comunidad de Madrid, es parte de lo que pretendíamos cuando, en el año 2005, inauguramos la bitácora "En defensa del Olivar de Chamartín", para informar y recabar apoyos contra la mafia del ladrillo y la especulación urbanística, contra la mugre moral y cultural de los propietarios del Olivar de Chamartín (la Fundación Ramón Areces, y la Fundación Olivar de Castillejo, más interesados por chupar del bote y rentabilizar cada metro cuadrado que por el tesoro botánico, zoológico, cultural, histórico y documental que allí se custodia). Los amigos del Olivar de Chamartín secundábamos la lucha de Diego Catalán por conseguir la protección, como bien de interés cultural, para el Olivar de Chamartín , la casa de Ramón Menéndez Pidal y María Goyri, edificada principios del siglo XX, y los Archivos allí depositados, para poder preservar su legado, y asegurar su continuidad a la disposición de los hispanistas, estudiosos e investigadores de todo el mundo.

A estas alturas, los Archivos() depositados en la sede de la Fundación Ramón Menéndez Pidal, legados por Diego Catalán a la Comunidad de Madrid, no han obtenido la custodia diligente de quienes debieran impedir que sean expoliados, y que como primeras providencias, a la muerte de Diego Catalán, cambiaron la cerradura, dejaron de atender las consultas telefónicas y mediante correo E.mail de los investigadores, y han dado libre acceso y mando en plaza a una recua de filólogos y académicos trapisondistas, poco escrupulosos con lo ajeno, a los que Diego Catalán había tenido que prohibir el paso , identificándolos con nombre y apellidos, para parar el saqueo sistemático de libros y documentos.
La Administración de Justicia en España es lenta, lentísima, por lo que, quizás, cuando su Señoría quiera dictar las medidas cautelares para proteger un legado que esta valorado en varios millones de euros (cosa que, extrañamente, no se ha molestado en solicitar esa ignota eminencia que funge como Consejera de Cultura de la Comunidad de Madrid) es posible que buena parte de ese tesoro documental haya sido subastado o vendido. Rogamos a nuestros lectores nos avisen a nuestro e.mail de cualquier hallazgo en librerías de viejo, subastas, o anticuarios, que sospechen pueda haber sido robado de los Archivos que forman parte del legado de Diego Catalán, de modo que podamos rescatarlos y restituirlos.

Nota de prensa de la Comunidad de Madrid:

(*) La Comunidad de Madrid protege el Olivar de Chamartín con sus 150 olivos centenarios y tres edificios emblemáticos
-Promueve su incorporación al Catálogo de Parques y Jardines y al Catálogo de Edificios Protegidos
-Este espacio natural de gran valor botánico es un enclave fundamental de la vida cultural de la capital
-El Consejo de Gobierno aprobó hoy la modificación puntual del PGOU de Madrid para la conservación de esta zona verde en el centro 26 febrero 2009.- La Comunidad de Madrid protege el antiguo Olivar de Chamartín, una parcela de 14,5 hectáreas en la que destacan 150 olivos centenarios y tres edificios de gran valor histórico y cultural. Este terreno se encuentra dividido en tres fincas cada una de ellas contiene una edificación emblemática que se corresponden con la Fundación Castillejos, la residencia de la familia Castillejos Claramunt y la Fundación Menéndez Pidal, propiedad de la Fundación Areces.

Para su protección, el Consejo de Gobierno aprobó hoy la modificación puntual del Plan General de Ordenación Urbana (PGOU) de Madrid para la parcela que ocupa el Olivar de Chamartín, comprendido entre las calles Menéndez Pidal, Henri Dunat, Padre Damián y Alberto Alcocer, según informó el vicepresidente y portavoz, Ignacio González.
La singularidad de este espacio radica en el valor de sus zonas verdes, en su significado como reducto agrícola en el centro de la ciudad, y en su altísimo interés cultural e histórico como enclave fundamental en la vida cultural de España a lo largo del siglo XX, y donde aún hoy se organizan importantes proyectos culturales. Con esta iniciativa el Ejecutivo regional preserva los valores naturales de los jardines y el patrimonio histórico y cultural que representan las edificaciones que contiene el Olivar.

() Contenido de los archivo donados por Diego Catalán a la Comunidad de Madrid:
"El Archivo fue considerado parte del "Tesoro Nacional" y, como tal, fue protegido, junto con las obras de arte de máximo valor del Museo del Prado, en la Sede de la Sociedad de Naciones, en Ginebra, durante los años de la Guerra Civil, que Ramón Menéndez Pidal transmitió testamentariamente a su nieto Diego Catalán, que posteriormente enriqueció con otros materiales archivísticos, y ha transmitido reunidos en:

1. Archivo del Romancero Hispánico Menéndez Pidal/Goyri (AMP)
Es una colección de decenas de miles de documentos escritos que abarca tanto el Romancero Antiguo (medieval y Siglo de Oro) como el Romancero de Tradición Oral Moderna (siglo XVIII-XXI).
Reúne textos, partituras, citas, referencias, análisis de su influencia en otros géneros literarios, estudios monográficos, etc., cuya recopilación comenzó el matrimonio Menéndez Pidal/Goyri y fue continuada por Diego Catalán. A esta labor contribuyeron, en muy diversos tiempos, instituciones privadas y públicas, nacionales y extranjeras: Junta para Ampliación de Estudios, Hispanic Society of America, Fundación Patxot, Universidad Columbia , Institución Cultural Española de Buenos Aires : Drs. Avelino y Ángel Gurtiérrez, Instituto de Cultura Hispánica, Seminario Menéndez Pidal de la Universidad Complutense American Council of Leearned Society, University of California. San Diego, National Endowment for the Humanities, Comité Conjunto Hispano-Norteamericano, Ministerio de Cultura, Testamentaría de Juan López Suárez, Fundaçao Calouste Gulbenkian, Comisión Asesora Científica y Técnica, Acçao Integrada luso-Espanhola, Dirección General de Investigación Cientifica y Técnica, Diputación Provincial de León e Instituto Leonés de Cultura, Gobierno Vasco, Memorial Foundation for Jewish Culture, The Canadian Federation for the Humanities, Instituto de Cooperación Iberoamericana, Conservatorio Musical de Segovia, Diputación Provincial de Ciudad Real, Caja Rural de Cuenca y Caja Rural de Ciudad Real, Instituto Nacional de Ciencias Educativas, Consejo Nacional para la Investigación Científica y Técnica (de Argentina), Cámara Municipal do Funchal, Madeira, College of the Holy Cross, Cabildo Insular de El Hierro, Universidad de León, Fundación Ramón Areces, Generalidad de Cataluña, Dirección General de Archivos, Bibliotecas y Museos, Universidad de Coímbra, Junta de Galicia, Asamblea de Extremadura, Diputación de Segovia, Universidad de Cantabria, Dirección General de Relaciones Culturales y Científicas, Fundación Rich.(1954-1998),

En la compilación de los materiales orales colaboraron investigadores y encuestadores de todo el mundo. Su nómina es muy extensa e incluye a personalidades ilustres como autores literarios, músicos y políticos , junto a investigadores renombrados de la filología, la lingüística y el folclore. Aunque el matrimonio Ramón Menéndez Pidal / María Goyri inició la exploración del, hasta entonces desconocido, romancero castellano el año 1900, su Archivo heredó materiales anteriores, de Bartolomé José Gallardo (1825) de Mariano Aguiló y Fuster (desde antes de 1855 a después de 1893), de José Amador de los Ríos, Juan Menéndez Pidal (1881-1884), e incluso alguna versión chilena del s.XIX, además de versiones manuscritas judeo-españolas de los siglos XVIII y XIX. Ya desde las primeras décadas del s. XX, Menéndez Pidal contó con la colaboración de múltiples corresponsales de España, América y las comunidades sefardíes de Oriente y Occidente, empezando por Miguel de Unamuno y sus colegas salmantinos. Después, entre los pensionados de la Junta, destacan los filólogos Américo Castro, Tomás Navarro Tomás y Federico de Onís y sobresale la figura del músico y diplomático Manuel Manrique de Lara, futuro presidente de la Comisión de la Sociedad de Naciones para el intercambio de poblaciones tras la última Guerra Balcánica. Entre los recolectores ocasionales se halla Federico García Lorca quien, junto a Jimena Menéndez-Pidal, anotaron de su mano versiones de los gitanos del Sacromonte. De los colaboradores extranjeros baste recordar a Max Leopold Wagner, a Fritz Krüger, al gran rabino Mauricio Levy, a K. Schindler, a Julio Vicuña Cifuentes, a Pedro Henríquez Ureña, a José María Chacón y Calvo, a Aurelio M. Espinosa, a Joseph H. Silverman, a Samuel G. Armistead, entre muchos otros. Posteriormente, Diego Catalán organizó, desde el Seminario Menéndez Pidal, la formación de varias generaciones de nuevos encuestadores e investigadores del romancero pan-hispánico, tanto españoles como extranjeros y coordinó las relaciones con una amplia gama de especialistas pertenecientes a diversas instituciones dispersas por el mundo. Como archivo baladístico no hay otro de tal riqueza en el mundo (no ya de las lenguas hispánicas, sino de cualquier otro ámbito lingüístico), ya que las miles de versiones de tradición oral, recogidas durante más de un siglo, las más de ellas inéditas, pertenecen a todas las lenguas y a todos los ámbitos del mundo hispánico: las hay en castellano de todas las comarcas de la Península, de las Islas Canarias y de toda la América de habla española (desde Chile y Argentina, hasta California, Nuevo México, Luisiana, Cuba y Puerto Rico); en judeo-español (de Marruecos, Orán, Bosnia, Macedonia, Serbia, Rumanía, Bulgaria, Grecia, Turquía, Chipre, Líbano, Siria, Egipto, Buenos Aires, Nueva York, California, Canadá); en gallego (de Galicia, de la franja de habla gallega en Asturias, León y Zamora y de la emigración), en portugués (de Portugal continental, de Cedillo y Herrera de Alcántara, de las islas atlánticas, de Brasil, de Goa, de California), en catalán (del Principado, del reino de Valencia, del Rosellón, de las Baleares, de Alguer en Cerdeña, (entre 1860 y 1865)

Entre los textos impresos son de máximo interés las fotografías de originales perdidos (como los pliegos sueltos del Duque de T'Serclaes) o los libritos de cordel judeo-españoles en caracteres hebraicos de varias comunidades del Mediterráneo oriental (algunos de ellos, ejemplar único en el mundo)

2. Archivo Sonoro del Romancero Débora Catalán (ASOR)

Contiene todas las cintas magnéticas grabadas en encuestas e investigaciones de campo. El fondo más importante es el procedente de los proyectos "Edición y análisis de estructuras abiertas: el modelo Romancero" y “Description, Editing and Analysis of the Pan-Hispanic Romancero” de Diego Catalán, patrocinados por el Tratado de Amistad y Cooperación entre España y Estados Unidos y por el National Endowment for the Humanities de Estados Unidos y otras instituciones (1978-1988). A ese fondo se añaden donaciones de diversos colectores: entre ellas destacan las colecciones Purcell (de Açores y Madeira), Felipe (Canarias) y Pedrosa (España peninsular).

3. Archivo de la Lengua Española y Lenguas Circunvecinas

Alberga todos los ficheros y el material científico utilizado por Ramón Menéndez Pidal para la elaboración de su obra magna Historia de la Lengua Española, cuya edición póstuma (prontamente agotada) vio la luz en 2005 y la 2ª en 2007, y asimismo de sus demás publicaciones lingüístico-literarias . Constituyen este fondo , además de documentos lingüísticos medievales, y los borradores y originales de las obras pidalinas, miles de fichas, artículos, notas e investigaciones que abarcan los campos de la etimología, geografía lingüística, dialectología, paleografía y diplomática e historia de la literatura.

Los principales ficheros, estructurados por Menéndez Pidal, son el de Historia de la lengua común y literaria, el de Gramática, el de Léxico, el de Toponimia y Antroponimia, el de Sufijos prelatinos y el del dominio románico astur-leonés (que incluye materiales de las encuestas de campo inéditas de Menéndez Pidal y sus discípulos). Los hay también de Temas de la poesía lírica, de Motivos narrativos, de Retórica y Métrica. Otro grupo de fondos importantes son las colecciones antológicas de Documentos lingüísticos (de diversas regiones) y de textos manuscritos de carácter literario para la Crestomatía del español antiguo y los de Dialectología y Geografía lingüística reunidos por Menéndez Pidal y colaboradores.

A los ficheros pidalinos hay que añadir los ficheros estructurados por Rafael Lapesa para la elaboración del Glosario del primitivo léxico iberorrománico.

4. Archivo de Historiografía Peninsular y Épica

Reúne una ingente cantidad de textos en fotografía, microfilm y copias manuscritas de obras medievales cuyos diversos manuscritos se hallan dispersos en múltiples bibliotecas del mundo, junto con anotaciones y estudios manuscritos de Menéndez Pidal, Antonio Solalinde y Diego Catalán. Ha servido como base de las publicaciones sobre Historiografía medieval castellana, portuguesa, aragonesa, navarra, catalana e hispano-árabe, sobre Historia medieval hispana, y sobre Épica española de Ramón Menéndez Pidal, Luis Felipe Lindley Cintra, Diego Catalán, y otros investigadores, y de los diez volúmenes de la serie "Fuentes cronísticas de la Historia de España".

5. Archivo cultural de fines del siglo XIX y primera mitad del siglo XX Correspondencia de carácter científico e institucional que Ramón Menéndez Pidal Gaston Paris, Américo Castro, Antonio Solalinde, Amado Alonso, Joan Corominas, Alfred Morel-Fatio o Martín de Riquer, etc. mantuvo con investigadores y personalidades de la cultura española e internacional durante este período:

6. Archivo de los Laboratorios Humanísticos
Incluye la documentación y correspondencia reunida por Diego Catalán y depositada en la Fundación referente a los años en que fue Director de Investigaciones, primero, y, después, Director del "Seminario Menéndez Pidal".
Este fondo revela la "intrahistoria" administrativa, institucional y académica que hizo posible la existencia y continuidad de la Casa Menéndez Pidal como centro de investigación y formación de reconocido prestigio.

7. Archivo de Materiales y Obras para el conocimiento de la Historia de la Cultura Hispánica Conjunto documental de investigaciones anejas que acompañaba la obra pidalina: caben destacar, por su categoría científica, los ficheros de María Goyri y los ficheros de Juan Menéndez Pidal sobre literatura, historia, personajes históricos y literarios y lingüística.

8. Archivo Miguel A. Catalán.
La documentación referente a Miguel Catalán Sañudo, objeto de consulta para los estudiosos del despertar científico de España en las primeras décadas del siglo XX.

AVERÍA EN GMAIL: 502 SERVER ERROR Y HORÓSCOPO

Desde las 9`30 del 24 de febrero 2009 (GTM), no funciona el servidor de correo de gmail. La avería afecta a los usuarios de todo el mundo. Los ingenieros de Google están tratando de saber la causa, y solucionarlo:
Google ha informado:
"We're aware of a problem with Gmail affecting a number of users. This problem occurred at approximately 1.30AM Pacific Time. We're working hard to resolve this problem and will post updates as we have them. We apologize for any inconvenience that this has caused".
Parece ser que funciona, sin embargo, desde Outlook y móviles para quienes ya tenían configurada esa opción.
Mientras se soluciona, pueden consultar el Horóscopo Gatopardo, que no falla:

LUIS CARANDELL: VIDA Y MILAGROS DE MONSEÑOR ESCRIVÁ DE BALAGUER, FUNDADOR DEL OPUS DEI (3)

Cómo se hizo este libro

Luis Carandell

Doy por supuesto que el lector sabe muy bien cuál es la técnica que se emplea para hacer lo que se llama «un retrato-robot». Pues bien, mi semblanza de don Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer se va a parecer mucho a un retrato-robot. Como se sabe, en este tipo de identificación posible de un personaje se utilizan todos los materiales de que se puede disponer. En mi caso, he procurado aportar los documentos que puedan dar constancia de las fechas principales de su biografía, de las modificaciones que han sufrido sus apellidos, de la concesión de títulos nobiliarios y otras distinciones, académicas, civiles o eclesiásticas. Esto por lo que se refiere al soporte documental de una biografía.

Junto a esto, he contado muy especialmente con las obras publicadas por el padre Escrivá a lo largo de su vida, como reveladoras de su personalidad: primero y más importante, Camino, que ha sido llamado «el Kempis de los tiempos modernos», así como su precedente de 1934, Consideraciones espirituales. Seguidamente, una pequeña obrita de 1945, Santo Rosario, y algunas homilías y discursos pronunciados en ocasiones memorables. También me ha sido útil una lectura atenta de las Constituciones de la Obra, traducidas y publicadas por vez primera por Jesús Ynfante. Finalmente, la tesis doctoral del padre Escrivá, La abadesa de las Huelgas, que es tal vez la obra que más adecuadamente puede servir para un estudio del ideario de nuestro personaje en materia política. Añádase a esto el ya citado libro de Conversaciones y algunas otras entrevistas aparecidas en la prensa. Ni que decir tiene que mi propósito, al estudiar estas obras, no ha sido el de hacer un análisis del pensamiento ascético o religioso de Escrivá de Balaguer. Ocasionalmente podrá escaparse algún breve comentario que procuraré fundamentar con citas de autores reconocidos. Pero mi función es más bien adivinar, a través de las obras, el carácter del personaje, siguiendo en esto el principio bíblico de «por sus obras los conoceréis».

Revestido de los atributos de «Gran Canciller de la Universidad de Navarra», acompañando a dos doctorandos Honoria Causa, Monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer es aquí la viva imagen del «apostolado de la inteligencia». (Foto Cifra.)

Éste no es, sin embargo, todo el material que he manejado. Mi retrato-robot de monseñor Escrivá se ha ido configurando también y sobre todo gracias a declaraciones y manifestaciones de personas que le han conocido. Éste es acaso el material más típico de un retrato-robot al que el investigador acude con preferencia cuando se le niega el conocimiento directo. Algunas personas han dado su nombre, otras han preferido quedar ocultas. Entre estas últimas hay muchas que pertenecieron al Opus Dei en el pasado y lo abandonaron luego. Este Instituto Secular fundado en 1928, hace ahora, por tanto, casi cincuenta años, ha registrado un grandísimo trasiego de entradas y salidas. Este que pudiéramos llamar intenso tráfico en ambos sentidos es una de las características más sobresalientes de la Obra cuando se la contempla desde fuera. Da la impresión de que el Opus Dei es un lugar en el que mucha gente parece estar interesada en entrar, pero del que son también muchos los que salen, algunos de ellos fuertemente traumatizados por la experiencia. Cada año, con motivo de la festividad de san José, que es cuando los numerarios del Opus Dei deciden si van a renovar o no las promesas y votos, algunos socios abandonan la Obra. La salida de un socio, según he podido comprobar en mis conversaciones con los que decidieron abandonar el Instituto, es siempre muy mal acogida por los directores y por los compañeros que permanecen dentro de su disciplina. He conocido casos de socios que, habiendo decidido no renovar los votos, fueron perseguidos hasta altas horas de la noche de san José por los compañeros de residencia constituidos, digámoslo así, en comandos espirituales. En un casó, el «hijo emancipado» logró ponerse a buen recaudo en casa de un amigo que no tenía nada que ver con el Opus Dei, a pesar de lo cual fue hallado y sermoneado hasta muy avanzada la madrugada, a fin de hacerle volver de su decisión de abandonar la Obra, con argumentos que el propio interesado calificaba de muestras de «chantaje moral».

He hablado con muchos de estos tránsfugas del Opus Dei y, en algunos aunque no en todos, he encontrado una buena disposición para el diálogo acerca de la Obra. Cuentan muchas cosas, sobre todo relativas a su vida en el interior del Instituto, la vida en común de las residencias, sus relaciones con los directores, etc., pero, en general, es muy poco lo que saben del padre, salvo naturalmente que no se trate de miembros muy antiguos del Opus Dei, ya que en los primeros tiempos el hecho de que hubiera un número muy reducido de socios hacía que éstos tuvieran un mayor contacto personal con el fundador. Los demás y, sobre todo, los españoles que entraron en el Opus a partir de 1946, en que el padre se trasladó a Roma, tienen una visión algo mítica del padre Escrivá. Es la paternal figura a la cual escribieron sus cartas de buenos hijos durante años, pero de quien no obtuvieron nunca una respuesta directa. Monseñor, como antes decía, no contesta nunca las cartas de sus hijos. Se limita a enviar unas comunicaciones en ciclostil que firma con su tercer nombre de pila, Mariano, y que versan en general sobre cuestiones espirituales. Muchos de los socios no han visto personalmente en su vida al padre Escrivá o bien le han visto en grandes concentraciones, como las que han tenido lugar en la universidad de Navarra; es decir, le conocen en su vertiente de hombre público y no se han parado nunca a analizar su carácter. Con todo, la aportación de los ex socios del Opus Dei a nuestras informaciones sobre el padre es muy valiosa porque, en el seno de la Obra, se habla frecuentemente del padre, se cuentan anécdotas vividas por él y se repiten sus frases y sentencias.

Hablando con estos ex socios he intentado hacerles ver lo interesante que sería que ellos escribieran sobre sus experiencias en el Opus Dei. Lo que ellos han vivido en la Obra trasciende su mera aventura espiritual y se convierte en un material de enorme interés para ayudar a comprender uno de los más notables fenómenos de nuestro tiempo. El Opus Dei constituye un capítulo importantísimo en la historia religiosa, política y económica de la España moderna, y los hombres que han pertenecido a esta asociación y la han conocido por dentro no deberían privarnos de la información que poseen.

En general, he encontrado entre las personas que dejaron de pertenecer al Opus una actitud de extremo pudor que les impide decidirse a contar lo que saben acerca del Instituto. Muchos de ellos entraron en la Asociación en su primera juventud y salieron de ella después de una prolongada y amarga experiencia que preferirían olvidar. Para otros, su vivencia del Opus Dei constituye una parte importante de su aventura espiritual. Están personalmente involucrados, y aunque ellos mismos hayan cambiado y no piensen ya como cuando eran socios del Opus Dei, no son capaces de abstraer de su experiencia en la Obra una enseñanza general. Otros tienden a considerar que sería «inelegante» hacer público lo que conocieron mientras estuvieron en el Instituto. Hay, además, otro factor aplicable especialmente a personas que, antes de salir del Opus Dei, ocuparon cargos de importancia dentro de la Asociación o tuvieron acceso a materias especialmente reservadas. La «presión» que la Obra ejerce sobre sus socios para que mantengan la «discreción» continúa ejerciéndose aún sobre los que han dejado de serlo.

La paternal solicitud de Monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer al hablar ante una multitud de jóvenes «de todas las clases y condiciones sociales», como gusta de repetir la Obra, con motivo de una visita a Jerez de la Frontera. (Foto Europa Press).

No hay que olvidar, por otra parte, que las condiciones políticas de estos últimos años no han sido precisamente propicias a la publicación de libros que sostuvieran puntos de vista críticos para el Opus Dei. Desde la constitución del gobierno «homogéneo» en octubre de 1969 hasta enero de 1974, tras la muerte del almirante Carrero Blanco, el Opus Dei ha ocupado una posición de poder en España. De sobra conocido es el argumento esgrimido por el Opus Dei en el sentido de que los compromisos políticos son de la incumbencia exclusiva del socio que los contrae y no de la Obra. Don Laureano López Rodó ilustraba esta idea diciendo que él era del Opus de la misma manera que era socio del Club de Tenis del Real Madrid, y que sus actos no obligaban al Opus del mismo modo que no obligaban al Real Madrid. No vamos a discutir aquí este argumento que en estos años hemos oído repetir de una forma tan machacona como pueril y que un agudo comentarista contestaba diciendo que, según eso, los goles que le metían al portero del Real Madrid no se los metían en rigor al Real Madrid, sino solamente a su portero. O que los goles que metían Amancio o Gento no eran en rigor goles del Real Madrid, sino sólo de Amancio o Gento. Basta con decir que, durante el tiempo en que el Opus Dei o sus socios mantuvieron en España una posición de poder no se pudieron editar libros ni escribir artículos que sostuvieran puntos de vista mínimamente críticos con respecto al Opus. El libro de mossén Josep Dalmau, Contrapunts al Camí de l'Opus Dei, que era una respuesta a las máximas de Camino desde el punto de vista de una espiritualidad más avanzada, apareció en diciembre de 1969 y fue objeto de inmediato secuestro, aunque más tarde el juez autorizara su venta. El de Dalmau fue el único libro que apareció en este período. El libro de Evangelina Jardiel, ¿Por qué no es usted del Opus Dei?, consistente en una encuesta sobre el tema de la Obra, tuvo que esperar a 1974 para ver la luz. En cuanto a las vicisitudes que sufrió el libro que el lector tiene en las manos, Alfonso Carlos Comín las ha contado suficientemente en su prólogo y no necesitan más aclaraciones por mi parte. También después de este período en que socios del Opus Dei mantuvieron el control político de los medios de información desde sus altos cargos en la Administración del Estado, es decir, ya en 1974, apareció el único libro crítico sobre la Obra cuyo autor fue un antiguo socio. Se trata del titulado El Opus Dei. Una interpretación, firmado por Alberto Moncada y editado por «índice».
En una crónica publicada en la revista «Triunfo» conté el acto de presentación de este libro, que se celebró en el Círculo de la Unión Mercantil de Madrid y en el que tomaron parte, además del propio autor, un conocido escritor de temas religiosos, Enrique Miret Magdalena, y un sociólogo a quien no puede dejar de mencionarse cuando se habla del Opus Dei. Me refiero a José Vidal Beneyto, más conocido por Pepín Vidal en los medios políticos madrileños. Decía yo en mi crónica que «conozco desde hace tiempo a Pepín Vidal y siempre me ha parecido que tiene tendencia a considerarse a si mismo el propietario exclusivo del tema del Opus Dei. Es uno de los españoles que más se precia de conocer la Obra por dentro y por fuera». Un amigo me decía un día: «Yo creo que el Opus Dei no existe y que se lo ha inventado Pepín Vidal.» Debería añadir ahora que el prestigio de opusdeiólogo de Vidal Beneyto se fundamenta en el hecho de que perteneció por breve tiempo a la Obra allá por los años cuarenta, en su juventud, llegando a ser secretario particular del padre Escrivá durante un tiempo. No me cabe duda que Vidal podría escribir un interesante libro sobre el Opus y sobre el fundador, pero lo cierto es que no lo ha hecho y ha preferido utilizar su prestigio de conocedor para criticar los libros que se han escrito sobre este dificilísimo tema. En el acto de presentación del libro de Moncada pasó revista a la bibliografía del Opus y dijo que el libro de Daniel Artigues, El Opus Dei en España, le había parecido insuficiente porque no incluía sino un período muy limitado del desarrollo de la Obra; que el libro de Yvon Le Vaillant, Sainte Maffia, era un libro superficial; que el libro de Jesús Ynfante, La prodigiosa aventura del Opus Dei, se había escrito utilizando un material que el mismo Vidal había recopilado con la intención de hacer un trabajo sobre el comportamiento de los socios del Opus Dei. Pepín Vidal explicó que Ynfante trabajó en la sociedad de estudios CEISA que él dirigía y que «en el año 1967 desapareció el armario con los archivos que yo conservaba. Al cabo de un tiempo, Ruedo Ibérico me comunicó que tenía mi fichero. Fui a París y discutí con Ynfante. Le llamé hijo de la Gran Bretaña y nos empujamos. Me opuse judicialmente a él en Francia pero sin éxito».

Las explicaciones que Pepín Vidal dio en el acto de presentación del libro de Moncada tenían su razón de ser en el hecho de que cualquier persona, española o extranjera, que desee escribir algo sobre el Opus se dirige inmediatamente a Pepín Vidal para recibir orientaciones. La secretaría del Opus Dei en Madrid, por su parte, tiende a relacionar cualquier libro o artículo que aparezca en el mundo contra el Opus con Pepín Vidal, y le atribuye su inspiración. Por ello, las manifestaciones de Vidal en ese acto deben interpretarse como ejercicio de «legítima defensa» por su parte. Cuando tuve la idea de escribir este libro acudí también a Pepín Vidal en busca de datos. Él mismo me lo recordaba en una carta que dirigió a «Triunfo» para contestar las afirmaciones hechas en mi crónica sobre la presentación del libro de Alberto Moncada. Es cierto, pero tengo que decir que no me dijo nada que me fuera de utilidad para mi libro. No me dio un solo dato ni me contó una sola anécdota que fuera reveladora del carácter del personaje que yo me proponía describir. Sabiendo que la aparición de cada nuevo libro sobre el Opus plantea a Pepín Vidal problemas con la secretaría de información del Opus Dei, es justo que diga que ninguno de los conceptos vertidos en este libro ha emanado de esta acreditadísima fuente vidaliana, de la que es lícito esperar que algún día no lejano ilumine al mundo con un razonado y definitivo trabajo sobre el Opus.

Respecto al libro de Moncada, Vidal se mostró también en desacuerdo con su concepción en el acto del Círculo de la Unión Mercantil. «Alberto, este libro no me gusta», le dijo al autor, y contó que, desde el extranjero, le había escrito sugiriéndole correcciones a las que él no hizo caso. He leído el libro de Moncada y creo que Pepín tenía parte de razón en muchas de las cosas que dijo sobre él. Se trata de un libro sin consistencia y que defrauda en gran medida al lector. Aunque está escrito desde un punto de vista crítico respecto al Opus, no aporta mucho de nuevo y hace a la Obra algunas concesiones como, por ejemplo, la de abundar en el tan pregonado «pluralismo político e ideológico», que el Opus Dei dice albergar en sus filas. Vidal criticó especialmente el capítulo que Moncada dedica a «El Opus Dei y los negocios», donde sostiene la idea de que «el padre Escrivá lanzó a sus partidarios a una orgía de actividades deficitarias» y de que las empresas del Opus «están mal administradas y de ellas obtiene la Obra más quebraderos de cabeza que beneficios». «No sería un buen negocio —concluye Moncada — adquirir acciones de esta sociedad si salieran al mercado.» A Pepín Vidal no le costó trabajo refutar, con la sola mención de unos cuantos bancos y sociedades anónimas, esta idea de Moncada así como la de que los dirigentes de estas empresas del Opus son «un puñado de pobres hombres».

Volveremos a encontrar el libro de Alberto Moncada a propósito de ciertas afirmaciones que hace sobre la personalidad del fundador, a quien él conoció y trató durante años. Basta insistir ahora sobre el limitado interés de este libro, único testimonio que poseemos escrito por un ex miembro de la Obra. Como dijo Vidal, el libro está escrito «con un pie dentro y un pie fuera», del Opus, con una óptica que no termina de ser independiente y que parece estar pagando un tributo a los años de indoctrinamiento que el autor ha sufrido dentro de la Obra.
En el curso de mis investigaciones tuve también ocasión de hablar sobre la personalidad del padre Escrivá con algunos miembros de la Obra. Ya he dicho cuál fue mi planteamiento de este libro. Desde el principio comuniqué a la secretaría de información del Opus Dei en Madrid mi intención de escribirlo y solicité por carta una entrevista personal con el fundador que me permitiera completar mi semblanza. En general he confirmado, en mis conversaciones con miembros de la Obra sobre el tema de la vida del fundador, la misma reserva que pude apreciar en la secretaría de información. El velo de la discreción envuelve la personalidad del padre. Con todo, tengo que agradecer a algunos socios interesantes datos y precisiones. Por poner un ejemplo, yo nunca hubiera podido intuir la presencia en la vida del padre de hechos milagrosos si un devoto hijo suyo no me hubiese contado algunos de esos hechos milagrosos en los que el fundador interviene o que simplemente suceden en momentos muy determinados de su vida. No me habría enterado porque son cosas que se transmiten por tradición oral en el seno de la Obra y que el Opus Dei no tiene modernamente interés en difundir. Aparte del reconocimiento del origen divino de la revelación que en 1928 da lugar al hecho fundacional, hoy no se habla de milagros del padre en el Opus Dei. Sin embargo, estos milagros existen y no pueden en modo alguno quedar fuera de un intento de semblanza como éste.

Ya he dicho la parquedad informativa que nos ofrece la bibliografía del Opus sobre la vida y la personalidad de monseñor. Por más que he buscado, no he podido encontrar, aparte de los breves trabajos —que son solamente artículos— de Florentino Pérez Embid y Carlos Escartín que he mencionado, ningún estudio biográfico. Es ésta una respetable laguna que tiene su explicación en la evidente falta de interés que el Opus muestra en difundir una biografía detallada del fundador. Quiero anticipar aquí que mi trabajo no tiene pretensiones de llenar esa laguna. Hacer hoy, desde fuera de la Obra, una biografía de monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer es casi una imposibilidad metafísica. No hay datos suficientes. Puede aspirarse, en todo caso, a hacer una semblanza que contenga el mayor número posible de datos biográficos. Desde una fecha muy temprana, la vida de monseñor transcurre en el seno del Instituto, tras la pantalla de la ocultación opusdeística. De esta manera, se hallará que poseemos mayor número de informaciones coherentes de su niñez y juventud, hasta su ordenación como sacerdote, en Zaragoza, en el año 1925, que de épocas más recientes. A partir de la fundación del Opus Dei, que la versión oficial sitúa en octubre de 1928, encontramos al padre reunido con sus primeros discípulos —en número de doce, sugiriendo ya la alta significación que se da al hecho fundacional— en la residencia de la calle de Ferraz, de Madrid. Viene luego la guerra civil, en que pueden localizarse algunas de sus andanzas, como el milagroso paso de la frontera andorrana y la llegada a Burgos, capital de la España nacionalista. Es durante la contienda, y precisamente en Burgos, cuando se organiza y estructura aquel embrión surgido unos años antes y que se desarrollará plenamente en la posguerra. A partir de entonces, la figura de monseñor se oculta progresivamente bajo el caparazón protector que le brinda la discreción de la Obra que él mismo ha creado, y se aleja de nosotros mucho más todavía cuando, en 1946, se traslada definitivamente a Roma.

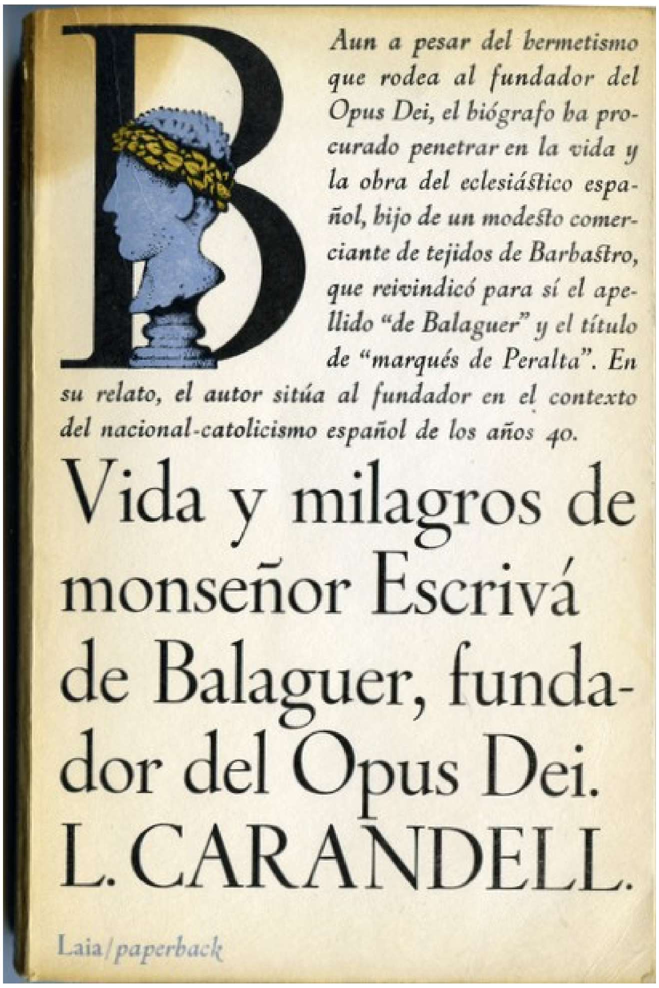
[LUIS CARANDELL: VIDA Y MILAGROS DE MONSEÑOR ESCRIVÁ DE BALAGUER, FUNDADOR DEL OPUS DEI (2)]



A manera de prefacio

Luis Carandell

Cuentan que, en una ocasión, hace unos años, el padre Arrupe, general de la Compañía de Jesús, le preguntó al que por entonces era el Nuncio de Su Santidad en España, Monseñor Riberi, si había visto a don Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer, fundador y presidente general del Opus Dei. "No, no", contestó el Nuncio con el gesto de extrañeza del superior que espera en vano una obligada visita. Y, al parecer, así lo cuentan, el padre Arrupe ladeó canónicamente la cabeza para decir al oído del prelado en tono de amistosa confidencia: "Yo, señor Nuncio, a veces dudo de que exista".
Esta es una anécdota no comprobable que, sin embargo, nos pone en la pista de una trascendental personalidad española, cuyo conocimiento no puede sernos indiferente. Una personalidad de oscuro y recio origen provinciano que, a través de una serie de vicisitudes, no ajenas a la historia patria de estos años, llega a alcanzar un preeminentísimo lugar en el Who's Who de la crónica mundial. Abundando en el mismo sentido, cualificados miembros de la Curia romana cuentan también que, cuando el padre Arrupe asumió las responsabilidades del cargo de general de la Compañía de Jesús, escribió una carta a cada uno de los prepósitos de las órdenes y congregaciones religiosas e institutos seculares, anunciándoles su intención de visitarles personalmente. Era ésta una muestra del espíritu fraterno que el Padre Arrupe traía a la Compañía. Los prepósitos, unánimemente, se apresuraron a contestar que no era el general de los jesuitas quien debía visitarles a ellos sino ellos quienes debían acudir humildemente ante el general de los jesuitas. "No vengáis vos hacia nos. Somos nos quienes vamos hacia vos". En este toma y daca de la cortesía vaticana se hacía patente el deseo de inaugurar una nueva etapa en la historia de las relaciones entre las órdenes. Pero hubo una excepción: el presidente general del Opus Dei, don Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer no contestó, así se dice, a la carta del padre Arrupe. No se arredró por ello el dinámico jesuita, ni su humildad y buena disposición eran tan pasajeras que no pudiera resistir esta prueba. Telefoneó personalmente a Bruno Buozzi, 73, la suntuosa residencia de Monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer en Roma. Fuentes fidedignas informan de que Arrupe llamó a Monseñor hasta cinco veces y las cinco le contestaron que "el Padre" no estaba en casa. Posteriormente, los dos hombres de Iglesia tuvieron ocasión de entrevistarse y se fotografiaron juntos en la terraza de un edificio del vaticano, teniendo por fondo la grandiosa cúpula de Miguel Angel.

Pero esto pertenece a otra historia, la historia de las delicadas relaciones entre la Compañía de Jesús y el Opus Dei. Mi intención ahora no es traer a colación viejas y acaso superadas disensiones, sino excusar ante el lector las insuficiencias que necesariamente ha de padecer el libro que tiene en las manos. No es maravilla, en efecto, que el hombre que hizo esperar al nuncio Riberi, que no contestó al padre Arrupe una fraternal carta y que, finalmente lo tuvo pegado al teléfono en humilde y desproporcionada solicitud de audiencia, haya ignorado completamente la petición del autor de este libro. En efecto, tan pronto como decidí escribirlo, me dirigí a monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer pidiéndole que accediera a recibirme personalmente, ya que tenía el propósito de hacer una semblanza de quien yo considero, y así se lo decía "una importante figura de nuestro tiempo". Monseñor Escrivá está acostumbradísimo a no contestar las cartas que se le dirigen. Con periodicidad variable, según los casos, y al menos una vez al año, sus setenta mil "hijos" del Opus Dei escriben lo que se llama la "carta al padre", y esas cartas no obtienen nunca respuesta, aunque es creencia general entre los miembros de "la Obra" que monseñor "las lee todas". Y yo pregunto: si el padre no contesta nunca a sus propios hijos, ¿qué tiene de extraño que no me conteste a mí, que, lejos de seguir el "camino" por él trazado, me siento más bien incurso en casi todos los dicterios e imprecaciones que contienen las máximas de su famoso libro?
De esta manera, mi semblanza biográfica de monseñor Escrivá, y aquí omito de propósito el segundo y sonoro apellido en anticipación de lo que diré más tarde, mi semblanza del del fundador del Opus Dei adolecerá, por la razón que he dicho, de una limitación fundamental, y es: que no he visto al padre Escrivá de Balaguer en mi vida. Cuando el biografiado vive, el biógrafo no puede excusar el contacto personal con él, salvo que existan sustanciosas razones que le impulsen a saltarse el inexcusable requisito. Éste es mi mi caso. A medida que iban pasando las semanas y los meses sin que yo obtuviese respuesta de monseñor a mi carta, sentía una explicable inquietud por el futuro de mi trabajo. Decidí, pues, dirigirme a la secretaría de información del Opus Dei en Madrid para saber si tenían alguna noticia de Roma que hiciera referencia a mi petición. La secretaría conocía la solicitud de entrevista que yo había hecho a monseñor, pues, simultáneamente, había escrito a uno de los secretarios, don Luis Gordon, dándole cuenta de mi petición y rogándole que la reforzara oficialmente. Con don Luis Gordon había tenido yo anteriormente, por iniciativa suya, otros contactos y cambios de impresiones acerca de cierto controvertido punto de "Camino" que yo me había permitido glosar en un capítulo de mi libro "Los españoles", aparecido en la primavera de 1968. Don Luis Gordon me invitó a acudir a las oficinas de la secretaría en la calle Vitrubio, de Madrid. La cosa vino porque, al hablar de la sexualidad española, yo había transcrito la famosa máxima de "Camino" que dice:

"El matrimonio es para la clase de tropa y no para el estado mayor de Cristo.

Así, mientras comer es una exigencia para cada individuo, engendrar es exigencia sólo para la especie, pudiendo desentenderse las personas singulares".

Al citar esta frase de un cualificado moralista moderno, yo pretendía señalar la pervivencia en nuestro tiempo de la tradicional actitud española ante el sexo. Don Luis Gordon -tengo que decir que con encomiable espíritu animado de lo que en el Opus Dei se llama "corrección fraterna"-, me explicó que el pensamiento del padre Escrivá era muy distinto de lo que yo había supuesto y, precisamente, monseñor había sido uno de los primeros en defender y propugnar la dignidad y la santidad del estado matrimonial. Contesté que procuraría estudiar el ideario del fundador y que si quedaba convencido, no tendría inconveniente en retocar la referencia a "Camino". Este episodio tiene para mí alguna importancia, porque fue a partir de esas conversaciones sobre la concepción sexológica del padre Escrivá cuando pensé en adentrarme en el estudio del Opus Dei y de la personalidad de su fundador.
Así, pues, en vista del silencio del Opus Dei en Roma, me dirigí de nuevo a la secretaría del Opus Dei en Madrid. Me hicieron pasar, igual que en mi primera visita, al saloncito de gusto burgués, con su tresillo tapizado en terciopelo oro, su lámpara de pie de pergamino, su moqueta de color ocre, su mesita de mármol jaspeado, su lámpara de cuentas de cristal suspendida del techo en el centro de la sala. No puedo explicar ahora las hondas resonancias sociológicas que percibí yo en el españolísimo gusto de aquel saloncito confortable. Me vino a la memoria, por vía de contraste, en aquel momento, mi fugaz paso por la Acción Católica, en los años de la inmediata posguerra, a los catorce o quince de mi edad, y aquellas catequesis de los barrios bajos barceloneses con las paredes desconchadas, los bancos desvencijados, la estufa negra sobre la cual hervía un puchero con hojas de eucaliptus, donde los hijos de buena familia iban a ganar el cielo y la completar la ingente labor de catolización emprendida, pocos años antes, en la guerra, por el nacional-catolicismo. Desde aquella cochambre hasta el aterciopelado saloncillo del salón del hotelito de Vitrubio, los invictos niños de los años cuarenta habían hecho un largo recorrido.

No se hizo esperar mi interlocutor, que esta vez era el jefe de la secretaría, don Javier Ayesta, la cabeza visible del Opus Dei madrileño. Conocía a Ayesta de oídas, y, sobre todo, por la referencia que de él hace Daniel Artigues en su conocido libro "El Opus Dei en España", llamándole, por cierto equivocadamente, "el padre Javier Ayesta", pues no es ni ha sido nunca sacerdote. En el libro de Artigues, por lo demás muy bien informado y documentado, se hace referencia a una entrevista del periodista Marcel Niedergang con Javier Ayesta publicada en "Le Monde" en la que el secretario del Opus Dei en Madrid declara que este Instituto "es algo muy similar a la FAO o a la UNESCO". Animado por la indudable "apertura" que esta información supondría, me dirigí a Ayesta con la esperanza de obtener alguna información que me fuera útil. Como dice Artigues, al comentar esta entrevista, cualquier persona puede obtener la iinformación que desee acerca de la FAO o de la UNESCO con sólo abrir los anuarios internacionales correspondientes. No existe en estos organismos, que yo sepa, esa "discreción" tan típicamente opusdeística que yo he podido comprobar en mis conversaciones con los miembros de la "Obra". Dice la máxima 645 de "Camino":

"¡Qué fecundo es el silencio! -Todas las energías que me pierdes con tu falta de discreción son energías que restas a la eficacia de tu trabajo-. Sé discreto".

No sé si Ayesta recordó concretamente esta máxima durante la conversación que sostuvo conmigo. Lo cierto es que salí del hotelito de Vitrubio ayuno de informaciones sobre la vida y la personalidad del padre Escrivá. En los días anteriores a mi visita había estado haciendo la necesaria labor de investigación bibliográfica y había comprobado una notable ausencia de datos sobre el tema que me interesaba. No había más que una pequeña semblanza biográfica escrita por don Florentino Pérez Embid e incluida en la obra Forjadores del mundo contemporáneo y un Perfil biográfico, publicado por el periodista Carlos Escartín en «Diario de Navarra». Estos dos papeles daban una información muy somera de la vida de mi personaje: las cinco o seis fechas cruciales de su biografía, la relación de sus escritos y sus principales actuaciones públicas. Pertenecían ambos al género laudatorio, y los elogios que se dedicaban al fundador del Opus Dei eran de tipo muy general, sin que sus autores buscaran la apoyatura de la descripción personal o de la anécdota ilustrativa de su carácter. Se juzgaba al hombre más por la magnitud de la obra que había realizado que por los rasgos físicos y espirituales de su personalidad. Expuse a Javier Ayesta mi preocupación por esta carencia de datos y le pedí toda la ayuda informativa que pudiera prestarme. No me escuchó. Se limitó a decirme que no consideraba llegado el momento de que se escribiera una biografía de monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer y que, si yo lo intentaba, mi libro quedaría absolutamente incompleto y sería fácilmente superado por futuros trabajos.

—No doy a ese libro más allá de diez años de vigencia —me dijo.

Con este expresivo gesto invitaba el padre a los asistentes a un coloquio celebrado en Pamplona a desoír las «maledicencias» sobre el Opus Dei. Como dice una máxima de Camino: «Que han dicho, ...que han escrito... (...) ¡Tonto, tontísimo! ¿Qué te importa cuando vas derecho a tu fin, cabeza y corazón borrachos de Dios, el clamor del viento o el cantar de la chicharra, o el mugido o el gruñido o el relincho?» (Foto Cifra.)

Tengo el convencimiento de que solamente un escritor perteneciente al Opus Dei o al menos situado, como se dice ahora, en la órbita de la Obra, podría hacer una biografía del fundador que tuviera esa «vigencia» que Ayesta negaba de antemano a mi trabajo. No soy ni he sido hasta ahora de la Obra y por tanto va a ser difícil que esta semblanza de monseñor Escrivá sea todo lo «vigente» que debiera ser. Pero lo que sí puedo asegurar es que si el libro que ofrezco al lector consigue tener una vigencia de diez años, me doy, como suele decirse, con un canto en los dientes. Así se lo dije al jefe de la secretaría de información del Opus Dei, al tiempo que le preguntaba si le había llegado de Roma alguna indicación relativa a mi petición de ser recibido en audiencia privada. Me dijo que «de palabra» se le había comunicado que «el padre» tenía un programa densísimo de trabajo y que, por otra parte, monseñor Escrivá no juzgaba que su persona fuera lo suficientemente importante como para ser objeto de una especial atención. Que, no obstante, llegado el momento, tendría «sumo gusto» en recibirme. Pregunté entonces a Ayesta qué plazo calculaba él que tendría que durar mi impaciente espera.

—Unos tres años —dijo. Y añadió una frase que, como luego he podido comprender, era muy del estilo de esta pía asociación con tan señalada vocación internacionalista. «Delante de ti —dijo— *hay sesenta periodistas esperando, muchos de ellos extranjeros.»*Salí de la secretaría con las ideas confusas respecto de lo que debía hacer y con un folleto de propaganda de la Asociación de Amigos de la Universidad de Navarra, que fue todo lo que pude obtener de la representación oficial del Opus Dei en Madrid.En mi afán de explicar la esencia de mi conversación con Javier Ayesta, tal vez haya dado al lector una impresión falsa del tono en que se desenvolvió. No quisiera ser injusto con el secretario de información. Aunque no logré de él nada realmente positivo, mi conversación con Ayesta se mantuvo en un tono extremadamente cordial. El tuteo de las relaciones públicas madrileñas le quitaba hierro a la tirantez de la pugna periodística.

—Te ruego que comprendas —le decía yo— que no he venido a preguntarte si el Banco Popular es vuestro o si es verdad que habéis comprado la editorial Ruedo Ibérico. Lo único que quiero son datos sobre la vida de monseñor. Era evidente, sin embargo, que la secretaría no quería hablar del padre. Recuerdo que Ayesta bromeó a propósito del Banco Popular y de la compra por parte de la Obra de la editorial Ruedo Ibérico, una operación acerca de la cual existían por entonces rumores sin más fundamento que la idea de que esta compra sería la mejor forma de neutralizar a la editorial que mayor atención ha venido prestando al tema del Opus. De monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer, en cambio, no pude hablar con Ayesta una sola palabra. El fundador era, es y seguirá siendo, sin duda, la pieza clave del Opus Dei, el eje alrededor del cual gira la vida del Instituto, el padre de la gran familia. Un amigo mío solía decir en la época en que los miembros de la Obra procuraban ocultarse más que ahora, que la prueba decisiva para saber si una persona es del Opus es hablarle despectivamente del "padre". Saltan en seguida. Ellos alegan que es «su padre» y que cualquier persona saltaría si le hablaran mal de su padre. Es dudoso, sin embargo, que en España haya nadie que tenga a su padre colocado en un pedestal. Lo que todavía Juanito Valderrama ha podido decir de la figura humana de la madre, esto es, que «madre no hay más que una» y que «a ti te encontré en la calle», difícilmente podría aplicarse en nuestros días a la figura, en otro tiempo venerable, del padre. El Opus Dei, que al parecer no cree demasiado en la Historia, resucita a las puertas del año 2000 un trasnochado paternalismo y eleva al máximo rango la figura del fundador-padre. Le coloca en un pedestal inaccesible, le mitifica en vida. El propio padre Escrivá se refiere a los miembros del Opus Dei diciendo que son sus «hijos» y sus «hijas», y sus hijos y sus hijas se arrodillan ante él cuando están en su presencia, igual que se arrodillaba para besar la mano a su padre el pequeño héroe de Valentín o el niño bien educado, manual de urbanidad tradicional de la clase media española. En sus raras apariciones en público, el halo mágico y paternal de que está rodeado provoca escenas de histerismo colectivo. Hombres hechos y derechos se arrojan a sus plantas tratando de besarle el borde de la sotana, madres de familia pugnan por acercársele y tocar un hilo de su ropa, jóvenes ilustrados y tecnocráticos se arremolinan en torno a él gritando a coro: ¡Padre! ¡Padre! Y estas escenas, que parecen sacadas de una hagiografía de los siglos oscuros, han podido verse en España, y en menor medida también en otros países, hace bien poco tiempo. La popular imagen literaria de Juanito Valderrama ha encontrado su contrapartida masculina. «No me llames padre. Ya sabes que padre no hay más que uno», le decía un sacerdote de la Obra a una persona que fue durante algún tiempo miembro del Instituto.

Ya iremos viendo la enorme importancia que esta concepción paternalista tiene en el Opus Dei y hasta qué punto está enraizada en el pensamiento del fundador. Es precisamente esta paternidad espiritual, interpretada con los criterios familiares de un hombre nacido en el seno de una honrada familia de la pequeña burguesía comerciante de una también pequeña ciudad de provincias española, la que ha dado al Opus Dei su cohesión de gran familia. Esta consideración es tal vez lo que justifica el interés y actualidad de una semblanza de monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer. Y de la misma manera que, en la familia española pequeño-burguesa tradicional, el buen hijo se distingue por una indeclinable adhesión y respeto al principio de la paternidad, así también en el Opus Dei la suprema norma de conducta es la devoción y respeto al padre, tanto más cuanto que, si el padre de la familia es meramente padre en la carne, en la gran familia que el Opus Dei constituye la paternidad del fundador tiene un altísimo contenido espiritual. Como él mismo dice:

"¿Ansia de Hijos?,.. Hijos, muchos hijos y un rastro imborrable de luz dejaremos si sacrificamos el egoísmo de la carne."

Monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer encarna, como padre de sus seguidores y devotos, la realización de profundísimas aspiraciones sentidas por un sector muy concreto de la clase media que por las mismas épocas en que se desarrolla la vida y la obra del padre elige formas totalitarias de gobierno. Las referencias a la paternidad y al padre son constantes en el libro fundamental del Opus Dei, Camino. En el pequeño prólogo con que se inicia se dice que:

"Lee despacio estos consejos. Medita pausadamente estas consideraciones. Son cosas que te digo al oído, en confidencia de amigo, de hermano, de padre."

La relación entre Dios y el hombre se manifiesta una y otra vez como una relación entre el padre y el hijo. Se invita al lector a sentirse continuamente niño:

"El niño débil, si es discreto, procura estar siempre cerca de su padre."

o:

"¿No ves con qué mala gana da el niño sencillo a su padre, que le prueba, la golosina que tenía en sus manos? Pero se la da. Ha vencido el Amor."

o bien:

"Los niños no tienen nada suyo, todo es de sus padres, y tu padre sabe siempre muy bien cómo gobierna el patrimonio."

El niño, que el socio del Opus Dei aspira a ser, idealiza a su padre, lo mitifica y lo coloca en un pedestal, ocultándolo a los ojos del mundo a fin de mantener intacto lo que en la Obra se denomina su «carisma fundacional». La personalidad del padre es la piedra angular sobre la que se sostiene todo el edificio de la Obra. Y hay que decir que esta ocultación de que la Obra hace objeto a su fundador no es cosa de ahora ni fue inventada cuando el desenvolvimiento del Opus Dei puso al padre Escrivá de Balaguer en el primer plano de la actualidad periodística. Parece datar, por el contrario, de una época muy temprana, de los primeros años de la actividad apostólica de este grupo formado entonces por una docena de estudiantes universitarios y dirigido por un oscuro sacerdote provinciano llegado a Madrid con un evidente, aunque todavía inconcreto, sentido de la propia misión. A partir del momento en que, como afirman algunos de aquellos primeros discípulos, el Señor manifiesta al padre Escrivá cuál es el camino que debe seguir, su personalidad providencial se rodea de un halo de misterio, se agiganta y se hace progresivamente inaccesible. Un sacerdote navarro, el padre Iribarren, que le visita hacia 1935 en la residencia de Ferraz, la primera fundación universitaria de Escrivá de Balaguer, cuenta lo mucho que le costó que le recibiera. Repetidas veces tuvo que anunciarse y, finalmente, viendo que no salía, le dijo al muchacho que le abrió la puerta: «Dígale que hay aquí un cura que no se marcha sin verle.» Salió por fin don Josemaría y le abrazó diciéndole: «¡Hombre! ¡Cuánto lo siento! Me ponen un muro, no me dejan salir.»

Hay motivos para pensar que el encierro y alejamiento en que se mantiene desde el principio a don Josemaría responden a una calculadísima forma de actuar que tiene su origen en el carácter reservado, distante, del propio fundador. En efecto, sus compañeros del seminario de Zaragoza, donde realizó la mayor parte de su carrera sacerdotal, tienen ya el recuerdo de un muchacho más bien antipático, poco dado a la conversación y que apenas participa de las preocupaciones, inquietudes o esparcimientos comunes. Como tendremos ocasión de ver, algunos de ellos interpretan este rasgo de su carácter como vanidad, orgullo o soberbia, sin que falten los que lo atribuyan a una timidez que en esa época no ha superado todavía. En cualquier caso, parece evidente que monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer cultivó desde su juventud esta virtud de líder que consiste en no prodigarse, en administrar sabiamente el atractivo espiritual e incluso físico que parece tener quien escribía en la máxima 16 de Camino:

"¿Adocenarte? ¿Tú del montón? ¡Si has nacido para caudillo!"

Me inclino a creer que fue este principio de celosa ocultación del gran hombre el obstáculo con el que yo me topé al solicitar, de un modo un tanto ingenuo, una entrevista con el fundador. Una lectura detenida del libro titulado Conversaciones con monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer, publicado por la editorial Rialp, hace pensar que no fui yo el único a quien se le negó el acceso al santuario. A pesar del hecho de que la mayor parte de los periodistas que firman las entrevistas contenidas en el libro son miembros de la Obra, o simpatizantes de ella, el tono de casi todas las respuestas hace pensar que se trata dé entrevistas contestadas por escrito. Sé muy bien que éste es un procedimiento que a menudo tienen que utilizar los periodistas cuando entrevistan a personalidades de alguna importancia pública pero, en todos los casos, se suele hacer una descripción o estimación personal del entrevistado. En este libro se transcribe puramente la relación de preguntas y respuestas, sin que los firmantes de las en-trevistas se permitan en ningún momento el comentario ilustrativo o la observación oportuna sobre el aspecto físico o la psicología del personaje.

La lectura de este libro, he de confesarlo, me quitó las pocas ilusiones que me quedaban de ser recibido por monseñor, antes de que Javier Ayesta, en la entrevista de Vitruvio, me las quitara del todo al anunciarme que yo me encontraba al final de una cola que exigiría tres años de espera. Mi decisión de preparar una semblanza del fundador del Opus Dei, sin embargo, seguía siendo firme y yo me decía para mis adentros: «La mi-sión de monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer es santificar el mundo á través del trabajo. La mía, hacer el trabajo de una semblanza de monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer.» Pero si monseñor no quería recibirme, si la representación oficial de la Obra no estaba dispuesta a darme datos sobre su vida y su personalidad, ¿qué posibilidad me quedaba?

Interesantísimo Luis Carandell, yo encuentro más lleno de vida el legado de los P.Jesuitas y por su puesto el P.Arrupe.

Es una opinión con todo el respeto ya que faltan de esta faz del mundo.

¡Cómo es la vida! Hablé sólo una vez con Carandell, de casualidad, por la radio. En una tertulia donde estaba Ana Rosa Quintana, en la antigua Antena 3 (ya llovió). El tipo me corrigió, pues creí que la cruz de San Andrés era invertida y no, es en forma de aspa. Yo era un monaguillo que se fijaba poco, casi como ahora.
En cuanto a lo de Escrivá: leer sus andanzas es como ir "patrás", curiosamente el lugar en Grecia donde dicen que crucificaron a Andrés.

LUIS CARANDELL: VIDA Y MILAGROS DE MONSEÑOR ESCRIVÁ DE BALAGUER, FUNDADOR DEL OPUS DEI (1)

Luis Carandell. Dibujo de Gusi Bejer

Prólogo de Alfonso C. Comín:

Andanzas y desventuras de un biógrafo

Barcelona, marzo 1975

Pocos habrán sido los universitarios cristianos de las décadas 40 y 50 que se hayan librado del asedio proselitista del Opus Dei. El amigo que trataba de librarnos del camino de perdición que nos acosaba, el salvador de la emboscada que nos tendía el mundo concupiscente y carnal, se multiplicaba aquí y allá, en facultades y escuelas especiales. El "apostolado de la inteligencia" del que habla Luis Carandell en este libro y que conducía a los miembros del Opus Dei a ver, abusivamente, inteligencia en todo universitario algo espabilado, ha marcado la convivencia y el equilibrio mental de las universidades españolas de aquella época. En cuanto te separabas del grupo bajo el claustro o te acercabas a pedir un café con leche, dispuesto a engullir el modesto bocadillo, ya tenías al lado, solícito y pertinaz, al ángel de la guarda. "Oye, ¿te ha invitado a merendar a la residencia?" o, "Después de ver la película, me pasaron a una salita donde un grupo de residentes iniciaron un asalto a mi vocación, a mis cualidades desaprovechadas para mayores empresas y... me defendí como pude...", eran conversaciones habituales por aquel entonces. En principio, todos los universitarios estábamos al alcance del agresivo instituto secular.
Sin tener nada en contra del Opus Dei, sólo por el mero hecho de mantenerse independiente respecto a la Obra, resultabas poco menos que tendencioso y lascivo, peligrosa persona de la que convendría advertirse. No entrar en la Obra era algo así como menospreciarla. Recuerdo mi final con el compañero de curso que, a la salida de las clases, seguí casualmente con frecuencia la misma ruta que yo y que al decirle por enésima vez -es posible que ya algo airado- que no insistiera, que el domingo no iría al Colegio Mayor Monterols y que no entraría nunca en la Obra y aquello tan elemental y evangélico de que "muchos son los caminos que llevan a Dios, muchos e inescrutables", me contestó: "Bueno, eso piensas; pero vas camino de la perdición". Y así acabamos sin que yo considerara que por no entrar en la Obra tuviéramos que romper hostilidades. Pero él no entendía otra manera de relacionarse que la de la captación de neófitos. La amistad sin proselitismo no formaba parte de sus vísceras.
Al cabo de los años sufriría todavía un nuevo conflicto con la Obra. En 1965 publiqué en "El Ciervo" un artículo titulado "Diálogo sobre el Opus Dei", en el que trataba de exponer los rasgos característicos del Instituto tal como se representaban en la época: espíritu de pertenencia, concomitancias integristas, utilización de "medios ricos" en su tarea apostólica, proselitismo agobiante, etc. Me atrevo a decir que el artículo estaba redactado con espíritu fraternal, dentro de un clima de diálogo tenso, pero cordial. Pese a ello las reacciones que provocó en diversos miembros simpatizantes de la Obra fueron de notable agresividad. El antiguo compañero de la Escuela de Ingenieros que no había logrado conducirme al "buen camino" me escribió una carta severa en la que me acusaba de no aplicar el espíritu de caridad que seguramente tendría con los protestantes, "hermanos separados" y que con ellos discriminaba. ("Hermanos separados", rara línea de demarcación que yo no compartía, ni comparto, al considerar que no existen "hermanos separados" sino hombres en lucha, clases sociales enfrentadas y que ni siquiera la Iglesia católica es para mí la "gran familia", sino simplemente un extraño lugar, fermento de fe, sólo comprensible cuando se sumerge en la marca agitada de la humanidad. Pero mi antiguo compañero reclamaba título de derecho al sobresaliente por pertenecer a la familia de los "hermanos unidos" en el seno de la Iglesia Católica.) Como entonces vivía en Málaga, donde el Opus no tenía afincamiento notable por las dificultades que le planteaba monseñor Herrera, en aquella época obispo de Málaga, me visitó un miembro de la Obra de Granada. Éste trató de probarme lo innoble de mi proceder, mi error al redactar semejante artículo, y me presionó con "santa coacción", suavemente, para que publicara una rectificación pública. Cuando le dije que no había dado ningún argumento convincente para hacerlo -la discusión había sido realmente digna de un mimo entre sordos, su "teoría de la seglaridad en la Iglesia" alucinante para quienes tratábamos de vivir como hombres "mondos y lirondos" con esa leve Palabra que llamamos Evangelio en lo más hondoconcluyó que siempre sucedía igual con quienes tratábamos de "ganar fama criticando al Opus"; éramos incapaces de rectificar nuestros crasos errores.

Con todo lo dicho, suficientemente conocido por cualquier ciudadano que haya vivido la realidad española de aquellos años, especialmente en sus ambientes universitarios, he tratado simplemente de recordar un dato de partida fundamental para la buena lectura de este libro: el Opus Dei -y en la sombra del retrato al fondo, su fundador- ha sido un elemento pertinazmente presente en la vida civil y eclesial de "nuestra juventud". Es decir, antes de la eclosión de los hombres del Opus Dei en la vida política española en sus más altos niveles, antes de la era iniciada con el nombramiento de Alberto Ullastres en febrero de 1957 como ministro de Comercio, el acoso de las conciencias y la presencia proselitista del Opus Dei había hecho de esta institución un polo de referencia inevitable en el seno de la Iglesia española... Y no digo de la cultura española "strictu sensu", porque las relaciones entre el Opus Dei y cultura contemporánea se baten más bien, pese al potencial de "instrumentos culturales" con que ha contado (universidades, Colegios Mayores, centros profesionales, etc, ...), como personajes sin gran capacidad de comunicación. Bueno, claro, según el concepto que tengamos de cultura. Pues aún hay quien defiende el valor contemporáneo de la cultura feudal.

Esta situación nos había llevado a muchos de nosotros a leer el libro-raíz que inspiraba tanto ardor proselitista en los compañeros insistentes. La verdad es que yo deseaba penetrar el origen de tal poder de persuasión. La lectura de "Camino" fue para mí una experiencia inolvidable. Pasé del asombro a la "santa indignación", para utilizar una frase querida al recio lenguaje de Escrivá de Balaguer y de otros espiritualistas de la época. Inevitablemente me pregunté (y conmigo otros amigos que estaban también tratando de entender cómo podía escribirse una obra así en el siglo XX): ¿Quién será el personaje capaz de haber redactado semejante itinerario de consejas religiosas? ¿Cómo habrá logrado esta zona de influencia en nuestra sociedad en base a semejante carrera de tales 999 exclamaciones espirituales?
Creo que Luis Carandell trata de contestar a esta pregunta crucial. Como verá el lector a través de esta "vida y milagros", sólo a partir de una paciente labor de investigación que casi recuerda la del antropólogo en busca de antecedentes prehistóricos o la del arqueólogo interpretando leves signos rupestres, le ha sido posible dibujar este "retrato robot" con monseñor al fondo. Pues, pese a tratarse de un personaje en vida -hecho que podría haberle facilitado la tarea hagiográfica-, Luis Carandell ha debido peregrinar por la geografía peninsular en busca del más nimio dato perdido, en busca de referencias, de viejos amigos y compañeros de Escrivá que le explicaran tales o cuales anécdotas, claves de su personalidad, averiguando orígenes y linaje familiar, procurando interpretar el sentido pleno que tiene para la Obra el hecho de que el Padre no se coja la sotana como cualquier sacerdote, su magnificencia al bajar las escaleras, o la trascendencia de su elevación de brazos. Estructurando al mismo tiempo un cuidado fichero en el que ha constrastado datos y referencias de las obras del "padre", acumulando así una base sistematizada del arrollador pensamiento de Escrivá de Balaguer. Gracias al "trasiego de entradas y salidas" característico de la Obra, no pocas personas han ido facilitando pinceladas que han permitido a Luis completar el "retrato -robot" de un hombre a quien nunca ha visto, pese a ser su contemporáneo, Al no poder contar con acceso a las fuentes directas que lógicamente la Obra debe tener para perfilar una biografía del Padre, al no obtener datos y referencias de los "organismos competentes", Luis ha debido peregrinar por la piel de toro y, de Barbastro a Burgos, de Logroño a Madrid, pasando por el inútil intento de la visita a la residencia de Bruno Buozzi, 73, en Roma, acumulando así en directo los datos que permitan penetrar la mirada profunda del impulsor de Torreciudad. Como en el prólogo de su libro, Luis explica con detalle las andanzas y desventuras que ha debido correr para ofrecernos la primera biografía

"strictu sensu" del fundador del Opus Dei, no me extiendo en este aspecto de la cuestión.

Cuando era José María Escribá Albás, "el seminarista más guapo del mundo"

La semblanza, parcial sin duda, que ofrece este libro se basa en datos rigurosamente contrastados. Las fuentes son el dato "conquistado" por el andariego Carandell pateándose la península; y así el "biógrafo-investigador" nos presenta, si no todo, casi todo lo que hasta ahora se puede reunir de primera y propia mano sobre la ínclita figura del iniciador de la "prodigiosa aventura del Opus Dei". El trabajo de Carandell, aun centrado en describir el perfil del "cura más guapo del mundo" al que siendo seminarista asediaban las chicas de Zaragoza, y en el análisis de sus complejos componentes caracteriológicos, ofrece en su "retrato-robot" algunas tesis cruciales para la buena comprensión del Opus Dei que, en otros análisis de la Obra tales como el de Artigues o el de Ynfante, se han escapado. La fundamental, la concepción familiar-paternalista que la obra de Luis Carandell ilustra, labra con atención. "La segunda aportación original de Escrivá radica en el hecho de haber fundado su Instituto sobre los cimientos de la célula familiar. Esta "gran familia" que los socios o "hijos" pasan a engrosar a medida que entran a formar parte de la Obra, va a regirse por los principios paternalistas que le impone el concepto de que la institución de la familia tiene la pequeña burguesía provinciana a la que Escrivá pertenece" -piensa el autor- dando así una de las clases centrales de su obra. Otras "tesis" o reflexiones se desprenden alusiva o explícitamente de esta "biografía-río". Entre ellas, la fundamental, de la vinculación entre impulso de la Obra y la salvación religiosa que surge inseparablemente de la guerra civil en España de los años cuarenta. El machismo paradójicamente freudiano con el que se aborda el papel de la mujer en la sociedad -veáse el capítulo "La santa coquetería" o las penetrantes referencias a las originales relaciones entre el ímpetu secular de monseñor Escrivá y las no menos dominantes ideas del padre Ayala -fundador de la Asociación Católica Nacional de Propagandistas, autor de "Formación de Selectos"- sobre el tema, así como con la Compañía de Jesús, son cuestiones que trazan importantes perfiles de este peculiar representante del nacional-catolicismo.
A partir de los datos y de las formulaciones "opusdeísticas" que Luis Carandell nos ofrece, no debe sorprendernos que esta fundación finalmente aparezca en la mente del "padre", no como una obra humana, sino como intemporal, al margen de la Historia, apenas sometida a cambios ni influencias de ningún tipo; ni tampoco que el propio Escrivá considerara -y así se lo dijera personalmente al Papa en una entrevista- "que él, con la fundación del Opus Dei, se había anticipado en varias décadas a las ideas formuladas por el Concilio".

La peculiar insistencia sobre la "nueva teoría" del papel de los laicos en la Iglesia, hace de esta cuestión otra piedra de toque sustancias para entender Obra y padre. Carandell aborda el tema con cuidado y nos recuerda las bases sobre las que se desarrolla la peculiar idea "opusdeística" de la "santificación del trabajo y del mundo por el trabajo", llegando por esa vía al "deber de estado". La máxima 359 citada por Luis centra la nueva teología "andariega" al margen de los acontecimientos históricos: "Pon un motivo sobrenatural a tu ordinaria labor profesional y habrás santificado el trabajo". Ya tenemos el "sombrero sobrenatural" con que cualquier accionista del más exquisito banco cubre su cerebro religioso bautizando así su afanosa tarea de financiero cristiano. Ya tenemos abierta la vía -¿para qué vamos a pensar que existen clases sociales en un mundo santificado por el trabajo, sea éste el del consejero del banco o el de picador en la mina?- que permitirá a Juan Bautista Torelló concluir su trabajito sobre "La espiritualidad de los laicos" diciendo: "Esta espiritualidad primordialmente laical lo mantendrá siempre en su sitio, donde Dios lo ha buscado, y, finalmente, lo conducirá a morir en "una buena cama, como un burgués..., pero de mal de Amor" (final del punto 743 de "Camino" en que, en su todo, dice: "Me hablas de morir "heroicamente". -¿No crees que es más "heroico" morir inadvertido en una buena cama..." y sigue lo anterior). Todo va siendo desentrañado por el análisis de Carandell, que finalmente nos incita a preguntarnos sobre éstas y tantas otras cuestiones a través del recorrido histórico-biográfico por el que cabalga para delinear su cuidado "retrato-robot". Y así muchas de las máximas-consejas de "Camino" adquieren pleno relieve en el encuadre histórico-psicológico que sitúa la Obra entendida como una "gran familia" con un solo padre.
En este libro se hallan muchas respuestas a la cuestión "¿Pero qué es el Opus Dei?", que tantos nativos y extranjeros se han venido haciendo hasta hoy. No todas las respuestas, por supuesto. Pero confieso que, al menos yo, que desde que leí "Camino" no había dejado de preguntarme por la ardorosa personalidad y por el poder del autor del nuevo Kempis -traducido a decenas de idiomas y difundido más allá de los dos millones y medio de ejemplares- he podido entender no pocas de su fisonomías hasta ahora sólo entrevistas en la sombra de los grandes edificios que lo arropan.
Todo lo dicho hasta aquí explica por qué, allá por el invierno de 1971, cuando era director literario de Editorial Estela -que a finales de 1969 había iniciado una nueva etapa cultural con nuevo equipo- cuandi Luis trajo su original "Vida y milagros de monseñor Escrivá del Balaguer, fundador del Opus Dei" sintiera inmediatamente la pasión de que la obra se publicara, de que tantos pudieran conocer esa "Vida y milagros" de quien estaba en la bóveda de una obra explicativa de muchos aspectos de nuestra historia contemporánea. Todos los compañeros de Editorial Estela participaron de la misma pasión. "Salvaremos los obstáculos, Luis", le dije en un arranque invertebrado. "¿Tú crees?" "Sí... Nunca hay que darse por vencido antes de hora." Teníamos esta conversación, original en mano, en tiempos de lo que Luis denomina, según frase acuñada por la prensa, del "gobierno homogéneo", cuando Estela estaba viendo el despegue inesperado de "Autopista" de Jaume Perich, obra prologada precisamente por el autor de esta "Vida y milagros".

En pleno furor y vigor tecnocrático, Perich había escrito un aforismo "docente" e impertinente: "De momento, al célebre "Camino" no se le va a cambiar el título para llamarle "Autopista." Este coqueteo entre las obras de infraestructura económica y las propiamente religiosas de la Obra dio origen al título que recogía un cúmulo de aforismos y de chistes que Perich venía publicando en "El Correo Catalán" en su sección "Peris-Match", materiales que, en el caso del humorista catalán resultaron ser señas de identidad de la realidad política contemporánea del país. Estábamos comenzando lo que después se ha calificado como el "boom" del humor político. Pero si nosotros creíamos que ése era un buen camino para señalar otros peajes diferentes de los señalizados por las barreras y vallas sembradas por la península, la realidad es que el horno no estaba para bollos y así se vio pocos meses después.
A partir del título y del aforismo citado -que, en conjunto no pretendía marcar una pauta polémica- el público en general creyó ver en "Autopista" de Perich una alternativa "humorístico-político-relajadora de represiones mil" - a las máximas "tenso-directivo-marca el paso" de "Camino". Personalmente siempre he defendido que la analogía es injusta e incorrecta. Es verdad que uno hallaba "Autopista" en muchas mesillas de noches de ciudadanos agobiados que, antes de sumergirse en pesadillas, frustraciones y sueños agobiantes plagados de claveles rojos deshojados rociando las calles de su ciudad y de sus tierras asediadas, leían unas cuantas máximas librándose así de posibles visitas al psiquiatra. Y es verdad también que esto podía hacer suponer que ya estaba abandonando la sana tradición de leer unas líneas del viejo Kempis o del nuevo escrito por monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer, en plena euforia de cruzada y de nacional-catolocismo para bien dormir acompañados del ángel de la guarda, desviándole así muchos ciudadanos por la laica y peligrosa vía de reír y sonreír con las amarguras del humorista catalán.
Pero la analogía no se sostenía. Primero, ya querría Perich tener el sentido del humor que ejerce Escrivá de Balaguer a lo largo de una obra que, tratando de ser evangélicamente religiosa, nos lleva en 999 saltos, escritos con increíbles sobresaltos lingüísticos, del llanto a la carcajada. ¿Acaso no son ésas las coordenadas del humor? Por otra, ya querría Perich tener el recio estilo castellano, "tambour battant", de que hace gala el fundador del Opus Dei en su veloz recorrido desde la vulgaridad de esta tierra hasta la gloria de un cielo señalado para los escogidos. La última razón es que Perich no ha leído "Camino" -según me consta y lo rubrico- y difícilmente podía pensar que la recopilación de sus aforismos se considerarían "alternativas" históricas a las palabras del padre. La prueba es que cuando -como suele suceder cada vez que alguien se refiere públicamente al Opus de palabra o por escrito- Perich fue solicitado por algún miembro de la Obra para tener un diálogo cordial, y dijo tímidamente: "Es que yo no creo en Dios", le contestaron: "Pero es igual, venga que hablaremos..." Por eso, cuando estoy prologando el libro de Luis Carandell, me veo obligado a polemizar con él cuando en su "ídem" a "Autopista" de Perich se permitió afirmar abusivamente, al señalar las venas catalanas influyentes en el humor de Perich, la incidencia "de otro mosén, esta vez aragonés, aunque de remoto origen catalán, monseñor Escrivá de Balaguer, el autor de "Camino", de quien toma Perich la concepción de la estructura del libro". (Además no conozco todavía ninguna edición de "Camino" que vaya acompañada de ilustraciones parejas a las que Perich ofrece en su "Autopista". En esto sí le gana al "cura más guapo del mundo").

Y así parece que el éxito de "Autopista" -entendida como ironía con peaje de "Camino"- junto con la publicación de alguna otra obra -particularmente la edición castellana de la biografía del cardenal Vidal i Barraquer, de mossén Muntayola, que había circulado en catalán sin más consecuencias como exponentes de la nueva línea cultural que Editorial Estela había iniciado en 1969 y que se estaba reflejando en un católogo más acorde con las necesidades culturales del país y con nuestra historia más próxima- disgustaron de tal manera a algunos sectores de la ortodoxia administrativa y no administrativa que condujo a sancionar a Editorial Estela con la anulación de su inscripción en el registro de Información y Turismo con la consiguiente prohibición de seguir editando. Es decir, Estela pagó un duro tributo al encontrarse repentinamente cerrada la barrera de control del peaje. En junio de 1971 se nos dijo, ustedes dejan de circular por estas carreteras culturales y a otra cosa. El caso es que el optimismo de la frase "salvaremos los obstáculos" pareció desenfrenado. Se vio que con el "gobierno homogéneo" en funciones, las críticas a la Obra y a su fundador no eran del gusto de los gendarmes fronterizos de la cultura religioso-política del país. Ésas, entre otras.
Al reanudar el "camino" mediante la puesta en marcha de Editorial Laia, entreabiertas las puertas de una mayor posibilidad crítica, el original de Luis Carandell, pacientemente en reposo durante cuatro años, nos hizo señas. El dibujo se animó y la tarea cultural de desentrañamiento de uno de los misterios de la España contemporánea -¿pero quién es Escrivá de Balaguer?- empezó a inquietarse, a exigir presencia, voz en el concierto cultural del cambio y de los aromas silvestres.
Y así, con leves modificaciones, fruto de nuevas investigaciones, peregrinajes y lecturas, fruto de nuevas investigaciones, peregrinajes y lecturas, modernizado algún dato, indicando alguna nueva referencia de inefables revistas de la Obra tales como "Telva" o "Nuestro tiempo", Luis dejó el "retrato-robot" del padre concluido, con lo cual hoy llega por fin al lector la primera aproximación seria y crítica de una personalidad inaccesible -Luis, si te hubieras apuntado a la lista de espera, quizá después de los despegues internacionales, hubieras pillado un viaje de reclutamiento para nativos y te hubieran concedido la entrevista; ves, te falta la santa paciencia del santo Job-, padre de una "gran familia" que se extiende por el mundo entero.

Ahora podemos explicar estas y otras cosas. Hubiera sido bueno poder decirlas en su momento. No fue posible y lo hacemos ahora. No por ánimo de despertar viejas querellas, sino para clarificar futuras situaciones. Muchas cosas han cambiado en el país en estos años. También el Opus. Estoy seguro de que muchos de sus miembros serán capaces hoy de recoger cuantas sugerencias y apuntes hay en esta obra de Carandell para "mejor enmienda" y superación de "escrúpulos". Y que, así, igual que hemos ido conociendo la "vida y milagros" de los fundadores de tantas y tantas empresas religiosas que han venido marcando la historia de nuestro país, este escorzo con Escrivá al fondo permitirá a propios y extraños de la Obra penetrar galaxias y estrellas errantes de la España contemporánea.

Esta obra es, pues, una aportación cultural de primera magnitud, que hubiera podido llegar cuatro años antes a las manos del lector. Pero ya se sabe, nunca es tarde cuando llega, si es que llega. Nuestros esfuerzos editoriales, como los intelectuales de Luis Carandell, están muy lejos de la provocación. Consideramos la tarea cultural como un proceso abierto, libre, crítico. Por ello no abandonamos nunca el proyecto de publicar esta biografía que nos permite adentrarnos en ciertos azares de la historia de España contemporánea, azares como éste iniciado en Barbastro en los años de 1902 y que tiene su tránsito y culminación en la inspiración divina que el 2 de octubre de 1928, fiesta e los Santos Angeles Custodios, conduce a Monseñor Escrivá a iniciar una "Obra-gran familia" que se consolidará en 1947 con la solemne promulgación de la Constitución Apostólica "Provida Mater Ecclesiae" por el Papa Pío XII, Obra que tan sólo puede entenderse en el fenoménico nacional-catolicismo a que dio lugar la guerra civil, tal como Carandell deja claramente descrito.
Ya hemos visto que llegar hasta aquí no ha sido fácil. La "Vida y milagros de Escrivá de Balaguer", antes de plasmarse en letra impresa, han tenido que seguir andanzas y desventuras propias. ¡Ah!, la aventura de escribir en España, querido Luis. "Poco recio es tu carácter: ¡qué afán de meterte en todo! Te empeñas en ser la sal de todos los platos... Y -no te enfadarás porque te hable claro- tienes poca gracia para ser sal: y no eres capaz de deshacerte y pasar inadvertido a la vista, igual que ese condimento. Te falta espíritu de sacrificio. Y te sobra espíritu de curiosidad y de exhibición." Máxima 48, Luis, capítulo 1, referido al carácter. Aplícatelo, y que se lo aplique Laia.
Pero, al tiempo, entre nosotros, y cuando hablamos, no en tertulia, sino un poco entre sencillos y atareados por nuestra cultura, por nuestra pobre tierra y las vemos así y les deseamos otra "fragancia" que no sea la de bucólicos lirios, nos atrevemos a decir: "Luis también ha hecho su obra." Y como toda obra honesta, en busca de la verdad, ¿no es también una "obra de Dios"?

RAZONES PARA UNA MORATORIA EN LA APLICACIÓN DE LA VACUNA DEL VIRUS DEL PAPILOMA HUMANO EN ESPAÑA

En el año 2006, la FDA (Food and Drug Administration) rechazó la petición de Merck & Co para ampliar el rango de edad indicado para el Gardasil, vacuna contra el virus del papiloma humano, para suministrarlo a mujeres de 26 a 45 años. La FDA adujo que hay "razones que descartan su aprobación", y desestimó también la petición de Merck de extender el uso de Gardasil a otros subtipos de Virus del Papiloma Humano.

En España, el Ministerio de Sanidad consideró prioritaria una campaña de vacunación masiva contra el VPH, con Gardasil, para niñas y jóvenes desde los cinco hasta los veintiséis años, con el criterio de que el VPH es el causante del cáncer de cuello de útero, a pesar de la baja incidencia de este tipo de cáncer en España, y a pesar de las dudas sobre la utlidad e idoneidad de esta vacuna.
Poco tiempo después, en febrero de 2009, El Ministerio de Sanidad y Consumo español tuvo que ordenar la suspensión temporal del lote NH52670 de la marca Gardasil, tras conocerse la existencia en España de 103 "notificaciones de sospechas" por reacciones adversas asociadas a esta vacuna. De ellas, 35 se calificaron inicialmente como graves según los criterios internacionales, y entre esas 35 reacciones graves al Gardasil, cinco casos han sido con convulsiones, y dos casos clínicamente graves, entraron en coma, ingresadas en la UCI ; pero se ha continuado la vacunación con el resto de los lotes de Gardasil.
En marzo de 2008, el Juzgado de Instrucción número 24 de Madrid no admitió la querella criminal interpuesta por la Associació de Dones des Illes Balears per la Salut (ADIBS) contra la multinacional de origen francés Sanofi Pasteur MSD, que comercializa en España la vacuna Gardasil, de la farmacéutica Merck,& Co. contra el virus del papiloma humano (VPH), una de las posibles causas del cáncer de cuello de útero. El motivo de la denuncia es "la publicidad engañosa y encubierta de la vacuna" y su fundamento, el artículo 282 del Código Penal, que sanciona a los fabricantes que en sus ofertas o publicidad hagan "alegaciones falsas o manifiesten características inciertas sobre los mismos, de modo que puedan causar un perjuicio grave y manifiesto a los consumidores".
"Según investigadoras independientes de ADIBS, la multinacional ha omitido datos y ha incluido afirmaciones falsas en su publicidad: en Europa el cáncer de cuello de útero es la sexta, y no la segunda, causa de mortalidad por cáncer en mujeres de 60 años, y no en mujeres de entre 15 y 44. La publicidad incluía la frase "protege la vida de tu hija" que, para Leonor Taboada, directora de la revista Mujeres y Salud, ha generado alarma social y condicionado la libre decisión de los padres."
La inadmisión de la denuncia a trámite fue dictada en tan sólo diez días. Hay veces en que los jueces actúan con la debida diligencia, como en este caso, en el que peligraban los intereses económicos de la industria farmacéutica.
En diciembre de 2008, se inició una investigación criminal contra el Comité del Premio Nobel que premió al alemán Harald zur Hauser por su descubrimiento de la relación entre el virus del Papiloma Virus Humano y el cáncer cervical. Las acusaciones se han centrado en dos empresas consultoras de los premios Nobel, Nobel Media y Nobel Webb , que habían recibido millones de dolares de *Astra-Zeneca, .*propietario de las patentes y los royalties de las dos únicas vacunas actualmente en el mercado -Gardasil y Cerverix-, cuya cotización y comercialización se ha disparado gracias al descubrimiento de la relación entre el virus del Papiloma Virus Humano y el cáncer cervical, según las investigaciones de Harald zur Hauser, premiado con el Nobel de medicina de este año.
Estas conexiones financieras del Comité del Premio Nobel con Astra-Zeneca podrían ser de "índole criminal", y pone bajo sospecha no sólo la honorabilidad, de los que se dejaron sobornar; sino también la fiabilidad de quienes respaldan los resultados de la investigación sobre el virus del papiloma humano y su relación con el cáncer de cuello de útero.
Dos académicos del Comité del Premio Nobel: el profesor de investigaciones metabólicas, Bo Angelin del Karolinska Institute, está en nómina de Astra-Zeneca y otro alto cargo del Comité del Nobel, Bertil Fredholm, fue consejero en nómina de Astra-

Zeneca durante 2006.
El CAPS, asociación científica socio-sanitaria, independiente y sin ánimo de lucro, ha redactado este manifiesto, en el que dice, entre otras cosas , sobre la vacuna Gardasil como prevención del cáncer de cuello de útero:

-"Sencillamente, esta evidencia científica aún no existe. Los ensayos sobre la vacuna no han podido ver su efecto en la prevención del cáncer, ya que éste tarda mucho en desarrollarse; además, hay posibilidades reales, comprobadas, de cortar el proceso antes de que el cáncer se desarrolle, tanto mediante la inmunidad natural como con el cribado de lesiones precancerosas y su tratamiento. El ensayo que más tiempo de seguimiento ha tenido hasta ahora ha sido de 6 años (y es un ensayo de fase II) y el ensayo en fase III con mayor seguimiento hasta ahora tiene tan sólo 3 años. Dado que el cáncer que se pretende prevenir tarda 30, 50 o más años en desarrollarse, la brevedad de los ensayos es obvia. Por tanto, hará falta aún bastante tiempo para ver si las personas vacunadas en los ensayos clínicos desarrollan o no menos cánceres que las no vacunadas. En países como España, con una incidencia del problema tan baja, esperar debería ser la conducta lógica."

.-"También se han planteado objeciones razonables relacionadas con la duración de inmunogenicidad –aún no se sabe si serán necesarias dosis de recuerdo o no–, y sobre el comportamiento de los serotipos no incluidos en la vacuna, que quizás ocupen el nicho ecológico de los ahora incluidos. Hay ejemplos recientes de las consecuencias del uso de la vacuna neumocócica sobre la aparición de serotipos no cubiertos con la vacuna que son multiresistentes a los antibióticos y que causan enfermedad neumocócica invasiva."

-"¿Cómo podemos explicarnos que el SNS no tome la decisión más racional posible cuando se trata de defender el bien público? Obviamente, la industria farmacéutica y especialmente las compañías promotoras llevan años desarrollando estrategias de captación y creación de un clima de opinión favorable, exagerando riesgos con el fin de convencernos, primero, de que existía un problema, y de que luego ellos, precisamente, tenían la solución. Las estrategias de disease mongering –invención o exageración de enfermedades para introducir luego un producto farmacéutico– han sido criticadas duramente y con toda razón desde la deontología publicitaria por el abuso de la buena fe y de la aspiración a no sufrir enfermedades que naturalmente tienen la población y los políticos, a menudo legos en cuestiones sanitarias. El caso que nos ocupa supone la consideración novedosa, muy grave, de que toda infección por VPH es una enfermedad a prevenir, lo que es falso; y además con el énfasis, sin duda interesado, en la –no demostrada– prevención del cáncer de cuello uterino en España."

-"La industria farmacéutica tiene legítimos intereses financieros, pero no todos ni siempre están en sintonía con las necesidades de salud de la población. El escándalo reciente de la terapia hormonal sustitutoria, y la evidencia de que la industria escondió a la opinión pública durante 30 años graves efectos secundarios del tratamiento de una "enfermedad" previamente inventada, no coloca a este sector en una situación de gran credibilidad pública como garante de nuestra salud."

Es decir, pudiera ser que la vacuna sea más peligrosa que preventiva, y que los ensayos clínicos que demuestren su efectividad sólo puedan comprobarse, como mínimo, a la vuelta de treinta años, por lo que, de hecho, están experimentando con la población femenina española, entre los cinco y los veintiséis años, con una vacuna de la que se desconoce su efectividad, sus interacciones y sus contraindicaciones.

Y todo para que la clase de políticos como el Ministro Bernat Soria tengan un futuro magníficamente remunerado en la industria farmacéutica, la misma que avala su curriculum como científico, inflado e inventado para desempeñar su labor como defensor de sus intereses en el Gobierno de España.

PAPILOMA VIRUS HUMANO (PVH)

Se han identificado cerca de 100 tipos de (PVH) (78), está ampliamente difundido en la naturaleza (85-86-87); infecta a los animales domésticos y silvestres (88) y es la enfermedad viral más comúnmente trasmitida por el coito (69-90-91-92-93); se trasmite también al nacer (94-95-96-97), permanece latente en la infancia; se ha detectado también en el líquido amniótico (78-89), guantes de goma, pinzas de biopsias, espéculos y ropa interior; se sospecha que el médico pudiera trasmitir durante el examen vaginal o rectal (98), se encuentra presente también en el piso (28): por estas razones se duda que la transmisión sexual sea la única fuente de contaminación (78).

La infección por el PVH en más frecuente en personas de 20 a 25 años y está incrementándose (99-100-101); ha alcanzado proporciones epidémicas (102) especialmente en jóvenes(103); el hombre asintomático es el reservorio del PVH genital (104); se infectan dos hombres por cada mujer (105-106). La prevalencia en 1970 era del 1 % al 2 % (90) y en 1985 por citología 2.5 % (96). Actualmente se informa prevalencia detectada por métodos de alta sensibilidad hasta en el 85 % (78-107-108-109-110-111-112-113-114) y en mujeres de más de 35 años decrece al 2 % o 3%. En el 40 % de embarazadas se detecta PVH DNA positivo en el primer trimestre y en el 60 % en el tercer trimestre y disminuye al 17 % en el puerperio (89), debido a la disminución del sistema inmunológico durante el embarazo o influencia positiva de las hormonas sexuales aumentadas durante la gestación (89-115).
En 1974 sur Hausen postuló la teoría de que el PVH pudiera ser el agente que generara el carcinoma del cuello uterino (53); pero es a partir de 1976 con mayor insistencia se inculpa al PVH ser el agente cancerígeno del cerviz uterino (116-117), por evidencias citológicas, histológicas, inmunocitoquímicas, hibridización, serología y otros (118-119). El PVH a pesar de ser el primer inculpado de desarrollar el carcinoma del cuello uterino, no se le detecta en la totalidad de los canceres del cerviz. Reid reporta presencia de PVH en neoplasia intracervical e invasivo en solamente 49 % (120); publican presencia del PVH en displasia 40 % e invasivo 90 % (121-122); otro autor informa 95% (IARC). Jones investigó por 3 años mujeres con alteraciones citológicas del epitelio uterino con infección por el PVH 16: progresó a in situ 29.5 %, desapareció 29.5 % y permaneció inmodificado 41 %:y con el PVH 6; progresó a in situ 5.9 % y desapareció 41.2 % (123) .La infección se produce por inoculación del PVH en la capa basal, a través del epitelio cervical traumatizado por el coito (78-100) o atraviesa la capa celular del epitelio (120). Las alteraciones citológicas de la infección subclínica por el PVH del epitelio del cuello uterino fueron observadas por Ayre en 1949 (124). Koss en 1955 describió al koilocito como característica de displasia, sin sospechar que era producida por el PVH (125); Meisels y Fortin en 1976 y Purola y Savia en 1977 (77) confirmaron que ciertas alteraciones citológicas del epitelio del cuello uterino consideradas como típicas de la displasia y carcinoma in situ (koilocitos y diskeratocitos) eran en realidad patognomónicas de la infección subclínica por el PVH (120), confirmadas por microscopía electrónica por Alberti y Cols. 1970 y Meisels y Col. 1984 (77) e inmun citoquimica e hibridización (98). Los tipos de PVH 6 y 11 ocasionan los condilomas y los tipos 16 y 18 se hallan entre el 70 % a 75 % en las displasias y cáncer invasivo (Barbosa y Cols); también se han hallado en el carcinoma del cuello uterino otros tipos de PVH: 31. 33, 35 (Terry y Cols), 45, 51, 52, 56 y 58 (Lorincz) y otros.
Las lesiones preneoplásicas del cuelo uterino se inician exclusivamente en la zona de trasformación y la infección por el PVH se desarrollan en otras zonas: vagina, vulva, periné, ano, etc. (54-126). No hay evidencias del aumento del carcinoma del cuello uterino por el aumento de la infección por el PVH (127). La mayoría de las infecciones por el PVH son asintomáticas (81-86-100-105-106) y el PVH como agente etiológico del carcinoma del cuello uterino no cumple el postulado de Koch: no se encuentra en el 100 %, cuando se inyecta no reproduce la neoplasia maligna y se halla en otra enfermedad (98). La presencia del PVH no es suficiente para el desarrollo del tumor maligno del cuello uterino, se requiere la compañía de varios factores exógenos y endógenos (Jackson y Cols.). Nuestros conocimientos de las relaciones del PVH con los cofactores aun son deficientes y el papel que juegan los cofactores en la aparición de la patología maligna del cuello uterino son nebulosos (Saveria). Las investigaciones deben profundizarse en el PVH y los cofactores (Campo).

Autor: Comunicado de la WACR

COMUNICADO URGENTE
En Majadahonda, a 12 de Septiembre del 2008

La World Association for Cancer Research (WACR), ante el comienzo en España de la inoculación masiva en niñas de la llamada Vacuna del Virus del Papiloma Humano, reitera públicamente que tal acción no se justifica ni médica ni científicamente porque ni se ha probado que la vacuna sea eficaz, ni es cierto que impida a las vacunadas contraer en el futuro cáncer cervico-uterino, ni hay estudios que avalen su seguridad. Antes bien, hay datos suficientemente alarmantes como para aplazar esa decisión cuya urgencia no se justifica en absoluto. Basta para entenderlo saber que:
1. La eficacia real de la vacuna no podrá constatarse antes de 30 o 35 años. Lo reconoció públicamente la ex Ministra de Sanidad y Consumo, Elena Salgado.
2. No hay datos suficientes que avalen la seguridad de la vacuna. La FDA norteamericana aprobó la vacuna por la vía rápida.-incomprensiblemente porque la incidencia de este problema en el mundo es muy baja- permitiendo al laboratorio fabricante que la vendiera sin tener que presentar el estudio masivo exigido ¡ hasta septiembre del 2009 ! Luego, ¿por qué no se espera al menos hasta esa fecha?
3. No se han realizado ni siquiera estudios de genotoxicidad y carcinogenicidad de la vacuna a largo plazo. Luego, paradójicamente, nadie puede asegurar que las niñas no contraigan cáncer por vacunarse. O que se intoxiquen a nivel genético.
4. Nadie puede garantizar que las niñas no padecerán cáncer cervico-uterino en el futuro por vacunarse. Quien afirma tal cosa miente.
5. A la opinión pública se le está ocultando que según la organización no gubernamental estadounidense Judicial Watch -dedicada a examinar las acciones del Gobierno norteamericano- hasta mediados de junio de este año ha habido en Estados Unidos 18 personas muertas y 8.864 que han sufrido efectos adversos tras ser vacunadas con Gardasil. Las autoridades sanitarias dicen que aunque la relación en el tiempo es evidente -tuvieron lugar después de vacunarse- no hay pruebas concluyentes de que la causa sea la vacuna. Cabe agregar que tampoco de lo contrario.
6. La urgencia por vacunar no se justifica. El Virus del Papiloma Humano no es una enfermedad aerotransportada altamente infecciosa que justifique una vacunación obligatoria. No hay un riesgo inmediato de transmisión rápida del VPH en nuestras escuelas al igual que pudiera llegar a ocurrir en un momento dado con un brote de meningitis o sarampión.
7. No se está informando adecuadamente a la ciudadanía de que la vacuna es voluntaria. Antes bien, se está haciendo creer a los padres que es poco menos que imprescindible mediante informaciones sesgadas y campañas publicitarias claramente engañosas.
8. Los tipos de alto riesgo del virus para los que se supone sirve la vacuna (16 y 18) tienen en España un predominio muy bajo. En nuestro país la prevalencia de infección por VPH es de hecho una de las más bajas de Europa.
9. Ni siquiera se conoce durante cuánto tiempo protege la vacuna. Y e llo puede obligar a tener que revacunar a las niñas y jóvenes una y otra vez cada cierto tiempo.
10. No se ha incidido suficientemente en el hecho de que la vacuna sólo funciona -si realmente lo hace- cuando la persona que la recibe no está ya infectada por alguno de los virus incluidos en ella en el momento de la inoculación. A pesar de lo cual se piensa poner la vacuna a todas las niñas sin comprobarlo.

11. Se ha hecho creer a la sociedad que en el seno de la comunidad médica y científica hay consenso sobre la eficacia y seguridad de la vacuna y sobre la conveniencia de utilizarla pero eso es absolutamente falso. El actual Director General de Salud Pública, D. Ildefonso Pérez, se mostró pública y rotundamente contrario a la vacuna antes de asumir su actual cargo cuando ejercía como catedrático de Medicina Preventiva y Salud Pública en la Universidad Miguel Hernández-. Y el Dr. Juan Gérvas -miembro del equipo CESCA, colectivo español que agrupa a muchos médicos de Atención Primaria- se manifestó en el mismo sentido. Es más, recordamos que hay un manifiesto solicitando la moratoria de la vacuna firmado por numerosos médicos entre cuyos firmantes están Carlos Alvarez-Dardet -catedrático de Salud Pública de la Universidad de Alicante y Director del Journal of Epidemiology and Community Health-, Miquel Porta -catedrático de Salud Pública en el Instituto Municipal de Investigación Médica y en la Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona-, Beatriz González López-Valcárcel -catedrática de Economía Aplicada en la Universidad de las Palmas de Gran Canaria-, María José Rabanaque Hernández -Profesora Titular de Medicina Preventiva y Salud Pública de la Universidad de Zaragoza-, Soledad Márquez Calderón -miembro de la Fundación Instituto de Investigación en Servicios de Salud de Sevilla-, Lucía Artaz coz -investigadora del Centro de Análisis y Programas Sanitarios Leonor Taboada -, Carmen Valls Llobet -especialista en Medicina Interna y Endocrinogía-, Carmen Sánchez Contador -doctora del Servicio de Promoción de la Salud en la Consejería de Salud de Baleares-, Carmen Mosquera Tenreiro -epidemióloga en la Consejería de Salud y Servicios Sanitarios de Asturias-, María José Hernandez Ortiz -presidenta de ADIBS (Asociación de Mujeres y Salud de las Islas Baleares) y Jimena Jiménez Madrazo -doctora del Instituto DIS (Dona i Salut) de Baleares. Y así hasta más de 3.700 personas que exigen que se informe de la verdad.
12. La vacuna puede crear a la larga un falso sentido de protección al no afirmarse claramente que no inmuniza contra el cáncer de cerviz lo que puede originar descuidos en los controles anuales que sí se consideran cruciales para diagnosticar displasias antes de que puedan convertirse en cáncer.
13. No se han dado a conocer los artículos existentes sobre los posibles efectos secundarios de la vacuna, ni sobre los riesgos que comporta que la misma se inocule a la vez que otras.
14. Tampoco está debidamente explicado por qué Merck testó Gardasil contra un placebo que contenía aluminio. Mientras la mayoría de los placebos tienen base salina la FDA permitió a Merck usar un placebo con aluminio lo que indudablemente reduce la posible diferencia estadística en el número de efectos secundarios entre el producto y el placebo.
15. Se trata de una vacuna con un coste elevado. ¿A qué otros servicios médicos públicos tiene que renunciar o dejar de atender la sociedad debido al coste de la vacuna teniendo en cuenta la relación coste-beneficio de la misma?
En suma, la World Association for Cancer Research (WACR) considera injustificada en este momento la vacunación masiva impulsada por las Administraciones sanitarias y está dispuesta a aconsejar a los padres cuyas hijas pudieran enfermar -o morir- tras ser vacunadas los pasos legales adecuados para exigir las responsabilidades civiles y penales correspondientes.
Es más, si tales hechos se producen la WACR presentará además por su parte querellas criminales contra todos quienes resulten responsables.

No puedo entender el lucro a costa de la salud, no puedo creerlo hasta que leo una cosa como esta. Quizá habría de obligar a estas gentes a usar en primer lugar la vacuna con sus hijas...

Y yo que me puse tan contenta al saber de esta vacuna y pensé que pronto llegarían otras para otros cánceres...

Autor: Reingresa en la UCI la primera niña afectada por la VPH

Pilar G. del Burgo, Valencia
Raquel, la primera adolescente de la Comunitat Valenciana que el pasado 4 de febrero ingresó en la UCI del hospital Clínico de Valencia tras sufrir una reacción adversa con convulsiones y pérdida de conocimiento minutos después de inocularle la vacuna contra el virus del papiloma humano, y que desde hacía una semana permanecía ingresada en una habitación del mismo centro hospitalario, volvió la UCI a última hora de la tarde del domingo, tras sentir un fuerte mareo que desembocó en un ataque con convulsiones e inconsciencia, similar al primero que le llevó a Intensivos. Es la tercera vez que la menor reingresa en la UCI en los veinte días que permanece hospitalizada.
El empeoramiento de Raquel ocasionó una crisis de nervios en su compañera de habitación, Carla, de origen ecuatoriano, la segunda niña que el pasado 6 de febrero acusó los mismos síntomas minutos después de administrarle la vacuna. La niña también fue trasladada a La UCI.
La primera en abandonar Intensivos fue Raquel, pero tuvo que reingresar tres días más tarde al sufrir un empeoramiento y repetir los mismos síntomas.
Cuando ambas salieron de la UCI, fueron ingresadas en la misma habitación en el quinto piso del hospital materno infantil y durante una semana han intercambiado experiencias, buen humor y sus ganas de volver a su rutina escolar y familiar.
El domingo por la noche, la inesperada imagen de ver a Raquel agitándose convulsivamente e inconsciente causó una crisis nerviosa en Carla, que empezó a gritar: "No se la lleven, yo sé lo que va a sufrir en la UCI, no se la lleven...", por lo que su familia la sacó de la habitación y pidió que la sedaran para evitar la fiebre que siempre antecede a la aparición del resto de síntomas, según han expresado a Levante-EMV fuentes próximas a la familia.
Durante la jornada de ayer, Carla pidió globos que hinchó y dejó en la cama de su compañera, a la espera de que regrese pronto. La niña además ha llenado la sábana de mensajes como éste: "Raquel, yo no me voy si tu no vienes conmigo".
Por la tarde, Carla subió a la UCI para ver a su compañera a través del cristal. "Las dos niñas se apoyan muchísimo", expresaron fuentes próximas a las familias.
La angustia y el desconocimiento azota a las familias de las dos menores, ya que los resultados de los análisis y pruebas practicadas no revelan alteraciones ni enfermedades previas al momento de la vacunación.

EL ENIGMÁTICO PAPILOMA VIRUS HUMANO

Se han identificado cerca de 200 tipos de papiloma virus humano, la infección por el PVH está incrementándose; ha alcanzado proporciones epidémicas; la prevalencia de la infección por el PVH en 1970 era del 1%; en 1985 3 %, actualmente por métodos de alta sensibilidad 85%: en las embarazadas del primer trimestre 40%, tercer trimestre 60%, en el puerperio 17 % y cerca del 6 % en mujeres sin contacto sexual; la mayoría son latentes o subclínicas; una minoría son clínicas observadas directamente: las verrugas o condilomas; .está muy difundido en la naturaleza, infecta a los animales domésticos y silvestres; se transmite también al nacer; se ha detectado en el líquido amniótico, guantes de goma, pinzas de biopsias, espéculos, ropa interior, toallas, en el piso, asiento de los servicios higiénicos, gimnasios, vestuarios de las piscinas y otros; aproximadamente el 50% tienen afinidad por la piel y mucosas del ano, parte final del árbol genital y parte superior de los aparatos digestivo y respiratorio; el 80% de las mujeres se infectaran durante su vida; se los considera comensales de las personas, existen PVH de bajo riesgo que son la mayoría que ocasionan lesiones benignas y PVH de alto riesgo sospechosas de ser un cofactor más de la aparición del carcinoma del cuello uterino; la infección por el PVH 1 y 2 se inicia en la infancia y en la niñez produciendo verrugas que desaparecen espontáneamente y los localizados en otros lugares en forma latente o subclínica son diagnosticados con técnicas muy sofisticadas, viven en el medio ambiente por largo tiempo; se le considera como la enfermedad de transmisión sexual más común, aunque la vía sexual no es la única vía de contaminación; aparece en los órganos genitales de la mujer cuando inicia sus relaciones sexuales.
Es caprichoso y ubicuo; aparece y desaparece del organismo de la persona; la incidencia más alta se halla en las mujeres de 20 a 26 años; con la edad desaparecen; pueden persistir durante toda la vida sin ocasionar ningún trastorno; para desarrollar la infección requiere microtraumas, como sucede durante el acto sexual por choque entre el cuello y el pene; en el 80% de la mujeres que tiene PVH en su cuello uterino desaparecen antes de los doce meses, por acción de su sistema inmunológico; en el resto 20% permanecen estacionarios o progresan a displasia y sólo el 1% progresa a carcinoma del cuello uterino después de 15 a 20 años: Por progresar sólo el 1% al cáncer del cuello uterino nos hace pensar que en la aparición del proceso maligno del cuello uterino intervienen también otros cofactores el primero y fundamental es el acto sexual. Mix en 130, 000 monjas no halló ningún carcinoma del cuello uterino, seguido de: tabaco, alcohol, herpes virus simple 2, edad de inicio del coito, número de parejas, cofactor hombre, factores económicos, más frecuente en mujeres de baja condición económica, multiparidad, circuncisión, alteraciones del sistema inmunológico, anticoncepción hormonal, medio ambiente y otros.
En 1974 zur Hausen postuló la hipótesis que el PVH fuera el agente que ocasionara el cáncer del cuello uterino y que otros investigadores divulgando la misma idea; pero el PVH no reúne el postulado de Koch, para considerarlo como el causante del cáncer del cuello uterino..El PVH se halla en otras lesiones, no solamente en el cáncer del cuello uterino, el PVH no se halla en el 100% de todos los carcinomas del cuello uterino y

todavía no se ha reproducido el tumor maligno del cuello uterino al inyectarse PVH en los animales de laboratorio
La presencia del PVH no es suficiente para el desarrollo del tumor maligno del cuello uterino, se requiere la compañía de varios cofactores exógenos y endógenos
Nuestros conocimientos de las relaciones del PVH con los cofactores aun son deficientes y el papel que juegan los cofactores en la aparición de la patología maligna del cuello uterino son nebulosos. Las investigaciones deben profundizarse en el PVH y los cofactores.

CARTA ABIERTA AL MINISTRO DE SALUD DE PERÜ

Huancayo Perú 10 de Setiembre del 2011

Señor Ministro de Salud de Perú
Lima
ASUNTO: SOLICITO MORATORIA DE LA VACUNA CONTRA EL PVH POR NO ESTAR COMPROBADO MÉDICA NI CIENTÍFICAMENTE QUE PREVIENE EL CARCINOMA DEL CUELLO UTERINO; RECIÉN SE COMPROBARÁ ENTRE EL 2025-2030.
De mi mayor consideración:
Me dirijo a Ud.. para hacer de conocimiento que EsSalud de Huancayo, La Libertad, Arequipa, Sabogal, Rebagliati y Almenara han iniciado la vacunación contra el papiloma virus humano (PVH) dice en su propaganda porque es el que causa el carcinoma del cuello uterino (CCU). Existen varios factores sospechosos que favorecen la aparición del CCU entre ellos el PVH; pero este virus no reúne el postulado de Koch para considerarlo como agente etiológico del CCU, como EsSalud y los fabricantes están promocionando en forma masiva. Esta vacuna está elaborada a partir de un virus de laboratorio; no tienen ningún estudio de toxicidad, se ha investigado en 11,000 y en solamente 5 años. Dicen que investigaron por métodos indirectos, hacer por métodos directos no era realista ni ético (Harper 2008). La vacuna fue autorizada por la FDA para su comercialización en sólo 6 meses y en España en 9 meses, cuando este plazo dura 3 años; antes de la autorización del Gardasil se probó en solamente 1,200 mujeres, se niegan las compañías que venden las vacunas a proporcionar datos sobre los dineros invertidos en la propaganda (Medicina Sistemática 11-2010). La vacuna fue autorizada para ser utilizada sólo en jóvenes que no habían iniciado sus relaciones sexuales pero están vacunando a mujeres de hasta los 45.años;. existen evidencias que sí se vacunan a mujeres infectadas con el PVH, se incrementaría el CCU en un 44.6 % (Jara M 2010); el ensayo clínico fase II no ha sido publicado (Laurel AC 2009); la vacunación no está justificada, es un gran negocio (Red Científica 2009) y existe una descarada campaña publicitaria exagerando el riesgo (Cam-Men 2009); en España por investigaciones han determinado que prevenir un carcinoma del cuello uterino originado por el PVH, costaría 8 millones de euros lo que estadísticamente es inaceptable. Además la World Association for Cancer Research (WACR) dice a la letra que médica ni científicamente está demostrado que sea eficaz y en Europa se han formado dos asociaciones uno de cerca de15,000 investigadores de primera línea que se dedican al cáncer y otra asociación de familiares afectadas por la vacuna quienes solicitan una moratoria, hasta que se determine su eficacia, que será recién el 2025-2030. En USA se ha formado un grupo “ La verdad sobre el gardasil”de madres que piden que prohiban la mal llamada vacuna contra el carcinoma del cuello uterino a la que acusan de haber arruinado la vida de sus hijas e incluso en algunos casos de haberlas asesinado. La vacuna contra el PVH ni es eficaz, ni segura, ni previenen el cáncer del cuello uterino (http://isabeldelafuente.ning.com/forum/topics/ineficacia-y-peligrosidad-de?xg_source=activity). .

Según VAERS (siglas en inglés), Sistema de Reporte de Reacciones Adversas Provocadas por las Vacunas del gobierno de estados unidos, hasta la fecha solamente en USA se han producido 81 muertes y más de 20,000 reacciones adversas; de ellas entre el 6 % al 10 % eran graves y sólo se reportan el 1 % al 10%; extrapolando estoa datos entonces se han producido cerca de 200,000 reacciones adversas y 810 muertes (VAERS Report 2009) En la India se suspendió la vacunación porque ocasionó 6 muertes (Dempeus 2010); después de la vacunación se presentaron dos muertes en Austria y uno en Alemania (Supositorio 2010); en Valencia una niña tuvo convulsiones después de la vacuna y actualmente permanece en silla de ruedas; otra adolescente de16 años después de vacunarse parece una persona de 50 años (Serra MJ 2009); en USA en Febrero del 2009 se presentaron 638 efectos adversos graves: 544 convulsiones, 34 trombosis, 9 paros cardíacos y 51 alopecias (Lleida 2009); después de la inyección se produjeron 28 abortos (GineBlog 2009); 35 niñas sufrieron reacciones graves, dos siguen hospitalizadas (elPeriodico.Com 2009); en Balear una niña sufrió 14 convulsiones por día después de la vacunación (diariodemallorca.es 2009); científicos de España, Alemania y Canadá exigen la moratoria de la vacuna hasta obtener pruebas sólidas de la seguridad y eficiencia (Lajornada 2009); su eficacia se determinará recién el 2025-2030 (cherada 2010); las vacunaciones son injustificadas y son un gran negocio (Red Científica 2009) y el costo es elevado $ 1000 las 3 dosis.
El Dr. Bernat Soria Ministro de Sanidad de España expresa: “faltan estudios, sobran evidencias de sus efectos adversos y agota el presupuesto de salud pública”; el Dr. Carlos Alberto Dardet Catedrático de Salud Pública de la Universidad de Alicante, España y Director del Journal of Epidemiología and Community Health asegura que la vacuna contra el PVH es: Fraude?, Estafa?, Robo?; es el marketing del miedo; el investigador Juan Servas dice que es una tomadura de pelo a la salud de las mujeres.:
La industria farmacéutica introdujo medicamentos dañinos a la salud: el etilestilbestrol que se usó entre las décadas del 40 al 70 en mujeres, especialmente embarazadas; se prohibió su uso porque se comprobó que originaba el carcinoma de células claras en la vagina de las mujeres y alteraciones morfológicas en el árbol genitourinario; los estrógenos que favorecía el carcinoma de mama; gracias a la investigación de la Women Health Iniciative (WHI) se suspendió su uso; la thalidomina, el edulcorante aspartamo y últimamente el uso masivo y obligatorio innecesario de la vacuna contra la gripe A en complicidad con la OMS (Forcades 2009). Entre el 2000-2003 la casi totalidad de las compañías farmacéuticas de USA pasaron por los tribunales acusados de prácticas fraudulentas y obligadas a pagar más de 2.2 billones de dólares; 4 de ellas reconocieron su responsabilidad por actuaciones criminales (http://www.scribd.com/doc/20359792/CRIMENES-FARMACEUTICOS-TERESA-FORCADES) .
Por las razones invocadas solicito a su despacho, Señor Ministro, emitir una resolución declarando moratoria de la vacuna contra el papiloma virus humano, hasta que se determine su eficacia que será recién entre el 2025-2030; nuestras compatriotas no sean conejillo de indias de las transnacionales y el estado no dilapide sus magros recursos en una vacuna incierta, en etapa de experimentación y no comprobado su eficacia médica ni científica.

INEFICACIA DE LA VACUNA CONTRA EL PVH VISTO POR MEDICO DEL PERÚ PROFUNDO
La eficacia científica de esta vacuna recién se determinará los años 2025-2030 porque las investigaciones se han iniciado la década del 2000. Desde su inicio hasta la aparición del Carcinoma del cuello uterino (CCU), demora en promedio 25 a 30 años El PVH definitivamente no origina el (CCU); en la aparición de esta patología intervienen múltiples factores de riesgo, entre ellos se sospecha que puede ser el PVH; sí está comprobado que el acto sexual es el que genera esta enfermedad: Mix en 130,000 monjas no halló ningún CCU.
http://www.portalesmedicos.com/publicaciones/articles/1832/1/Epidemiologia-del-carcinoma-del-cuello-uterino.html
Para aceptar que un virus a bacteria es el que origina una enfermedad tiene que cumplir indefectiblemente los 5 principios del Postulado de Koch: .
http://www.xatakaciencia.com/salud/los-postulados-de-koch
1- El agente debe estar presente en cada caso de la enfermedad y ausente en los sanos.
2- El agente no debe aparecer en otras enfermedades.
3- El agente ha de ser aislado en un cultivo puro a partir de las lesiones de la enfermedad.
4- El agente ha de provocar la enfermedad en un animal susceptible de ser inoculado.
5- El agente ha de ser aislado de nuevo en las lesiones de los animales en experimentación.
1. Principio: no se ha encontrado el PVH físico en ningún carcinoma del cuello uterino (CCU), se ha encontrado su ADN por inmunología, que puede interpretarse como que el virus está presente o que es un residuo inmunológico. y su detección por inmunología no se ha conseguido en todos los CCU sino hasta el 90% de CCU: No cumple este primer principio;
2. Principio: El agente aparece también en las verrugas no aparece solamente en los CCU: Tampoco cumple este principio;
3. Principio: No se ha aislado cultivando a partir de un CCU: No cumple este principio
4. Principio: Al inocular el PVH a un animal de laboratorio, produce la enfermedad. Cómo no se ha aislado del CCU, no se ha inoculado a un animal de laboratorio. Incumple este principio y
5. Como no se inoculó porque no se halló en un CCU, no reproduce el CCU. Incumplió también este principio.
En consecuencia, el PVH no cumple ningún principio del postulado de Koch. al no cumplir este postulado que es aceptado como dogma en el mundo, científicamente se puede asegurar que no es el agente causante del CCU.
Hasta Marzo de este año han muerto 95 niñas; hasta el 2009 se habían producido 20,000 reacciones adversas y más de mil daños invalidantes irreversibles. La VAERS informa: que han producido 376 Papanicolaou anormales; 108 verrugas anogenitales, 224 infecciones con el PVH, 41 cánceres del cuello uterino, 21,634 efectos adversos y 95 muertes, después de la vacunación. La VAERS asegura que se dan a conocer solamente del 1 al 10% de los efectos adversos y muertes por esta aciaga vacuna, en consecuencia se han producido 216,340 efectos adversos y 950 muertes solamente en USA y a todas los daños enumerados agregarles un cero.

En Europa las 3 dosis de la vacuna contra el PVH cuestan 400 euros. En España meuren 2 por carcinoam del cuello uterino (CCU) por cada 100000 (International cancer screening network 2012) Y 0.2 por carcinoma del ano (CA). Tiene que vacunar a 100000 y gastar 40 millones de euros para prevenir 2 muertes por CCU y 0.2 muertes por CA.Prevenir una muerte por CCU le cuesta 20 millones de euros y prevenir una muerte por CA 200 millones de euros. ASUNTO: SOLICITO DAR UNA LEY DE MORATORIA DE LA VACUNA CONTRA EL PAPILOMA VIRUS HUMANO PORQUE ESTE VIRUS NO CAUSA EL CARCINOMA DEL CUELLO UTERINO: NO EXISTEN INVESTIGACIONES; RECIEN SE DETERMINARÁ SU EFICACIA ENTRE LOS AÑOS 2025-2030
GODOFREDO ARAUZO CHUCO de 82 años de edad Médico- Cirujano CMP 7677, segunda especialidad en Ginecología y Obstetricia RNE 3677, investigador, domiciliado en Montero Rosas 203 El Tambo Huancayo Perú e identificado con DNI 22982962 me presento a Ud. y expongo:
La propaganda engañosa y atosigante difunde que la vacuna contra el papilomma virus humano (PVH) previene la contaminación por el (PVH) y que el PVH es el que origina el carcinoma del cuello uterino (CCU); no existen investigaciones; ESTADÍSTICAS, EPIDEMIOLÓGICAS, CITOLÓGICAS, HISTOLÓGICAS, COLPOSCÓPICAS NI CLÍNICAS que demuestren estas dos aseveraciones y no es aceptada por la comunidad científica mundial; son simples especulaciones sin sustento científico. Hago esta afirmación porque he solicitado a la Federación de Drogas y Alimentos (FDA), al Centro de Control de Enfermedades (CDC), Instituto Nacional del Cancer (NCI), Instituto Nacional de Salud (NIH), Organización Panamericana de la Salud (OPS), Organización Mundial de la Salud (OMS), Internacional Agency Research Cancer (IARC), Medline Plus y otras instituciones e investigadores dedicadas a promocionar la vacuna; ninguno tuvo la gentileza de enviarme estas investigaciones o por lo menos un acuse de recibo; como tampoco existen en las principales bibliotecas;.las vacunas que previenen las enfermedades infecciosas son elaboradas a partir de virus o bacterias muertas o atenuadas http://www.nlm.nih.gov/medlineplus/spanish/ency/article/002024.htm
La vacuna contra el PVH en plaza es transgénica, de laboratorio. No se han realizado investigaciones de su eficacia ni de la toxicidad ni el fabricante ha dado a conocer que era transgénica. La Sane Vax al enterarse la aparición de artritis reumatoide (enfermedad autoinmune) 24 horas después de la vacunación de una niña de 13 años inició la investigación de la vacuna y comprobó que era transgénica y enterado la FDA, dice:no tener ningún temor.http://noticiasdeabajo.wordpress.com/2012/09/15/contaminacion-con-adn-en-las-vacunas-contra-el-virus-del-papiloma-humano

Una bacteria o virus para ser considerado agente causal de una enfermedad tiene que cumplir los 5 postulados de Koch, que como dogma se acepta en medicina, siendo los dos primeros los más importantes. El postulado 1 dice que debe aislarse de la enfermedad; hasta la fecha no se ha aislado el virus físico del CCU; se ha determinado su presencia solamente por inmunología; que se interpreta que el virus está presente o es un residuo inmunológico; por inmunología no se ha hallado en el 100% de los CCUs sino hasta el 97%: Brasil 97%, Perú 95.3%, España 82.4 y Colombia 76.4% (Bosch X 2006); El postulado 2 indica que el microorganismos aislado de la enfermedad, inyectado al animal de laboratorio debe producir la enfermedad o sea el CCU. Ninguno de estos dos postulados cumple esta vacuna como tampoco los tres postulados siguientes. El fabricante de la vacuna y los lobistas están sorprendiendo al difundir en sus publicaciones y diapositivas que el VPH ha sido aislado y fotografiado del CCU e inyectaado a un animal de laboratrorio ha originado el CCU: faltan a la verdad.
http://microblogogia.blogspot.com/p/postulados-de-koch.html
http://www.lagranepoca.com/27939-algunos-virus-del-papiloma-humano-bloquean-cancer-cuello-utero
Se ha investigado en 11,000 mujeres y en solamente 5 años. Dicen que investigaron por métodos indirectos, hacer por métodos directos no era realista ni ético (Harper 2008). La vacuna fue autorizada por la FDA para su comercialización en sólo 6 meses y la Agencia Europea de Medicamente en 9 meses, cuando este plazo dura 3 años para los medicamentos para otras enfermedades que no sea cáncer y para los medicamentos para el cáncer demora 15 años; se niega el fabricante a proporcionar literatura sobre la vacuna y la cantidad de dinero invertido en la propaganda (Medicina Sistemática 11-2010). La vacuna fue autorizada para ser utilizada sólo en jóvenes que no habían iniciado sus relaciones sexuales. Existen estudios que sí se vacunan a mujeres infectadas con el PVH, se incrementa el CCU en 44.6 % (Howenstein 2011); el ensayo clínico fase II no ha sido publicado (Laurel AC 2009); la vacunación no está justificada, es un gran negocio (Red Científica 2009) y existe una descarada campaña publicitaria exagerando los riesgos (Cam-Men 2009)
En Europa las 3 dosis de la vacuna cuestan 400 euros. Los países europeos tienen en promedio 2 muertes por carcinoma del cuello uterini (CCU) y 0.2 muertes por carcinoma del ano (CA) respectivamente por cada 100000 (Internacional Cancer Screening Network 2012). Tienen que vacunar a 100000 y gastar 40 millones de euiros para prevenir la muerte de 2 por CCU y 0.2 muerte por CA; prevenir una muerte de una mujer por CCU les cuesta 20 millones de euros y prevenir una muerte por CA 200 millones de euros si la vacuna fuera eficaz 100%.. UNA LOCURA.
Según VAERS (siglas en inglés), Sistema de Reporte de Reacciones Adversas Provocadas por las Vacunas del gobierno de EEUU, hasta Diociembre del 2015 solamente en USA se han producido 295 muertes y 31,732 reacciones adversas y sólo se denuncian del 1 % al 10%; extrapolando estos datos al 100%, se han producido hasta Diciembre del 2014: 317,320 reacciones adversas y 2950 muertes (VAERS December 2015)

En Resende Brasil en Marzo del 2014 fue vacunada la niña Rafaella Barboza de Oliveira de 13 años; a las dos horas después de la vacunación le apareció cefalea y disminución de la agudeza visual. En Sao Paulo le diagnosticaron: hipertensión endocraneana por coágulos intracerebral y tambíen le hallaron coágulos en la columna vertebral, cuello, pulmones y corazón; esta recuperandose

Se están vacunando a niñas y niños de 9 años para prevenir el carcinoma del cuello uterino y el cáncer anal dicen porque tienen mejor respuesta inmunológica:y en Argentina es obligatoria: DOBLE CRIMEN¡. La Dra Diana Harper principal investigadora que intervino en la fabricación de la vacuna expresa que la vacuna sólo se ha investigado en mujeres de 16 a 26 años, dar a niñas menores de 16 años es un experimento público y la vacuna produce 3..4 efectos adversos y muertes por cada 100000 y el CCU 2.4 por cada 100000 www.google.com.pe/url?sa=t&rct=j&q=&esrc=s&source=web&cd=2&ved=0CCMQFjAB&url=http%3A%2F%2Fdetenganlavacuna.wordpress.com%2F2013%2F06%2F26%2Fconfesion%2F&ei=eZZGVNn0HsOQNvL5gYAP&usg=AFQjCNEu4Ge60FoFrBvAuhvXKYW9dKDwcA&sig2=4bsP0WaIG53oIOlWy56FRg
Se estan publicando esterilidad después de la vacunación; Jazzmina en Australia (Little 2012); tres paciente publicado por Cofrancesco 2013 y las hermanas Meylor de EEUU 2014; todas con la misma sintomatología. y diagnóstico: ausencia de óvulos en el ovario, perfil hormonal de una menopausica y esterilidad irreversible producido por la vacuna que contiene el polisorbato de sodio que en los animales de laboratorio produce alteraciones morfológicas y funcionales de los órganos reproductivos y por enfermedad autoinmune http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/23902317

Señor Ministro de Salud de España esta vacuna es un fraude. La Federación de Alimentos y Drogas (FDA) de EEUU define fraude: " FRAUDE EN SALUD ES LA VENTA Y PUBLICIDAD ENGAÑOSA DE UN PRODUCTO QUE DICE SER EFICAZ PARA COMBATIR CONDICIONES MÉDICAS O QUE PUEDEN RESULTAR BENEFICIOSAS PARA LA SALUD CUANDO NO SE HA DEMOSTRADO CON RIGOR CIENTÍFICO QUE DICHO PRODUCTO ES EGURO O EFICAZ PARA TALES FINES

Por lo expuesto Señor Ministro de Salud de España solicito que redacte una ley de MORATORIA de esta vacuna para evitar que las niñas y niños españoles sean conejillo de las indias de la FARMAFIA, no le hagan jugar la ruleta rusa y no los expongan a daños a la salud y muerte prematura. La propaganda engañosa y atosigante difunde que la vacuna contra el papilomma virus humano (PVH) previene la contaminación por el PVH y que el PVH es el que origina el carcinoma del cuello uterino (CCU); no existen investigaciones primarias: ESTADÍSTICAS, EPIDEMIOLÓGICAS, CITOLÓGICAS, HISTOLÓGICAS, COLPOSCÓPICAS NI CLÍNICAS que demuestran estas dos aseveraciones; son simples especulaciones sin fundamento científico y no es aceptada por la comunidad científica. Mundial de la Salud (OMS), Internacional Agency Research Cancer (IARC), otras instituciones e investigadores dedicados a promocionar la vacuna; ninguno tuvo la gentileza de enviarme estas investigaciones o por lo menos un acuse de recibo; como tampoco existen en las bibliotecas.

La vacuna contra el PVH en plaza es transgénica, de laboratorio. No se ha realizado ninguna investigación de toxicidad ni el fabricante ha dado a conocer que era transgénica. La Sane Vax al enterarse la aparición de artritis reumatoide (enfermedad autoinmune) 24 horas después de la vacunación de una niña de 13 años inició la investigación de la vacuna y comprobó que era transgénica y enterado la FDA, dice:no tener ningún temor : http://noticiasdeabajo.wordpress.com/2012/09/15/contaminacion-con-adn-en-las-vacunas-contra-el-virus-del-papiloma-humano

Una bacteria o virus para ser considerado agente causal de una infección tiene que cumplir los 5 postulados de Koch, que como dogma se acepta en medicina, siendo los dos primeros los más importantes. El postulado 1 dice que debe aislarse de la infección; hasta la fecha no se ha aislado el virus físico del CCU; se ha determinado su presencia solamente por inmunología; que se interpreta que el virus está presente o es un residuo inmunológico; por inmunología no se ha hallado en el 100% de los CCUs sino hasta el 97%: Brasil 97%, Perú 95.3%, España 82.4 y Colombia 76.4% (Bosch X 2006); El postulado 2 indica que el microorganismo aislado de la infección inyectado al animal de laboratorio debe producir la enfermedad o sea el CCU. Ninguno de estos dos postulados cumple esta vacuna como tampoco los tres postulados siguientes. El fabricante de la vacuna y los lobistas están sorprendiendo al difundir en sus publicaciones y diapositivas que el VPH ha sido aislado del CCU e inyectado a un animal de laboratrorio ha originado el CCU: faltan a la verdad.
Se ha investigado en 11,000 mujeres y en solamente 5 años. El CCU desde que se inicia hasta que se detecta demora en promedio 20 a 25 años.. Dicen que investigaron por métodos indirectos, hacer por métodos directos no era realista ni ético (Harper 2008). La vacuna fue autorizada por la FDA para su comercialización en sólo 6 meses y la Agencia Europea de Medicamentos en 9 meses, cuando este plazo dura 3 años para los medicamentos para otras enfermedades que no sea cáncer y para los medicamentos para el cáncer demora 15 años; se niega el fabricante a proporcionar literatura sobre la vacuna y la cantidad de dinero invertido en la propaganda (Medicina Sistemática 11-2010). La vacuna fue autorizada para ser utilizada sólo en jóvenes que no habían iniciado sus relaciones sexuales. Existen estudios que sí se vacunan a mujeres infectadas con el PVH, se incrementa el CCU en 44.6 % (Jara M 2010)(Howenstein 2011); el ensayo clínico fase II no ha sido publicado (Laurel AC 2009); la vacunación no está justificada, es un gran negocio (Red Científica 2009) y existe una descarada campaña publicitaria exagerando los riesgos (Cam-Men 2009)
En América las 3 dosis de la vacuna cuestan 400 dólares. Están vacunando a niñas para prevenir el carcinoma del cuello uterino (CCU) y a niños para prevenir el carcinoma del ano (CA) a partir de los 9 años. USA tiene 2 muertes por (CCU) por cada 100000 y 0.2 muertes por CA por cada 100000 (Internacional Cancer Screening Network 2012). Tiene que vacunar a 100000 y gastar 40 millones de dólares; prevenir una muerte por CCU le cuesta 20 millones de dólares y prevenir la muerte de una persona por CA 200 millones de dólares. UNA LOCURA. Perú tiene 24 muertes por CCU por cada 100000 mujeres (Globocan 2012); haciendo el mismo razonamiento prevenir una muerte por CCU le cuesta 1 millón setecientos mil dólares, si la vacuna fuera 100% eficaz,. UN DESPROPÓSITO

Según VAERS (siglas en inglés), Sistema de Reporte de Reacciones Adversas Provocadas por las Vacunas del gobierno de EEUU, hasta Junio del 2015 solamente en USA se han producido 295 muertes y 39,732 reacciones adversas y sólo se denuncian del 1 % al 10%; extrapolando estos datos al 100%, se han producido hasta Junio del 2014 solamente en USA: 397320 reacciones adversas y 2950 muertes (VAERS Junio 2014)
En Resende Brasil en Marzo del 2014 fue vacunada la niña Rafaella Barboza de Oliveira de 13 años; a las dos horas después de la vacunación le aparecieron dolores intensos de la cabeza y disminución de la agudeza visual. En Sao Paulo le diagnosticaron: hipertensión endocraneana por coágulos intracerebral y coágulos en la columna vertebral, cuello pulmones y corazón; está recuperandose https://dub126.mail.live.com/?tid=cm4z9U7cBE5BGT29idZ18lq
Se están vacunando a niñas y niños de 9 años para prevenir el cáncer anal y carcinoma del cuello uterino dicen porque tienen mejor respuesta inmunológica:y en Argentina y Chile en forma obligatoria DOBLE CRIMEN.
Publican que la eficacia de la vacuna dura 6 años. las vacunadas a los 9 años estan prevenidos del CCU y CA hasta los 16 años.
La Dra. Diana Harper principal investigadora que intervino en la fabricación de la vacuna expresa:que la vacuna sólo se ha investigado en mujeres de 16 a 26 años, dar a niñas menores de 16 años es un experimento público y la vacuna produce 3..4 efectos adversos y muertes por cada 100000 y el CCU 2.4 por cada 100000 www.google.com.pe/url?sa=t&rct=j&q=&esrc=s&source=web&cd=2&ved=0CCMQFjAB&url=http%3A%2F%2Fdetenganlavacuna.wordpress.com%2F2013%2F06%2F26%2Fconfesion%2F&ei=eZZGVNn0HsOQNvL5gYAP&usg=AFQjCNEu4Ge60FoFrBvAuhvXKYW9dKDwcA&sig2=4bsP0WaIG53oIOlWy56FRg
Se estan publicando esterilidad después de la vacunación; Jazzmina en Australia (Little 2012); tres pacientes publicado por Cofrancesco 2013 y las hermanas Meylor de EEUU 2014; todas con la misma sintomatología y diagnóstico: ausencia de óvulos en el ovario, perfil hormonal de una menopausica y esterilidad irreversible producido por la vacuna por el polisorbato de sodio y por enfermedad autoinmune http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/23902317

Señor Ministro de Salud del Perú esta vacuna es un fraude. La Federación de Alimentos y Drogas (FDA) de EEUU define fraude:‟ FRAUDE EN SALUD ES LA VENTA Y PUBLICIDAD ENGAÑOSA DE UN PRODUCTO QUE DICE SER EFICAZ PARA COMBATIR CONDICIONES MÉDICAS O QUE PUEDEN RESULTAR BENEFICIOSAS PARA LA SALUD CUANDO NO SE HA DEMOSTRADO CON RIGOR CIENTÍFICO QUE DICHO PRODUCTO ES SEGURO O EFICAZ PARA TALES FINES
La protección de la salud y la vida y las acciones del médico no tiene fronteras: es universal. :
Por lo expuesto Señor Ministro de Salud de Perú solicito que redacte una ley de MORATORIA de esta aciaga vacuna para evitar que las niñas y niños peruanos sean conejillo de las indias de la FARMAFIA, no jueguen a la ruleta rusa y no se expongan a daños de su salud y muerte; la razón, los derechos humanos y la historia así exigen.
Atentamente

INEFICACIA DE LA VACUNA CONTRA EL PVH VISTO POR MEDICO DEL PERÚ PROFUNDO
Dr. Godofredo Arauzo

Desde su inicio hasta la aparición del Carcinoma del cuello uterino (CCU), demora en promedio 25 a 30 años; las investigaciones de la vacuna han empezado el 2000; es evidente entonces que la eficacia científica de esta vacuna recién se determinará los años 2025-2340
El PVH definitivamente no origina el (CCU); en la aparición de esta patología intervienen múltiples factores de riesgo, entre ellos se sospecha que puede ser el PVH; pero sí está comprobado por epidemiología y estadística que el acto sexual es el que genera esta enfermedad.:Mix en 100,000 monjas no halló ningún CCU.
http://www.portalesmedicos.com/publicaciones/articles/1832/1/Epidemiologia-del-carcinoma-del-cuello-uterino.html
Para aceptar que un virus a bacteria es el que origina una enfermedad tiene que cumplir indefectiblemente los 5 postulado de Koch:
http://www.xatakaciencia.com/salud/los-postulados-de-koch
1- El agente debe estar presente en cada caso de la enfermedad y ausente en los sanos.
2- El agente no debe aparecer en otras enfermedades.
3-. El agente ha de ser aislado en un cultivo puro a partir de las lesiones de la enfermedad.

4- El agente ha de provocar la enfermedad en un animal susceptible de ser inoculado.
5- El agente ha de ser aislado de nuevo en las lesiones de los animales en experimentación.
El PVH físico o natural no se halló en los CCU sino se determinó su presencia solamente por inmunología, que puede interpretarse que el virus está presente o es un residuo inmunológico. .
http://es.scribd.com/doc/44558220/MICROBIOLOGIA-1
En consecuencia, el PVH no cumple ningún principio del postulado de Koch. al no cumplir este postulado que es aceptado como dogma en la medicina, científicamente se puede asegurar que no es el agente causante del CCU.
Hasta Octubre 2012 , la vacuna contra el PVH produjo solamente en USA 278,010 eventos adversos (258.440 femeninos, 12390 masculinos y 7180 sexodesconocido); invalidez permanente 9100 (8900 mujeres, 90 varones y 110 de sexo desconocido), 1240 muertes (1020 femeninos, 80 masculinos y 140 desexo desconocido), PAP anormal 5020, displasia cervical 2020 y cáncer cervical 570. VAERS expresa that se denuncia solamente entre el 1% a 10%; los datos que se indican están calculados al 10%

La Dra. Harper, la que contribuyó a la elaboración de la vacuna por Merck, refiere que la vacuna no fue investigada en menores de 15 años y la vacuna dada a menores de 11 años es un gran experimento público.
http://offtheradar.co.nz/vaccines/53-researcher-diane-harper-blasts-gardasil-hpv-marketing.html
La vacuna fue aprobada para dar a niñas no contaminadas con el PVH; el Dr. Howenstinc asegura que si se vacuna a mujeres contaminadas con el PVH, tienen la posibilidad de adquirir el CCU en un 44.6% http://www.newswithviews.com/Howenstine/james170.htm.
Merck no dio a conocer que la vacuna era transgénica; la Sane Vax ha descubierta, que es transgénica porque ha hallado que la vacuna está contaminada con el ADN recombinante de la vacuna gardasil (DNArPVH) y ha elevado su preocupación a la presidenta de la FDA Margaret Hamburg. La FDA le ha contestado que la vacuna transgénica no ocasionará ningún daño http://real-agenda.com/2011/09/16/vacuna-gardasil-contaminada-con-adn-recombinante-de-vph/Una niña vacunada se enfermó de artritis reumatoide, que es una enfermedad autoinmune. 24 horas después de esa vacunación y le hallaron el DNArPVH adherido al aluminio, dos años después de la vacunación.
http://www.mecfsforums.com/index.php?topic=9331.0

El tiempo de gestión para tener autorización de venta de un medicamento en la FDA es como mínimo de 3 años; sí es un medicamento para el cáncer 15 años; pero la Merck tuvo autorización en sólo 6 meses y en la Agencia de Medicinas Europea (EMA en inglés) solamente 9 meses Para introducir la vacuna están utilizando el marketing del miedo

El PVH es ubicuo; vive en los animales domésticos y silvestres; nos contaminamos desde que nacemos; se halla en las perillas de las puertas, en las toallas, en las uñas, en los fomites, en los guantes y espéculos de los ginecólogos. El acto sexual no es el único medio de contaminación.
http://spa.myhealthygood.com/cancer-cervical-vacuna-contra-el-vph/investigadores-descubren-el-v
El PVH vive también en los 400 nanómetros más externos de nuestra piel y mucosas. , Sí vive en nuestra piel, nuestro sistema inmunológico produce inmunidad celular y humoral adquirida o sea que nuestro organismo está autovacunándose por los PVHs que viven en nuestra piel y mucosas..
http://www.conganat.org/seap/bibliografia/HPVToday/HPVToday007SEAP.pdf Esta vacuna es transgénica; las vacunas que se conocen son fabricados de virus originales muertos o atenuados, SE DESCONOCE los daños que producirá y está preparada para prevenir la infección solamente de los PVHs 16 y 18
http://www.larevistaintegral.com/4874/vacuna-papilomavirus-%C2%BFes-peligrosa.html/comment-page-1#comment-11649.
Los PVHs no se distribuyen en el mundo de manera uniforme. Se ha comprobado que en el Canadá el PVH 18 sólo llega al 3%; es más frecuente el PVH 31; en mi patria Perú no hay estudios que hayan determinado que tipos de PVH predomina; El Gardasil contiene 225 mcg. de aluminio y el Cervarix 500 mcg, sospechoso de producir el Alzheimer; es neurotóxico y productor de alteraciones del sistema inmunológico (Blaylock 2012) y el Polisorbatol 80 que es un anticonceptivo potente y en los animales de experimentación produce esterilidad; es carcinogénico y mutagénico; contiene además el borato de sodio considerado veneno; no usado en las preparaciones medicinales.
http://www.telefonica.net/web2/paramahamsa/vacunaninosalerta.html
http://detenganlavacuna.wordpress.com/2010/11/09/gardasil-cervarix/Se han descubierto hasta la actualidad 200 tipos de PVH; el PVH no es infeccioso, contagioso, endémico ni la persona adquiere exclusivamente por el coito http://quimicaclinicauv.blogspot.com/2006/08/virus-del-papiloma-humano.html http://www-lab.biomedicas.unam.mx/smpv/queeshpv.htm
El 22-11-2010 la FDA aprobó el gardasil para varones de 9 a 26 años para prevenir las verrugas y el cáncer el ano; es un exceso

http://salud.aollatino.com/2011/02/02/aprueba-fda-nueva-indicacion-vacuna-tetravalente-vph-eeuu/Por las razones expuesta desde el Perú, profundo, Huancayo, considero que esta vacuna es un Fraude?, Robo?, Estafa?, Burla?, crimen?.
No está comprobada científicamente por el momento; su eficacia se comprobará recién los años del 2025-2030

RETRATO APIADADO DE BALTASAR GARZÓN

Cuando un hombre evita mirarse desnudo al espejo porque no puede tolerar la ridiculez de su figura, agarra una escopeta y asesina todo lo bello y digno que hay en la naturaleza.
Garzón tiene ese metabolismo que convierte en tocinillo de capón todo lo que ingiere, aunque sea regado con Vega Sicilia. Quizás esa falta de fibra muscular es la causa de que sea incapaz de aguantar a ningún colega más inteligente que él.
Con los años va adquiriendo las redondeces del Generalísimo Franco. Las guatas de las hombreras y los faldones de pedo libre no logran ocultar un cuerpo demasiado estrecho de hombros y demasiado ancho de nalgas.
Yo lo he visto subir con aire decidido las escaleras de la Audiencia Nacional y lo primero que salta a la vista es que es paticorto, musligordo y anda como trabado por una invisible falda tubo.
Como a Franco, también la voz le ha escorado hacía lo agudo, enfático y atiplado. Uno se imagina esa voz recitando novenas o cantando copla española. Las sentencias judiciales es un asunto serio que requiere un registro más grave o menos ridículo. Si algún día me condena o me absuelve, pediré traducción para sordomudos.
La naturaleza tampoco ha sido generosa con su fisonomía. O la cara es demasiado ancha o tiene las facciones demasiado juntas. El entrecejo fruncido entre dos ojos pequeños, maliciosos y porcinos, parece más enfadado por no encontrar la trufa que por no haber cazado al terrorista.
El endomorfo irrecuperable con aspiraciones de somatotónico produce ejemplares tan ridículos como Garzón o José Blanco. No dejo de admirar la capacidad de controlar la risa de las mujeres que los hayan visto enamorados.
Dios guarde muchos años a Garzón, porque la edad nos hace más como somos.

Lo pones difícil, elegir entre Garzón y Blanco y no hablo como políticos, que eso es otra, sino como ejemplares masculinos, es como tener que elegir entre horca o guillotina.

Ninguno creo que esta a una buena altura, según comparaciones del retrato ya que la altura o voz aflautada nada, dice de su proceder en sus labores respectivas.

Como varones nada puedo aportar por ser del mismo sexo y hetero., además que me considero defensor de la mujer como el sexo fuerte.

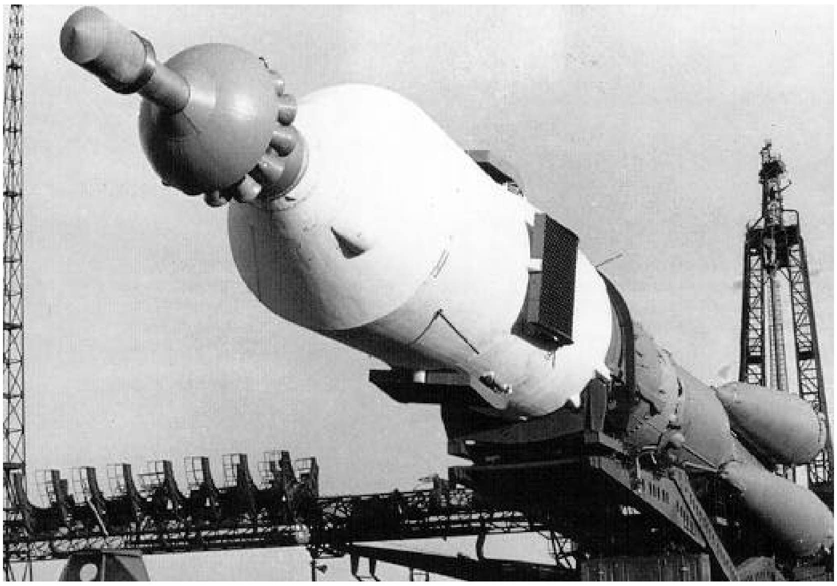
IVAN ISTOCHNIKOV O EL ASTRONAUTA QUE NUNCA EXISTIÓ



Tememos ser enterrados en vida, y sentir la desesperación de una larga agonía, tratando de romper la cubierta del ataúd con las uñas en carne viva y el pecho aplastado por una angustia sin esperanza; tememos al humo que nos asfixie y nos incapacite para huir de las dolorosas dentelladas del fuego; tememos ser arrastrados al fondo de un rio de aguas enfangadas por un remolino invencible.
No quiero saber qué clase de muerte acabará conmigo, pero sospecho que será atroz. Y entre todas, la pesadilla recurrente que me acosa es la de sufrir la misma muerte que Ivan Istochnikov y la perrita Kloka, que desaparecieron sin dejar rastro de la nave Soyuz-2, en la inmensidad del espacio.
Sin embargo, la nave Soyuz-2 volvió a la tierra herméticamente cerrada, con las huellas del impacto de un meteorito, que dejó el rastro de cuatro hendiduras de noventa y seis centímetros de largo por cuatro centímetros de ancho cada una, y siete milímetros de profundidad, perfectamente paralelas, que no quebraron la estructura envolvente ni dañaron el sistema. Y sin sus tripulantes.
La Fundación Sputnik que ha investigado el suceso, dice:
"El 25 de octubre de 1968 fue lanzado desde el cosmódromo de Baikonur el Soyuz 2 con el piloto-cosmonauta Coronel Ivan Istochnikov a bordo. La nave debía servir de blanco para el Soyuz 3 que, tripulado por el Teniente Coronel Giorgi Beregovoi, realizaría al día siguiente un ensayo de ensamblaje orbital de las dos cápsulas. Eran los tiempos en que los Estados Unidos y la URSS trabajaban contra reloj para llegar los primeros a la Luna. Las presiones políticas prevalecían sobre las garantías técnicas y la carrera espacial de había cobrado ya algunas víctimas. El vuelo del Soyuz 1, por ejemplo, empezó mal y terminó en tragedia: el cosmonauta Komarov se estrelló al regresar debido al mal funcionamiento del paracaídas.
Pero para la siguiente misión se habían extremado todas las precauciones y todo auguraba un resultado satisfactorio. No sería así: después de un intento fallido de acomplamiento, el Soyuz 2 y el Soyuz 3 se distanciaron y perdieron el contacto. Cuando al día siguiente se reencontraron, Istochnikov había desaparecido y su módulo presentaba el impacto de un meteorito. En realidad nunca se supo a ciencia cierta qué había ocurrido y el enigma se saldó con una suma de conjeturas. Pero decididamente las autoridades soviéticas no estaban dispuestas a admitir un nuevo fiasco y maquinaron una solución muy propia de su estilo: declararon que el Soyuz 2 había sido un vuelo automatizado, no tripulado. A efectos oficiales Ivan Istochnikov no había existido nunca y para evitar voces discordantes se confinó a la familia, se chantajeó a sus compañeros, se manipularon los archivos y se retocaron las fotografías. La realidad superaba el más fantástico argumento de ciencia-ficción."

Fotografía original vendida en Sotheby's de Nueva York el 11 de diciembre de 1993.
Está fechada en 7 de noviembre de 1967 y firmada, de izquierda a derecha, por Leonov, Nikolayev, Istochnikov, Rozhdestvensky, Beregovoi y Shatalov.

La misma imagen, manipulada,tal como fue publicada en el libro

"Rumbo a las estrellas" de Boris Romanenko.

Sus familiares fueron trasladados de madrugada a un recinto de alta seguridad que estaba rodeado por cuatro anillos de hormigón armado de doce metros de altura, y por encima de las construcciones y del patio interior, una alambrada, cortante como cuchillas de afeitar, fabricada mediante una aleación resistente a una temperatura de 3.000 grados, cubría como una gigantesca jaula la visión del cielo donde quizás levitaría Iván eternamente. Nunca hubiéramos sabido nada más de ellos si, al cabo de treinta años, no hubiera aparecido, entre las tripas de serrín de aquel osito, las notas de una adolescente que decía ser hija de Iván Istochnikov, en las que narra su cautiverio con una caligrafía cirílica casi microscópica.
El motivo por el que no he actualizado Gatopardo en estos últimos días es el jet-lag de mi viaje a una aldea próxima al rio Guárico, en Venezuela, buscando parte de la historia de Ivan Istocnikov, que es una parábola casi perfecta de los que tuvimos que dejar nuestra identidad y crear una ficción que nos permitiera sobrevivir, pero no os hablaré de mí, sino de un hombre que sabe qué ocurrió, y ha querido contármelo.

Hoy, al final de la noche, después de nueve horas en las que ha hablado como si su silencio de tantos años lo hubiera embriagado, hemos salido para ver el amanecer en el Estero de Camaguán. Y hemos admirado el firmamento nocturno, sobrecogidos por su belleza y su magnificencia vertiginosa. Y con las primeras claridades del alba, ese hombre ha susurrado como el eco de mi propio pensamiento:
-Desde la desaparición de Iván Istochnikov, buscando las pruebas de su existencia, he aprendido a desconfiar de cualquiera que me cuente una historia detallada y verificable, con datos incontestables. La verdadera realidad no cubre las lagunas de nuestra imaginación con miles de detalles y de datos.
He querido escribir esto antes de irme a dormir, antes de que haya podido superar este intenso escalofrío que me hace temer el sueño.

Ivan Istochnikov saluda a los técnicos del MIK que están ensamblando los componentes de su nave

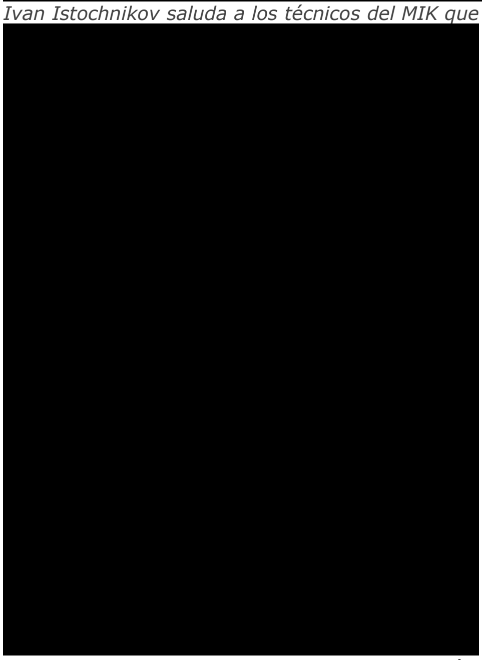

Foto de Ivan Istochnikov instantes antes de su último viaje

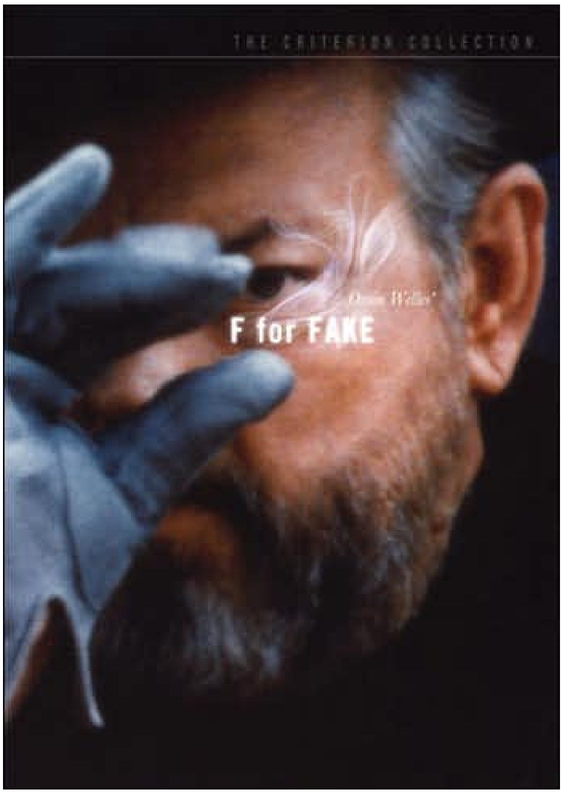
2ª parte



Mi cuerpo se ha adaptado ya al ritmo que imponen las largas veladas escuchando al hombre que sabe, pero mi espíritu escéptico está sufriendo una ruda paliza.
Ayer me pidió que no bebiera café ni alcohol, que comiera frugalmente y no tomara ninguna substancia que modificara mi percepción, porque deseaba enseñarme algo que requería mi absoluta lucidez.
-Sin café no lograré lucidez sino un síndrome de abstinencia brutal.- Y seguí preparando la cafetera.
La perra, que acude cuando desayunamos y da vueltas a mi alrededor, estaba en posición de alerta mirando hacia fuera. La llamé y no acudió.
-¿Qué le pasa a Yumka?
-Ella siempre los percibe antes que yo.
-¿A quienes?
-Lo siento, no quiero influirle...
Tomé el primer café mientras me preparaba el bocadillo, y me senté a comérmelo con el segundo café.
Una ráfaga de aire hizo temblar la puerta, y Yumka, con el rabo entre las piernas y las orejas aplastadas, gruñó asustada. Nadie llamó, nadie abrió la puerta que da al patio interior, simplemente una pareja de mediana edad estaban sentados a la mesa conmigo, sin saber cómo podrían haber aparecido. El hombre que sabe los saludó con naturalidad y me presentó.
-¿Cómo han entrado?
-Usted quiere que le hablemos del papel que jugó Joan Fontcuberta en la historia de Iván Istochnikov ¿verdad?
-Sé el papel que jugó, fue una performance, puso su cara en unas fotos y se inventó toda la historia...Istochnikov nunca existió.
-¿Y cómo puede estar tan segura de que no sea precisamente eso lo que se inventó Joan Fontcuberta? ¿Sabe usted algo de la época que estuvo en un monasterio ortodoxo ruso?
-¿Joan? Nunca ha tenido inquietudes religiosas. No creo que haya estado jamás en un monasterio ortodoxo...
-¿Usted lo conoce bien?
-Suficiente como para saber que eso no es verdad.

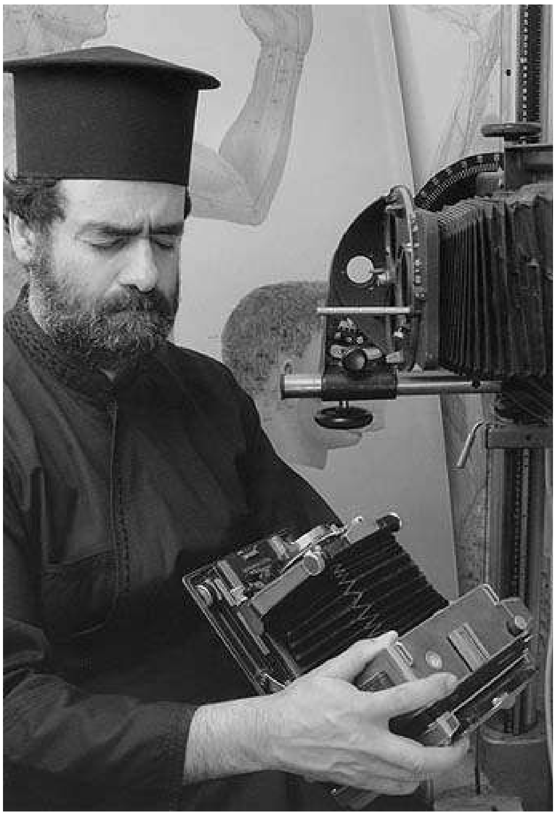
Habló la desconocida por primera vez: tenía un acento extraño:
-¿Sólo díganos si lo conoce físicamente?
-Sí. Desde hace veinte años...
-Mire esta foto.



-Sí, es Joan Fontcuberta. Pero le gusta disfrazarse...
-Efectivamente su escepticismo funciona. ¿Sabe quienes somos nosotros?
-No.
-¿Piensa que somos normales?
-Lo parecen, aunque entren sin que me dé cuenta...
-¿Tiene una explicación lógica para nuestra manera de aparecer?
-Sí. Ustedes estaban en la casa, no fuera. Y yo estaba pendiente de Yumka cuando ustedes...
-Ahora está pendiente de nosotros. Obsérvenos bien.
-Sí, les estoy prestando toda mi atención. Diganme...
Y desaparecieron. Sencillamente desaparecieron. Tuve la sensación de estarme ahogando, se me olvidó respirar. El hombre que sabe me abrazó.
-Abuela, relájese, por favor. Relájese.
Yo boqueaba:
-¡Han desaparecido!
-Se han desmaterializado, pero aún están aquí.
Y efectivamente volvieron a aparecer en el mismo sitio.
-Por favor, disculpenos si la hemos asustado: era necesario para que supiera que no le contamos patrañas.
-No comprendo cómo lo han hecho.
-Usted trata de aplicar la lógica monolítica de una inteligencia limitada por el racionalismo, y la materia tiene leyes que la Física teórica ha formulado, pero que la inteligencia del hombre común no capta.
-Son poderes paranormales...
-No existe lo paranormal. Sólo existe una realidad que la mayoría ignora, porque no desarrolla sus potencialidades. Y la historia que deseamos contarle forma parte de esa realidad que se escapa a su lógica. ¿Quiere escucharla?
-Sí. Me habían enseñado una fotografía de Joan Fontcuberta en un monasterio ruso...

-Vamos a ir directamente al principio: formamos parte de los inciados, participamos de los saberes antiguos que hemos preservado en los monasterios. En la antigua URSS se persiguió toda la ciencia que no se ajustara a las consignas oficiales, de la misma manera que en el resto del mundo se le ignora, no se financia, no se investiga . Nosotros sabíamos que el viaje de la Soyuz-2 era un fracaso seguro, y que, en las condiciones que se hizo, Iván Istochnikov y Kloka habrían muerto sin remedio.
-Murieron, quedaron en el espacio...
-Se hizo el contacto. Los sacamos de la cabina del Soyuz-2. Los trajimos sanos y salvos.

-¿Cómo? Ustedes tenían otra nave tripulada y nadie...
-Usted piensa en un satelite artificial como los Soyuz ¿verdad?
-Sí, claro ¿de qué otra forma se puede viajar al espacio?
-El error de partida es pensar que para que un mamífero terrestre sobreviva en el espacio ha de crearse una capsula física que lo proteja, cargada con toneladas de combustible para propulsarlo. Y para mover las toneladas de combustible que lleva son necesarias toneladas de combustible...
-Pero no se puede prescindir... ¿o sí?
-No se distingue un campo gravitacional uniforme y un marco uniformemente acelerado, según el "principio de equivalencia" de Einstein.
-Y ustedes lo aplicaron para los viajes espaciales, pero no acabo de comprender...
-El sistema solar está interconectado por una serie de túneles o espirales gravitacionales a modo de autopistas interplanetarias.
-Estan ustedes hablando de los denominados puntos de Lagrange.
-Si. Al usar esas autopistas usamos la fuerza gravitacional para viajar, en vez de luchar contra ella. Aplicando estos principios logramos naves que funcionan con mucho menos combustible. Y no nos pueden detectar los radares.
-¿Y rescataron a Istochnikov?
-Rescatamos a Istochnikov y a Kloka.
-¿Qué fue de ellos?
-Kloka murió de vieja en el monasterio. Ivan Istochnikov permaneció hasta que aprendió una lengua extranjera acorde con sus nuevoss documentos, su personalidad, su biografía...
-Entonces, la historia de Joan Fontcuberta...
-Istochnikov no sabía que su mujer estaba embarazada... y cuando se enteró de que había tenido una hija, que su mujer había muerto en aquel recinto de alta seguridad poco después... se arriesgó a chantajear a la KGB... Fue una temeridad, pero hay que reconocer que le salió bien la jugada. Su hija salió de la URSS con un pasaporte diplomático gracias a su demencial estratagema.
-¿Qué estratagema utilizó?
-Istochnikov montó una exposición pública con sus fotos, mostrando su existencia, su historia, todos los detalles de su odisea, el asunto de la Soyuz, todo, todo, absolutamente todo. Les ofreció decir que era una ficción, de modo que no habría peligro en el futuro, que nadie creería jamás en su existencia ni en su historia....en cuanto supiera que su hija había salido de Rusia. Y aceptaron liberarla.
-Perdón, pero en esas fotos está fotografiado Joan Fontcuberta, y esa exposición la hizo...
-Hay una frase críptica muy reveladora...
-No me la digan: "¿la verdad de quien no tiene que mentir, nunca es interesante?"... Olvidan que conozco fisicamente a Joan y lo puedo identificar perfectamente.
-No conocía esa frase ...
-Es mía. Y ahora diganme qué pretenden que sepa y qué quieren que cuente en mi bitácora.
-Joan Fontcuberta es la personalidad que adoptó Ivan Istochnikov. Sólo queremos que se sepa la verdad.

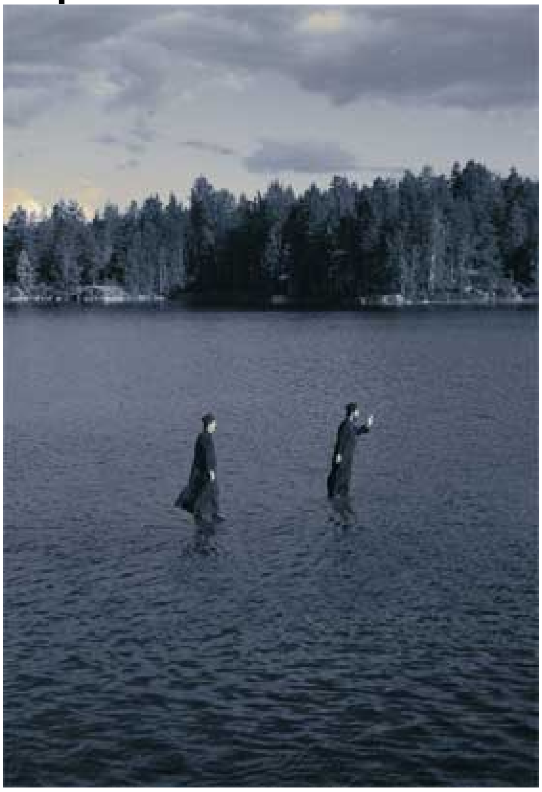
3ª parte



No me dijeron nada más y no pude hacer todas las preguntas que después se me habrían de ocurrir.
El hombre que sabe me invitó a dar un paseo con Yumka, que nos precedía correteando.
-Aún estoy conmocionada mentalmente. Pero trataré de comprobar los datos. Uno de mis irregulares me ha recordado que no se puede demostrar que alguien no es quien es.
-Es necesario un acto de fe para creer y afirmar la no existencia. Tanta fe como para afirmar la existencia que no se pueda comprobar.
-Nadie creerá que he visto aparecer y desaparecer a dos personas.
-Desde el momento en que David Copperfield ha hecho desaparecer la estatua de la Libertad para miles de personas...
-Decir que es un truco de magia no deja de romperme los esquemas mentales... lo que he visto es un hachazo a mi racionalidad.
-Los ojos perciben el mundo como un holograma defectuoso, y lo que creemos que es real sólo es una representación tridimensional esquemática.
-¿Qué es eso? ¿Usted apela al escepticismo?
Sonrió.
-Si.
-Pero... ¿no me había dicho que mi escepticismo mutila mi capacidad para comprender?
-Porque sólo utiliza el escepticismo para desconfiar de lo que le cuentan, y sin embargo se deja convencer por su criterio y sus sentidos, que son tan poco de fiar como los de todos.
-Lo cierto es que no leí siquiera las lecciones que exponían la filosofía del obispo Berkeley. Eso de que la realidad no existe, que sólo existe la percepción subjetiva que tenemos de ella...
-Creo que ha simplificado usted un poco a Berkeley
-Ya le he dicho que no lo leí. En aquella época aún no consideraba necesario saber lo que pensaban mis adversarios. Y mis adversarios eran todos los que no me dijeran lo que yo pudiera comprender sin muchos dolores de cabeza.

Soltó una carcajada, y Yumka caracoleó a su alrededor preparada para jugar.
-Ha descrito perfectamente lo que todos hemos hecho cuando éramos jóvenes.
Tiró una piedra y espero acuclillado a que la perra se la trajera.
-¿No le parece extraordinario que, entre todas, encuentre la que le he lanzado?
-Supongo que la reconoce por el olfato...
-Vamos a comprobarlo.
Mientras caminábamos tomaba una piedra, la mantenía en su mano, y la volvía a dejar en su sitio. Luego tomó una y, antes de lanzarla, me la enseñó. Tenía una estría rosada y memoricé su forma. Luego la lanzo. La perra volvió con una piedra en la boca y la dejó a sus pies.
No tenía estría alguna.
-Efectivamente ha traído alguna otra de las que ha tocado antes.
Y sin agacharse a mirarla siquiera, me mostró la piedra que nunca había dejado de tener en su mano.
-Usted ha dado por hecho que yo tiraba la piedra que le he enseñado y ha creído ver como lo hacía. Y ha sacado conclusiones temerarias.
-Bien. He sido víctima de mi falta de rigor, no he controlado cada uno de los datos... Y eso nos lleva al punto de partida: he de creer que el astronauta Istochnikov no ha existido jamás, o bien he de creer que existió y ahora anda por el mundo llamándose Joan Fontcuberta, aunque su edad lo desmienta...
-Esta conversación se parece a una de esas melonadas pomposas de Paulo Coelho ¿Lo está haciendo aposta?
-Si. El pomposo Coelho está propuesto para el Nobel de Literatura: me encanta pensar que puedo imitar sus ventosidades reflexivas. Y usted, ¿por qué habla como si se hubiera puesto a Bucay en vena?
-Lo siento, le estaba tomando el pelo, quería saber si estaba alerta o seguía medio idiota.
-Sigo medio idiota. Pero sigo queriendo saber donde se ha dado el cambiazo en el asunto Istochnikov .
-Lea las enseñanzas que adquirió Istochnicov en el Monasterio de Valhamönde , y que ha contado como Joan Fontcuberta: la técnica se remonta, en los anales de la alquimia clásica, al famoso "solve et coagula": la disgregación del cuerpo en partículas atómicas penetrantes que volvían a agruparse en su estructura original siguiendo los dictados de una determinada frecuencia o vibración acústica.
No dejará de ser paradójico que acabe pasando por mentirosa con esta historia, con todas las ficciones que he contado que pasan por verdad.

Me ha encantado el relato.

Leí hace algún tiempo la historia del astronauta borrado de la Historia, y el genial montaje de Fontcuberta.

Un magnífico post.

Me ha envuelto el espíritu la historia entremezclada de el Hombre que Sabe y mis propios viajes astrales en espacio tiempo de pasar del 4º periodo al estadio REM , que a la mañana siguiente me doy cuenta al mirarme al espejo y ver las ojeras impenitentes como mi edad irreal.

Sobrecogedora y a la vez emociónate, que coincide con las manipulaciones fotográficas en los tiempos de la II Guerra Mundial, como en la vista de Adolf Hitler y Franco en la estación de Hendaya, que hizo esperar al dueño de Europa , donde varios objetos se manipularon de las fotos para la prensa.

Algo me dice mi sensibilidad al leerte que pronto coincidiremos y lograremos tomarnos algo juntos, charlando y gozando de una cervecita pensando en parajes lejanos con aguas marinas y sol tropical.

RIPIOS AL MILAGROSO MARCIAL MACIEL, CUATE DE LOS MILLONARIOS DE CRISTO

No es un hecho sorprendente:
los milagros de Maciel
tienen su mejor ambiente en un surtido burdel

Como le llamaban Padre sus ovejas legionarias
hizo a una hembra madre
y a unos cuantos hijos parias.

Los sacramentos de Amor
los tomó con diligencia
y sin recato o rubor se aplicó a la correncia.

Aunque era ya muy viejo,
y la carne era magra
demostró ser un pendejo con tesón y con Viagra.

Camino de Perfección
el del santo pederasta, que su cristiana legión
alaba hasta decir basta.

Aficionado al cianuro, ante Dios Omnipresente,
este piadoso siluro
se cargó a algún pariente.

De joven violaba niños,
y también de más adulto.
Aplaudían los cariños
los cofrades de su culto.

A este singular santo con fijación en el ano protegió bajo su manto
il Segreto Vaticano.

Como soy cabra muy lista,
me escondo rauda en mi zulo,
no sea que un Macielista
pretenda darme por culo.

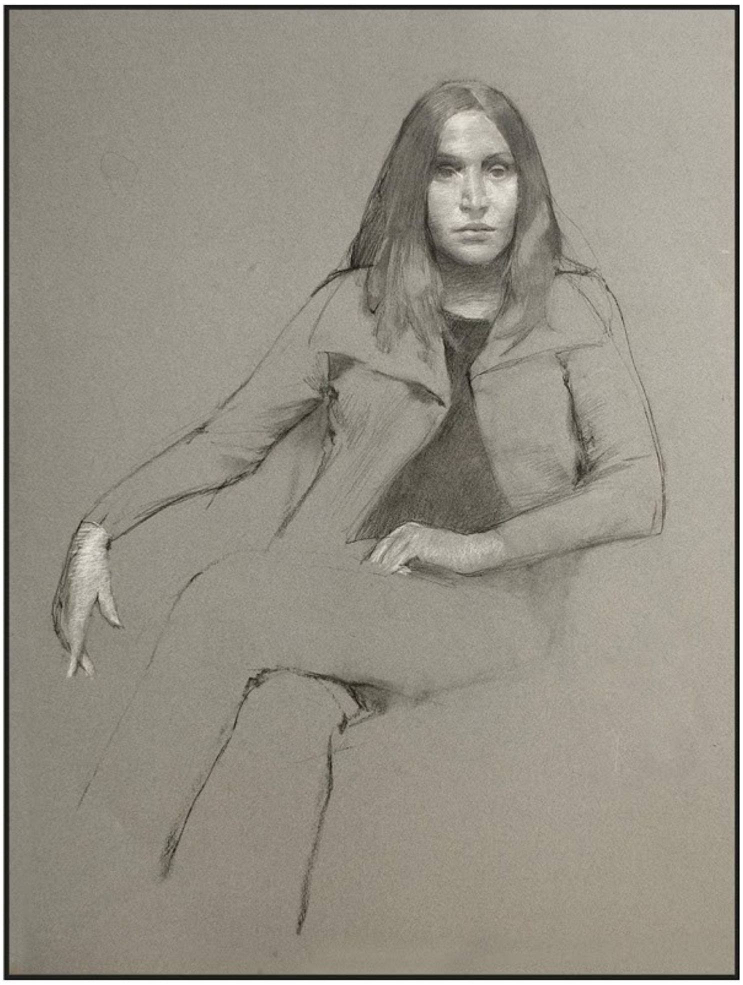
LA HIJA DE MARCIAL MACIEL



"Pues no sé por qué instinto natural o, por mejor decir, divino impulso, aun sin respetarlos, siempre los miré con hostilidad." Agustín de Hipona: De beata vita

En estos días, Álvaro Corcuera, superior de los Legionarios de Cristo, está visitando las comunidades a su cargo, en EE.UU., con la triste embajada de dar a conocer a su rebaño las últimas revelaciones sobre la doble vida de quien ellos consideraron "como Cristo", injustamente acusado. La noticia de que Marcial Maciel tenía una amante y una hija ha sido demasiado para estas pobres almas tan necesitadas de tutela y guía, los mismos que no pestañearon cuando, desde 1946, ha habido denuncias contra Maciel como falsificador, drogadicto y narcotraficante, y por las iniciáticas prácticas sexuales con niños impúberes a su cargo en los seminarios de la Legion de Cristo; ni siquiera cuando, como sacerdote, incurre en la absolución de cómplice, lo que acarrea, según la Iglesia Católica, ipso facto la suspensión a divinis, y la excomunión, siendo un delito teológico imprescriptible.
Imposible -decían quienes le ayudaron durante más de cincuenta años para quedar impune-, todas esas acusaciones eran infamias y falacias provenientes de gente que habíamos sido comprados por los enemigos de Jesucristo y de su mejor adalid en la tierra, Marcial Maciel, llamado por su grey "notre Père" (padre nuestro). Para comprobar su inocencia y santidad, bastaba ver la sesión de manitas y carantoñas con que sucesivos papas acogían a Marcial Maciel, y esa carta de Juan Pablo II, alborozada, llena de amor pastoral, que le escribió con todas las alharacas, sus bonitos sellos vaticanos y con su firma autografa, con ocasión del sexagésimo aniversario sacerdotal:

Al Reverendo Padre
Marcial Maciel Degollado

Superior general de la Congregación de los Legionarios de Cristo

1. Estoy feliz de unirme espiritualmente al gozo y a la acción de gracias que, desde Usted, Reverendo Padre, y desde el corazón de todos los miembros de esta familia religiosa se eleva a Dios, fuente de todo bien, con ocasión del 60º aniversario de la ordenación sacerdotal, que el 26 de noviembre de 1944 le fue conferida en la Basílica de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, en la Ciudad de México. En aquel día llegaba a cumplimiento el camino de formación para el sacerdocio, iniciado por usted a los 16 años con el sueño de suscitar sacerdotes dedicados totalmente al anuncio del Evangelio y a la elevación moral y social de los hermanos más pobres y marginados. Este proyecto de amor a Cristo, fidelidad a la Iglesia y servicio al hombre pudo realizarse con el nacimiento en la Ciudad de México el 3 de enero de 1941 de la Congregación de los Legionarios de Cristo, cuyas Constituciones han sido después aprobadas definitivamente por mí en el año 1983.

2. Sus sesenta años de vida sacerdotal, Reverendo Padre, han estado señalados por una significativa fecundidad espiritual y misionera con diversas obras y actividades apostólicas como el Movimiento Regnum Christi, la red de escuelas denominada Mano Amiga, las numerosas instituciones educativas y caritativas –presentes hoy en 16 países de los 5 continentes– que tienen el objetivo de promover los valores de la familia y de la persona humana, los centros universitarios de estudio y de formación. Y ¿qué decir, además, del apostolado de los sacerdotes Legionarios de Cristo así como del compromiso de toda la congregación a favor de la formación integral de los futuros sacerdotes diocesanos, particularmente a través del Pontificio Ateneo Regina Apostolorum, y los dos seminarios internacionales Mater Ecclesiae de Roma y de São Paulo en Brasil.

Asimismo, no puedo olvidar el servicio de usted ha prestado en estos años a la Santa Sede, que se ha valido –en varias ocasiones y de diversos modos– de su generosa y competente colaboración, sea con ocasión de algunos de mis viajes apostólicos, sea en la actividad de organismos de la Curia Romana.

3. La aspiración profunda que ha guiado su acción educativa, cultural y pastoral, inspiración que usted ha transmitido como tesoro precioso a la familia religiosa fundada por usted, ha sido la constante premura por una promoción integral de la persona, y esto especialmente en relación con la formación humana que, como escribí en la exhortación apostólica post-sinodal Pastores dabo vobis, «si se desarrolla en el contexto de una antropología que abarca toda la verdad sobre el hombre, se abre y se completa en la formación espiritual» (n. 45)

Reverendo Padre, el recuerdo gozoso del 60º aniversario de su ordenación sacerdotal se cumple durante el año de la Eucaristía. Esta coincidencia providencial constituye una invitación a meditar en la centralidad de la Eucaristía en la vida de la comunidad cristiana y especialmente en la formación de los futuros sacerdotes y en su dedicación posterior al ministerio ordenado. Es lo que subrayaba en el documento ya citado señalando «la importancia esencial de la Eucaristía para la vida y el ministerio sacerdotal y, por tanto, para la formación espiritual de los candidatos al sacerdocio» (n. 48).

4. Por todas estas razones estoy feliz de unirme al cántico de alabanza y de agradecimiento al Señor, que se eleva desde muchos corazones por las «cosas grandes» (cf. Lc 1, 49) que la gracia de Dios ha realizado en estos 60 años de su intenso, generoso y proficuo ministerio sacerdotal.

Mientras invoco una efusión renovada de los dones del Espíritu Santo para que su sacerdocio continúe dando frutos copiosos de bien, le confío, querido Padre Maciel, a la protección celeste de la Virgen María, Madre de los sacerdotes, y con afecto le envío una especial bendición apostólica, que con gusto extiendo a todos los Legionarios de Cristo, a los miembros del Movimiento Regnum Christi y a cuantos participan en la celebración jubilar.

Desde el Vaticano, 24 de noviembre de 2004
Joannes Paulus II

Y justo cuando estaba bajo su consideración la denuncia que, en noviembre de 1997, le habían remitido Félix Alarcón Hoyos, sacerdote español en Estados Unidos; José de J. Barba Martín, catedrático del Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México; Saúl Barrales Arellano, profesor de un colegio católico; Alejandro Espinosa Alcalá, ganadero; Arturo Jurado Guzmán, catedrático de la Escuela de Lenguas del Departamento de Defensa de Estados Unidos; Fernando Pérez Olvera, ingeniero químico; José Antonio Pérez Olvera, abogado; Juan José Vaca Rodríguez, ex sacerdote, estrecho colaborador de Maciel durante tres décadas y ex presidente de Legionarios de Cristo en Estados Unidos, todos ellos antiguos miembros de la Legión de Cristo, violados en su infancia y adolescencia por Maciel.
¿Qué ha cambiado para que los que antes consideraban a Marcial Maciel un santo perseguido, mártir de las insidias de sus enemigos, acepten que Marcial Maciel "llevaba una doble vida", "tuvo una hija con su amante, siendo sacerdote", "tuvo una conducta que no era apropiada para un sacerdote católico", y para que Paolo Scarafoni, portavoz de la Legión de Cristo en Roma, reconozca que "No podemos negar la existencia de esos hechos, pero no deseamos entrar en más detalles por respeto a la privacidad de las personas afectadas"?
Sólo ha podido ser la determinación de quien puede desenmascarar la impostura de Marcial Maciel y sus epígonos, poseedora de los documentos contables, canónicos y legales que la respaldan: *cherchez la femm*e. Es joven. Y no se parece a su padre.

P.S. 7 febrero 2009:

Marcial Maciel, fundador de la "Legión de Cristo", acusado de pederasta, tuvo una hija, que hoy tiene veinte años , con una niña que violó desde que tenía quince años, "cuando él era ya un repugnante, pero siempre perverso anciano.", según Manu Dornbierer

*Delito de estupro o corrupción de menores. Figura legal que pena el coito u otra forma de actividad sexual con una persona de edad inferior a la legalmente establecida para prestar su consentimiento: se castiga por estupro de prevalimiento a «la persona que tuviere acceso carnal con otra mayor de doce años y menor de dieciocho» o por estupro de seducción a la «persona que, interviniendo engaño, tuviere acceso carnal con otra mayor de doce años y menor de dieciséis».

Me gustaría saber si Gatopardo, el copista de este artículo, entiende de verdad lo que escribe. Me parece que se aprovecha maliciosamente de la nefasta conducta de un hombre para atacar su obra, a sus seguidores -evidentemente engañados- y, de paso, desacreditar el Evangelio de Jesucristo. Conozco a Jesús y la linea editorial de este blog no se parece en nada a Él.

Sr. Dominguez:
este artículo no ha sido copiado, salvo los párrafos entrecomillados y en bastardilla, según el protocolo de edición habitual.
La nefasta persona, la nefasta conducta y la nefasta obra de Maciel, y la de sus epígonos forma un todo inseparable.
No conozco ni reconozco a Jesucristo -ni a Mahoma, ni a Buda, ni a Abraham- y efectivamente, en Gatopardo tenemos la inmensa satisfacción de que nuestra línea editorial no tiene nada que ver con los chanchullos y las imposturas de las sectas y los sectarios que explotan y estafan la credulidad de la gente que se cree sus patrañas.

No es posible que opinen eso de el Padre Marcial Maciel, yo no soy miembro de la congregacion ni de sus seguidores pero una persona que hizo tanto bien, porque no ha hecho más que eso sea acusada y tratada de esa manera... "los conocereis por sus frutos"... esa frase la dijo Cristo y se nos olvida... como una persona que le ha hecho tanto bien al mundo con el apostolado y el movimiento sea criticada así. La gente problablemente no sabe pero organizaciones como el TELETON en México, Un kilo de ayuda, catholic.net, y muchisimas más que no voy a poner extendiendome pertenecen a miembros de su movimiento. Eso lo se porque mi prima es colaboradora del moviemiento y me lo ha dicho y simplemente no me puedo quedar callada. Deberían de dejar de criticar si no tienen fundamentos. La legión es de Cristo no del Padre Maciel.

Muy señora mía:
Marcial Maciel y los que le ofrecieron el manto de impunidad, y lo han protegido son despreciables y deberían haber sido procesados,y condenados si hubiera justicia. Pero quienes, como usted, lo reivindican porque hacen de la caridad un salvoconducto para sus engaños y fraudes, me dan náuseas.
Y yo también tengo una prima: trabaja de funambulista en el Cirque du Soleil, y eso no me da perspectiva ni autoridad para juzgar como experta los espectáculos circenses.

Me dan nauseas ustedes, y usted Gatopardo con estos comentarios, por favor deme las pruebas de fraude, abuso sexual y pedofilia del Padre Marcial Maciel y lo aceptare, usted esta de acuerdo que es muy diferente un desobediencia de votos de castidad a una desviación mental, perversion y abuso sexual de menores, no es asi? que dimension tan diferente una cosa es "natural" dentro de lo prohibida y lo otro simplemente una desciación que nunca se logro demostrar despues de los miles de testimonios comprados, lo que pasa es que les encanta el "chisme" y el hablar mal de quien ha hecho tanto bien y tantas buenas obras digame UNA una cosa del movimiento de Legionarios de Cristo que haya dañado a alguien, al contrario los miles de apostolados son para beneficio de las personas o va a decirme que el Teleton es algo malo? una cosa es la Legion y el Movimiento y otra muy diferente la persona del padre Marcial Maciel. No puede ser que haya personas que tan ligeramente van por la vida desacreditando las obras de caridad. Hay millones de por medio para inculpar al padre de semejantes atrocidades, asi que le sugeriria que antes se informe y luego ande haciendo este tipo de articulos... que solo llenan al mundo de basura.. lo unico que se ha comprobado es que el TUVO UNA HIJA es lo unico, no las otras cosas de que lo han culpado, pero ustedes aprovechan la nueva acusación para sacar todas las anteriores! que lástima, que lástima

¡¡¡POR DIOS!!!!, QUÉ SOBERANO ASCO ESTE MARCIAL MACIEL, no por ser un hombre y tener una vida sexual activa; sino por tener una vida sexual cuando no debía tenerla POR ELECCIÓN SUYA, cuando decidió ser sacerdote y demás. Y porque encima de esa incongruencia ELIGIÓ escandalizar al mundo abusando de niños a su cargo, utilizando su autoridad como "PADRE", padre de la mierda, eso sí. OJALÁ, como dice esta rima de muertos de un blog, SATANÁS ya le esté haciendo gozar "por la eternidad", UN SUPOSITORIO.

la obra de los legionarios de cristo es BUENA, he visto de cerca por mas de 10 años seguidos como se ayuda a la gente y jamas la obra le ha hecho daño a nadie, SE JUZGA POR LA OBRA... puede ser que el padre Maciel se haya equivocado pero su obra es BUENA y eso es lo unico que podemos juzgar nosotros desde aqui... porque la verdad completa de la vida de el solo la sabe Dios y el se encargara de juzgarlo...nosotros preocupemonos mejor de juzgar por todas las cosas buenas que se han hecho y no por una persona que se equivoco... todos somos humanos ... algunos tienen errores mas grandes que otros... y todos tenemos el derecho de arrepentirnos ...

Vamos a dejarnos de tonterías. El problema no es que Maciel tenga o no una hija-o. El problema es la hipocresía de Maciel y de los suyos (TODOS los suyos). Lo intolerable es que algo que se dice llamar "Obra de Dios" sea en realidad una obra de la mentira y de la hipocresía. Se da la circunstacia que conozco de primera mano un caso de hábito y falda, y además casada. ¿Cuantos hijos de Legionarios de Cristo habrá por el mundo?. HIPÓCRITAS.

Juzgar a alguien sin tener evidencias claras no es bueno, con esto no quiero decir que el Padre Marcial Maciel este libre de culpa, así como se dice que hizo mal, hizo tambien mucho bien. Ahora el ya no está aquí, esta ante Dios que será quien deberá ahora juzgarlo por lo que haya hecho o haya dejado de hacer. Todos somos humanos y podemos fallar en cualquier momento, así como han existido Papas que tambien le han fallado a la Iglesia de Cristo y a su pueblo, así como nos pueden fallar un hijo, una hija, un miembro de nuetra familia, y cuando eso sucede... duele, pero no por ello nos alejamos de esa persona o la queremos casi quemar viva.

Dios sabe el porque permitió que todo esto sucediera, el ya sabía lo que pasaría por la vida del Padre Maciel, y aunque haya fallado, por algo le confió y le permitió crear la congregación. Acaso no fue el mismo Jesucristo quien confió su Iglesia a Pedro, aun y apesar de que fué él quien lo negó tres veces. Por eso debemos dejar que sea el mismo Cristo nuestro Señor que lo juzgue, a fin de cuentas el juzgarlo nosotros no servirá de nada. Y todos, absolutamente todos, sin excepeción seremos juzgados algún día por la justicia Divina.

Reflexiones sobre Marcial Maciel y la iglesia católica

Por Jorge Queirolo Bravo

Es chocante la actitud de la iglesia católica, que durante años encubrió abiertamente los delitos del pervertido cura Marcial Maciel. Él falleció, como inevitablemente nos va a pasar a todos en algún momento, y se fue de este mundo terrenal que habitamos sin haber sido debidamente sentenciado por los tribunales correspondientes. Que Maciel haya sido homosexual es completamente irrelevante. La homosexualidad es una opción sexual más, absolutamente respetable y que en sí no daña ni perjudica a nadie. Lo malo es que Maciel la haya ejercido a la fuerza, valiéndose de su prerrogativa de sacerdote y obligando a personas indefensas a entregarse a él. Eso es lo que efectivamente está mal. Si lo hubiese hecho con mujeres, en un acto heterosexual, seguiría estando mal, pues no por eso dejaría de ser una violación, en la cual alguien es sometido sexualmente contra su voluntad.

En mi lógica, no logro comprender qué atractivo ejerce una orden como los “Legionarios de Cristo” en la gente que tiene dinero y poder. Se puede tener ambas cosas, y de sobra, sin que para ello exista la necesidad de adherirse a un conglomerado que ampara delitos verdaderamente aberrantes. De hecho, uno puede ser millonario sin ser católico, cristiano ni creyente en algún dios. Volviendo al caso del cura Maciel, no me extrañaría que esa maquinaria de propaganda mentirosa que es la iglesia católica lo santificara, y que además lo hicieran en un tiempo récord. Los clérigos son unos verdaderos campeones a la hora de inventar santos, aunque los involucrados en realidad carezcan de las virtudes que generosamente se les atribuye. ¿Acaso no lo van a hacer con el fallecido papa Juan Pablo II? ¿Cuál es la lección que se puede extraer de todo esto? Que con la cantidad adecuada de dinero, influencias o intereses de por medio, cualquiera se puede volver santo dentro de la iglesia católica.

Si Hitler hubiese ganado la guerra y dejado descendencia, y ésta fuera económicamente pudiente o políticamente poderosa, grande sería la probabilidad de que ya lo hubiesen canonizado y presentado ante la opinión pública como un gran héroe. El papa y sus acólitos habrían pasado por alto sus crímenes, excesos, genocidios y actos de locura. Pero como todos sabemos Hitler perdió la guerra, aparentemente se suicidó ante la posibilidad de caer en manos de sus enemigos, no tuvo descendencia conocida y encima no dejó bienes materiales a nadie. ¿Para qué santificar a un personaje así? No sería un buen negocio para el Vaticano. Y el Vaticano se mueve por dinero, poder e influencias, no por hechos espirituales o de fe. Lo de la fe y la espiritualidad no es más que un mero pretexto de la iglesia católica para existir y justificar su presencia.

Con lo expuesto, solamente me queda por recomendar que mejor nos preparemos para ver al degenerado Marcial Maciel convertido dentro de poco en un santo. Su figura posiblemente aparecerá adornando catedrales, presidiendo procesiones (cada vez menos concurridas) e ilustrando estampitas para los ingenuos que se quieren creer el cuento de su santidad. ¿Cuántos dólares serán necesarios para ello? No importa, para eso están las arcas de los Legionarios de Cristo. No escatimarán en gastos, con tal de verlo ascendido a esa categoría, que para los católicos es tan superior y sublime. A mí me da lo mismo, ya que afortunadamente no soy católico ni cristiano. Tengo la suerte de no ser parte de ese rebaño de engañados constituido por la feligresía católica. Así que dejemos que hagan lo que quieran con la memoria de Maciel. Para mí seguirá siendo un monstruo disfrazado de bueno y que tuvo la mala suerte de ser desenmascarado en vida.

Me ha sorprendido que tubiera una hija, puesto que le tenía por homosexual (no quiero ofneder a los homosexuales llamándo así a este energúmeno) pero me entero de que la madre de la criatura era una niña de 15 años. Así me encaja más, es mucho más propio de un señor que con su vasto curriculum se nos muestra como un auténtico enfermo , peligroso, y que además de sus pecados conocidos y que trató de ocultar , la soberbia fué uno manifestó sin recato alguno. Puedo enterder que sus fieles seguidores le perdonen pero sus crímenes (puesto que como crímenes estan tipificados por las leyes) no son perdonables por que son crímenes contra la humanidad .La lista de víctimas no ha hecho mas que creer y muchas de ellas son personas con la vida hecha que no tienen sino que que perder con las acusaciones. Más bien son personas que por fín se han atrevido a hablar ante la indecencia de este enfermo mental peligroso. He seguido y sigo con mucho interes esta historia y no deja de sorprenderme. Y a sus seguidores, y defensores cabe recordarles que incuso el papa le suspendió A divinis (es lo peor que le puede pasar a un ministro de la iglesia detro de ella) por Confesión complice (este pecado es el peor de los pecados que puede cmeter un sacerdote, porque falta muy gravemente a su ministerio) Para los que no lo sepan, la confesion complice significa que primero te empujo a cometer un pecado y una vez lo has cometido , yo, el incitador o complice, me permito el acto de soberbia de perdonártelo. No hay mayor muestra de cinismo. No soy creyente, así que lamento que este enfermo no se esté revolviendo en su tumba, lo únicoque queda es impedir que su "linea de trabajo" prosiga y que su memoria sea puesta en el lugar que le corresponde, es decir, en el saco de los monstruos de la humanidad.

Marcial Maciel ya no será santo

Por Jorge Queirolo Bravo

Pensé que lo lograría, que traspasaría triunfalmente la meta que tanto le habría gustado coronar, pero me equivoqué en forma rotunda. Me refiero, obviamente, a Marcial Maciel Degollado, el siempre evocado fundador de los Legionarios de Cristo. Dicho sacerdote, conocido debido a su predilección sexual por los seminaristas, sonaba como un firme candidato a ser canonizado. Ahora todo se arruinó. El festín de beatería hipócrita se derrumbó como un castillo de naipes en medio de un huracán.

¿Qué evento tan poderoso pudo pasar, como para aguarle la fiesta a los legionarios de la infamia? La respuesta es: algo inesperado y tremendamente sorpresivo. ¿Qué tan sorpresivo? Más de lo que se podría esperar de alguien que supuestamente fue célibe, aunque esto haya sido fuertemente cuestionado mientras el personaje aún vivía. ¿Qué sucedió entonces? Resulta que se dice que el inefable Marcial Maciel, además de violar a un cierto número de seminaristas, también fue padre. ¿Qué tiene esto de raro? ¿No es lo normal que un hombre tenga hijos? Para los mortales comunes y corrientes lo es, mas no para un prelado, de acuerdo con los extraños parámetros establecidos por esa institución tan anómala, decadente y anacrónica que es la iglesia católica.

Para la jerarquía eclesiástica que un cura u obispo viole o someta sexualmente a una legión de niños, adolescentes o seminaristas no parece ser un gran pecado. Solamente es motivo de traslados silenciosos para el religioso afectado, de tal manera que el brazo de la justicia secular, en lo posible, no lo alcance jamás. No es nada más que eso, y todos los actos y resoluciones administrativas que conciernen a estos “percances carnales” no tienen otra finalidad específica, como no sea la de proteger al autor material de dichas aberraciones. El mensaje del alto mando clerical a los sacerdotes es, en ese sentido, bien claro y no deja lugar a dudas: viola a todos los niños que quieras, pero no permitas que te descubran.

Tener un hijo ya es un asunto diferente y mucho más complicado. A los ojos del sacro colegio cardenalicio y los obispados esto sí que es un pecado descomunal, a desemejanza del abuso sexual en contra de menores que, en el mejor de los casos, es visto por ellos como una falta de poca cuantía y mucha frecuencia. Y por eso Marcial Maciel ya no será santo. Su imagen de yeso no adornará las bellas catedrales de las capitales europeas y latinoamericanas. No se erigirán santuarios que inmortalicen su memoria retorcida y libidinosa. Carecerá del honor de presidir, dentro de una urna de vidrio y cargado por sus adeptos, una procesión, pese a que éstas cada día son menos concurridas. Tampoco se imprimirán estampitas a colores, con una aureola blanquecina sobre su cabeza, para recordarles a los feligreses y peregrinos su falsa santidad.

Es que Maciel cometió el notorio desacierto de engendrar una hija, con lo cual su figura cayó perpetuamente en desgracia para los fanáticos trasnochados y andropáusicos que dirigen el Vaticano. Eso de ser papá sí que es imperdonable. ¿Cómo se le ocurrió perpetrar semejante tontería a Maciel? ¿No tenía, en ese momento, acaso, suficientes querubines bien dotados con los cuales revolcarse debajo de las sábanas? ¿Quiso el padrecito jugar a ser hombre? ¿Le sobrevino un súbito arrebato heterosexual? Porque, por lo que sabemos, a Marcialito más bien le picaba el culito. O para manifestarlo con una expresión bien criolla y algo vulgar: le gustaba que le atoren el tubo de escape. ¿Se entendió?

No ahondaré más en el tema. Lo que voy a decir a continuación puede sonar curioso, pero defiendo la opción de Marcial Maciel de haber elegido ser papá. Creo, incluso, que es lo único bueno y positivo que hizo en su inmoral vida. Y el clero diocesano debería respaldarme en mis dichos. ¿No dicen ser los más grandes defensores de la familia? Ahí tienen un buen ejemplo de alguien que trató de formar una familia, aunque informalmente. Marcial Maciel ya tiene un retoño propio que le puede poner flores en su tumba en el día del padre. Sus seguidores probablemente ya no lo harán, asqueados por la pérdida de prestigio de su progenitor espiritual. ¿Y qué dice la curia vaticana de todo este lío? Seguramente ya están buscándole un sucesor menos lujurioso a Marcial Maciel. A rey muerto, rey puesto.

Creo que existe un ser superior, mucho màs grande que culquier religiòn, lo verdaderamente lamentable es que los seres humanos sigamos perpetuando la injusticia, el daño hecho a las personas que se atravesaron en el andar de Maciel; ese que no se borra, antes bien al contrario, ese trauma està presente en cada acto de la vida futura, en lo personal he tenido experiencias "desagradables" por decir lo menos, con personas del clero. Es un acto de odio al creador, cuando dañas a inocentes incapaces de defenderse, pudiendo decidir dar testimonio de la VERDAD haciendo el bien. Me da asco todo el clero, pareciera que es requisito, ser un perfecto estùpido para ser religioso catòlico o bien el màs vil de los hipòcritas. Se requiere tener muy poca madre para creer que su Dios es tan tarugo que le pueden ver la cara (vanidad).

Más allá de la verguenza de saber que bajo las apariencias de una vida recta de exigencia y ejemplo heróico de virtudes, se develе la inmundicia de un cobarde escondido bajo una sotana, que bajo un poder celestial usurpado y prositituido, se encuentra la sociedad apuntando con un dedo a la Iglesia Católica como solapadora de la pederastia y abusos sexuales.

Esta sociedad señala a una institución, siendo que ¿cuántos padres abusan de sus hijas?, cuantas madres masturban a sus hijos?, ¿cuántos tios abusan de las sobrinas y ahijadas? - eso es pederastía en familia. ¿Quién los señala y acusa?

Gracias a Dios sale a la luz la raíz torcida de la podredumbre de la Legión. Habrá gente buena y bien intencionada, victima de engaños e ignorancia, pero ¿terminará pronto?.

Espero que por más que se justifiquen, con que sus obras son buenas y que han dado mucho fruto, nunca se borrará la maldad de sus origenes y consecuencias en las almas y familias desgraciadas por la cúpula de la Legión. Los fines no justifican los medios.

Que Dios juzgue a Marcial y su piara.

RIPIOS A LAS EXCELENCIAS DE GATOPARDO EN EL CUARTO ANIVERSARIO

Quien sabría nin diría cuánta fue nuestra homildanza, para dar a quien porfía, puerta e vía de salud e de folganza, sin fianza.
Nuestro estilo rompedor es mejor que el almíbar y el dulçor del boboblog de alfajor.

No es casposa nuestra prosa:
ni la SGAE, ni Molina,
ni aun Moratinos osa,
ni El Corte Inglés patrocina,

y declina
con cheques al portador, mas nos leen, oh, pecador,
con intención asesina.

Do rige y escribe l'agüela, borde y algo abestiada,
sin cautela se recela
su tenebrosa morada,
aljamiada,
do prosigue en el error,
y sin tino acusador
se nos dio por abogada.

Qué paridas, qué porfías,
dijeron gentes discretas,
Jeremías e Isaías,
Daniel e otros profetas,
e poetas,
llora que te llorarán,
e los santos gemirán
por gatos tan mala jeta.

GEORGES SIMENON: EL HOMBRE EN LA CALLE

Los cuatro hombres iban apretujados dentro del taxi. En París helaba. A las siete y media de la mañana la ciudad estaba lívida, el viento hacía correr a ras de suelo un polvillo de hielo.
El más delgado de los cuatro, en el asiento abatible, tenía un cigarrillo pegado al labio inferior e iba esposado. El más importante, de mandíbula fuerte, envuelto en un recio abrigo y con un sombrero hongo, fumaba en pipa viendo desfilar ante sus ojos la verja del Bois de Boulogne.
-¿Le hago el número de la pataleta? -propuso amablemente P'tit Louis, el hombre de las esposas-. ¿Con contorsiones, espumarajos, insultos y todo eso?
Maigret gruñó, quitándole el cigarrillo de los labios y abriendo la portezuela, porque ya habían llegado a la Porte de Bagatelle:
-No te pases de listo.
Los caminos del Bois estaban desiertos, blancos y duros como el mármol. Unas diez personas pateaban la nieve para combatir el frío al lado de un sendero para jinetes, y un fotógrafo quiso retratar al grupo que se acercaba. Pero P'tit Louis, tal como le habían recomendado, levantó los brazos para taparse la cara.
Maigret, con aire malhumorado, giraba la cabeza como un oso, observándolo todo: los edificios nuevos del Boulevard Richard-Wallace, todavía con los postigos cerrados, unos obreros en bicicleta que venían de Puteaux, un tranvía iluminado, dos porteras que caminaban con las manos violáceas de frío.
-¿Todo a punto? -preguntó.
La víspera, había permitido a los periódicos que publicaran la información siguiente:

«EL CRIMEN DE BAGATELLE»
En esta ocasión la policía no ha tardado mucho en aclarar un asunto que parecía ofrecer dificultades insuperables. Como es sabido, el lunes por la mañana un guarda del Bois de Boulogne descubrió en uno de los senderos, a unos cien metros de la Porte de Bagatelle, el cadáver de un hombre que pudo ser identificado inmediatamente.
Se trata de Ernest Borms, médico vienés muy conocido que vivía en Neuilly desde hacía varios años. Borms vestía esmoquin. Alguien debió de atacarle en la noche del domingo al lunes cuando volvía a su piso, en el Boulevard Richard-Wallace.
Una bala disparada a quemarropa con un revólver de pequeño calibre lo alcanzó en el corazón.

Borms, que aún era joven, de buena apariencia, muy elegante, llevaba una intensa vida social. Apenas cuarenta y ocho horas después de este crimen, la Policía Judicial acaba de proceder a una detención. Mañana por la mañana, entre las siete y las ocho, se procederá a la reconstrucción del crimen en el lugar de los hechos».

Posteriormente, en el Quai des Orfèvres se habló de este asunto, y se comentaba que en él Maigret había utilizado tal vez el más característico de sus procedimientos; pero cuando lo mencionaban en su presencia, reaccionaba de un modo extraño, volviendo la cabeza y emitiendo un gruñido.
-¡Vamos allá!
Todo el mundo estaba en su sitio. Muy pocos mirones, tal como había previsto. Por algo había elegido aquella hora matinal. Y además, entre las diez o quince personas que daban patadas en el suelo podía reconocerse a varios inspectores que adoptaban un aire lo más inocente posible, y uno de ellos, Torrence, a quien le encantaba disfrazarse, se había vestido de repartidor de leche, lo cual hizo que su jefe se encogiera de hombros.
¡Con tal de que P'tit Louis no exagerara! Era un «cliente» suyo, un delincuente muy conocido, a quien habían detenido el día anterior mientras practicaba su oficio de carterista en el metro.
«Mañana por la mañana nos echarás una mano, y ya procuraremos que esta vez no salgas muy mal librado...»
Lo habían sacado de la prisión.
-¡Adelante! -gruñó Maigret-. Cuando oíste pasos estabas escondido en este rincón, ¿verdad?
-Fue exactamente así, señor comisario. Yo tenía hambre, ¿me comprende? Y no me quedaba ni un céntimo. Entonces me dije que un tipo que volvía a su casa de esmoquin, seguro que llevaba la cartera repleta... «¡La bolsa o la vida!», le dije acercándome a él. Y le juro que no fue culpa mía si se me disparó. Supongo que fue el frío lo que hizo que el dedo apretara el gatillo...
Las once de la mañana. Maigret recorría su despacho del Quai des Orfèvres a grandes zancadas, fumaba una pipa tras otra, no cesaba de atender al teléfono.
-¡Oiga! ¿Es usted, jefe? Soy Lucas. He seguido al viejo que parecía interesarse por la reconstrucción. Una pista falsa: es un maniático que todas las mañanas da un paseíto por el Bois.
-De acuerdo, puedes volver.
Once y cuarto.
-Oiga, ¿es el jefe? Soy Torrence. He seguido al joven que usted me indicó mirándome de reojo. Participa en todos los concursos de detectives. Trabaja de dependiente en una tienda de los Campos Elíseos. ¿Puedo regresar?
Hasta las doce menos cinco no recibió una llamada de Janvier.
-Tengo que ser breve, jefe, no sea que el pájaro eche a volar. Lo vigilo por el espejito incrustado en la puerta de la cabina. Estoy en el bar del Nain Jaune, en el Boulevard Rochechouart... Sí, me ha visto. No tiene la conciencia tranquila. Al cruzar el Sena ha tirado algo al río. Además, ha intentado despistarme diez veces. ¿Lo espero aquí?
Así empezó una cacería que iba a prolongarse durante cinco días y cinco noches, por entre transeúntes apresurados, en un París indiferente, de bar en bar, de taberna en taberna; por un lado un hombre solo, por otro Maigret y sus inspectores, que se turnaban en la persecución y que, a fin de cuentas, acabaron tan exhaustos como su perseguido.
Maigret bajó del taxi delante del Nain Jaune, a la hora del aperitivo, y encontró a Janvier acodado en el mostrador. No se tomó la molestia de adoptar un aire inocente. ¡Al contrario!
-¿Quién es?

Con la barbilla, el inspector le indicó un hombre sentado en un rincón, delante de un velador. El hombre los miraba con sus pupilas claras, de un azul grisáceo, que daban a su fisonomía el aspecto de ser extranjero. ¿Nórdico? ¿Eslavo? Más bien eslavo. Llevaba un abrigo gris, un traje de buenas hechuras, un sombrero flexible.
Debía de tener unos treinta y cinco años. Estaba pálido, recién afeitado.
-¿Qué quiere tomar, jefe? ¿Un Picon caliente?
-De acuerdo, un Picon caliente. ¿Qué bebe él?
-Aguardiente. Se ha tomado cinco esta mañana. Y no le extrañe si me trabuco un poco al hablar: siguiéndolo he tenido que entrar en todas las tabernas. Tiene mucho aguante, ¿sabe usted?... Además, fíjese, lleva toda la mañana así. Éste no se da por vencido fácilmente.
Era verdad. Y parecía raro. Aquello no podía llamarse arrogancia ni desafío. El hombre sencillamente los miraba. Si estaba inquieto, no dejaba que nada trasluciese. Su rostro expresaba más bien tristeza, pero una tristeza tranquila, meditabunda.
-En Bagatelle, cuando se dio cuenta de que usted no lo perdía de vista, se fue en seguida, y yo tras él. Aún no había andado cien metros cuando ya había girado la cabeza. Entonces, en vez de salir del Bois, como parecía su intención, echó a andar a grandes zancadas por el primer sendero que encontró. Volvió la cabeza otra vez. Me reconoció. Se sentó en un banco a pesar del frío, y yo me paré a mi vez. Varias veces tuve la impresión de que quería dirigirme la palabra, pero acabó por alejarse encogiéndose de hombros.
En la Porte Dauphine estuve a punto de perderlo, porque tomó un taxi, pero tuve la suerte de encontrar otro casi al momento. Bajó en la Place de l'Opéra, y se metió precipitadamente en el metro. Yo iba siguiéndolo, cambiamos cinco veces de línea, hasta que empezó a comprender que de esta manera no podría despistarme.
Volvimos a subir a la superficie. Estábamos en la Place Clichy. Desde entonces no hemos dejado de ir de bar en bar. Yo esperaba que entrara en un buen lugar, con una cabina telefónica desde donde pudiera vigilarlo. Cuando me ha visto telefonear, ha hecho una mueca irónica y triste. Luego, yo hubiese jurado que lo estaba esperando a usted.
-Telefonea a «casa». Que Lucas y Torrence se preparen para venir corriendo al primer aviso. Y que venga también un fotógrafo de Identidad Judicial, con una cámara muy pequeña.
-¡Camarero! -llamó el desconocido-. ¿Qué le debo?
-Tres cincuenta.
-Apostaría a que es polaco -murmuró Maigret a Janvier-. En marcha.
No fueron muy lejos. En la Place Blanche el hombre entró en un pequeño restaurante; ellos lo siguieron y se sentaron a una mesa que estaba junto a la suya. Era un restaurante italiano, y comieron pasta.
A las tres, Lucas fue a relevar a Janvier, cuando éste se hallaba con Maigret en una cervecería frente a la Gare du Nord.
-¿Y el fotógrafo? -preguntó Maigret.
-Espera en la calle para sorprenderlo cuando salga.
Y, en efecto, cuando el polaco salió, después de haber leído los periódicos, un inspector se acercó rápidamente a él. A menos de un metro le hizo una foto. El hombre se llevó en seguida la mano a la cara, pero ya era demasiado tarde, y entonces, demostrando que comprendía, dirigió a Maigret una mirada de reproche.
-Amigo mío -monologaba el comisario-, tienes muy buenas razones para no llevamos a tu domicilio. Pero si tú tienes paciencia, yo tengo tanta como tú...
Al oscurecer, había copos de nieve revoloteando por las calles, mientras el desconocido andaba, con las manos en los bolsillos, esperando la hora de acostarse.
-¿Lo relevo durante la noche, jefe? -propuso Lucas.
-No. Prefiero que te ocupes de la fotografía. En primer lugar, consulta el fichero. Luego investiga en los ambientes extranjeros. Ese tipo conoce París. Seguro que hace tiempo que vive aquí. Alguien ha de conocerlo.

-¿Y si publicásemos su foto en los periódicos?
Maigret miró a su subordinado con desdén. ¿O sea que Lucas, que trabajaba con él desde hacía tantos años, aún no comprendía? ¿Acaso la policía tenía un solo indicio? ¡Nada! ¡Ni un testimonio! Matan a un hombre de noche en el Bois de Boulogne. No se encuentra el arma. Ni una huella. El doctor Borms vive solo, y su único sirviente ignora adónde fue la víspera.
-¡Haz lo que te digo! Largo...
A las doce de la noche por fin el hombre se decidió a cruzar el umbral de un hotel. Maigret le seguía los pasos. Era un hotel de segunda o incluso de tercera categoría.
-Quería una habitación.
-¿Me rellena esta ficha, por favor?
La rellena entre titubeos, con los dedos entumecidos por el frío. Mira a Maigret de arriba abajo, como diciéndole: «¡Si cree que me importa que me esté mirando! Escribiré lo que me dé la gana».
Y, en efecto, escribe el primer nombre y apellido que le viene a la cabeza: Nikolas Slaatkovich, domiciliado en Cracovia, que había llegado a París el día anterior.
Todo falso, evidentemente. Maigret telefonea a la Policía Judicial. Se revisan los expedientes de los pisos amueblados, los registros de extranjeros, llaman a los puestos fronterizos. No existe ningún Nikolas Slaatkovich.
-¿Usted también desea una habitación? -pregunta el dueño con una mueca, porque ya se huele que está ante un policía.
-No, gracias. Pasaré la noche en la escalera.
Es más seguro. Se sienta en un peldaño, delante de la puerta de la habitación número 7. Por dos veces esta puerta se abre. El hombre escudriña la oscuridad con la mirada, ve la silueta de Maigret, y termina por acostarse. Por la mañana, la barba le ha crecido, tiene las mejillas rasposas. No ha podido cambiarse de ropa. Ni siquiera tenía peine, y lleva el pelo alborotado.
Lucas acaba de llegar.
-¿Lo relevo, jefe?
Maigret no se resigna a dejar a su desconocido. Lo ha visto pagar la habitación. Lo ha visto palidecer. Y adivina lo que pasa.
En efecto, poco después, en un bar en el que toman, por así decirlo, codo con codo, un café con leche y unos croissants, el hombre, sin ocultarse lo más mínimo, cuenta el dinero que le queda. Un billete de cien francos, dos monedas de veinte, una de diez y menudo. Sus labios se estiran en una mueca de contrariedad.
-¡Bueno! Con eso no irá muy lejos. Cuando llegó al Bois de Boulogne, acababa de salir de su casa, porque iba recién afeitado, sin una mota de polvo, sin una arruga en el traje. ¿Tenía intención de volver al cabo de poco? Ni siquiera se preocupó por el dinero que llevaba encima.
Maigret adivina lo que tiró al Sena: los documentos de identidad, tal vez tarjetas de visita. Quiere evitar a toda costa que se descubra dónde vive.
Y el callejeo típico de los que no tienen techo vuelve a empezar, con paradas delante de las tiendas, de los puestos de vendedores ambulantes, o en los bares, en los que tiene que entrar de vez en cuando, aunque sólo sea para sentarse, sobre todo porque en la calle hace frío, o para leer los periódicos.
¡Ciento cincuenta francos! Al mediodía, nada de restaurantes. El hombre se conforma con huevos duros, que come de pie ante un mostrador, y una cerveza, mientras Maigret engulle unos bocadillos.
El otro duda mucho antes de entrar en un cine. Dentro del bolsillo su mano juega con las monedas. Hay que resistir todo el tiempo posible. El hombre anda y anda...
¡Por cierto! Hay un detalle que llama la atención de Maigret. En su agotadora caminata, el hombre recorre siempre determinados barrios: de la Trinité a la Place Clichy; de la Place Clichy a Barbès, pasando por la Rue Caulaincourt; de Barbès a la Gare du Nord y a la Rue La Fayette...

¿Tiene también miedo de que lo reconozcan? Seguramente elige los barrios más alejados de su casa o de su hotel, los que suele frecuentar.
¿Vive en Montparnasse, como tantos extranjeros? ¿En los alrededores del Panteón?
La ropa que usa indica una posición media. Son prendas cómodas, sobrias, de buena hechura. Sin duda, una profesión liberal. ¡Lleva alianza! O sea que ¡está casado!
Maigret ha tenido que resignarse a ceder su lugar a Torrence. Pasa rápidamente por su casa. Madame Maigret está contrariada: su hermana ha venido de Orléans, ha preparado una cena muy especial, y su marido, después de haberse afeitado y cambiado de ropa, vuelve a irse anunciando que no sabe cuándo regresará.
El comisario se precipita hacia el Quai des Orfèvres.
-¿No hay nada de Lucas para mí?
¡Sí! Hay una nota del brigada. Éste ha ensenado la fotografía en numerosos círculos polacos y rusos. Nadie lo conoce. Tampoco nada en los grupos políticos. En último extremo, ha sacado numerosas copias de la famosa fotografía. En todos los barrios de París hay agentes que van de puerta en puerta, de portería en portería, mostrando la foto a los dueños de los bares y a los camareros.
-¡Oiga! ¿El comisario Maigret? Soy una acomodadora del Ciné-Actualités, en el Boulevard de Strasbourg... Hay aquí un señor, Monsieur Torrence, que me ha dicho que lo telefonee a usted para decirle que está aquí, pero que no se atreve a salir de la sala.
¡No es tonto el hombre! Ha escogido el mejor lugar para pasar algunas horas: con calefacción y por poco precio, sólo dos francos de entrada... ¡y con derecho a varias sesiones!
Se ha establecido una curiosa intimidad entre perseguidor y perseguido, entre el hombre cuya barba crece, cuyas ropas se arrugan, y Maigret, que no lo pierde de vista ni un instante. Incluso hay un detalle divertido. Los dos se han resfriado. Tienen la nariz enrojecida. Casi al mismo tiempo sacan el pañuelo del bolsillo, y en una ocasión el hombre no ha podido evitar una vaga sonrisa al ver cómo Maigret suelta una serie de estornudos.
Un hotel sucio, en el Boulevard de la Chapelle, después de cinco sesiones continuas de documentales. En el registro, el mismo nombre. Y de nuevo Maigret se instala en un peldaño de la escalera. Pero como es una casa de citas, cada diez minutos tiene que apartarse para dejar pasar a parejas que lo miran con extrañeza, y las mujeres se quedan intranquilas.
Cuando se le acaben los recursos, cuando los nervios ya no resistan más, ¿se decidirá a volver a su casa? En una cervecería en la que el otro se queda bastante rato y se quita el abrigo gris, Maigret no vacila en tomar la prenda y mirar el interior del cuello. El abrigo se compró en Old England, en el Boulevard des Italiens. Es de confección, y la casa debió de vender docenas de abrigos parecidos. Sin embargo, hay un indicio. Es del invierno anterior. Así pues, el desconocido lleva en París por lo menos un año. Y en el curso de un año seguro que ha tenido que recalar en algún lugar.
Maigret se dedica a tomar ponches para matar el resfriado. El otro va soltando el dinero con cuentagotas. Toma cafés, pero sin añadirles licor. Se alimenta de croissants y de huevos duros.
Las noticias de «casa» son siempre las mismas: ¡nada nuevo! Nadie reconoce la fotografía del polaco. No se ha denunciado ninguna desaparición.
Por lo que respecta al muerto, tampoco nada. Tenía un consultorio importante. Se ganaba muy bien la vida, no se metía en política, salía mucho y, como se ocupaba sobre todo de enfermedades nerviosas, entre sus pacientes abundaban las mujeres.
Era una experiencia que Maigret aún no había tenido ocasión de llevar hasta el final: ¿en cuánto tiempo un hombre bien educado, aseado, bien vestido, pierde su barniz exterior cuando tiene que vagabundear por la calle?

¡Cuatro días! Ahora lo sabía. Primero la barba. La primera mañana, el hombre parecía un abogado o un médico, un arquitecto, un industrial; uno se lo imaginaba saliendo de un confortable piso. Una barba de cuatro días lo ha transformado hasta el punto de que, si hubiesen publicado su retrato en los periódicos evocando el caso del Bois de Boulogne, la gente hubiera dicho: «¡Se ve a la legua que tiene cara de asesino!»
Por el frío y el dormir mal, se le había enrojecido el borde de los párpados, y el resfriado le ponía un toque de fiebre en los pómulos. Los zapatos, que habían dejado de estar lustrosos, comenzaban a deformarse. El abrigo empezaba a ajarse y sus pantalones tenían rodilleras.
Incluso se le notaba en la manera de andar. Ya no andaba de la misma forma: iba pegado a las paredes, bajaba la vista cuando los transeúntes lo miraban... Un detalle más: volvía la cabeza al pasar ante un restaurante donde había clientes instalados a las mesas ante copiosos platos.
«¡Tus últimos veinte francos, amigo mío!», calculaba Maigret. «¿Y después?»
Lucas, Torrence y Janvier lo relevaban de vez en cuando, pero él les cedía su lugar con la menor frecuencia posible. Entraba en el Quai des Orfèvres como un huracán, veía al jefe.
-Sería mejor que descansara, Maigret.
Un Maigret huraño, susceptible, como si estuviera dominado por sentimientos contradictorios, contestaba:
-Mi deber es descubrir al asesino, ¿no?
-Evidentemente...
-¡Pues en marcha! -suspiraba con una especie de rencor en la voz-. Me pregunto dónde dormirá esta noche.
¡Los últimos veinte francos! ¡Menos aún! Cuando se reunió con Torrence, éste le dijo que el hombre había comido tres huevos duros y tomado dos cafés con licor en un bar de la esquina de la Rue Montmartre.
-Ocho francos con cincuenta... Le quedan once francos con cincuenta.
Lo admiraba. El otro no sólo no se escondía, sino que andaba a su misma altura, a veces a su lado, y tenía que contenerse para no dirigirle la palabra.
«¡Vamos a ver, hombre! ¿No crees que ya sería hora de que empezases a cantar? En algún lugar te espera una casa con calefacción, una cama, unas zapatillas, una navaja de afeitar, ¿verdad? Y una buena cena...»
¡Pero no! El hombre vagó bajo las luces eléctricas de Les Halles, como los que ya no saben adónde ir, entre los montones de coles y de zanahorias, apartándose al oír el silbato del tren, al paso de los camiones de los hortelanos.
«¡Ya no puedes pagarte una habitación!»
Aquella noche el Servicio Meteorológico registró ocho grados bajo cero. El hombre se compró unas salchichas calientes que una vendedora preparaba al aire libre. ¡Apestaría a ajo y a grasa toda la noche!
En cierto momento intentó introducirse en un pabellón y echarse en un rinconcito. Un agente, al que Maigret no tuvo tiempo de dar instrucciones, lo echó de allí. Ahora cojeaba. Los muelles. El Pont des Arts. ¡Con tal de que no se le ocurriera tirarse al Sena! Maigret no se sentía con ánimos para saltar tras él al agua negra, que empezaba a arrastrar pedazos de hielo.
Iba por el muelle de la sirga. Unos vagabundos refunfuñaban. Bajo los puentes, los buenos lugares ya estaban ocupados.
En una calleja, cerca de la Place Maubert, a través de los cristales de una extraña taberna se veían a unos viejos que dormían con la cabeza apoyada sobre la mesa. ¡Por veinte céntimos, incluyendo un vaso de vino tinto! El hombre miró a Maigret por entre la oscuridad. Esbozó un ademán fatalista y empujó la puerta. En el tiempo en que ésta se abrió y volvió a cerrarse, Maigret recibió una repugnante tufarada en el rostro. Prefirió quedarse en la calle. Llamó a un agente, lo dejó vigilando en la acera y fue a telefonear a Lucas, que esa noche estaba de guardia.

-Hace una hora que estamos buscándolo, jefe. ¡Lo hemos identificado! Ha sido gracias a una portera. El tipo se llama Stephan Strevzki, arquitecto, treinta y cuatro años, nacido en Varsovia, instalado en Francia desde hace tres años. Trabaja con un decorador del Faubourg Saint-Honoré. Está casado con una húngara, una mujer guapísima que se llama Dora. Vive en Passy, Rue de la Pompe, en un piso por el que paga doce mil francos de alquiler. Nada de política... La portera nunca vio a la víctima. Stephan salió de su casa el lunes por la mañana más temprano de lo que solía. Ella se sorprendió al ver que no regresabas pero dejó de preocuparse al ver que...
-¿Qué hora es?
-Las tres y media. Aquí estoy solo. Me he hecho subir cerveza pero está muy fría...
-Óyeme bien, Lucas. Irás... ¡Sí! ¡Ya lo sé! Es demasiado tarde para los de la mañana, pero en los de la tarde... ¿Lo has entendido?
Aquella mañana el hombre llevaba pegado a su ropa un sordo olor a miseria. Los ojos más hundidos. La mirada que dirigió a Maigret, en la pálida mañana, contenía el más patético de los reproches.
¿No lo habían conducido, poco a poco, pero a una velocidad que no dejaba de ser vertiginosa, hasta lo más bajo del escalafón? Se levantó el cuello del abrigo. No salió del barrio. Con mal sabor de boca, se metió en una taberna que acababa de abrir y se bebió, una tras otra, cuatro copas, como para arrancarse el espantoso regusto que aquella noche le había dejado en la garganta y en el pecho.
¡Qué más daba! ¡Ahora ya no le quedaba nada! Sólo podía echar a andar recorriendo calles que el hielo había vuelto resbaladizas. Debía de tener agujetas. Cojeaba de la pierna izquierda. De vez en cuando se detenía y miraba a su alrededor con desesperación.
Como ya no entraba en ningún café donde hubiera teléfono, a Maigret le era imposible hacer que lo relevaran. ¡Otra vez los muelles! ¡Y ese gesto maquinal del hombre que revuelve entre los libros de lance, pasando las páginas, a veces asegurándose de la autenticidad de un grabado o de una estampa! Un viento helado barría el Sena. El agua tintineaba en la proa de las chalanas en movimiento, porque los pedacitos de hielo entrechocaban como si fueran lentejuelas.
Desde lejos, Maigret vio el edificio de la Policía Judicial, la ventana de su despacho. Su cuñada ya había regresado a Orléans. Con tal de que Lucas...
No sabía aún que aquella atroz investigación se convertiría en clásica, y que generaciones de inspectores repetirían sus detalles a los novatos. Era una tontería, pero, por encima de todo, lo conmovía un detalle ridículo: el hombre tenía un grano en la frente, un grano que, fijándose bien, seguramente era un forúnculo, de un color que iba pasando de rojo a morado.
Con tal de que Lucas...
A las doce, el hombre, que decididamente conocía muy bien París, se dirigió hacia donde repartían la sopa popular, al final del Boulevard Saint-Germain Y se puso en la fila de andrajosos. Un viejo le dirigió la palabra, pero él fingió no entenderlo. Entonces otro, con la cara picada de viruela, le habló en ruso.
Maigret cruzó a la acera de enfrente, vaciló, se vio obligado a comer unos bocadillos en una taberna, y volvió la espalda a medias para que el otro, a través de los cristales, no lo viera comer.
Aquellos pobres diablos avanzaban lentamente, entraban en grupos de cuatro o de seis en la sala donde les servían escudillas de sopa caliente. La cola se alargaba. De vez en cuando, los de atrás empujaban, y algunos dejaban oír protestas.
La una. Un chiquillo apareció en el extremo de la calle. Corría, adelantando el cuerpo.
-L 'Intran... L 'Intran...
Tampoco él quería perder tiempo. Sabía desde lejos qué transeúntes comprarían el periódico. No hizo el menor caso de la hilera de mendigos.

-L 'Intran...
Humildemente, el hombre alzó la mano y dijo:
-¡Eh, eh!
Los demás lo miraron. ¿O sea que aún tenía algunos céntimos para comprarse un periódico?
Maigret también llamó a al vendedor, desplegó la hoja y, aliviado, encontró en la primera página lo que buscaba, la fotografía de una mujer joven, bella, sonriente.

«INQUIETANTE DESAPARICIÓN»

> Se nos comunica que desde hace cuatro días ha desaparecido una joven polaca, Madame Dora Strevzki, que no ha vuelto a su domicilio en Passy, Rue de la Pompe, número 17. A ello se añade el significativo hecho de que el marido de la desaparecida, Monsieur Stephan Strevzki, también desapareció de su domicilio la víspera, es decir, el lunes, y la portera, que ha avisado a la policía, declara...»

Al hombre sólo le faltaban por recorrer cinco o seis metros, en la fila que lo arrastraba, para tener derecho a su escudilla de sopa humeante. En ese momento salió de la cola, cruzó la calzada, donde estuvo a punto de que lo atropellara un autobús, y llegó a la otra acera, para encontrarse justo ante Maigret.
-¡Estoy a su disposición! -se limitó a decir el hombre-. Lo acompaño adonde usted quiera. Contestaré todas sus preguntas...
Estaban todos en el pasillo de la Policía Judicial: Lucas, Janvier, Torrence, además de otros que no habían intervenido en el caso pero que estaban al corriente. Al pasar, Lucas le hizo una señal a Maigret que quería decir: «¡Asunto resuelto!»
Una puerta que se abre y que vuelve a cerrarse. Cerveza y bocadillos encima de la mesa.
-Antes que nada, coma un poco.
Se siente incómodo. No consigue tragar. Por fin el hombre habla.
-Ya que ella se ha ido y está a salvo...
Maigret pareció sentir la necesidad de atizar la estufa.
-Cuando leí en los periódicos lo del crimen, ya hacía tiempo que sospechaba que Dora me engañaba con aquel hombre. También sabía que no era su única amante. Yo conocía bien a Dora, su carácter impetuoso, ¿me comprenden? Sin duda él intentó librarse de ella, y yo sabía que Dora era capaz de... Ella siempre llevaba en el bolso un revólver con adornos de nácar. Cuando los periódicos anunciaron la detención del asesino y la reconstrucción del crimen, quise ver...
Maigret hubiera querido poder decir, como los policías ingleses: «Le advierto que todo lo que declare podrá utilizarse en su contra».
No se había quitado el abrigo. Seguía llevando el sombrero puesto.
-Ahora que ella ya está en lugar seguro... Porque Supongo... -Miró a su alrededor con angustia. Una sospecha cruzó por su mente-. Debió de comprender lo que pasaba al ver que yo no volvía. Yo sabía que eso acabaría así, que Borms no era un hombre para ella, que Dora nunca iba a aceptar servirle de pasatiempo, y que entonces volvería a mí. El domingo por la tarde salió sola, como solía hacer en estos últimos tiempos. Seguramente lo mató cuando...
Maigret se sonó. Se sonó durante largo rato. Un rayo de sol, de ese sol puntiagudo de invierno que acompaña a los grandes fríos, entraba por la ventana. El grano, el forúnculo, brillaba en la frente de aquel a quien no podía llamar más que «el hombre».
-Su esposa lo mató, sí, cuando comprendió que se había burlado de ella. Y usted comprendió que ella lo había matado. Y entonces quiso... -Se acercó bruscamente al polaco-. Le pido perdón, amigo -masculló como si hablase con un antiguo compañero-.

Me habían encargado que descubriese la verdad, ¿no? Mi deber era...-Abrió la puerta-. Que entre Madame Dora Strevzki. Lucas, sigue tú, yo...
Y en la Policía Judicial nadie volvió a verlo durante dos días. El jefe lo telefoneó a su casa.
-Bueno, Maigret. Ya debe de saber que ella lo ha confesado todo y que... A propósito, ¿cómo va su resfriado? Me han dicho...
-No es nada, estoy muy bien. Dentro de veinticuatro horas... ¿Y él?
-¿Cómo dice? ¿Quién?
-¡Él!
-¡Ah, ya comprendo! Ha contratado al mejor abogado de París. Confía en que... Ya sabe, los crímenes pasionales...
Maigret volvió a acostarse y quedó atontado a fuerza de ponches y de aspirinas.
Posteriormente, cuando alguien quería hablarle de aquella investigación, Maigret gruñía: «¿Qué investigación?», para desanimar a los preguntones.
Y el hombre iba a verlo una o dos veces por semana, y lo tenía al corriente de las esperanzas de su abogado.
No fue absolución: un año de libertad vigilada.
Y fue ese hombre quien enseñó a Maigret a jugar al ajedrez.

Admirable, lo he leído de cabo a rabo, supongo que, como mínimo, por segunda vez, ya que tengo y he leído todos las novelas de Simenon. Bueno... todas no, las de Maigret y una más que ahora no recuerdo.
Has estado, creo, en París. ¿No te ha venido, muchas veces, ganas de pasear de noche por las calles de sus novelas? A mi si y lo he hecho, como también por el palacio de justicia y en el quai des Orfebres 36.
Un abrazo y muchas felicidades por el aniversario.

RIPIOS AL MINISTRO CÉSAR ANTONIO MOLINA SÁNCHEZ

Molina, ¡pírate!

Ministro incompetente,
poeta de rima aciaga,
su prosa nos estomaga,
su gestión es cobra y tente

Hablando es campanudo, escribiendo es pomposo,
con el poder obsequioso,
pero, siempre, tartamudo.

Defensor del copyright,
de la SGAE y del que unta, el personal bien barrunta que la factura no es light

Si el botarate es gallego, Galicia pida perdón,
que, después de aquel Cabrón,
nos envía este borrego.

Tiene narices la cosa:
Franco, Molina y Fraga:
gallegas, sujetad la braga que la broma no es graciosa.

Ni César ni Marco Antonio, ni vate ni literato,
no liga ni con el gato
y pretende ser Ausonio

Con el rizo y el tupé, y ese colágeno puesto,
y el traje con tanto apresto
y esa afición al parné...

...paréceme este andoba
un vendedor de condones,
y tonto de los cojones,

aunque alguien le dé coba.

Habrás visto a otro de los momios de la SGAE, al cual le pagamos una bonita y tranquila estancia en Bruselas como eurodiputado, el "papelón" que ha hecho con el P2P. El tipo tiene blog, pero no cojones para dimitir y marcharse a casa a engañar sólo a los nietos.

AJEDREA

"En España se tiene por más perfecta la miel que se coge del axedrea, tras esta la del romero, la tercera en bondad la del tomillo salsero". (Dioscórides: Acerca de la materia medicinal y de los venenos mortíferos, pp. 176; Ed. 1636, Trad. A. Laguna

Ajedrea: (satureia montana, del árabe aššaṭríyya o aššiṭríyya) también llamada ajedrea, ajedrea común, ajedrea de montaña, ajedrea montesina, ajedrea salvaje, ajedrea silvestre, axedrea, axedrea de montaña, axedrea montana, axedrea salvaje, boja, hisopillo, isopillo, isopo montano, isopo montesino, jedrea, morquera, saborea, tomillo real, originaria de la región mediterranea, es una planta aromática perenne, de la familia de las Lamiáceas

El aceite esencial se extrae de la planta entera, tiene un aroma fresco, herbáceo y picante, parecido al tomillo, pero más acre e intenso.
Contiene timol, P-cimeno, carvacrol , timol, p-cimeno, gamma-terpinol, 1,8-cineol, borneol, a-terpineol, cineol, dipenteno, ácido siríngico, ácido vanílico, ácido parahidroxibenzoico, ácido paracumárico, ácido ferrúlico, ácido labiático (rosmarínico), ácido hidroxiterpénico, ácido ursólico (hasta un 8% en taninos), y otros.

Su aceite esencial actúa poderosamente como bactericida. Su acción se centra especialmente en los gérmenes Gram + (estafilococos y estreptococos), en Gram - (colibacilos) y ciertos hongos (candida albicans). Concentración mínima inhibitoria: 0,125 a 0,5 mg/ml, está indicado para el sistema respiratorio y el sistema urinario y digestivo, así como en el tratamiento de abcesos dentales, caries infectadas y micosis de la boca. Además parece estar demostrado que tiene acción antiviral debido a los ácidos fenoles que contiene.

En la planta también se han encontrado taninos que actúan como astringentes, antidiarreicos y cicatrizantes. Está indicada en problemas de inapetencia, atonía gastrointestinal, espasmos gastrointestinales, meteorismo, dolores de estómago, bronquitis y en uso externo sirve asimismo para curar heridas.

El aceite esencial de ajedrea es irritante y no puede aplicarse puro directamente sobre la piel, por lo que se usa mezclándolo con lanolina, y aceites esenciales de canela y romero; y así se usa como ungüento contra la artritis, los dolores musculares, etc.

La especie montana tiene mayores propiedades que la Satureia hortensis. Toda la planta, y especialmente los brotes florales, son antisépticos, aromáticos, carminativos, digestivos, expectorantes y estomacales, por lo que es el condimento perfecto para cocinar habas, judías, guisantes, carnes, salsas, escabeches y conservas. Se utiliza también mezclada con otras hierbas para sazonar embutidos, aceitunas, ensaladas, o marinar y aromatizar el vinagre. Realza especialmente los sabores de las berenjenas, las judías verdes y las coles.

Infusión reconstituyente:

1 cucharada de ajedrea, 1/3 de cucharada de romero y 1/3 de cucharada de verbena en un litro de agua hirviendo. Añadir miel y beber una taza por las mañanas, durante cuarenta días. Es un buen remedio contra la fatiga, como antifúngico, digestivo, colagogo, carminativo antiséptico, fungicida, bactericida, antioxidante, y para aumentar las defensas.

Otra infusión:

Una cucharada de postre por taza. Las hojas deben estar bien desmenuzadas antes de añadirlas al agua hirviendo. Se toma una taza después de las comidas como remedio de cólicos y flatulencias, también para gastroenteritis, cistitis, náusea, diarrea, congestión bronquial, desórdenes menstruales.

Como remedio contra la halitosis, se toma esta infusión de ajedrea después de las comidas, y se refuerza con una decocción de ajedrea como colutorio tres veces al día, para hacer gargarismos y desinfectar la cavidad bucal.

Las hojas machacadas se han utilizado tradicionalmente contra las picaduras de las abejas.

Antiguamente, se utilizaba para regular la libido: la satureia montana (perenne) para calmar el deseo sexual y la hortensis como afrodisíaco.

Decían sobre la ajedrea:

* Plinio fue el primero en utilizar el término "satureia", refiriéndose a catorce especies distintas de plantas aromáticas de la zona del Mediterráneo.
* Edmund Culpeper: "Mercurio clama dominio sobre esta hierba. Manténla seca en tu casa todo el año, si te aprecias a ti místmo y a tu salud. El jugo de la planta instilado en los ojos elimina los obstáculos de la vista si proceden de los humores destilados del cerebro. El mismo jugo, con agua de rosas, y puesto en los oídos, elimina los ruidos, los silbidos y la sordera".
*Andrés de Laguna: "Aqui nos pinta Dioscorides dos especies de axedrea, una salvage, y otra que se siembra y cultiva con providentia humana: de las cuales aquella primeramente propriamente se llama, Thymbra, e Cunila: como Satureia estotra que suele crecer en los huertos: aunque se confunden aquestos nombres, e cada una dellas se llama communmente Thymbra, Satureia, e Cunila. Es toda suerte de Axedrea caliente e seca en el grado tercero: empero la hortense no muestra tanta efficacia, dado que es mas agradable al gusto".
El poeta Virgilio sugirió que se plantara la ajedrea cerca de las colmenas de abejas por el delicioso sabor que daba a la miel.
En "Cuento de Invierno" Shakespeare menciona la ajedrea junto a la lavanda y la mejorana.

ALFONSO ÁLVAREZ DE VILLASANDINO: DECIR CONTRA UNA DUEÑA

Decir contra una dueña

Señora, pues que no puedo abrevar el mi carajo
en este vuestro lavajo,
por demás es mi denuedo:
he perdido, segunt cuedo,
mi afán e mi trabajo,
si tras el vuestro destajo
non vos arregaço el ruedo.
Señora fermosa e rica, yo querría recalcar
en ese vuestro alvañar mi pixa qu'es grande o chica;
como el asno a la borrica
vos querría enamorar, non vos ver, mas apalpar yo deseo vuestra crica.
Señora, flor de madroño, yo querría sin sospecho
tener mi carajo arrecho, bien metido en vuestro coño.
Por ser señor de Logroño, non deseo otro provecho
sinon foder coño estrecho en estío o en otoño.
Señora, por fijo o fija en vos querría haber, más vos querría foder que ser señor de Torija;

si meades por vedija,
fazedmelo entender,
que yo vos faré poner
atanquía en la verija.
Señora, en fin de razones, yo me ternía por sapo
si el culo non vos atapo
con aquestos mis cojones,
e a los çinco empuxones
non vos remojaré el papo:
non me den limpio trapo
para enxugar los tajones.
Señora, quien mea o caga non se debe espantar, aunque se sienta apalpar
por delante o por de çaga;
la que tal bocado traga
como vos faré tragar,
non se debe despagar,
pues alguna bien se paga.
Señora, notad el modo
de aquesto que vos digo:
vos habedme por mendigo
si diez veces non vos fodo.
En vuestras ingles devodo, que si subo en vuestro ombligo de vos çerrar el postigo non sé si será del todo.
Señora, sabed de çierto que podedes bien a osadas
medir nueve o diez pulgadas en mi mango grueso e yerto:
si yo con él vos açierto
a poder de cojonadas, las sedas bien remojadas
serán d'ese boca-abierto.

Finida

Si vos fallo en descubierto, como fodo a ventregadas,
veredes por las pisadas que non duermo, antes despierto.

Orgullo tenemos todos los Villasandinenses, no importa el continente donde vivamos, de este culto trobador que pasó a ser el mejor representado de los poetas del siglo XIV en el Cancionero de Baena.

ROMANCE DE OGIER Y ROLDÁN

OGIER Y ROLDÁN

Salió Roldán a cazar una nochecita oscura, de podencos y lebreles
  lleva cercada la mula,
halcón lleva en la su mano,
  halcón de la primer pluma.
Se levantó viento largo, con un agua muy menuda
y fue a ampararse a una torre, por no mojarse la pluma.
Allí estaba el conde Urgel, aquel de las fuerzas muchas;
está cantando un romance,
  que Roldán muy bien escucha,
diciendo iba diciendo:

“¡Quién estuviera en mi ayuda!, ¡quién tuviese aquí ahora mi caballo y ni armadura, mataría al rey de Francia con toda la gente suya!”

Este romance, que, en la tradición del siglo XX, comparten en su repertorio los judíos sefardíes de Sarajevo (Bosnia), Salónica (Macedonia griega) y Lárissa (Tesalia) con los gitanos de los puertos de Cádiz (una solitaria versión recitada en Canarias es de origen libresco), carecería de documentación antigua si no fuera por un despacho diplomático del embajador de Felipe II en la Corte de Catalina de Médicis, fechado en París el 28 de mayo de 1562 (con postdata de 6 de junio) y enviado cuando está a punto de estallar la confrontación armada entre los “papistas”(concentrados en París) y los “hugonotes” (concentrados en Orleáns) con que se inicia la Primera Guerra de Religión de Francia. El despacho diplomático, firmado por Thomas de Perrenot Granvelle, Señor de Chantonnay, dirigido a su rey, está todo él escrito, por un auxiliar de su Secretario de cartas españolas Miguel Bellido, en cifra, y la cita de nuestro romance forma parte de un curiosísimo (literaria y políticamente) centón de romances y canciones recordados de memoria y acompañados de comentarios hechos al paso. El texto de esta singular carta lleva en su inicio el siguiente consejo:

“no se ronpan la caveça en descifrar esta carta porque es cifra perdida para engañar a los que abren las cartas...”, dirigido a los calvinistas que “han hecho barra” a lo largo del Loire e interceptan el correo que va para España, ya que Felipe II hace preparativos para invadir Francia en apoyo de “los triunviros” que gobiernan París.

El texto que aquí nos interesa dice así:

2 3´ 3. 9á o-o 9 o-o quam 6º 5 6 ó ·6 ·3 º3 0 3á 2 `6 2 2+ 2 2+ q 3/ 3+ 4´ /4 4/ 6º º7 q /4 7+ ,2 o-o +7 -- 3. ¿ 3´ 4´ +9 o-o 9á 9´ 2+ 9´

y, puesto “en claro”:
a ca ce va e l e Rey ro d ri go co n u n n a a gu a mu y me nu da de pe ro s y de sa be e ss o ce r ca da ll e va la mu la.

Aunque equivoque el nombre del cazador sorprendido por la lluvia (y el cifrador cometa algunos errores), está claro que se trata del comienzo del romance que en los siglos XIX y XX se seguía cantando por los judíos de Bosnia, Macedonia y Tracia y por los gitanos de Andalucía la Baja, donde se le identifica con Roldán.

El romance, pese a la “variante” del siglo XVI, era de tema carolingio, referente a Ogier (o, dicho a la castellana, Urgel), y de muy viejo abolengo. Tiene como antecedente remoto una chanson de geste francesa de Raimbert de Paris, “La chevalerie Ogier de Danemarche”, aunque en este larguísimo poema no aparezca Roland.

En la parte IV de esta gesta, se nos cuenta cómo el duque Ogier va, completamente solo, huyendo en su caballo Broiefort del emperador Kallemainne (Charlemagne), que le persigue con un ejército de dos mil caballeros dispuesto a apoderarse de él y darle muerte, y cómo llega un momento en que se siente perdido al ver que su caballo desfallece de hambre (versos 5.970-6.014). Pero, en ese punto, descubre un aislado castillo, al que se dirige a pie, llevando de la rienda a su caballo, cruza el puente levadizo y la puerta, que halla sin cerrar, y sorprende a los castellanos de aquel castillo mientras comen; prestamente, se deshace de ellos (versos 6.015-6.053). Mientras

Ogier, una vez cerrado el puente y puerta, come algo y bebe mucho de lo que halla en el castillo, llega Kallemainne con sus caballeros y, apeándose de sus caballos, contemplan el alto muro y la gran torre (versos 6.054-6.076). Dispuesto a que el fugitivo no se escape, el emperador, aconsejado por Namles (Naimes), hace que sus hombres rellenen los fosos de árboles y ramaje y construyan escalas; seguidamente inicia el asalto a la gran torre. Pese a la resistencia del danés, el duque habría sido preso si no fuera por la llegada de la noche y una tremenda tormenta de lluvia. Kalles se queja de que Dios le muestre con esa lluvia su odio; pero Namles le calma y le aconseja cercar bien el castillo con los dos mil hombres y esperar a la mañana manteniéndose armado y en vela. Ogier contempla desde lo alto las dos mil antorchas encendidas que rodean el castillo por todas partes y pide a Dios venganza contra el rey injusto. Aunque echa de menos a su escudero Beneoit y piensa que nunca volverá a ver Castel-Fort, jura a los santos que, al amanecer, saldrá armado a morir matando montado sobre Broiefort, si puede contar con él, o, si no, a pie, y que, como encuentre al rey, de un solo golpe tomará de él venganza. A continuación, baja de la torre al establo, ve que su caballo se ha repuesto comiendo avena en gran cantidad y le dirige una arenga, en que le hace saber que, en el mundo, nadie le quiere salvo él y que afuera le esperan mil hombres para darle muerte. El caballo hace entender a su amo que está dispuesto a ayudarle, y Ogier, eufórico, lo ensilla, encincha y enfrena y él mismo se arma de todas sus armas, toma a Curtain, su espada, en mano, su lanza y su escudo y sale a galope del castillo (versos 6.266-6.3069.)

La dependencia del romance respecto a lo contado por la gesta es evidente: Ogier encerrado en la torre; la lluvia; el juramento de que, si cuenta con su caballo, está dispuesto a salir a hacer frente al rey y darle muerte a él y a todos sus caballeros. Menos obvio es cómo se relacionan entre sí los dos poemas. Hasta la aparición de la cita del despacho diplomático de Perrenot, entre los versos épicos franceses de Raimbert de Paris, a comienzos del siglo XIII, y los romancísticos gitano-andaluces que oyó Serafín Estébanez Calderón (primer colector del romance) c. 1838 o los que en 1910 recogió Manuel Manrique de Lara de los sefardíes asentados en los Balcanes, se abría un espacio de siete siglos; ahora sabemos que la escena en forma de romance castellano ha venido cantándose por lo menos durante cuatrocientos veinticinco años (de 1562, texto de Perrenot, a 1987, última versión gitana recogida por Luis Suárez Ávila), y, en vista de ello, no podemos dudar de que el romance de “Ogier y Roldán” figuraba entre los llevados en su memoria por los judíos que abandonaron España en 1492 y que dieron origen a las comunidades sefardíes asentados en el Imperio Otomano, de las cuales descienden los actuales cantores del romance de Sarajevo, Salónica y Lárissa. Siendo así, el arquetipo del romance habrá que situarlo algunos decenios antes de esa fecha para que en ella hubiera adquirido vida tradicional y entrado a formar parte del acervo de canciones narrativas de los judíos peninsulares antes de su expulsión. El medio milenio de vida oral del romance de Ogier convierte los dos siglos y medio que aún siguen separando la escena épica de la escena equivalente romancística en un lapso de tiempo relativamente pequeño. Durante él no es necesario suponer que la escena de Ogier refugiado en la torre careciera de vigencia tradicional. Puesto que sabemos documentalmente que hubo chansons de geste francesas que se refundieron en España, no sólo para cantarlas en lengua castellana sino para ajustarlas a la forma métrica imperante en la épica castellana y a los gustos de esa tradición nativa, y que de esos cantares de gesta de temática carolingia surgieron después romances tradicionales basados en escenas particulares de ellos, cabe pensar que la fuente inmediata del romance de “Ogier y Roldán” fuera una gesta hispana de “Urgel de las Marchas”. La incorporación de Roland-Roldán a la escena de Ogier-Urgel encastillado en la torre no creo que fuera invención del romancista, sino que le vendría impuesta de una refundición épica. Claro está que, entre la hipotética gesta hispana y el poema de Raimbert pudo mediar alguna refundición surgida en la propia tradición francesa o en la provenzal, como parece ser el caso en la hispanización de la Chanson de Roland. Lo que me parece, de cualquier forma, claro es que el romancista del siglo XV no tendría que acudir a desempolvar el poema de Raimbert de Paris, sino atender a tradiciones épicas más próximas a sus días.

ELÍAS CANETTI: LA PROVINCIA DEL HOMBRE. CARNET DE NOTAS 1942-1972

El comportamiento externo del hombre es tan equívoco que a uno le basta con manifestarse tal como es para vivir de un modo totalmente desconocido y oculto.

Ya no tenemos medida, para nada, desde que la vida del hombre ha dejado de ser la medida.

Los puestos honoríficos son para los débiles mentales; es mejor vivir en el oprobio que en el honor; sobre todo, ninguna dignidad; libertad, a cualquier precio, para pensar. A uno los honores se los cuelgan como tapices en torno a los ojos y los oídos; quién hay que continúe viendo; quién hay que continúe oyendo; en los honores los sueños se asfixian y los buenos años se agostan.

***

En la oscuridad las palabras pesan doble.

***

Estas almas de gusano, ¿cómo van a comprender que lo importante es despreciar el dinero, aun cuando uno lo necesite?

***

Lo que es un tigre lo sé realmente desde que he leído el poema de Blake.

***

Cualquier tonto puede, siempre que le venga en gana, perturbar al espíritu más complejo.

***

No creas a nadie que esté diciendo siempre la verdad.

***

De todos modos, siempre han vencido aquellos que han llevado al mundo a su vieja estructura espiritual, a la guerra. Ya puede irse a pique hasta el último: tras de sí dejan la guerra y las próximas guerras. Los judíos están otra vez en Egipto, pero los han dividido en tres grupos: a unos se les ha dejado salir; a otros los han convertido en esclavos; a los últimos los han matado. Así, de repente, todos deben repetir su viejo destino. Uno puede no hacer nada. Uno puede quejarse. Uno puede mejorar. Maldita sea la venganza, y si me matan al más querido de mis hermanos, no quiero venganza, quiero otros seres humanos. Las guerras se hacen por mor de sí mismas. Mientras no reconozcamos esto, jamás será posible combatirlas realmente.

Los aduladores apasionados son los hombres más desgraciados del mundo. De vez en cuando les acomete un odio feroz e imprevisible contra la criatura que durante mucho tiempo han estado adulando. No son dueños de este odio; por nada del mundo pueden amasarlo; ceden a él como un tigre a su sed de sangre. Es un espectáculo sorprendente; el hombre que antes, para su víctima, no tenía otra cosa que palabras de la más ciega adoración, retira cada una de estas palabras y las convierte en una serie de dicterios igualmente exagerados. No olvida nada de lo que hubiera podido agradar al otro. En medio de su enloquecida rabia, recorre la lista entera de sus viejas melifluidades y las traduce justo a la lengua del odio.

No es posible hacerse idea de hasta qué punto va a ser peligroso el mundo sin animales.

***

Estamos agradecidos a nuestros antepasados porque no los conocemos.

Únicamente en el exilio se da uno cuenta de hasta qué punto el mundo ha sido siempre un mundo de proscritos.

***

¡Oh animales, queridos, terribles, moribundos animales!; ¡pateáis, os comen, os digieren y os asimilan; animales de presa y despedazados entre sangre; animales huidos, reunidos, solitarios, avistados, acosados, destrozados!; ¡animales no creados, robados por Dios; expuestos a una vida de trampas, como niños expósitos!

***

¿No será que estás sobrevalorando las transformaciones de los otros? Hay tanta gente que lleva siempre la misma máscara y cuando queremos arrancársela, nos damos cuenta de que es su rostro.

***

No puedo ver más mapas. Los nombres de las ciudades apestan a carne quemada.

***

Uno no está nunca lo bastante triste para mejorar el mundo. Enseguida vuelve a tener hambre.

***

El reducido número de sus ideas fundamentales constituye la esencia del filósofo, y también la obstinación y pesadez con que las repite.

***

Un pensamiento demoledor: que tal vez no hay nada que saber; que todo lo falso surge sólo porque queremos saber.

***

No hablar más; sin decir nada, poner las palabras unas al lado de otras y mirarlas.

Desconfianza frente al dolor: es siempre el dolor de uno mismo.

***

Cuando llegue la primavera, la tristeza de los alemanes será como un pozo sin fondo, y ya no va a ser posible distinguir entre ellos y los judíos. Hitler ha hecho a los alemanes judíos en unos pocos años, y «alemán» se ha convertido ahora en una palabra tan dolorosa como «judío».

***

Lo más difícil de todo: descubrir una y otra vez lo que uno, de todos modos, ya sabe.

Peligros del orgullo: uno se vuelve tan orgulloso que ya no se mide con nadie. Ya no confía en nadie a quien tenga miedo. Sólo se confía entre aquellos que le admiran. Ya haciendo cada vez menos cosas y al final no hace nada; así es como no pone en peligro su actitud de orgullo.

No les vas a quitar un solo centímetro a los «grandes». No les arrebatarás ni una sola de sus víctimas. Cada una de tus respiraciones las van a emplear para sí. Igual que en esta vida no has salvado a un solo hombre, tampoco después de tu muerte vas a salvar a ninguno. Quizás contagiarás a alguien el mismo afán de salvar. Esto es lo más que puedes hacer, esto es todo.

***

De los superlativos sale una fuerza destructora.

***

La literatura como oficio es destructivo: hay que tener más miedo a las palabras.

***

El primer efecto de la adaptación a otro es que uno se vuelve aburrido.

***

No dice nada, pero ¡cómo lo explica!

***

Todo viejo se ve a sí mismo como una suma de astucias conseguidas. Todo joven se siente como origen del mundo.

***

Las palabras no son demasiado viejas, lo son solamente los hombres que usan las mismas palabras con demasiada frecuencia.

***

Tu ascesis sería, más aún que el silencio: vivir sin admiración.

***

Lo importante es aquello de lo que uno se desembaraza, no tanto lo que uno hace cuanto aquello que uno aparta de sí.

***

Hay que dejar de hablar antes de haberlo dicho todo. Algunos lo han dicho todo antes de empezar.

***

Cualquier cobardía, cualquier reserva es un pecado en el escritor. Su atrevimiento está en decir lo que piensa. Aunque sea responsable de ello, tiene que decirlo.

HIPÓLITO ESCOLAR SOBRINO: GENTE DEL LIBRO

"Una singular anécdota para terminar: se presentó un día en Gredos Carlos Bru, notario de Alcobendas y amigo de Vicente Llorca. Deseaba que presentáramos una querella, que él estaba dispuesto a sufragar, por plagio contra su mujer, que había publicado un libro de crítica literaria, al que unos alegres periodistas de "Pueblo" habían dedicado una página entera de elogios. Estaba formado por una veintena de artículos dedicados a otros tantos escritores contemporáneos extranjeros, y la gracia, y de ahí la conveniencia de la denuncia, residía en que todos habían sido copiados, con puntos y comas, de la obra de Charles Moeller, "Literatura del siglo XX y cristianismo" . Bru deseaba divorciarse de su mujer, cleptómana muy conocida, y esperaba que una condena mostrara su demencia y su incapacidad para educar a su hijo."

"Algunas embajadas mostraron su agradecimiento, como la de Bulgaria, que me concedió una medalla de oro, sólo en teoría, de latón en realidad, o la francesa, que me otorgó las Palmas Académicas. Recibí una invitación de la Academia de Ciencias de la URSS, pero no me atreví a aceptarla por si no podía mantener mi régimen alimenticio. También otra del culto embajador de Rumanía. En una cena en la embajada, insistió en la invitación y como yo me resistía alegando que las tardes y las noches en los países socialistas, según me habían contado, eran muy aburridas, Rafael Alberti, que asistía a la cena, comentó:
-Esto te lo soluciona el embajador invitándote a una residencia en el Mar Negro y poniendo a tu disposición una hermosa y cariñosa camarada. Yo he disfrutado de ambas por invitación del Partido." ******

"Se presentó la ocasión de llevar a la realidad nuestras ideas con el proyecto de la Casa de la Cultura de Ciudad Real, de donde era uno de los más famosos y creativos arquitectos contemporáneos, Miguel Fisac. Para una idea nueva precisábamos un realizador imaginativo. Se brindó encantado de hacer el proyecto, cuyo prototipo le agradó, y al cabo de poco tiempo se presentó en mi despacho con un borrador de los planos. Procuré enterarme bien de la posible circulación, de la ubicación de los diferentes servicios del edificio, repartidos en dos plantas. Cuando estábamos recogiendo, me entró una duda.
-¿Cómo se sube a la planta segunda?
-Por la escalera, claro.
-¿Pero dónde está que no la veo?
Se puso a dar vueltas a los planos y al final confesó:
-Pues se me ha olvidado. Pero esto es más fácil de corregir en el proyecto que en la obra terminada."

CARTA DE JUDÍOS EUROPEOS A THE GUARDIAN SOBRE EL ATAQUE ISRAELÍ A GAZA

Publicado en The Guardian, 10 enero 2009.

Los abajo firmantes somos todos de origen judío. Cuando vemos los cuerpos muertos y ensangrentados de niños, el corte de agua, electricidad y alimentos, nos viene a la memoria el asedio del gueto de Varsovia. Cuando Dov Weisglass, asesor del primer ministro israelí, Ehud Olmert, habló de poner Gaza "a dieta" y el Viceministro de Defensa, Matan Vilnai, cuando dijo que los palestinos iban a sentir "un Holocausto mayor", nos recuerda al Gobernador General Hans Frank en la Polonia ocupada por los nazis, que habló de "la muerte por hambre".
La verdadera razón del ataque a Gaza es que Israel sólo está dispuesta a negociar con palestinos domesticados. El principal delito de Hamas no es el terrorismo sino su negativa a aceptar convertirse en un peón en manos del régimen de ocupación israelí en Palestina.
La decisión, tomada el mes pasado por el Consejo de la UE, de mejorar las relaciones con Israel, sin condiciones específicas en materia de derechos humanos, ha alentado aún más la agresión israelí. El tiempo de apaciguar a Israel hace mucho que ha pasado. Como primer paso, Gran Bretaña debe retirar al embajador británico en Israel y, como sucedió con la Sudáfrica del apartheid, debe embarcarse en un programa de boicot, desinversión y sanciones.

Diré que estoy de acuerdo con el SENTIDO y PROPOSITO de la carta, también con las EXIGENCIAS PLANTEADAS. Con lo que no lo estoy con las comparación que se hace entre lo que ocurre en Gaza y lo que ocurrió al pueblo judío durante la segunda guerra mundial a manos de los Nazis.

No me parece una comparación válida, pues Israel no ha emprendido una campaña de exterminio.

El uso de declaraciones fuera de contexto para intentar hacer ese punto me parece lamentable.

La declaración del ministro de defensa de Israel, Matan Vilnai, que realizo en febrero de 2008 fue la siguiente:

“The more Qassam [rocket] fire intensifies and the rockets reach a longer range, they will bring upon themselves a bigger shoah because we will use all our might to defend ourselves”

lo que traducido significa:

"En la medida en que se intensifique le fuego de los (cohetes) Qassam y los cohetes alcancen un mayor rango, ellos atraerán a sí una mayor DESASTRE porque usaremos todo nuestro poder para defendernos a nosotros mismos".

Literalmente "shoha" significa "desastre" o "conflagración". Si se la antepone "Ha" formarndo HaShoah significa "El desastre" que es la expresión comunmente utilizada para referise al holocausto".

No hay que confundirse. El ministro de defensa Israelí no amenazo en crear un holocausto para los palestinos. Advirtió que de intensificarse y agravarse los ataques se defenderían y eso sería desastroso para los palestinos.

Querido Ramón: me gusta ese giro filológico que usas para atemperar las amenazas y los hechos de los israelíes, y por una vez, sin que sirva de precedente, he consultado el Diccionario sobre la palabra holocausto.

Dice:
"(Del lat. holocaustum, y este del gr. ὁλόκαυστος).
1. m. Gran matanza de seres humanos.
2. m. Acto de abnegación total que se lleva a cabo por amor.
3. m. Entre los israelitas especialmente, sacrificio en que se quemaba toda la víctima."

Cogérsela con papel de fumar con ayuda de la filología para decir que no ha habido una gran matanza de seres humanos, de población civil no combatiente cuando la mayor parte de las víctimas letales son niños, mujeres y ancianos, que han perecido por bombardeos indiscriminados sobre objetivos no militares, cosa que de acuerdo con la Convención de Ginebra se consideran "crímenes de guerra", es, cuanto menos, digno de la mejor escuela delirante.
Si, según los israelíes, responden a unos atacantes terroristas que usan a la población civil como escudos humanos, existen protocolos de intervención y contrainsurgencia que trata de salvar a los rehenes y neutralizar al enemigo con el menor número de víctimas colaterales.
El bloqueo y asedio sin alimentos, sin medicinas, sin agua ni servicios básicos, la expulsión de los periodistas y observadores internacionales, y considerar objetivos militares a las organizaciones humanitarias que tratan de ayudar a la población civil, a los miles de heridos, y el bombardeo de las colas de gente a los que se les distribuye ayuda de supervivencia es un hecho refrendado por la ONU, que ha tenido la reiterada experiencia de ser tomados como diana de los misiles teledirigidos.
La defensa contra los insurgentes de Hamas que lanzan cohetes que han provocado doce muertos en Israel es desproporcionada; y sería como si en la lucha contra los narcos, en México, -y en España-, el gobierno y el ejército bombardeara las poblaciones donde se supone se esconden los sicarios, sitiándolas, bloqueando la entrada de alimentos,, medicinas, agua y ayuda médica.

Esta carta recuerda el asedio y exterminio del gueto de Varsovia con muy buen tino, porque fue la población civil el principal objetivo militar, y no los combatientes armados que lucharon heroicamente contra las tropas nazis y sus métodos de exterminio. Como algunos palestinos resisten y luchan ahora contra la desproporcionada fuerza de exterminio israelí.
Perdonen el rollazo.

Yo también soy de origen judio y me sumo a esta carta en todo lo que expresa, a la vez que me regocija el hecho de que el sentido común, la humanidad, la solidaridad y la justicia no se hayan alejado de las personas, o, al menos, de algunas de las personas que forman parte de esa comunidad.
Gracias por publicarlo, Gatopardo.

Nuestro origen judío es para muchos de nosotros una responsabilidad y un compromiso para no olvidar ni justificar la crueldad, venga de donde venga, porque, como decía Simon Wiesenthal:

"- Para beneficio de todos, aprendan de nuestra tragedia. No está escrito que las próximas víctimas deban ser judíos. Lo vimos comenzar en Alemania con los judíos, pero personas de más de veinte naciones, fueron asesinadas. Cuando comencé esta tarea me dije a mi mismo: Voy a buscar a los asesinos de todas las víctimas, no sólo las víctimas judías. Voy a luchar por la justicia"

"- La historia del hombre es la historia del crimen, y la historia puede repetirse. Por eso, la información es una defensa. Por lo tanto podemos construir, debemos construir, una defensa contra esa repetición".

"- Lo único importante de estos casi cincuenta años de mi trabajo es una advertencia para los asesinos de mañana, de que nunca lograrán descansar".

Gracias a ti
Un abrazo

Autor: Lo que usted no sabe de Gaza

RASHID KHALIDI, Catedrático de Estudios Árabes U. Columbia
Viernes, 16-01-09
Casi todo lo que le han hecho creer sobre Gaza es incorrecto. Estos son unos cuantos puntos esenciales que parecen estar ausentes de las discusiones en la prensa:
Los habitantes de Gaza. La mayoría de la gente que vive en Gaza no está allí por elección propia. La mayor parte del millón y medio de personas que se amontonan en los aproximadamente 360 kilómetros cuadrados de la franja de Gaza pertenece a familias procedentes de ciudades y pueblos de fuera de Gaza como Ashkelon y Beersheba. Fueron conducidas hasta Gaza por el ejército israelí en 1948.
La ocupación. Los habitantes de Gaza han vivido bajo la ocupación israelí desde la Guerra de los Seis Días de 1967. Israel sigue siendo considerado por la mayoría una potencia ocupante, a pesar de que en 2005 retiró sus tropas y colonos de la Franja. Israel sigue regulando el acceso a la zona, las importaciones y exportaciones, y las entradas y salidas de la gente. Israel controla el espacio aéreo y la costa de Gaza, y sus soldados entran en la zona con total libertad.
Como potencia ocupante, y conforme a la Cuarta Convención de Ginebra, Israel tiene la responsabilidad de velar por el bienestar de la población civil de la franja de Gaza.
El bloqueo. El bloqueo ejercido por Israel sobre la franja de Gaza, con el apoyo de Estados Unidos y la Unión Europea, se ha hecho cada vez más estricto desde que Hamás ganó las elecciones del Consejo Legislativo Palestino en enero de 2006.

El combustible, la electricidad, las importaciones, las exportaciones y los desplazamientos de la gente para entrar o salir de la Franja han ido disminuyendo paulatinamente, lo cual ha ocasionado problemas de saneamiento, salud, suministro de agua y transporte, que suponen una amenaza para la vida.
El bloqueo ha sometido a muchos al paro, la miseria y la desnutrición. Esto equivale al castigo colectivo, con el apoyo tácito de Estados Unidos, de una población civil por ejercer sus derechos democráticos.
El alto el fuego. El levantamiento del bloqueo, junto con el cese del lanzamiento de misiles, fue una de las condiciones clave del alto el fuego firmado en junio por Israel y Hamás. Este acuerdo condujo a una reducción de los cohetes disparados desde Gaza, que pasaron de centenares en mayo y junio a un total de menos de 20 en los cuatro meses siguientes (según datos del Gobierno israelí). El alto el fuego se rompió cuando las fuerzas israelíes lanzaron ataques aéreos y terrestres a gran escala a principios de noviembre; se informó de la muerte de seis miembros de Hamás.
Crímenes de guerra. El ataque a objetivos civiles, ya sea por parte de Hamás o de Israel, puede constituir un crimen de guerra. Toda vida humana tiene un valor incalculable. Pero los números hablan por sí solos: 1.000 palestinos, la mayoría de ellos civiles, han sido asesinados desde que estalló el conflicto a finales del año pasado, en contraste con, aproximadamente, la docena de israelíes que han muerto, muchos de ellos soldados.
La negociación es un método mucho más eficaz para enfrentarse a los misiles y otras formas de violencia. Ésta podría haberse producido si Israel hubiese cumplido los términos del alto el fuego de junio y hubiese levantado su bloqueo sobre la franja de Gaza.
En realidad, esta guerra contra la gente de Gaza no tiene nada que ver con los misiles. Ni con «restaurar el poder disuasorio de Israel», como la prensa israelí puede haberles hecho creer. Son mucho más reveladoras las palabras pronunciadas en 2002 por Moshe Yaalon, el entonces jefe del Estado Mayor de las fuerzas de defensa israelíes: «A los palestinos se les debe hacer entender, hasta en los más profundos rincones de su conciencia, que son un pueblo vencido»

Amiga, no era mi intención atemperar las amenazas ni los hechos. Las amenazas eran graves y en los hechos se cumplieron las amenazas en los términos que se hicieron.

Yo no he dicho que no ha habido una gran matanza de seres humanos, tampoco he dicho que no ha habido víctimas civiles y no combatientes entre las que se encuentran mujeres niños y ancianos. No lo he dicho.

Los que he dicho es que en la carta se utilizó una declaración fuera de contexto y una traducción intencionalmente errónea con la intención de ganar mayores simpatías para una causa con la que estoy de acuerdo en lo general: el alto al fuego y la búsqueda de la paz mediante la presión internacional.

En el pasado nos encontramos en una posición semajante en otro tema. Puedo estar de acuerdo con una causa o un punto de vista, pero no por ello aceptaré la exageración, la manipulación o la falta de precisión.

Puedo estar en contra de los bombardeos que realiza Israel, pero no los calificaré como "indiscriminados", porque no lo han sido. Los bombardeos han estado dirigidos a objetivos perfectamente seleccionados y sí, el ataque a algunos, muchos, la mayoría o incluso todos esos objetivos puede ser considerado un crimen de guerra. Pero no son ataques "indiscriminados".

También estoy en contra del bloqueo y asedio que deja sin alimentos, sin medicinas, sin agua ni servicios básicos a la población civil y en contra de que se impida a periodistas y observadores realizar su función.

Estoy en contra de que se consideren objetivos militares a las organizaciones humanitarias que tratan de ayudar a la población civil.

También estoy de acuerdo en que la respuesta de Israel a los ataques ha sido desproporcionada. Pero no creo que la proporcionalidad tenga que medirse únicamente en el número de víctimas. Si Israel no ha tenido más víctimas ha sido por los esfuerzos de realizados para proteger la vida, no por la falta de capacidad de fuego de Hamas.

Creo que es muy poco afortunada la comparación que realizas entre lo que hace Hamas y lo que hacen los narcos en México. Hasta hoy no he sabido de Narcos que lancen cohetes desde escuelas en contra la población civil.

No estoy de acuerdo en que la carta sea atinada en su comparación porque la población civil palestína NO ES EL PRINCIPAL OBJETIVO MILITAR del gobierno de Israel. Si así lo fuera y perdona la crudeza de la pregunta, ¿para qué utilizar misiles teledirigidos? ¿Para que seleccionar ciertos blancos (por cuestionables que resulten) en lugar de arrasar con todo? Si se tratase, como dices, de fuerzas de extermino, las Israelíes estarían haciendo muy mal su trabajo, pues les tomaría décadas, si no es que siglos, acabar con la población civil palestina al ritmo actual.

Porque los muertos ahí están amiga y cada muerte es una tragedia y un fracaso para la humanidad. Porque se están cometiendo crímenes sí y debemos exigir que sean castigados. Pero no estamos frente a un esfuerzo de exterminio.

Hay palestinos viviendo pacíficamente en Israel, hay palestinos en el gobierno de Israel y también hay palestinos en el ejército de Israel.

Hay palestinos que han jurado matar hasta el último judio, pero también los hay quienes buscan la paz y liberarse de Hamas, cuyo mayor delito ES EL TERRORISMO y no el rehusarse "a aceptar convertirse en un peón en manos del régimen de ocupación israelí" como dice la carta.

Lo leeré y lo releeré, y lo reflexionaré.
Pero mi problema es que tengo que fiarme de las traducciones de unos y otros porque las declaraciones originales, en hebreo, me las traducen al inglés, y luego al español. Y ya sabes...
Por una de esas que lían los traductores, resulta que hay un cisma que dice que el Paraíso Terrenal con su Árbol del bien y del mal, estaba en Asturias, cerca de Porrines, y allí hay que buscar los primitivos pobladores, descendientes de Adán y Eva.

Es que me liáis cada una los políglotas...

When Dov Weisglass, an adviser to the Israeli prime minister, Ehud Olmert, talked of putting Gazans "on a diet" and the deputy defence minister, Matan Vilnai, talked about the Palestinians experiencing "a bigger shoah" (holocaust), this reminds us of Governor General Hans Frank in Nazi-occupied Poland, who spoke of "death by hunger".

Sr. Mier: El texto original especifica en qué sentido sus autores entienden el vocablo "shoah". Es en el original inglés (que no es traducción de ningún texto en hebreo) donde se menciona el término "Holocausto".
No he tergiversado. Es usted quien no ha revisado el original en inglés. Y es difícil que yo tergiversara en el sentido que usted apunta porque soy sionista.
Madame Gatopardo: No es problema de políglotas.Es un problema de ignorancia.

Supongo que no nos debería importar o preocupar el color de nuestra piel o el origen de nuestros genes.
Ser judío implica creer en un modelo de dios, nada más; ser de origen judío ya no significa nada, a no ser que se quiera dar importancia a una diferencia racial; un error, dado que en estos momentos el mundo judío es multiétnico.

Gaza es un campo de concentración desde su origen y fue organizado como tal. Para salir de él era necesario el documento que acreditase un trabajo fuera de su ámbito, por descontado, peor pagado que al resto de la ciudadanía.
Creo que buscar sutilezas dialécticas o explicaciones para humanizar más o menos lo que estamos viendo, no ahora sino desde hace muchos años, es una pérdida de tiempo. Pienso que, en estos momentos y con la información recibida, divagar sobre la diferencia entre lo que es matanza, exterminio y holocausto es una frivolidad, sobre todo desde el punto de vista de la víctima. Igual que la preocupación sobre lo que considera públicamente tal o cual ministro israelí o cualquier ciudadano de su país.

Personalmente sólo me preocupa una cosa, ya que al hombre le quedan muchos siglos de barbarie y contra eso podemos hacer poco, y es cómo podemos haber llegado a este nivel de deshumanización, y no solo en Palestina, los Balcanes, Chechenia... sino también en nuestras propias casas, al discutir sobre la bondad, legalidad, derecho... a masacrar a un pueblo.

Asombra ver como unos hombres, herederos y beneficiarios de la declaración de los derechos humanos, se la pasan por el forro con alevosía y chuleando de ello. O como otros, descendientes políticos de sus creadores, la desprecian con tanto desparpajo.

No he dicho que me preocupe mi origen: lo constato.
Para ser exacta, la palabra preocupar no es la que define mi obsesión por no permitirme la tentación de justificar con mis orígenes, o mis hormonas o lo que me suceda, mi crueldad y mi irracionalidad. Es más sano saber que están ahí y no buscar excusas.
Por cierto, Pau: has bordado el comentario. Pero al final, ese asombro es una miajica pose teatral: los seres humanos, en general, tenemos esa puñetera manía de sentirnos eufóricos cuando podemos sacar a pasear al asesino que llevamos dentro si nos asegura la impunidad una buena excusa moral, como es la guerra, el patriotismo, nuestro equipo de fútbol, aniquilar a los malos... Al fin y al cabo, los derechos humanos es una entelequia que aún no ha calado en nuestras referencias instintivas y éticas.

Perdonen el discursete.

Me intriga saber qué piensas, Ramón Mier, acerca de ese fatídico año de 1948 en que Israel nació en el seno de Palestina.
Por su puesto que es exterminio. No importa el tiempo. Los indios americanos llevamos cinco siglos. Éramos millones. No llegamos a diez por ciento de la población originaria. Somos un peligro para el sistema, somos comunistas que no creemos en el dinero ni en la propiedad privada. Cinco siglos amigo.
¿Qué haremos cuando, de existir aún Gaza, se cumpla el centenario de la ocupación de Palestina?

El Holocausto es nada, un chiste, una parodia, en comparación con lo que se hace en América desde hace cinco siglos.
Es exterminio, lo es porque acá se hace lo mismo.
Fisk escribe: "¿Acaso hemos olvidado a los 17,500 muertos -casi todos civiles, la mayoría de ellos niños y mujeres- que dejó en 1982 la invasión israelí del Líbano? ¿O los mil 700 civiles palestinos muertos en la masacre de Sabra-Chatila? ¿O la masacre de Qana (Canaán) de 1996, en la que los israelíes mataron a 106 civiles libaneses, más de la mitad de ellos niños, refugiados en una base de Naciones Unidas? ¿O la masacre de los refugiados de Marwahin a los que en 2006 los israelíes ordenaron salir de sus hogares para acto seguido asesinarlos a tiros desde un helicóptero artillado? ¿O los mil muertos de ese mismo año 2006 durante los bombardeos e invasión del Líbano, casi todos ellos civiles?".
Mujeres, niños, ancianos: historia, recuerdos, futuro, educación, especie. Ésos son los objetivos israelíes. Mata una mujer, no nacerán más palestinos; mata un niño y matarás un guerrillero potencial; mata un anciano, y con él morirá la historia de la infamia.
Exterminio Ramón, exterminio. Sólo un político o un sionista o un tonto ve "enfrentamiento" cuando se comete exterminio.

ISRAEL.Adonai-
Israel, Adonaí

Israel , pueblo mio

Quien mejor que tu sabe del odio

De la barbarie, del delito

De la persecucion por raza

Del desprecio por una piel

Si injusta fue tu persecución

Injusto fue tu nacimiento.

Si terrible es el acoso que sientes terrible es la fuerza

con la que te defiendes.

Israel , yo hijo de David

Y nieto de Isaac

No reniego de ser judio

Pero siento la vergüenza

De lo que esta ocurriendo.

Israel , no hablo desde el miedo

Ni desde la ignorancia

No me mueven bajas pasiones

Ni malos sentimientos

Te quiero bien y muero

Viendo como aplastas niños dormidos

Con tus tanques o desde el cielo

Te digo:

Diez millones de muertos de los nuestros

No nos dan permiso para hacer lo mismo...

Israel , no hay peor amo que el que ha sido esclavo.

Yo respeto a los judios , palestinos y a todas las razas pero no estoy de acuerdo con el genocidio porque el pueblo de Gaza no son todos el terrorismo de Hamas. Creo lamentablemente habrá más odio y los niños y madres que hayan perdido a sus familias masacradas, sembraran más odio, ¿como le explican a un niñocomo mataron a sus hermanos?Solo espero que algun día puedan vivir en paz.

JUDÍOS VENEZOLANOS
La noticia me deja sorprendido y siento una gran tristeza. Al leer en los medios y ver en la televisión la profanación de la sinagoga de Caracas, Venezuela. No es que es porque sea un recinto religioso de la comunidad judía de Venezuela, hubiese sido para mí igual tristeza, sí se hubiese profanado una catedral, mezquita o cualquier recinto sagrado. Los judíos venezolanos, desde hace años, por no decir décadas o hace más de 180 años, viven en Venezuela y escogieron ésta tierra, por invitación el mismo Libertador Simón Bolívar, que los invito a vivir en Venezuela. Hace dos siglos vivían en Curazao, eran descendientes de los judíos que fueron expulsados de España, en 1492. Esos judíos de esa época de luchas por la independencia de Venezuela, es más, algunos libertadores y que luchaban al lado de nuestro Libertador, eran generales judíos, que apoyaron al libertador, tanto económicamente y moralmente… los años fueron pasando, y fueron llegando judíos de diferentes lugares, los de Europa del Este, llamados asquenazíes, y los de origen españoles y del África del Norte llamados sefardíes como también, de Siria, Líbano, Turquía, Grecia y muchos otros.

Cuando termino, la Segunda Guerra Mundial, y después del dramático y triste Holocausto, algunos, se fueron a Israel y otros países, entre ellos, Venezuela. Allá, en Israel, han vivido desde hace miles de años, de todas las partes del mundo han llegado; hablando diferentes lenguas, entre atacar y ser atacados la sangre se ha derramado, entre sembrar naranjales y desarrollar los kibutz… hoy, es triste ver como hay muertos y heridos. Israel tiene que retirarse de los territorios ocupados y los palestinos aceptar que tienen que compartir esta tierra sagrada prometida a Abraham; padre de los judíos, cristianos y árabes… Aquí, en Venezuela, han crecido y han aportado al mundo científico, cultural, comercial y artístico, ideas nuevas y son venezolanos como cualquier venezolano. Han dado hombres como, Baruj Benacerraf, Premio Nóbel de fisiología y medicina, 1980.
Aquí han vivido en medio de árabes, palestinos, cristianos y de otras nacionalidades y de confesiones religiosas o filosóficas, y nunca ha habido esos brotes de antisemitismo. Aunque por, allá en las primeras décadas de 1800, hubo algunos problemas, en la comunidad judía de, Corro. , comunidad que va del año 1824-1900.
Hoy, en estos tiempos, en mucho venezolanos corre sangre judía, muchos nombres, tan españoles, tan criollos, llevan toda la historia de cuando sus antepasados vivieron en, España. Hoy, algunos, son cristianos, y sin saberlo, posiblemente odian a los judíos, es lo que se llama conversos, y muchos, no saben sus orígenes hebreos, otros, han continuado su fe y son venezolanos, tanto como UD. o yo, y han enriquecido con sabidurías y conocimientos al país.
Hoy, cuando han profanado la sinagoga de Caracas, se les ha olvidado, que es templo de Dios, sin olvidar que Jesús, era judío, así, como grandes hombres como: Carlos Marx, Albert Einstein, Sigmund Freíd, o grandes filósofos como Maimonides, Spinosa , y tantos hombres de pensamiento revolucionaros; como: León Trotski, Rosa Luxemburg, Noan Chonsky o en la ciencias, en la banca, en la industria y en el arte de la pintura y la música.
Ojala, un día venga un nuevo renacimiento, donde los palestinos, los árabes y la estrella de David, vuelvan a estar juntas, así, como en siglos pasados, en Bagdad, o cuando los árabes, judíos, cristianos compartieron espacios, en Andalucía o Bagdad, para el conocimiento, ya que a través de él, se llegaba a Dios.
No más odios, no mas muertes entre judíos, árabes y palestinos y ojala, que este odio se termine, porque todos somos espiritualmente hijos de Abraham… y la profanación de la sinagoga es lamentable, no permitamos que el minotauro, que cada quien lleva adentro salga a pasearse y hacer daño… y sigamos viviendo en Venezuela, como fue el sueño de nuestro Libertador Simón Bolívar…

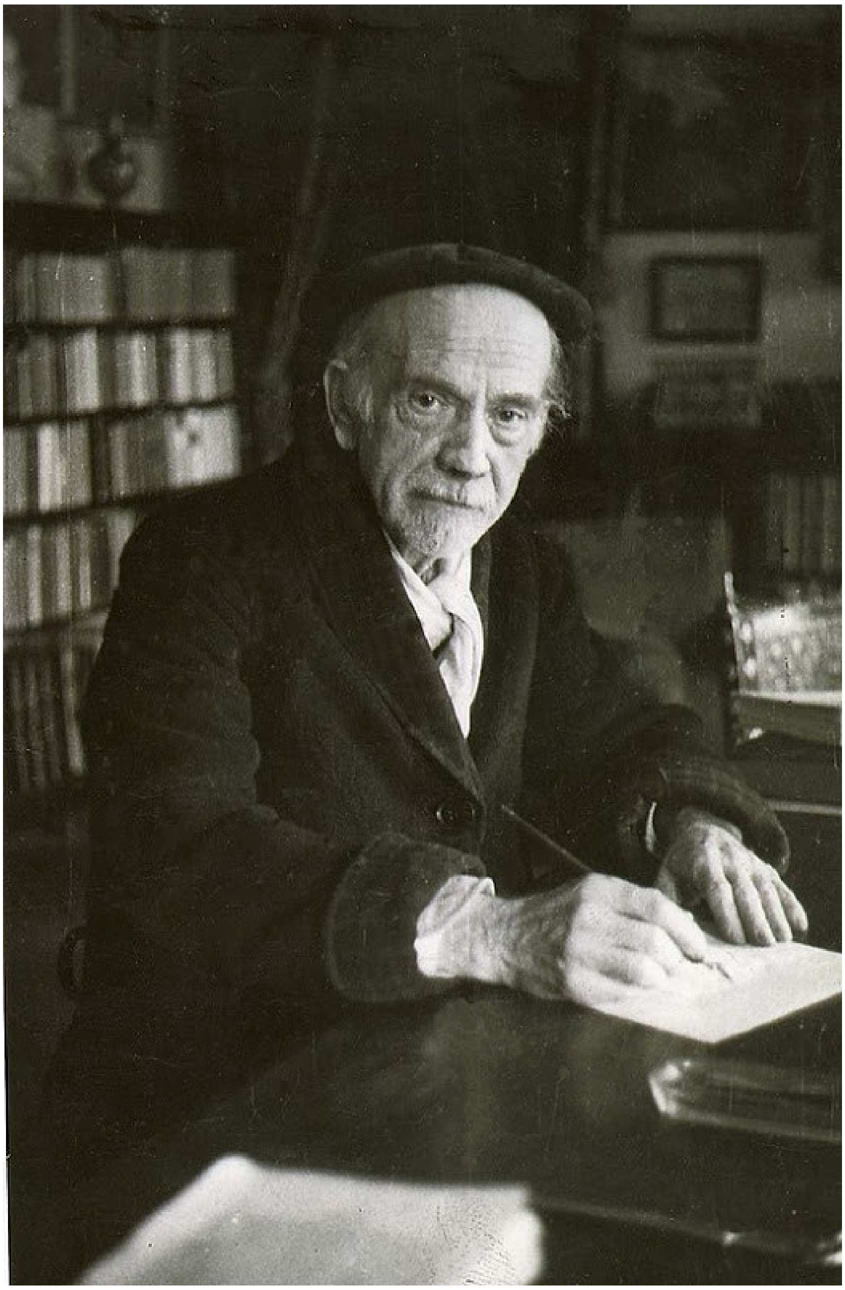
PÍO BAROJA. MEMORIAS



Otro mago que conocí no era un profesor, sino un pobre hombre. Gómez era el mago del naturismo.

Le conocí en el tren. Una noche de invierno, muy fría, en que iba yo en el expreso de Valencia, entró en el tren el señor Gómez, cerca de Madrid, y al poco tiempo pretendió abrir el cristal del vagón, a lo que, naturalmente, nos opusimos todos los viajeros.

—Quería hacerlo — dijo— porque esta atmósfera no se puede respirar, esto es muy malsano.

Luego dijo que había perdido su tren, y se reveló como naturista.

Era un hombre de unos cincuenta años, de color terroso, que tenía un abceso en la mejilla y un catarro terrible.

—Ahora paro en una de estas estaciones, me voy a casa —dijo—y me paseo media hora descalzo en el suelo helado. Luego, en casa, cenaré una lechuga y dos naranjas.

—Se va usted a poner malo— le indiqué yo.

—¡Ca, hombre, al revés! ¡Así estoy tan fuerte!

—Tiene usted un catarro terrible.

—Eso no importa. Eso es salud. Yo no me curaré jamás un catarro. Él desaparecerá cuando quiera. ¿Usted sabe las consecuencias funestas que tiene curar un catarro?

—Yo, no. Yo, siempre que puedo, me curo los catarros.

—Pues hace Vd. muy mal.

—Parece que tiene usted también un abceso.

—Sí, pero no crea usted que me pongo ninguna medicina, ni me aprieto con los dedos. No. Sólo me doy baños de vapor. Esto es pura salud.

El señor Gómez por lo que me dijo era empleado de un ministerio y naturista rabioso.

Le vi luego en Madrid, siempre con su aire hético y triste; pero siempre convencido de que era un Hércules.

Gómez era, además de naturista, medio teósofo y medio homeópata. Creía que las medicinas hacían efecto a distancia. También presumía de esperantista. Gómez era intransigente. Tenía siete u ocho libros ridículos en los que creía a cierra ojos. Sostenía que la infusión de café era un producto artificial, y que, en cambio, la de bellotas tostadas era muy natural.

Yo no le hacía caso porque me parecía muy tonto y muy aburrido. Yo le decía:

—Todo eso del naturismo me parece una estupidez. No sé por qué llevar sandalias ha de ser natural y llevar zapatos, artificial; tampoco comprendo por qué el comer pan con salvado es natural y comerlo sin salvado es artificial.

Al señor Gómez se le metió en la cabeza que necesitaba un pan hecho de harina molida en antiguos molinos de piedra, y no en molinos modernos de cilindros.

—Esos molinos de harina de cilindros que hay ahora quitan al pan sus virtudes— y al decir esto, Gómez cerraba los ojos y movía las manos, como si estuviera viendo las virtudes del pan que se iban perdiendo en el abismo.

—Pero ¿cómo sabe Vd. que el molino de cilindros hace ese efecto?— pregunté yo.

—Eso se comprende.

—¿Y qué virtudes son las que se pierden?

—Todas— me contestó categóricamente.

A pesar de su idiotismo, y probablemente por él, Gómez tuvo sus discípulos y partidarios.

Luego se empeñó en no comer más que cosas crudas: berzas, zanahorias, cebollas, y en andar medio desnudo, y poco después se murió, mártir de su apostolado, aunque él, seguramente, creyó que moría a fuerza de salud.

SOBRE MARÍA CRISTINA DE BORBÓN DOS-SICILIAS, VIUDA DE FERNANDO VII, Y SEÑORA DE MUÑOZ

Lloraban los liberales que Cristina no paría,
y ha parido más *muñoces que liberales había.

Autor anónimo

Tres meses después de enviudar, el 28 de diciembre de 1833 se casó secretamente con el sargento de su escolta personal Agustín Fernando Muñoz y Sánchez . Tuvieron ocho hijos.

"¡Las alhajas de la Corona han sido robadas, y robadas de la manera más escandalosa!". Laureano Figuerola, ministro de Hacienda, desató la más feroz tempestad parlamentaria que se recuerda en todo el convulso Romanticismo español. Aquel 1 de diciembre de 1869, las Cortes Constituyentes estaban a rebosar. El general Prim, presidente del Consejo de Ministros bajo la regencia del duque de la Torre, ocupaba el escaño más destacado. Repartidos por el hemiciclo, se congregaban cicerones ilustres sumidos en un claustral silencio: Ruiz Zorrilla, Alcalá Zamora, Balaguer, Pi y Margall, Moret, Castelar, Canovas, Sagasta, Ríos Rosas, Echegaray...
Figuerola, desde el púlpito, añadió con toda vehemencia:
"Por lo menos han desaparecido de España 78 millones en valores que representaban las alhajas de la Corona. Han desaparecido de España por dos personas cuyos nombres están en vuestra boca, por doña María Cristina de Borbón y por doña Isabel de Borbón".
El ministro de Hacienda, que aquel mismo año había introducido la peseta como unidad monetaria y gozaba de gran predicamento entre los economistas y políticos de su época, puso así en la picota el honor de María Cristina de Borbón, cuarta esposa de Fernando VII, y el de su hija Isabel II.

María Cristina, según Figuerola, había sustraído de Palacio alhajas que no le pertenecían. El ministro recordó entonces que el intendente general de la Real Casa y Patrimonio, Martín de los Heros, encontró ya "setecientos estuches vacíos" en 1840, cuando María Cristina, la reina que había gobernado España durante los últimos siete años, emprendió por vez primera el camino del exilio, tras la proclamación de la regencia del general Espartero. El funcionario acusó a la reina destronada de haberse llevado consigo a París 78 millones de reales en joyas.
Y no sólo eso; denunció que habían desaparecido también valiosos muebles renacentistas que estaban en los sótanos de Palacio."

SOBRE EL TERRORISMO DE ESTADO INTERNACIONAL Y LOS CRÍMENES DE LESA HUMANIDAD

En 1948, Estados Unidos e Inglaterra impusieron a los palestinos la creación de un estado para Israel. Con esta acción, se trataba de remediar una injusticia y un genocidio cometidos contra los judíos. Sin embargo, remediar una injusticia creando otra dirigida contra los habitantes históricos de Palestina, no es la mejor manera de arreglar el mundo.
El vergonzoso y cómplice silencio de los países que se autodefinen como democráticos arrastra y mancilla, no solamente a estos estados y a sus representantes, sino también a sus pueblos.
Todas las fuerzas de la izquierda española se han soliviantado por la manipulación que la derecha española trata de efectuar cuando intenta explicar la responsabilidad de la izquierda y la derecha sobre lo sucedido durante y después de la guerra civil española.
Ante la avalancha de manipulaciones y opiniones revisionistas (véase el ejemplo del inefable " historiador" Pío Moa) metiendo en el mismo saco la legalidad republicana y el golpe de estado fascista, el PSOE, IU y otros valedores de la izquierda tradicional alzan su voz y claman contra esta manipulación, por falaz y falsificadora. Pero son los mismos que hoy, para tratar de salvar su maltrecho sentido de la moral, reparten culpas, igualando la desproporcionada y terrorista agresión de Israel a la población civil en Gaza y las agresiones cometidas por la guerrilla islamista de Hamas.
El gobierno español, así como todas las fuerza "democráticas" arremeten "valientemente" contra el terrorismo de ETA, gritan indignados ante lo que consideran como un casi "genocidio" contra las libertades en Euskadi; no dudan en emplear la "artillería" pesada contra periódicos y fuerzas políticas elegidas democráticamente por los ciudadanos, prohibiéndolos y encarcelándolos bajo pretexto de ser cómplices del terrorismo.
Estas operaciones de lavado de cara no le cuestan nada al gobierno que sabe que la demagogia siempre es rentable de cara a la galería.
Sin embargo,estos gobiernos, este Sr.Zapatero, esta Sra. Fernández de la Vega, vice-priesidenta, este maltrecho y obsoleto Sr. Rubalcaba, son los mismos que, desvergonzadamente, alientan esta lucha con una mano y defienden el terrorismo israelí con la otra.

A nadie que esté medianamente informado se le escapa el hecho de que España siga vendiendo, a traves de Santa Bárbara y otras empresas armamentísticas del estado español, armas al estado de Israel (por ejemplo bombas de racimo, prohibidas recientemente en la mayor parte de países que exportan armamento). Sin embargo, existe un real decreto por el que se regula la venta de armas a los países que infrinjan los derechos humanos o creen tensiones en las regiones en donde se encuentran (Real decreto 1782/2004 del 30 de julio). Por si esto fuera poco, existe un código de conducta que estableció la Unión Europea que proclama que no serán vendidas armas a aquellos países que violen la carta de los derechos humanos.
Deseamos saber cómo catalogan estos gobiernos, estos partidos, estas personas el hecho de dinamitar casas palestinas para apropiarse de los terrenos y repartirlos entre los colonos israelíes asentados. Desearíamos saber como catalogan el erigir muros encerrando en un ghetto a la población para aislarla de su entorno (¿acaso en el caso del ghetto de Varsovia, del muro de Berlín, etc. estos gobiernos, partidos, personas no los consideran condenables?)
Queremos saber por qué la fiscal del tribunal internacional de la Haya, Sra. Carla Da Ponte, y estos queridos países, partidos, personas democráticas han condenado las voladuras de casas albano-kosovares, los crímenes de los serbios y otros, y no hacen nada, o miran hacia otra parte, cuando esto está sucediendo todos los días en Palestina. Y, digo yo, que si todo esto era terrorismo en Serbia, si esta Sra.Da Ponte ha arremetido contra los dirigentes serbios, por qué ahora no proclaman su indignación contra los gobernantes de Israel que están cometiendo estos actos terroristas. Y, digo yo, que si meten en la cárcel a gente en España por ser militante de Batasuna, sin tener las manos manchadas de sangre, única y exclusivamente por no condenar lel terrorismo de ETA, como ocurre con sus dirigentes, ¿por qué no se persigue a todos aquellos que apoyan y no condenan el terrorismo israelí? Vender armas sabiendo que se van a emplear contra personas inocentes ¿no es complicidad, cuando menos, de terrorismo?
Desde mi humilde posición de ciudadano, recuerdo a otros ciudadanos que no sólo son culpables de complicidad de terrorismo aquellos que alientan estos actos vendiendo armas para que sean empleadas ilegalmente, sino que somos todos responsables, cómplices, pues esto se hace en nombre del estado español y el estado somos todos.
Y como no deseo ser cómplice de terrorismo, denuncio aquí a todos los miembros del gobierno español por complicidad con el terrorismo abogando para que se haga una campaña popular con el fin de que estos señores, estos gobiernos, estos partidos, sean juzgados en la Corte Internacional para los crímenes contra la humanidad de La Haya.
Estoy más que harto de ese fariseísmo consistente en perseguir a los terroristas "malos" y silenciar y favorecer a los terroristas "buenos". Y de ustedes, miembros de ese tribunal que condena, "a la carta" y silencia los desmanes de aquellos que les son inalcanzables: son ustedes tan despreciables como aquellos que alientan estas acciones de terror institucional.
Claro está que la política y la decencia, la ética y la moral, hace tiempo que yacen bajo las bombas que ustedes venden.

Fragmento de "Los nuevos mercenarios "Made in Spain":

SGSI en Iraq e Israel

Este periódico ya reseñó el trabajo de SGSI Group en Iraq en materia de protección de líderes de la Unión Patriótica del Kurdistán llevado a cabo durante el mes de agosto de 2007 (ver DIAGONAL nº60). También se relataban las visitas, organizadas por SGSI, de grupos de escoltas españoles –ex miembros de las Fuerzas Armadas o militares en excedencia– a un complejo de entrenamiento en Cesárea, una exclusiva localidad turística israelí de 4.500 habitantes a mitad camino entre Tel Aviv y Haifa, administrada actualmente por una organización privada, la Corporación para el Desarrollo de Cesarea. De hecho, el portavoz de la empresa, Víctor González confirmaba en una entrevista en Radiocable.com los lazos con el sector militar privado israelí hablando sobre los inicios de su empresa: "Acudimos a un par de cursos en Israel porque teníamos muchas ganas de profesionalizarnos más y, qué duda cabe, que aquélla es la cuna de la seguridad". "A partir de ahí surge la posibilidad, asociándonos con un experto en seguridad israelí, de ir sacando esto adelante", añade.

La trama empresarial

SGSI Group forma parte del Grupo Hyzanami. Efectivamente, según el Registro Mercantil español, existe una empresa llamada Hyzanami & SGSI Group 2007 S.L cuyo domicilio social está situado en la avenida Ramón y Cajal de Fuengirola (Málaga). Su principal accionista y administrador único es el abogado Sergio Ruiz Martín, que también ocupa el cargo de administrador junto a Fernando Núñez Martín en F. Núñez & S. Ruiz Abogados S.L., (constituida el 5 de abril de 2005). Esta empresa comparte domicilio social con Hyzanami & SGSI Group en Fuengirola. Ambos abogados también son administradores de una empresa dedicada a las actividades inmobiliarias (Pastmartcon S.L, constituida el 15 de junio del 2005) con domicilio social en la calle San Pancracio de Marbella. Núñez Martín figura como firmante de un manifiesto por la libertad de "los presos de conciencia" en Cuba impulsado por la fundación FAES del Partido Popular.

"Comercio al por mayor"

Los datos del Registro Mercantil denotan un hecho de lo más curioso. Hyzanami & SGSI Group 2007 S.L. tiene como objeto social la "comercialización, importación y exportación de productos de alimentación y artesanía, típicos del país de origen, y materias primas de carácter mineral, obtenidas por cualquier método de extracción". Su actividad sería, por tanto, "el comercio al por mayor de materias primas agrarias, productos alimenticios, bebidas y tabacos". Sin embargo, con un simple click en Google, encontramos un anuncio de Hyzanami que ofrece servicios de seguridad en un portal de Internet. En este caso dan una dirección (autovía de Castelldefels, 138) y un teléfono móvil de contacto. Teléfono móvil idéntico al que proporciona la página web de SGSI Group. Por si fuera poco, también indica una dirección de correo electrónico de la empresa de Gibraltar.

civil.Etc,etc.
Todas estas buenas palabras,Israel se las pasa por la entrepierna argumentando su sacrosanto derecho a defenderse.Cabe preguntarse,sin embargo,de que se defiende Israel cuando con sus bulldozers derriban casas palestinas para desalojar familias enteras y apropiarse de las tierras y asi entregarselas a colonos judios.Cabe preguntarse de que se defiende Israel cuando apunta y dispara sus bombas contra ambulancias,hospitales,embajadas o legaciones culturales de la ONU.Aunque uno no quiera no puede por menos que referirse al dicho abogado polaco,mas arriba citado,para concluir que,objetivamente,el estado de Israel pretende liquidar fisicamente a la poblacion palestina bajo el unico pretexto de su calidad de palestinos.Y esto,señores,entra dentro de la definicion de Raphael Lemkin de genocidio.Asi pues,el Estado de Israel es un estado genocida que utiliza el terror para quedarse con un territorio que no le pertenece.Y digo yo, que si hace algunos años me cuidaba muy mucho de emplear el termino "judio" al condenar la violencia israeli y hablaba de sionismo y estado israeli,ahora que veo que,segun las ultimas encuestas del periodico israeli"Haaretz" indica que el 97%de la poblacion israeli apoya los bombardeos y la intervencion militar en Gaza,ahora digo,no tengo ningun pudor en decir:si,el 97%de los judios son terroristas y genocidas.Ya no vale la pena el tratar respetuopsamente a quien desprecia tan olimpicamente,olvidando su pasado,la vida de los otros.Los judios,en su inmensa mayoria,son tan despreciables,asesinos,racistas,terroristas
y genocidas como lo fueron contra ellos los nazis de Hitler.Asi,mas de sesenta años despues de su tragedia,los judios han logrado alcanzar el siniestro honor de sobrepasar en horror al regimen nazi.Todavia no gasean,pero "napalmizan" mujeres y niños,todavia no han construido campos de la muerte,pero crean "ghettos" y cuando muestran fotografias de los judios internados en Auswich en donde se aprecia como se les mataba de hambre,veanse ahora como sobrevive la gente en Gaza y la tasa de mortalidad infantil debido a ese inhumano y terrorista bloqueo.
Judios de todo el mundo sois vosotros los que tendriais que parar los pies a vuestro estado.El no hacerlo os convierte en genocidas y os anula por completo en vuestro papel de victima historica.

Somos algunos los que nos preguntamos el por que el estado"democratico" español encarcela personas y cierra periodicos o pone fuera de la ley a partidos a los que unicamente se les imputa el "delito" de no condenar el terrorismo de ETA.Estas personas u organos de prensa,asi como estos partidos no tienen las manos manchadas de sangre,segun la ley.No comprendemos que partidos y gobiernos que no condenan el terrorismo israeli(anoche bombardearon un cementerio en la franja de gaza)sigan tan campantes ejerciendo sus derechos y en libertad.Todavia espero una condena publica del PSOE condenando el terrorismo del GAL,en donde el gobierno de Felipe Gonzalez estaba metido hasta las orejas.Estamos esperando que el PP,que tanto insiste en llamar terroristas a los que nos negamos a condenar el terrorismo de ETA,en nombre de la reciprocidad,haga una declaracion publica denunciando el terrorismo del estado de Israel.Ellos tambien tendrian que ir a la carcel.Y que no nos digan,como siempre en su lengua de trapo estos politicos,que la situacion no es comparable;no lo seria en tanto en cuanto el estado español y los diferentes gobiernos no comerciaran con un estado terrorista proporcionandoles armas.El silencio de todas estas instituciones,personas o partidos os descalifica para dar lecciones de moral.Si,segun vuestra doctrina,tan asesino es el que pone bombas como el que no condena estos actos,entonces vosotros sois tan asesinos y terroristas como aquellos que ,sin pudor alguna masacran a la poblacion civil en Palestina.

Querido: redundar en los argumentos que has expuesto me hace temer que desconfías en la inteligencia de los lectores.
Efectivamente, las tácticas de violencia indiferencia contra la población civil no sólo es un crimen de lesa humanidad, sino una táctica absolutamente errónea para recabar apoyos y alianzas, sea ETA, GAL, HAMAS, o el ejercito israelí quien lo haga; y sólo quienes tienen cerebro por equivocación, y quienes trafican con armas y se lucran, lo pueden reivindicar.

Querido.
A ningun "perro viejo" se le puede venir con la simpleza de pensar que la inteligencia,ya sea en el caso de los lectores o de los electores,es algo que se debe poner en un pedestal o establecer en tanto que verdad absoluta.Si la inteligencia de los lectores fuera lo que tu pretendes que es,seguramente que otro gallo nos cantaria y el mundo no seria lo que hoy es.Y digo yo,acaso gatopardo no redunda todos los dias apareciendo e informando sobre las mismas cosas,una y otra vez?.Acaso el manifestar una y mil veces en la calle cuando algo nos indigna no es redundar.Querido;tienes que saber que una injusticia mil veces denunciada,es menos injusticia.En cualquier caso,hace ya muchos años que me dedico a luchar en la calle en vez de perder el tiempo escribiendo,solo que...ante tanta indignacion y ante tanto atropello y asesinatos,no he podido por menos que gritar mi rabia en donde pienso que aun se admiten este tipo de "redundancias".Guarda para ti,como si fuera la joya del nilo,la viabilidad,utilidad e infalibilidad del tal concepto de "inteligencia" del lector : esta no existe si no va acompañada de una verdadera practica militante.
Saludos,querido

Autor: Gatopardo a mi admirado y querido Patxi

Suelo presuponer al lector la misma inteligencia que tengo yo, cosa que está muy lejos de situarla en un pedestal, aunque trate de evitarle maltratos innecesarios, como por ejemplo:
* vapuleárla repitiendo varias veces lo mismo.
* mezclar churras con merinas, porque una cosa es leer o escribir y otra es pasar y aprobar un examen, según la normativa que quiera establecer el autor, de la verdadera práctica del verdadero militante.
Para la buena marcha de esta polémica, he de advertir que gritar aquí o en la calle no es lo más inteligente que puedes hacer, cuando existe la posibilidad de tomar la palabra y explicar todo lo pormenorizadamente que quieras lo que opinas, argumentando todo lo que te apetezca.
Eso sí, te ruego que, sin poner mi inteligencia en un pedestal, trates de tenerla en cuenta como si fuera, al menos, igual a la tuya, que sé que es de las que comprenden cualquier razonamiento por muy somera que sea la explicación.
Y, querido y admirado Patxi, te ruego también que no caigas en la morbosa susceptibilidad de los apóstoles y los profetas imbuidos de mesianismo, porque estropea el cutis. Y no te perdonaría semejante atentado contra la belleza.

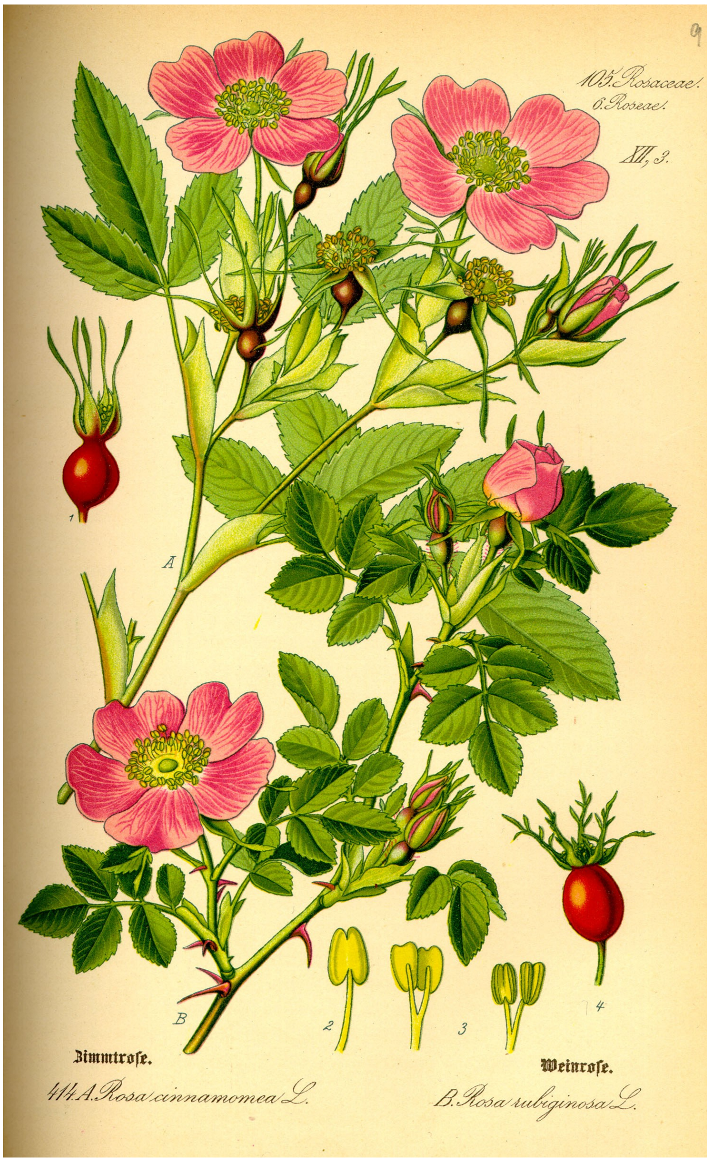
AGUA DE ROSAS



Los orientales siempre mostraron tanta predilección por la rosa como la que profesaban por el ruiseñor, del que se dice que habita entre sus perfumados emparrados. Avicena hizo sus primeros experimentos seleccionando la más olorosa de sus especies, la rosa centifolia, llamada por los árabes gul sad berk.

"La florecilla de cien pétalos que se abre cuando cae el rocío
y cada pétalo recibe su bálsamo."

Gracias a su habilidad consiguió producir el delicioso líquido conocido como agua de rosas (*), ماء ورد, cuya fórmula se halla en sus obras y en la de los posteriores químicos árabes. Pronto fue de uso común y, si creemos a los historiadores, y dicen que se fabricó en grandes cantidades, pues aquellos afirman que cuando Saladino entró en Jerusalén, en 1187, ungió enteramente la mezquita de Omar con agua de rosas.

El agua de rosas conserva en Oriente, aún hoy, gran reputación, y, cuando un extraño entra en una casa, el mejor obsequio de bienvenida que puede hacérsele es rociarlo con agua de rosas, mediante una vasija de cuello estrecho llamada gulabdan. A esta costumbre se refiere Byron en "The bride of Abydos":

"Tomó el frasco en que estaba mezclada la esencia persa de Atar-gul
y vertió su fragancia
sobre el artesonado policromo y el suelo de mármol.
Las gotas que la juguetona muchacha dirigió,
a través de la reluciente túnica de él, volaron inadvertidas sobre su seno, como si aquel pecho fuese también de mármol" (***)

Carsten Niebuhr, en Description of Arabia, habla también de esta costumbre, y cuenta que es divertido ver la reacción de desconcierto e, incluso, de irritación de algunos extranjeros al ser inesperadamente asperjados. Normalmente, se usa luego el incensario, dirigiendo el humo a las barbas y las ropas de los visitantes, como delicada alusión de que ya es hora de despedirse. **()
Según el mismo autor, los incensarios árabes están hechos de madera (seguramente, guarnecidos de metal) y cubiertos con caña trenzada ... El gulabdan o asperjador. **(*)

Eugene Rimmel: "El libro de los perfumes"

Notas al texto:

El agua de rosas es conveniente comprarla en farmacias y parafarmacias para estar seguros de que ha pasado los controles fitosanitaros, y no contiene pesticidas ni otros productos tóxicos.
Se puede elaborar de forma casera con petalos de rosas silvestres, preferentemente, en infusión de agua mineral. Se deja enfriar, se filtra y se guarda en un frasco de cristal opaco. Se aplica con un algodón o un vaporizador.
Hidrata y tónifica, es un excelente remedio para evitar la sequedad y la irritación de la piel, y la perfuma delicadamente.
Vaporizada como ambientador, o en un cuenco sobre el radiador, en invierno, el agua de rosas es un relajante elixir que ayuda a armonizar la emotividad.

And watched his eye — it still was fix'd:
She snatch'd the urn wherein was mix'd
The Persian Atar-gúl's perfume,
And sprinkled all its odours o'er
The pictured roof and marble floor:
The drops, that through his glittering vest
The playful girl's appeal address'd, Unheeded o'er his bosom flew,
As if that breast were marble too.
"What sullen yet? it must not be — Oh! gentle Selim, this from thee!"
She saw in curious order set
The fairest flowers of Eastern land —
"He loved them once; may touch them yet
If offer'd by Zuleika's hand."
The childish thought was hardly breathed
Before the Rose was pluck'd and wreathed;
The next fond moment saw her seat
Her fairy form at Selim's feet:
"This rose to calm my brother's cares
A message from the Bulbul bears;
It says to-night he will prolong
For Selim's ear his sweetest song;
And though his note is somewhat sad,
He'll try for once a strain more glad,
With some faint hope his alter'd lay
May sing these gloomy thoughts away.

CONTRA LOS CRÍMENES DE LESA HUMANIDAD: BOICOT A LOS PRODUCTOS DE ISRAEL

Nos hacemos eco de la campaña de identificación y boicot a los productos y empresas israelíes en el Estado español, y empresas españolas que comercian con Israel
CSCAweb (www.nodo50.org/csca)
Identifica y envía a csca@nodo50.org los datos de los productos y empresas israelíes, y de las empresas españolas que compran, venden o invierten en Israel
En CSCAweb está publicada una lista de productos israelíes que se comercializan en el Estado español y de empresas radicadas en España que son filiales de empresas israelíes o tienen participación de capital israelí, así como de empresas españolas que compran, venden o invierten en Israel.
Los productos israelíes pueden ser identificados en el mercado por los tres primeros dígitos de su código de barras -729- y las empresas, a través de internet y la propia actividad profesional.
Para su inclusión en CSCAweb, la información recogida puede enviarse a la dirección de e-mail csca@nodo50.org, remitiendo el mayor número de datos posibles sobre el producto (nombre con el que se comercializa, sector, lugares de venta, etc.) o la empresa (campo de actuación, dirección comercial, etc.).

Lo cual no es óbice para que recuerde que los dirigentes palestinos, a lo largo de los años, no han hecho otra cosa que lucrarse con las ayudas de la comunidad internacional, mientras dejaron en la mayor miseria, sin los servicios básicos ni las infraestructuras mínimas, a su pueblo. Y que son tan directamente responsables de estos crímenes como los terroristas dirigentes del Estado de Israel que dan las órdenes para aniquilar y masacrar sin discernimiento a la población civil palestina, rehén y víctima de los terroristas de Hamas, que no son mejores ni peores que sus enemigos. Pero lo que está en juego es la legalidad internacional, y sería bueno que el Tribunal Internacional de la Haya también extendiera las órdenes de busca y captura para los responsables de los crímenes de guerra cuando no son ignotos psicópatas que han perdido la guerra y ya no tienen poder.

Gatopardo

PD 10 de enero 2009

LLAMAMIENTO DE AMNISTÍA INTERNACIONAL:

Israel y los Territorios Palestinos Ocupados: ¡protejan a la población civil!

Los bombardeos de las fuerzas israelíes del los Territorios Palestinos Ocupados y el lanzamiento de cohetes hacia Israel por parte de grupos armados palestinos ha provocado una escalada de violencia en Israel y los Territorios Ocupados en la que ya se contabilizan cientos de víctimas.

Los muertos y heridos causados por el bombardeo israelí de la Franja de Gaza suman el mayor número de víctimas palestinas habidas en cuatro decenios de ocupación israelí. La escalada de violencia se produce en un momento en que la población civil libra una lucha diaria por la supervivencia debido al bloqueo israelí, que impide no sólo la entrada a Gaza de alimentos y medicinas sino la salida de los civiles palestinos que quieren huir de la zona del conflicto. Por otro lado, tanto los soldados israelíes como los combatientes palestinos están usando a civiles como escudos humanos, lo que pone en peligro aún mas a una población que ya carece de la debida atención médica, alimentos, medicinas, electricidad, agua y otros productos y servicios indispensables.
Como consecuencia del bloqueo israelí, el reciente alto el fuego que han mantenido durante cinco meses y medio Israel y Hamás y los demás grupos armados palestinos de Gaza no ha supuesto apenas ninguna mejora para la vida de los habitantes del territorio. El alto el fuego terminó en la práctica cuando, el 4 de noviembre, las fuerzas armadas israelíes mataron a seis radicales palestinos en Gaza y los grupos armados palestinos lanzaron un aluvión de cohetes contra ciudades y pueblos del sur de Israel. Amnistía Internacional condena todas estas muertes y considera que los abusos de una parte, por graves que sean, no pueden justificar jamás los del otro.

Cifras. Desde el 27 de diciembre hasta el 6 de enero, más de 500 palestinos perdieron la vida tras los ataques ilegales de Israel y más de 2000 civiles palestinos resultan heridos. Antes de que empezaran los bombardeos de Israel, el número de palestinos muertos a manos de las fuerzas israelíes en 2008 ascendía a unos 650, al menos una tercera parte de los cuales han sido civiles desarmados, incluidos 70 niños. En el mismo periodo, los grupos armados palestinos han matado a 25 israelíes, 16 de ellos civiles, incluidos 4 niños. En los últimos ocho años, la violencia entre palestinos e israelíes se ha cobrado la vida de unos 5.000 palestinos y 1.100 israelíes. La mayoría de las víctimas de ambos bandos han sido civiles desarmados, incluidos unos 900 niños palestinos y 120 israelíes.

Ayúdanos a pedir a las autoridades israelíes a que pongan inmediatamente fin a los ataques desproporcionados e ilegítimos sobre la franja de Gaza, de zonas residenciales altamente pobladas, que permitan el acceso de la ayuda humanitaria y el acceso de testigos imparciales en la zona.

Amiga,

Creo que el boicot que promueves es una medida válida para exigir primero una alto al fuego primero y después para perseguir y castigar a quienes cometan crímenes durante esta guerra.

Personalmente estoy convencido de que los terroristas de Hamas son peores que sus enemigos, que existen diferencias importantes entre unos y otros pero que por grandes o pequeñas que fueran no hacen menor el dolor y el sufrimiento del pueblo palestino que merece vivir con paz, con seguridad y prosperidad. Algo que también merece el pueblo de Israel.

Querido Ramón: El estado de Israel ha sometido a Gaza a un bloqueo de exterminio, negándoles la posibilidad de recibir víveres, medicamentos, ni ayuda médica desde hace años; contraviniendo todas las normas del Derecho Internacional Humanitario para una población rehén de los extremistas de Hamas; pero también de los sionistas.
En un conflicto bélico, sea de la naturaleza que sea, existen normas aprobadas internacionalmente en las Convenciones de Ginebra que tratan de asegurar la protección de las personas no participantes en hostilidades (población civil)o que han decidido dejar de participar en el enfrentamiento (prisioneros de guerra).

"El Derecho Internacional Humanitario a su vez, limita el uso de métodos de guerra y el empleo de medios utilizados en los conflictos, pero no determina si un país tiene derecho a recurrir a la fuerza, pues esto es regulado por la carta de Naciones Unidas."

Y que yo sepa, los crímenes de guerra lo son independientemente de quienes se consideren responsables del inicio del conflicto.

Todos tenemos derecho a vivir en paz y seguridad; y la mejor manera de alcanzar esta aspiración es el respeto escrupuloso de la legalidad, sin arrogarse el perverso derecho a la venganza y al exterminio de los enemigos inermes.
Y eso es algo que ha hecho Israel reiteradamente a lo largo de su historia.

JUAN RUIZ, ARCIPRESTE DE HITA: DE LAS PROPIEDADES QUE LAS DUEÑAS CHICAS AN

Quiero abreviar la predicaçión, que siempre me pagué de pequeño sermón,
e de dueña pequeña et de breve rasón,
ca poco et bien dicho afincase el corazón.
Del que mucho fabla ríen, quien mucho ríe, es loco es en la dueña chica amor et non poco, dueñas hay muy grandes, que por chicas non troco,
mas las chicas e las grandes, se repienten del troco.
De las chicas, que bien diga, el amor me fiso ruego, que diga de sus noblesas, yo quiero las desir luego,
desirvos he de dueñas chicas, que lo avredes por juego.
Son frías como la nieve, e arden como el fuego.
Son frías de fuera, con el amor ardientes, en la calle solás, trevejo, plasenteras, rientes, en casa cuerdas, donosas, sosegadas, bien fasientes, mucho ál y fallaredes a do bien paredes mientes.
En pequeña gergença yase grand resplandor, en açúcar muy poco yase mucho dulçor, en la dueña pequeña yase muy grand amor, pocas palabras cumplen al buen entendedor.
Es pequeño el grano de la buena pimienta, pero más que la nues conorta et calienta,

así dueña pequeña, si todo amor consienta, non ha plaser del mundo que en ella non sienta.
Como en chica rosa está mucho color, en oro muy poco grand preçio et grand valor,
como en poco blasmo yase grand buen olor,
ansí en dueña chica yase grand sabor.
Como robí pequeño tiene mucha bondat, color, virtud, e preçios, e noble claridad, ansí dueña pequeña tiene mucha beldat, fermosura, donayre, amor, et lealtad.
Chica es la calandria, et chico el ruyseñor, pero más dulçe canta, que otra ave mayor;
la muger, que es chica, por eso es mejor,
con doñeo es más dulçe, que açúcar nin flor.
Son aves pequeñas papagayo e orior, pero cualquier d’ellas es dulçe gritador, adonada, fermosa, preçiada, cantador,
bien atal es la dueña pequeña con amor.
De la muger pequeña non hay comparaçión, terrenal parayso es, e grand consolaçión, solás, et alegría, plaser, et bendiçión,
mejor es en la prueba, que en la salutaçión.
Siempre qu’es muger chica más que grande nin mayor,
non es desaguisado del grand mal ser foidor, del mal tomar, lo menos, díselo el sabidor, por ende de las mugeres la mejor es la menor. (1)

Juan Ruiz - Arcipreste de Hita (siglo XIV): del Libro de buen amor

así, en mujer pequeña, cuando en amor consienta, no hay placer en el mundo que en ella no se sienta.

Como en la chica rosa está mucho color,
Como en oro muy poco, gran precio y gran valor,
como en poco perfume yace muy buen olor,
así, mujer pequeña guarda muy gran amor.

Como rubí pequeño tiene mucha bondad, color virtud y precio, nobleza y claridad, así, la mujer chica tiene mucha beldad, hermosura y donaire, amor y lealtad.

Chica es la calandria y chico el ruiseñor, pero más dulce cantan que otra ave mayor;
la mujer, cuando es chica, por eso es aún mejor,
en amor es más dulce que azúcar y que flor.

Son aves pequeñuelas papagayo y orior, pero cualquiera de ellas es dulce cantador;
gracioso pajarillo, preciado trinador,
como ellos es la dama pequeña con amor.

Para mujer pequeña no hay comparación:
terrenal paraíso y gran consolación, recreo y alegría, placer y bendición,
mejor es en la prueba que en la salutación.

Siempre quise a la chica más que a grande o mayor;
¡escapar de un mal grande nunca ha sido un error!
Del mal tomar lo menos, dícelo el sabidor, por ello, entre mujeres, ¡la menor es mejor!

LEÓN TOLSTOI: LA MUERTE DE IVAN ILICH

I

Durante una pausa en el proceso Melvinski, en el vasto edificío de la Audiencia, los miembros del tribunal y el fiscal se reunieron en el despacho de Ivan Yegorovich Shebek y empezaron a hablar del célebre asunto Krasovski. Fyodor Vasilyevich declaró acaloradamente que no entraba en la jurisdicción del tribunal, Ivan Yegorovich sostuvo lo contrario, en tanto que Pyotr Ivanovich, que no había entrado en la discusión al principio, no tomó pante en ella y echaba una ojeada a la Gaceta que acababan de entregarle.
-¡Señores! -exclamó- ¡Ivan Ilich ha muerto!
-¿De veras?
-Ahí está. Léalo -dijo a Fyodor Vasilyevich, alargándole el periódico que, húmedo, olía aún a la tinta reciente.
Enmarcada en una orla negra figuraba la siguiente noticia: «Con profundo pesar Praskovya Fyodorovna Golovina comunica a sus parientes y amigos el fallecimiento de su amado esposo Ivan Ilich Golovin, miembro del Tribunal de justicia, ocurrido el 4 de febrero de este año de 1882. El traslado del cadáver tendrá lugar el viernes a la una de la tarde.»
Ivan Ilích había sido colega de los señores allí reunidos y muy apreciado de ellos. Había estado enfermo durante algunas semanas y de una enfermedad que se decía incurable. Se le había reservado el cargo, pero se conjeturaba que, en caso de que falleciera, se nombraría a Alekseyev para ocupar la vacante, y que el puesto de Alekseyev pasaría a Vinnikov o a Shtabel. Así pues, al recibir la noticia de la muerte de Ivan Ilich lo primero en que pensaron los señores reunidos en el despacho fue en lo que esa muerte podría acarrear en cuanto a cambios o ascensos entre ellos o sus conocidos.
«Ahora, de seguro, obtendré el puesto de Shtabel o de Vinnikov -se decía Fyodor Vasilyevich-. Me lo tienen prometido desde hace mucho tiempo; y el ascenso me supondrá una subida de sueldo de ochocientos rublos, sin contar la bonificación.»

«Ahora es preciso solicitar que trasladen a mi cuñado de Kaluga -pensaba Pyotr Ivanovich-. Mi mujer se pondrá muy contenta. Ya no podrá decir que no hago maldita la cosa por sus parientes.»
-Yo ya me figuraba que no se levantaría de la cama -dijo en voz alta Pyotr Ivanovich-. ¡Lástima!
-Pero, vamos a ver, ¿qué es lo que tenía?
-Los médicos no pudieron diagnosticar la enfermedad; mejor dicho, sí la diagnosticaron, pero cada uno de manera distinta. La última vez que lo vi pensé que estaba mejor.
-¡Y yo, que no pasé a verlo desde las vacaciones! Aunque siempre estuve por hacerlo.
-Y qué, ¿ha dejado algún capital?
-Por lo visto su mujer tenía algo, pero sólo una cantidad ínfima.
-Bueno, habrá que visitarla. ¡Aunque hay que ver lo lejos que viven!
-O sea, lejos de usted. De usted todo está lejos.
-Ya ve que no me perdona que viva al otro lado del río -dijo sonriendo Pyotr Ivanovich a Shebek. Y hablando de las grandes distancias entre las diversas partes de la ciudad volvieron a la sala del Tribunal.
Aparte de las conjeturas sobre los posibles traslados y ascensos que podrían resultar del fallecimiento de Ivan Ilich, el sencillo hecho de enterarse de la muerte de un allegado suscitaba en los presentes, como siempre ocurre, una sensación de complacencia, a saber: «el muerto es él; no soy yo».
Cada uno de ellos pensaba o sentía: «Pues sí, él ha muerto, pero yo estoy vivo.» Los conocidos más íntimos, los amigos de Ivan Ilich, por así decirlo, no podían menos de pensar también que ahora habría que cumplir con el muy fastidioso deber, impuesto por el decoro, de asistir al funeral y hacer una visita de pésame a la viuda.
Los amigos más allegados habían sido Fyodor Vasilyevich y Pyotr Ivanovich. Pyotr Ivanovich había estudiado Leyes con Ivan Ilich y consideraba que le estaba agradecido. Habiendo dado a su mujer durante la comida la noticia de la muerte de Ivan Ilich y cavilando sobre la posibilidad de trasladar a su cuñado a su partido judicial, Pyotr Ivanovich, sin dormir la siesta, se puso el frac y fue a casa de Ivan Ilich.
A la entrada vio una carroza y dos trineos de punto. Abajo, junto a la percha del vestíbulo, estaba apoyada a la pared la tapa del féretro cubierta de brocado y adornada de borlas y galones recién lustrados. Dos señoras de luto se quitaban los abrigos. Pyotr Ivanovich reconoció a una de ellas, hermana de Ivan Ilich, pero la otra le era desconocida, Su colega, Schwartz, bajaba en ese momento, pero al ver entrar a Pyotr Ivanovich desde el escalón de arriba, se detuvo a hizo un guiño como para decir: «Valiente lío ha armado Ivan Ilich; a usted y a mí no nos pasaría lo mismo.»
El rostro de Schwartz con sus patillas a la inglesa y su cuerpo flaco embutido en el frac, tenía su habitual aspecto de elegante solemnidad que no cuadraba con su carácter jocoso, que ahora y en ese lugar tenía especial enjundia; o así le pareció a Pyotr Ivanovich.
Pyotr Ivanovich dejó pasar a las señoras y tras ellas subió despacio la escalera. Schwartz no bajó, sino que permaneció donde estaba. Pyotr Ivanovich sabía por qué: porque quería concertar con él dónde jugarían a las cartas esa noche. Las señoras subieron a reunirse con la viuda, y Schwartz, con labios severamente apretados y ojos retozones, indicó a Pyotr Ivanovich levantando una ceja el aposento a la derecha donde se encontraba el cadáver.
Como sucede siempre en ocasiones semejantes, Pyotr Ivanovich entró sin saber a punto fijo lo que tenía que hacer. Lo único que sabía era que en tales circunstancias no estaría de más santiguarse. Pero no estaba enteramente seguro de si además de eso había que hacer también una reverencia. Así pues, adoptó un término medio, Al entrar en la habitación empezó a santiguarse y a hacer como si fuera a inclinarse. Al mismo tiempo, en la medida en que se lo permitían los movimientos de la mano y la cabeza, examinó la habitación. Dos jóvenes, sobrinos al parecer -uno de ellos estudiante de secundaria-, salían de ella santiguándose. Una anciana estaba de pie, inmóvil, mientras una señora de cejas curiosamente arqueadas le decía algo al oído. Un sacristán vigoroso y resuelto, vestido de levita, leía algo en alta voz con expresión que excluía toda réplica posible. Gerasim, ayudante del mayordomo, cruzó con paso ingrávido por delante de Pyotr Ivanovich esparciendo algo por el suelo. Al ver tal cosa, Pyotr Ivanovich notó al momento el ligero olor de un cuerpo en descomposición. En su última visita a Ivan Rich, Pyotr Ivanovich había visto a Gerasim en el despacho; hacía el papel de enfermero, a Ivan Ilich le tenía mucho aprecio. Pyotr Ivanovich continuó santiguándose a inclinando levemente la cabeza en una dirección intermedia entre el cadáver, el sacristán y los iconos expuestos en una mesa en el rincón. Más tarde, cuando le pareció que el movimiento del brazo al hacer la señal de la cruz se había prolongado más de lo conveniente, cesó de hacerlo y se puso a mirar el cadáver.

El muerto yacía, como siempre yacen los muertos, de manera especialmente grávida, con los miembros rígidos hundidos en los blandos cojines del ataúd y con la cabeza sumida para siempre en la almohada. Al igual que suele ocurrir con los muertos, abultaba su frente, amarilla como la cera y con rodales calvos en las sienes hundidas, y sobresalía su nariz como si hiciera presión sobre el labio superior. Había cambiado mucho y enflaquecido aún más desde la última vez que Pyotr Ivanovích lo había visto; pero, como sucede con todos los muertos, su rostro era más agraciado y, sobre todo, más expresivo de lo que había sido en vida. La expresión de ese rostro quería decir que lo que hubo que hacer quedaba hecho y bien hecho. Por añadidura, ese semblante expresaba un reproche y una advertencia para los vivos. A Pyotr Ivanovich esa advertencia le parecía inoportuna o, por lo menos, inaplicable a él. Y como no se sentía a gusto se santiguó de prisa una vez más, giró sobre los talones y se dirigió a la puerta -demasiado a la ligera según él mismo reconocía, y de manera contraria al decoro.
Schwartz, con los pies separados y las manos a la espalda, le esperaba en la habitación de paso jugando con el sombrero de copa. Una simple mirada a esa figura jocosa, pulcra y elegante bastó para refrescar a Pyotr Ivanovích. Diose éste cuenta de que Schwartz estaba por encima de todo aquello y no se rendía a ninguna influencia deprimente. Su mismo aspecto sugería que el incidente del funeral de Ivan Ilich no podía ser motivo suficiente para juzgar infringido el orden del día, o, dicho de otro modo, que nada podría impedirle abrir y barajar un mazo de naipes esa noche, mientras un criado colocaba cuatro nuevas bujías en la mesa; que, en realidad, no había por qué suponer que ese incidente pudiera estorbar que pasaran la velada muy ricamente. Dijo esto en un susurro a Pyotr Ivanovich cuando pasó junto a él, proponiéndole que se reuniesen a jugar en casa de Fyodor Vasilyevich. Pero, por lo visto, Pyotr Ivanovich no estaba destinado a jugar al vint esa noche.
Praskovya Fyodorovna (mujer gorda y corta de talla que, a pesar de sus esfuerzos por evitarlo, había seguido ensanchándose de los hombros para abajo y tenía las cejas tan extrañamente arqueadas como la señora que estaba junto al féretro), toda de luto, con un velo de encaje en la cabeza, salió de su propio cuarto con otras señóras y, acompañándolas a la habitación en que estaba el cadáver, dijo:
-El oficio comenzará en seguida. Entren, por favor.
Schwartz, haciendo una imprecisa reverencia, se detuvo, al parecer sin aceptar ni rehusar tal invitación. Praskovya Fyodorovna, al reconocer a Pyotr Ivanovich, suspiró, se acercó a él, le tomó una mano y dijo:
-Sé que fue usted un verdadero amigo de Ivan Ilich... -y le miró, esperando de él una respuesta apropiada a esas palabras.
Pyotr Ivanovich sabía que, por lo mismo que había sido necesario santiguarse en la otra habitación, era aquí necesario estrechar esa mano, suspirar y decir: «Créame...» Y así lo hizo. Y habiéndolo hecho tuvo la sensación de que se había conseguido el propósito deseado: ambos se sintieron conmovidos.

-Venga conmigo. Necesito hablarle antes de que empiece -dijo la viuda-. Déme su brazo.
Pyotr Ivanovich le dio el brazo y se encaminaron a las habitaciones interiores, pasando junto a Schwartz, que hizo un guíño pesaroso a Pyotr Ivanovich. «Ahí se queda nuestro vint. No se ofenda si encontramos a otro jugador. Quizá podamos ser cinco cuando usted se escape -decía su mirada juguetona.

Pyotr Ivanovich suspiró aún más honda y tristemente y Praskovya Fyodorovna, agradecida, le dio un apretón en el brazo. Cuando llegaron a la sala tapizada de cretona color de rosa y alumbrada por una lámpara mortecina se sentaron a la mesa: ella en un sofá y él en una otomana baja cuyos muelles se resintieron convulsamente bajo su cuerpo. Praskovya Fyodorovna estuvo a punto de advertirle que tomara otro asiento, pero juzgando que tal advertencia no correspondía debidamente a su condición actual cambió de aviso. Al sentarse en la otomana Pyotr Ivanovich recordó que Ivan Ilich había arreglado esa habitación y le había consultado acerca de la cretona color de rosa con hojas verdes. Al ir a sentarse en el sofá (la sala entera estaba repleta de muebles y chucherías) el velo de encaje negro de la viuda quedó enganchado en el entallado de la mesa. Pyotr Ivanovich se levantó para desengancharlo, y los muelles de la otomana, liberados de su peso, se levantaron al par que él y le dieron un empellón. La viuda, a su vez, empezó a desenganchar el velo y Pyotr Ivanovich volvió a sentarse, comprimiendo de nuevo la indócil otomana. Pero la viuda no se había desasido por completo y Pyotr volvió a levantarse, con lo que la otomana volvió a sublevarse a incluso a emitir crujidos. Cuando acabó todo aquello la viuda sacó un pañuelo de batista limpio y empezó a llorar. Pero el lance del velo y la lucha con la otomana habían enfriado a Pyotr Ivanovich, quien permaneció sentado con cara de vinagre. Esta situación embarazosa fue interrumpida por Sokolov, el mayordomo de Ivan Ilich, quien vino con el aviso de que la parcela que en el cementerio había escogido Praskovya Fyodorovna costaría doscientos rublos. Ella cesó de llorar y mirando a Pyotr Ivanovich con ojos de víctima le hizo saber en francés lo penoso que le resultaba todo aquello. Pyotr Ivanovich, con un ademán tácito, confirmó que indudablemente no podía ser de otro modo.
-Fume, por favor -dijo ella con voz a la vez magnánima y quebrada; y se volvió para hablar con Sokolov del precio de la parcela para la sepultura.
Mientras fumaba, Pyotr Ivanovich le oyó preguntar muy detalladamente por los precios de diversas parcelas y decidir al cabo con cuál de ellas se quedaría. Sokolov salió de la habitación.

-Yo misma me ocupo de todo -dijo ella a Pyotr Ivanovich apartando a un lado los álbumes que había en la mesa. Y al notar que con la ceniza del cigarrillo esa mesa corría peligro le alargó al momento un cenicero al tiempo que decía:
-Considero que es afectación decir que la pena me impide ocuparme de asuntos prácticos. Al contrario, si algo puede... no digo consolarme, sino distraerme, en lo concerniente a eso...
Volvió a sacar el pañuelo como si estuviera a punto de llorar, pero de pronto, como sobreponiéndose, se sacudió y empezó a hablar con calma:
-Hay algo, sin embargo, de que quiero hablarle.
Pyotr Ivanovich se inclinó, pero sin permitir que se amotinasen los muelles de la otomana, que ya habían empezado a vibrar bajo su cuerpo.
-En estos últimos días ha sufrido terriblemente.
-¿De veras? -preguntó Pyotr Ivanovich.
-¡Oh, sí, terriblemente! Estuvo gritando sin cesar, y no durante minutos, sino durante horas. Tres días seguidos estuvo gritando sin parar. Era intolerable. No sé cómo he podido soportarlo. Se le podía oír con tres puertas de por medio. ¡Ay, cuánto he sufrido!
-¿Pero es posible que estuviera consciente durante ese tiempo? -preguntó Pyotr Ivanovich.
-Sí -murmuró ella-. Hasta el último momento. Se despidió de nosotros un cuarto de hora antes de morir y hasta dijo que nos lleváramos a Volodya de allí.
El pensar en los padecimientos de un hombre a quien había conocido tan íntimamente, primero como chicuelo alegre, luego como condiscípulo y más tarde, ya crecido, como colega horrorizó de pronto a Pyotr Ivanovich, a pesar de tener que admitir con desgana que tanto él como esa mujer estaban fingiendo. Volvió a ver esa frente y esa nariz que hacía presión sobre el labio, y tuvo miedo. «¡Tres días de horribles sufrimientos y luego la muerte! ¡Pero si eso puede también ocurrirme a mí de repente, ahora mismo!» -pensó, y durante un momento quedó espantado. Pero en seguida, sin saber por qué, vino en su ayuda la noción habitual, a saber, que eso le había pasado a Ivan Ilich y no a él, que eso no debería ni podría pasarle a él, y que pensar de otro modo sería dar pie a la depresión, cosa que había que evitar, como demostraba claramente el rostro de Schwartz. Y habiendo reflexionado de esa suerte, Pyotr Ivanovich se tranquilizó y empezó a pedir con interés detalles de la muerte de Ivan Ilich, ni más ni menos que si esa muerte hubiese sido un accidente propio sólo de Ivan Ilích, pero en ningún caso de él.
Después de dar varios detalles acerca de los dolores físicos realmente horribles que había sufrido Ivan Ilich (detalles que Pyotr Ivanovich pudo calibrar sólo por su efecto en lòs nervios de Praskovya Fyodorovna), la viuda al parecer juzgó necesario entrar en materia.
-¡Ay, Pyotr Ivanovich, qué angustioso! ¡Qué terriblemente angustioso, qué terriblemente angustioso! - Y de nuevo rompió a llorar.
Pyotr Ivanovich suspiró y aguardó a que ella se limpiase la nariz. Cuando lo hizo, dijo él:
-Créame... -y ella empezó a hablar otra vez de lo que claramente era el asunto principal que con él quería ventilar, a saber, cómo podría obtener dinero del fisco con motivo de la muerte de su marido. Praskovya Fyodorovna hizo como sí pidiera a Pyotr Ivanovich consejo acerca de su pensión, pero él vio que ella ya sabía eso hasta en sus más mínimos detalles, mucho más de lo que él sabía; que ella ya sabía todo lo que se le podía sacar al fisco a consecuencia de esa muerte; y que lo que quería saber era si se le podía sacar más.
Pyotr Ivanovich trató de pensar en algún medio para lograrlo, pero tras dar vueltas al caso y, por cumplir, criticar al gobierno por su tacañería dijo que, a su parecer, no se podía obtener más. Entonces ella suspiró y evidentemente empezó a buscar el modo de deshacerse de su visitante. Él se dio cuenta de ello, apagó el cigarrillo, se levantó, estrechó la mano de la señora y salió a la antesala.

En el comedor, donde estaba el reloj que tanto gustaba a Ivan Ilich, quien lo había comprado en una tienda de antigüedades, Pyotr Ivanovich encontró a un sacerdote y a unos cuantos conocidos que habían venido para asistir al oficio, y vio también a la hija joven y guapa de Ivan Ilich, a quien ya conocía. Estaba de luto riguroso, y su cuerpo delgado parecía aún más delgado que nunca. La expresión de su rostro era sombría, denodada, casi iracunda. Saludó a Pyotr Ivanovich como sí él tuviera la culpa de algo. Detrás de ella, con la misma expresión agraviada, estaba un juez de instrucción conocido de Pyotr Ivanovich, un joven rico que, según se decía, era el prometido de la muchacha. Pyotr Ivanovich se inclinó melancólicamente ante ellos y estaba a punto de pasar a la cámara mortuoria cuando de debajo de la escalera surgió la figura del hijo de Ivan Ilich, estudiante de instituto, que se parecía increiblemente a su padre. Era un pequeño Ivan Ilich, igual al que Pyotr Ivanovich recordaba cuando ambos estudiaban Derecho. Tenía los ojos llorosos, con una expresión como la que tienen los muchachos viciosos de trece o catorce años. Al ver a Pyotr Ivanovich, el muchacho arrugó el ceño con empacho y hosquedad. Pyotr Ivanovich le saludó con una inclinación de cabeza y entró en la cámara mortuoria. Había empezado el oficio de difuntos: velas, gemidos, incienso, lágrimas, sollozos. Pyotr Ivanovich estaba de pie, mirándose sombríamente los zapatos, No miró al muerto una sola vez, ni se rindió a las influencias depresivas, y fue de los primeros en salir de allí. No había nadie en la antesala. Gerasim salió de un brinco de la habitación del muerto, revolvió con sus manos vigorosas entre los amontonados abrigos de pieles, encontró el de Pyotr Ivanovich y le ayudó a ponérselo.
-¿Qué hay, amigo Gerasim? -preguntó Pyotr Ivanovich por decir algo-. ¡Qué lástima! ¿Verdad?
-Es la voluntad de Dios. Por ahí pasaremos todos -contestó Gerasim mostrando sus dientes blancos, iguales, dientes de campesino, y como hombre ocupado en un trabajo urgente abrió de prisa la puerta, llamó al cochero, ayudó a Pyotr Ivanovich a subir al trineo y volvió de un salto a la entrada de la casa, como pensando en algo que aún tenía que hacer.
A Pyotr Ivanovich le resultó especialmente agradable respirar aire fresco después del olor del incienso, el cadáver y el ácido carbólíco.
-¿A dónde, señor? -preguntó el cochero.
-No es tarde todavía... Me pasaré por casa de Fyodor Vasilyevich.
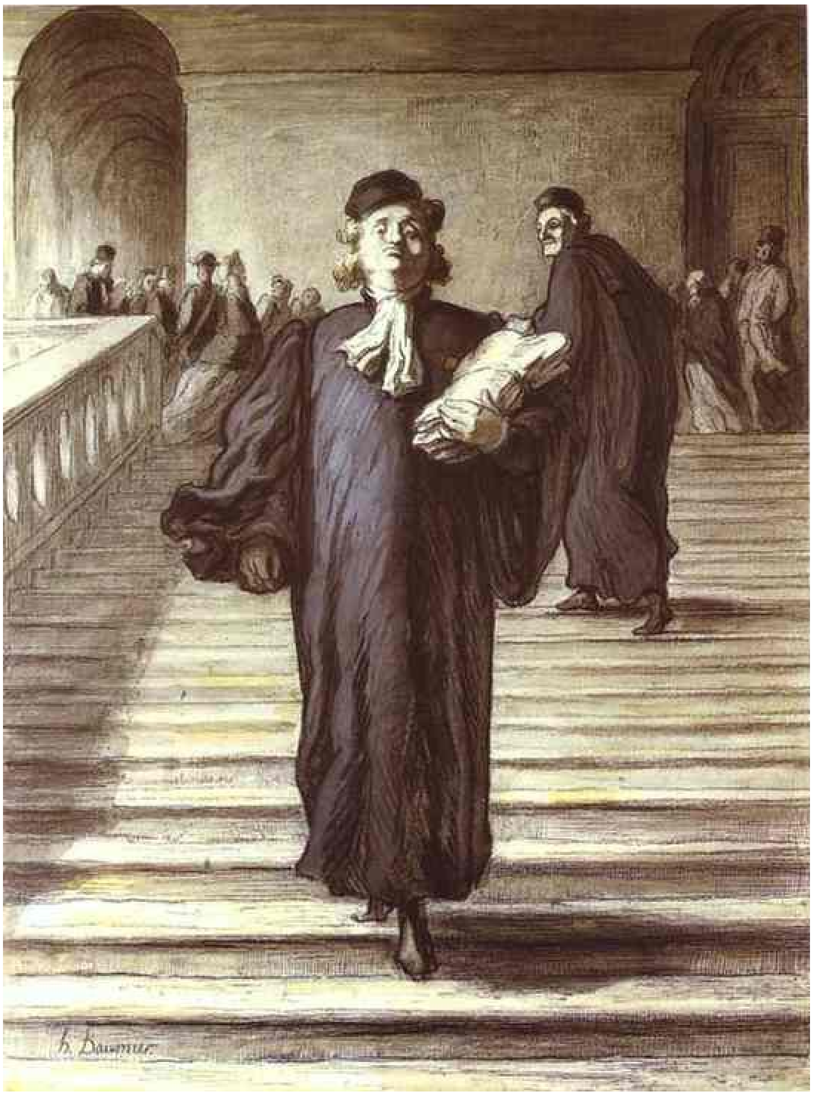
Y Pyotr Ivanovich fue allá y, en efecto, los halló a punto de terminar la primera mano; y así, pues, no hubo inconveniente en que entrase en la partida.



II

La historia de la vida de Ivan Ilich había sido sencillísima y ordinaria, y terrible en extremo. Había sido miembro del Tribunal de justicia y había muerto a los cuarenta y cinco años de edad. Su padre había sido funcionario público que había servido en diversos ministerios y negociados y hecho la carrera propia de individuos que, aunque notoriamente incapaces para desempeñar cargos importantes, no pueden ser despedidos a causa de sus muchos años de servicio; al contrario, para tales individuos se inventan cargos ficticios y sueldos nada ficticios de entre seis y diez mil rublos, con los cuales viven hasta una avanzada edad.
Tal era Ilya Yefimovich Golovin, Consejero Privado e inútil miembro de varios organismos inútiles.
Tenía tres hijos y una hija. Ivan Ilich era el segundo. El mayor seguía la misma carrera que el padre aunque en otro ministerio, y se acercaba ya rápidamente a la etapa del servicio en que se percibe automáticamente ese sueldo. El tercer hijo era un desgraciado. Había fracasado en varios empleos y ahora trabajaba en los ferrocarriles. Su padre, sus hermanos y, en particular, las mujeres de éstos no sólo evitaban encontrarse con él, sino que olvidaban que existía salvo en casos de absoluta necesidad. La hija estaba casada con el barón Greff, funcionario de Petersburgo del mismo género que su suegro.
Ivan Ilich era el fénix de la familia, como decía la gente. No era tan frío y estirado como el hermano mayor ni tan frenético como el menor, sino un término medio entre ambos: listo, vivaz, agradable y discreto. Había estudiado en la Facultad de Derecho con su hermano menor, pero éste no había acabado la carrera por haber sido expulsado en el quinto año. Ivan Ilich, al contrario, había concluido bien sus estudios. Era ya en la facultad lo que sería en el resto de su vida: capaz, alegre, benévolo y sociable, aunque estricto en el cumplimiento de lo que consideraba su deber; y, según él, era deber todo aquello que sus superiores jerárquicos consideraban como tal. No había sido servil ni de muchacho ni de hombre, pero desde sus años mozos se había sentido atraído, como la mosca a la luz, por las gentes de elevada posición social, apropiándose sus modos de obrar y su filosofía de la vida y trabando con ellos relaciones amistosas. Había dejado atrás todos los entusiasmos de su niñez y mocedad, de los que apenas quedaban restos, se había entregado a la sensualidad y la soberbia y, por último, como en las clases altas, al liberalismo, pero siempre dentro de determinados límites que su instinto le marcaba puntualmente.

En la facultad hizo cosas que anteriormente le habían parecido sumamente reprobables y que le causaron repugnancia de sí mismo en el momento mismo de hacerlas; pero más tarde, cuando vio que tales cosas las hacía también gente de alta condición social que no las juzgaba ruines, no llegó precisamente a darlas por buenas, pero sí las olvidó por completo o se acordaba de ellas sin sonrojo. Al terminar sus estudios en la facultad y habilitarse para la décima categoría de la administración pública, y habiendo recibido de su padre dinero para equiparse, Ivan Ilich se encargó ropa en la conocida sastrería de Scharmer, colgó en la cadena del reloj una medalla con el lema respice finem, se despidió de su profesor y del príncipe patrón de la facultad, tuvo una cena de despedida con sus compañeros en el restaurante Donon, y con su nueva maleta muy a la moda, su ropa blanca, su traje, sus utensilios de afeitar y adminículos de tocador, su manta de viaje, todo ello adquirido en las mejores tiendas, partió para una de las provincias donde, por influencia de su padre, iba a ocupar el cargo de ayudante del gobernador para servicios especiales.
En la provincia Ivan Ilich pronto se agenció una posición tan fácil y agradable como la que había tenido en la Facultad de Derecho. Cumplía con sus obligaciones y fue haciéndose una carrera, a la vez que se divertía agradable y decorosamente. De vez en cuando salía a hacer visitas oficiales por el distrito, se comportaba dignamente con sus superiores e inferiores -de lo que no podía menos de enorgullecerse- y desempeñaba con rigor y honradez incorruptible los menesteres que le estaban confiados, que en su mayoría tenían que ver con los disidentes religiosos.
No obstante su juventud y propensión a la jovialidad frívola, era notablemente reservado, exigente y hasta severo en asuntos oficiales; pero en la vida social se mostraba a menudo festivo e ingenioso, y siempre benévolo, correcto y bon enfant, como decían de él el gobernador y su esposa, quienes le trataban como miembro de la familia.
En la provincia tuvo amoríos con una señora deseosa de ligarse con el joven y elegante abogado; hubo también una modista; hubo asimismo juergas con los edecanes que visitaban el distrito y, después de la cena, visitas a calles sospechosas de los arrabales; y hubo, por fin, su tanto de coba al gobernador y su esposa, pero todo ello efectuado con tan exquisito decoro que no cabía aplicarle calificativos desagradables. Todo ello podría colocarse bajo la conocida rúbrica francesa: Il faut que jeunesse se passe. Todo ello se llevaba a cabo con manos limpias, en camisas limpias, con palabras francesas y, sobre todo, en la mejor sociedad y, por ende, con la aprobación de personas de la más distinguida condición.
De ese modo sirvió Ivan Ilich cinco años hasta que se produjo un cambio en su situación oficial. Se crearon nuevas instituciones judiciales y hubo necesidad para ellas de nuevos funcionarios. Ivan Ilich fue uno de ellos. Se le ofreció el cargo de juez de instrucción y lo aceptó, a pesar de que estaba en otra provincia y le obligaba a abandonar las relaciones que había establecido y establecer otras. Los amigos se reunieron para despedirle, se hicieron con él una fotografía en grupo y le regalaron una pitillera de plata. E Ivan Ilich partió para su nueva colocación.

En el cargo de juez de instrucción Ivan Ilich fue tan comme il faut y decoroso como lo había sido cuando estuvo de ayudante para servicios especiales: se ganó el respeto general y supo separar sus deberes judiciales de lo concerniente a su vida privada. Las funciones mismas de juez de instrucción le resultaban muchísimo más interesantes y atractivas que su trabajo anterior. En ese trabajo anterior lo agradable había sido ponerse el uniforme confeccionado por Scharmer y pasar con despreocupado continente por entre los solicitantes y funcionarios que, aguardando temerosos la audiencia con el gobernador, le envidiaban por entrar directamente en el despacho de éste y tomar el té y fumarse un cigarrillo con él. Pero personas que dependían directamente de él había habido pocas: sólo jefes de policía y disidentes religiosos cuando lo enviaban en misiones especiales, y a esas personas las trataba cortésmente, casi como a camaradas, como haciéndoles creer que, siendo capaz de aplastarlas, las trataba sencilla y amistosamente. Pero ahora, como juez de instrucción, Ivan Ilich veía que todas ellas -todas ellas sin excepción-,incluso las más importantes y engreídas, estaban en sus manos, y que con sólo escribir unas palabras en una hoja de papel con cierto membrete tal o cual individuo importante y engreído sería conducido ante él en calidad de acusado o de testigo; y que si decidía que el tal individuo no se sentase lo tendría de pie ante él contestando a sus preguntas. Ivan Ilich nunca abusó de esas atribuciones; muy al contrario, trató de suavizarlas; pero la conciencia de poseerlas y la posibilidad de suavizarlas constituían para él el interés cardinal y el atractivo de su nuevo cargo. En su trabajo, especialmente en la instrucción de los sumarios, Ivan Ilich adoptó pronto el método de eliminar todas las circunstancias ajenas al caso y de condensarlo, por complicado que fuese, en forma que se presentase por escrito sólo en sus aspectos externos, con exclusión completa de su opinión personal y, sobre todo, respetando todos los formalismos necesarios. Este género de trabajo era nuevo, e Ivan Ilich fue uno de los primeros funcionarios en aplicar el nuevo Código de 1864.
Al asumir el cargo de juez de instrucción en una nueva localidad Ivan Ilich hizo nuevas amistades y estableció nuevas relaciones, se instaló de forma diferente de la anterior y cambió perceptiblemente de tono. Asumió una actitud de discreto y digno alejamiento de las autoridades provinciales, pero sí escogió el mejor círculo de juristas y nobles ricos de la ciudad y adoptó una actitud de ligero descontento con el gobierno, de liberalismo moderado e ilustrada ciudadanía. Por lo demás, no alteró en lo más mínimo la elegancia de su atavío, cesó de afeitarse el mentón y dejó crecer libremente la barba.
La vida de Ivan Ilich en esa nueva ciudad tomó un cariz muy agradable. La sociedad de allí, que tendía a oponerse al gobernador, era buena y amistosa, su sueldo era mayor y empezó a jugar al vint, juego que por aquellas fechas incrementó bastante los placeres de su vida, pues era diestro en el manejo de las cartas, jugaba con gusto, calculaba con rapidez y astucia y ganaba por lo general.
Al cabo de dos años de vivir en la nueva ciudad, Ivan Ilich conoció a la que había de ser su esposa. Praskovya Fyodorovna Mihel era la muchacha más atractiva, lista y brillante del círculo que él frecuentaba. Y entre pasatiempos y ratos de descanso de su trabajo judicial Ivan Ilich entabló relaciones ligeras y festivas con ella.
Cuando había sido funcionario para servicios especiales Ivan Ilich se había habituado a bailar, pero ahora, como juez de instrucción, bailaba sólo muy de tarde en tarde. También bailaba ahora con el fin de demostrar que, aunque servía bajo las nuevas instituciones y había ascendido a la quinta categoría de la administración pública, en lo tocante a bailar podía dar quince y raya a casi todos los demás. Así pues, de cuando en cuando, al final de una velada, bailaba con Praskovya Fyodorovna, y fue sobre todo durante esos bailes cuando la conquistó. Ella se enamoró de él. Ivan Ilich no tenía intención clara y precisa de casarse, pero cuando la muchacha se enamoró de él se dijo a sí mismo: «Al fin y al cabo ¿por qué no casarme?» Praskovya Fyodorovna, de buena familia hidalga, era bastante guapa y tenía algunos bienes. Ivan Ilichhubiera podido aspirar a un partido más brillante, pero incluso éste era bueno. Él contaba con su sueldo y ella -así lo esperaba él- tendría ingresos semejantes., era de buena familia, simpática, bonita y perfectamente honesta. Decir que Ivan Ilich se casó por estar enamorado de ella y encontrar que ella simpatizaba con su visión de la vida habría sido tan injusto como decir que se había casado porque el círculo social que frecuentaba daba su visto bueno a esa unión. Ivan Ilich se casó por ambas razones: sentía sumo agrado en adquirir semejante esposa, a la vez que hacía lo que consideraban correcto sus más empingorotadas amistades.

Y así, pues, Ivan Ilich se casó.
Los preparativos para la boda y el comienzo de la vida matrimonial, con las caricias conyugales, el flamante mobiliario, la vajilla nueva, la nueva lencería... todo ello transcurrió muy gustosamente hasta el embarazo de su mujer; tanto así que Ivan Ilich empezó a creer que el matrimonio no sólo no perturbaría el carácter cómodo, placentero, alegre y siempre decoroso de su vida, aprobado por la sociedad y considerado por él como natural, sino que, al contrario, lo acentuaría. Pero he aquí que, desde los primeros meses del embarazo de su mujer, surgió algo nuevo, inesperado, desagradable, penoso e indecoroso, imposible de comprender y evitar. Sin motivo alguno, en opinión de Ivan Ilich -de gaieté de coeur como se decía a sí mismo-, su mujer comenzó a perturbar el placer y decoro de su vida. Sin razón alguna comenzó a tener celos de él, le exigía atención constante, le censuraba por cualquier cosa y le enzarzaba en disputas enojosas y groseras.
Al principio Ivan Ilich esperaba zafarse de lo molesto de tal situación por medio de la misma fácil y decorosa relación con la vida que tan bien le había servido anteriormente: trató de no hacer caso de la disposición de ánimo de su mujer, continuó viviendo como antes, ligera y agradablemente, invitaba a los amigos a jugar a las cartas en su casa y trató asimismo de frecuentar el club o visitar a sus conocidos. Pero un día su mujer comenzó a vituperarle con tal brío y palabras tan soeces, y siguió injuriándole cada vez que no atendía a sus exigencias, con el fin evidente de no cejar hasta que él cediese, o sea, hasta que se quedase en casa víctima del mismo aburrimiento que ella sufría, que Ivan Ilich se asustó. Ahora comprendió que el matrimonio -al menos con una mujer como la suya- no siempre contribuía a fomentar el decoro y la amenidad de la vida, sino que, al contrario, estorbaba el logro de ambas cualidades, por lo que era preciso protegerse de semejante estorbo. Ivan Ilich, pues, comenzó a buscar medios de lograrlo. Uno de los que cabía imponer a Praskovya Fyodorovna eran sus funciones judiciales, e Ivan Ilich, apelando a éstas y a los deberes anejos a ellas, empezó a bregar con su mujer y a defender su propia independencia.
Con el nacimiento de un niño, los intentos de alimentarlo debidamente y los diversos fracasos en conseguirlo, así como con las dolencias reales e imaginarias del niño y la madre en las que se exigía la compasión de Ivan Ilich -aunque él no entendía pizca de ello-, la necesidad que sentía éste de crearse una existencia fuera de la familia se hizo aún más imperiosa.
A medida que su mujer se volvía más irritable y exigente, Ivan Ilich fue desplazando su centro de gravedad de la familia a su trabajo oficial. Se encariñaba cada vez más con ese trabajo y acabó siendo aún más ambicioso que antes. Muy pronto, antes de cumplirse el primer aniversario de su casamiento, Ivan Ilich cayó en la cuenta de que el matrimonio, aunque aportaba algunas comodidades a la vida, era de hecho un estado sumamente complicado y difícil, frente al cual -si era menester cumplir con su deber, o sea, llevar una vida decorosa aprobada por la sociedad- habría que adoptar una actitud precisa, ni más ni menos que con respecto al trabajo oficial. Y fue esa actitud ante el matrimonio la que hizo suya Ivan Ilich. Requería de la vida familiar únicamente aquellas comodidades que, como la comida casera, el ama de casa y la cama, esa vida podía ofrecerle y, sobre todo, el decoro en las formas externas que la opinión pública exigía. En todo lo demás buscaba deleite y contento, y quedaba agradecido cuando los encontraba; pero si tropezaba con resistencia y refunfuño retrocedía en el acto al mundo privativo y enclaustrado de su trabajo oficial, en el que hallaba satisfacción.

A Ivan Ilich se le estimaba como buen funcionario y al cabo de tres años fue ascendido a Ayudante Fiscal. Sus nuevas obligaciones, la importancia de ellas, la posibilidad de procesar y encarcelar a quien quisiera, la publicidad que se daba a sus discursos y el éxito que alcanzó en todo ello le hicieron aún más agradable el cargo.
Nacieron otros hijos. Su esposa se volvió más quejosa y malhumorada, pero la actitud de Ivan Ilich frente a su vida familiar fue barrera impenetrable contra las regañinas de ella. Después de siete años de servicio en esa ciudad, Ivan Ilich fue trasladado a otra provincia con el cargo de Fiscal. Se mudaron a ella, pero andaban escasos de dinero y a su mujer no le gustaba el nuevo domicilio. Aunque su sueldo superaba al anterior, el coste de la vida era mayor; murieron además dos de los niños, por lo que la vida de familia le parecía aún más desagradable. Praskovya Fyodorovna culpaba a su marido de todas las inconveniencias que encontraban en el nuevo hogar. La mayoría de los temas de conversación entre marido y mujer, sobre todo en lo tocante a la educación de los niños, giraban en torno a cuestiones que recordaban disputas anteriores, y esas disputas estaban a punto de volver a inflamarse en cualquier momento. Quedaban sólo algunos infrecuentes períodos de cariño entre ellos, pero no duraban mucho. Eran islotes a los que se arrimaban durante algún tiempo, pero luego ambos partían de nuevo para el océano de hostilidad secreta que se manifestaba en el distanciamiento entre ellos. Ese distanciamiento hubiera podido afligir a Ivan Ilich si éste no hubiese considerado que no debería existir, pero ahora reconocía que su situación no sólo era normal, sino que había llegado a ser el objetivo de su vida familiar. Ese objetivo consistía en librarse cada vez más de esas desazones y darles un barniz inofensivo y decoroso; y lo alcanzó pasando cada vez menos tiempo con la familia y tratando, cuando era preciso estar en casa, de salvaguardar su posición mediante la presencia de personas extrañas. Lo más importante, sin embargo, era que contaba con su trabajo oficial, y en sus funciones judiciales se centraba ahora todo el interés de su vida. La conciencia de su poder, la posibilidad de arruinar a quien se le antojase, la importancia, más aún, la gravedad externa con que entraba en la sala del tribunal o en las reuniones de sus subordinados, su éxito con sus superiores e inferiores y, sobre todo, la destreza con que encauzaba los procesos, de la que bien se daba cuenta -todo ello le procuraba sumo deleite y llenaba su vida, sin contar los coloquios con sus colegas, las comidas y las partidas de whist. Así pues, la vida de Ivan Ilich seguía siendo agradable y decorosa, como él juzgaba que debía ser.
Así transcurrieron otros siete años. Su hija mayor tenía ya dieciséis, otro hijo había muerto, y sólo quedaba el pequeño colegial, objeto de disensión. Ivan Ilich quería que ingresara en la Facultad de Derecho, pero Praskovya Fyodorovna, para fastidiar a su marido, le matriculó en el instituto. La hija había estudiado en casa y su instrucción había resultado bien; el muchacho tampoco iba mal en sus estudios.
Así vivió Ivan Ilich durante diecisiete años desde su casamiento. Era ya un fiscal veterano. Esperando un puesto más atrayente, había rehusado ya varios traslados cuando surgió de improviso una circunstancia desagradable que perturbó por completo el curso apacible de su vida. Esperaba que le ofrecieran el cargo de presidente de tribunal en una ciudad universitaria, pero Hoppe de algún modo se le había adelantado y había obtenido el puesto. Ivan Ilich se irritó y empezó a quejarse y a reñir con Hoppe y sus superiores inmediatos, quienes comenzaron a tratarle con frialdad y le pasaron por alto en los nombramientos siguientes.
Eso ocurrió en 1880, año que fue el más duro en la vida de Ivan Ilich. Por una parte, en ese año quedó claro que su sueldo no les bastaba para vivir, y, por otra, que todos le habían olvidado; peor todavía, que lo que para él era la mayor y más cruel injusticia a otros les parecía una cosa común y corriente. Incluso su padre no se consideraba obligado a ayudarle. Ivan Ilich se sentía abandonado de todos, ya que juzgaban que un cargo con un sueldo de tres mil quinientos rubIos era absolutamente normal y hasta privilegiado. Sólo él sabía que con el conocimiento de las injusticias de que era víctima, con el sempiterno refunfuño de su mujer y con las deudas que había empezado a contraer por vivir por encima de sus posibilidades, su posición andaba lejos de ser normal.

Con el fin de ahorrar dinero, pidió licencia y fue con su mujer a pasar el verano de ese año a la casa de campo del hermano de ella. En el campo, Ivan Ilich, alejado de su trabajo, sintió por primera vez en su vida no sólo aburrimiento, sino insoportable congoja. Decidió que era imposible vivir de ese modo y que era indispensable tomar una determinación. Después de una noche de insomnio, que pasó entera en la terraza, decidió ir a Petersburgo y hacer gestiones encaminadas a escarmentar a aquellos que no habían sabido apreciarle y a obtener un traslado a otro ministerio.
Al día siguiente, no obstante las objeciones de su mujer y su cuñado, salió para Petersburgo. Su único propósito era solicitar un cargo con un sueldo de cinco mil rubIos. Ya no pensaba en tal o cual ministerio, ni en una determinada clase de trabajo o actividad concreta. Todo lo que ahora necesitaba era otro cargo, un cargo con cinco mil rubIos de sueldo, bien en la administración pública, o en un banco, o en los ferrocarriles, o en una de las instituciones creadas por la emperatriz María, o incluso en aduanas, pero con la condición indispensable de cinco mil rubIos de sueldo y de salir de un ministerio en el que no se le había apreciado.
Y he aquí que ese viaje de Ivan Ilich se vio coronado con notable e inesperado éxito. En la estación de Kursk subió al vagón de primera clase un conocido suyo, F. S. Ilin, quien le habló de un telegrama que hacía poco acababa de recibir el gobernador de Kursk anunciando un cambio importante que en breve se iba a producir en el ministerio: para el puesto de Pyotr Ivanovich se nombraría a Ivan Semyonovich. El cambio propuesto, además de su significado para Rusia, tenía un significado especial para Ivan Ilich, ya que el ascenso de un nuevo funcionario, Pyotr Petrovich, y, por consiguiente, el de su amigo Zahar Ivanovich, eran sumamente favorables para Ivan Ilich, dado que Zahar Ivanovich era colega y amigo de Ivan Ilich.
En Moscú se confirmó la noticia, y al llegar a Petersburgo Ivan Ilich buscó aZahar Ivanovich y recibió la firme promesa de un nombramiento en su antiguo departamento de justicia. Al cabo de una semana mandó un telegrama a su mujer: «Zahar en puesto de Miller. Recibiré nombramiento en primer informe.»
Gracias a este cambio de personal, Ivan Ilich recibió inesperadamente un nombramiento en su antiguo ministerio que le colocaba a dos grados del escalafón por encima de sus antiguos colegas, con un sueldo de cinco mil rubIos, más tres mil quinientos de remuneración por traslado. Ivan Ilich olvidó todo el enojo que sentía contra sus antiguos enemigos y contra el ministerio y quedó plenamente satisfecho.
Ivan Ilich volvió al campo más contento y feliz de lo que lo había estado en mucho tiempo. Praskovya Fyodorovna también se alegró y entre ellos se concertó una tregua. Ivan Ilich contó cuánto le había festejado todo el mundo en la capital, cómo todos los que habían sido sus enemigos quedaban avergonzados y ahora le adulaban servilmente, cuánto le envidiaban por su nuevo nombramiento y cuánto le quería todo el mundo en Petersburgo. Praskovya Fyodorovna escuchaba todo aquello y aparentaba creerlo. No ponía peros á nada y se limitaba a hacer planes para la vida en la ciudad a la que iban a mudarse. E Ivan Ilich vio regocijado que tales planes eran los suyos propios, que marido y mujer estaban de acuerdo y que, tras un tropiezo, su vida recobraba el legítimo y natural carácter de proceso placentero y decoroso.
Ivan Ilich había vuelto al campo por breves días. Tenía que incorporarse a su nuevo cargo el 10 de septiembre. Por añadidura, necesitaba tiempo para instalarse en su nuevo domicilio, trasladar a éste todos los enseres de la provincia anterior y comprar y encargar otras muchas cosas; en una palabra, instalarse tal como lo tenía pensado, lo cual coincidía casi exactamente con lo que Praskovya Fyodorovna tenía pensado a su vez.

Y ahora, cuando todo quedaba resuelto tan felizmente, cuando su mujer y él coincidían en sus planes y, por añadidura, se veían tan raras veces, se llevaban más amistosamente de lo que había sido el caso desde los primeros días de su matrimonio. Ivan Ilich había pensado en llevarse a la familia en seguida, pero la insistencia de su cuñado y la esposa de éste, que de pronto se habían vuelto notablemente afables e íntimos con él y su familia, le indujeron a partir solo.

Y, en efecto, partió solo, y el jovial estado de ánimo producido por su éxito y la buena armonía con su mujer no le abandonó un instante. Encontró un piso exquisito, idéntico a aquel con que habían soñado él y su mujer. Salones grandes altos de techo y decorados al estilo antiguo, un despacho cómodo y amplio, habitaciones para su mujer y su hija, un cuarto de estudio para su hijo -se hubiera dicho que todo aquello se había hecho ex profeso para ellos. El propio Ivan Ilich dirigió la instalación, atendió al empapelado y tapizado, compró muebles, sobre todo de estilo antiguo, que él consideraba muy comme il faut, y todo fue adelante, hasta alcanzar el ideal que se había propuesto. Incluso cuando la instalación iba sólo por la mitad superaba ya sus expectativas. Veía ya el carácter comme il faut, elegante y refinado que todo tendría cuando estuviera concluido. A punto de quedarse dormido se imaginaba cómo sería el salón. Mirando la sala, todavía sin terminar, veía ya la chimenea, el biombo, la riconera y las sillas pequeñas colocadas al azar, los platos de adorno en las paredes y los bronces, cuando cada objeto ocupara su lugar correspondiente. Se alegraba al pensar en la impresión que todo ello causaría en su mujer y su hija, quienes también compartían su propio gusto. De seguro que no se lo esperaban. En particular, había conseguido hallar y comprar barato objetos antiguos que daban a toda la instalación un carácter singularmente aristocrático. Ahora bien, en sus cartas lo describía todo peor de lo que realmente era, a fin de dar a su familia una sorpresa. Todo esto cautivaba su atención a tal punto que su nuevo trabajo oficial, aun gustándole mucho, le interesaba menos de lo que había esperado. Durante las sesiones del tribunal había momentos en que se quedaba abstraído, pensando en si las galerías de las cortinas debieran ser rectas o curvas. Tanto interés ponía en ello que a menudo él mismo hacía las cosas, cambiaba la disposición de los muebles o volvía a colgar las cortinas. Una vez, al trepar por una escalerilla de mano para mostrar al tapicero -que no lo comprendía cómo quería disponer los pliegues de las cortinas, perdió pie y resbaló, pero siendo hombre fuerte y ágil, se afianzó y sólo se dio con un costado contra el tirador de la ventana. La magulladura le dolió, pero el dolor se le pasó pronto. Durante todo este tiempo se sentía sumamente alegre y vigoroso. Escribió: «Estoy como si me hubieran quitado quince años de encima.» Había pensado terminar en septiembre, pero esa labor se prolongó hasta octubre. Sin embargo, el resultado fue admirable, no sólo en su opinión sino en la de todos los que lo vieron.

En realidad, resultó lo que de ordinario resulta en las viviendas de personas que quieren hacerse pasar por ricas no siéndolo de veras, y, por consiguiente, acaban pareciéndose a otras de su misma condición: había damascos, caoba, plantas, alfombras y bronces brillantes y mates... en suma, todo aquello que poseen las gentes de cierta clase a fin de asemejarse a otras de la misma clase. y la casa de Ivan Ilich era tan semejante a las otras que no hubiera sido objeto de la menor atención; pero a él, sin embargo, se le antojaba original.

Quedó sumamente contento cuando fue a recibir a su familia a la estación y la llevó al nuevo piso, ya todo dispuesto e iluminado, donde un criado con corbata blanca abrió la puerta del vestíbulo que había sido adornado con plantas; y cuando luego, al entrar en la sala y el despacho, la familia prorrumpió en exclamaciones de deleite. Los condujo a todas partes, absorbiendo ávidamente sus alabanzas y rebosando de gusto. Esa misma tarde, cuando durante el té Praskovya Fyodorovna le preguntó entre otras cosas por su caída, él rompió a reír y les mostró en pantomima cómo había salido volando y asustado al tapicero.

-No en vano tengo algo de atleta. Otro se hubiera matado, pero yo sólo me di un golpe aquí... mirad. Me duele cuando lo toco, pero ya va pasando... No es más que una contusión.
Así pues, empezaron a vivir en su nuevo domicilio, en el que cuando por fin se acomodaron hallaron, como siempre sucede, que sólo les hacía falta una habitación más. Y aunque los nuevos ingresos, como siempre sucede, les venían un poquitín cortos (cosa de quinientos rubIos) todo iba requetebién, y fueron especialmente bien al principio, cuando aún no estaba todo en su punto y quedaba algo por hacer: comprar esto, encargar esto otro, cambiar aquello de sitio, ajustar lo de más allá. Aunque había algunas discrepancias entre marido y mujer, ambos estaban tan satisfechos y tenían tanto que hacer que todo aquello pasó sin broncas de consideración. Cuando ya nada quedaba por arreglar hubo una pizca de aburrimiento, como si a ambos les faltase algo, pero ya para entonces estaban haciendo amistades y creando rutinas, y su vida iba adquiriendo consistencia.
Ivan Ilich pasaba la mañana en el juzgado y volvía a casa a la hora de comer. Al principio estuvo de buen humor, aunque a veces se irritaba un tanto a causa precisamente del nuevo alojamiento. (Cualquier mancha en el mantel, o en la tapicería, cualquier cordón roto de persiana, le sulfuraban; había trabajado tanto en la instalación que cualquier desperfecto le acongojaba.) Pero, en general, su vida transcurría como, según su parecer, la vida debía ser: cómoda, agradable y decorosa. Se levantaba a las nueve, tomaba café, leía el periódico, luego se ponía el uniforme y se iba al juzgado. Allí ya estaba dispuesto el yugo bajo el cual trabajaba, yugo que él se echaba de golpe encima: solicitantes, informes de cancillería, la cancillería misma y sesiones públicas y administrativas. En ello era preciso saber excluir todo aquello que, siendo fresco y vital, trastorna siempre el debido curso de los asuntos judiciales; era también preciso evitar toda relación que no fuese oficial y, por añadidura, de índole judicial. Por ejemplo, si llegaba un individuo buscando informes acerca de algo, Ivan Ilich, como funcionario en cuya jurisdicción no entrara el caso, no podría entablar relación alguna con ese individuo; ahora bien, si éste recurriese a él en su calidadad oficial -para algo, pongamos por caso, que pudiera expresarse en papel sellado-, Ivan Ilich haría sin duda por él cuanto fuera posible dentro de ciertos límites, y al hacerlo mantendría con el individuo en cuestión la apariencia de amigables relaciones humanas, o sea, la apariencia de cortesía. Tan pronto como terminase la relación oficial terminaría también cualquier otro género de relación. Esta facultad de separar su vida oficial de su vida real la poseía Ivan Ilich en grado sumo y, gracias a su larga experiencia y su talento, llegó a refinarla hasta el punto de que a veces, a la manera de un virtuoso, se permitía, casi como jugando, fundir la una con la otra. Se permitía tal cosa porque, de ser preciso, se sentía capaz de volver a separar lo oficial de lo humano. y hacía todo eso no sólo con facilidad, agrado y decoro, sino con virtuosismo. En los intervalos entre las sesiones del tribunal fumaba, tomaba té, charlaba un poco de política, un poco de temas generales, un poco de juegos de naipes, pero más que nada de nombramientos. y cansado, pero con las sensaciones de un virtuoso -uno de los primeros violines que ha ejecutado con precisión su parte en la orquesta volvía a su casa, donde encontraba que su mujer y su hija habían salido a visitar a alguien, o que allí había algún visitante, y que su hijo había asistido a sus clases, preparaba sus lecciones con ayuda de sus tutores y estudiaba con ahínco lo que se enseña en los institutos. Todo iba a pedir de boca. Después de la comida, si no tenían visitantes, Ivan Ilich leía a veces algún libro del que a la sazón se hablase mucho, y al anochecer se sentaba a trabajar, esto es, a leer documentos oficiales, consultar códigos, cotejar declaraciones de testigos y aplicarles la ley correspondiente. Ese trabajo no era ni aburrido ni divertido. Le parecía aburrido cuando hubiera podido estar jugando a las cartas; pero si no había partida, era mejor que estar mano sobre mano, o estar solo, o estar con su mujer. El mayor deleite de Ivan Ilich era organizar pequeñas comidas a las que invitaba a hombres y mujeres de alta posición social, y al igual que su sala podía ser copia de otras salas, sus reuniones con tales personas podían ser copia de otras reuniones de la misma índole.

En cierta ocasión dieron un baile. Ivan Ilich disfrutó de él y todo resultó bien, salvo que tuvo una áspera disputa con su mujer con motivo de las tartas y los dulces. Praskovya Fyodorovna había hecho sus propios preparativos, pero Ivan Ilich insistió en pedirlo todo a un confitero de los caros y había encargado demasiadas tartas; y la disputa surgió cuando quedaron sin consumir algunas tartas y la cuenta del confitero ascendió a cuarenta y cinco rubIos. La querella fue violenta y desagradable, tanto así que Praskovya Fyodorovna le llamó «imbécil y mentecato»; y él se agarró la cabeza con las manos y en un arranque de cólera hizo alusión al divorcio. Pero el baile había estado muy divertido. Había asistido gente de postín e Ivan Ilich había bailado con la princesa Trufonova, hermana de la fundadora de la conocida sociedad «Comparte mi aflicción».
Los deleites de su trabajo oficial eran deleites de la ambición; los deleites de su vida social eran deleites de la vanidad. Pero el mayor deleite de Ivan Ilich era jugar al vint. Confesaba que al fin y al cabo, por desagradable que fuese cualquier incidente en su vida, el deleite que como un rayo de luz superaba a todos los demás era sentarse a jugar al vint con buenos jugadores que no fueran chillones, y en partida de cuatro, por supuesto (porque en la de cinco era molesto quedar fuera, aunque fingiendo que a uno no le importaba), y enzarzarse en una partida seria e inteligente (si las cartas lo permitían); y luego cenar y beberse un vaso de vino. Después de la partida, Ivan Ilich, sobre todo si había ganado un poco (porque ganar mucho era desagradable), se iba a la cama con muy buena disposición de ánimo.
Así vivían. Se habían rodeado de un grupo social de alto nivel al que asistían personajes importantes y gente joven. En lo tocante a la opinión que tenían de esas amistades, marido, mujer e hija estaban de perfecto acuerdo y, sin disentir en lo más mínimo, se quitaban de encima a aquellos amigos y parientes de medio pelo que, con un sinfín de carantoñas, se metían volando en la sala de los platos japoneses en las paredes. Pronto esos amigos insignificantes cesaron de importunarles; sólo la gente más distinguida permaneció en el círculo de los Golovin.
Los jóvenes hacían la rueda a Liza, y el fiscal Petrischev, hijo de Dmitri Ivanovich Petrischev y heredero único de la fortuna de éste, empezó a cortejarla, al punto que Ivan Ilich había hablado ya de ello con Praskovya Fyodorovna para decidir si convendría organizarles una excursión o una función teatral de aficionados.
Así vivían, pues. Y todo iba como una seda, agradablemente y sin cambios. Todos disfrutaban de buena salud, porque no podía llamarse indisposición el que Ivan Ilich dijera a veces que tenía un raro sabor de boca y un ligero malestar en el lado izquierdo del estómago.
Pero aconteció que ese malestar fue en aumento y, aunque todavía no era dolor, sí era una continua sensación de pesadez en ese lado, acompañada de mal humor. El mal humor, a su vez, fue creciendo y empezó a menoscabar la existencia agradable, cómoda y decorosa de la familia Golovin. Las disputas entre marido y mujer iban siendo cada vez más frecuentes, y pronto dieron al traste con el desahogo y deleite de esa vida. Aun el decoro, sólo a duras penas pudo mantenerse. Menudearon de nuevo los dimes y diretes. Sólo quedaban, aunque cada vez más raros, algunos islotes en que marido y mujer podían juntarse sin dar ocasión a un estallido. Y Praskovya Fyodorovna se quejaba ahora, y no sin fundamento, de que su marido tenía muy mal genio. Con su típica propensión a exagerar las cosas decía que él había tenido siempre ese genio horrible y que sólo por su buena índole había podido aguantarle veinte años. Cierto que quien iniciaba ahora las disputas era él, siempre al comienzo de la comida, a menudo cuando empezaba a tomar la sopa. A veces notaba que algún plato estaba desportillado, o que un manjar no estaba en su punto, o que su hijo ponía los codos en la mesa, o que el peinado de su hija no estaba como debía. y de todo ello echaba la culpa a Praskovya

Fyodorovna. Al principio ella le contradecía y le contestaba con acritud, pero una o dos veces, al principio de la comida, Ivan Ilich se encolerizó a tal punto que ella, comprendiendo que se trataba de un estado morboso provocado por la toma de alimentos, se contuvo; no contestó, sino que se apresuró a terminar de comer, considerando que su moderación tenía muchísimo mérito. Habiendo llegado a la conclusión de que Ivan Ilich tenía un genio atroz y era la causa de su infortunio, empezó a compadecerse de sí misma; y cuanto más se compadecía, más odiaba a su marido. Empezó a desear que muriera, a la vez que no quería su muerte porque en tal caso cesaría su sueldo; y ello aumentaba su irritación contra él. Se consideraba terriblemente desgraciada porque ni siquiera la muerte de él podía salvarla, y aunque disimulaba su irritación, ese disimulo acentuaba aún más la irritación de él.
Después de una escena en la que Ivan Ilich se mostró sobremanera injusto y tras la cual, por vía de explicación, dijo que, en efecto, estaba irritado, pero que ello se debía a que estaba enfermo, ella le dijo que, puesto que era así, tenía que ponerse en tratamiento, e insistió en que fuera a ver a un médico famoso. y él así lo hizo. Todo sucedió como lo había esperado; todo sucedió como siempre sucede. La espera, los aires de importancia que se daba el médico -que le eran conocidos por parecerse tanto a los que él se daba en el juzgado-, la palpación, la auscultación, las preguntas que exigían respuestas conocidas de antemano y evidentemente innecesarias, el semblante expresivo que parecía decir que «si usted, veamos, se somete a nuestro tratamiento, lo arreglaremos todo; sabemos perfecta e indudablemente cómo arreglarlo siempre y del mismo modo para cualquier persona». Lo mismísimo que en el juzgado. El médico famoso se daba ante él los mismos aires que él, en el tribunal, se daba ante un acusado. El médico dijo que tal-y-cual mostraba que el enfermo tenía tal-y-cual; pero que si el reconocimiento de tal-ycual no lo confirmaba, entonces habría que suponer talo-cual. y que si se suponía tal-o-cual, entonces..., etc. Para Ivan Ilich había sólo una pregunta importante, a saber: ¿era grave su estado o no lo era? Pero el médico esquivó esa indiscreta pregunta. Desde su punto de vista era una pregunta ociosa que no admitía discusión; lo importante era decidir qué era lo más probable: si riñón flotante, o catarro crónico o apendicitis. No era cuestión de la vida o la muerte de Ivan Ilich, sino de si aquello era un riñón flotante o una apendicitis. y esa cuestión la decidió el médico de modo brillante -o así le pareció a Ivan Ilicha favor de la apendicitis, a reserva de que si el examen de la orina daba otros indicios habría que volver a considerar el caso. Todo ello era cabalmente lo que el propio Ivan Ilich había hecho mil veces, y de modo igualmente brillante, con los procesados ante el tribunal. El médico resumió el caso de forma asimismo brillante, mirando al procesado triunfalmente, incluso gozosamente, por encima de los lentes. Del resumen del médico Ivan Ilich sacó la conclusión de que las cosas iban mal, pero que al médico, y quizá a los demás, aquello les traía sin cuidado, aunque para él era un asunto funesto. y tal conclusión afectó a Ivan Ilich lamentablemente, suscitando en él un profundo sentimiento de lástima hacia sí mismo y de profundo rencor por la indiferencia del médico ante cuestión tan importante. Pero no dijo nada. Se levantó, puso los honorarios del médico en la mesa y comentó suspirando:
-Probablemente nosotros los enfermos hacemos a menudo preguntas indiscretas. Pero dígame: ¿esta enfermedad es, en general, peligrosa o no?..
El médico le miró severamente por encima de los lentes como para decirle: «Procesado, si no se atiene usted a las preguntas que se le hacen me veré obligado a expulsarle de la sala.»
-Ya le he dicho lo que considero necesario y conveniente. Veremos qué resulta de un análisis posterior - y el médico se inclinó.
Ivan Ilich salió despacio, se sentó angustiado en su trineo y volvió a casa. Durante todo el camino no cesó de repasar mentalmente lo que había dicho el médico, tratando de traducir esas palabras complicadas, oscuras y científicas a un lenguaje sencillo y encontrar en ellas la respuesta a la pregunta: ¿Es grave lo que tengo? ¿Es muy grave o no lo es todavía? y le parecía que el sentido de lo dicho por el médico era que la dolencia era muy grave. Todo lo que veía en las calles se le antojaba triste: tristes eran los coches de punto, tristes las casas, tristes los transeúntes, tristes las tiendas. El malestar que sentía, ese malestar sordo que no cesaba un momento, le parecía haber cobrado un nuevo y más grave significado a consecuencia de las oscuras palabras del médico. Ivan Ilich lo observaba ahora con una nueva y opresiva atención.

Llegó a casa y empezó a contar a su mujer lo ocurrido. Ella le escuchaba, pero en medio del relato entró la hija con el sombrero puesto, lista para salir con su madre. La chica se sentó a regañadientes para oír la fastidiosa historia, pero no aguantó mucho. Su madre tampoco le escuchó hasta el final.
-Pues bien, me alegro mucho -dijo la mujer-. Ahora pon mucho cuidado en tomar la medicina con regularidad. Dame la receta y mandaré a Gerasim a la botica -y fue a vestirse para salir.
«Bueno -se dijo él-. Quizá no sea nada al fin y al cabo.»
Comenzó a tomar la medicina y a seguir las instrucciones del médico, que habían sido alteradas después del análisis de la orina. Pero he aquí que surgió una confusión entre ese análisis y lo que debía seguir a continuación. Fue imposible llegar hasta el médico y resultó, por consiguiente, que no se hizo lo que le había dicho éste. O lo había olvidado, o le había mentido u ocultado algo. Pero, en todo caso, Ivan Ilich siguió cumpliendo las instrucciones y al principio obtuvo algún alivio de ello.
La principal ocupación de Ivan Ilich desde su visita al médico fue el cumplimiento puntual de las instrucciones de éste en lo tocante a higiene y la toma de la medicina, así como la observación de su dolencia y de todas las funciones de su organismo. Su interés principal se centró en los padecimientos y la salud de otras personas. Cuando alguien hablaba en su presencia de enfermedades, muertes, o curaciones, especialmente cuando la enfermedad se asemejaba a la suya, escuchaba con una atención que procuraba disimular, hacía preguntas y aplicaba lo que oía a su propio caso.
No menguaba el dolor, pero Ivan Ilich se esforzaba por creer que estaba mejor. y podía engañarse mientras no tuviera motivo de agitación. Pero tan pronto como surgía un lance desagradable con su mujer o algún fracaso en su trabajo oficial, o bien recibía malas cartas en el vint, sentía al momento el peso entero de su dolencia. Anteriormente podía sobrellevar esos reveses, esperando que pronto enderezaría lo torcido, vencería los obstáculos, obtendría el éxito y ganaría todas las bazas en la partida de cartas. Ahora, sin embargo, cada tropiezo le trastornaba y le sumía en la desesperación. Se decía: «Hay que ver: ya iba sintiéndome mejor, la medicina empezaba a surtir efecto, y ahora surge este maldito infortunio, o este incidente desagradable...» y se enfurecía contra ese infortunio o contra las personas que habían causado el incidente desagradable y que le estaban matando, porque pensaba que esa furia le mataba, pero no podía frenarla. Hubiérase podido creer que se daría cuenta de que esa irritación contra las circunstancias y las personas agravaría su enfermedad y que por lo tanto no debería hacer caso de los incidentes desagradables; pero sacaba una conclusión enteramenté contraria: decía que necesitaba sosiego, vigilaba todo cuanto pudiera estorbarlo y se irritaba ante la menor violación de ello. Su estado empeoraba con la lectura de libros de medicina y la consulta de médicos. Pero el empeoramiento era tan gradual que podía engañarse cuando comparaba un día con otro, ya que la diferencia era muy leve. Pero cuando consultaba a los médicos le parecía que empeoraba, e incluso muy rápidamente. Y, ello no obstante, los consultaba continuamente.
Ese mes fue a ver a otro médico famoso, quien le dijo casi lo mismo que el primero, pero a quien hizo preguntas de modo diferente y la consulta con ese otro célebre facultativo sólo aumentó la duda y el espanto de Ivan Ilich. El amigo de un amigo suyo -un médico muy bueno- facilitó por su parte un diagnóstico totalmente diferente del de los otros, y si bien pronosticó la curación, sus preguntas y suposiciones desconcertaron aún más a Ivan Ilich e incrementaron sus dudas. Un homeópata, a su vez, diagnosticó la enfermedad de otro modo y recetó un medicamento que Ivan Ilich estuvo tomando en secreto durante ocho días, al cabo de los cuales, sin experimentar mejoría alguna y habiendo perdido la confianza en los tratamientos anteriores y en éste, se sintió aún más deprimido. Un día una señora conocida suya le habló de la eficacia curativa de unas imágenes sagradas. Ivan Ilich notó con sorpresa que estaba escuchando atentamente y empezaba a creer en ello. Ese incidente le amedrentó. «¿Pero es posible que esté ya tan débil de la cabeza?» -se preguntó-. «¡Tonterías! Eso no es más que una bobada. No debo ser tan aprensivo, y ya que he escogido a un médico tengo que ajustarme estrictamente a su tratamiento. Eso es lo que haré. Punto final. No volveré a pensar en ello y seguiré rigurosamente ese tratamiento hasta el verano.

Luego ya veremos. De ahora en adelante nada de vacilaciones...» Fácil era decirlo, pero imposible llevarlo a cabo. El dolor del costado le atormentaba, parecía agravarse y llegó a ser incesante, el sabor de boca se hizo cada vez más extraño. Le parecía que su aliento tenía un olor repulsivo, a la vez que notaba pérdida de apetito y debilidad física. Era imposible engañarse: algo terrible le estaba ocurriendo, algo nuevo y más importante que lo más importante que hasta entonces había conocido en su vida. Y él era el único que lo sabía; los que le rodeaban no lo comprendían o no querían comprenderlo y creían que todo en este mundo iba como de costumbre. Eso era lo que más atormentaba a Ivan Ilich. Veía que las gentes de casa, especialmente su mujer y su hija -quienes se movían en un verdadero torbellino de visitas- no entendían nada de lo que le pasaba y se enfadaban porque se mostraba tan deprimido y exigente, como si él tuviera la culpa de ello. Aunque trataban de disimularlo, él se daba cuenta de que era un estorbo para ellas y que su mujer había adoptado una concreta actitud ante su enfermedad y la mantenía a despecho de lo que él dijera o hiciese. Esa actitud era la siguiente:
-¿Saben ustedes? -decía a sus amistades-. Ivan Ilich no hace lo que hacen otras personas, o sea, atenerse rigurosamente al tratamiento que le han impuesto. Un día toma sus gotas, come lo que le conviene y se acuesta a la hora debida; pero al día siguiente, si yo no estoy vigilante se olvida de tomar la medicina, come esturión -que le han prohibido- y se sienta a jugar a las cartas hasta las tantas.
-¡Vamos, anda! ¿Y eso cuándo fue? -decía Ivan Ilich enfadado-. Sólo una vez, en casa de Pyotr Ivanovich.
-Y ayer en casa de Shebek.
-Bueno, en todo caso el dolor no me hubiera dejado dormir.
-Di lo que quieras, pero así no te pondrás nunca bien y seguirás fastidiándonos.
La actitud evidente de Praskovya Fyodorovna, según la manifestaba a otros y al mismo Ivan Ilich, era la de que éste tenía la culpa de su propia enfermedad, con la cual imponía una molestia más a su esposa. Él opinaba que esa actitud era involuntaria, pero no por eso era menor su aflicción.
En los tribunales Ivan Ilich notó, o creyó notar, la misma extraña actitud hacia él: a veces le parecía que la gente le observaba como a quien pronto dejaría vacante su cargo. A veces también sus amigos se burlaban amistosamente de su aprensión, como si la cosa atroz, horrible, inaudita, que llevaba dentro, la cosa que le roía sin cesar y le arrastraba irremisiblemente hacia Dios sabe dónde, fuera tema propicio a la broma. Schwartz, en particular, le irritaba con su jocosidad, desenvoltura y agudeza, cualidades que le recordaban lo que él mismo había sido diez años antes.
Llegaron los amigos a echar una partida y tomaron asiento. Dieron las cartas, sobándolas un poco porque la baraja era nueva, él apartó los oros y vio que tenía siete. Su compañero de juego declaró «sin-triunfos» y le apoyó con otros dos oros. ¿Qué más se podía pedir? La cosa iba a las mil maravillas. Darían capote. Pero de pronto Ivan Ilich sintió ese dolor agudo, ese mal sabor de boca, y le pareció un tanto ridículo alegrarse de dar capote en tales condiciones. Miró a su compañero de juego Mihail Mihailovich. Éste dio un fuerte golpe en la mesa con la mano y, en lugar de recoger la baza, empujó cortés y compasivamente las cartas hacia Ivan Ilich para que éste pudiera recogerlas sin alargar la mano. «¿Es que se cree que estoy demasiado débil para estirar el brazo?», pensó Ivan Ilich. y olvidando lo que hacía sobrepujó los triunfos de su compañero y falló dar capote por tres bazas. Lo peor fue que notó lo molesto que quedó Mihail Mihailovich y lo poco que a él le importaba. Y era atroz darse cuenta de por qué no le importaba. Todos vieron que se sentía mal y le dijeron: «Podemos suspender el juego si está usted cansado. Descanse.» ¿Descansar? No, no estaba cansado en lo más mínimo; terminarían la mano. Todos estaban sombríos y callados. Ivan Ilich tenía la sensación de que era él la causa de esa tristeza y mutismo y de que no podía despejadas. Cenaron y se fueron. Ivan Ilich se quedó solo, con la conciencia de que su vida estaba emponzoñada y empozoñaba la vida de otros, y de que esa ponzoña no disminuía, sino que penetraba cada vez más en sus entrañas. Y con esa conciencia, junto con el sufrimiento físico y el terror, tenía que meterse en la cama, permaneciendo a menudo despierto la mayor parte de la noche. Y al día siguiente tenía que levantarse, vestirse, ir a los tribunales, hablar, escribir; o si no salía, quedarse en casa esas veinticuatro horas del día, cada una de las cuales era una tortura. Y vivir así, solo, al borde de un abismo, sin nadie que le comprendiese ni se apiadase de él.

Así pasó un mes y luego otro. Poco antes de Año Nuevo llegó a la ciudad su cuñado y se instaló en casa de ellos. Ivan Ilich estaba en el juzgado. Praskovya Fyodorovna había salido de compras. Cuando Ivan Ilich volvió a casa y entró en su despacho vio en él a su cuñado, hombre sano, de tez sanguínea, que estaba deshaciendo su maleta. Levantó la cabeza al oír los pasos de Ivan Ilich y le miró un momento sin articular palabra. Esa mirada fue una total revelación para Ivan Ilich. El cuñado abrió la boca para lanzar una exclamación de sorpresa, pero se contuvo, gesto que lo confirmó todo.
-Estoy cambiado, ¿eh? -Sí... hay un cambio.
y si bien Ivan Ilich trató de hablar de su aspecto físico con su cuñado, éste guardó silencio. Llegó Praskovya Fyodorovna y el cuñado salió a verla. Ivan Ilich cerró la puerta con llave y empezó a mirarse en el espejo, primero de frente, luego de lado. Cogió un retrato en que figuraban él y su mujer y lo comparó con lo que veía en el espejo. El cambio era enorme. Luego se remangó los brazos hasta el codo, los miró, se sentó en la otomana y se sintió más negro que la noche.
«¡No, no se puede vivir así!» -se dijo, y levantándose de un salto fue a la mesa, abrió un expediente y empezó a leerlo, pero no pudo seguir. Abrió la puerta y entró en el salón. La puerta que daba a la sala estaba abierta. Se acercó a ella de puntillas y se puso a escuchar.
-No. Tú exageras -decía Praskovya Fyodorovna.
-¿Cómo que exagero? ¿Es que no ves que es un muerto? Mírale los ojos... no hay luz en ellos. ¿Pero qué es lo que tiene?
-Nadie lo sabe. Nikolayev (que era otro médico) dijo algo, pero no sé lo que es. Y Leschetitski (otro galeno famoso) dijo lo contrario...
Ivan Ilich se apartó de allí, fue a su habitación, se acostó y se puso a pensar: «El riñón, un riñón flotante.»
Recordó todo lo que habían dicho los médicos: cómo se desprende el riñón y se desplaza de un lado para otro. Y a fuerza de imaginación trató de apresar ese riñón, sujetarlo y dejarlo fijo en un sitio; «y es tan poco -se decía- lo que se necesita para ello. No. Iré una vez más a ver a Pyotr Ivanovich». (Éste era el amigo cuyo amigo era médico.) Tiró de la campanilla, pidió el coche y se aprestó a salir.
-¿A dónde vas, Jean? -preguntó su mujer con expresión especialmente triste y acento insólitamente bondadoso.
Ese acento insólitamente bondadoso le irritó. Él la miró sombríamente.

-Debo ir a ver a Pyotr Ivanovich.
Fue a casa de Pyotr Ivanovich y, acompañado de éste, fue a ver a su amigo el médico. Lo encontraron en casa e Ivan Ilich habló largamente con él. Repasando los detalles anatómicos y fisiológicos de lo que, en opinión del médico, ocurría en su cuerpo, Ivan Ilich lo comprendió todo.
Había una cosa, una cosa pequeña, en el apéndice vermiforme. Todo eso podría remediarse. Estimulando la energía de un órgano y frenando la actividad de otro se produciría una absorción y todo quedaría resuelto. Llegó un poco tarde a la comida. Mientras comía, estuvo hablando amigablemente, pero durante largo rato no se resolvió a volver al trabajo en su cuarto. Por fin, volvió al despacho y se puso a trabajar. Estuvo leyendo expedientes, pero la conciencia de haber dejado algo aparte, un asunto importante e íntimo al que tendría que volver cuando terminase su trabajo, no le abandonaba. Cuando terminó su labor recordó que ese asunto íntimo era la cuestión del apéndice vermiforme. Pero no se rindió a ella, sino que fue a tomar el té a la sala. Había visitantes charlando, tocando el piano y cantando; estaba también el juez de instrucción, apetecible novio de su hija. Como hizo notar Praskovya Fyodorovna, Ivan Ilich pasó la velada más animado que otras veces, pero sin olvidarse un momento de que había aplazado la cuestión importante del apéndice vermiforme. A las once se despidió y pasó a su habitación. Desde su enfermedad dormía solo en un cuarto pequeño contiguo a su despacho. Entró en él, se desnudó y tomó una novela de Zola, pero no la leyó, sino que se puso a pensar, y en su imaginación efectuó la deseada corrección del apéndice vermiforme. Se produjo la absorción, la evacuación, el restablecimiento de la función normal. «Sí, así es, efectivamente -se dijo-. Basta con ayudar a la naturaleza.» Se acordó de su medicina, se levantó, la tomó, se acostó boca arriba, acechando cómo la medicina surtía sus benéficos efectos y eliminaba el dolor. «Sólo hace falta tomada con regularidad y evitar toda influencia perjudicial; ya me siento un poco mejor, mucho mejor.» Empezó a palparse el costado; el contacto no le hacía daño. «Sí, no lo siento; de veras que estoy mucho mejor.» Apagó la bujía y se volvió de lado... El apéndice vermiforme iba mejor, se producía la absorción. De repente sintió el antiguo, conocido, sordo, corrosivo dolor, agudo y contumaz como siempre; el consabido y asqueroso sabor de boca. Se le encogió el corazón y se le enturbió la mente. «Dios mío, Dios mío! -murmuró entre dientes-. ¡Otra vez, otra vez! ¡Y no cesa nunca!» Y de pronto el asunto se le presentó con cariz enteramente distinto. «¡El apéndice vermiforme! ¡El riñón! -dijo para sus adentros-. No se trata del apéndice o del riñón, sino de la vida y... la muerte. Sí, la vida estaba ahí y ahora se va, se va, y no puedo retenerla. Sí. ¿De qué sirve engañarme? ¿Acaso no ven todos, menos yo, que me estoy muriendo, y que sólo es cuestión de semanas, de días... quizá ahora mismo? Antes había luz aquí y ahora hay tinieblas. Yo estaba aquí, y ahora voy allá. ¿A dónde?»
Se sintió transido de frío, se le cortó el aliento, y sólo percibía el golpeteo de su corazón. «Cuando yo ya no exista, ¿qué habrá? No habrá nada. Entonces ¿dónde estaré cuando ya no exista? ¿Es esto morirse? No, no quiero.» Se incorporó de un salto, quiso encender la bujía, la buscó con manos trémulas, se le escapó al suelo junto con la palmatoria, y él se dejó caer de nuevo sobre la almohada. «¿Para qué? Da lo mismo -se dijo, mirando la oscuridad con ojos muy abiertos-. La muerte. Sí, la muerte. Y ésos no lo saben ni quieren saberlo, y no me tienen lástima. Ahora están tocando el piano. (Oía a través de la puerta el sonido de una voz y su acompañamiento.) A ellos no les importa, pero también morirán. ¡Idiotas! Yo primero y luego ellos, pero a ellos les pasará lo mismo. Y ahora tan contentos... ¡los muy bestias!» La furia le ahogaba y se sentía atormentado, intolerablemente afligido. Era imposible que todo ser humano estuviese condenado a sufrir ese horrible espanto. Se incorporó. «Hay algo que no va bien. Necesito calmarme; necesito repasarlo todo mentalmente desde el principio.»
Y, en efecto, se puso a pensar. «Sí, el principio de la enfermedad. Me di un golpe en el costado, pero estuve bien ese día y el siguiente. Un poco molesto y luego algo más. Más tarde los médicos, luego tristeza y abatimiento. Vuelta a los médicos, y seguí acercándome cada vez más al abismo. Fui perdiendo fuerzas. Más cerca cada vez. Y ahora estoy demacrado y no tengo luz en los ojos. Pienso en el apéndice, pero esto es la muerte. Pienso en corregir el apéndice, pero mientras tanto aquí está la muerte. ¿De veras que es la muerte?» El espanto se apoderó de él una vez más, volvió a jadear, se agachó para buscar los fósforos, apoyando el codo en la mesilla de noche. Como ésta le estorbaba y le hacía daño, se encolerizó con ella, se apoyó en ella con más fuerza y la volcó. Y desesperado, respirando con fatiga, se dejó caer de espaldas, esperando que la muerte llegase al momento.

Mientras tanto, los visitantes se marchaban. Praskovya Fyodorovna los acompañó a la puerta. Ella oyó caer algo y entró.
-¿Qué te pasa?
-Nada. Que la he derribado sin querer.
Su esposa salió y volvió con una bujía. Él seguía acostado boca arriba, respirando con rapidez y esfuerzo como quien acaba de correr un buen trecho y levantando con fijeza los ojos hacia ella.
-¿Qué te pasa, lean?
-Na...da. La he de...rri...bado. (¿Para qué hablar de ello? No lo comprenderá -pensó.)
Y, en verdad, ella no comprendía. Levantó la mesilla de noche, encendió la bujía de él y salió de prisa porque otro visitante se despedía. Cuando volvió, él seguía tumbado de espaldas, mirando el techo.
-¿Qué te pasa? ¿Estás peor?
-Sí.
Ella sacudió la cabeza y se sentó.
-¿Sabes, Jean? Me parece que debes pedir a Leschetitski que venga a verte aquí.
Ello significaba solicitar la visita del médico famoso sin cuidarse de los gastos. Él sonrió maliciosamente y dijo: «No.» Ella permaneció sentada un ratito más y luego se acercó a él y le dio un beso en la frente.
Mientras ella le besaba, él la aborrecía de todo corazón; y tuvo que hacer un esfuerzo para no apartarla de un empujón.
-Buenas noches. Dios quiera que duermas.
-Sí.
Ivan Ilich vio que se moría y su desesperación era continua. En el fondo de su ser sabía que se estaba muriendo, pero no sólo no se habituaba a esa idea, sino que sencillamente no la comprendía ni podía comprenderla. El silogismo aprendido en la Lógica de Kiezewetter: «Cayo es un ser humano, los seres humanos son mortales, por consiguiente Cayo es mortal», le había parecido legítimo únicamente con relación a Cayo, pero de ninguna manera con relación a sí mismo. Que Cayo -ser humano en abstractofuese mortal le parecía enteramente justo; pero él no era Cayo, ni era un hombre abstracto, sino un hombre concreto, una criatura distinta de todas las demás: él había sido el pequeño Vanya para su papá y su mamá, para Mitya y Volodya, para sus juguetes, para el cochero y la niñera, y más tarde para Katenka, con todas las alegrías y tristezas y todos los entusiasmos de la infancia, la adolescencia y la juventud. ¿Acaso Cayo sabía algo del olor de la pelota de cuero de rayas que tanto gustaba a Vanya? ¿Acaso Cayo besaba de esa manera la mano de su madre? ¿Acaso el frufrú del vestido de seda de ella le sonaba a Cayo de ese modo? ¿Acaso se había rebelado éste contra las empanadillas que servían en la facultad? ¿Acaso Cayo se había enamorado así? ¿Acaso Cayo podía presidir una sesión como él la presidía?
Cayo era efectivamente mortal y era justo que muriese, pero «en mi caso -se decía-, en el caso de Vanya, de Ivan Ilich, con todas mis ideas y emociones, la cosa es bien distinta. y no es posible que tenga que morirme. Eso sería demasiado horrible». Así se lo figuraba. «Si tuviera que morir como Cayo, habría sabido que así sería; una voz interior me lo habría dicho; pero nada de eso me ha ocurrido. Y tanto yo como mis amigos entendimos que nuestro caso no tenía nada que ver con el de Cayo. ¡Y ahora se presenta esto! -se dijo-. ¡No puede ser! ¡No puede ser, pero es! ¿Cómo es posible? ¿Cómo entenderlo?»

Y no podía entenderlo. Trató de ahuyentar aquel pensamiento falso, inicuo, morboso, y poner en su lugar otros pensamientos saludables y correctos. Pero aquel pensamiento -y más que pensamiento la realidad misma volvía una vez tras otra y se encaraba con él.
Y para desplazar ese pensamiento convocó toda una serie de otros, con la esperanza de encontrar apoyo en ellos. Intentó volver al curso de pensamientos que anteriormente le habían protegido contra la idea de la muerte. Pero -cosa rara- todo lo que antes le había servido de escudo, todo cuanto le había ocultado, suprimido, la conciencia de la muerte, no producía ahora efecto alguno. Últimamente Ivan Ilich pasaba gran parte del tiempo en estas tentativas de reconstituir el curso previo de los pensamientos que le protegían de la muerte. A veces se decía: «Volveré a mi trabajo, porque al fin y al cabo vivía de él.» Y apartando de sí toda duda, iba al juzgado, entablaba conversación con sus colegas y, según costumbre, se sentaba distraído, contemplaba meditabundo a la multitud, apoyaba los enflaquecidos brazos en los del sillón de roble, y, recogiendo algunos papeles, se inclinaba hacia un colega, también según costumbre, murmuraba algunas palabras, y luego, levantando los ojos e irguiéndose en el sillón, pronunciaba las consabidas frases y daba por abierta la sesión. Pero de pronto, en medio de ésta, su dolor de costado, sin hacer caso en qué punto se hallaba la sesión, iniciaba su propia labor corrosiva. Ivan Ilich concentraba su atención en ese dolor y trataba de apartarlo de sí, pero el dolor proseguía su labor, aparecía, se levantaba ante él y le miraba. Y él quedaba petrificado, se le nublaba la luz de los ojos, y comenzaba de nuevo a preguntarse: «¿Pero es que sólo este dolor es verdad?» y sus colegas y subordinados veían con sorpresa y amargura que él, juez brillante y sutil, se embrollaba y equivocaba. Él se estremecía, procuraba volver en su acuerdo, llegar de algún modo al final de la sesión y volverse a casa con la triste convicción de que sus funciones judiciales ya no podían ocultarle, como antes ocurría, lo que él quería ocultar; que esas labores no podían librarle de aquello. y lo peor de todo era que aquello atraía su atención hacia sí, no para que él tomase alguna medida, sino sólo para que él lo mirase fijamente, cara a cara, lo mirase sin hacer nada y sufriese lo indecible.
Y para librarse de esa situación, Ivan Ilich buscaba consuelo ocultándose tras otras pantallas, y, en efecto, halló nuevas pantallas que durante breve tiempo parecían salvarle, pero que muy pronto se vinieron abajo o, mejor dicho, se tomaron transparentes, como si aquello las penetrase y nada pudiese ponerle coto.
En estos últimos tiempos solía entrar en la sala que él mismo había arreglado -la sala en que había tenido la caída y a cuyo acondicionamiento-, ¡qué amargamente ridículo era pensarlo! -había sacrificado su vida, porque él sabía que su dolencia había empezado con aquel golpe. Entraba y veía que algo había hecho un rasguño en la superficie barnizada de la mesa. Buscó la causa y encontró que era el borde retorcido del adorno de bronce de un álbum. Cogía el costoso álbum, que él mismo había ordenado pulcramente, y se enojaba por .la negligencia de su hija y los amigos de ésta -bien porque el álbum estaba roto por varios sitios o bien porque las fotografías estaban del revés. Volvía a arreglarlas debidamente y a enderezar el borde del adorno.
Luego se le ocurría colocar todas esas cosas en otro rincón de la habitación, junto a las plantas. Llamaba a un criado, pero quienes venían en su ayuda eran su hija o su esposa. Éstas no estaban de acuerdo, le contradecían, y él discutía con ellas y se enfadaba. Pero eso estaba bien, porque mientras tanto no se acordaba de aquello, aquello era invisible.
Pero cuando él mismo movía algo su mujer le decía: «Deja que lo hagan los criados. Te vas a hacer daño otra vez.» y de pronto aquello aparecía a través de la pantalla y él lo veía. Era una aparición momentánea y él esperaba que se esfumara, pero sin querer prestaba atención a su costado. «Está ahí continuamente, royendo como siempre.» y ya no podía olvidarse de aquello, que le miraba abiertamente desde detrás de las plantas. ¿A qué venía todo eso? «y es cierto que fue aquí, por causa de esta cortina, donde perdí la vida, como en el asalto a una fortaleza. ¿De veras? ¡Qué horrible y qué estúpido! ¡No puede ser verdad! ¡No puede serIo, pero lo es!»

Fue a su despacho, se acostó y una vez más se quedó solo con aquello: cara a cara con

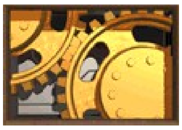
EL PEOR DIAGNÓSTICO



Al principio, nadie quiere entender, y luego, todos se niegan a creerlo.
—No puede ser— dicen.
Y hay que detallar los síntomas aparentemente inexplicables y contradictorios; las pruebas diagnósticas exhaustivas que se han realizado. Pero esta vez no era uno de mis pacientes, sino yo quien me enfrentaba al peor diagnóstico posible.
Percibía nítidamente la incomodidad de mi médico, uno de mis mejores amigos, mientras me escuchaba a mí mismo argumentar como si no tuviera la más mínima idea de Medicina, como si no hubiera ejercido veinte años, como él, en el Hospital Oncológico.
—No entiendo por qué me pasa esto... llevo una vida sana, no soy el caso típico que puede enfermar de...
No lograba decir la palabra fatídica, y Pedro no suavizó ni un ápice su convicción para obligarme a asumir la realidad:
—Sabes que por nuestra consulta pasa un diez por ciento de pacientes con este mismo diagnóstico. Ignoramos la causa, y, desgraciadamente, tampoco conocemos la solución. Hemos repetido tres veces los análisis y el TAC, te hemos hecho una resonancia magnética desde la cabeza hasta los pies: no estoy hablando con un profano, me conoces y sabes que jamás me permitiría actuar a la ligera con un diagnóstico así.
—No sé cómo decírselo a mi mujer...
—¿Quieres que se lo diga yo?
—¡No!...Yo hablaré con ella... Pero no sé cómo se lo va a tomar...
—Ha estado contigo desde que empezaste con los primeros síntomas, ha ido de aquí para allá de hospital en hospital... te ayudará, porque es una mujer muy inteligente, y desde el principio supo lo que te pasaba.
—¿Te lo dijo a ti?
— Cuando empecé a repetirte las pruebas me llamó.
Sentí sobre todo una fría desesperación.
— Entonces... el ahogo, los lapsus mentales...la fiebre...los dolores... ¡Tiene que haber una equivocación!
No me dejó ninguna esperanza:
—¡Acepta la realidad! —me dijo— Eres hipocondríaco, estás sano y fuerte como un toro.

Autor: Mujica

Mujica joven vivió el último tramo de esplendor y de decadencia de ese orden conservador que ya empezaba a hacer crisis en el año de su nacimiento, aunque aparentemente los signos externos todavía eran de esplendor. Oigamos el relato de boca del propio Manucho, como lo llamaban los íntimos: ”...entre mis años veinte (año 1930) y mis treinta años fue la época en que yo ingresé al Diario “La Nación”. Al mismo tiempo, es una época de mi vida muy, muy frívola, de una frivolidad increíble. Es la época de ir a bailes, época mundana en un Buenos Aires tan distinto. En ese momento había en Buenos Aires tres o cuatro señoras viejas, disparatadamente ricas y disparatadamente finas, que eran disparatadamente viudas y sin hijos, pero con sobrinas que tenían que casar. Entonces daba esos bailes “monstruos”en noviembre y en diciembre. Yo iba a esos bailes y todos me han acusado de perder el tiempo. Sin embargo, allí aprendí muchísimo, no hubiera escrito libros como “La casa” si no hubiese ido a esos lugares.”

OPERACIÓN PARA EL DESARROLLO URBANÍSTICO DE CHAMARTÍN: LO DIJIMOS EN 2005

No nos gusta tener que decir "ya lo dijimos", y menos cuando los empresarios y los representantes políticos, actúan con afán diligente y admirable descaro para forrarse con un proyecto que ronda los once mil millones de euros "para el desarrollo urbanístico de Chamartín". (Véase contubernio, a espaldas de sus padrinos, del concejal de Urbanismo de Chamartín, Luis Miguel Boto, también llamado "el varón rampante", con Ramón Calderon, presidente del Real Madrid).
Alberto Ruiz-Gallardón, y la ministra de Fomento, Magdalena Álvarez han firmado el proyecto de Chamartín, que añadirá 16.000 viviendas a las más de 300.000 viviendas en stock en la Comunidad de Madrid, y a los más de tres millones de viviendas vacías en todo el país que no encuentran comprador, ignorando las recomendaciones del Fondo Monetario Internacional, Transparencia Internacional, etc.
Con el caramelo envenenado de la creación de puestos de trabajo, se trata de reflotar, con fondos públicos , las aventuras especulativas y empresariales del BBVA, máximo acccionista de DUCH -"Desarrollo Urbanístico Chamartín"-, y sus aliados, Aguirre-Newmann, Grupo San José, El Corte Inglés, y otros cuantos bandarras por el estilo, algo tronados ultimamente por las deudas crediticias y el pinchazo de la burbuja inmobiliaria.
Al final del encuentro con el Presidente Rodríguez Zapatero, que los analistas políticos auguraban muy tenso, Esperanza Aguirre, la Presidenta de la Comunidad de Madrid, se declaró "encantada", como el príncipe-rana del cuento.
No es para menos. Esperanza Aguirre ya puede colocar a Juan Delibes Liniers para pagar los impagables servicios de su cuñado Regino García-Badell y Arias-Navarro (sobrino del último jefe de Gobierno de Franco y primero del rey Juan Carlos), que entró en política apadrinado por el dictador paraguayo Alfredo Stroessner.

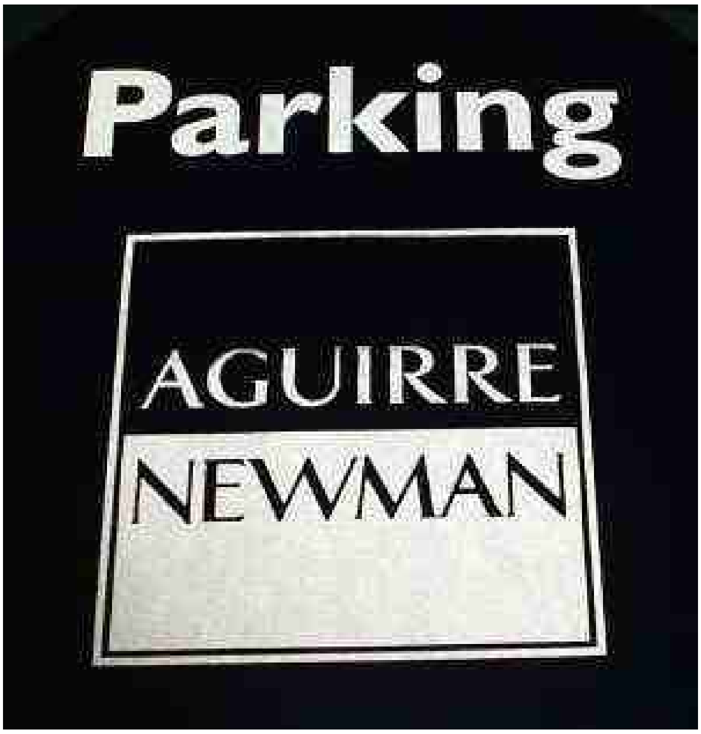
CABALLEROS DE FORTUNA: EL BANQUERO DISCRETO Y EL BANQUERO GENEROSO (I), publicado en 9 de junio de 2005:
La Mafia de la Banca y la de la Especulación Inmobiliaria celebrarán su enlace en los jardines del Olivar de Chamartín.



Pues retengan esto: la empresa adjudicataria de los derechos para el desarrollo y ejecución de toda la Operación Chamartín es "Desarrollo Urbanístico Chamartín, S.A." (DUCH). ¿Y quién es propietaria de DUCH? Pues el BBVA, con un paquete de acciones del 72,5% (el 27,5% restante lo posee la constructora Grupo San José). El Sr.González se hace pipí en la piscina y desde el trampolín.
Los organismos que podrían detener la destrucción del Olivar de Chamartín son: la Comunidad de Madrid y el Ayuntamiento de Madrid. (Patrimonio y Consejería de Medioambiente de la CAM y concejalía de urbanismo del Ayuntamiento). No lo van a hacer. El negocio es de tal envergadura que ni Esperanza Aguirre ni Alberto Ruiz Gallardón van a permitir que sus consejeros o concejales digan ni oste ni moste en la cuestión. De hecho, ya hay algún negociador oficioso "puenteando" a los responsables nominales de estos departamentos con ofertas muy tentadoras.
Hablar de Esperanza Aguirre y de especulación, recalificación de suelo, amiguismo, nepotismo, corrupción se ha convertido en un tópico en los ambientes políticos y económicos de este país. Otro día le dedicaremos más atención a la capo della famiglia Aguirre. Los intereses que aquí tiene la Presidenta de la Comunidad de Madrid son directos, monetarios y familiares (como siempre). La empresa Aguirre-Newman (socio fundador y accionista mayoritario: Santiago Aguirre y Gil de Biedma, hermano de la presidenta) es, con DUCH, la firma que más implicaciones tiene con la operación Chamartín, en sus múltiples variantes de inmobiliaria, asesoramiento técnico, diseño e implantación de espacios urbanísticos y, para que no sobren migas, despacho de arquitectos Aguirre-Newman. (el encargado del Complejo Panorama de Isla Chamartín).
La Operación Chamartín (16.000 viviendas y más de un millón de oficinas) es el proyecto de reordenación urbana más importante de Europa en los últimos cincuenta años.
La llegada al poder del PSOE supuso que el 60% del suelo disponible de esta operación quedara controlado por el gobierno socialista, ya que pertenece a Fomento. El nerviosismo que provocó en las empresas mencionadas obligó a Esperanza Aguirre a modificar la Ley del Suelo de 2001, que afecta a los desarrollos urbanísticos considerados especiales. Mediante esta modificación la Comunidad supedita la concesión de permiso a cualquier promotor -que no sea de la famiglia o próximo a ella, claro- a acreditar las redes de transporte generales y supralocales exteriores. Con ello la llave de la Operación Chamartín está en la Comunidad. Pero, aun así, Fomento está retrasando la operación y los especuladores inmobiliarios buscan suelo para grandes torres de oficinas desesperadamente.
¿Alguien nos puede ayudar con un cálculo aproximado de las cantidades que esto significa?
(Continuará)

CHARLES CHAPLIN. SMILE

Música: Charles Chaplin.
Letra: John Turner y Geoffrey Parsons.
Canta: Michael Jackson.

Smile, though your heart is aching
Smile, even though it's breaking
When there are clouds in the sky
You'll get by...

If you smile
With your fear and sorrow
Smile and maybe tomorrow
You'll find that life is still worthwhile
If you just...

Light up your face with gladness
Hide every trace of sadness
Although a tear may be ever so near That's the time you must keep on trying Smile, what's the use of crying
You'll find that life is still worthwhile
If you just...

Smile, though your heart is aching
Smile, even though it's breaking
When there are clouds in the sky
You'll get by...

If you smile
Through your fear and sorrow
Smile and maybe tomorrow
You'll find that life is still worthwhile
If you just smile...

Smile, what's the use of crying
You'll find that life is still worthwhile

EUFEMISMOS

Quien haya tenido desde la infancia más hambre que comida, más frío que ropa de abrigo, y una lista de cosas imprescindibles que no posee tiene mi permiso para tomar como agravio cualquier chuminada moral estetizante para recubrir la realidad. Es un insulto a la lógica pretender que el eufemismo "de clase humilde" otorga una dignidad que puñetera falta que hace, mientras que la denominación de "pobre de solemnidad" ha de quedar para los arqueólogos del lenguaje, cuando tan bien define la canina universal.
De la misma manera, se usan los eufemismos para desterrar del lenguaje la palabra vejez y sus derivados, y no hay idiota que no se pretenda eternamente joven y con un alma de quinceañero aunque tenga más años que un bancal, y todo porque a unos cuantos sandios les dio un día por decretar que a los viejos había que denominarlos "la tercera edad", "mayores", y rematar con una de esas frases que merecen palos como "lo importante es ser joven de corazón", "no importa la edad, sino tener ilusión". Y como si no fuera suficiente la edad del pavo y sus aledaños, el INSERSO y todos los negociados adyacentes infantilizan como humanitaria aportación a la felicidad geriátrica a quienes se dejan, que suelen ser aquellos que jamás usaron el cerebro para nada que no pudiera haber resuelto la médula espinal,
Otro eufemismo en boga es el de "persona sencilla" con tal de no llamar tonto a nadie, aunque se parezca resueltamente a un pedazo de carne con ojos, y no vaya a abrir la boca sin aportar un capazo de insensateces para la antología universal de la inanidad, que, encima, hay que escuchar con melosidad y paciencia, no vaya a ser que se le haga un roce en la autoestima, más frágil que la mierda de pavo e igual de válida.

ROMANCE DE ESPINELO

ESPINELO

Tan alta iba la luna
  como el sol al mediodía, cuando el manto de Espinelo bordaban en Berbería.
Le cortaron siete moras
  siete cristianas cautivas;
siete damas hilar seda
  por coser la empedrería.
Tardose en hacer el manto

siete semanas y un día, acabaran de labrarle
día de Pascua Florida.
No bien le vino a estrenar,
para la Corte se iría;
envidióselo la reina
un día al salir de misa:
-¿Cuánta era, Espinelo, cuánta era su valía?
-Nada es menester, señora,
para vos se merecía.
-Por vida tuya, Espinelo,
¿vendrás a almorzar un día?- Cayera Espinelo enfermo, enfermo, que se moría;
la reina le hizo la cama,
la cama de enfermería:
púsole catre de oro,
las tablas de plata fina,
almadraques de plumaje
de pavos y cardelinas;
púsole cinco almohadas,
sábanas de holanda fina,
cobertor de fina grana,
--bordado de seda y sirga,
las borlas que de él colgaban de aljófar y perlas finas.
Siete damas a sus pies,
otras tantas le servían.
-Por vida tuya, Espinelo,
¿cuándo era tu nacida?, ¿si naciste por San Juan,
o por la Pascua Florida?
Me dirías, Espinelo,
¿de qué linaje venías?
-Mi madre era una reina,
señora muy soberbiosa,
en medio de su reinado
hizo una ley afrentosa:
“la que para dos de un vientre, la tengan por alevosa,
que duerme con dos maridos,
no puede ser otra cosa”.
Quiso Dios y la Fortuna
n’ella cayó la deshonra, que me parió a mí, Espinelo,
y a otra noble persona;
me pariera a mí y al otro
los dos juntos en un hora.
Para no verse afrentada,
pidió consejo a una mora.
El consejo que le dio
aquella perra traidora:

que hiciera una caja,
  a modo de una redoma,
y me metiese a mí dentro
  y me echase a la mar honda.
Me hallaron los marineros
  junto a una espina redonda;
y la fortuna que tuve,
  me acogió una pescadora.
Por eso soy Espinelo,
  no lo tengo por deshonra.

Este romance, aunque es poco común, se ha conservado en el Romancero del siglo XX en áreas de la tradición muy distintas: entre los judíos sefardíes de Marruecos y entre los de Monastir (en Macedonia) y en algunos pueblos de Zamora y de Burgos. Antes de las encuestas por mí organizadas desde el Seminario Menéndez Pidal, fuera de la tradición sefardí sólo era conocida una versión peninsular, recogida por Tomás Navarro Tomás en 1910.

Gracias a la tradición oral moderna, sabemos que la única versión impresa en el siglo XVI, heredada por varios cancionerillos de romances de un pliego suelto, sufrió en manos de su primer editor una sistemática revisión para eliminar del romance un rasgo de arcaísmo: el que comience en asonante -í.o y, a partir del momento en que Espinelo cuenta la historia de su vida, pase a estar en el difícil asonante -ó.a. Frente al testimonio de los cantores modernos del romance en las más distantes tradiciones, el corrector del siglo XVI eliminó las rimas en -ó.a, dejando en su arreglo bastantes huellas de ello al colocar numerosas voces con esas terminaciones en los versos impares o en el interior de los versos. En esa versión antigua, el romance se iniciaba situando ya a Espinelo en la suntuosa cama próximo a morir, invirtiendo dramáticamente el orden natural de la historia de su vida. La curiosidad respecto a ella no es de la reina, sino de "Mataleona, su querida", que se halla a su cabecera. La divina Providencia ha restaurado el natural destino del hijo de rey, pese a la acción de su madre; pero no mediante un retorno al reino paterno, sino en tierra extraña, ya que quien le prohijó fue el anterior Sultán del reino en que asistimos a su muerte. Para nada se habla del extraordinario manto.

En la tradición oral del siglo XX, el manto de Espinelo es un motivo narrativo que ocupa un lugar destacado tanto en las versiones sefardíes de Marruecos como en las de Zamora y de Burgos. Aunque no se nos haga explícito, ese manto envidiado por la reina constituye, de alguna forma la anagnórisis, el reconocimiento del hijo arrojado a la mar honda por su madre, siendo parte de la fábula, aunque sólo conste en los textos de forma explícita en añadidos explicativos obviamente superfluos. Por más que la escena de la cama nos remita en sus detalles a un ambiente oriental, el manto envidiado por la reina constituye, de alguna forma, el "indicio" o prueba que conduce al reconocimiento de la realeza de Espinelo.

La literatura medieval europea nos ofrece otras dos manifestaciones del tema, esta vez fuera de la tradición baladística: en el cantar narrativo italiano "Gibello" (conservado en una miscelánea toscana del siglo XV) y en un "lai" de Marie de France, "Le Fraisne" (de antes de 1165). Los tres textos, el francés, el italiano y el español, son manifestaciones de una misma "fábula", de un mismo modelo narrativo; pero su relación no es directa (ni el romance ha conocido los textos literarios, ni el poema italiano debe nada a Marie de France); todos tres heredan una tradición folclórica que hunde sus raíces en un pasado desconocido para nosotros. El romance castellano publicado en el siglo XVI contiene motivos de "Le Fraisne" no presentes en "Gibello" (siendo el principal la aceptación de un fitónimo como base de la identificación del héroe: Fraisne-Espinelo) y motivos de "Gibello" no presentes en "Le Fraisne" (siendo los más sobresalientes la promulgación de la ley injusta y el intento de la reina de deshacerse de uno de los gemelos echándolo al mar). Los textos literarios francés e italiano, con una intriga mucho más desarrollada (de forma dispar) que la de la versión del romance publicada en el siglo XVI, rematan el cuento con la esperable anagnórisis, con el encuentro de los dos gemelos y con la admisión de su error por los sustentadores del prejuicio respecto al parto doble, cuya desaparición en la versión vieja del romance conlleva que la "marca de identidad" con que la reina echa al mar a su hijo siguiendo el consejo de la mora ("y pongas también en ella / mucho oro y joyería / porque quien al niño hallasse / de criárselo holgaría") pierda su función, ya que la recuperación de su naturaleza regia se produce en tierra ajena. Y es de notar que el motivo del manto tejido y bordado para Espinelo en las versiones orales modernas de Marruecos y del NO. de la Península y colocado en ellas en una privilegiada posición inicial, tiene en los textos francés e italiano su paralelo: es obviamente el mismo "manto" que acompaña a Gibello en todos los avatares de su vida, hasta que en el desenlace de la historia sirve de prenda de reconocimiento por parte de su madre la reina, y es asimismo el que Fraisne conserva hasta depositarlo en la cama nupcial de su hermana y que desencadena el proceso de reconocimiento, que la llevará a substituir a su hermana en el lecho conyugal. El paralelo con esos otros textos nos hace entender mejor en el romance cómo es el fantástico manto, con que el hijo de la Naturaleza logra atraer la atención de la reina, el que le permite "adueñarse" simbólicamente de la condición regia, que por nacimiento le pertenecía. Antes ya de narrar la historia de su infortunio, Espinelo se prepara para morir (quizá más bien para renacer) en cama regia. La cama le sirve de trono. Desde él revelará su condición regia.

Otra importante observación, que la comparación entre el conjunto de la tradición oral del romance y los textos transpirenaicos nos permite hacer, es la siguiente: aunque todas las versiones romancísticas tienen, no cabe duda, un origen único, en el curso de la transmisión del romance, su texto ha seguido teniendo contacto con la difusa tradición pan-europea del tema. En la versión del siglo XVI y en las tradicionales de Monastir y de Marruecos, lo que desencadena el castigo de la reina es, como en "Gibello", la proclamación de una ley injusta; en cambio, en una de las versiones zamoranas y en la única conocida burgalesa, se trata, como en "Le Fraisne", de la injusta acusación a una mujer concreta y el episodio romancístico se ajusta en sus detalles aún más a otras leyendas medievales menos emparentadas en que la acusada es una mendiga que llega a pedir limosna a la puerta de la acusadora. Por otra parte, en Aliste (Zamora) Espinelo se feminiza, transformándose en "Pinela", acercándose así a la trama de "Le Fraisne".

Pese a la escasa presencia del romance de "Espinelo" en la tradición oral peninsular del siglo XX, se documenta, como en el de "La Infantina", su transformación en una ronda (en una versión turolense, bien lejos, pues, del área en que hoy perdura el recuerdo del tema). En ella, quien ocupa la suntuosa cama minuciosamente descrita es la dama rondada. La trasposición es habilísima, ya que, si Espinelo, en la antigua versión del romance, recibía la solícita atención de su amante:

> a su cabecera tiene >   Mataleona su querida, > con las plumas d'un pavón
>   la su cara le resfría, en la ronda del siglo XX, un servidor íntimo atiende a su señora también con la pluma de un pavo real, no para aliviarla del calor, sino dispuesto a recoger sus más íntimas palabras:

el galán que más estima, recostado en un bufete
y sentado en una silla,
con una pluma en la mano,
que de pavo parecía.

Maravillas de la trasmisión poética oral.

EXPERIMENTOS CON ARMAS QUÍMICAS Y BACTERIOLÓGICAS. PORTON DOWN: GASEADOS POR LA PATRIA

As under a green sea, I saw him drowning./ In all my dreams, before my helpless sight,/ He plunges at me, guttering, choking, drowning. Wilfred Owen, "Dulce Et Decorum Est", 1917.

Los Imperios han de nacer de una madre espartana, para que sus hijos perpetúen orgullosamente las atrocidades que los forjaron como patriotas.

La prision de Guantánamo o la de Abu Grahib son pálidos descendientes de la Prisión de Andersonville (Camp Sumter) en Georgia, donde murieron casi 13.000 prisioneros unionistas, víctimas de enfermedades, torturas y malnutrición durante la Guerra Civil Americana. Los campos de concentración nazi deben mucho a Goering, mucho a Himmler, pero más a Lord Kitchener, héroe británico al que la corona y el Parlamento premiaron con 50.000 libras, la Order of Merit y el título de vizconde por su victoria contra los boers. Lord Kitchener utilizó básicamente dos armas para ganar esta guerra: la táctica de tierra quemada y la utilización de campos de concentración para acabar con la población civil (mujeres, niños y viejos). En Octubre de 1901, había internados en estos campos 117.871 boers y habían muerto oficialmente 22.074 niños y 14.174 prisioneros negros.

Los alemanes copiaron la idea a Kitchener, porque Hitler, como Himler y Hess, eran anglófilos, que nunca entendieron que Inglaterra no se uniera a su causa; pero el verdadero descubridor e ideólogo de los campos de concentración fue un militar, político y Grande de España: Valeriano_Weyler uno de tantos criminales españoles de los que su patria habla de pasada y con la boca pequeña. Gracias a su política de "reconcentración" más de 300.000 cubanos fueron arrastrados lejos de sus casas y encerrados en recintos insalubres, donde murieron de inanición más de cien mil personas.

Goering, cuando testificó en el juicio de Nüremberg sobre las razones de su política de exterminio, reprodujo las de Weyler sin saberlo . Los españoles conocimos algo de este siniestro psicópata en la represión de la Semana Trágica de Barcelona (1909). Como en el caso de Kitchener, Weyler también fue recompensado generosamente por sus crímenes de lesa humanidad y en 1920 fue nombrado duque de Rubí y grande de España.

Pero la Alegre Inglaterra aún puede dar lecciones a la Gentil Castilla y al resto de Europa. Gracias a una esmerada educación victoriana, Inglaterra ha conseguido convertir la brutalidad de la barbarie en un engranaje de exterminio , sólo igualado por el fanatismo patriótico de sus súbditos.

Desde 1916 viene funcionando, en el Reino Unido, uno de los centros de investigación de armas biológicas más siniestro de la historia de la humanidad: Porton Down. Mientras que el uso y experimentación con armas químicas llevadas a cabo por alemanes, por la Unión Soviética, por Estados Unidos (Camp Detrick), por Japón o por España (guerra de Marruecos) son medianamente conocidos, Porton Down ha conseguido seguir en la bruma de la desinformación durante más de ochenta años.

En 1999, como consecuencia de la demanda que entablan "cobayas-humanas" contra el Ministerio de Defensa, por las muertes y secuelas de los experimentos con gas sarin, también llamado GB), que sufrieron, estalla el escándalo en el Reino Unido y comienza una investigación, que aún sigue , y que se conoce como Operación Antler (Porton Down). El término de Antler Operation viene de las operaciones de bombardeo atómico "experimental" que el gobierno británico lanzó contra Maralinga (Australia) en 1957. Las bombas tenían una potencia destructiva que alcanzo los 27 kilotones (la de Hiroshima tenía 16 y la Fat Man de Nagasaki 20). En los años 90 el Gobierno australiano intentó acallar las consecuencias de estos experimentos con compensaciones económicas, pero sigue manteniendo el secreto más absoluto sobre el grado de contaminación, el número de víctimas y el tipo de experimentos que se llevaron a cabo con población civil. Chernobyl es un jardín de infancia al lado de Maralinga y otras regiones de la Corona Británica.

Para darse una idea de lo que fue la operación Antler/Porton Down, traduzco parte de artículo de Alan Care, que publicó The Independent en el año 2000 y que tituló, muy reveladoramente, "Envenenados por los suyos"

"La Policía de Wiltshire ha revelado que su investigación sobre el uso de miles de personas utilizadas como cobayas humanas, en el Centro de Armas Químicas de Porton Down es la mayor investigación que se ha realizado hasta el momento (...)

Los antecedentes de este caso se remontan al 6 de mayo de 1953, cuando el oficial del ejército del aire Ronald Maddison denunció ante las autoridades de Porton Down, que entonces era llamado Centro para la Defensa Química y Biológica, lo que el consideraba que no eran obligaciones militares. Se le habían administrado veinte dosis (200 mgs) de gas nervioso sarin GB como parte de un experimento para comprobar su resistencia ante agentes químicos. El joven Ronald, de veinte, años murió como resultado directo.

Ya entonces se sabía positivamente que el gas sarin era uno de los venenos más letales existentes. Pero, después de esta muerte, se cerró el caso, se invocó el Acta de Secretos Oficiales y se obligó a la familia de la víctima a guardar silencio bajo juramento.

El padre de Maddison dijo a su familia que, si les contaba lo que él sabía, lo encerrarían en la Torre de Londres. El Ministerio de Defensa pagó al padre de Maddison 16 libras para el sepulturero, 4 para el funeral y 20 para ropas de luto. Es evidente que se valoraba en muy poco la vida de Ronald.

Desde 1916 hasta hoy, aproximadamente 5.400 soldados han tomado parte como voluntarios en experimentos de este tipo en Porton Down. Las substancias químicas que se han probado en ellos incluyen agentes nerviosos y gases (incluido el gas sarin, usado hace pocos años, por una secta religiosa, en el Metro de Tokyo con resultados devastadores), gas mostaza, lewisita (un gas tóxico utilizado como arma química), y aire contaminado conocido como Niebla londinense , mezclas de caucho (usadas como parte del equipo de protección química) y LSD (una droga alucinógena).

El término voluntario es inapropiado. A los soldados no se les dio la información adecuada sobre la naturaleza de estos experimentos. En algunos casos se supone que hubo engaño. Se ha descubierto que a muchos de los jovenes soldados implicados se les engañó para que se presentaran como voluntarios, diciéndoles que iban a tomar parte de un estudio sobre el "resfriado común". Y , a continuación, se les gaseó con agentes nerviosos y gas mostaza".

Antes de la muerte de Maddison hubo otras muertes repentinas, causadas por los experimentos con gas nervioso, como la de un soldado al que se le inyecto 300 mg. de gas líquido. El informe interno refiere como el tóxico tardó tres segundos en hacer efecto. El relato de los voluntarios incluye: agentes nerviosos inyectados en los ojos que causaron blefaritis y conjuntivitis bilateral crónica, tests con gas nervioso que provocaba el "síndrome de ojos secos", experimentos con gas causante de enfermedades respiratorias crónicas; enfermedades neurológicas tras experimentos con gas nervioso, problemas dermatológicos como secuelas del gas mostaza que se lanzó sobre los soldados, y problemas psiquiátricos tras los experimentos que incluían LSD.

Un voluntario, Gerald Beech, fue recluido en una cámara de gas y se le sometió a una dosis de éste: "Empecé a asustarme cuando los conejos comenzaron a morir. Cuando salimos, estaban todos muertos. Estuvimos ciegos durante 48 horas. Y eso sólo fue el comienzo de mis problemas", dijo.

Lamentablemente, los científicos de Porton Down, hasta los años 70, parece que incumplieron el Código de Nuremberg sobre experimentación con humanos o que no se aseguraron de pedir el Documento de Consentimiento Previo a los voluntarios.

Pero la Operación Antler pudo ir más lejos. Después de las declaraciones a las autoridades de otro voluntario, Gordon Bell, sobre su tratamiento, la policía de Wiltshire está investigando ahora actividades presuntamente criminales que incluirían asesinato, homicidio y "administración de sustancias tóxicas". Y el asunto puede que no quede sólo en los científicos que estuvieron implicados, sino que alcance a todos los ministros de defensa de esos años, que quizás tengan que afrontar cargos criminales.

Si se admiten estas acusaciones, el Fiscal de la Corona tendrá que decidir quién era, legalmente, la "mente directora" que estaba tras estos experimentos. Es irónico que el Home Office esté ahora realizando una investigación que puede revelar la culpabilidad de los ministros de Defensa. Ellos, en última instancia, fueron responsables porque fueron quienes impartieron las órdenes a los científicos de Porton Down.

Existe la posibilidad de que no se tome ninguna medida. También puede ocurrir que, si la Policia se niega a presentar cargos ante la fiscalía, la familia de Maddison haga intervenir a la acusación privada para sacar a la luz verdad. La Criminal Injuries Compensation Authority ya ha dicho que no ha lugar para compensaciones por daños producidos antes de 1964, cerrando así cualquier posibilidad para reclamar a las víctimas .

También se les ha negado a las víctimas la vía civil. El ministro de Defensa se ha parapetado tras la Sección 10 de la Crown Proceedings Act 1947. que otorga al ministro de defensa inmunidad absoluta frente a cualquier demanda civil por delitos cometidos por el ministerio. Esta disposición fue modificada por la enmienda de 1987, pero no con efecto retroactivo, por lo que se frenaría cualquier acción que pudieran intentar los voluntarios de Porton Down.

Alan Care sigue explicando las posibilidades que tienen los afectados de recurrir a instancias y tribunales europeos:

"Como descubrieron los familiares de Maddison, se ha vuelto a recurrir al Acta de Secretos Oficiales. Hubo dos informes de la muerte de Ronald. A día de hoy los documentos del Coroner (juez de primera instancia) no se han hecho públicos. Se ha filtrado un informe sobre las pesquisas, cuya copia tiene hoy la policía de Wiltshire. Curiosamente hay dos versiones de la muerte de Ronald Maddison. Una, el informe oficial, rebaja la importancia de su muerte. Dice: "La muerte de este hombre debe atribuirse a su propia idiosincrasia".

Hay otra versión de los sucesos en un informe interno, realizado por los científicos de Porton Down, que el Ministerio de Defensa ha mantenido secreto y que no se me ha permitido comentar. Este informe,titulado "Un caso fatal de envenenamiento con GB (gas sarin)", sólo lo han visto unas pocas personas, incluida la Policia de Wiltshire. La DERA (Agencia de Evaluación e Investigación de la Defensa), que ahora dirige Porton Down, me permitió leer el informe allí, pero me prohibió tomar notas o fotocopiarlo. Según la DERA, estaban deseando hacer público el informe, pero era el Ministerio de Defensa el que se oponía, por criterios de desclasificación.

Hay una buena razón por la que el Gobierno mantiene tal secreto. El Sarin es un organofosfato (OP), que se usa como pesticida en baños para ganado. A pesar de que los granjeros han denunciado en muchas ocasiones que se han envenenado con los baños de OP, el gobierno continúa negando que éstos sean nocivos para la salud.

Pero, incluso en 1953, tenía evidencía fáctica indiscutible, según la cual la respuesta de los individuos a los orgafosfatos mostraba una variabilidad muy amplia. ¿Podria ser ésta la razón real por lo que no se han hecho publicos los hechos que rodean la muerte de Maddison?

Parece ser que los ministros han decidido que los soldados eran de usar y tirar. Una serie de informes inderdepartamentales, que discutían sobre la posibilidad de enviar funcionarios a Porton Down, rechazaron esta proposición: "Si ampliáramos el campo de voluntarios e incluyéramos a funcionarios, habría que considerar tres cosas muy importantes: una de ellas es que estos voluntarios tendrían que ser indemnizados en caso de lesiones"

Es decir: una regla para los funcionarios y otra para los militares. Ningún voluntario de Porton Down ha recibido indemnización alguna. Esta serie de informes gubernamentales concluyen con la siguiente frase: "no habría problema en pagar una razonable indemnización, si el Departamento ha actuado negligentemente o no"

Estas palabras revelan con toda claridad el degradante trato que se ha dado a los militares de Porton Down durante todos estos años. Sucesivos gobiernos los han ignorado. Son unas personas ancianas y están muriendo antes de poder ver que se haga justicia.

El Caso Antler ha ocupado miles de páginas en prensa y en las transcripciones del diario de sesiones del Parlamento británico. Concluyó en 2006 con unas ridículas compensaciones a algunos afectados. Pero, por primera vez, Porton Down fue objeto de escrutinio, análisis y crítica. Sin embargo, todas las informaciones que han salido a la luz, a pesar de las presiones del Ministerio de Defensa, el Home Office y los servicios de inteligencia, han quedado recluidas en su insularidad o arrinconadas en el limbo del "antisistema" .

Es conveniente estudiar no sólo los casos en los que Porton Down se ha visto implicado , sino su historia, porque en ella, además de muertes, plagas y pandemias inducidas, encontraremos una filosofía de lo que es la defensa nacional como pretexto para hacer negocios lucrativos y crímenes con igual impunidad. Y, por puro egoismo, también nos conviene considerar que estamos importando un modelo de "investigación" militar corrompido y peligroso.

Ésta es una somera lista de algunos experimentos realizados por Porton Down y el Ministerio de Defensa del Reino Unido. Por supuesto, todos secretos, porque "knowledge of them by unauthorised persons could be politically embarrassing."

Chemical and Biological Warfare Field Trials

At the Army Council meeting on 9th May, 1963, when the Annual Report of your Scientific Advisory Council was discussed, you asked to be kept informed of all biological trials undertaken outside the confines of W.D. establishments.

The attached note, which has been prepared in my office, contains details of such trials which C.D.E.E. and M.R.E., are currently carrying out and is forwarded for your information.

I am convinced of the vital need for these trials which impose no hazard to the public, although clearly, knowledge of them by unauthorised persons could be politically embarrassing.

POBREZA VERGONZANTE Y LUCRO SIN PUDOR

Actualmente, gracias a la disparatada diferencia entre valor y precio en los productos de primera necesidad, para lucro de los intermediarios y a los especuladores, un 19,7% de los españoles vive por debajo del umbral de la pobreza; un 28’7% de los mayores de 65 años no puede adquirir los alimentos ni los servicios básicos, como la calefacción y el agua caliente, y presenta problemas graves de malnutrición; y un 15% de los niños escolarizados carece de las condiciones y de los nutrientes precisos para afrontar su crecimiento, lo que significa padecer taras cerebrales irreversibles.
Y cuando hablamos de que una de cada cinco personas tiene carencias en lo que se considera necesidades básicas, no nos referimos a esa cesta de la compra ficticia que tiene en cuenta el Instituto Nacional de Estadística para calcular el IPC, donde entran los alimentos dietéticos, el fisioterapeuta o la operación de cirugía estética: hablamos de la desnutrición, del hambre sin adornos, y de la miseria del 13, 6% de la población de Cantabria; del 13,8 de Asturias; el 16% de las Baleares; el 16,3% de la Comunidad valenciana; del 30% de Castilla-La Mancha, de Melilla, de Ceuta y de Extremadura, y del 29,2 % de Andalucía, etc.
Hace 30 años, el valor de las viviendas de 70 metros cuadrados era el equivalente del salario de cinco años de un obrero; actualmente para adquirir esa vivienda, necesita pagar su salario íntegro durante cincuenta años; y el alquiler de una vivienda ha sufrido la misma progresión.
Y mientras sigue bajando la capacidad adquisitiva del salario base, .el paro supera el 12% de la población activa, y la mayoría de los pensionistas y el 20% de la población no puede permitirse enchufar una estufa ni dos horas al día, ni comprar fruta, verduras, hortalizas, carne y pescado con la frecuencia que aconseja la Organización Mundial de la Salud, nuestros gobernantes tratan de atajar la crisis económica de las empresas eléctricas, de las grandes corporaciones financieras y bancarias, y las grandes empresas subvencionando a fondo perdido la incuria, la avaricia, el fraude y la ineptitud que los que las han llevado a la quiebra, pero se han blindado el futuro poniendo a salvo su fortuna en paraisos fiscales.
En el año 1992, en Suecia, la crisis resultante de la especulación financiera y la administración temeraria de los bancos fue atajada con la intervención del Gobierno, exigiendo responsabilidades económicas y penales a los culpables. Intervino como garante y defensor de los clientes y no permitió que los banqueros y los directivos se beneficiaran con la ruina que habían provocado, ni salieran impunes. La economía sueca salió fortalecida.

Los siluros de las finanzas, de la banca, y de las constructoras, han hecho fortunas astronómicas gracias al margen de maniobra que deja el dinero negro, la especialísima miopía de la Inspección de Hacienda, que detecta un error de céntimos en el IRPF de un asalariado y no ve los miles de millones que blanquean las empresas, las fundaciones y las mafias en España, ni ve los artísticos entramados contables de los multimillonarios que hacen unas declaraciones de la renta de rubor ajeno, con derecho a devolución.
Pero, claro, aquellos gobernantes suecos no tenían intereses económicos ni arte ni parte en el entramado de fraude, especulación y corrupción de los culpables de la ruina. Y aquí hasta el más tonto, roba relojes.
En los principales periódicos de este país, sin embargo, lo que recibe tratamiento y atención de hit informativo es la hiperactividad venerea de un par de zamarras de la harta sociedad, y la falta de delicadeza de esos invasores que llegan desde África sin tener los papeles en regla...
Luego dicen que no se compran periódicos. Y lo que no hay es periódicos que no estén vendidos.

Amiga, los males que mencionas son males propios del "capitalismo de compadres", ese que existe gracias a la intervención del gobierno que impide la competencia, que favorece sectores y que hace posible el lucro sin pudor.

Porque el ánimo de lucro, la ambición y la avaricia son tan antiguas como la humanidad y tan constantes como la fuerza de gravedad.

Es por ello que debemos exigir a los gobiernos establecer las reglas y mecanismos para que esas fuerzas trabajen en favor de los individuos.

Porque esas fuerzas también existen entre quienes forman a los gobiernos, personas que al final del día no son distintas a las que forman el sector privado.

Hay que quitarle poder al poder y no darle más, como ha venido ocurriendo en estas semanas para horror de liberales como yo. Particulamente cuando el poder se le otorga a quienes nos han metido en este lío para empezar.

Qué vergüenza para a izquierda gobernante que cada vez más personas sobreviven de la comida y la ayuda de Cáritas.

Amigo Ramón: es lo que has venido planteando desde hace mucho tiempo: no se debería confiar más dinero y más poder a quien no ha sabido administrar con inteligencia y ha llevado a la bancarrota a su empresa o a su país. Sin embargo, ésa es la única solución que ven, y eso demuestra hasta qué punto son unos ineptos que no merecen nuestra confianza ni nuestro dinero.
Higinio: Los datos están extraidos del Informe de población del Instituto Nacional de Estadística, no es que lo diga yo o me las imagine.
Si Caritas administrara el presupuesto de la Iglesia y el óbolo de los católicos, y no el que recibe de los Presupuestos Generales del Estado, que pagamos todos, estaría de acuerdo en compartir su vergüenza.
El expolio en los presupuestos generales del Estado es claramente delictivo en muchos casos, y aquí lo hemos denunciado; pero no olvidemos que, entre otros abusos está el financiar los fastos y francachelas de la jerarquía católica y sus privilegios.
Sólo tiene que mirar lo que cuesta al erario público una visita del Papa, una festividad católica como el Corpus, la Virgen del Pilar, etc.
Saludos cordiales

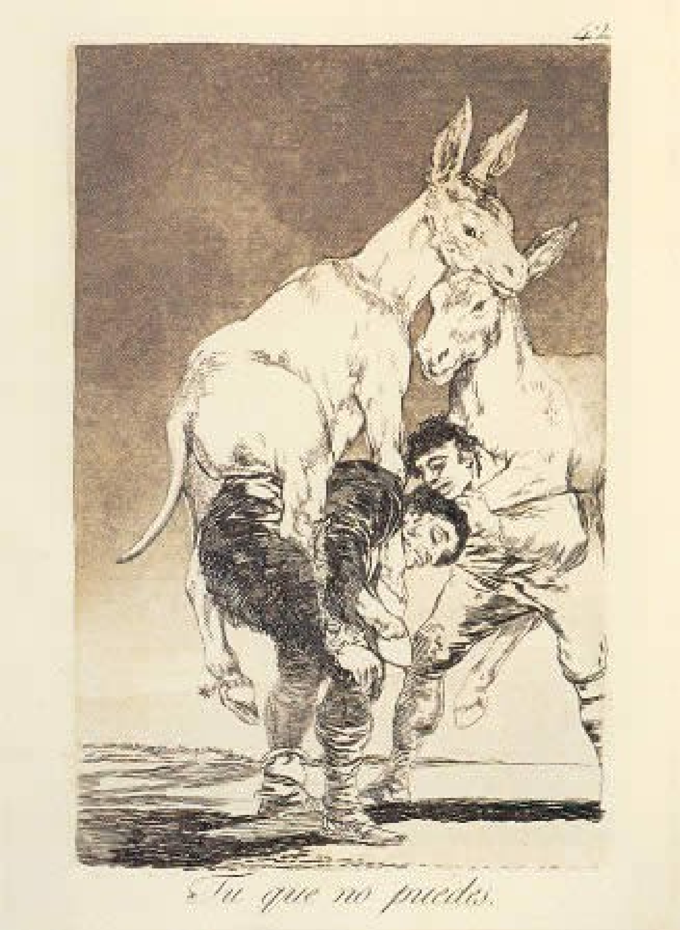
CONTRA LA PIRATERÍA, Y A FAVOR DE LA UNIDAD DE DESTINO EN LO UNIVERSAL, LA CULTURA Y LOS CREADORES DE LA SGAE



Queridos señores congresistas y legisladores de España:

Ruego a ustedes eviten el agravio comparativo y aprueben también un canon para gravar:

1) los folios, cuadernos, sobres, papel de cartas, etc. por si acaso fueran utilizados para hacer copias privadas piratas de libros escritos y editados.

2) las telas, bobinas de hilo, ovillos de lana, agujas y máquinas de coser, agujas de tejer, ganchillo, etc. por si pudieran utilizarse para hacer copias piratas de modelos de los diseñadores y fabricantes textiles.

3) los niños recién nacidos provistos de aparatos fonatorios y acústicos por si acaso algún día los utilizaran para cantar, versionar o escuchar privadamente canciones compuestas por músicos y autores de la SGAE.

4) los juguetes eróticos, profilácticos, camas, sofás, campos de cebadas de a palmo, mesas de cocina, mantequilla, mermeladas, etc. y cualquiera de los soportes y artefactos que pudieran ser utilizados para reproducir copias privadas piratas de los diálogos y onomatopeyas de films producidos por la industria cinematográfica, como "sí", "no pares", "sigue", "más", "aaaay" "mmmm", etc.

5) todos los ciudadanos españoles por si participaran en la emisión y audición privada de palabras malsonantes, insultantes, injuriantes, etc. contra los creadores, legisladores y artistas que apoyan a la SGAE y contra la madre que los parió.

6) todos los ciudadanos españoles que siendo sordomudos, aunque se les haya amputado el dedo corazón, tengan los brazos a la altura del hombro por si copiaran y emitieran privadamente gestos insultantes e injuriantes contra los intereses de los creadores y autores que apoyan a la SGAE y contra la madre que los parió.

Con esto, se trata de defender la supervivencia de la cultura y los derechos de los creadores, y los dirigentes de la Sociedad filantrópica sin fines lucrativos, tapadera de sociedades anónimas y limitadas, en las que están como administradores únicos, recipiendarias de contratos y subvenciones, y como emisoras de facturas y documentos justificativos del trasvase de los fondos recaudados.

Es gracia que deseo alcanzar.

Dios guarde a ustedes muchos años.

PATXI URZAIZ ZABALA, ANFITRIÓN DE LAS ISLAS GRIEGAS

Patxi Urzaiz Zabala. Crucero Sarónico. Peloponeso.

"Cuando emprendas tu viaje hacia Itaca/ debes rogar que el viaje sea largo,/lleno de aventuras, lleno de experiencias..."* Kavafis: *Ítaca

Imaginen una mezcla de Zalacaín , Blanqui y Aviraneta; sazónenlo con el carácter épico de un héroe de La ilíada , la pasión investigadora de un Magallanes, la curiosidad de un alquimista, el don de gentes y de lenguas de un Schliemann, y una inabarcable empatía con la raza humana y su peripecia, y casi tendrán el retrato de mi amigo Patxi Urzaiz Zabala.
Casi, porque falta su aspecto de eterno adolescente peinado por el viento, su sonrisa y una mirada con la que taladra a su interlocutor más allá de su apariencia y su máscara. Y falta su isla amada, Santorini, y todas las que ha recorrido como un viajero y no como un turista; como un amante y no como un cazador de fotografías, lo que significa conocer las islas como navegante con un alto sentido de la hospitalidad que recibe de las gentes de tierra, sus amigos en Skópelos, Skíathos, Alonissos, Esciro, Kyra Panagia , Gioura y Piperi, Adelfoi, Agios Georgios Skopelou, Argos Skiathou, Dasia, Erinia, Grammeza, Lekhoussa, Peristera, Psathoura, Repio, Rineia, Skyrou, Sarakino, Skandili, Skantzoura, Skyropoula, Tsougria y Valaxa, Samos, Icaria, Patmos, Cos y Rodas, y tantas otras que ni existen en los mapas, como la desierta y misteriosa Poliegos, que fue arrasada por la ira de Apolo, y le ha susurrado su trágica historia para que él la cuente.
Patxi no es un narrador al uso, como los que creamos ficción y relatos más o menos divertidos: detrás de sus palabras suele esconder pudorosamente la implacable lealtad a si mismo y a un concepto del hombre y de la historia por los que vale la pena vivir, y dejarse la vida en el intento.
Mi amigo Patxi oficia como sabio anfitrión y navegante en la isla de Santorini, en Grecia.

JAVIER MARÍAS: LOS AÑOS NO PASAN POR TI, TE PISOTEAN

Dame el nombre de ese sastre que te ha hecho esa mortaja, y la marca de ese emplastre que el cutis te descerraja.
No tardes, dímelo pronto, que les pego cuatro tajos
no vaya a ser que a otro tonto lo albayalden y lo vistan de arrendajo.
Hala, Javier, a tus novelas, hala con el Diccionario,
que yo no habré de leerlas, ni me las dé el boticario para un dolor de muelas.

Lo que usted llama emplastre es una complejísima fórmula de embalsamar admirable y singular: el pisasfalto que es lo mismo que mumia, según Dioscórides. Tiene tal poder embalsamador, dice, que los sirios sólo con esto embalsamaban. "Es un género de pez o betún, que nace en el territorio de Bolonia, y que no falta en nuestras boticas".

A falta de él utilizaba la pez líquida o negra como recomendaba Dioscórides.

Una vez rellenas las cavidades con aquellas substancias se cosían todas las incisiones con la costura llamada "de pellejero".

Para terminar bien el trabajo era preciso "barnizar el cadáver". Esto se hacía con las siguientes fórmulas:

Linimento para ungir el cuerpo

Trementina...............5 libras

Pisasfalto...............1 libra

Pez negra................2 libras

Bálsamo..................4 onzas

Estoraque................1 libra

Benjuí...................1 libra

Acacia.................. 1 libra
A ello añadiremos como toque final enjalbiego y cola blanca para que no pase lo que con la cúpula de Barcelo.

El traje tiene pinta de ser alquilado y de la cara, bueno, la verdad es que parece embadurnada con yeso de albañil, será que como hay tanto paro, en algo han de gastar el emplaste.

El fotógrafo también se ha lucido.

LA VIRGEN DE GUADALUPE: DETALLES TÉCNICOS DE UN RESTAURADOR

La Guadalupana: tres imágenes en una.

Bajo la imagen de la Guadalupana venerada hoy en el Tepeyac, anteriormente se pintaron otras dos figuras de la Virgen. La más antigua de ellas —con un Niño Dios en su regazo— está firmada por el pintor Marcos Aquino y fechada en 1556.
La segunda imagen, cuyo rostro presenta rasgos más indígenas que la actual, fue pintada en el siglo XVII, al igual que la Guadalupana moderna. Así, ésta se sobrepuso a las dos imágenes anteriores y probablemente la pintó el artista novohispano Juan de Arrue.
Lo anterior se desprende de un análisis que, en 1999, le realizó a la imagen el investigador Leoncio Garza-Valdés, un connotado experto en arqueomicrobiología de la Universidad de San Antonio, Texas.
El cardenal Norberto Rivera Carrera, arzobispo primado de México, así como las autoridades de la Basílica de Guadalupe, fueron quienes contrataron los servicios del especialista, reconocido internacionalmente por sus estudios del Santo Sudario de Turín, Italia.
En la amplia sala de su domicilio particular, decorada con óleos antiguos, Garza Valdés refiere:
—En enero de 1999, me habló de México monseñor José Luis Guerrero, amigo mío, para preguntarme si me interesaba estudiar el lienzo de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Yo, inmediatamente, le respondí que sí, puesto que, casualmente y por esos días, la editorial estadunidense Doubleday me había propuesto escribir sobre la Guadalupana.

—¿Y también habló usted con el cardenal Rivera Carrera?
—Así es. Primero le hablé por teléfono para pedirle su permiso oficial. Después me entrevisté personalmente con él, en su casa de la Ciudad de México. Ahí me recomendó el cardenal Rivera: 'Doctor, quiero que reporte la verdad y solamente la verdad'. Y eso es lo que he hecho al pie de la letra.
Cuenta que realizó los estudios en dos sesiones de trabajo, las noches del 4 y 5 de febrero de 1999. Pero antes de hacerlos, sostuvo un encuentro con monseñor José Luis Guerrero, las autoridades del santuario y el Consejo de Investigadores Guadalupanos.
—Esto es lo que tenemos -le dijeron al investigador. Y le pusieron sobre la mesa el estudio que, en 1982, le realizó a la imagen el perito en restauración José Sol Rosales. En dicho documento, Sol Rosales demuestra que la actual imagen de la Virgen fue pintada por una mano humana. Detalla, incluso, su preparación, los materiales base de sus colores y los repintes que se hicieron a la figura (Revista Proceso 1333)
Prosigue Garza-Valdés:
—Ese encuentro fue en la misma Basílica de Guadalupe, el 4 de febrero, día en que comencé el estudio. Recuerdo que, bajo juramento, quisieron imponerme el secreto absoluto de mis investigaciones. Por supuesto que me negué. Les dije que mis investigaciones eran precisamente para publicarlas en un libro, como ya lo había hecho con la sábana santa (Santo Sudario). Finalmente aceptaron mis condiciones.
—¿Por qué le solicitaron estudios a usted, si ya tenían los del maestro Sol Rosales?
—Anteriormente, yo había descubierto ciertas bacterias que producen plástico, sobre todo en superficies antiguas. Pensaron que el lienzo del Tepeyac pudiera tener este tipo de contaminación bacteriana, que le da cierta pátina a las superficies antiguas. Ésa fue la idea inicial de mi investigación.
—¿Y cómo descubrió luego las dos imágenes de la Guadalupana, pintadas bajo la actual?
— Déjeme serle honesto y recalcar que yo no andaba buscando eso. Yo buscaba la capa bioplástica de las bacterias. Nunca imaginé que fuera a encontrar dos imágenes escondidas bajo la actual. Fue un hallazgo inesperado, de chiripa. Hubieran excomulgado a quien antes se imaginara esto.
Pues bien, entré a la bóveda, donde en las noches se guarda la imagen, y empecé a fotografiarla. Utilicé cámaras con filtros especiales que sólo dejan pasar radiaciones electromagnéticas de entre 250 y 400 milimicras, que es el espectro del ultravioleta. Son filtros nuevos que acaban de salir.
Me regresé a Texas. Entregué mis películas al laboratorio de la Facultad de Medicina de la Universidad de San Antonio. El revelado me lo entregaron el 10 de febrero. Al analizarlo me di cuenta de que, empalmadas una sobre otra, en el lienzo hay realmente tres pinturas, es decir, que bajo la imagen actual se esconden otras dos.

La Virgen de Marcos Aquino

El científico se inclina sobre la pequeña mesa de centro de la sala, y de una carpeta extrae una fotografía que muestra al reportero. Ahí sólo se alcanza a distinguir la fecha 1556. Y, abajo, dos iniciales: M. A.
Luego explica con orgullo:
—Es la firma que encontré estampada en la imagen más antigua. Como ve, data de 1556. Y la firma Marcos Aquino, el pintor de quien ya se decía que había pintado la Guadalupana.
Se arrellana nuevamente en su sillón y, de cara al espeso jardín que reluce tras los ventanales, platica sobre las referencias que ya tenía de ese pintor:
—La primera vez que supe de Marcos Aquino, o Marcos Cipac, como también se le conoce, fue en un libro del maestro Manuel Toussaint, Pintura colonial en México. Ahí, precisamente, se menciona que Aquino había pintado la imagen Guadalupana. Aunque ya desde 1556, durante las investigaciones que mandó hacer Alonso de Montúfar, el segundo arzobispo de México, tres de los testigos afirmaban que la pintura la había hecho un indio y mencionaban a Marcos Aquino o Marcos Cipac. De manera que al descubrir esas iniciales no tuve duda de que eran las de él.

— ¿Y cómo es esa primera imagen de la Guadalupana pintada por Aquino?

— Es muy distinta a la actual. La Virgen no usa túnica sobre su cabello. Y, además, sobre su brazo izquierdo sostiene al Niño Jesús desnudo. Pero también le salen los rayos solares tras su espalda, y bajo sus pies está la media luna sostenida por un angelito. Es una Inmaculada Concepción.

— El investigador asegura que esta imagen es una copia fiel de la Virgen que se encuentra en el coro del Monasterio de Nuestra Señora, en Extremadura, España.

— Esa Virgen del coro es de 1498. Está hecha en un altorrelieve en madera. Yo viajé a Extremadura para comprobarlo.-explica.

—¿Cómo supo que Marcos Aquino copió esa Virgen de Extremadura y no otra?

— Bueno, hice un estudio iconográfico de varias imágenes semejantes a la Guadalupana. Pero, además, encontré documentos del siglo XVI que hablan sobre las similitudes entre las dos vírgenes. Claro, era cuando en México se exhibía la Guadalupana de Aquino, cuando aún no se la cubría con la segunda Virgen.

Aparte, una persona con quien trabajé muy estrechamente, el franciscano fray Domingo Guadalupe Díaz y Díaz, también me indicó que en esa Virgen de Extremadura se inspiró Aquino para pintar la Guadalupana.

Sobre Aquino, algunos historiadores señalan que fue un artista nahua formado en el colegio de San José de los Naturales, dirigido por fray Pedro de Gante. Y que pintó la Guadalupana a instancias del arzobispo Alonso de Montúfar.

A lo largo de su trayectoria profesional, Garza-Valdés ha conjugado las ciencias biológicas con la arqueología. Inicialmente estudió medicina y después hizo una maestría en antropología y arqueología. Más tarde se especializó en arqueometría, disciplina que utiliza diversos instrumentos científicos para investigaciones arqueológicas.

Es profesor e investigador de microbiología en la Universidad de San Antonio, Texas. Ahí inició una nueva disciplina científica: la arqueomicrobiología, que estudia los depósitos bacterianos en superficies arqueológicas.

Como producto de sus investigaciones de la sábana de Turín, escribió su libro Huellas de la sangre de Cristo, traducido a varios idiomas. Y pronto publicará su investigación Tepeyac: cinco siglos de engaño a un pueblo noble, que justamente trata sobre los descubrimientos de las tres imágenes.

La segunda Virgen

Garza-Valdés explica que la Guadalupana pintada por Aquino fue posteriormente cubierta con una capa de pintura blanca, sobre la que se plasmó la segunda Virgen.

Y aporta algunos detalles sobre ésta:

—Tiene un rostro más indígena que la actual. Es de características más bizantinas. Y está desplazada quince centímetros hacia la derecha de la Guadalupana que conocemos ahora. Por lo demás, ambas tienen una postura muy semejante.

El científico vuelve a tomar su carpeta con fotografías. Saca una en la que aparece el rostro de esta segunda Virgen, muy nítido. Efectivamente, sus rasgos son más indígenas y tiene los ojos más abiertos que la Guadalupana actual.

—¿Por qué salió tan clara la fotografía de esta segunda Virgen?

—Porque, a diferencia de la primera, los pigmentos que se usaron en esta pintura tienen una gran emisión de ultravioleta. Y el filtro que usé sólo deja pasar estas emisiones.

—¿Cuándo se pintó esta imagen y quién es su autor?

—Mire, en el Archivo General de la Nación me encontré con un documento, de 1625, en el que se testifica que se le pagó al artista Juan de Arrue por haber pintado la imagen de la Virgen de Guadalupe. Pero aquí surge una incógnita: ¿Se le pagó por haber pintado la imagen de la segunda Virgen, o por pintar la imagen de la Guadalupana actual? No se sabe. Una de las dos imágenes es, pues, de Juan de Arrue y fue pintada en 1625. Eso es lo único cierto. También puedo asegurar que ambas imágenes son de ese siglo.
—¿Y quién fue Juan de Arrue?
—Sé que fue hijo de una indígena y un español. Su padre fue un pintor-escultor que vino de Sevilla. Antes de llegar a la Nueva España, trabajaba en la catedral de Sevilla. Es todo lo que conozco de él.
—¿A la segunda imagen también se le cubrió con una capa de pintura blanca para después hacer la tercera?
—Efectivamente, así fue. Se le puso su aparejo. Y esto ya lo dice el maestro José Sol Rosales en su análisis. Al igual que él, yo también comprobé que el lienzo es de cáñamo, y no de ixtle, como anteriormente se creía. Al material se le llamaba cañamazo de España, y con él se hacían, en el siglo XVI, las velas de los bergantines.
—Sin embargo, Sol Rosales solamente detectó una imagen de la Guadalupana. No encontró las otras dos que usted dice que están debajo.

—Él no podía detectar otra Virgen más que la tercera. No pudo ver las otras dos porque no tenía los filtros adecuados, que apenas acaban de salir. No tenía filtros ni para infrarrojo ni para ultravioleta. Él lo que utilizó fue luz ultravioleta.
—El lienzo del Tepeyac mide 1.72 metros de altura. ¿No es muy largo como para ser la tilma de Juan Diego?
—De ser cierto eso de la tilma, Juan Diego hubiera sido un verdadero atlante de Tula, altísimo. Pero realmente Juan Diego no existió. Lo prueban las tres Vírgenes pintadas que encontré. Para qué insistir entonces en ese asunto.
Garza-Valdés revela que, durante su análisis, en la bóveda donde se guarda por las noches a la Guadalupana, lo acompañaron las siguientes personas: Antonio Macedo, entonces rector de la Basílica; monseñor José Luis Guerrero, consultor de la causa de canonización de Juan Diego; el nahuatlato Mario Rojas Sánchez; el doctor Gilberto Aguirre, de la Universidad de San Antonio; y el fotógrafo Lester Rosebrock, de la misma Universidad.
Aclara que no utilizaron ninguna iluminación especial ni quitaron el acrílico que protege la imagen:
La única iluminación que usamos fue la de la bóveda. Por las noches, la imagen de la Virgen se hace girar para que entre en esa especie de bóveda bancaria. Las fotos las tomamos con el acrílico puesto. En una segunda etapa de mi investigación, aún pendiente, analizaré la imagen ya sin el acrílico.
El experto agrega que ha mantenido al tanto de sus hallazgos al cardenal Rivera Carrera y a José Luis Guerrero, quienes, paradójicamente, son dos de los más fuertes promotores de la canonización del indígena.
—Ellos han estado al tanto de cada uno de mis descubrimientos. Los he mantenido muy bien informados, dice.
—¿No ha tenido problemas con ellos, ya que ellos dicen creer en las apariciones de la Virgen?
—Indiscutiblemente que, a raíz de mis investigaciones, tomamos polos opuestos. Por eso monseñor Guerrero dice que él es mi amigo-enemigo. Yo lo aprecio mucho. Y hemos continuado con nuestra estrecha amistad. Viene a San Antonio a visitarme y seguido nos telefoneamos.
Mire, la mayoría de los aparicionistas son gente muy noble y muy honesta. Ellos dicen lo que creen, de modo que no están mintiendo. Pero, a lo largo de generaciones, han estado viviendo en el autoengaño. ¿Por qué? Pues porque eso de las apariciones de la Virgen es un engaño muy bonito, y a todos nos llena de orgullo y de emoción.

Yo creo que no hay ningún problema en seguir creyendo en una leyenda. ¡Ninguno! El problema surgió al querer canonizar a una persona que no existió. Todo hubiera ido muy bien si no se hubiera cometido ese error.
—¿Y cuándo continuará usted el análisis del lienzo del Tepeyac?
—El cardenal Rivera Carrera me indicó que, por lo pronto, no quiere que yo realice nuevos estudios. Me pidió continuarlos después de la canonización de Juan Diego.

Un restaurador de la guadalupana expone detalles técnicos que desmitifican a la imagen

Cuando el restaurador José Antonio Flores Gómez tuvo a la mano la imagen de la

Guadalupana, en 1947, no le quedó duda: se trataba de la obra de un artista, no el producto de un milagro. Desde entonces ha guardado silencio. Ahora, en entrevista con Proceso, relata los pormenores de los trabajos de restauración que realizó a la imagen, en la que encontró descarapeladuras propias de cualquier pintura humana, lo mismo que las huellas de otros muchos retoques hechos en el curso de los siglos.
—Cuando tuve enfrente a la imagen de la Guadalupana y la pude observar de cerca, hasta ese momento me di cuenta que no es una obra divina,- afirma José Antonio Flores Gómez, quien en dos ocasiones ha restaurado la imagen más venerada del país.
Agrega:
—Inmediatamente me dije cuando vi los estragos: "Éste es causado por la humedad, éste otro por los hongos que hay en el ambiente, éste de acá es un repinte".. En fin, la Guadalupana tiene las descarapeladuras de cualquier obra humana.
—¿Es, en definitiva, una obra pintada por un ser humano?
—Sí, por supuesto. Es la obra de un artista, no es producto de ningún milagro.
—¿Dónde queda entonces Juan Diego, en cuya tilma, supuestamente, se estampó milagrosamente esa imagen?
—Eso quién sabe... Ni los historiadores han podido darle un apoyo histórico. Pudo haber existido ese indígena. Pudo ser una persona de carne y hueso, como nosotros. Pero de que la Virgen de Guadalupe imprimió su imagen en la tilma, a mí me consta que eso no es cierto.
A sus 78 años de edad, el restaurador de la Guadalupana rompe un silencio de décadas, en las que se negó a dar a conocer su trabajo. Finalmente, hoy habla de las dos ocasiones —en 1947 y 1973— en que restauró la imagen; sus esfuerzos por corregir los estragos que el tiempo provocó en la pintura; los recursos técnicos que utilizó para remozarla y su relación con las autoridades del santuario que, de manera discreta, contrataron sus servicios y le indicaron las modificaciones que querían en la imagen.
Aclara de entrada: Antes de mí, otros restauradores ya le habían dado retoques a la imagen. Eso lo noté desde la primera vez que intervine. Y estoy seguro que otros más intervinieron después de mí.
—¿Cuántos restauradores habrán trabajado en esa imagen?
—Es muy difícil saberlo. Dificilísimo. Pero calculo que alrededor de veinte.
Cuenta Flores Gómez que en 1947 era un joven restaurador que tenía su estudio en la calle Belisario Domínguez, en el Centro Histórico de la Ciudad de México. Entre sus amistades había pintores, escultores, periodistas, escritores... pero también sacerdotes que trabajaban en la Catedral Metropolitana. Fue entonces cuando fue a buscarlo a su estudio, de parte del entonces abad de la Basílica de Guadalupe, Feliciano Cortés, un sacerdote para que restaurara la imagen.
—Yo tenía buena amistad con algunos sacerdotes de Catedral y con artistas de toda clase. Alguno de ellos me recomendó. Lo cierto es que un día llegó a mi estudio un sacerdote que se apellidaba Vargas, es lo único que recuerdo. Me dijo que el abad de la Basílica quería verme. Y me llevó hasta el despacho del abad, a quien noté muy preocupado. Ahí me mostró una foto de la imagen, en la que se veían unas cuarteaduras muy notables. '¿Qué puede hacer usted para remediar esto?', me preguntó el abad.
Yo pensé: '¡Ah, caray! Si es una imagen divina, no tiene por qué pasarle esto'. Vi sobre todo una gran cuarteadura vertical que iba desde la cabeza hasta los pies de la Virgen. Aparte, tenía otras cuarteaduras horizontales menos visibles. Estoy seguro de que eran producto de dobleces. El lienzo en algún tiempo estuvo doblado y por eso se resquebrajó la pintura.
También vi que la imagen ya tenía retoques hechos por otros restauradores. Se lo hice notar a los encargados del santuario. El padre Vargas quería que repintara una parte de la túnica de la Virgen. Yo le decía: 'Padre, no conviene meterse en eso'. Pero él me ordenó: 'Usted hágalo'.

—¿Qué le hizo usted finalmente a la imagen Guadalupana?
—Un levantamiento de pintura en ciertas partes. Y también restaurar las quebraduras.
—¿Volvió a pintar las partes a las que le quitó la pintura?
—Claro. Una restauración implica pintar las partes dañadas, no toda la imagen, porque eso es ya una repintada, que es otra cosa. De manera que le metí mano a una parte de la túnica. Pero no a las estrellas estampadas en ella porque ya estaban repintadas. No quise meterme en más problemas.

El misterio de las estrellas
Flores Gómez está en la sala de su casa. Paredes decoradas con paisajes marinos, bodegones y retratos al óleo pintados por él mismo. Su estudio está en un cuarto contiguo. Ahí tiene más óleos montados sobre caballetes de madera, que sostienen lentes circulares de aumento que agrandan los detalles de las pinturas.
Hay también varias reproducciones guadalupanas al óleo. Y fotografías... muchas fotografías de la imagen original tomadas en distintas fechas. El restaurador va a su estudio y saca una carpeta con fotos. Las muestra al reportero.
Comenta:
-Con las estrellas pasa una cosa curiosa. Mire, si uno observa estas fotos tomadas en distinta época, el número de picos en algunas estrellas no coincide. De pronto, por ejemplo, esta estrella aquí tiene cinco picos, pero acá ya aparece con seis. ¿Qué significa esto? Pues que les han quitado o agregado picos durante las distintas restauraciones.
—¿Cuánto tiempo tardó usted en restaurar la imagen en el 47?
—Unos diez días. Por cierto, la primera vez que analicé la imagen, estaba colocada en el piso y sin marco. Yo ni la saqué ni la cambié de lugar. Estaba lista para que la restaurara. Observé que unas personas remozaban el altar y limpiaban el marco de la imagen. Otros restauradores colocaban oro de hoja en el altar. Todos trabajaban a marchas forzadas porque en pocos días se celebraría un gran homenaje a la virgen, creo que ese era un año mariano.
También trabajé apresuradamente en esos diez días. Incluso, por el poco tiempo, no hice todo lo que debía para que la imagen quedara totalmente restaurada. Recuerdo que, mientras hacía mi trabajo, hubo dos fotógrafos extranjeros, un noruego y un sueco, que directamente tomaban fotos a la pintura.
También tomé fotografías a la imagen. Acostumbro llevar la historia de cada trabajo importante que hago, para registrar el antes y el después. Pero las personas de la Basílica me pidieron los rollos... y tuve que entregarlos.
—¿Qué tipo de pintura usó al repintar la imagen?
—De agua. Era obligado. Tenía que ser de las disueltas en agua y no en aceite, porque son de las que se usaron originalmente. De ahí que se hayan desprendido tan fácilmente.

El deterioro

Apasionado de la pintura desde que era niño, José Antonio Flores Gómez estudió la carrera de derecho en los años cuarenta, mas no la concluyó. Prefirió dedicarse de lleno a la pintura, la fotografía y la restauración. Egresado de la Academia de San Carlos, donde estudió pintura cuando el muralista Diego Rivera era el director, Flores Gómez se especializó, con éxito, en el retrato, al grado de que, por encargo de la Presidencia de la República, realizó retratos al óleo de algunos mandatarios mexicanos, como Gustavo Díaz Ordaz, Miguel de la Madrid y Carlos Salinas de Gortari.
Pese a su edad, actualmente el restaurador se mantiene activo: posee una modesta galería de arte en la calzada de Tlalpan y continúa pintando y realizando trabajos de restauración.

Con zapatillas de tenis y con una camiseta deportiva, el viejo restaurador relata cómo, en 1973, remozó por segunda vez la pintura del Tepeyac.
—Me contrataron de la misma forma que la vez anterior. Llegó una persona a buscarme a mi taller para decirme: 'Tenemos antecedentes suyos, el abad Guillermo Schulenburg quiere hablar con usted'. Y fui a ver al abad. Pensé que sería muy solemne. Pero no. Fue muy simpático y amable conmigo.
De entrada, Schulenburg me sorprendió cuando me dijo con naturalidad que la pintura era 'una obra humana' y que quería que ya no sufriera más 'alteraciones', así llamaba él a los retoques. No creía en el milagro. Eso sí, era muy respetuoso de la devoción popular. Y me contrató solamente para que reentelara y le diera una limpieza al lienzo. Habían pasado veintiséis años desde que yo había restaurado la imagen.
—¿Y cómo la encontró después de tantos años?
—Noté que estaba deteriorándose más, porque entonces la imagen se exponía casi al natural en la vieja Basílica de Guadalupe. Tenía adherido el humor del ambiente. Es ese humor invisible de la gente que muy lentamente se va acumulando en todas las obras y que nosotros llamamos la pátina.
Hoy, en el nuevo santuario, la imagen está más protegida. Se guarda por las noches en una bóveda bien acondicionada que la cuida de los daños del ambiente. Intervinieron expertos y técnicos en preservación de obras de arte. Pero a mí me tocó sin bóveda... Eran otros tiempos.
—¿En qué consistió la limpieza que realizó?
—La limpié meticulosamente con cepillo, durante tres días y en sesiones completas. Había que hacerlo con muchísimo cuidado. Nada de usar aspiradora y cosas de esas, porque se hubieran desprendido las cáscaras de pintura floja. Tan sólo mire usted aquí. ¡Fíjese!
Y el restaurador apunta a los rayos dorados que salen de la espalda de la virgen, en una fotografía a detalle. Son rayos descarapelados, escamas a punto de desprenderse.
—¿Y el reentelamiento cómo lo hizo?
—Utilicé tela de manta que antes se conocía como 'manta del cien'. Era muy popular. Y para analizar la trama del tejido usé un simple cuentahilos, que es el que utilizan las tejedoras y los fabricantes de textiles. No hay necesidad de microscopios electrónicos ni de aparatos sofisticados. Basta con el cuentahilos.
Descubrí que la tela no es de ixtle, como se dice, pues el ixtle tiene una trama muy tosca, muy rústica, con un cordel muy grueso. En cambio, la imagen Guadalupana está pintada sobre una trama muy fina, como la que se saca del algodón.
—¿Cuánto le pagaron por su trabajo?
—Como 350 pesos.
—¿No es muy poco?
—No, no. Yo creo que estuvo bien para ese tiempo. Tomando en cuenta que no fue mucho trabajo ni utilicé muchos materiales.

Los empastes
Nueve años después de haber contratado los servicios del restaurador, en 1982, Schulenburg quiso saber mayores detalles sobre la pintura. Para esto, le pidió un estudio al perito José Sol Rosales, exdirector del Centro Nacional de Registro y Conservación para Obra Mueble, del INBA.
Sol Rosales confirmó en su peritaje que la imagen era una obra pictórica humana, realizada con colores elaborados a base de cochinilla, de sulfato de calcio —conocido entonces como tizatl— y de un negro extraído del hollín del humo del ocote.
El análisis detalló otras características de la pintura: su estilo, los repintes que se le aplicaron a lo largo del tiempo, las mutilaciones sufridas, la capa de preparación que le sirvió de base y hasta las salpicaduras de agua y parafina derivadas del culto (Proceso 1333) En secreto, Schulenburg envió el estudio al Vaticano para advertir sobre los riesgos que se corrían al canonizar a Juan Diego, a quien, según la tradición, milagrosamente se le estampó la imagen en su tilma.

Igual que Sol Rosales, el restaurador Flores Gómez asegura que los pigmentos son de cochinilla, tizatl y humo de ocote, entre otros.
-En la pintura se combinan pigmentos vegetales y minerales, disueltos en agua. Es una pintura al temple. Es muy lógico. En aquel tiempo sólo podían utilizarse pinturas naturales.
El restaurador destapa un pequeño frasco. En su interior hay un polvo amarillento y petrificado, listo para recibir el pincel. Explica:
-Mire, esta tierrita da una tonalidad dorada. Durante siglos se le ha llamado 'tierra de ocre'. Con ella se pintaron los rayos de la Virgen. Aún se fabrica.
Lamenta los empastes con que algunos restauradores cubrieron partes de la imagen, provocando un fuerte contraste con la pátina original.
Principalmente en el rostro de la Virgen se nota mucho un empastamiento. Y a un doblez de la túnica hasta le cambiaron su color original. De cualquier forma, es muy difícil que la pintura de los retoques, nueva y vivaz, armonice con la pátina de la pintura primitiva.
—¿Usted ha conocido a otros restauradores de la imagen?
—No. A ninguno. Los restauradores que han intervenido lo han hecho con exagerada discreción. Nunca lo han querido confesar.
—¿Las autoridades del santuario lo obligaron a guardar silencio?
—No. Más bien yo mismo me obligué a callar, por seguridad.
—¿Qué se siente haber restaurado a la imagen más venerada de México?
—Una sensación muy rara, pero al mismo tiempo como de temor. Sí, se siente temor. Pues nacimos en un medio en el que todas las familias son guadalupanas y la mayoría cree en el milagro, entre ellas la mía.

Yo si soy restaurador, y todo o casi todo lo que dice ese sr es mentira. En tres dias es imposible reentelar una obra sea la que sea.
No se si la imagen de la Virgen es un milagro o no, pero lo que si seria un milagro es reentelar un cuadro en tres dias, este Sr miente y dudo que haya hecho algun trabajo de restauracion en su vida.

al que opina como restaurador: no sé si todo lo que dice el sr. Flores es mentira o no, pero él nunca dijo que renteló en tres días LEE BIEN. ciertamente yo no conosco nada de restauraciones de obras de arte pero entiendo que al decir "limpié meticulosamente con cepillo durante tres días" no significa lo mismo que "hice el reentelamiento en tres días".Por otro lado pienso que tanto Fray de Zumárraga y los sacerdotes españoles recurrieron a una "mentirilla blanca" para imponer la religion católica a los indígenas locales haciendo que dejaran de adorar a los dioses que tenían y poniendo fin a los atroces sacrificios de mujeres y niños. Al paso del tiempo y con la popularidad que ganó la virgen del tepeyac la iglesia no pudo ni ha podido retractarse de decir que la impresion del ayate es obra de un milagro, las energias de las personas, el fervor y la fe con la que la veneran millones de personas no solo de mexico le han dado a la imagen la característica de convertirse en una virgen en realidad milagrosa.

Ciertamente es muy difícil demostrar nuestra autenticidad sobre todo cuando pensamos una cosa, decimos otra y hacemos una tercera que nada tiene que ver con las dos primeras, y ello nos acerca más a una demostración de fraude que de otra cosa, pero tal vez lo más cercano a una definición demostrable de lo que realmente somos, sea la de absurdos, como dijera Camus; en cuanto a que "somos lo que somos" pues nada menos cierto, ello es obvio de toda obviedad, por no decir que es una verdad de perogrullo; pero ¿clarifica algo en cuanto a la categoria del ser y de lo que somos? Me temo que tampoco, por lo que me sigo quedando con Camus y lo absurdo.

SIR JOHN SUCKLING: ENCOURAGEMENTS TO A LOVER

Why so pale and wan, fond lover?
  Prythee, why so pale?
Will, if looking well can't move her,
  Looking ill prevail?
  Prythee, why so pale?

Why so dull and mute, young sinner?
  Prythee, why so mute?
Will, when speaking well can't win her,
  Saying nothing do't?
  Prythee, why so mute?

Quit, quit, for shame! this will not move,
  This cannot take her;
If of herself she will not love,
  Nothing can make her:
  The Devil take her!

ALCANFOR

"...y cuando Marco Polo refiere cómo la pimienta se cultiva en toda la India, y la canela en el Ganges; que el mejor alcanfor del mundo venía de Sumatra (se vendía a precio de oro), y que la nuez moscada hacía las fortunas en Java…está indicando las rutas que tomaría el comercio medieval." La nueva Europa y su era americana

Alcanfor. Proveniente del árbol llamado alcanfor del Japon, árbol del Japón, o alcanforero, (Cinnamomum camphora, o Laurus camphora), perteneciente a la familia de las lauráceas
Se obtiene por enfriamiento y destilación del aceite esencial que se encuentra en la madera ($C_{10}H_{16}O$), existe en tres fórmulas o isómeros, de las cuales el más común es el dextro-alcanfor o alcanfor del Japón. Esta masa blanca cristalizada, fuertemente aromática, de sabor fino y pungente, inflamable y sublimable (se vaporiza y condensa sin pasar por el estado líquido), se clasifica en las cetonas ciclánicas, ciclénicas o cicloterpénicas, donde se incluyen tanto el alcanfor natural como el sintético.
El alcanfor sintético se obtiene a partir del pineno, principal constituyente de la esencia de trementina. Los dos se presentan en masas cristalinas incoloras, translúcidas, untuosas al tacto, con olor característico, fuertemente aromático. El alcanfor natural y el sintético se utiliza en cosmética como antiséptico, antifúngico, y antipruriginoso.

Al haber sido usado tradicionalmente como repelente de insectos , hay quien confunde el alcanfor con la naftalina (nombre comercial del naftaleno, C10H8) que se utilizó como sustititutivo.
El alcanfor contiene ácido acético, ácido fórmico, safrol, linalol, estearopteno, eugenol y cineol, fibras, ácidos grasos,
Es un poderoso estimulante local, y del sistema respiratorio, expectorante, vasomotor y cardíaco, antiespasmódico, diaforético (provoca y aumenta la sudoración), rubefaciente, antiinflamatorio y vasodilatador.
Se usa como analgésico local, y disuelto en aceite como estimulante cardiaco. El aceite alcanforado (al 10%) se utiliza en friegas locales para aliviar los dolores reumáticos, y en el pecho y la espalda para aliviar el enfriamiento agudo. El alcanfor fue un remedio tradicional para combatir los resfríados, llevándolo en una bolsita de tela, colgada al cuello.
Industrialmente, también se usa como plastificante para fabricar celuloide, y en explosivos y barnices.
El llamado alcanfor de Borneo es el borneol, quimicamente diferente del alcanfor de Japón.
En el Regimen Sanitatis Salernitanum se dice: Camphora per nares, castrat odore mares. (El olor del alcanfor castra a los machos), y a pesar de sus características como estimulante, vasomotor, antiespasmódico y diaforético, lo cierto es que los efluvios del alcanfor son letales para los pájaros.
El alcanforero es un árbol de porte esbelto, columna ancha y follaje perenne; y sus hojas son coriáceas, rosadas cuando son jóvenes, y luego, verde claro, glaucas por el envés. Flores en panículas; drupas ovoides violeta muy oscuro que vira a negro brillante, y semillas muy duras del tamaño de un perdigón.
La madera del alcanforero tiene vetas de un hermoso color rojizo y amarillento,y, al ser de densidad y dureza medias, es facil de lijar , pulir y tallar. Se utiliza en instrumentos musicales y esculturas, así como en armarios, librerías, baúles y cómodas por sus propiedades como repelente de insectos.
En el ritual hindú puja (पूजा) se utiliza para encender el fuego que finaliza la ceremonia, y en los países mediterráneos, en épocas de epidemias y penurias, se solía añadir alcanfor para baldear las casas y ahuyentar los males.
Entre los nez que usan el alcanfor en sus composiciones, destaca Annick Ménardo, creadora de Body Kouros, para hombre, de Yves Saint Lauren, que lleva en sus notas de salida té negro, palo de rosa, incienso, y bergamota; en la nota media, cedro, vainilla, y ámbar, y en las notas de fondo, alcanfor y benjuí: un antídoto perfecto contra la astenia iocandi.

Durante muchos años soñé con tener un jardín, con algunas flores que me gustan, pero sobre todo para poder plantar un cinamomo.
Lo había en el de mi casa de pequeña, y es la cosa más bonita del mundo.
Una belleza perenne, e inolvidable.
Gracias por recordarmelo.

DE LA CANCIÓN DEL PIRATA A DAVID BRAVO CONTRA LA SGAE

Video: Canción pirata del pirata

En Gatopardo quedó acordado que relegaríamos todos los estragos de nuestra delicuescente sensibilidad y los dejaríamos para poner a prueba la paciencia de nuestros amigos y amantes, que para eso los escogemos del género sufrido. No obstante, hemos de confesar que la mayor parte de nuestras campañas de apoyo a la libre circulación de las ideas, la inteligencia y la cultura (donde, por supuesto, no incluimos las obras completas de Ramoncín, César Antonio Molina, Teddy Bautista, José Luis Rodríguez Neri, Andrés Collado, y cualquiera de los de la alegre cuchipanda del Ministerio de Cultura, SGAE, SDAE, Latinergy, Museekflazz, Egrem, Portalatino, Coqnet, La Central Digital, Argos, la Fundación Autor), lo hacemos como defensores de una concepción de la ética y la épica que proviene de La canción del pirata: "En las presas/ yo divido/ lo cogido/ por igual;/ sólo quiero/ por riqueza/ la belleza/ sin rival.".
Y con esas premisas, y con nuestro lema: "¡Que se me caiga la chorra a cachos y se la coman los mengues si les doy mi voto a los que dijeron que sí al canon digital!" es un honor para esta piratería ser capitaneados por David Bravo, de Espacio fílmica, y sumarnos como un solo hombre a su campaña para mejorar los anuncios del Ministerio de Cultura contra nosotros:

Algunos consejos prácticos para que el Ministerio de Cultura aprenda definitivamente a hacer campañas contra la piratería

El Ministerio de Cultura, ése que aplaudía las detenciones de webmasters de páginas de e.links que después quedaban libres por no haber cometido delito alguno, acaba de lanzar una nueva campaña contraria a las descargas p2p. Tengo que decir que, por fin, el dinero público está correctamente invertido. Si bien en las anteriores campañas no se conseguía el efecto perseguido de concienciar a la población (o eso dijo al menos el barómetro del CIS), ahora, quizás por el cambio de ministro, tampoco se consigue el efecto perseguido; pero al menos te ríes y consiguen que pases un buen rato. Eso que te llevas.
No quiero caer en la megalomanía, defecto este que suele darme verguenza ajena cuando la veo claramente reflejado en alguien, pero me da que incluso he inspirado una de las secciones de la campaña. Como algunos recordarán, la primera conferencia mía que se difundió por internet, allá por 2004, fue una que llamé "Las 10 mentiras más famosas sobre la piratería". Pues bien, la sección que les digo de la campaña del Ministerio de Cultura se titula "Las 10 mentiras más difundidas sobre la propiedad intelectual" y en ella te avisan de que "los ilegales intentan engañarte" y te advierten para que "¡No te dejes manipular!". Si alguien no se ha reído al leer que tipos que "guionizan series de éxito" para deslizar mensajes antipiratería tildan a otros de "manipuladores", es que no ha pillado el chiste. Está claro que es un guiño, una ironía. Qué otra cosa puede ser si tiramos de hemeroteca y leemos en los términos en los que hablaban de su anterior campaña "Defiende tu Cultura" en la memoria de 2006 de la Comisión Intersectorial para Actuar Contra las Actividades Vulneradoras de la Propiedad Intelectual.
En esta memoria se admitía casi pacíficamente que el adoctrinamiento era el objetivo principal y el método para lograrlo no era otro que el de la repetición sistemática ad nauseam. Decían, por ejemplo, que la campaña "Defiende tu Cultura" tenía “el fin de propiciar un cambio de actitudes mediante la interiorización de ese mensaje” y, más adelante, sin pelos en la lengua, decían que “se trata de un mensaje que debe mantenerse durante largo tiempo para que pueda ser interiorizado por los ciudadanos” y que “el Plan de medios de la campaña tenía como objetivo llegar al mayor número de personas un número de veces adecuado para que calara el mensaje”. Como digo, resulta paradójico que gente que usa esta retórica tan inquietante hable de aquellos que están a favor de las descargas, y que así lo manifiestan, como manipuladores.
Lo peor de aquella campaña es que se lanzó en vísperas navideñas, porque así, como reconocía la propia memoria de la Comisión, coincidia "con momentos de compra de regalos". Estando ahora a pocos días de Diciembre, supongo que la lógica de mercado de esta campaña es la misma que la anterior: junto con el mensaje antidescargas, promocionar los productos de las compañías discográficas, cinematográficas y editoriales en los momentos en los que existe un mayor consumo.
Animado por haber sido la némesis que ha servido de inspiración para una de las secciones de esta campaña, aprovecho para dar algunos consejos sobre el resto de secciones que, en mi humilde opinión, podían mejorarse.
Primero: El concurso debe dar premios de verdad.
La sección del concurso, permítanme que les diga, es lamentable. En ella me aseguran que la piratería también me afecta a mi y me piden que cuente mi experiencia. De entre los testimonios más desgarradores se seleccionará uno mensual, cuyo autor ganará un premio. Hasta ahí no tengo pegas. Lo que creo que falla es el premio que se ofrece. Es decir, ¿alguien les escribe diciendo "yo era un rico ejecutivo y por culpa de la piratería estoy arruinado" y ustedes le regalan una entrada doble para visitar el Museo del Prado?

¿Están de broma? ¿Lo de la entrada para qué es? ¿Para la reventa? Por favor, que el premio sea de verdad: un coche, un viaje a Japón, conocer a Mamen Mendizábal... Algo que haga ilusión a alguien que está pasando por un mal momento.
Por otro lado, ¿han pensado ustedes en la cantidad de gente que va a inventarse su testimonio? Y lo que es peor: teniendo en cuenta los disparates que sueltan los tipos con los que ustedes se reúnen habitualmente y que tienen en tan alta estima ¿quién va a saber diferenciar lo que se ha mandado en serio y lo que es broma? Voy a ponerles a prueba para demostrar cuán difícil será averiguar qué es real y qué no. Les voy a proponer tres testimonios y ustedes han de adivinar cuál es el que no está basado en absoluto en una declaración real. Ahí van:
1.- Soy cantante y me consta que por culpa de la piratería Alejandro Sanz ha dejado de comprarse muchos coches Mercedes. Creo que llora por las noches.
2.- Soy el presidente de una gran asociación de discográficas. Fíjense si las descargas son peligrosas que, el otro día, incluso unos manteros se nos quejaron de que su negocio delictivo se estaba viendo mermado por la piratería en internet y pidiéndonos trabajar juntos contra los piratas de internet. Proponían una alianza entre manteros y discográficas contra un enemigo común y peligroso: los piratas de internet. No crean que les miento, les prometo que los manteros vinieron a plantearnos esto que les digo. Que yo sea el presidente de la asociación que agrupa a las discográficas más importantes del mundo no significa que no pueda echar un rato charlando con estos extraños señores harapientos.
3.- Somos el grupo technopop "Viceversa", los de la famosa canción de "Tu piel morena sobre la arena" (la rima es nuestra). Habíamos pensado en volver a la escena pero con la piratería y todo eso, la cosa está muy complicada para la gente joven.
Pues bien, de todos los testimonios, aunque parezca mentira, sólo el último no está basado en declaraciones reales, como demuestran estos links respecto del primer y segundo testimonio.
Las bases del concurso permiten al Ministerio de Cultura nombrar un sustituto del ganador si observan "participación fraudulenta" por parte del mismo, probablemente para evitar este tipo de cachondeitos, pero, teniendo en cuenta cómo se las gastan sus amigos en sus declaraciones, la verdad es que no van a tener fácil distinguir lo que se dice en serio de lo que no es más que una broma.
Segundo: Los testimonios expuestos son blanditos.
Ignoro si los textos que figuran en la sección "Testimoniales" han sido enviados por participantes del concurso anteriormente referido o están ahí expuestos a modo de ejemplo. Si es esto último creo que se pueden mejorar considerablemente. A los testimonios relativos a la pérdida de puestos de trabajo y cambios en el sector hay que darles algo más de fuerza y dramatismo. Que los que lo lean no digan "señores, comprendo su desconcierto y preocupación, pero es que el modelo de negocio ha cambiado radicalmente", sino que digan "esta historia es tan desoladora y me ha llegado tan adentro que voy a empezar a denunciar a todos los piratas que conozca: empezaré por mis hijos".
Una de las historias cuenta que una chica compró un disco en el Top Manta y no era del grupo que ella pensaba (primera desilusión), pero es que para colmo el CD tenía un virus, lo que descubrió porque el ordenador empezó a hacer cosas raras "al día siguiente" (era de estos que incuban en 24 horas). La historia está bien, tiene su cosa y además es trasladable al P2P, que es el verdadero problema y del que ya han dicho ustedes que tiene peligro de virus, pero creo que es necesario hurgar más en la herida. Exponer todas las vísceras del drama. Por ejemplo, ¿a qué se refieren con que el ordenador hacia "cosas raras"? Dicho así parece como si de repente se hubiera vuelto irascible. Además el testimonio dice que ahora el ordenador, además de estar raro, ya"no encontraba algunos archivos". Pero ¿buscó bien el ordenador esos archivos o más bien hacía como el que buscaba para cumplir?

Tercera: La campaña televisiva supone dar un paso atrás y ceder a la presión de los piratas.
En la campaña "Ahora la Ley Actúa", que se lanzó con el apoyo de su ministerio, se comparaba la descarga con diversos delitos como robar un coche o un bolso. Ese era el camino correcto. El problema es que luego vino lo de la Fiscalía General del Estado con su circular 1/2006 donde se decía que descargar de internet no era delito y los sobreseimientos a páginas de elinks, en cuyas resoluciones los jueces llegan a manifestar que es un "criterio generalizado" que la descarga no es delictiva. Muchos se enfadaron porque ustedes apoyaban una campaña que comparaba la descarga con diversos delitos cuando ésta no lo era. Es posible que eso les haya hecho reaccionar dulcificando un poco el mensaje.
El nuevo anuncio cambia la tónica. Ahora se decanta por contar una historia, que puede ser vista, teniendo en cuenta los precedentes, como algo blanda e incluso confusa.
El anuncio cuenta la historia de una pareja de enamorados. Ambos son felices y se puede deducir por sus comportamientos que también son buenas personas. De ella se intuye que es una mujer tranquila, incapaz de molestar a nadie ni de levantar la voz. Eso sí, tampoco es que sea sumisa. Tiene sus convicciones y las defiende, pero siempre con mano izquierda y sin arrollar al de enfrente. Él es un buen chico. Eso puede verse claramente en que, en un momento dado de la historia, casi pierde a su hijo ante un conductor temerario y, aún así, no se solivianta ni un poquito sino que permanece ahí estático, con su cara de joven buena gente. Además, y este es el dato fundamental que le caracteriza por completo, tiene el pelo semilargo, que le da un aspecto informal pero sin ser descuidado. Es decir, no tiene el pelo corto como un relamido apoltronado en el sistema ni tampoco es un greñudo. No es ni de aquí ni de allá. Digamos que está en el centro, donde no ofende a nadie. Tal vez puede que tire estéticamente un poco a la izquierda, pero sin que se le confunda con un radical, que los extremos se tocan.
Pues bien, como les decía, esta pareja está a un paso de ver cómo su vida cambia por completo. Ella se ha quedado embarazada y, un mal día, tiene que aguantar que fume a su lado una ejecutiva con pinta de prepotente, una de esas que despiden a 100 trabajadores de un plumazo y que descargan música de internet. No le dice nada, porque es prudente, pero la semilla del rencor ya está plantada. Unos meses más tarde, habiendo ya dado a luz, al cruzar por un paso de peatones tiene que reaccionar en el último momento para evitar que un coche atropelle el carrito en el que lleva a su recién nacido. Para colmo, el desalmado que conducía le hace un gesto grosero. Pero eso no es todo, tras estos dos sucesos desagradable, una persona vestida de traje les raya el coche con una llave. La violencia por la violencia.
Finalmente el anuncio nos muestra cómo la vida ha cambiado el carácter de nuestros protagonistas y una noche, al salir del portal de su casa, se ponen a patear contenedores de basura sin razón aparente. Efectivamente, se han vuelto locos.
Pues bien, toda esta historia tiene una moraleja que se trae a colación al final del anuncio para aplicarla a los que descargan de internet y que, básicamente, se resume en que el hecho de que en el mundo haya mucho hijo de puta suelto no significa que tú te tengas que convertir en uno.
A mí, sin embargo, sin dejar de admitir que la evolución de los personajes principales y su descenso a los infiernos a lo Taxi Driver me ha gustado mucho, me parece que se queda a medio camino. Creo que la historia daba para un mayor desarrollo. Por ejemplo, podrían continuar con la historia de los padres violentos dando un nuevo salto en el tiempo hasta la adolescencia de su bebé. Su ahora quinceañero hijo, avergonzado por su aparato en los dientes, no quiere ir a una fiesta. Su madre, ya absolutamente desquiciada por las zancadillas de la vida, le aconseja a su hijo que se acerque a Carla y le sonría con los ojos muy abiertos y el cuello estirado como un demente, lo que se traducirá, como sería de esperar para cualquier persona con dos dedos de frente, en que el niño no perderá la virginidad hasta los 37 años. Aquí sí veo impacto y pulso dramático. Lo que no se puede es empezar comparando a los que descargan de internet con los que dan tirones a los bolsos para pasar ahora a equipararlos con una pareja que patea un contenedor de basura porque se han quedado tarumbas.

Lo que sí me ha parecido una muy buena idea es no haber pedido nunca disculpas por señalar como criminales a los que después se ha demostrado que no lo eran. Eso ya era dar demasiados pasos atrás.
Cuarto: El logo de la campaña da verguenza ajena.
Aquí seré rápido. El logo de la campaña en el que una "c" de copyright se transforma en una carita sonriente sólo es bueno si el mensaje va dirigido principalmente a niños pequeños, muy pequeños, de 0 a 10 meses.
Quinto: El lema de la campaña es el peor posible.
El lema es "si eres legal, eres legal". ¿Esto va en serio? ¿Qué agencia les ha diseñado la campaña? ¿Pueden recuperar el dinero?
Sexto: La manipulación de la sección "En la Onda" es demasiado patente.
En esta sección se explican aquellas iniciativas que están a "la última en la lucha contra la piratería". La primera de todas ellas es una loable iniciativa de Elías Lafuente, que dirige una compañía de danza integrada por bailarines con Síndrome de Down. ¿Pueden explicarme qué relación hay, aunque sólo sea indirecta, entre esto y las descargas de internet? Sólo queda pensar que se ha colado aquí esta iniciativa para que aquellos que estén a favor de las descargas queden automáticamente clasificados en el sector contrario a aquél en el que se sitúan iniciativas favorables a la integración de personas con discapacidades intelectuales. Es tan burdo, que más que manipulación sólo se le puede llamar, directamente, insulto.

Noticia que será publicada en El País, el 25 de noviembre 2008:

"Gottschalks, la cadena de grandes almacenes del oeste de EE UU en la que El Corte Inglés es el primer accionista, cerró el viernes un acuerdo por el que Everbright Development Overseas se hará con la mayoría del capital. Domiciliada en las Islas Vírgenes, Everbright es una firma de capital chino. Fue fundada por Guangying Wong, ex alto funcionario del régimen comunista, y está controlada por su familia. Everbright suscribirá 40 millones de acciones nuevas de Gottschalks a 1,80 dólares, lo que le dará en torno al 75% del capital. El pacto contempla otras transacciones y la unión de ambas firmas para comercio mayorista. La posición de El Corte Inglés en Gottschalks se verá fuertemente diluida. Las acciones han caído el 95% en apenas año y medio por la crisis que atraviesa la firma."

ARTÍCULO DE VAILIMA: LO QUE A TODOS CONCIERNE

Y, por favor, no se queden de brazos cruzados: protesten por escrito ante los responsables, y dejen constancia para que, en el futuro, los historiadores sepan que no todos fuimos patanes indecentes que aceptamos que la "propiedad privada" primara sobre el interés general, y que esta panda de incompetentes que "diseña" la política cultural y legisla no actuó en nuestro nombre y representación.
De nada, ya saben que me gusta ser útil.

REPSOL: LOS FANTASMAS DEL GOBIERNO Y OTROS FANTASMONES PATRIOS (1)

"Garzón: no los encause, que se libran."

Desde que Rubacalba Productions ha dejado de editar en Saldos Prisa, las maniobras de intoxicación informativa han alcanzado cimas de imbecilidad grotesca. Si ustedes leen una historieta nacional donde aparecen espías, matones, informes only-for-your-eyes con un fondo realista de periodistas tontos y corruptos, tengan por cierto que el guionista es Pérez Rubalcaba. Saldos Prisa, otrora, formateaba y adecentaba, con un castellano apto para próstatas engrosadas, las ocurrencias de esta lumbrera del Colegio del Pilar. Pero hoy anda suelto y sin control.
El famoso informe del CNI , con referencia C/12861/07-10/2008, de 7 de octubre de 2008, tiene una factura tan creible como los faxes del Capitán Khan y las esquelas necrológicas de Paesa. Favor de enseñar el informe y cotejar numeración.
La sustancia del informe no dice nada nuevo que no hayan dicho durante los últimos cinco años todos los analístas de geoestrategia política, además de prensa política y económica europea
No dudo yo que el CNI sea capaz de elaborar un anacronismo tan sudado, pero éste es de la factoría Rubalcaba, que no es que tenga alma de conspirador, sino de lioso chivato de colegio de curas (en eso se hermana con Bono), que se crió mamando lo del peligro soviético, el mismo coco que sacó, en su día el PSOE, para entrar en la OTAN. Y, por cierto, también fue para pagar deudas.
Para quien le aburran estos temas, resumo el lío: En 2006, Luis de Rivero, protegido del Gobierno Zapatero y presidente de Sacyr, recibe un préstamo de 42 entidades financieras por valor de más de cinco mil millones de euros para comprar el 20% de Repsol. En 2006, los beneficios de Sacyr no llegaban a los 300 millones de euros, pero a nadie de la prensa económica le pareció rara semejante operación ni una condición envenenada la de aumentar las garantías si bajaban las acciones por debajo de 20 euros. Quien empaquetó a Sacyr con lazo y lo entregó a la banca fue su amigo Sebastián. Eso pasa por bailar con la tropa de Intermoney.
En 2008, Sacyr no puede ni aumentar garantías ni pagar a sus acreedores, el principal de los cuales es el Santander. Así es que decide vender el 20% de Repsol.

Y, a partir de este momento intervienen Sebastian, Rubalcaba y el Presidente de Gobierno, que nunca no sabe a ciencia de lo que habla pero lo hace de la manera más pomposa y campanuda posible. El objetivo : saquear las arcas del estado y que queden todos contentos.
Fases:
1) Hablar del apetitoso bocado que son las acciones de Repsol (acciones que se ha devaluado un 50% desde 2006 a 2008). Así se difunde, a través de la prensa económica del ´regimen, en septiembre, la leyenda urbana de que la francesa TOTAL está interesada en comprar estas acciones. Repsol sube ficticiamente unos días hasta que TOTAL, harta de los rumores, niega tajantemente su interés.
2) Ocultar todos los datos negativos sobre Repsol, maniobra que, en los mercados fuera de España no tiene ningún efecto, pero aquí si porque a nadie se le ocurre documentarse. De Repsol, no se ha dicho, por ejemplo:

- Los gravísimos problemas técnicos, económicos y operativos de Repsol en San Roque, que han obligado a reducir su producción a la mitad.
- Al cierre temporal de H208, se suma el desastre económico (por no hablar del ecológico) de sus plantas en Tarragona con el suministro de glicoles y polioles y la incapacidad de aumentar los márgenes de beneficio, que ha hecho huir a Dow Chemichal.
- -Su falta de competitividad frente a su nuevo competidor Cepsa Química , participada por Total en un 48%.
- La política del gobierno libio en la distribución de los bloques explotados de la cuenca del Murzuc (bloques NC115 y NC186), gracias a la cual OMV y Total están arrinconando a Repsol.
- Su incapacidad de previsión de la política del gobierno boliviano que le ha originado la pérdida de su hegemonía en Andina.
- Su estrepitosa salida por pies de Ecuador y de sus explotaciones en la Amazonia.

Estos descalabros (y son sólo un botón de muestra) han ocurrido en 10 meses.
3) Una compañía, en estas condiciones es difícil de vender, (hasta de regalar). Si la acción está a 13 euros y se pone a la venta, con opa o sin opa, no se pagan más de 10. Así es que se hace un bucle de trapicheo consistente en pedir a la mafia rusa que puje. El dinero que va a pagar la compañía mafiosa lo aportan los bancos españoles. Y los bancos españoles reciben el dinero del Estado en forma de ayudas a la crisis financiera. Puestos a meter la mano en el Tesoro, pues pagamos las acciones al doble de lo que están (caso único en la historia de la bolsa) y nos da de sobra para pagar intermediarios, amigos y servicios.
4) En el caso de que alguien se escandalice (que no creo, porque Rato anda metido en la historia), pues se saca el monigote del peligro rojo y la bandera de España y le compramos a Sacyr las acciones. Eso sí, ya subidas de precio gracias a Lukoil.
O lo que es lo mismo: aquí huele a maquinación para alterar el precio de las cosas.

ABELMOSCO

ABELMOSCO (Hibiscus Abelmoschus o abelmoschus moschatus) Es uno de los aceites esenciales que se usan en perfumería: tiene un aroma más parecido a la algalia (secrección glandular de la civeta, viverra civetta) que al almizcle, al que sustituye.

Pertenece a la familia de las malváceas, originalmente fue clasificada como parte del género Hibiscus, y actualmente en el género Abelmoschus. Conocido como hibisco, abelmosco, almizclillo, abuinchillo, ambarilla, etc.

Contiene fosfolípidos y miricetina, una flavona que tiene propiedades hipoglucemiantes.

El aceite esencial se extrae de las semillas del arbusto abelmosco. Es muy apreciado en perfumeria, aunque puede producir reacciones de fotosensibilidad en algunas personas. Por sus propiedades potencialmente alteradoras del sistema endocrino, productor de las feromonas, y debido a la persistencia y bioacumulación de los almizcles, se ha regulado en la Comisión Europea su etiquetado y restringido su utilización en cosmética.

Se utiliza en aromaterapia para el tratamiento de la depresión, de la ansiedad y de la hiposexualidad, y es un estimulante del sistema nervioso central. En linimento, sirve para aliviar el dolor articular y mejorar la circulación de la sangre.

La emulsión hecha con la semillas de abelmosco trituradas y agua tiene propiedades antiespasmódicas.

Masticando las semillas se neutraliza la halitosis, y se impide la proliferación del Helicobacter pylori, causante de las úlceras de estómago. También tienen propiedades diuréticas y carminativas.

En fitoterapia también se usa para la dermatitis, mediante cataplasma de semillas hervidas en leche.

Las semillas de abelmosco trituradas con albahaca, clavo, y romero, y maceradas durante nueve días en alcohol, sirven como repelente natural contra los mosquitos. También se usan las semillas de abelmosco como aromatizante del té y del café árabe.

En el Āyurveda existe un tratamiento de sanación para los males del alma y del cuerpo (unidad indisociable) que consiste en ungir la frente, las sienes, y los pulsos con una mezcla tibia de aceites esenciales de hierbas aromáticas y medicinales, y, a continuación, durante cuarenta minutos, se cubre el cuerpo con un edredón de algodón o lino blanco, relleno con una mezcla de semillas y hojas de plantas medicinales y aromáticas trituradas , entre otras, abelmosco, canela, espliego, cedro, aloe, sándalo, alcanfor, nuez moscada, espliego, cilantro, azahar, clavo, albahaca, romero...

La sabiduría y la serenidad en la elección de un perfume —y en la vida— es un largo aprendizaje, que no siempre se consigue.

Un ejemplo dramático de falta de criterio se da con el perfume Poison, de Christian Dior, compuesto en las notas de salida, de tête, de azahar, cilantro, guindilla, ciruela, y anís; seguido al cabo de unas horas, en la nota media, de coeur, de rosa, clavel, tuberosa y canela, y dejando como poso, entre las doce y 24 horas, las notas de fond de ámbar, sándalo, opoponax y abelmosco; y, también, en el perfume 212 Sexy de Carolina Herrera, con una nota de salida compuesta por bergamota, pimienta roja, y mandarina, para dejar paso a la nota de coeur compuesta de una mezcla floral dulce, gardenia, miel y como nota de fondo, almizcle, sándalo, y vainilla.

El resultado, en los dos casos, es un perfume para enloquecidas aspirantes a primíparas añosas a las que no les importe conseguir un donante de semen con el tabique nasal de platino, a juego con el suyo. Y así sólo se estropea una casa.

Vaya, Agüela, pues a mi me gusta el Poisón, aunque reconozco que, ultimamente, me pongo pocas veces, decantándome por las colonias de baño. Será eso que, sólo de pensar en un donante de semen me pongo mala de morir?.
Tendré que reflexionar...

ABEDUL BLANCO

ABEDUL BLANCO (Betula Alba) Es uno de los aceites esenciales que se usan en perfumería: tiene un aroma balsámico y leñoso.
De la corteza se extrae un aceite esencial que se usa en cosmética (anticaspa), y para curtir y aromatizar el cuero de Rusia.
Contiene betulinol, betulenoles, diterpenos, sesquiterpenos (14-hidroxi-beta-cariofileno), taninos gálicos, elágicos y catéquicos, y ácidos fenólicos, derivados del ácido cinámico, ácido clorogénico, avicularina, flavonoides, heterósidos de miricitrina, hiperósido, quercetol, quercitrina, saponinas triterpénicas, y vitamina C.
En fitoterapia se utiliza el abedul como cicatrizante por su alto contenido en taninos y extracto etanólico, que, al tener un efecto desinfectante y astringente favorece la cicatrización de las heridas; también es eficaz como diurético por su contenido en flavonoides, y como colagogo/colerético, ya que aumenta la secreción de bilis.
Indicado para el tratamiento de edemas, infecciones genitourinarias, cálculos renales, y retención de orina.
Para aliviar la inflamación y los dolores reumáticos, se rellena un cojín de tela de algodón con hojas desmenuzadas de abedul, y se coloca en la zona dolorida. También, como almohada, alivia la rigidez muscular en el cuello.
Las hojas ahuyentan a los insectos, y es un remedio tradicional contra las polillas de la ropa y los insectos que atacan los libros, por lo que es aconsejable utilizar las hojas secas de abedul como relleno en bolsitas para los roperos, y como marcapáginas de lectura.
Su madera es dura y resistente; con el duramen marrón claro, y la albura blanca y rosacea. Es apta para tallar y para ebanistería.Se utiliza en mangos de cuchillos y navajas, en los zuecos tradicionales de Asturias, en cajas de radio y altavoces por su magnífica resonancia, cualidad que ha aprovechado JVC para fabricar los auriculares

HP-FX500 con madera de abedul para conseguir un sonido de calidad excepcional.
En la antiguedad, la tinta de imprenta se fabricaba con hollín de abedul. Y Claudia Severa, desde el campamento romano de Vindolanda, utilizaba tablillas de un par de milímetros de grosor de madera de abedul para escribir, y que su afectuosa invitación perdurara miles de años:

Saludos de Claudia Severa a Lepidina.
En el 3er día antes de los Idus de septiembre, hermana mía, para el día de celebración de mi cumpleaños, te hago llegar una cálida invitación para asegurarme de que vengas a vernos, y que hagas más agradable esta jornada con tu presencia. Saluda de mi parte a tu Cerial. Mi Aelio y mi hijo os envían sus saludos. Te esperaré, hermana.
Adios hermana mía, mi alma querida, a quien deseo prosperidad y salud.

A Sulpicia Lepidina, esposa de Cerial, de parte de Severa.

No durará tantos siglos ninguno de los materiales modernos en los que escribimos.
Y, además, gracias a las flexibles ramas de abedul, se consiguió la disciplina inglesa que hizo posible el Imperio británico y el sadomasoquismo oxbridge.

INFORME DE FISCALIZACIÓN DE LA DIRECCIÓN GENERAL DE BELLAS ARTES Y BIENES CULTURALES (7 Y 8). CONCLUSIONES Y RECOMENDACIONES

Los responsables de las numerosas irregularidades que señala el Tribunal de Cuentas podrían ser punibles, según los artículos 404 al 445 del Código Penal vigente, y algunos otros.

La trama de intelectuales paniaguados, fundaciones pesebreras, y cargos políticos que medran en los alrededores del negociado de Cultura, participando en el lucro, malversación y desvío de los recursos públicos, no es un misterio que requiera dotes detectivescas de primera línea. Bastaría la Inspección de Hacienda para comprobar el enriquecimiento ilícito de estas astrosas medianías profesionales que ninguna empresa privada habría contratado, convertidos en cargos por designación directa, y sus cómplices en el contubernio mafioso , los siluros de los Partidos, las Fundaciones y las Asociaciones Culturales con figuras de relumbrón, que se benefician de esta lenidad dolosa.

Para evitarlo, no hay nada como infradotar material y humanamente la Inspección de Hacienda del Estado para que ni siquiera pueda controlar debidamente las más de 3.000 empresas que facturan más de 60 millones de euros anuales. La Asociación de Inspectores de Hacienda clama en un desierto de indiferencia general contra este sindiós y lo califica como "amnistía fiscal de hecho", en el que "es habitual que se agote el plazo de prescripción sin mediar inspección alguna", salvo a los curritos con nómina tributarios del IRPF.

Y, si esto no bastase, tenemos el Poder Judicial, a pachas con el poder Ejecutivo y

Legislativo, dispuesto a apartar la vista ante la obscena voracidad de estos saqueadores.

Gatopardo

Copia literal del Informe del Tribunal de Cuentas:

VII.- CONCLUSIONES

Alcance y limitaciones
7.1.- La presente fiscalización se refiere sustancialmente al ejercicio 2004 y tiene por objeto el análisis de regularidad y el análisis de gestión de la Dirección General de Bellas Artes y Bienes Culturales (DGBAyBC), análisis que no comprenden la gestión de su personal por estar a cargo de la misma la Subsecretaría del Ministerio. Tanto los responsables del programa fiscalizado como el personal adscrito al mismo han prestado toda la colaboración requerida para la correcta ejecución de los trabajos.

En los análisis de regularidad se han presentado algunas dificultades por insuficiencias de información y documentación, o bien por su desorden y fragmentación que, en ocasiones, no ha sido posible superar, constituyendo limitaciones de alcance en algunos casos concretos.

En el ámbito de los análisis de eficacia, eficiencia y economía, por el contrario, las limitaciones han sido de mayor importancia, por lo que no ha sido posible realizar con la amplitud prevista dichos análisis, debido a la inadecuada e incompleta definición de objetivos e indicadores en los programas presupuestarios fiscalizados, la inexistencia de cualquier otro instrumento de planificación que supliera tales deficiencias y la falta de información suficiente y fiable sobre datos básicos de la gestión del Centro reseñado.

Análisis de regularidad

7.2.- La DGBAyBC gestionó en 2004 cinco programas presupuestarios, cuyos créditos definitivos al cierre del ejercicio (sin considerar los gastos de personal) ascendieron en total a 736.125.000 de euros, reconociéndose obligaciones por importe de 673.309.000 de euros, lo que implica un grado de ejecución del 91%, si bien en el capítulo 6 "Inversiones reales" que representa el 54% de los citados créditos, se alcanzó únicamente el 85% de ejecución, debido a las dificultades para la gestión de los créditos procedentes del "1% cultural" que se indican en la conclusión 7.11a).

7.3.- En el análisis de la contratación, cabe distinguir, en primer lugar, dos subconjuntos de expedientes con características propias. Por un lado, los contratos administrativos tradicionales: obras, servicios, suministros y asistencia técnica. Por otro, los contratos que tienen por objeto la adquisición de bienes de interés cultural que, aunque sometidos también a las prescripciones del Texto Refundido de la Ley de Contratos del Estado (contratos de suministro), presentan especialidades significativas.

a) Por lo que se refiere a los contratos administrativos de obras, servicios, suministros y asistencia técnica, cabe señalar como primera conclusión una importante debilidad de control interno: la falta de orden y rigor tanto en la información a ellos concerniente como en el sistema de tramitación y archivo de la documentación, lo que dificulta su examen por los órganos de control. En cuanto al análisis de los expedientes de la muestra seleccionada, se han observado numerosas deficiencias que afectan a elementos esenciales de los contratos (personalidad y capacidad del contratista, obligaciones fiscales y con la Seguridad Social, plazos, fianzas, etc.). Estas deficiencias afectan por igual a todos estos tipos de contratos. Un caso especial es el contrato reseñado en el punto 2.13, en el que se han encontrado importantes irregularidades en su adjudicación y ejecución.

b) En cuanto a las adquisiciones de bienes de interés cultural, la delimitación objetiva de estos bienes se contempla en el artículo 1.2 de la Ley 16/1985 de 25 de junio, del Patrimonio Histórico Español, que también contempla disposiciones específicas sobre algunos procedimientos de adquisición de los mismos, si bien estos contratos se someten en general a la regulación del contrato de suministro del TRLCAP. El origen de las adquisiciones responde a cuatro fórmulas concretas: ofertas de venta directa por los particulares, ofertas de venta irrevocables derivadas de solicitudes de exportación, subastas en el extranjero (pujas) y subastas en España (derecho de tanteo). En el ejercicio 2004 se tramitaron 85 expedientes de estas adquisiciones, con un total de obligaciones reconocidas de 113.519.000 de euros. Al igual que en los contratos antes citados, en estos expedientes se aprecian importantes debilidades de control interno, concretadas en la falta de orden y confusión en la tramitación de los expedientes (se tramitan dos por cada adquisición, por Unidades diferentes), incumplimiento de los procedimientos de asunción de gasto (se formalizan a posteriori), confusión de funciones y falta de acreditación de quienes firman los informes, entre otros. En el examen particular de los expedientes que han constituido la muestra seleccionada, se han observado también numerosas deficiencias que afectan a elementos esenciales, tales como la falta de acreditación de la propiedad de los bienes que se adquieren, falta de valoración de los mismos, falta de justificación de gastos, comisiones e intereses aplicados por las casas de subastas, inexistencia de pliegos y contratos, etc. Un caso particular es que, en una adquisición de 20 cartas autógrafas de Goya, solo constaba por error la adscripción al inventario general de 19, si bien el Tribunal ha comprobado la existencia material en el Museo del Prado de las 20 cartas. En cuanto a los intereses de demora, se generaron en todos los casos por las demoras en la tramitación de los expedientes de gasto, la mayoría de ellas propiciadas por el confuso y erróneo sistema establecido al efecto por la DGBAyBC antes mencionado.

7.4.- En el análisis de las subvenciones, el importe de las obligaciones reconocidas por la DGBAyBC en el ejercicio 2004 ascendió a 165.963.000 de euros, de los cuales 63.271.000 de euros se aplicaron al capítulo 4 "transferencias corrientes" y 102.692.000 de euros al capítulo 7 "transferencias de capital". Del total reseñado, la mayor parte corresponde a subvenciones nominativas (155.939.000 de euros) y el resto a subvenciones en régimen de concurrencia (7.542.000 de euros), premios (2.387.000 de euros) y cuotas a Organismos Internacionales (96.000 de euros).

a) Por lo que se refiere a las subvenciones nominativas, los expedientes de la muestra examinada presentan numerosas deficiencias en su formalización (omisión de documentación esencial, fotocopias, incumplimiento de plazos, etc.), pero lo más destacable es, en numerosos casos, la inexistencia o incorrección de la documentación acreditativa de la aplicación material de la subvención a la finalidad establecida, lo que impide considerar justificada la aplicación de las siguientes subvenciones nominativas:

Beneficiario	importe (euros)
Fundación privada Antonio Tapies	168.280,00
Consorcio de Altamira, año 2004	901.520,00
Consorcio de Altamira, año 2003	901.520,00
Patronato del Museo Nacional de Arte de Cataluña	2.862.570,00
Fundación del Museo Marítimo de la Ría de Bilbao	1.202.020,00
Arzpado. Sevilla. Plan Dtor. del templo de S. Catalina	200.000,00

b) En cuanto a las subvenciones en régimen de concurrencia, en el ejercicio 2004 se gestionaron dos líneas de subvenciones: ayudas para la promoción del arte español y ayudas para financiar excavaciones arqueológicas en el exterior. En el examen de los expedientes de las muestras seleccionadas de ambas líneas de ayudas se han observado numerosas deficiencias por omisión o incorrección de documentación esencial, que implican el incumplimiento en muchos casos de la normativa general de subvenciones y de la particular de las convocatorias, tanto en la fase de adjudicación como en la de justificación. Por otro lado, en la adjudicación de las dos líneas de ayudas mencionadas se aplicaron criterios de selección no contemplados en las respectivas convocatorias. Por lo que se refiere a los premios, en 2004 se concedieron seis, de los cuales se han examinado dos: el Premio Velázquez de Artes Plásticas y el Premio de Investigación Cultural Marqués de Lozoya. En la formalización de ambos premios se reproduce la deficiente tramitación de los expedientes, con omisiones e incorrecciones de documentos esenciales para justificar el cumplimiento de los requisitos exigidos en la normativa general y en las convocatorias particulares.

7.5.- En el análisis de la gestión de Tesorería, se ha examinado el funcionamiento de la Caja Pagadora Central (Secretaría de Estado de Cultura) y de las Cajas de los museos Arqueológico Nacional, del Traje y Nacional de Altamira, así como las funciones de supervisión de las Cajas por la DGBAyBC y las cuentas justificativas de los anticipos de Caja fija y de los pagos librados "a justificar". En cuanto a la organización y funcionamiento de las Cajas, se observó la falta de autorización de las existentes en los Museos para la recaudación de entradas, así como algunas deficiencias en los procedimientos (por ejemplo, todas las Cajas de efectivo superan continuamente el saldo máximo autorizado) y ciertos riesgos por la falta de medidas de seguridad en las Cajas de algún museo. De mayor importancia son las deficiencias observadas en las cuentas justificativas de los anticipos de Caja fija, aprobadas con importantes retrasos (superiores a los dos años en algunos casos). Si a ello añadimos que en ese periodo de tiempo se han tramitado sucesivas reposiciones de fondos, sin intervenir ni aprobar las cuentas precedentes, se pone de manifiesto un importante riesgo de control sobre un volumen de fondos muy considerable y durante mucho tiempo, que contraviene además lo establecido en el Real Decreto 725/1989 de 16 de junio y la Orden MEH de 26 de julio del mismo año. Por otra parte, las cuentas examinadas presentan numerosas omisiones e incorrecciones en los justificantes que las soportan, de difícil corrección dado el tiempo transcurrido entre el gasto y la aprobación de la cuenta.

7.6.- En el análisis de la gestión de los ingresos por la DGBAyBC, cabe reseñar que la recaudación en el ejercicio fiscalizado ascendió a 110.155.000 de euros, de los cuales 95.729.000 corresponden a ingresos procedentes del "1% cultural", 11.674.000 a venta de entradas a museos, 199.000 a otros servicios, 1.527.000 a la tasa por expedición del permiso de exportación para bienes del Patrimonio Histórico Español, y 1.026.000 a cánones de los contratos de cafetería y tiendas en museos.

a) Por lo que se refiere a los ingresos procedentes del "1% cultural", el 95% de los mismos corresponde al Ministerio de Medio Ambiente y Confederaciones Hidrográficas a su cargo. Estos ingresos dan lugar a modificaciones de crédito en el presupuesto de la DGBAyBC, cuya gestión se trata en el punto 6.15.

b) En cuanto a los ingresos por venta de entradas a los museos, destaca en primer lugar el hecho de que la DGBAyBC no considere como ingresos del Estado los del Museo Cerralbo, sino como recursos de la Fundación Cultural que lleva el nombre del museo. Por otro lado, el sistema de control establecido en la DGBAyBC sobre los ingresos de los museos presenta debilidades muy acusadas, ya que se basa en exclusiva en los denominados “partes de visitas”, que no son supervisados por los Servicios Centrales de la DGBAyBC y en los que el Tribunal ha observado numerosas deficiencias y que en algunos casos no cuadran con la recaudación registrada. Se han realizado también comprobaciones por el Tribunal en los museos Arqueológico Nacional, del Traje y Nacional de Altamira, encontrándose igualmente debilidades de control interno en todos ellos y deficiencias en sus registros y procedimientos.

c) Respecto de la tasa por expedición del permiso de exportación sobre bienes del Patrimonio Histórico Español, es cuestionable primeramente su compatibilidad con el Derecho comunitario (existe únicamente en Italia y España) pero, además, resulta altamente ineficiente, puesto que es extremadamente fácil sortear su aplicación mediante su exportación a un Estado comunitario (a la que no se aplica tasa) y desde éste al país tercero, lo que explica que de total de 1.530 expedientes de exportación tramitados en 2004, únicamente se liquidó la tasa al 6% de ellos (el 5% en 2003 y el 4% en 2002). Examinada una muestra de éstos, se observaron deficiencias de tramitación, documentación y liquidación.

d) En cuanto a los cánones de los contratos de cafeterías y tiendas en museos, no consta en la DGBAyBC la documentación contable de los adjudicatarios que debe servir de base para el cálculo de los cánones y que resulta obligatoria según los contratos, por lo que el Tribunal no ha podido verificar su correcta liquidación. También se han observado en los contratos algunos errores e incumplimientos legales: dos de los contratos, que tienen la naturaleza jurídica de contratos administrativos especiales, fueron calificados como contratos de servicios; se aprobó una prórroga tácita prohibida por el artículo 8.d) del TRLCAP y se aprobó una cesión de un contrato prohibida por el Pliego de claúsulas administrativas particulares.

Análisis de eficacia, eficiencia y economía

7.7.- La presente fiscalización no ha podido cumplir su objetivo inicial de acometer totalmente los análisis de eficacia, eficiencia y economía sobre la gestión de la DGBAyBC, por la imposibilidad de superar de un modo aceptable las limitaciones de información encontradas. Por lo que se refiere a los objetivos e indicadores establecidos en las Memorias presupuestarias de los programas gestionados por la DGBAyBC, ni su definición ni su cuantificación son adecuados ni conformes a la técnica de planificación a la que, en teoría, responden (presupuesto por programas), ni resultan tampoco ilustrativos de las metas que se pretenden alcanzar con la financiación concedida a dichos programas.
En efecto, los objetivos son, en su mayor parte, descriptivos de una mera actividad, casi siempre genérica y sin especificar los resultados que se pretenden conseguir. Los indicadores, por su parte, participan de igual indefinición y, en la mayoría de las ocasiones, ni siquiera se aprecia su relación con los objetivos a los que, en teoría, sirven de medida.

7.8.- Solicitada a la DGBAyBC cualquier documentación acreditativa de la existencia de otros posibles instrumentos de planificación, el único documento entregado fue el Plan Estratégico de la Red de Museos Estatales (2004-2008), que tampoco es adecuado para efectuar un análisis de gestión sobre esta área concreta, puesto que no contiene información sobre objetivos ni indicadores, así como tampoco se ha elaborado informe alguno de su ejecución en 2004. No se han aportado, ni se han dado explicaciones al respecto, otros planes que se mencionan en la normativa y en las Memorias presupuestarias, relativos a las actividades de conservación y restauración del Patrimonio Histórico, de la gestión del “1% cultural” y de la gestión de los museos estatales (se alude en las Memorias a un Plan Integral de Museos 2000-2004 no entregado al Tribunal). Tampoco ha dispuesto el Tribunal de Informes de gestión o Memorias de actividades de la gestión de la DGBAyBC que pudiera servir para fundamentar un análisis suficiente bajo este enfoque.

7.9.- Ante la imposibilidad de realizar un análisis general, el Tribunal ha realizado un análisis particular de dos aspectos significativos de la gestión de la DGBAyBC, aunque condicionado por la insuficiencia de información ya señalada: las visitas a los museos estatales de gestión directa de la DGBAyBC y la gestión de los fondos procedentes del denominado "1% cultural".

7.10.- Por lo que se refiere a las visitas a museos estatales de gestión directa de la DGBAyBC, según se observa en el cuadro y gráficos del punto 6.13, el número anual de visitas a los 15 museos estatales de gestión directa se incrementó notablemente en el año 2004 para descender en los dos años siguientes hasta el nivel alcanzado en 2003. En general, se aprecia en todos los museos unos importantes altibajos en el número anual de visitas, lo que evidencia seguramente el influjo de actividades, exposiciones o circunstancias coyunturales que inciden sobre la eficacia en la atracción de visistantes, pero que no ha sido posible investigar por la falta de información al respecto. Los museos más visitados fueron el Sefardí, el Nacional de Altamira, la Casa del Greco, el Arqueológico Nacional y el Nacional de Arte Romano. Entre los cinco suman el 71% del número total de visitas.

7.11.- En cuanto a la gestión de los fondos procedentes del "1% cultural", conforme a la Ley del Patrimonio Histórico Español, los gestores obligados a retener este "1% cultural" en las obras que tramiten, pueden elegir entre transferir la financiación a la DGBAyBC o bien ejecutar directamente con dicha financiación obras de las señaladas en la Ley. En 2004, según el Informe presentado por la Ministra de Cultura al Gobierno, la financiación procedente del "1% cultural" alcanzó la cifra de 253.856.000 miles de euros, de los cuales 97.343.000 corresponden a la primera opción (el 95% al Ministerio de Medio Ambiente) y 156.513 .000 a la segunda (el 97% al Ministerio de Fomento). Es de resaltar la ausencia del Ministerio de Educación y Ciencia en estas cifras (solo un ingreso del Consejo Superior de Deportes). Como conclusión general obtenida del análisis limitado de estos fondos por el Tribunal, cabe señalar la inexistencia en la DGBAyBC de un control suficiente y riguroso sobre el cumplimiento por los distintos Departamentos ministeriales y los concesionarios y empresas estatales, de las obligaciones de retención e información establecidas en la Ley del Patrimonio Histórico Español, lo que se traduce en incumplimientos generalizados. En relación con la gestión de los fondos por cada uno de los dos procedimientos mencionados, cabe señalar:

a) Los fondos ingresados en el Tesoro dan lugar a la modificación de créditos de la DGBAyBC y su posterior ejecución a lo largo del ejercicio, con dos importantes limitaciones que condicionan de manera decisiva la eficacia de este sistema: por un lado, la inexistencia de una planificación previa que permita aplicar rápidamente los fondos a actuaciones concretas ya previstas y con una cierta tramitación adelantada y, por otro, la limitación de que los créditos deban ser ejecutados en el propio ejercicio, sin posibilidad de incorporación al siguiente, lo que unido a que las ampliaciones se van tramitando a lo largo del año, impiden su normal y total ejecución. Esta segunda limitación provocó en 2004 que únicamente se ejecutara el 79% de los créditos obtenidos por este medio. La primera circunstancia, en la misma línea, indujo a la DGBAyBC a destinar los créditos en su mayor parte (el 76%) a adquisiciones de bienes de interés cultural, de tramitación más fácil y rápida que las obras, aunque también con la mayor improvisación.

b) En cuanto a los fondos gestionados directamente por los Departamentos responsables de la obra principal, su ejecución presenta importantes deficiencias de control y coordinación e incumplimientos legales: ninguno de ellos (salvo el de Agricultura y el de Fomento) cuenta con la DGBAyBC para la programación y determinación de las obras a realizar, se incumple de manera general la obligación de comunicación previa, no se solicitan frecuentemente las autorizaciones necesarias para la realización de obras en bienes del Patrimonio Histórico Español, algunos Departamentos destinan estos fondos a actuaciones distintas de las establecidas en la Ley (por ejemplo, el Ministerio de Justicia para reformar instalaciones de Juzgados y el de Sanidad y Consumo para acondicionamiento de edificios hospitalarios e, incluso, la construcción de un nuevo hospital).

VIII.- RECOMENDACIONES

8.1.- El Tribunal de Cuentas recomienda el reforzamiento de los controles internos y de los procedimientos de gestión económico-financiera de la Dirección General de Bellas Artes y Bienes Culturales, al objeto de subsanar las deficiencias puestas de manifiesto en este Informe en las áreas que el mismo comprende: contratación, adquisición de bienes de interés cultural, subvenciones, Tesorería e ingresos.

8.2.- *Se recomienda también mejorar sustancialmente los procedimientos de planificación e información sobre la gestión estatal del Patrimonio Histórico Español, a fin de superar las carencias expuestas en este Informe. En particular, se recomienda la elaboración de planes relativos a las actividades de catalogación, protección, conservación y restauración de los bienes del Patrimonio Histórico Español, la gestión de los museos de titularidad estatal y la gestión del "1% cultural". En relación con estos últimos fondos, se recomienda por el Tribunal el reforzamiento de los controles sobre las obligaciones establecidas en la Ley, el estudio de modificaciones legales que permitan una gestión más eficiente de los créditos generados por los mismos (por ejemplo, la incorporación excepcional de los remanentes) y el establecimiento de una previsión razonable y rigurosa, con Se recomienda también mejorar sustancialmente los procedimientos de planificación e información sobre la gestión estatal del Patrimonio Histórico Español, a fin de superar las carencias expuestas en este Informe. 8.3.- Por otro lado, y con un alcance más general a otros ámbitos de la Administración, el Tribunal de Cuentas recomienda al Gobierno la urgente revisión de la normativa en materia de control sobre las cuentas justificativas de los anticipos de Caja fija y de las reposiciones de fondos, a la vista de la grave situación observada en esta fiscalización, que se manifiesta en un atípico procedimiento de sucesivas reposiciones de fondos sin que hayan sido revisadas ni aprobadas las previas cuentas justificativas, con demoras de hasta dos años. Este ineficaz y arriesgado procedimiento, que supone importantísimas debilidades de control sobre la integridad de los fondos confiados a los Cajeros pagadores, ha sido propiciado por la inadecuada interpretación, a juicio de este Tribunal, del Real Decreto 2188/1995 por parte de la Circular 3/1996 de la Intervención General de la Administración del Estado, cuyo contenido este Tribunal considera necesario modificar al efecto o bien, si se considera más oportuno, se adopten los cambios normativos necesarios para acomodar los procedimientos, tanto de gestión como de control, a un sistema más eficaz que permita compatibilizar los requerimientos de agilidad de la actividad de gestión con el debido respeto a la seguridad y control de los fondos públicos.

INFORME DE FISCALIZACIÓN DE LA DIRECCIÓN GENERAL DE BELLAS ARTES Y BIENES CULTURALES (6)

España tiene una ciudadanía, alienada y esquizoide, cuyo índice de valores, intereses y prioridades no coincide con su interés, ni con su atención, ni con sus problemas reales. La dicotomía se trasluce en el consumo de antidepresivos, anecdotarios y cotilleos , cursos de autoestima, libros de autoayuda, creencias irracionales, paroxismos doctrinarios, y un exhaustivo idiotismo a la hora de asumir cualquier tarea que requiera esfuerzo, inteligencia, criterio, y discernimiento.

Los sucesivos gobiernos han contado con esta amalgama de pasividad y estulticia para malversar, esquilmar y saquear las arcas del Estado.

De vez en cuando, crean un chivo expiatorio, como Luis Roldán, no por haber robado más, sino por haberlo hecho por libre, sin pagar aranceles a la mafia que administra los caudales del Estado, pertrechada del amparo de un sistema judicial que tarda diecisiete años en juzgar a Aida Álvarez y al resto de los responsables del cobro y chantaje a cientos de empresas por parte del PSOE, para sentenciarlos a seis meses de carcel y una multa de 1.200 euros; de la misma manera que el PP, CIU y el poder judicial ampararon al abogado Lluis Pascual Estevill con un nombramiento de Juez de Instrucción como "jurista de reconocido prestigio", y más tarde como vocal en el Consejo General del Poder Judicial, cuando ya era pública y notoria su trayectoria delictiva, solo y en compañía de otros.

No es de extrañar que los informes del Tribunal de Cuentas, detallando las irregularidades contables, la malversación, y el expolio, sigan siendo ignorados por todos los partidos políticos del Parlamento, por la Fiscalía Anticorrupción, y la prensa, mientras los ciudadanos continuemos cultivando el infantilismo, esa emotividad paroxistica de personajes de novela rusa, y esta incultura cívica que nos asemeja cada vez más a los basureros de Gomorra.

VI.- ANÁLISIS DE EFICACIA, EFICIENCIA Y ECONOMÍA

A) Presupuesto por programas

6.1.- Al objeto de realizar un análisis de eficacia, eficiencia y economía sobre la gestión desarrollada por la Dirección General de Bellas Artes y Bienes Culturales en el periodo fiscalizado, el Tribunal ha examinado en primer lugar las Memorias presupuestarias de los programas gestionados por dicho Centro, como instrumento central del sistema de planificación en que la técnica del presupuesto por programas consiste. Como se detalla seguidamente, la inadecuada utilización de dicha técnica por parte de la DGBAyBC impide realizar un análisis aceptable basado en las citadas Memorias presupuestarias, teniendo en cuenta, además, la inexistencia de otros instrumentos que resultan esenciales para poder utilizar con un mínimo rigor los datos contenidos en las mismas, tales como algunos mecanismos básicos de planificación y control y un sistema de información estructurado y fiable. En consecuencia, se expresan seguidamente algunas consideraciones sobre los distintos programas gestionados por la DGBAyBC, a los solos efectos de ilustrar sobre sus principales carencias.

Programa 134.B "Cooperación, promoción y difusión cultural en el exterior"

6.2.- Este programa es gestionado por distintos Centros del Ministerio de Cultura, si bien la fiscalización se ha referido exclusivamente a las actuaciones de la Subdirección General de Promoción de las Bellas Artes y las del Instituto del Patrimonio Histórico Español (IPHE). Cabe señalar sobre el mismo las siguientes consideraciones:

a) No existe una adecuada identificación de los objetivos y sus indicadores con las actividades a realizar por cada uno de los Centros gestores de este programa. Se deduce un único objetivo de carácter genérico: la difusión y el fomento internacional del patrimonio artístico, que constituye una actividad y no un objetivo.

b) La práctica totalidad de los indicadores utilizados no son válidos para medir la eficacia de este programa (ni, en general, de ninguno). Por ejemplo, las cuotas a organismos internacionales no son un indicador significativo de la actividad realizada por un órgano gestor, y los estudios previos y de diagnóstico tampoco son relevantes en sí mismos, sin ponerlos en relación con verdaderos objetivos de gestión.

c) Igualmente, casi todos los indicadores se expresan en una magnitud de número absoluto, sin que se hayan planteado indicadores relativos (costes de las inversiones previstas, por ejemplo) que permitan una correcta evaluación.

d) Numerosas actuaciones de la Subdirección General de Promoción de Bellas Artes, relacionadas con la promoción y difusión en el exterior, no están recogidas entre sus indicadores, tales como las exposiciones enmarcadas en los viajes oficiales de la Monarquía o del Gobierno, la participación en ferias internacionales como en ESTAMPA y el premio Velázquez. Respecto al IPHE, cabe citar como ejemplo las actuaciones de las Comisiones mixtas previstas para asistencia técnica con países iberoamericanos.

e) Se incluyen actuaciones de dudosa vinculación al programa, como la renovación parcial del mobiliario de la sede del Instituto Español de Arqueología en Ammán.

f) Los indicadores contenidos en las Memorias presupuestarias de años sucesivos no están cuantificados en todos ellos, lo que impide evaluar (a falta de otro sistema de información fiable) su realización y evolución (en la Memoria presupuestaria de un año deben figurar, además de los objetivos fijados para ese año y el anterior, el grado de consecución alcanzado en la gestión de los objetivos del año n-2).

Programa 453.A "Museos"

6.3.- Este programa es gestionado, además de por la DGBAyBC (que lo hace a través de la Subdirección General de Museos Estatales), por la Gerencia de Infraestructuras y Equipamientos de Educación y Cultura, por el Museo Nacional del Prado y por el Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofía. Al igual que en el programa anterior, únicamente se han analizado los apartados relativos a la DGBAyBC. Según la Memoria presupuestaria de 2004, los objetivos de la DGBAyBC en este programa son los comprendidos en el Plan Integral de Museos Estatales (2000-2004), con actividades a corto, medio y largo plazo. En relación con los objetivos e indicadores transcritos en la Memoria, cabe señalar:

a) Muchas de las actuaciones descritas en la Memoria no se incluyen expresamente, ni se cuantifican, en los cuadros de objetivos e indicadores. Esto sucede con la mayoría de las actuaciones incluidas entre los objetivos inmediatos del Plan de carácter interno y con las relativas a los Recursos Humanos.

b) En la Memoria de 2004 no se tratan con la obligada independencia las actuaciones de la Gerencia de Infraestructuras y Equipamientos de Educación y Cultura, y las de la DGBAyBC, deficiencia que se corrige en las Memorias de los años siguientes.

c) Los objetivos son genéricos y representan grandes líneas de actuación, no se definen como metas o resultados que se esperan conseguir, constituyendo por tanto actuaciones y no verdaderos objetivos. En algunos casos llevan aparejados unos indicadores para su medición que carecen de relación alguna con el objetivo correspondiente. Por ejemplo, el objetivo "Renovación y mejora de la infraestructura material" se asocia con los indicadores "Estancias de profesionales de Museos de otros países", "Convenios para la formación museológica" y los relativos a la optimización de los fondos documentales de los museos. Por otra parte, algunos objetivos, como el de "Actividades de difusión cultural", tiene asociado únicamente un indicador "Número de publicaciones" que resulta claramente insuficiente por si solo para medir la difusión cultural.

d) Los indicadores no dan ninguna información sobre los costes asociados a los objetivos, ni acerca de su vinculación con el anexo de inversiones.

e) En las Memorias de los años sucesivos se han modificado los objetivos e indicadores previstos para 2004, por lo que resulta imposible analizar la evolución de los mismos, al carecer de dato alguno sobre su ejecución. Además, se han suprimido algunos de los indicadores que precisamente se consideran más adecuados para analizar la eficacia de la gestión de los museos, como el "Número de visitantes" y los "Ingresos por entradas", en relación con el objetivo "Exhibición de colecciones y fomento de la visita pública".

f) Se ha detectado la no coincidencia de datos contenidos en la Memoria presupuestaria de 2004 con otra información facilitada al Tribunal, lo que resta fiabilidad y validez a la información sobre objetivos e indicadores en ella plasmada. Así, por ejemplo, los ingresos por venta de entradas de 2002 ascendieron a 8.480.000 miles de euros (según la información facilitada al Tribunal), mientras que en la Memoria presupuestaria de 2004 figuran (en la columna "realizado" de 2002) ingresos por 15.777.000 miles de euros.

Programa 453.B "Exposiciones"

6.4.- Este programa es gestionado por la Subdirección General de Promoción de las Bellas Artes. La definición y cuantificación de objetivos e indicadores presenta similares deficiencias que las señaladas en los programas antes citados, por lo que, al igual que en ellos, no son válidos para evaluar la eficacia en la gestión de este programa:

a) La mayoría de los objetivos previstos son en realidad mera enunciación de tareas, y muchos de ellos no tienen siquiera indicadores asociados. Por otro lado, la mayor parte de los indicadores no son coherentes con los objetivos ni, por lo tanto, útiles para analizar su grado de consecución. Así, por ejemplo, el indicador "número de exposiciones" resulta muy insuficiente para medir la eficacia de las actividades previstas en el programa de exposiciones (más adecuado sería el indicador "número de visitantes"), y mucho menos para medir la actividad de difusión de las artes plásticas.

b) No existe coincidencia en la información obtenida por distintas fuentes (Memorias presupuestarias de 2006 y 2004, Memoria de actividades de la Subdirección de 2004 y otra información facilitada al Tribunal), lo que impide validar los datos presentados y otorgar fiabilidad a la información, situación que se complica con la duplicidad de objetivos y actividades con el programa 134.B "Cooperación, promoción y difusión cultural en el exterior".

c) Tampoco existe, en varios casos, continuidad de los indicadores previstos en la Memoria presupuestaria de 2004 con los recogidos en la de 2006 (columna que refleja la realización de los primeros), lo que impide realizar el seguimiento de los mismos. Es el caso, por ejemplo, del indicador "número de ayudas concedidas para la promoción del arte español" que se transforma en "convocatoria de ayudas".

Programa 458.C "Conservación y restauración de bienes culturales"

6.5.- La gestión de este programa presupuestario está encomendada a la Subdirección General del Instituto del Patrimonio Histórico Español (IPHE). En la Memoria presupuestaria se deduce un único objetivo "Planes de conservación y restauración de bienes culturales", estableciendo como indicadores del mismo un cierto número de actuaciones a realizar, agrupadas en cuatro apartados: 1. Planes específicos; 2. Actuaciones e intervenciones de apoyo a las Comunidades autónomas; 3.Bienes culturales de propiedad o gestión del Estado; y 4. Formación de postgraduados. El más importante es el que se refiere a las actuaciones derivadas de Planes específicos, entre los que se comprenden: el Plan nacional de Catedrales, el de Arquitectura militar, el de Arquitectura religiosa; el de Bienes muebles; el de Paisajes culturales; el de Monasterios, Abadías y Conventos; el de Arquitectura industrial; y el de Arquitectura isabelina. También en este programa se presentan las mismas deficiencias que invalidan su utilización para un adecuado análisis de gestión:

a) En general, para todos los apartados, el único indicador es el número de actuaciones a llevar a cabo, sin especificar en la mayoría de los casos ningún otro aspecto de la gestión (costes, plazos, calidad, etc.) y sin identificar siquiera el objeto físico de la actuación. Aunque en la Memoria se indica que las actuaciones están detalladas en el anexo de inversiones, las que en éste aparecen no coinciden con los datos del cuadro de indicadores, además de figurar proyectos agregados en los que no se indican las actuaciones que comprenden.

b) Sin perjuicio de lo anterior, y sobre la base de los anexos de inversiones de ejercicios posteriores, se observan importantes retrasos en algunas de las actuaciones reflejadas en la Memoria presupuestaria de 2004.

c) El Plan nacional de paisajes culturales se presentó al Consejo de Patrimonio Histórico Español en 2002 y, según la Memoria presupuestaria de 2004, se pretendía iniciar en dicho año "con los estudios previos necesarios". En las Memorias presupuestarias de 2005 y 2006 aparece un texto similar, no apareciendo ningún indicador relativo a este Plan en ninguno de los tres ejercicios, aunque se deduce inequívocamente que su aplicación padece importantes retrasos.

d) En el Presupuesto de 2004 se prevén tres actuaciones en yacimientos arqueológicos, sin ningún detalle. La Memoria presupuestaria de 2006 se refiere a estas actuaciones como no presupuestadas ni realizadas en 2004.

e) El Plan nacional de Monasterios, Abadías y Conventos debería haberse iniciado en 2004, según la Memoria presupuestaria de dicho ejercicio, con base en unos acuerdos con la Conferencia Episcopal Española que al momento de iniciar los trámites presupuestarios se encontraban aún en fase de redacción. Este plan desaparece de las Memorias de ejercicios posteriores.

f) El Plan de arquitectura isabelina se elaboró para conmemorar en 2004 el quinto centenario del fallecimiento de la Reina Isabel la Católica, mediante actuaciones circunscritas a dicho año que no aparecen recogidas en el cuadro de indicadores, aunque sí en el anexo de inversiones, sin detalle de proyectos. En las Memorias de ejercicios siguientes desaparece por completo.importante es el que se refiere a las actuaciones derivadas de Planes específicos, entre los que se comprenden: el Plan nacional de Catedrales, el de Arquitectura militar, el de Arquitectura religiosa; el de Bienes muebles; el de Paisajes culturales; el de Monasterios, Abadías y Conventos; el de Arquitectura industrial; y el de Arquitectura isabelina.

En las Memorias de ejercicios siguientes desaparece por completo.

Programa 458.D “Protección del Patrimonio Histórico”

6.6.- Este programa es gestionado por la Subdirección General de Protección del Patrimonio Histórico y, al igual que el resto de los programas encomendados a la DGBAyBC, presenta unos objetivos e indicadores inadecuados e inservibles para el cumplimiento de los fines de gestión y control que se pretende alcanzar con la técnica del presupuesto por programas, a pesar de disponer la DGBAyBC de información suficiente para ello. No se considera preciso reiterar las deficiencias generales ya señaladas para otros programas, que en éste también se presentan, ni se han observado circunstancias específicas del mismo que deban exponerse.

B) Otros instrumentos de planificación

6.7.- Solicitada a la DGBAyBC cualquier documentación acreditativa de la existencia de instrumentos de planificación complementarios o alternativos al presupuesto por programas, vigentes en 2004, el único documento entregado fue el Plan Estratégico de la Red de Museos Estatales (2004-2008). No se han aportado, ni se han dado explicaciones suficientes al respecto, otros planes que se mencionan en la normativa por la que se rige la actividad de la DGBAyBC (así como en las Memorias presupuestarias y en diversa documentación examinada por el Tribunal), relativos a las actividades de conservación y restauración del Patrimonio Histórico, de la gestión del “1% cultural” y de la gestión de los museos estatales.

6.8.- Por lo que se refiere a los planes relativos a la conservación y restauración de los bienes inmuebles del Patrimonio Histórico, así como los relativos a los bienes muebles y a los fondos que constituyen el patrimonio documental y bibliográfico, la competencia para su elaboración y ejecución está específicamente atribuida por el Real Decreto 1601/2004 a la Subdirección General del IPHE. La Memoria presupuestaria del programa 458.C, como se ha indicado en el punto 6.5, menciona diversos planes relativos a la conservación y restauración de bienes inmuebles (Catedrales, Arquitectura militar, etc.), si bien ninguno de dichos planes ha sido plasmado en documentos formalmente aprobados. El IPHE manifiesta que los mismos son elaborados por el Consejo del Patrimonio Histórico, aunque no se ha justificado al Tribunal tal circunstancia, ni la mencionada actuación es competencia de dicho Consejo, sino que está atribuida directamente al IPHE, en el que únicamente se dispone de algunos documentos dispersos de carácter técnico que no pueden ser considerados planes en cuanto previsiones detalladas de las actuaciones que se prevé acometer, presupuestos, plazos, medios, etc. Por otra parte, en cuanto a los bienes muebles, tampoco hay constancia de la existencia de planes relativos a la conservación y restauración de los mismos.

6.9.- En relación con los planes anuales de conservación y enriquecimiento del Patrimonio Histórico y de fomento de la actividad artística, que serán financiados con los fondos procedentes del "1% cultural" transferidos al Ministerio de Cultura, tampoco hay constancia de la existencia de ningún plan referido al ejercicio fiscalizado. En el informe de gestión del 1% correspondiente a 2004 (al que se hará más detallada referencia en el punto 6.15 de este Informe) se relacionan las inversiones realizadas, asignando algunas de ellas a los Planes nacionales de conservación y restauración de bienes inmuebles antes indicados, en concreto a los planes de Catedrales, de Castillos y de Patrimonio industrial, si bien entre los tres no suponen más que el 6,9% de las inversiones financiadas por este medio.

6.10.- En cuanto a los planes relativos a museos, se solapan durante el ejercicio 2004 dos instrumentos: el Plan Integral de Museos para el período 2000-2004 y el Plan Estratégico de la Red de Museos Estatales para 2004-2008. El primero de ellos es el que se menciona en la Memoria del programa presupuestario 453.A "Museos" de 2004, y no ha sido facilitado al Tribunal. En la memoria de actividades del ejercicio 2003 se indica que el Plan fue presentado por la Ministra de Educación, Cultura y Deporte el 30 de enero de 2003. En las memorias anuales de actividades elaboradas por la Subdirección General de Museos se enumeran diversas actuaciones realizadas en distintas áreas que parecen corresponder con algún tipo de clasificación incluida en el Plan, si bien no contienen información acerca de los posibles objetivos previstos ni se ofrecen datos de indicadores asociados a los mismos (en términos numéricos, físicos, de costes o de plazos, por ejemplo). Tampoco consta la existencia de informes o actuación alguna encaminados a la evaluación sobre el grado de cumplimiento del Plan. Por lo que se refiere al denominado Plan Estratégico de la Red de Museos Estatales para 2004-2008, se ha facilitado un documento que no consta que haya sido formalmente aprobado.

6.11.- En cuanto a la información facilitada sobre la gestión realizada por la DGBAyBC en el ejercicio fiscalizado, únicamente se ha dispuesto de algunas memorias de actividades referidas a concretos ámbitos de la gestión, por no existir información completa y agregada sobre la actividad total desarrollada por dicho Centro gestor. La Subdirección General de Promoción y la Subdirección General de Museos elaboran anualmente memorias de sus propias actividades, en tanto que la Subdirección General de Protección del Patrimonio Histórico dispone únicamente de las Memorias de la JPHE, que no cubren la totalidad de la gestión de la Subdireccion General. Por su parte, la Subdirección General del IPHE no disponía de memorias o informes de gestión relativos a 2004, habiendo elaborado las primeras memorias de actividades para los ejercicios 2004, 2005 y 2006 con motivo de la presente fiscalización.

C) Algunos aspectos de la gestión de la DGBAyBC

6.12.- Ante la imposibilidad de realizar un análisis general sobre la eficacia, eficiencia y economía en la gestión de la DGBAyBC en el periodo fiscalizado, debido a las carencias de planificación e información reseñadas en los puntos anteriores, el Tribunal ha seleccionado dos aspectos significativos y concretos de dicha gestión con el fin de intentar al menos un análisis parcial de los mismos, aunque condicionado en gran medida por las citadas carencias, lo que impide que dicho análisis pueda tener la profundidad deseada. Estos aspectos son la evolución del número de visitas a los museos estatales y la gestión de los fondos procedentes del denominado “1% cultural”.

Visitas a museos estatales de gestión directa de la DGBAyBC

6.13.- Un indicador apropiado, entre otros, para analizar el objetivo de promoción cultural que protagonizan los museos estatales, es el del número anual de visitas a los mismos y su evolución a lo largo de un periodo significativo. A partir de la información publicada con carácter general por la DGBAyBC, se ha elaborado el siguiente cuadro, que recoge el número de visitas a cada uno de los museos estatales en el periodo 1998-2006. Algunos de los principales datos se escenifican a continuación en diferentes gráficos, que ilustran sobre las conclusiones que se exponen en el punto siguiente.

6.14.- Examinando las cifras del cuadro anterior, y los gráficos que ilustran sobre sus principales aspectos, destaca en primer lugar el importante incremento en el número de visitas a los museos estatales producido en el año 2004 (un 27% sobre el año anterior), debido fundamentalmente a la reapertura a finales del ejercicio anterior del Museo Sefardí de Toledo y a la inauguración del Museo del Traje. En años sucesivos, con fuertes descensos, se recupera la tendencia hacia la media del periodo 1998-2003. En general, se aprecia en todos los museos unos importantes altibajos en el número anual de visitas, por lo que la mejor magnitud para su comparación es la media del periodo 1998-2006 (con algunas correcciones en algunos museos para excluir los años de inactividad). Los museos más visitados fueron el Sefardí (Toledo), el Nacional de Altamira (Cantabria), la Casa del Greco (Toledo), el Arqueológico Nacional (Madrid) y el Nacional de Arte Romano (Mérida-Badajoz). La suma del número de visitas a estos cinco museos en 2004 representa el 71% del total de visitas en dicho año a los quince museos estatales con ingresos, en tanto que la suma de las medias de los cinco museos representa el 69% de la suma total de medias del periodo considerado. La DGBAyBC no dispone de estudios ni de información suficiente para poder profundizar en el análisis de dichos datos, de sus posibles causas o de su puesta en relación con otros aspectos de la gestión, desde un enfoque de eficacia, eficiencia y economía. De hecho, a partir de 2004 ha sido suprimido el único indicador de las Memorias presupuestarias que hacía referencia al número de visitas a museos estatales.

Gestión de los fondos procedentes del "1% cultural"

6.15.- Una de las principales medidas para la financiación de las actividades de fomento y protección del Patrimonio Histórico Español es la establecida en el artículo 68 de la Ley 16/1985: el denominado "1% cultural", cuya caracterización general se ha expuesto en los puntos 5.2 y siguientes. Para el análisis de la gestión por la DGBAyBC de los fondos procedentes del "1% cultural" en 2004, el Tribunal se ha basado principalmente en el Informe presentado por la Ministra de Cultura al Gobierno, en virtud de lo ordenado por el artículo 60 del Real Decreto 111/1986, y en los datos de ejecución presupuestaria examinados en la DGBAyBC. Conforme al contenido de dicho Informe, la financiación procedente del "1% cultural" en 2004 ascendió a 25.385.596,92 euros, de los cuales el 38% se canalizaron mediante la opción a) descrita en el punto 5.2, gestión por la DGBAyBC, y el resto por la opción b), esto es, gestión directa por los Departamentos ministeriales obligados a retener el "1% cultural". En el cuadro siguiente se detallan dichos fondos por Departamentos ministeriales:

	opción a)	opción b)	SUMA (euros)	%
Agricultura, Pesca y Alimentación	22.305,44	226.288,40	248.593,84	0,98
Asuntos Exteriores y Cooperación	-	28.356,48	28.356,48	0,11
Economía y Hacienda	52.768,41	111.660,63	164.429,04	0,65
Educación y Ciencia	73.088,48	-	73.088,48	0,29
Fomento	193.737,15	15.175.663,41	15.369.400,56	60,54
Industria, Turismo y Comercio	23.975,66	9.740,37	33.716,03	0,13
Justicia	-	57.091,61	57.091,61	0,22
Medio Ambiente	9.279.237,71	-	9.279.237,71	36,55
Sanidad y Consumo	11.140,66	42.535,72	53.676,38	0,21
Trabajo y Asuntos Sociales	67.232,03	-	67.232,03	0,26
Vivienda	10.774,76	-	10.774,76	0,04
Total	9.734.260,30	15.651.336,62	25.385.596,92	100,00

6.16.- Como se observa en el cuadro anterior, destaca notablemente la participación de dos Departamentos (el de Fomento y el de Medio Ambiente), que representan conjuntamente el 97% del importe total comunicado a la DGBAyBC por el "1% cultural". Los Ministerios de Administraciones Públicas, Interior y Presidencia no efectuaron retenciones de crédito ni ingresos en el Tesoro por este concepto, si bien en los dos primeros casos los Ministerios comunicaron que no habían realizado obras en 2004 que dieran lugar a la oportuna retención. Es de resaltar especialmente el hecho de que el Ministerio de Educación y Ciencia no facilitó ninguna información sobre su gestión del "1% cultural" en 2004 (el importe que figura en el cuadro corresponde a un ingreso en el Tesoro realizado por el Consejo Superior de Deportes).

6.17.- Del informe de la Ministra de Cultura mencionado se deduce, en primer lugar, tres importantes deficiencias generales que afectaron a la gestión de estos fondos en 2004:

a) La información de que dispone el Ministerio de Cultura sobre el "1% cultural" que corresponde a los contratos de obras públicas celebrados en el ejercicio es incompleta. Únicamente dispone de datos sobre las cantidades retenidas o ingresadas, pero no sobre todos los contratos celebrados que hubieran debido generar dicha retención o ingreso, por lo que desconoce si hay otras cantidades que hubieran debido ser retenidas y no lo fueron. De hecho, un simple examen del Presupuesto del Estado pone de manifiesto la existencia de importantes inversiones en algunos Departamentos ministeriales que no resultan coherentes con la gestión del "1% cultural" e incluso, como en el caso de Educación y Ciencia, que no han practicado retención ni obra algunas relativas al "1% cultural".

b) Se incumple también de modo general la obligación establecida en el artículo 58 del Real Decreto 111/1966 de comunicar en el proyecto de cada obra sujeta al "1% cultural" que se presente al Ministerio de Cultura la opción elegida para la gestión de dichos fondos.

c) Es de destacar especialmente el incumplimiento generalizado por parte de los concesionarios y de las empresas estatales de las obligaciones establecidas en la Ley del Patrimonio Histórico en relación con el "1% cultural". No ha habido durante 2004 ninguna consignación del "1% cultural" efectuada por empresas concesionarias de obras públicas, y tampoco el Ministerio de Cultura ha sido informado de la posible realización de trabajos por dichas empresas con cargo al 1% cultural. Esta situación ya fue puesta de manifiesto por el Tribunal de Cuentas en el informe "Fiscalización del cumplimiento por las empresas estatales de las obligaciones establecidas por la Ley en relación con el patrimonio histórico o artístico exigibles en las obras públicas realizadas por aquellas entidades, respecto a las aprobadas o concluidas en los ejercicios 1999, 2000 y 2001", aprobado por el Pleno del Tribunal el 26 de junio de 2003, en el que se concluía que, de forma generalizada, dichas entidades incumplen las obligaciones establecidas en el artículo 68 de la Ley del Patrimonio Histórico.

6.18.- Por lo que se refiere en concreto a la gestión de los fondos obtenidos por la DGBAyBC mediante la opción a) del "1% cultural", únicamente se llegaron a ejecutar 7.728.227,60 euros (el 79%), con el detalle que se presenta en el cuadro siguiente. Dicha gestión no responde a ningún instrumento de planificación (aunque algunas inversiones se clasifiquen a meros efectos informativos en alguno de los denominados planes nacionales, no formalizados (véase el punto 6.8), sino que se realiza de manera improvisada a medida que se dispone de los créditos, lo que explica que el 76% de las inversiones realizadas correspondan a adquisiciones de bienes culturales, que se someten a un procedimiento más sencillo que el de realización de obras. El Ministerio de Cultura no ha elaborado los planes anuales previstos en el artículo 58.4 del Real Decreto 111/1986 que deberían regir la gestión de los fondos transferidos.

6.19.- Las modificaciones de crédito en el presupuesto de la DGBAyBC como consecuencia de las retenciones e ingresos señalados en el punto anterior afectan al concepto 621 del programa 458.D, gestionado por la Subdirección General de Protección del Patrimonio Histórico, y al concepto 631 del programa 458.C, gestionado por la Subdirección General del Instituto del Patrimonio Histórico Español, según el detalle siguiente. Ambos conceptos son calificados como ampliables en la Ley de Presupuestos Generales del Estado.

6.20.- suman las dificultades (o imposibilidad en muchos casos) de gestionar los oportunos contratos del dispar porcentaje de ejecución de los conceptos que financian la gestión del "1% cultural" mediante esta opción responde a la diferente naturaleza de sus expedientes: las obligaciones reconocidas en el concepto 621 del programa 458.D corresponden a expedientes de adquisición de bienes de interés cultural, mientras que el crédito del concepto 631 del programa 448.C se destinó a realizar intervenciones de conservación y restauración en bienes inmuebles del Patrimonio Histórico Español, con la mayor complejidad administrativa que ello supone. Es de notar las negativas consecuencias que se derivan del hecho de que estos créditos no tienen carácter de incorporables, de modo que no hay posibilidad de invertir la parte del 1% no ejecutada en el ejercicio, a lo que se obras en el escaso tiempo comprendido entre las modificaciones de crédito tramitadas a lo largo del año (dependientes del momento en el que se producen las retenciones de crédito o los ingresos en el Tesoro) y el final del ejercicio. Las obras realizadas en 2004 con cargo al concepto 18.13.458C.631 fueron:

Total	1.849.287,30

6.21.- Otras deficiencias que afectan específicamente a los fondos gestionados mediante la opción a) reseñada, es decir, gestión por la DGBAyBC, según se deduce del repetido Informe de la Ministra de Cultura, son:

a) Se han observado importantes demoras en las comunicaciones que los Departamentos realizan a la Dirección General de Presupuestos del Ministerio de Hacienda sobre las retenciones de crédito practicadas.

b) En varios casos, los créditos que recibe el Ministerio de Cultura corresponden a inversiones realizadas en ejercicios anteriores. Una de las generaciones de crédito aprobadas en 2004 tiene su origen en el ingreso realizado por la Confederación Hidrográfica del Norte del 1% de las obras realizadas en el período 1999-2003. Al término de 2004 varios Departamentos habían comunicado al Ministerio de Cultura la existencia de cantidades pendientes de transferir de inversiones realizadas en 2003.

c) El sistema establecido para la gestión del "1% cultural" mediante esta opción plantea importantes problemas de procedimiento, que provocaron, por un lado, la falta de ejecución en 2004 de créditos por importe de 2,0 millones de euros y, por otro, la apuesta mayoritaria de la DGBAyBC por la adquisición de bienes en perjuicio de la realización de obras, como se detalla en el punto anterior.

6.22.- En cuanto a los créditos del "1% cultural" gestionados mediante la opción b), esto es, directamente por los Departamentos responsables de la obra principal, las principales deficiencias puestas de manifiesto en el repetido Informe son:

a) Los Departamentos no suelen solicitar del Ministerio de Cultura la colaboración prevista en el artículo 58.3.b) del Real Decreto 111/1986, para la redacción de los programas y proyectos de trabajos de conservación de los bienes del Patrimonio Histórico Español en los que van a invertir las cantidades correspondientes al "1% cultural". En el ejercicio 2004 el único Ministerio que solicitó dicha colaboración fue el de Agricultura, Pesca y Alimentación.

b) La comunicación al Ministerio de Cultura de los proyectos a los que los Departamentos aplican el "1% cultural", prevista en el mencionado artículo, no se produce en la mayoría de los casos hasta que el Ministerio de Cultura requiere dichos datos para la elaboración del informe correspondiente al ejercicio anterior.

c) Frecuentemente los Ministerios omiten recabar del de Cultura las autorizaciones necesarias para la realización de obras en bienes del Patrimonio Histórico Español, de acuerdo con lo establecido en la Ley, o no solicitan el preceptivo informe de la JPHE en relación con las adquisiciones que pretenden realizar. Estas deficiencias se han producido en los Ministerios de Asuntos Exteriores, Economía y Hacienda, Industria, Turismo y Comercio, y Sanidad y Consumo.

d) Algunos Departamentos ministeriales financian indebidamente con cargo al 1% cultural actuaciones que deberían ser atendidas con cargo a su presupuesto ordinario. Los dos casos más destacables son el Ministerio de Justicia, que dedica los fondos del 1% cultural a obras de reforma de instalaciones en juzgados situados en edificios históricos, que no pueden encuadrarse entre los objetivos de dichos fondos, y el Ministerio de Sanidad y Consumo que viene utilizando el "1% cultural" en el acondicionamiento de edificios hospitalarios. En 2004 lo destinó a la construcción de un nuevo hospital en Ceuta.

e) En relación con la gestión del "1% cultural" por el Ministerio de Fomento, que gestiona el 97% de los créditos invertidos directamente por los Departamentos, se firmó el 29 de diciembre de 2000 el III Acuerdo de colaboración con el Ministerio de Cultura para la actuación conjunta en el patrimonio histórico a través del "1% cultural", estableciéndose una Comisión Mixta para la determinación de las actuaciones a realizar. Su actuación, sin embargo, se viene practicando sin tener en cuenta las disponibilidades presupuestarias, por lo que en marzo de 2004 había un total de 455 actuaciones aprobadas por la Comisión Mixta para las que no existía dotación económica. Por otra parte, aunque uno de los criterios de la Comisión era el de realizar todas las inversiones en bienes de interés cultural, no todas las financiadas en 2004 tuvieron finalmente como destino bienes de esa naturaleza.

6.23.- La inversión total realizada desde el inicio del sistema del "1% cultural" en 1986 hasta 2004 asciende a 378,62 millones de euros. Su evolución en el periodo 2000-2004 se detalla en el cuadro siguiente (en millones de euros). El ejercicio 2002 es el que representa el mayor nivel de inversión financiada con el "1% cultural" en el período; de hecho, es la mayor inversión desde la implantación del "1% cultural" en el año 1986. En

2004 se produce un descenso respecto al ejercicio precedente, situándose la inversión en los niveles de 2000 y 2001, en torno a los 23 millones de euros. Por opciones, en los últimos ejercicios desciende el porcentaje de la inversión gestionada directamente por los Departamentos, debido a que el de Medio Ambiente, el segundo en importancia inversora, decidió transferir todo el "1% cultural" al Ministerio de Cultura. Sin embargo, el importe gestionado mediante la opción b) es en todos los ejercicios muy superior al invertido mediante la opción a).

(millones de euros)

Ejercicio	opción a)		opción b)		Total Importe
	importe	%	importe	%
2000	2,14	9,1	21,38	90,9	23,52
2001	3,74	16,2	19,32	83,8	23,06
2002	3,47	9,5	33,01	90,5	36,48
2003	7,44	22,7	25,27	77,3	32,71
2004	7,72	33,0	15,65	67,0	23,37

6.24.- Por otra parte, a efectos de considerar un enfoque más general sobre las inversiones realizadas en la conservación del patrimonio histórico, hay que indicar que el "1% cultural" no es la única fuente de financiación al respecto, ni la más importante en términos cuantitativos. Varios Departamentos ministeriales, además del de Cultura, han realizado en 2004 con cargo a los capítulos 6 y 7 de su presupuesto una serie de inversiones en bienes del Patrimonio Histórico por un importe conjunto de 100.105.312,39 euros, que cuadruplica al gestionado mediante el sistema del "1% cultural". El detalle es el siguiente:

Ministerio	Importe (euros)
Administraciones Públicas	2.881.108,95
Agricultura, Pesca y Alimentación (aprox.)	3.000.000,00
Asuntos Exteriores	2.435.576,19
Defensa	26.960.720,00
Justicia	4.625.846,85
Presidencia	28.987.639,00
Vivienda	31.214.421,40
Total	100.105.312,39

6.25.- Por último, una circunstancia que debe también mencionarse es que el Real Decreto 1893/2004, de 10 de septiembre, ha creado la Comisión Interministerial para la coordinación del "1% cultural", adscrita al Ministerio de Cultura, y con la que se pretende mejorar la gestión de estos fondos, que como se deduce de las deficiencias señaladas, ha venido mostrando signos evidentes de descoordinación y fragmentación. La primera reunión de la Comisión tuvo lugar en diciembre de 2004, estableciéndose en la misma los requisitos que deben reunir las solicitudes de financiación y fijando unos criterios de priorización para la valoración y elección de las actuaciones a financiar.

MÉXICO: PRIMERA DERROTA LEGAL DE LOS LEGIONARIOS DE CRISTO

Condena juez al Colegio Oxford como responsable por daño causado a un niño violado por un profesor

Después de dos años de litigio, la juez decimonovena de lo civil, Maricela Cruz Sánchez, ha sentenciado al Colegio Oxford de la ciudad de México a pagar económicamente el daño moral ocasionado contra un niño violado sexualmente a los tres años de edad por su profesor de educación física Joaquín Francisco Mondragón Rebollo, aún prófugo de la justicia.
"Se trata del primer pleito ganado a los Legionarios de Cristo", dice el abogado José Bonilla Sada en entrevista con La Jornada. "Con esta sentencia los crímenes de abuso sexual contra menores cometidos dentro de la Legión fundada por Marcial Maciel, por fin empiezan a ser castigados".
La sentencia se basa en la relación patrón-trabajador que vincula al profesor agresor sexual y al Centro de Educación y Cultura Ajusco, SC, razón social del Colegio Oxford, cuya directora, María del Pilar Adelina Soto Maza, fue condenada por "culpa y negligencia", porque se abusó sexualmente delmenos en las instalaciones de esa institución educativa bajo la normativa de los Legionarios de Cristo.
La juez Maricela Cruz Sánchez sustenta en el auto judicial que el colegio tenía "una labor moral de enseñanza, un deber de proteger y cuidar a los menores que le son encargados, pues los padres depositan en las instituciones educativas toda la confianza de que sus menores obtendrán un desarrollo físico, mental y espiritual".
En el documento, de 34 páginas, no se especifica la cantidad económica que el colegio legionario deberá pagar a la víctima y a sus padres, pero Bonilla Sada señala que no existe dinero que pueda pagar el daño inmenso hecho al niño y a su familia: "La cantidad ni siquiera la hemos considerado. Nuestro objetivo no era obtener una cantidad de dinero. No lo hemos ni pensado. Lo importante es que se les ha condenado por un daño moral, algo que nosotros siempre alegamos".
La sentencia determina además que "al haberse cometido un ataque y abuso sexual en contra del menor queda de manifiesto que las personas a quienes estaba encomendada esta tarea no cumplieron con su labor, sin que las codemandadas hayan aportado algún medio de prueba que justificara, explicara y las eximiera del cumplimiento de su deber y, con ello, de su responsabilidad".

Bonilla Sada inició hace más de dos años una lucha para buscar justicia en el caso de su hijo, pero poco después se convirtió en abogado de otras víctimas de abuso sexual: "la sentencia es un varapalo contra los Legionarios de Cristo porque los expone ante la sociedad mexicana como personas que actúan sin escrúpulo alguno en defensa de criminales de agresión sexual contra menores de los que se abusó en sus colegios".
En cuanto a la condena contra la directora María del Pilar Adelina Soto Maza, señaló que le parece grave la protección que brindó desde el inicio al agresor, en lugar de proteger a la víctima: "es terrible que una mujer de su rango se vea envuelta en este tipo de acusaciones. No es posible que, en lugar de proteger a los niños de su colegio, se haya dedicado a proteger al profesor violador y el supuesto buen nombre de los Legionarios de Cristo y el Colegio Oxford. Eso atenta contra cualquier principio educativo y de calidad humana".
El abogado sostiene que el profesor Mondragón Rebollo, prófugo de la justicia por violación equiparada agravada y abuso sexual agravado, fue y sigue siendo escondido por los Legionarios de Cristo: "Hemos expuesto todas las pruebas de la protección que le han brindado. Ésa es la forma que tienen los Legionarios de tapar el sol con un dedo para supuestamente evitar que se sepa la verdad; pero en este caso se equivocaron. Ahora la opinión pública conoce lo que institucionalmente une a los Legionarios de Cristo con la pederastia".
Lo más grave de todo, resaltó, es que Ricardo Sodi, abogado de los Legionarios de Cristo, es defensor de Sandra Ávila Beltrán, La reina del Pacífico.
"Ser abogado de una connotada narcotraficante siendo director de la carrera de derecho de la Universidad Anáhuac es verdaderamente inaceptable, pero muestra cómo existe un nexo entre los Legionarios de Cristo y el crimen organizado, algo alarmante para todos los padres de familia que hacen un esfuerzo económico para tener a sus hijos en esa universidad con ese tipo de maestros."
La juez ha determinado en su sentencia que el colegio es responsable de la contratación del personal que labora para la escuela; por tanto, es también su obligación asumir "los daños y perjuicios que sus trabajadores ocasionen; también la vinculan por su elección al momento de la contratación".
Bonilla Sada considera que lo ocurrido sirve para que otros padres de familia se animen a denunciar sus casos: "los Legionarios de Cristo deben asumir que la sociedad tiene cada vez mayor valor para empezar a denunciar y hacer público este tipo de delitos, que deben ser castigados con todo el peso de la ley. Nosotros sentimos que empezamos a abrir un camino".
Explicó que comunicó a víctimas de Marcial Maciel el triunfo obtenido: "hablé hace rato con José Barba y se mostró muy contento por la sentencia, porque significa un castigo y un señalamiento público que se hace a los Legionarios de Cristo. Me hubiera gustado mucho que Marcial Maciel se enterara de que sus enseñanzas criminales dejadas en esta tierra ya están empezando a ser castigadas. Si él realmente creyó en Dios, para sus víctimas católicas seguramente está pagando todas sus culpas en la otra vida".
Concluye: "en estos dos años y medio de lucha he ayudado a otras víctimas de la pederastia, un problema grave en México y mucho mayor de lo que podríamos pensar. Hay que concienciar a los padres de familia en la cultura de la denuncia. El día de mañana, cuando los hijos crezcan y pregunten qué se hizo por ellos cuando fueron agredidos, muchos tendrán que quedarse callados, pero otros podremos decir: 'Hijo mío, hice todo lo que estuvo de mi parte por llevar a tu agresor ante la justicia'".

Pagar por violar?
No aclaras la pena impuesta, porque si solo es una multa o el pago por los daños recibidos, es como si el juez lo considerara una falta y no un delito.
De ser así, yo no estaría tan contento con la sentencia.
Un saludo.

EL INSIGNE PEDAGOGO DON MARIANO RAJOY CREE QUE HAY QUE DECIRLE A LOS NIÑOS: ¡COÑO, LA VIDA ES MUY DURA!

Dice don Mariano Rajoy, que es la versión nacional de un παιδαγωγός espartano:

-"Ciudadanía debería estudiarse en casa y centrar la educación en otras materias como los idiomas (...) en un mundo competitivo como en el que estamos inmersos, es vital para ser competentes, saber inglés (...), un modelo de educación en el que se le diga al niño: ¡coño, la vida es muy dura!".
Y como quiere que se impartan las clases de Educación para la ciudadanía en inglés, digo yo que por qué, de paso, no se imparte la filosofía de don Mariano, en francés, y que los alumnos memoricen en lo más profundo de sus someras entendederas estas cimas de sabiduría:
"La vie est dure, les hommes sont cons, les femmes sont chères, et les enfants il faut les faire."

Alimaña, redactor-jefe de la sección cultural de Alimaña News, la noticia antes de que ocurra

PS. Efectivamente, astuto lector: no sé como se traduce coño en francés; pero no me parece que sea le tresor, le joujou, le joyeux, mon chez-toi, etc. como tan amablemente sugiere en su e.mail.
Siga buscando: pregunte a la soldadesca en los cuarteles.

Esa frase en francés con la que cierras el artículo resume con una exactitud perfecta la filosofía de tan insigne pedagogo, como yo también he expresado en innumerables ocasiones. No puedo más que suscribir el artículo en su totalidad y no creo que la frase necesite traducción alguna, querida Gatopardo.

Me encantó el vídeo. Bien nos advertía el difunto Milton Friedman:

"Digo que existe una mano invisible que funciona a la inversa: La gente que pretende servir únicamente al interés publico es guiada por una mano invisible a servir a intereses privados, aunque no fuera esa su intención"

NO debemos dejarnos engañar por las ayudas. Ni para las pequeñas, ni para las grandes (siempre terminan en las grandes.

Tras las "ayudas" existen dos razones por las que nunca funcionan:

El gobierno solo puede gastar el dinero de los que pagamos impuestos.

No se puede hacer el bien con el dinero que se le quita por la fuerza a alguien y eso es lo que hace el gobierno al cobrarnos impuestos.

Ningún funcionario de gobierno podrá gastar nuestro dinero mejor de lo que lo gastaríamos nosotros mismos.

LEOPOLDO ALAS, CLARÍN: EL CURA

El cura

Es un hombre de buena pasta, no se finge cenobita,
hace vida quasi casta,
ayuna lo que le basta

y bebe más que medita.

Sabe que el mundo es inmundo, valle de dolor acedo;
pero en el valle fecundo
tiene el cura en un viñedo el mejor vino del mundo.

Como conoce el ritual,
el dogma y la ley sagrada,
hombre ante todo formal,
no transige el cura en nada,
a no ser en la moral.

En su parroquia tranquila, sin intriga, sin engaño,
cuida afanoso el rebaño
de fieles y los esquila más de tres veces al año.

Y gracias a ser muy fiel
aquí toda criatura;
nunca le falta a este cura
queso, vino, pan y miel,
con evangélica hartura.

No es el cura milenario ni se entrega al pesimismo como le manda el breviario;
le cabe el catolicismo
en su vientre extraordinario.

“Este mundo es transitorio, dice el cura, bien lo veo“- pero amigo del jolgorio, se va en el tren de recreo en busca del purgatorio.

Hecho siempre un dominguillo, va de función en función
de uno en otro pueblecillo;
tras de las once el sermón, tras el sermón el tresillo.

Si alguna vez se le escapa una cana echada al aire, y hay quien la capa le atrapa,
este cura con donaire,
sabe recoger la capa.

Dejo dicho con buen modo que es un tanto macareno
y aunque no parezca bueno.
miren ustedes, con todo me gusta más que Toreno.

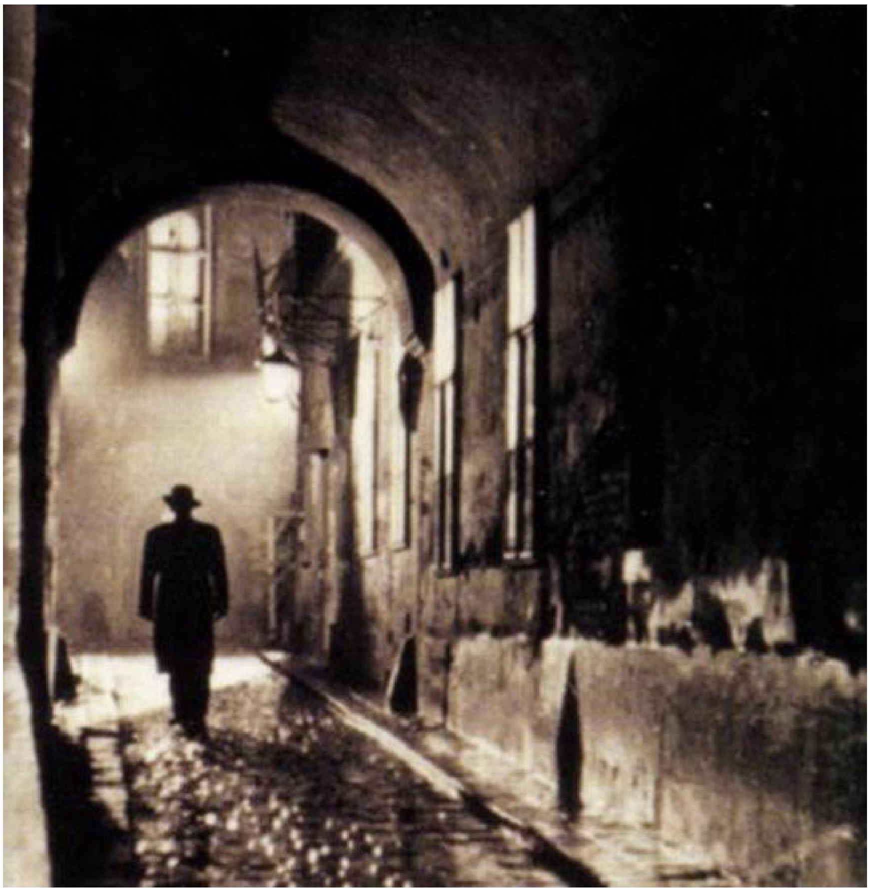
EL CORTE INGLÉS: LOS PONEMOS CABEZA ABAJO Y NO CAE NI UN EURO



Mientras el ministro Solbes se decide a tomar Stugeron (cuya posología le recomiendo sea continuada y ad libitum porque no hay peor efecto secundario que la tontería senil), les anuncio que El Corte Inglés tiene que proceder a plantear un expediente de regulación de empleo que afectará como mínimo al 60% de su plantilla.
A fecha de hoy el índice de endeudamiento, el numero de impagados, la falta de ventas, y las desastrosas aventuras financieras e inmobiliarias en la que se han metido sus directivos han llevado al holding a una situación como no alcanzó Rumasa ni en sus peores momentos.
El Corte Inglés declara 105.000 empleados. La productividad de cada empleado no llega a los 4.900 euros al año. Que los amaestren para que sean borregos, con menos luces que un candil, y sumisos no garantiza su rentabilidad; sino todo lo contrario. Los sindicatos que los pastorean, untados por gobierno y patronal, podrán lloriquear sobre familias en crisis e hipotecas impagadas, pero la tienen cruda si pretenden recolocar a semejante panda de inútiles.
Mientras, una empresa como Google no llega a los 11.000 empleados en todo el mundo.

Aquí se ha explicado por lo largo las fallas del Emporio más Hortera de Europa. En sus últimas declaraciones, a El Corte Inglés se le han bajado bastante los humos. Les ha faltado añadir que la política de apertura de centros, (unos centros en los que no se vende un clavo, y no hay dinero ni para reponer stock y, a duras penas, se paga el aire acondicionado) es una fachada que se les ocurrió para evitar pagar dividendos a ciertos accionistas y comprar favores políticos, materializados en la escandalosa indulgencia y ceguera fiscal que goza la Fundación Ramón Areces, su principal accionista.
Tener Borbones en la Fundación Ramón Areces tampoco los va a salvar de la quiebra.
No hay efectivo, circulante, líquido, cash, money, pasta, metálico, cuartos, plata, guita, efectivo, parné, morgón, unto de rana, gato, mosca, guelte, morusa, caire, nipos, quina, Abreviando: no tienen ni un puto euro.

Autor: Comunicado de UGT Catalunya que casi nadie publica

El sindicato UGT ha querido denunciar esta realidad, en la cual empresas como El Corte Inglés dicen que tienen beneficios y aprovechan la crisis para explotar al trabajador, con 50 horas extraordinarias al mes.

"Es destacable la no información que las empresas no desvelan para que no denunciemos este abuso cuando ganan una burrada de millones a costa de los trabajadores", ha lamentado López. Además, ha explicado que El Corte Inglés de Plaza Catalunya tiene 500 trabajadores menos desde 2005 y este recorte no ha trascendido porque "no les ha interesado decirlo".
Fraude a la Seguridad Social

La secretaria de Salud Laboral de la Federación, Glòria Sánchez, afirmó que "existe un fraude a la Seguridad Social", ya que cada vez hay "más carga de trabajo adicional" por las múltiples bajas que provocan enfermedades en los compañeros de la empresa. Actualmente, las bajas ascienden al 9% de la plantilla del sector en Catalunya, tres puntos más que la media española.

"Se ha empezado a utilizar el método de jornada partida para hacer cambios a beneficios de los empresarios y con eso, estamos obteniendo un 28% de bajas por depresiones de estrés en el trabajo y un 30% de lesiones músculo-esqueléticas, además del 8% de aumento de siniestralidad", ha explicado Sánchez.

Por ello, UGT pidió más controles "contundentes" de inspección de trabajo y lamentó que si una empresa tiene denuncias de salud, no debería abrir más tiendas, ya que primero se tendrían que solucionar los problemas.

Autor: Érase una vez... El Corte Inglés

Por SAND, publicado en soitu.es
Ahora que se acercan las navidades y estarán ustedes pensando en qué regalos comprar o incluso dónde comprarlos les contaré una historia que a lo mejor les interesa. Parece un cuento fantástico o, mejor dicho, fantasmagórico pero... lo narro tal cual aconteció.

Érase una vez… un centro comercial con capacidades humanas lo que le daba la posibilidad de juzgar a sus clientes y a sus proveedores, y con mucho poder lo que le daba la posibilidad de elegir a sus clientes y a sus proveedores. Era de corte clásico, podríamos decir que inglés si no fuera porque no es nuestra intención ofender a los anglosajones, y quería crear un mundo a su imagen y semejanza. Clientes, proveedores y empleados tenían que ser clásicos, retrógrados y de clase, cuanto menos, media alta.

De todos era sabido que este centro comercial tenía una lista negra de proveedores. Si una marca quería vender en sus tiendas tenía que someterse a sus exigencias y si no lo hacía el contrato se rompería para siempre, y la marca pasaría a la lista negra y nunca jamás podría volver a colocarse sus productos en las estanterías. Pero como tenía tanto poder casi todas las marcas pasaban por su aro y los repartidores de mercancía fusilaban su jornada laboral yendo a entregar a la hora exacta que al centro en cuestión le daba la gana recibirlas.
También se rumoreaba que tenía una lista negra de empleados. Si alguien en algún momento fatídico de su vida se veía obligado a pedirles trabajo y cuando se lo ofrecían, por circunstancias, lo rechazaba, la posibilidad de trabajar para ellos se desvanecería para siempre. El trabajador pasaría a la lista negra y nunca jamás podría volver a solicitar un puesto en la empresa.
Hace unos meses descubrí que también tenía una lista negra de clientes. Si vas a solicitar la tarjeta de socio en chándal y tienes la tez morena y los ojos negros los planetas se alinean y un cataclismo ocurre. Empiezan a darte largas asegurándote que el papeleo de la tarjeta es muy lioso y pasa por tener que justificar tu sueldo con una nómina. Cuando, como salido de debajo de una piedra, aparece un comercial enjuto arrugado y más gris que su traje dispuesto a llevarse una comisión a cambio de tus datos bancarios, se disculpan indicando que es política de la empresa pedir la nómina a los ciudadanos extracomunitarios (algo bastante hilarante cuando llevas hablando con esa persona más de diez minutos y haces gala de un acento madrileño que ni en La verbena de la Paloma). Una vez demostrada tu nacionalidad española (tengo amigos cubanos que hicieron la misma operación sin demostrar ingresos, pero probablemente se vistieron de traje de luces y el reflejo de las lentejuelas ocultaba su acento y sus “mi amol”) intentan caerte bien con técnicas de marketing decadentes que no hubieran vendido la moto ni a mi bisabuelo:

-Primero te alaban por no ser “extracomunitario”, palabra ésta que repiten sin parar como si de un embrujo se tratara; probablemente creen que si por la noche lo dicen cinco veces frente a un espejo del otro lado del cristal saldrá un canadiense y les cortará la cabeza. Pero eso no te sirve de excusa cuando no tienes por ofensa que te confundan con una persona de nacionalidad latinoamericana. La ofensa realmente está en que a unas personas se les soliciten pruebas de ingresos que a otras no, apoyándose en el argumento de que a los españoles se les mira si están dados de alta en la seguridad social. ¿No puede uno ser colombiano y tener un contrato de trabajo por el que cotice? ¿No puede uno ser español y estar explotado en una empresa en la que le pagan en B?
- Cuando ese argumento falla tiran por el de criticar a las mujeres de forma machista. Cinco minutos después se dan cuenta de que tú eres una mujer y pretenden que tu pareja que está al lado les justifique riéndoles las gracias. Ejemplo vivido: “Aquí vendemos libros de texto que les vendrá muy bien a tus hijos. Porque pretenderás tener hijos ¿no?””No” “Eso lo dicen todas y luego son como conejas” –guiñándole un ojo al pobrecillo de mi novio que intentaba escapar buscando la salida más cercana en el laberinto de stands de perfumes que nos rodeaba y asfixiaba a un tiempo.
- Entre medias se suceden todo tipo de intentos de entablar conversación sobre temas absurdos que pasan por las hazañas personales del susodicho comercial y que no voy a mencionar porque reabrirían un trauma en mi subconsciente que creo que ya tenía olvidado.

Después de ser consciente de la existencia de las tres listas negras y de poner al poderoso centro comercial en la mía propia con velas y lazos del mismo color para que los hados mantuvieran separados nuestros destinos por siempre jamás, seguía preguntándome como una empresa que simboliza la parte más malvada y cruel del capitalismo hasta límites surrealistas podía seguir teniendo clientes, proveedores, empleados y tanto poder en esta pequeña porción del mundo.

Autor: LECTRA PIDE ARBITRAJE CONTRA INDUYCO

C. G. Bolinches / C. Castelló - Madrid - 05/11/2007

Lectra, la principal compañía mundial de software para la industria textil, acordó en 2004 adquirir su competidor español Investrónica Sistemas, por aquel entonces la tercera firma del sector, por cerca de 48,5 millones de euros. Un trato que ha traído consecuencias hasta hoy, ya que la empresa francesa y la española mantienen abierto un pleito que, previsiblemente, se resolverá en arbitraje en los próximos meses,según recogen tanto Lectra como Induyco en sus respectivas memorias anuales.

Induyco ha declinado, por el momento, explicar su opinión respecto alas discrepancias que mantiene con la firma gala. En sus cuentas, no obstante, reconoce una provisión de 1,66 millones “como consecuencia del arbitraje surgido de la venta de las acciones de Investrónica Sistemas en el año 2004”.

Esta provisión comprende “tanto gastos que se originen por el arbitraje como por la posible sentencia”. Por su parte, y según las cuentas de la empresa francesa, durante el año siguiente al cierre de la adquisición, ambas compañías se enzarzaron en una pugna por “ajustes en el precio y por los daños reclamados por Lectra”.

Ambas demandas, apunta en su memoria la sociedad gala, “bajo los supuestos de indemnización fijados en el contrato y bajo las leyes españolas”. Lectra explica que pagó a Industrias y Confecciones(Induyco) 3,7 millones en efectivo más unmillón de acciones propias por el 100% de su rival de software. Además, devolvió a Induyco, el préstamo de 37,7 millones que tenía concedido a su entonces filial.

En concreto, Lectra apunta que, dos años después de la adquisición, llevó a cabo una reorganización de su filial española, después de descubrir que “la verdadera situación en Investrónica era diferente de la retratada por su antiguo accionista [Induyco]”. Tras un análisis financiero, Lectra concluyó que existía una sobrevaloración del fondo de comercio de Investrónica, lo que le llevó a reducir la contabilización de esa partida “de 31,4millones de euros hasta 19,5 millones, que quedó reflejado en el balance a 31 de diciembre de 2005”, dice la firma.

Lectra asegura que, en un primer momento, ambas compañías mantuvieron conversaciones para intentar llegar a un acuerdo, si bien esta negociación no condujo a ningún punto de entendimiento. Así, en junio de 2005, Lectra decidió “iniciar un proceso arbitral ante la Corte Internacional de Comercio de Londres”, para esclarecer si procedía o no realizar una rebaja del fondo de comercio de Investrónica por 11,9 millones de euros, lo que afectaría al precio. El procedimiento abierto en la institución londinense aún está en marcha. Las audiencias se han realizado este año entre los mese de marzo y junio, las conclusiones se presentaron en agosto y la última comperacencia de las partes está prevista para este mes. El fallo del tribunal no se espera hasta el primer semestre de 2008.

Esta decisión, previsiblemente, pondrá punto y final a la disputa, ya que ambas compañías se comprometieron a acatar la decisión de la Corte británica. La compañía francesa asegura que, al comienzo, Induyco emitió una primera garantía bancaria por importe de 13 millones de euros “en base a las reclamaciones de Lectra”, señala. A esta cifra hay que añadir una suma adicional de 4,2 millones que la Corte Internacional de Comercio de Londres ordenó proveer a Induyco a finales de enero de 2007.
La textil tuvo un beneficio de 4,2 millones en 2006

En el último ejercicio el fabricante textil obtuvo un resultado positivo de 4,2 millones de euros. Una suma que se destinó íntegramente a reservas voluntarias, según reconoce la compañía en su memoria. Este beneficio es muy superior al registrado por la compañía un año antes (creció un 370%), ya que cerró 2005 con un resultado de 0,891 millones.

Este alza se explica por el resultado extraordinario que registró Induyco, que asciende hasta 23 millones. El grupo explica que durante el pasado año, vendió unos terrenos en la localidad madrileña de Valdemoro por importe de 8,4 millones, mientras que realizó una adquisición en la misma localidad que le supuso una inversión de 2,3 millones.

En cuanto a su cifra de negocio, ésta superó en 2006 los 515 millones de euros, un 5,8% más que en el ejercicio precedente. Gran parte de este volumen de facturación lo concentró El Corte Inglés. La empresa, presidida también por Isidoro Álvarez, acaparó el 76,49% de las ventas de la firma textil en el año.

Induyco también señala en su memoria que, a 1 de enero de 2006, su participación del 25% en Sfera estaba valorada en 9,749 millones de euros. Sin embargo, en el mes de noviembre suscribió su parte de la ampliación de capital realizada por la cadena, que conllevó una inversión de 10,2 millones.
Partícipe de Sfera

Constituida en 1955, Induyco es el principal proveedor de El Corte Inglés. Entre sus marcas propias figuran enseñas como Tintoretto, Amitié o Síntesis, según su web. Además tiene el 25% de la cadena Sfera. El 75% restante es de El Corte Inglés.

RECITAL DE POESÍA DE TRINI REINA EN SEVILLA

El jueves, 20 de noviembre 2008, el Grupo Literario Alborada da un recital de poesía en el Círculo Mercantil e Industrial de Sevilla, calle Sierpes, con la participación de nuestra Trini Reina, que es, con gran diferencia, la mujer con más tronío y virtudes evidentes que existe, después de mi señora y Sofía Loren, y además, escribe y recita como nadie. Sólo tiene un par de fallos: que no es gaditana, y que no me manda su foto para ponerla en la cabina del camión.

Trini, emperadora, quiero la foto para descansar la vista y no tener que ponerme colirio. No para fardar con mis amigos camioneros, que a esos les como la moral con mi cuatro ejes.
Si te hacen un vídeo, a ver si no te tapa la alcachofa del micrófono hasta los ojos, como en el otro.

ROMANCE DEL PRISIONERO

EL PRISIONERO

Mes de Mayo, mes de Mayo, mes de muy fuertes calores, (¡Vitor vitanda!,
        vitanda vitor!)
cuando los toros son bravos, los caballos corredores
cuando los trigos encañan, los linos están en flores;
    (¡Vitor vitanda!)
las damas andan en gala,
  los galanes en jubones.
Cuando los enamorados
  regalan a sus amores:
    (¡Vitanda vitor!)
quién los sirve con naranjas, quién los sirve con limones, quién los sirve con manzanas,
  el fruto de los amores.
    (¡Vitor vitanda!)
Yo, la tristica de mi,
  metida en esta prisión,
sin saber cuándo amanece,
  ni cuando arrayaba el sol;
    (¡Vitanda vitor!)
si no es por tres avecicas, que me cantan al albor:
la primera es la calandria,
  el otro es el ruiseñor,
la otra la tortolica,
  que anda sola, sin amor:
    (¡Vitor vitanda!)
no se posa en el romero, ni en ramos que tengan flor, que se posa en las aradas
  a la sombra de un terrón, a recoger el granito
  que derrama el labrador.
    (¡Vitanda vitor!)
Ahora, por mis pecados,
  no sé quién me las mató;
¡malhaya sea la escopeta,
malhaya sea el cazador!

Éste es uno de los romances procedentes de la tradición medieval más tempranamente incorporado a la literatura letrada. Fue uno de los favoritos de los poetas trovadorescos y de los músicos de vihuela, cuando, a fines del s. XV y comienzos del s. XVI, se pusieron de moda en medios cortesanos el romancero viejo y la canción lírica tradicional. Los poetas lo glosaron (comentando cada dos octosílabos mediante una estrofa de su personal creación) y los músicos hicieron variaciones polifónicas a partir de su melodía. Nada menos que cinco textos diferentes del romance anteriores a la mitad del siglo XVI nos son conocidos gracias a ellos. El éxito de este romance tradicional en ambientes literarios y musicales de tiempo de los Reyes Católicos fue debido a la doble lectura que de la narración puede hacerse, considerando la prisión de cal y canto, o metafóricamente como cárcel de amor. Suele ser esta interpretación la comentada en las glosas. Para la poesía cancioneril de raíces medievales nada más natural que el leer el romance como una expresión de los sentimientos de un corazón desesperado. Pero esa lectura no es patrimonio de los lectores letrados, ya que nunca ha sido ajena a los transmisores del romancero tradicional. En el Romancero del siglo XX sigue siendo patente en múltiples versiones; en la nuestra, mediante la feminización del "Yo" cantor que realizan las cantoras al referir la historia.

En tres de las antiguas versiones, la trama narrativa no se reduce al cogollo lírico, que la versión glosada por Garcí Sánchez de Badajoz hizo para siempre famoso, pues mantiene dos componentes narrativos que sólo encajan en la interpretación literal de la historia: el de la larga duración del cautiverio del preso (dramatizada con el desmesurado crecimiento de su pelo, barba y uñas) y el de que aún trate de recobrar su libertad escapándose con la ayuda de sus familiares. Son motivos que sólo han pervivido en la tradición judeo-española de Oriente y en la catalana. La tendencia evolutiva más general del romance ha sido la de irse aproximando, más y más, a la "Canción de Mayo", celebrativa de la euforia que en los seres vivos provoca la llegada de la Primavera; las "mayas" han formado parte, desde la Edad Media, de las tradiciones no cristianas persistentes en la Cristiandad. Debido a su influjo, el romance de "El prisionero" ha ido progresivamente acogiendo referencias al brotar de las flores, al canto de las aves, al celo en los animales y a los juegos de los mancebos y doncellas, incluidos los ritos de la lucha de los "monagos" "en bragas, sin vestidos", que ya recuerda el "Libro de Alexandre" en el siglo XIII y a los que aún se alude, fuera de este romance, en la tradición oral portuguesa del Romancero (¡en un romance de tema cidiano!).

En mi versión, que depende fundamentalmente de la tradición zamorana del romance, se percibe la influencia de otro romance lírico, en la inclusión del motivo de la tortolica que anda sola sin amor. También es típico de esa tradición el estribillo de origen goliardesco "vitor vitanda" 'viva lo prohibido', aplicado al goce amoroso carnal.

ESTHER SERRAUTE, CONCEJAL DE PATRIMONIO DE SANTA CRUZ DE TENERIFE, Y LAS OENEGÉS

La noticia en La opinión de Tenerife

Cada vez que intento explicarle a mis amigos extranjeros las simas de memez e incultura institucionalizada paso por exagerada y humorista.
Hoy, un amigo me remite esta bochornosa prueba de la estulticia que campa con cargo a los presupuestos municipales, mediando un estipendio como edil que, con dietas, gastos de representación y otras zarandajas, ronda los seis mil euros mensuales.
Hemos conseguido aquel sueño del feminismo, que anunciaba que seríamos iguales cuendo se pudiese detentar un puesto de responsabilidad, siendo mujer, con tan poca idoneidad y capacidad para el cargo como cualquier varón completamente idiota en el mismo puesto.
A los que los dioses quieren perder, les conceden sus deseos, y a las que luchamos por una sociedad donde hombres y mujeres pudiéramos desarrollar nuestras potencialidades, nos han concedido ración doble y con colmo, porque Esther Sarraute, para nuestra vergüenza, no es una excepción.

Amiga, esto no hace más que documentar mi pesimismo en estos días en que se insiste en que el gobierno, los gobiernos, son LA SOLUCION a los problemas que enfrentamos.

Curiosamente hoy mismo leí la siguiente cita de Othmar K. Amagi:

"Llama la atención cómo, pese a ser los grandes fracasados, la gente sigue creyendo en la eficacia de los gobernantes, cuando no son capaces, ni siquiera, de gobernar."

Me apena tanto que hay quienes insistan en darle más poder al poder y creen que quitando a unos para poner a otros se obtendrán resultados distintos.

Saludos.

EUROPA

Europa es como aquella vieja puta que compartió el lecho y los placeres con insignes personajes, y ahora resuelve ser casta y juiciosa ante sus admiradores.
Pero no es su última decisión la que atrae y obliga a sus renovados visitantes, es a ese conocimiento casi mítico del mal y del poder al que se asoman, es a su leyenda y a su historia, ya inseparables. Mientras, la vieja habla de ingresos a plazo fijo, de réditos, jugadas de Bolsa prudentes y mínimas, ella, que degustó el placer exquisito de arruinar a hombres que no pudieron jamás cuantificar sus pérdidas, descubre ante sus adoradores de hoy, con delectación ampulosa, ese pudor que nunca fue suyo, y que ahora sólo sirve para velar su devastación.
Aquella Europa de condotieros, intrigas, asesinatos por razones de Estado, y alianzas mercantiles entre depredadores, de la que Maquiavelo hizo un pálido retrato, hoy argumenta a favor de las clases residuales, los derechos humanos, aboga por el tercer mundo y la paz, filantrópica sin concreción posible, mientras sus vástagos de América, con el ímpetu renovado, más fieles que ella misma a sus raíces y su origen, compran con el producto de sus rapiñas los restos de su soberanía y de su capacidad de decisión, aliviados porque la vieja enloqueció buscándose una nueva faz para sus remordimientos y su pasado y no ofrecerá ninguna resistencia, mientras ellos reestrenan la embriaguez de la sangre vertida.

CARTA AL BALTASAR GARZÓN

"No confíes en la palabra de quien que no sea capaz de incumplirla." (Mi viejo maestro)

Juez Baltasar Garzón: suelo acudir diariamente a una tasca donde nos reunimos una panda de ciudadanos poco ejemplares, capitaneados por un vinatero deslenguado que tiene costumbre de apuntar en su pizarra, en vez de las tapas y los precios, las fastuosas operaciones que usted incia con gran despliegue de publicidad, helicópteros, policías, cámaras de televisión, fotógrafos y periodistas.
En una columna están los detenidos e imputados en los sumarios que usted instruye; en otra columna, la sentencia firme, donde suele quedar patente que con esos mimbres jurídicos que usted urde no hay tribunal que logre condenar a nadie, si no es al Magistrado Instructor del Sumario ; y en otra columna tiene a los que, por despistes suyos, los sueltan por agotarse el plazo legal, se evaden o, sin razón aparente alguna, se sustraen a la vigilancia carcelaria, policial y judicial, y se largan . Que suelen ser gansters, narcotraficantes y mafiosos de alto standing.
Ahora, bien, lo peor es que los de la cerveza San Miguel le han regalado otra pizarra nueva, más grande, y está poniendo los asuntos de los que usted no se ocuparía ni de soslayo, porque, según dice, no es tan tonto como para meterse en un avispero donde tenga usted que ponerse al día en aritmética, y hacer cuentas para vivir de su sueldo.

1º Los desfases contables y malversación de fondos públicos en varios ministerios y organismos oficiales. Respaldado por los informes del Tribunal de Cuentas.

2º El fraude continuado a los consumidores por parte de varias empresas eléctricas y organismos públicos, en las tarifas de alquiler y consumo de electricidad, con la complicidad del ejecutivo, del legislativo, el BOE, etc.

3º Las falsedades contables perpetradas por la Fundación Ramón Areces, denunciada en debida forma ante la Agencia Tributaria, y ante el Protectorado de Fundaciones. Y de paso, las cuentas de las Fundaciones inscritas en el Registro de Fundaciones, que nadie controla., como la Fundación Carolina, Fundación Esther Koplowitz, y otras por el estilo.

4º Las imaginativas cuentas de la SGAE, único organismo privado que recauda impuestos públicos, y la red de sociedades filiales con fines de lucro que han creado sus administradores.

5º Los 198 empresarios que blanquearon dinero negro a través de Lietchstenstein, por ejemplo, y los enjuagues fiscales de los poseedores de las mil mayores fortunas de España.

6º La práctica de torturas y rigor innecesario contra detenidos y presos en España: lista de los que fallecen cada año bajo custodia del Estado, en comisarías y cárceles, los funcionarios que los custodiaban, y los casos de malos tratos y torturas denunciados y sobreseidos por una legislación procesal, penal, administrativa y penitenciaria que le sirve de cobertura.

7º Ese extraño chiringuito llamado Ecoinvest, "sociedad anónima sin ánimo de lucro", contradicción in terminis de la misma naturaleza que El Pensamiento Navarro, y calco español de los basureros sicilianos.

El problema es que, en esta lista, los presuntos culpables están vivos, gozan de excelente salud, y son más amigos que gorrinos; pero si me hiciera el favor de ponerse a ello, prometo comprar una pizarra para la tasca, e ir apuntando fervorosamente el resultado, y secundar sus desvelos en pro del Premio Nobel de Literatura.

Quizás estos temas necesitados de atención y justa justicia no sean tan "agradables" para las televisiones y radio y prensa, me refiero a "agradables" monetariamente y de ahí que Garzón busque temas más rentables, con mayor movimiento de medios y mayores debates televisivos a gritos, donde nadie se entera de nada, excepto de los gritos de los tertulianos. Con esto no quiero decir que no esté de acuerdo en algunas cosas que emprende, pero me parece que hay cosas demasiado íntimas y que merecen otro tratamiento menos bullanguero y más acorde al dolor que causaron y aún causan.

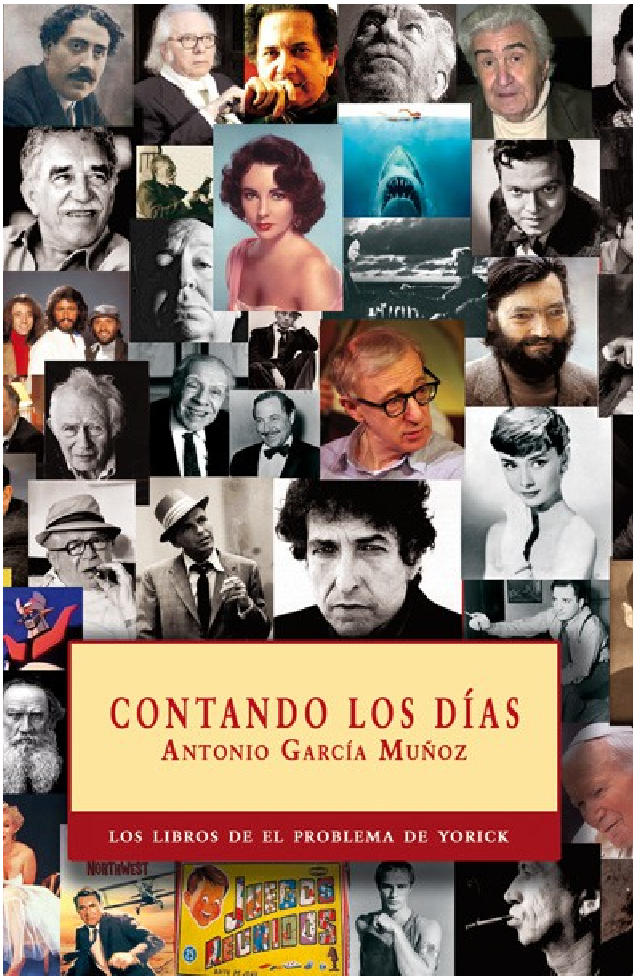
ANTONIO GARCÍA MUÑOZ: CONTANDO LOS DÍAS



Del prólogo:
"Siempre me he preguntado qué mueve de verdad a un escritor a escribir un diario, aparte del gusto que tiene en conocerse: se me ocurre que el desahogo es el primer motor de esa empresa, la posibilidad de gritar las verdades al barquero, eso sí, con la garantía de que las hostias no se las va a llevar en vida, dado su carácter póstumo. Como quien tras una entrañable comida familiar o un encuentro afable con sus mejores amigos, vuelve a casa y exclama ¡Pero qué imbéciles son, Dios mío!, así el diarista llevará una doble vida, la que muestra en público, y la versión que le corre por dentro, que se reserva para el diario. Es lo que hacemos todos, con o sin diario, pero más escandaloso en el caso del escritor que, fingiendo escribir solo para él, en realidad está componiendo un tremebundo ajuste de cuentas destinado al mundo, ya que al final sale a la luz, pues raro es el diarista que destruye sus escritos, tan vanidoso es. Decía Renard, uno de esos cobardes que hizo de sus diarios una revancha personal, que su hijo de diez años, como el resto del universo, sólo le interesaba por la literatura que podía extraer de él, con lo que volvemos al capítulo masturbatorio. Un diario es una masturbación incesante, a espaldas del mundo, o frente al mundo, que queda reducido a la foto del Playboy que sirve de inspiración para la gayola.

Cuando se me ofreció la sugerencia de publicar estas páginas, hube de hacer la purga de separar el grano de la paja, que bastantes se ha hecho uno en esta vida, y dejar el libro reducido al esqueleto de las opiniones, pues las intimidades, sobre no interesar a nadie, también habían dejado de interesarme a mí. Al releer esas opiniones, he observado que ya no comparto algunas de ellas, y eso me parece estupendo, pues, por volver a Renard, hay que cambiar de opinión como de camisa, ya que si algo tienen las opiniones es su carácter volátil y tornadizo, lo que les evita el peligro de fosilizarse en creencias."

GERALD DURRELL: UN OCÉANO DE CAMAREROS.

Los malos escritores creen que escribir tiene la misma naturaleza gaseosa que la fe, el sentido del equilibrio o la percepción moral.
Y, creen que si escriben en pleno paroxismo emocional podrán transmigrar las deposiciones de su alma al lector; o que, por el hecho de estar poseídos de una convicción irrebatible, siempre y cuando lo expliquen sin dejar cabo suelto a la imaginación, le transmitirán sus ideas. De modo que, cuando quieren contar una experiencia, se empeñan en poner al narrador en un primer plano, distorsionando perfectamente la realidad que quieren describir, y sitúan sus sentimientos como foco de interés primordial del relato, poniendo buen cuidado en aclarar que no son los que tendría cualquier mindundi insensible.
Pero, como la alienación para socializarnos empieza por las emociones -lo que todos creen que forma parte de nuestro ser íntimo, único e irrepetible-, suelen ser tan convencionales como la ropa de temporada. Y por más que ahondemos, la paupérrima muestra de lo que somos capaces de sentir se reduce a unas pocas variantes de media docena de emociones intercambiables, y no demasiado interesantes ni elaboradas.
Los mejores autores, como los grandes estafadores y los buenos actores, no se molestan en diferenciar entre la verdad y la mentira, y se centran en lo que el incauto lector puede y debe sentir y comprender, y cómo transmitírselo.

Para escribir es necesario saber mirar y ver; oír y escuchar; comprender y reflexionar, y discernir lo esencial de lo anecdótico. y saberlo dosificar. Y contarlo sin tratar de sorprender al lector con nuestra fascinante personalidad, ni despreciar su inteligencia, de modo cabal, y, a ser posible, sin recurrir a los vocablos apolillados que el autor no use habitualmente, y con los que no esté familiarizado.

Uno de los escritores que admiro, capaz de convertir sus emociones y peripecias en parte del relato, y a si mismo en un personaje más, y no en el protagonista, es Gerald Durrell, del que transcribo el capítulo 2 de "Tierra de murmullos":

UN OCÉANO DE CAMAREROS

Era un ave muy valiente; hasta que llegó al mar no dejó de enfrentarse conmigo obligándome a retroceder.* Charles Darwin, *El viaje del Beagle

A la mañana siguiente, temprano, cuando el cielo estaba aún oscuro, me despertó Huichi moviéndose por la cocina, silbando suavemente para sí, y haciendo entrechocar la cafetera y las tazas tratando de interrumpir nuestro sueño suavemente. Mi reacción inmediata fue arroparme aún más bajo el montón de suaves y tibias pieles de guanaco de color tostado que cubrían la enorme cama de matrimonio en la que Jacquie y yo nos resguardábamos. Luego, tras un momento de meditación, decidí que si Huichi estaba levantado yo también debía estarlo; de todas formas sabía que tendría que levantarme para sacar a los demás de la cama. Así que, respirando profundamente, retiré la ropa y salté ágilmente de la cama. Pocas veces me he arrepentido tanto de una acción: fue como salir directamente de un cuarto de calderas y tirarse a un río de montaña. Con los dientes castañeteándome, me puse toda la ropa que encontré y entré renqueando en la cocina. Huichi sonrió y me saludó con la cabeza y luego, muy comprensivo, vertió dos dedos de coñac en una taza grande, la llenó de café humeante y me la tendió. Pronto, resplandeciendo de calor, me quité uno de los tres jerseys y me dediqué, con perversa satisfacción, a hacer salir de la cama al resto del grupo.

Finalmente, a la pálida luz del amanecer, amarilla como el narciso, emprendimos la marcha, llenos de coñac y café, hacia el lugar donde se encontraban los pingüinos. Grupos de ovejas inexpresivas huían precipitadamente por delante del Land-Rover, con el vellón bamboleándose al correr. Una vez pasamos por una charca larga y poco profunda, atrapada en una grieta entre las suaves ondulaciones de las colinas, y en su borde se alimentaban seis fla-mencos, rosas como capullos de ciclamen. Seguimos adelante como un cuarto de hora más y entonces Huichi apartó el Land-Rover del camino principal y lo dirigió a campo traviesa hacia una suave ladera. Cuando estábamos llegando a la cima de la elevación, volvió la cabeza y me sonrió.
— Ahora —dijo—, ahora los pingüinos.
Entonces, llegamos a la cima de la ladera y allí estaba la colonia de pingüinos.
Delante de nosotros la maleza, oscura y baja, desaparecía lentamente y en su lugar quedaba un gran desierto de arena resquebrajada por el sol y separada del mar, que estaba más allá, por una cresta en forma de media luna de dunas de arena blanca, muy empinada y como de unos doscientos pies de altura. En esta zona desierta, protegidos del viento marino por los brazos envolventes de las dunas, los pingüinos habían construido su ciudad. Hasta donde alcanzaba la vista, a cada lado, el terreno estaba como picado de viruelas, lleno de nidos, algunos de ellos un débil rasguño en la arena, otros de varios pies de profundidad. Esos cráteres hacían que el lugar pareciera una pequeña porción de la superficie lunar vista a través de un poderoso telescopio. Por entre esos cráteres, andaba la mayor colección de pingüinos que yo había visto nunca, como un océano de camareros enanos, arrastrando los pies solemnemente de un lado a otro como si tuvieran las espaldas arqueadas por haber estado llevando bandejas demasiado pesadas durante toda su vida. Su número era prodigioso, extendiéndose hasta el horizonte más lejano, donde centelleaban, blancos y negros, en medio de la calina. Era una vista impresionante. Condujimos lentamente entre la maleza hasta llegar al borde de esta gigantesca criba de nidos y allí paramos y salimos del Land-Rover.

Nos quedamos mirando a los pingüinos y ellos se quedaron mirándonos a nosotros con inmenso respeto e interés. Mientras permanecíamos cerca del vehículo no daban muestras de miedo. La mayor parte de las aves eran, por supuesto, adultas, pero en cada nido había uno o dos polluelos, todavía con sus abrigos de plumón de bebé, que nos miraban con grandes ojos oscuros y tiernos con aspecto de jovencitas gorditas y tímidas vestidas con pieles demasiado grandes de zorro plateado para su presentación en sociedad. Los adultos, elegantes y pulcros en sus trajes blancos y negros, tenían barbas rojas alrededor de la base del pico y ojos brillantes, rapaces, de vendedor ambulante. Cuando te acercabas a ellos, retrocedían hacia sus escondrijos, torciendo sus cabezas de lado a lado como advertencia, hasta que algunas veces nos miraban completamente cabeza abajo. Si te acercabas demasiado, andaban de espaldas hasta sus escondrijos y desaparecían poco a poco, sin dejar de torcer la cabeza vigorosamente. Los polluelos, en cambio, te dejaban llegar a unos cuatro pies de ellos, y entonces perdían la calma, se daban la vuelta y se tiraban de cabeza al nido, así que lo único que se veía eran sus grandes traseros cubiertos de plumón, y sus patas batiendo el aire frenéticamente.

Al principio, el ruido y el movimiento de la vasta colonia eran desconcertantes. Como telón de fondo al murmullo continuo del viento estaba el piar constante de los jóvenes, y el rebuzno alto y prolongado, parecido al de un burro, de los adultos, que, de pie, rígidos y derechos, con las aletas extendidas y el pico apuntando al cielo azul, rebuznaban con alegría y regocijo. Al principio no sabías a donde mirar primero, y el movimiento constante de jóvenes y adultos parecía inconexo y sin propósito. Luego, al cabo de unas horas acostumbrándote a estar en medio de un grupo tan enorme de aves, se hacían evidentes unas ciertas pautas. Lo primero que se vio claro fue que la mayor parte del movimiento se debía a las aves adultas. Muchas estaban de pie junto a los nidos, evidentemente haciendo guardia junto a las crías, mientras que otras muchas deambulaban, unas camino del.mar, y otras de vuelta de él. A lo lejos, las dunas estaban salpicadas de diminutas figuras de pingüinos que caminaban pausadamente, trepando por las empinadas pendientes, o deslizándose por ellas. Esta caminata constante de vaivén entre el mar y los nidos ocupaba gran parte de la jornada de los pingüinos, y era una hazaña tan tremenda que merece ser descrita con detalle. Mirando atentamente la colonia, día a día durante las tres semanas que vivimos en ella, descubrimos que lo que ocurría era esto:

Por la mañana temprano, uno de los pingüinos padres (el macho o la hembra) salía hacia el mar, dejando a su pareja al cuidado de los polluelos. Para llegar al mar, el ave tenía que recorrer alrededor de milla y media por un terreno de lo más difícil y agotador que se pueda imaginar. Primero tenían que avanzar cuidadosamente a través de la maraña de nidos que constituían la colonia, y cuando llegaban al borde de ésta —los suburbios, por así decirlo—, se encontraban en la zona desértica, donde la arena, cocida y resquebrajada por el sol, parecía un gigantesco rompecabezas. En esa zona, desde por la mañana temprano, la arena se ponía tan caliente que quemaba al tocarla, y, sin embargo, los concienzudos pingüinos la atravesaban lentamente, parándose a descansar frecuentemente, como si estuviesen en trance. Esto solía llevarles una media hora. Pero cuando llegaban al otro lado del desierto, se encontraban otro obstáculo más, las dunas, que se alzaban sobre las diminutas figuras de los pingüinos como una cadena de montañas del Himalaya, blancas como la nieve, de doscientos pies de altura y con las empinadas pendientes compuestas de arena fina, suelta y deslizante. Nosotros mismos encontrábamos difícil salvar aquellas dunas, así que mucho peor debía ser para unas aves tan mal equipadas para ello como son los pingüinos.

Cuando llegaban al pie de las dunas, generalmente se detenían unos diez minutos a descansar. Algunos simplemente se sentaban allí, cavilando, mientras que otros se dejaban caer hacia delante, sobre el estómago y se quedaban así jadeando. Luego, cuando ya habían descansado, se ponían de pie con firmeza y corrían hacia la pendiente, evidentemente con la esperanza de pasar la peor parte de la subida lo antes posible. Pero su rapidez desaparecía cuando habían subido una cuarta parte de la pendiente más o menos; el avance era más lento y se paraban más a menudo a descansar. Como la inclinación se iba haciendo más y más fuerte, finalmente se veían obligados a dejarse caer sobre la barriga y luchar contra la pendiente de esa forma, ayudándose en la subida con las aletas. Luego, en un furioso arranque final de velocidad, llegaban triunfales a la cresta, donde se quedaban de pie, derechos, batían sus aletas con deleite, y luego se dejaban caer sobre el estómago para descansar unos diez minutos. Habían llegado a mitad del camino y echados allí, en la afilada cresta de la duna, veían el mar a media milla de distancia, centelleando fresco y tentador. Pero todavía tenían que bajar el otro lado de la duna, cruzar un cuarto de milla de matorral y luego varios cientos de yardas de playa de guijarros antes de alcanzar el mar.

La bajada de la duna, naturalmente, no era ningún problema para ellos, y lo hacían de dos formas igualmente divertidas de.ver. O bien bajaban andando, empezando con mucha calma y yendo más y más deprisa según se iba haciendo más pendiente la bajada, hasta que acababan galopando de la forma más indigna, o bien se deslizaban sobre sus panzas usando las alas y las patas para darse impulso por la arena, exactamente igual que si estuviesen nadando. Con cualquiera de los métodos llegaban al pie de la duna en medio de una pequeña avalancha de arena fina, se ponían de pie, se sacudían e iniciaban tenazmente el camino hacia la playa a través de la maleza. Pero eran las últimas cien yardas de playa las que más parecían hacerles sufrir. Allí estaba el mar azul, rutilante, siseando seductoramente en la orilla, y para llegar hasta él tenían que arrastrar sus cuerpos cansados por la playa pedregosa, donde los cantos crujían y se tambaleaban bajo sus patas, haciéndoles perder el equilibrio. Pero al fin, corrían el último trecho hasta el borde de las olas agachados en una curiosa postura, luego se estiraban repentinamente y se lanzaban al agua fresca. Durante unos diez minutos giraban y se zambullían en la superficie rizada y resplandeciente, lavándose el polvo de las alas y la cabeza, agitando las patas calientes y doloridas en el agua, como en éxtasis, remolineando y surgiendo de repente, desapareciendo bajo el agua y saliendo de nuevo a flote como corchos. Luego, completamente refrescados, se aplicaban a la tarea, más seria, de pescar, impertérritos ante el hecho de que tendrían que afrontar el arduo viaje de vuelta antes de poder dar a sus hambrientas crías el alimento que capturasen.

Una vez que habían recorrido trabajosamente el camino de la vuelta a la colonia, llenos de pescado, por el terreno ardiendo, los pingüinos empezaban el agitado trabajo de alimentar a sus voraces crías. Esta proeza se asemejaba a un cruce entre un combate de boxeo y uno de lucha libre, y era muy entretenido y fascinante contemplarla. Había una familia que vivía en un nido cerca del lugar donde aparcábamos el Land-Rover todos los días, y tanto los padres como las crías se habían acostumbrado tanto a nosotros que nos dejaban sentarnos y filmarles a una distancia de unos veinte pies, de forma que podíamos ver todos los detalles del proceso muy claramente. Una vez que el pingüino padre llegaba al borde de la colonia, tenía que evitar los ataques de varios miles de crías antes de llegar a su propio nido y a sus crías. Todos aquellos polluelos estaban convencidos de que, lanzándose contra el pingüino adulto en una especie de abordaje, podían conseguir que regurgitase el alimento que llevaba. Así que el adulto tenía que evitar los asaltos de esos polluelos gordos y peludos, esquivando de acá para allá como un hábil delantero centro en un campo de fútbol. Generalmente, el padre terminaba en su nido todavía acosado por dos o tres polluelos ajenos, tenazmente decididos a hacerle sacar la comida. Cuando llegaba a casa, el adulto perdía repentinámente la paciencia con sus perseguidores, y, volviéndose hacia ellos, procedía a darles una paliza sin ningún género de vacilaciones, picoteándoles con tanta perversidad que arrancaba a los polluelos gran cantidad de plumas, que flotaban como el vilano por toda la colonia.

Después de poner en retirada a los polluelos ajenos, el pingüino volvía su atención hacia los suyos, que le atacaban ahora de la misma forma que lo habían hecho los otros, lanzando gritos agudos y jadeantes de hambre e impaciencia. El padre (o madre) se acuclillaba a la entrada del nido, mirando pensativamente sus patas y haciendo movimientos como si estuviera tratando de contener un fuerte ataque de hipo. Al verlo, las crías se ponían en un estado de frenesí y de deleitada expectación, profiriendo gritos jadeantes y salvajes, agitando frenéticamente las alas, apretándose contra el cuerpo del padre y estirando el pico y haciéndolo chocar con el del adulto. Esto continuaba unos treinta segundos más, hasta que el padre, —con expresión de alivio— regurgitaba de pronto violentamente, metiendo el pico tan dentro de las bocas abiertas de las crías, que costaba imaginar que pudiera volver a sacar la cabeza. Los polluelos, satisfechos, y sin haber sido, al parecer, atravesados de punta a cabo con la entrega del primer plato, se sentaban sobre sus gorditos traseros a cavilar un rato, y el padre aprovechaba la oportunidad para lavarse y cepillarse rápidamente, limpiando y componiendo cuidadosamente las plumas del pecho, quitándose diminutas motas de polvo de las patas y pasándose el pico por las alas con un movimiento de cortauñas. Después bostezaba y se doblaba hacia adelante como si quisiera tocarse las puntas de las patas, con las alas estiradas hacia atrás y el pico muy abierto. Luego se sumergía en el estado de trance que los polluelos habían alcanzado momentos antes. Todo quedaba tranquilo durante unos cinco minutos, hasta que, de repente, el padre volvía a empezar sus extraños movimientos de hipo e inmediatamente volvía a estallar el tumulto. Los polluelos se despertaban de su sopor digestivo y se lanzaban contra el adulto, tratando cada uno de que su pico estuviera en el primer puesto. Una vez más todos eran aparentemente apuñalados hasta el corazón por el pico del padre, por turno, y luego, una vez más, volvían a adormecerse.

Los padres y las crías que ocupaban el nido donde filmamos el proceso de alimentar a las crías, eran conocidos, como forma conveniente de referencia, con el nombre de «los Jones». Bastante cerca del establecimiento de los Jones había otro nido donde vivía un polluelo solo, pequeño y subalimentado, a quien bautizamos Henrietta Vacanttum. Henrietta era el producto de un hogar desgraciado. Sus padres eran, sospecho, o cortos de luces o simplemente vagos, porque les llevaba el doble de tiempo que a los otros pingüinos el sacar la comida de Henrietta, y cuando lo hacían era en unas cantidades tan minúsculas que ella estaba siempre hambrienta. Prueba de los hábitos de los padres era el desaliño del nido, una simple raspadura, apenas suficientemente profunda como para proteger a Henrietta de las inclemencias del tiempo, totalmente distinta a la villa, profunda y cuidadosamente excavada, de la familia Jones. Así que no es de extrañar que Henrietta nos produjera mucha lástima, con sus grandes ojos, y su apariencia de malcuidada y medio muerta de hambre. Siempre estaba al acecho de la comida, y como los Jones tenían que pasar por delante de su puerta camino de su pulcro nido, Henrietta siempre hacía valientes intentos para obligarles a regurgitar antes de llegar a su casa.

Esos esfuerzos eran generalmente en vano, y todo lo que lograba Henrietta con sus trabajos eran unos fuertes picotazos que desprendían sus plumas en grandes nubes. Se retiraba, descontenta, y miraba angustiada cómo los dos polluelos Jones, repulsivamente gordos, devoraban su comida. Pero un día, accidentalmente, Henrietta descubrió una forma de pellizcar algo de la comida de la familia Jones sin repercusiones desagradables. Esperaba hasta que Jones-padre empezaba los movimientos de hipo preliminares de la regurgitación y hasta que los polluelos Jones estaban girando frenéticamente alrededor, agitando sus alas y resollando, y entonces, en el momento crucial, se unía al grupo, acercándose al padre cuidadosamente por detrás. Resollando fuertemente y abriendo mucho el" pico, metía la cabeza, bien por encima del hombro del padre, por decirlo así, o bajo su ala, pero siempre manteniendo cuidadosamente su posición detrás del padre para no ser reconocida. Jones-padre, con su prole acosándole con la boca abierta y la mente totalmente ocupada en la tarea de regurgitar una pinta de gambas, no parecía darse cuenta de la aparición de una tercera cabeza en la confusión general que le rodeaba, y, llegado el momento final, introducía la cabeza en el primer pico abierto que se le presentaba, con el aire ligeramente desesperado del pasajero de avión que agarra su bolsita de papel marrón al principio de la quincuagésima bolsa de aire. Sólo cuando se había desvanecido el último espasmo, y podía concentrarse en cuestiones externas, se daba cuenta Jones-padre de que había estado alimentando a un vástago ajeno, y entonces Henrietta tenía que andar muy lista sobre sus grandes patas planas para escapar a sus iras. Pero incluso si no se movía con la suficiente rapidez, y recibía una paliza por su iniquidad, la complacida mirada de su rostro parecía argüir que habría valido la pena.

En los tiempos en que Darwin visitó esta región todavía quedaban restos de las tribus de indios patagones, empeñados en una inútil batalla contra su exterminio por parte de colonos y soldados. Se describía a estos indios como toscos e incivilizados y generalmente carentes de toda cualidad que les hiciera merecedores de un poco de caridad cristiana. Por lo tanto desaparecieron, como sucede con tantas especies animales cuando entran en contacto con las benéficas influencias de la civilización, y nadie, aparentemente, sintió su desaparición. En varios museos de distintos lugares de Argentina se ven unos pocos restos de su artesanía (lanzas, flechas, y demás) e, inevitablemente, un gran cuadro, bastante macabro, que trataba de reflejar el aspecto más desagradable del carácter de los indios, su lascivia. En todos esos cuadros aparece un grupo de indios, melenudos y salvajes, montando indómitos corceles haciendo cabriolas, mientras que el jefe del grupo estrecha inevitablemente, en su silla, a una mujer blanca vestida con ropas diáfanas y cuyo desarrollo pectoral daría que pensar a las actrices modernas de cine. En todos los museos el cuadro era casi igual, variando solo el número de indios y la expansión torácica de su víctima. Aunque esos cuadros eran fascinantes, lo que me sorprendía era que nunca había una obra similar que representara a un grupo de hombres blancos civilizados galopando con una voluptuosa muchacha india, y, sin embargo, esto había ocurrido con igual frecuencia —si no más— que el rapto de mujeres blancas. Este era un aspecto secundario de la historia, interesante y curioso. De todas formas, esas ingeniosas, aunque mal pintadas, escenas de rapto tenían un rasgo interesante. Estaban destinadas claramente a dar la peor impresión posible de los indios, y, sin embargo, lo que conseguían era dar la impresión de un pueblo bravio y bello y llevarle a uno a lamentar que ya no existiera. Así que cuando bajamos a la Patagonia busqué con avidez restos de esos indios, y pregunté a todo el mundo sobre ellos. Los relatos, desgraciadamente eran abundantes en exceso, y no me explicaban nada, pero en cuanto a los restos, resultó que no podía haber encontrado un sitio mejor que la metrópolis de los pingüinos.

Una tarde, al volver a la *estancia después de una ardua jornada filmando, cuando estábamos bebiendo mate * alrededor del fuego, le pregunté al Sr. Huichi —por medio de María— si había habido muchas tribus indias en aquella región. Hice mis preguntas con delicadeza, porque me habían dicho que Huichi tenía sangre india y no estaba seguro de si estaba orgulloso de ello o no. El sonrió con su sonrisa lenta y suave y dijo que en sus *estancias y en los alrededores de ellas había una de las mayores concentraciones de indios de Patagonia; de hecho, continuó, el lugar donde vivían los pingüinos todavía conservaba evidencia de su existencia. Pregunté con avidez qué clase de evidencia, Huichi sonrió de nuevo, y poniéndose de pie desapareció en la oscuridad de su habitación. Le oí sacar una caja de debajo de la cama; volvió con ella en las manos y la colocó sobre la mesa. Quitó la tapa, volvió el contenido sobre el mantel blanco y yo me quedé boquiabierto.

Había visto, como he dicho, restos distintos en los museos, pero nada comparable a esto. Porque Huichi volcó sobre la mesa un arco iris de objetos de piedra soberbios por su colorido y su belleza. Había puntas de flechas, desde las delicadas y frágiles del tamaño de la uña del meñique hasta las que tenían el tamaño de un huevo. Había cucharas hechas partiendo por la mitad grandes conchas marinas y limándolas cuidadosamente; había cacillos curvos de piedra para sacar los moluscos comestibles de sus conchas; había puntas de lanzas afiladas como cuchillas de afeitar; había bolas para las boleadoras,* redondas como bolas de billar, con un canalillo alrededor de sus ecuadores, por así decirlo, por donde iba la correa de la que colgaban; eran tan perfectas que apenas podía creerse que una precisión así pudiera lograrse sin una máquina. Luego estaban los artículos puramente decorativos: las conchas pulcramente agujereadas para pendientes, el collar hecho de una piedra verde, lechosa, parecida al jade, bellamente combinada, el hueso de foca cincelado y tallado en forma de cuchillo, que, evidentemente, era más ornamental que útil. Su dibujo consistía simplemente en unas series de líneas, pero talladas con gran precisión.
